The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2817-However, they were far weaker than the powerful figures who entered the ruins of the Ancient Heavenly Court.

After receiving news of James' appearance, Maveth ordered his subordinates not to act rashly.

Rather, they allowed James safe passage.

That was because he learned that James annihilated Yorich's knights in a single move.

Knowing that his subordinates were no match for James, he did not wish for the elites of his race to be annihilated.

After all, they possessed enormous potential and were the pillars of the Celestial Ant Race.

After James and the others arrived, their progress was not impeded.

The soldiers of the Celestial Ant Race made way for them and allowed James, Brielle, and Qusai safe passage into Mount Penyet.

As their passage was not impeded, they soon arrived at the peak.

Upon their arrival, James saw Maxine, who was tied to a stone pillar and covered in blood, and whose life was hanging by a thread.

Immediately, he was enraged.

His expression darkened, and he clenched his fists, his killing intent visible for all to see.

Sensing James' killing intent, Qusai was frightened and hurriedly cautioned, "Don't act impulsively, James."

James had once fought for his life for 30 thousand years in the Tribulation World.

30 thousand years of endless slaughter had caused his body to accumulate enormous killing intent.

All this while, he had been actively suppressing them.

Upon seeing his family being tortured, the concealed killing intent burst forth and threatened to overflow.

Brielle could feel a chill down her spine.

She hurriedly grabbed James' hand and whispered, "Don't act impulsively. Remember to go with the flow."

James took a deep breath to suppress the fury in his heart.

The three slowly walked in.

In the distance, Maveth and Kakush stood up simultaneously and looked at the approaching group.

"Hahaha!"

Maveth laughed.

"I thought James came alone. I didn't expect there to be an additional two. Qusai and Brielle each have a War Order in their possession as well. Today, I'll have three War Orders."

He patted Kakush's shoulder and said, "You're in luck today. You'll be able to enter the Thirty-three Stages Celestial Palace as well."

Kakush's expression was solemn, however.

Since they managed to obtain a War Order, they must possess immense power.

Though both he and Maveth were powerful, he was not confident they could emerge victorious against a group of three.

Knowing that Maxine was the key, his body flashed, and he appeared beside the pillar.

Holding a razor-sharp blade in his hand, he said coldly, "Not one more step, James. Hand over the War Order at once. Otherwise, I'll kill her immediately."

James glared at him and uttered word by word, "You touch a single strand of her hair and I'll tear you to pieces."

Swish! Without any mercy, Kakush raised his sword and slashed Maxine's arm.

The razor-sharp blade immediately sliced her arm in half.

Her arm dropped to the ground, blood gushed out from her wound.

"Argh! "

Maxine had lost consciousness.

However, the excruciating pain woke her up, and she screamed in agony.

Then, she saw James from the corner of her eye.

Collecting herself, she cried out, "Stay away, James! Leave now!"

Upon witnessing this scene and hearing her agonizing scream, James clenched his fists and uttered word by word, "Very well, you are dead meat. Say your prayers."

"Cut the cr*p. Where's the War Order? Hand it over." Maveth said.

He was quite satisfied with Kakush's actions.

This guy was rather quick-witted.

Based on his original plan, he planned to use Maxine as bait to lure James here.

Then, he would fight against James fair and square, defeat him, and seize his War Order.

Using Maxine to blackmail James was not a terrible option too.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2818-James clenched his fists as veins bulged on his arm.

His face darkened.

Sensing James' killing intent, Maveth froze.

What exactly had this guy gone through? Why was there such terrifying killing intent inside him? However, he was unafraid.

That was because he had Maxine.

The more agitated James was, the more he cared for her.

"You better not act impulsively, James. My blade is faster than you are," Maveth warned.

James could sense that Kakush, the one pressing a blade against Maxine's neck, was a powerful figure.

The aura he exuded was powerful, and his strength was at the Sage Rank's Tenth Stage.

Since he was able to enter the ruins of the Ancient Heavenly Court, he must certainly be an extremely powerful figure.

To ensure Maxine's safety, he did not act impulsively.

He took out the War Order from the Celestial Abode.

Upon seeing the War Order in James' hand, Maveth became agitated.

Extending his shivering hands, he cried out, "Q-Quick...Give it to me."

Maxine, who had regained consciousness, hurriedly cried out upon seeing James taking out his War Order, "No, James! There are only a total of thirty-three War Orders. If you hand yours over, you'll lose the right to compete for the providence. Don't forfeit that opportunity because of me."

Maxine's voice boomed.

Looking at the War Order in his hand before looking at Maxine, James glared at Maveth.

He suppressed his fury deep inside and uttered word by word, "The War Order is in my hands. Come and take it if you dare."

At the same time James spoke, he catalyzed Sacrilegious Ascension, Elemental Inversion, and the power of dragon bones.

At that moment, he was at his strongest.

Back then when he fought against Yorick, he was only at the Sage Rank's First Stage.

By performing many signature cultivation methods, he was able to defeat Yorick.

Now, he was at the Sage Rank's Fifth Stage.

With the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword, he knew he was invincible in the ruins of the Ancient Heavenly Court if it was strictly a one vs. one.

In addition to the Samadhi Sword Intent he only recently gained insight into, he could easily exterminate Maveth and Kakush.

The Divine Sword materialized in James' hand.

With the sword in hand, his aura had an unparalleled magnificence.

“I have the War Order right here. Do you dare approach me?”

James uttered word by word, and his voice boomed.

Qusai felt a chill down his spine as he murmured, “I never thought James’ strength had reached such a terrifying level in just a short period of time. He has completely overwhelmed mine. With his strength, he should have no problem obtaining the ultimate providence.”

Brielle was stunned as well.

James from before was only a prodigy in her eyes.

Now, however, James was simply on an entirely different level.

The aura James exuded awed Brielle.

From afar, Maveth was shocked when he sensed James’ aura. He was absolutely confident in his strength.

Together with Kakush, he believed himself to be capable of dealing with James.

Now, however, James’ aura was simply too overwhelming.

His confidence wavered.

As he turned around and glanced at the stone pillar behind him, he saw that Kakush’s sword was still pressed against Maxine’s neck.

Immediately, his worry dissipated.

“Do you think I’m scared of you?” He yelled.

Then, he turned around and ordered, “If James dares act recklessly, kill Maxine at once.”

“Understood,” Kakush said.

Upon seeing this, James’ expression turned grim.

At that moment, he secretly spoke with Qusai and Brielle through telepathy and said, “When the enemy approaches me to take the War Order, seize the opportunity and save Maxine.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2819-“James, I’m afraid this isn’t possible,”

Qusai spoke, “The one guarding Maxine isn’t exactly weak. Besides, she’s gravely injured. If the enemy slices off Maxine’s neck in an instant, we...”

James said, “I know Curse Magic. I will use it to imprison him, preventing him from fighting back. At that moment, you two should seize the opportunity and strike.”

Brielle said, “If you can restrict the enemy’s movement, everything should be fine.”

The three briefly discussed matters.

Meanwhile, Maveth was already walking toward James.

Soon, he appeared before James.

Looking at James wearing a surly expression, he extended his arm and said smilingly, “I don’t wish to make an enemy out of you, James. However, we only have a limited number of War Orders. So please don’t blame me for this. For the sake of the ultimate providence, I’ll do anything that accomplishes my objectives.”

James looked at him and said, “Can you obtain the ultimate providence even if I give you my War Order?”

“This is none of your concern. Now, give it to me.”

James looked at the War Order in his hand and was reluctant to let go.

Looking at the War Orders in his hand, he handed the item over.

At the same time, dark Demonic Energy circulated in his palms, materializing mysterious symbols that soared to the sky and vanished without a trace.

Though Maveth sensed something was amiss, he could not determine what was wrong.

At that moment, he could not care less and reached out to accept the War Order.

At that moment, James said, “Do it!” Meanwhile, sensing imminent danger, Maveth shouted as well, “Do it!”

However, James had already used Confinement to restrict Kakush's movements.

After receiving the order, Kakush was about to slash Maxine's neck when he realized he could not move.

The sword in his hand remained static.

He panicked.

At the same time, Brielle and Qusai had already charged Kakush.

Similarly, James swiftly snatched back the War Order he had just handed to Maveth and stored it in the Celestial Abode.

Immediately, he jabbed at Maveth with the Divine Sword.

Immediately, the first move he made was the First Swordsmanship.

This move was a fusion of thousands of sword techniques.

Though it may seem ordinary at a simple glance, it was all-encompassing and contained countless sword techniques.

Maveth knew nothing about swordsmanship, and as such, could not see through the move.

Before he could even react, his body was pierced by the Divine Sword.

After his body was pierced, James summoned his full strength and struck his chest with his palm.

Like a ball, he was immediately sent flying.

At the same time, Qusai and Brielle had already appeared before the stone pillar not too far away.

Kakush, who was imprisoned could not even fight back and was injured by Qusai.

Meanwhile, Brielle went and saved Maxine.

Soon, the two returned and met up with James.

The whole process took place over the span of seconds.

"James,"

Brielle, who was carrying Maxine, cried out, "Maxine's fine. However, her injuries are grave and require immediate medical treatment."

James' expression was dark as he said, "Leave with Maxine at once. Leave everything else to me."

Hearing this, Qusai froze and asked, "What are you planning to do, James?"

James clenched the Divine Sword and said coldly, "They don't deserve to live."

In the beginning, James did not wish to antagonize the various races that came from all corners of the universe.

However, they crossed the line.

If he did not kill a few of them, they would not learn the lesson.

"Be careful."

Qusai did not say much and glanced at Brielle, saying, "Let's go."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2820-James did not wish to antagonize the various races of the universe because the earthlings were still weak.

Once the Four Calamities appeared, the seal would be completely undone.

This would be catastrophic for mankind.

However, there were many top-notch fighters concealed among the human population.

They were all at the Grand Emperor Rank.

James believed that the Outsiders would not dare act impulsively as long as these powerful figures existed.

Some creatures had crossed his red line, and as such, deserved to die.

He did not kill Yorick because he played by the rules.

He merely imprisoned his friends and did not harm them.

Maveth, on the other hand, harmed Maxine.

James was set on killing Maveth.

Holding the Divine Sword in hand, James walked toward Maveth.

At that moment, Maveth had already stood up.

Though his body was pierced, and he suffered a blow in his chest, killing a person at his rank was nigh impossible.

As he stood up from the ground, he wiped the blood trace off his lips.

His face darkened as he cursed James, "You have enraged me, James! You're dead meat."

At that moment, Kakush rushed over to Maveth's side.

The Confinement restricting his movement was gone.

"Are you alright?"

Seeing that Maveth was injured, he asked.

Maveth's face darkened as he said, "I'm alright. Let's tear him to pieces."

He knew that James was strong.

Alone, he might not stand a chance against him.

Only by attacking together would they stand a chance.

Besides, in his current condition, he would not be able to fight effectively.

A golden light flashed, and his body changed.

In the next instant, he transformed into a huge ant.

The ant was hundreds of meters in height and covered in golden scales all over its body, which was glimmering in gold.

After transforming into his original body, his strength increased further.

Seeing this, Kakush transformed as well.

Though he was a member of the Ant Race, he was not a Celestial Ant.

Even so, as a mutated ant, he possessed a powerful bloodline.

At the moment, he was a black ant.

Looking at the ants before him, James' expression remained composed as he uttered word by word, "I, James Caden, would never antagonize any living being in this world. However, I'll never forgive those who dare cross me."

After he spoke, he made a move.

With extraordinary speed, he charged toward Maveth.

With the Divine Sword in hand, he slashed the golden ant.

After transforming into his original body, Maveth now possessed immense physical strength.

As such, he was unafraid, and he used his physical body to resist James' attack.

James' sword fell.

The razor-sharp Divine Sword only barely scratched Maveth.

His strength was incapable of destroying the Celestial Ant's defense.

"Hahaha!"

Maveth burst into a peal of laughter, "James, what can you do to me even with the Imperial Weapon? My original body is a Celestial Ant. My physical strength is unparalleled. If you can't even pierce through my physical body, how do you hope to fight against me?"

Maveth's laughter boomed.

"Hmph," James grunted.

Though he was expressionless, he was secretly stunned.

The Celestial Ants were indeed one of the Ten Fiends, an existence that rivaled the Gorger.

Such physical strength was terrifying.

James could not even break his defense with the Divine Sword and could only leave a scar on its scales.

At that moment, Maveth launched his attack.

Its huge tail swept toward James, bringing with it a violent force.

James raised his sword to resist.
