The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2861-James thought for a while and said, "I don't have any objections.

Since everyone is fine with the arrangement, we'll proceed as planned." Qusai looked around and asked, "So, am I supposed to forfeit here?" James nodded lightly.

Qusai laughed and said, "Alright.

Since Maveth will be eliminated next, how about we fight each other? I'll exhaust nearly all of your crystal's energy, then you can knock me out." This was a perfect opportunity for Maveth.

Otherwise, he would be eliminated without even getting anything.

Thus, he agreed happily.

Maveth replied, "Okay." After that, the two began to fight and wear out each other's crystals.

After Maveth's crystal was left with very little energy, Qusai stopped attacking and allowed Maveth to deal the decisive blow to him.

As such, Maveth easily eliminated Qusai.

They were immediately moved to the proceeding level of the arena.

The Guardian showed himself once more.

He swept his gaze across the remaining people in the arena and flashed a pleased smile.

"I thought the fights would get more intense as time went on.

I wasn't expecting you guys to come up with a peaceful solution, but it is indeed a good idea." Lucifer asked, "What's on this level?" The Guardian smiled and said, "The Supernatural Power on this level is called the Seventy-Two Heavenly Art." Surprised, James asked, "What's that?" "It's a remarkable martial art skill, similar to the Thirty-Six Demonic Art.

It originates from the Primeval Age, and many powerhouses in the Ancient Heavenly Court Age used this Supernatural Power.

This technique was practiced by the renowned Ascended War God and the Three-Eyed War God from the Ancient Heavenly Court Age," explained the Guardian.

“C-Can I really have this?” Maveth looked at James and Lucifer eagerly.

Whether or not he could obtain the Supernatural Power was left up to James and Lucifer since his crystal had very little energy remaining.

He would be eliminated with a single hit.

James looked at Feb and asked, “Are you interested in it?” Feb shook her head.

“Nope.” James said, “If that’s the case, Maveth can have Seventy-Two Heavenly Art.” Maveth was overjoyed.

The Guardian looked at everyone and left without a word.

Shortly afterward, a white light appeared in the arena.

Maveth quickly rushed toward the white light to claim its treasure.

James simply watched this silently.

All of the Supernatural Powers that have appeared so far were extraordinary, and he was also tempted to obtain them.

However, his main objective was to get the Three-Thousand Cultivation Arts.

After Maveth obtained the Supernatural Power, Lucifer casually waved his hand.

A powerful force emerged from his palm and slammed into Maveth.

His attack completely depleted Maveth’s crystal and eliminated him from the arena.

After Maveth was eliminated, the arena changed yet again, and they were sent to the next level.

When they appeared in the next arena, the Guardian came to greet them again.

He said smilingly, “That was fast.

Well, that’s good since it saves a lot of my time.

“I’ll also just cut to the chase and tell you about this level’s Supernatural Power.” At that moment, only four contenders remained—James, Feb, Lucifer, and Brielle, who was inside the Celestial Abode.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2862-The remaining contenders were teleported to the next level of the arena.

As per their agreement, Feb was to be eliminated on this level.

Then, James would fight Lucifer in the following arena.

If he won, he would advance to the final level.

All this time, Lucifer was secretly drawing up a plot against James.

After this level, there were only a few more left.

If he beat James, then the fortune on the 32nd stage and the providence on the final stage would belong to him.

The Guardian appeared in the arena and smiled at the remaining people.

Lucifer asked, "What's on this level, Mr.

Guardian?" The Guardian replied, "The Supernatural Power on this level is called Six Paths of Reincarnation." "Six Paths of Reincarnation?" James, Lucifer, and Feb all reacted in shock.

The Guardian nodded and said, "During the Ancient Heavenly Court Age, a powerful man reached a very high cultivation rank.

He once entered the Land of Infinity and gained some profound knowledge.

After he left the place, he spent a long time creating the Six Paths of Reincarnation." James looked at Feb and said, "The Six Paths of Reincarnation is yours." Feb nodded and said, "Okay." After briefly introducing the Supernatural Power, the Guardian disappeared from sight.

Immediately afterward, a black light appeared.

Feb slowly walked over and claimed it for herself.

Lucifer walked over and said, "The Gorgon has to be eliminated on this level.

Don't resist my attacks." Feb conceded.

Lucifer immediately launched a powerful attack on her.

Feb's crystal expended its energy.

It emptied out relatively quickly, and she was thus eliminated from the arena.

With Feb's elimination, the surroundings morphed.

After they arrived at the new arena, James asked, "According to the rules we agreed upon, regardless of what Supernatural Power appears here, it'll automatically be mine.

Am I correct?" Lucifer nodded and said, "Yes, it's yours.

After you obtain the treasure on this level, we'll have a proper fight with each other.

Whoever wins will proceed to seize the providence." James looked at Lucifer.

Lucifer seemed confident that he could beat James with his plan.

James smiled and said, "You seem assured of your victory.

Are you sure you can defeat me?" Lucifer returned his smile silently.

Soon, the Guardian appeared.

He appeared in the center of the arena and looked at the final two participants.

James bluntly asked the question, "What's on this level, Mr.

Guardian?" The Guardian replied, "The Supernatural Power on this level is the Secret of Heaven and Earth." "Secret of Heaven and Earth?" James was taken aback.

The Guardian replied, "Yes.

Demonic Art and Heavenly Art were passed down from the Primeval Age.

However, a powerhouse was fortunate to learn both of them.

He fused the two together and created a new Supernatural Power called the Secret of Heaven and Earth." "Haah." The Guardian sighed.

"What's the matter? Is something wrong?" asked Lucifer.

The Guardian replied, "Although the Secret of Heaven and Earth had been passed through the ages, no one in the Ancient Heavenly Court Age managed to master it.

The requirements to learn it was complicated as it required one to possess two different kinds of power.

Most cultivators only wielded one type of power, and it was also rare for people to possess both Heavenly and Demonic Energy.

Therefore, no one was capable of successfully utilizing it.” Hearing this, James frowned.

He suddenly recalled something.

‘Heavenly and Demonic Energy? ‘Why did these sound so familiar? ‘Could the powerhouse that created the Secret of Heaven and Earth be the Ancestral Needle Master? ‘Was he the one who created the Heavenly Art and Demonic Art and passed down Crucifier and Exalter?’ Although James’ mind was abuzz with his suspicions, he could not say for sure.

The Guardian did not say anything more.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2863-The Guardian then vanished.

Immediately afterward, a burst of colorful light appeared.

James quickly walked over and held the treasure in his hand.

It was a jade piece.

He looked at the jade piece and found some mysterious words engraved on it.

The unfamiliar characters moved like they were alive and kept flowing through the jade.

James was unable to read the words.

He did not bother trying to understand them and put the jade piece away into the Celestial Abode.

After James had secured the Supernatural Power, Lucifer said, “ Let out that girl, Brielle, from the Celestial Abode.” James then brought Brielle out of the Celestial Abode using his mind.

As soon as Brielle appeared in the arena, she looked at the surroundings.

She was stunned to see only Lucifer and James remained at this point.

She quickly asked, “How did everything happen so fast? Are you and Lucifer the only ones left?” James gave a small smile and explained everything that had happened.

Brielle immediately got a clear understanding of the situation.

Under normal circumstances, Lucifer would have definitely chosen to eliminate Brielle first.

However, things took a different turn.

Instead, Lucifer made an agreement with James.

Lucifer believed that Brielle was not a threat to him and could not compete with him for the providence if James was eliminated.

James looked at Brielle and said, "You should stay out of this for now.

This battle is between me and Lucifer.

If I win, you can get the providence.

However, we'll both be eliminated if I lose." "Alright." Brielle nodded and retreated to a corner of the arena.

The arena was huge and its area was even bigger than Earth before the Apocalypse Age.

James stood in the arena and unleashed all his powers.

He activated the Sacrilegious Ascension, dragon bone, and Elemental Inversion.

Then, he summoned the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword.

The Infinity Steles also appeared and revolved protectively around his body.

James exuded extraordinary strength.

Lucifer, in turn, entered his Fifth Combat Form.

His Imperial Weapon immediately shone brightly, and a series of Elysian Inscriptions formed above his head.

Both James and Lucifer entered their most formidable states.

In this battle, neither of them dared to act rashly.

The outcome of this battle would determine which of them obtains the earth's third providence and becomes the first Grand Emperor to rule over the universe of this age.

Lucifer looked at James' imposing figure, and he smiled faintly.

James did not hide his strength in the previous battle and used all the means at his disposal.

This allowed Lucifer to have a rough idea of how James formed his battle tactics.

On the other hand, James had no idea about Lucifer's other resources.

The Elysian Inscription was incredibly powerful.

Despite only comprehending its very basics, Lucifer felt it was already more than sufficient to deal with James.

"James." Lucifer looked at James and said, "Since meeting you, we've fought twice.

Yet I lost both matches to you.

This will be our third, and I don't intend to lose this time." "Is that so?" James smiled faintly.

James was also confident in his own strength.

Although he had used almost everything he had, he still kept one last trump card—The 400,000 soldiers in the Celestial Abode.

The weakest among the 400,000 soldiers was close to the Sage Rank.

Meanwhile, many of them had already reached the Sage Rank's Fifteenth Stage.

Although their cultivation base was unstable, they were still on par with powerhouses at the Sage Rank's Tenth Stage.

Moreover, they had the advantage of numbers.

Lucifer would be helpless against 400,000 soldiers performing the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation.

James felt that the 400,000 soldiers' Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation would easily be able to beat someone on the Divine Rank's First Stage, let alone someone at Lucifer's rank.

When they first entered the arena, the Guardian allowed them to utilize every resource they had available.

As such, the army in the Celestial Abode was naturally permitted to assist him in battle.

James grinned self-assuredly.

He was confident the Three- Thousand Cultivation Arts was on the next level, and that he would be able to obtain it easily.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2864-Lucifer had been originally sealed away during the Primordial Age.

James was the one who broke his seal and awakened him.

After Lucifer was awakened, he actually had the strength to kill James.

However, he could sense his father's aura in James' body and knew James had obtained his father's Natal Lotus.

As such, he chose not to eliminate James.

In the following years, he fought against James twice.

However, he lost both matches.

This would be their third fight.

Lucifer was confident in his victory this time.

Although James had grown far more powerful and now had the skill to overwhelm the other prodigies of similar ages, Lucifer was still fully confident in his ability to defeat James.

According to Lucifer's original birth date, he should have been disqualified from seizing the providence.

However, he was sealed before reaching his 20s.

While he was sealed away, his aging was halted.

Thus, he remained relatively young and was still eligible to seize the providence.

"James." Lucifer entered his Fifth Combat Form, and his energy rose exponentially.

The Imperial Weapon in his hand glowed brightly, and it exuded an oppressive aura.

“This time, let’s have a good fight.

I’d like to see which is better between your swordsmanship and my Elysian Inscription.”
Lucifer’s voice echoed.

James smiled faintly in response.

‘A good fight?’ James did not intend to give him what he wanted.

Until now, he had been using every resource he had and still had one ace in his sleeve.

Although the 400,000 soldiers were affected by the curse, they were still relatively strong and could temporarily suppress its effects.

At that moment, James was pulling out all the stops.

James contacted Nova telepathically in the Celestial Abode and informed him about wanting to use the 400,000 soldiers.

Afterward, Nova quickly went to gather the soldiers.

The 400,000 soldiers were assembled behind the city within the Celestial Abode.

Nova stood before them and casually waved his hand.

A powerful force emerged out of his palm and surrounded the soldiers.

In the next moment, the 400,000 soldiers were teleported out of the Celestial Abode.

A large group of people immediately appeared in the arena.

Seeing the legion of soldiers, Lucifer’s expression changed.

“James, you...” He looked at James with disbelief.

James smirked and said, “The Guardian said that we could use everything we had at our disposal.

Don’t you know that I have a Celestial Abode that contains an army of four hundred thousand soldiers within it?” James’ clear voice rang in the air.

Lucifer’s expression became increasingly grim.

He grasped at the Imperial Weapon, and the Elysian Inscription above his head grew brighter.

James shouted, "Men, to your positions!" Immediately afterward, the army of 400,000 soldiers quickly spread out and formed the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation.

The Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation required four leaders to unleash its full might.

However, James was the only leader present at that moment.

Although they could not exert their full strength, it was enough to deal with Lucifer.

James instantly stood at the formation's helm.

At that moment, his energy fused with that of his soldiers.

He could sense all his men's power diffusing into his body, and his power level immediately soared.

His strength increased exponentially, and he immediately felt invincible.

Lucifer would not stand a chance.

In his current state, James was not afraid to face off against a powerhouse at the Divine Rank.

He had 400,000 Sages at his beck and call, some of which had even reached the Sage Rank's Tenth Stage.

With the energies of so many powerhouses augmenting his own, even a Divine Rank powerhouse would find it hard to fight back.

Lucifer stood in the arena, and he looked into the distance.

400,000 soldiers were gathered in the sky.

These 400,000 people formed a powerful formation, and their energy fused to form a mighty force.

Lucifer's heart wavered upon sensing the force.

He realized he had miscalculated.

He knew James' goal from the beginning was to obtain the providence.

That man had 400,000 soldiers at the ready in the Celestial Abode.

Who could possibly oppose him? "Wow, James.

You've hidden this fact very well.

I should've expected this." Lucifer's face twisted into a regretful expression.

He had fought James and was suppressed by the force of the 400,000 soldiers before.

"Since the providence is on the line, I'm afraid we won't be able to have a one-on-one fight this time, Lucifer.

Let's do it some other time." James called out to his opponent.

After he spoke, James immediately dove into action.

He vanished, re-appeared above Lucifer, and swung the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword downwards.

The sword contained both his own power and also that of his soldiers.

Lucifer's raised his sword to parry the attack.

However, James' attack was too powerful.

The Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword slashed down unimpeded at Lucifer.

He urged the Elysian Inscription to resist the attack.

However, his mastery of the Elysian Inscription was limited, and James far overpowered him.

He could not withstand James' attack.

James was one-sidedly subduing Lucifer.

Faced with James' unstoppable power, Lucifer lost his will to fight.

The energy of his crystal was rapidly consumed.

Lucifer resented his situation.

He initially wanted to seize the providence for himself which was why he proposed to sequentially eliminate his opposition.

If he had known this would happen, he would have seized the other treasures on the previous levels without hesitation.

He could not complain about his circumstances since he brought it upon himself.

The crystal's energy was rapidly exhausted.

Brielle stood in the distant corner of the arena in shock.

"I wasn't expecting James to have a sizeable army in the Celestial Abode.

I didn't think they'd perform such a powerful formation.

Now that James has the strength of his army augmenting his own power, Lucifer has no chance against James." "James has secured the providence.

It's practically in his hands." Brielle was excited for James.

She loved James and was also married to him.

With this, she considered herself James' wife.

After James obtained the providence, he could become a Grand Emperor and the most powerful man of this age.

He could even contend against the older generations.

Lucifer shouted, "Damn you, James." While attacking, James said, "This can't be helped, Lucifer.

Don't hold this against me." Under James' overwhelming attack, Lucifer's crystal was eventually emptied of energy.

Soon, his crystal was worn out, and he left the level.

The powerful Lucifer, who had the best chance of reaching the end, had been eliminated effortlessly.

After Lucifer's departure, the arena began to change again.

James sent the 400,000 soldiers back into the Celestial Abode.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2867-James was startled by the Guardian's words and could not help asking, "Are you saying the Heavenly Path is controlled by someone?" The Guardian replied solemnly, "Of course.

The Heavenly Path was created by that person after all.

However, the force behind the Heavenly Path is mysterious and unpredictable.

Apart from a few powerhouses from the Primeval Age who were aware of this powerhouse's identity, no one else knows the truth." "Ages ago, the powerhouse behind the Heavenly Path used to be called Heaven.

Therefore, the battle in ancient times was dubbed the Rebellion against Heaven, or the Annihilation of Heaven." Hearing this, James was dumbfounded.

The Heavenly Path was already a mind-boggling existence.

It controlled the universe and every living being.

James never suspected that there was someone controlling the Heavenly Path.

The Guardian fell silent.

After a while, he sighed and said, "Perhaps it isn't just a single person behind the Heavenly Path, but a bigger force.

Maybe there is something higher and mightier beyond the forces of our universe.

Who is to say? If you don't step into the Ancestral God Rank, it's impossible to gain insight into these matters." Then, the Guardian laughed and said, "Hehe.

What's wrong with me today? Why am I telling you so many useless things?" James was very interested in the topic and said, "Please tell me more.

I'm very interested to know more about these past events." The Guardian shook his head.

"You're currently too weak to understand these things.

The Three- Thousand Cultivation Arts are on this level.

Go ahead and take it." The Guardian paused for a while.

After pondering briefly, he said, "The Three-Thousand Cultivation Arts is just a means to understand the Heavenly Path and the powers behind it.

Since the Heavenly Path was created by someone, the Three- Thousand Cultivation Arts must be nothing in his eyes.

"To destroy Heaven, you must create something that surpasses him.

"Countless powerhouses have spent their entire lives trying to create a Supernatural Power superior to the Heavenly Path.

"So far, the Five Ancestral Gods created the Elemental Inversion.

"Yerik Yagher developed the fusion of Yin and Yang.

"The Ancestral Talisman Master invented Curse Magic.

"The Ancestral Sword Master created supreme sword-fighting techniques.

"Although these are all awe-inducing techniques, they're only considered to be close to the tier of the Heavenly Path.

They're not on the same level and aren't able to surpass it." "After obtaining the Three-Thousand Cultivation Arts, you must analyze it thoroughly, and understand the Heavenly Path and the rules of this universe.

Only by doing so can you surmount the Heavenly Path and have the chance to destroy it." James listened carefully and asked impulsively, "Why do we need to destroy the Heavenly Path? I think the Heavenly Path isn't completely bad.

It still manages the universe and living beings, preventing chaos from breaking out." "Haha." The Guardian laughed contemptuously and said, "What do you know? You'll understand when you're strong enough." "By the way, you seem to know a lot.

Who are you? You must also be a well-known powerhouse from ancient times, right?" The Guardian did not reply to James' question, and he gradually disappeared.

Immediately afterward, a soft white light appeared.

James knew this was the Three-Thousand Cultivation Arts he had sought.

He walked over and reached out to the white light.

It was also a piece of jade with words inscribed on it, constantly moving around inside the jade.

James stared at the jade.

Entranced by it, he felt like he had fallen into a starry sky and was surrounded by a myriad of words.

The ancient words were mysterious and gave off a compelling aura.

At his current strength, he could not comprehend the Three-Thousand Cultivation Arts.

He immediately felt dizzy and returned to the present.

Then, he vomited out a mouthful of blood.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2868-The Three-Thousand Cultivation Arts was incredibly complex.

At James' current cultivation rank, it was impossible for him to comprehend.

He still had no idea what cultivation was all about yet.

Moreover, he could not even recognize the words within the Three -Thousand Cultivation Arts.

He only knew they were mysterious and profound.

James stopped examining it and put the jade away.

Afterward, he looked at Brielle.

“I promised you I’d give you the providence if I made it to the end.

Now that only two of us are left, you can eliminate me and obtain the providence.”
Brielle shook her head.

“How can I do that, James? You strived so hard to make it to this point.

The providence is rightfully yours.

If you seize the providence, you’ll be able to quickly become a Grand Emperor.” “Grand Emperor?” James fell into thought.

The Guardian had told him a lot, and he learned many secrets that others did not know about.

Grand Emperors were considered exceptionally strong people, but they were not the mightiest in the universe.

Even the Ancestral Gods of ancient times were subdued by the Heavenly Path.

James shook his head slightly and said, “Becoming a Grand Emperor isn’t my end goal.

I’m not going to stop after becoming a Grand Emperor.

I want to surpass it and reach the Ancestral God Rank or higher where I can stand against Heaven.” His knowledge had expanded after chatting with the Guardian, and his goals had now expanded as well.

«But, James.” James waved his hand and said, “Cultivation is an act against the heavens.

We obtain providence, strength, and longevity from the heavens.

One must endure hardships on the path to cultivation.

Only by doing so can one have a firm and unwavering Cultivation Heart.” Brielle immediately understood James’ rationale after listening to his words.

She looked at James tenderly and said, “Thank you for giving me the providence, James.” James smiled faintly.

Afterward, James dispersed all his techniques.

Brielle then began to attack James without wasting a second.

Since James had already disabled the Sacrilegious Ascension, dragon bone, and Elemental Inversion, his strength and defenses had decreased drastically.

Therefore, Brielle could inflict damage on James and constantly consume his crystal’s energy.

Soon, James’ crystal was worn out.

The crystal’s energy was converted into James’ Sage Energy, improving his physical strength.

Although it was not enough for him to reach the next rank, it saved him many years of hard work.

At that moment, the powerhouses that entered the ruins and the earlier participants were gathered in a city outside the ruins of the Ancient Heavenly Court.

It was a well-preserved city, with various majestic buildings towering into the sky.

Seeing the powerhouses eliminated one after another, everyone present reacted in astonishment.

When Lucifer was eliminated, the crowd could scarcely believe it.

“Even Lucifer was eliminated.

Thirty-one of them have been eliminated, and only two people remain in the arena now.”
“That’s right.

There’s only James and Brielle left.” “The two seem to have a good relationship.

I think Brielle is James’ wife.” “That seems to be the case.

I heard they held a wedding ceremony in the Demon Realm.” The powerhouses in the city talked about James.

“James is truly amazing.

He obtained the earth’s first, second, and third providence.

He rose against all odds in this Apocalypse Age.” “He’s terrifyingly formidable and is miles above the prodigies around his age.

After obtaining the third providence, he’ll definitely reach even greater heights.

After that, nothing will be able to hinder him.

He’ll improve rapidly, and it won’t take long before he can surpass the older generation.”
“This human is very impressive.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2869-“At the very least, James will be a Grand Emperor in the future.” The air was abyss with various topics surrounding James.

Just when everyone thought James would have claimed the providence, a crack formed in the sky, and a figure slowly emerged.

Everyone was shocked when they recognized who the person was.

“What? How is this possible?” “why has James been eliminated?” “Shouldn’t Brielle be the one eliminated on the thirty-second floor?” “Did Brielle hide her strength and then use it to defeat James?” “How is that possible? Brielle was the weakest among all thirty-three participants.

She only lasted so long because James was protecting her.

If I’m not mistaken, James must’ve let her have the providence.” After James was eliminated, he was teleported out of the arena, and his body slowly descended into an open space.

Many powerhouses were gathered in the city.

Almost all the contenders that were eliminated from the arena remained in the city.

As soon as James appeared, Feb and Qusai rushed over.

Feb looked at James and asked, “Did you really give her the providence?” James was exhausted after fighting for so long.

He stretched his body and smiled.

“Whether or not I get the providence is inconsequential to me.

I have no desire to have an uneventful cultivation path.

Cultivation is all about overcoming difficulties and becoming stronger.” Feb did not disagree with James’ sentiment.

Qusai grinned.

“James, you’re quite magnanimous.

The providence could allow one to effortlessly become a Grand Emperor, yet you gave it away so easily.” James smiled in response.

Then, he waited where they were gathered.

Three months later, a crack finally appeared in the sky.

Everyone raised their heads and eyed it intently.

A woman slowly made her way out of the crack.

The woman looked to be in her 20s.

She wore a pure white dress, and her long black hair trailed behind her.

As soon as she appeared, she was surrounded by divine light.

At that moment, she gave off an unearthly feel.

“S-She’s beautiful.” “T can sense strong energy from her.” “Ts it because she obtained the providence?” Everyone looked on as Brielle slowly descended from the sky.

Brielle was surrounded by multicolored lights which reflected against her fair skin.

She was beautiful and dazzling.

She eventually landed in front of James.

“James,” Brielle called out sweetly.

James looked at her.

At that moment, Brielle seemed completely different compared to three months ago.

Brielle was originally a stunning woman, but now, she was elegant and ethereal.

It made others afraid to approach her.

“Why is your body glowing? Make it stop.

It’s too bright.” James chuckled.

Brielle stuck out her tongue and said playfully, “I-I don’t know how.

It’s what happened to my body after I became a Grand Emperor.

The Guardian said it’ll stop soon.” “Oh, I see.” At that moment, a voice resounded in the sky.

It was the Guardian of the Celestial Palace.

Everyone looked at him intently.

All eyes were on the Guardian.

The Guardian floated in the sky and looked at the prodigies in the city.

He knew those gathered in the city were the strongest prodigies among the universe’s younger generation.

He was rather satisfied with their strength.

They were the pillars of the Apocalypse Age.

“May I have your attention?” The Guardian’s voice boomed in the sky.

His voice sounded gravelly and weary with age.

“The South Heaven Gate appeared on Earth, and the providence from the Ancient Heavenly Court has found its new owner.

Now, it’s time for the South Heaven Gate to return to obscurity.

“However, the South Heaven Gate will not vanish completely and will reappear someday in the future.

“Many great boons are still hidden within the Ancient Heavenly Court’s ruins, but the time to claim the rest of them is not yet nigh.

I’ll be here waiting for everyone to return here one day.

“Now, please leave.” The Guardian gestured in a direction.

At that moment, a staircase appeared and extended toward the South Heaven Gate.

“You may return to Earth through the South Heaven Gate.” The Guardian bid everyone to leave.

The prodigies in the city did not linger a second longer.

They immediately ascended the stairs and left through the South Heaven Gate.

After passing through the gate, they disappeared.

This time, James had gained something invaluable.

He obtained the Three- Thousand Cultivation Arts that ruled the Ancient Heavenly Court Age.

It was an incredible boon, but James could not comprehend it because of his low cultivation rank.

He would have to reach the Divine Rank before he could begin to comprehend it.

James walked through the South Heaven Gate with Brielle, Feb, and Qusai in tow.

The scenery in front of them changed as soon as they passed through the South Heaven Gate.

A golden light flashed before them, and they saw mountains and rivers.

After a while, they appeared in the sky above Mount Bane.

“They’re back! They’re back!” “The prodigies that went to the Ancient Heavenly Court’s ruins have returned!” “What exactly happened?” After the prodigies entered the Ancient Heavenly Court’s ruins, other Foreign powerhouses also came to Earth and awaited their disciples’ return at Mount Bane.

At that moment, countless powerhouses from all over the universe were gathered in Mount Bane.

When they reached Earth, they agreed not to fight each other and that they only came to pick up their disciples.

The prodigies who came out immediately explained everything that happened in the Ancient Heavenly Court to their sect elders.

Everything from the fight for the War Orders to entering the Thirty-Three Arenas and the battle to reach the last level of the arena.

“Haha!!!” The Labhrann Clan’s leader, Txomin, laughed loudly.

“Good! Good! Brielle’s obtained the providence! After aeons, another Grand Emperor has been born in our clan!” Txomin was thrilled.

He never expected Brielle to obtain the providence.

The powerhouses of the other races looked unhappy with the outcome.
