The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2871- "James is really lucky."

"It's a doomsday era for humanity, yet he still goes against all odds. He'll definitely achieve great things in the future."

After learning that James helped Brielle obtain the providence, they expressed their thoughts.

However, James was still nothing to them despite having obtained countless fortunes.

In fact, these powerhouses were plotting to kill James and snatch his treasures.

However, these powerhouses from the universe knew there were strong humans hidden on Earth.

Since James was the hope of the human race, they would arouse the anger of these hidden powerhouses if they were to take action against James rashly.

No one was capable of bearing the wrath of these powerful humans.

"Let's go back to the clan."

"After we return, you'll have to go into seclusion. Then, you can come back for the fourth providence."

"It's okay that you didn't seize the providence this time. We'll come back after practicing hard."

The seniors comforted their disciples.

The powerhouses did not stay on Earth for long and returned to their respective clans with their disciples.

They would have to go through the Demon Realm to come to Earth.

However, they could forcibly open spatial passages on Earth to leave if they were strong enough.

On a mountain peak on Mount Bane, many humans were gathered.

In the lead was Thea, followed by Quincy, Cynthia, Tiara, Thomas, Langston, Tyrus, the Omniscient Deity, and a few others.

James appeared on the mountaintop.

Thea was the first to rush over.

She took his hand and asked worriedly, "You didn't encounter any accidents, right? "What accidents could've happened?"

James smiled.

Henry walked over and asked, "What happened in the Ancient Heavenly Court's ruins, James? Could you tell us about it?"

At that moment, Walganus appeared.

He looked at James and asked, "How did it go? Did you find the Three- Thousand Cultivation Arts?"

James glanced at Walganus and sensed the anxiousness on his face.

The Three-Thousand Cultivation Arts was evidently important to Walganus.

James nodded and said, "Yeah, I did acquire the Three- Thousand Cultivation Arts..."

Then, James explained everything that happened inside the Ancient Heavenly Court's ruins.

Everyone was shocked to learn that James had given up the providence.

They could not understand why James made such a decision.

However, James did not explain his actions.

Walganus pulled James aside.

He stood on the cliff on the mountain and looked into the distance.

The breeze blew toward him and messed up his long hair.

Solemnly, he said, "James, the Three-Thousand Cultivation Arts is very important to me."

James nodded and said, "I know, but it's a treasure I worked hard to obtain, and it now belongs to me. The Three-Thousand Cultivation Arts was the greatest Supernatural Power during the Ancient Heavenly Court Age. If I can comprehend it, it'll help improve my strength tremendously."

Hearing this, Walganus had a solemn expression. He knew James would not give him the Three-Thousand Cultivation Arts.

Thus, he considered exchanging one of his treasures for the Three- Thousand Cultivation Arts.However, his things were far inferior to the Three-Thousand Cultivation Arts.

“Huff,” Walganus sighed.

‘James, I don’t ask of you to give me the Three-Thousand Cultivation Arts.But, when I reach a certain cultivation rank in the future, could you at least lend it to me?’

He looked at James pleadingly.

James smiled and said, “Sure, that wouldn’t be a problem.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2872-James was fine with lending it to Walganus.

“Alright, then, it’s a promise!”

After James agreed, Walganus’ furrowed brows finally relaxed.

His father created the Three-Thousand Cultivation Arts, so how could he not learn it? After reaching an agreement, James walked over to Thea and asked, “What’s the situation on Earth now, Thea? Did anything major happen?”

Frowning, Thea replied, “There haven’t been any major events.However, there are casualties every day due to the curse.Many of which include humans from the Three Thousand Worlds.”

James was unable to solve the curse for now.His strength was limited, and he could not resolve everyone’s curse.He could only count on the group of hidden powerhouses on Earth to develop an elixir to suppress the curse as soon as possible.

After the elixir was successfully developed, it would temporarily resolve the problem.

“Alright.You should head back to Wyrmostead first.I’ll go and meet the custodian at the Chamber of Scriptures on Mount Tai.”

Thea nodded.

“Alright.”

Then, James left Mount Bane.

The humans gathered there also gradually dispersed.

Soon, James arrived on Mount Tai. He entered the ravine and swam to the underground Chamber of Scriptures.

After pushing open the Chamber of Scriptures' door, he walked into the empty first floor and called, "Ms. Custodian!"

His voice echoed through the room.

Swoosh! A white light descended from the sky, and a beautiful woman appeared before James. She wore a white dress and was as beautiful as always.

"You're back."

The custodian nodded lightly and asked, "How did it go? What boons did you obtain from the Ancient Heavenly Court's ruins?"

James recounted the events of the Ancient Heavenly Court.

After learning that James obtained the Three-Thousand Cultivation Arts, the custodian nodded satisfactorily and said, "Not bad. The Three-Thousand Cultivation Arts is a terrifying Supernatural Power but was lost a long time ago. It's one of the greatest Supernatural powers that has existed throughout history."

James asked, "Ms. Custodian, how is the development of the elixir going? The number of human casualties is very high. If this continues, not many humans will be left on Earth."

The custodian frowned and said, "Things aren't looking up. It isn't easy to develop elixirs to suppress the Curse Magic. Our group of powerhouses is working hard on it. However, I don't think there will be much progress soon."

No progress on the elixir's development was terrible news for humanity.

There used to be ten billion humans on Earth.

However, less than one billion remained after the three calamities.

What was even worse was that the population would only continue to decline.

Soon, only a few hundred million humans would be left on Earth.

Of course, the numbers were exclusive of the humans from the Three Thousand Worlds.

“James, I have a task for you.”

The custodian looked at James solemnly.

“What is it?”

James was slightly taken aback. It was rare for the custodian to wear such a serious look.

Thus, he immediately knew it must have been something significant.

The custodian said solemnly, “Humanity has already gone through three calamities, and the fourth is going to be the worst.

If we don’t take proper countermeasures, humans will be completely wiped out and cease to exist.”

James replied earnestly, “If there’s anything I can do to help, please tell me. I’ll do my best.”

The custodian replied, “I need you to find something.”

James asked, “What is it?”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2873-The custodian said, “The Ancestral God Rank elixir.”

James was slightly confused.

“The Ancestral God Rank elixir? What’s that? The custodian explained, “When the Earth’s Third Calamity struck, the Human Realm’s Lord, Xandros, left the Demon Realm and returned to Earth. He has gained insight into the Fourth Calamity and learned it would exterminate humanity. There is only one way to save humanity, which is to find the Ancestral God Rank elixir.”

Puzzled, James asked, “Cut to the chase, Ms. Custodian. What exactly is this Ancestral God Rank Elixir? Could one immediately have the strength of an Ancestral God after consuming it?”

“The custodian nodded and said, “Yeah, that’s right. After consuming the Ancestral God Rank elixir, one can temporarily obtain the strength of an individual at the Ancestral God Rank.

As of now, only by reaching the Ancestral God Rank can humanity survive the Fourth Calamity.

“However, According to Xandros and the other powerhouses’ calculations, Heaven’s Adjudicators will descend to Earth and take action against humans.

All the humans will be judged by Heaven’s Adjudicators and killed under the Scythe of Judgment.

“Only Ancestral Gods can stand against the Heaven’s Adjudicators, but there aren’t any powerhouse at the Ancestral God Rank in the current age.

“Therefore, our only hope is to find the Ancestral God Rank elixir from the Primeval Age.”

James listened carefully and asked, “Where can I find the Ancestral God Rank elixir?”

“I’ll bring you to Xandros so you can ask him in person.”

After speaking, the custodian led James out of the Chambers of Scriptures and toward a crack in the sky.

After passing through the crack, they appeared in a certain realm within the Three Thousand Worlds.

There were towering mountains and beautiful scenery.

The realm emanated abundant Spiritual Energy.

On the mountaintop was an open field.

Many people sat on the open field, some old and some young.

These people sat in lotus positions in a circle, and there was a magical force in the center.

As soon as James appeared, he sensed the Curse Magic.

In the center of the group was the Curse Magic.

James looked at them and had a vague idea of the identities of the people gathered there.

They must have been the human race’s hidden powerhouses, most likely at the Grand Emperor Rank.

The custodian brought James to them.

She stood nearby and said, "Xandros."

At that moment, a middle-aged man stood up. He restrained his energy and walked over. He looked at the custodian and said, "You're here, Yaraka."

Yaraka Xenmour nodded lightly and said, "James has returned from the Ancient Heavenly Court's ruins. I brought him to see you."

Hearing this, Xandros looked at James.

James also observed Xandros, the Human Realm's Lord. He remembered the last time he met Xandros in the Demon Realm.

Back then, Xandros was as skinny as a skeleton.

Xandros was very handsome and had a distinctive temperament.

"Good."

Xandros looked at James and nodded in satisfaction.

"Having accomplished so much in the Apocalypse Age, you'll be highly respected by humans in the future." James replied humbly, "You're flattering me, Sir. Compared to you seniors, I'm nothing at all." Xandros waved his hand and said, "Alright. Enough of this useless chatter. I believe you've already learned some details about the Fourth Calamity. We have to obtain the Ancestral God Rank elixir to resolve the Fourth Calamity."

James nodded.

"Mhm."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2874-The custodian, Yaraka Xenmour, had already told James that if he wanted to resolve the earth's Fourth Calamity, he would need to find the Ancestral God Rank elixir.

However, James was slightly unaware of the details.

Xandros said sorrowfully, "Some time ago, I divined the Fourth Calamity's details with some of the other human powerhouses. The Heaven's Adjudicators that have disappeared for several ages will reappear. They'll come to Earth with the Scythe of Judgment and carry out humanity's last judgment."

James' brows furrowed, and he asked, "Last judgment? What mistakes did humans make? Why do we have to be judged?"

Xandros replied, "It's a very long story, and it will take me a long time to explain everything. All you need to know is these Heaven's Adjudicators are terrifyingly strong. Even Grand Emperors don't stand a chance against them. Only Ancestral Gods stand a chance against Heaven's Adjudicators.

"However, all Ancestral Gods have long been deceased. There weren't any more Ancestral Gods in the Ancient Heavenly Court Age, let alone in our current age."

James listened carefully.

Xandros continued, "During the Primeval Age, humanity's ancestors had already learned that humans would face the Four Calamities. Therefore, they had already begun taking countermeasures. They gathered and used countless years of painstaking effort to refine the most extraordinary elixir in the universe, the Ancestral God Rank elixir.

"Among the information handed down from generations, the Ancestral God Rank elixir is the combined effort of our ancestors, including the Ancestral Elixir Master, the Ancestral Medicine Master, and the Ancestral Needle Master."

James nodded lightly and said, "If there's anything you need me to do, please let me know. I'll do my best to complete it as long as it's within my ability."

Xandros nodded and said, "Mhm. I have high hopes for you."

James asked, "Where can I find the Ancestral God Rank Elixir?"

Xandros gently waved his hand and said, "There's no need to rush. Let me explain everything to you first."

James calmed down and listened to Xandro.

Xandros explained, "The Ancestral God Rank elixir is an extraordinary existence and is humanity's last hope.

Our ancestors refined the Ancestral God Rank elixir and were worried it would be lost in time.

Thus, they made careful preparations.

"In the Primeval Age, there was a world called the Boundless Realm.

"And within this Boundless Realm was a sect called the Elixir Pavilion.

The Ancestral God Rank elixir is stored within the Elixir Pavilion.

“To prevent the news of the elixir from spreading and attracting the attention of other races, the Ancestral Gods joined forces to seal away the Boundless Realm. These powerhouses from the Boundless Realm aren’t able to leave, and other people aren’t able to enter.”

Hearing this, James thought of Galileo.

Galileo had also been sealed away.

James looked at Xandros and asked, “So?”

Xandros continued.

“The key to entering the Boundless Realm is your Crucifier and Exalter, which is in your wife’s possession.”

“Crucifier and Exalter were left behind by the Ancestral Needle Master. Crucifier and Exalter are also called Needle of Yang and Needle of Yin respectively.

“Fusing Yin and Yang can open up the passage and grant you entry into the Boundless Realm.

“However, it’s been a long time. Whether the Ancestral God Rank elixir is still there will be a matter you have to investigate.”

Hearing this, James understood Xandros’ intention.

Xandros wanted him to go to the Boundless Realm, find the Elixir Pavillion, and bring back the Ancestral God Rank elixir, which had been passed down from the Primeval Age.

“Don’t worry, Sir. I’ll do my best to find the Ancestral God Rank elixir and bring it back.”

Xandros corrected him, “Doing your best isn’t enough. You have to bring it back. After consuming the Ancestral God Rank elixir, you’ll temporarily gain the strength of an Ancestral God. It’ll be crucial to dealing with Heaven’s Adjudicators. If you don’t bring it back, humanity will be wiped out and cease to exist in this universe.

“This is a very important matter, James. I hope you understand that you have to bring the Ancestral God Rank elixir back even if it costs you your life.”

Xandros had a solemn expression.

Seeing his serious look, James nodded solemnly and vowed, "I'll definitely bring it back!"

Xandros took a deep breath and said, "You must be thinking why I'm not going myself but sending you, right?"

James indeed had doubts in his heart.

Hearing Xandros bring it up, James looked at him and asked, "Yeah, why?"

Xandros explained, "Everything has been destined long ago. You're the most suitable person."

"Destined long ago?"

James was slightly taken aback.

Xandros waved his hand and said, "You don't need to ask too many questions. Head back first. Yaraka will come for you when it's time, and you can head to the Boundless Realm with Thea."

"Alright." James nodded.

Xandros gently waved his hand and said, "Okay, you can go for now. Yaraka, bring him back."

Yaraka nodded.

Immediately afterward, Yaraka led James out of the unknown realm, and they crossed through the cracked seal.

Soon, they returned to Earth.

James and Yaraka walked side by side on Mount Tai. He smiled and said, "Ms.

Custodian, your name is Yaraka? If I didn't hear Sir Tegan addressing you that way, I still wouldn't have known your name."

Yaraka looked at James and asked calmly, "Is my name important?"

"Of course..." James replied with a serious look.

Yaraka did not want to chat about useless things and immediately changed the topic, saying, "Head back first and prepare for the journey. You have to go to the Boundless Realm with Thea this time."

"Mhm. I'll inform Thea."

James nodded.

Yaraka reminded him, "This is a very important matter, so don't tell anyone except Thea to prevent the news from spreading. Is that clear?"

"Alright, I know."

James nodded.

Yaraka left those words before turning into a sparkle of light and disappearing from James' sight.

James watched as Yaraka disappeared. He spaced out for a few seconds.

After a while, he returned to his senses, turned around, and set out to Wurmstead.

Thea was seated on a sofa inside a room in Wurmstead's Palace's backyard. She asked, "What's the matter, James? Why do we have to speak inside the room?"

James activated his Divine Sense to scan his surroundings.

After finding no one around, he said, "It's a very important matter and must be kept secret."

"Alright. Cut to the chase. What's it about?"

James explained the details of the Fourth Calamity to Thea.

"Heaven's Adjudicators?"

Startled, Thea stood up from the sofa and asked worriedly, "D- Does this have something to do with Winnie?"

James shook his head and said, "I don't know either, but it shouldn't be related to her. Although she has a Scythe of Judgment in her body, she isn't a Heaven's Adjudicator yet."

“Besides, the Fourth Calamity will likely occur in the next few years. It'll be impossible for her to become a Heaven's Adjudicator by then.”

Hearing this, Thea sighed in relief.

Although James refused for it to happen, there was no way to stop it. He could only hope that Winnie would not be one of the Heaven's Adjudicators to appear during the Fourth Calamity.

If it were Winnie, then they would stand on opposite sides. He had no idea what to do with his daughter on one side and humans on the other.

James took a deep breath and stopped thinking about these complicated issues.

He looked at Thea and said, “To resolve the Fourth Calamity, we need to find the Ancestral God Rank elixir located in the Boundless Realm.”

The group of hidden powerhouses requested us to go to the Boundless Realm to find the Ancestral God Rank elixir and bring it back to Earth.”

Thea held James' hand and said firmly, “No matter what you do, I'll always support you. As long as you're willing to have me, I'll follow you anywhere.”

James nodded and said, “Mhm. I don't know when we can go, but you should spend more time with your family this time.”

Thea nodded.

Afterward, she left Wrymstead and headed to Cansington to spend time with the Callahans. She also used the opportunity to guide the younger generation's cultivation.

Meanwhile, James had nothing to do, so he stayed in Wrymstead.

Many familiar people, including Quintina, Marcello, and Thomas, visited him during this period.

Finally, James had the time to relax. He had three months to rest leisurely.

During these three months, nothing major happened on Earth.

The only tragic event was that the casualties were still happening daily because of the curse.

James stayed in Wrymstead and heard about the reports of casualties happening worldwide.

Despite his desire to help them, there was nothing he could do.

The only thing he could do was wait anxiously.

Three months later, James sat on a boulder in a lotus position in the backyard of Wrymstead's Imperial Palace and used the Imperial Jade Seal to suppress the curse in his body.

Swoosh! At that moment, a white light appeared out of thin air and slowly manifested into a woman wearing a white dress.

Sensing someone approaching, James immediately stopped cultivating.

He jumped down from the boulder and appeared in front of the woman.

James looked at her and greeted her smilingly, "Ms.Yaraka."

Yaraka nodded lightly and said, "It's already been three months.I'm sure you' re already prepared.It's time to head to the Boundless Realm.Before I send you two off, Xandros would like to see you two."

James nodded and said, "Mhm.I'll notify Thea immediately."

Then, James took out his phone and called Thea, who was far away in Cansington.

"It's time.We need to go."

After receiving the phone call, Thea replied, "Alright.I'll come right away."

Thea hung up the phone and bid farewell to the Callahans, saying she would have to leave for a while.

Then, she left Cansington and rushed to Wrymstead.

Her current strength allowed her to travel at a terrifying speed.

Even though the Earth's area had expanded significantly and made the distance between the two countries far, she could travel the distance very quickly.

In less than ten minutes after James called, Thea appeared.

Seeing the custodian, Thea called out sweetly, "Ms.Custodian."

Yaraka nodded and said, "Let's go."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2877-Yaraka waved her hand, and a strong force emerged from her palm.

The force surrounded James and Thea.

They felt their vision blur, and when they regained their sight, they were already in an unfamiliar place.

They had arrived in one of the realms in the Three Thousand Worlds.

The palace had beautiful mountains and clear water.It also had abundant Spiritual Energy and spectacular scenery.It was the perfect place to cultivate.

A handsome man sat in a lotus position in an open space on a mountaintop.

It was the Human Realm's Lord, Xandros.

He was also a powerful Grand Emperor.

For Xandros to become the Human Realm's Lord, he must have had very high attainments to surpass the other Grand Emperors in strength.

Yaraka led James and Thea up the mountain and stopped near Xandros.

Yaraka held out her hand, signaling James and Thea to stay in place.

She took a few steps forward and called out, "Xandros."

Xandros sitting in a lotus position opened his eyes slightly.

Seeing that Yaraka had arrived with James and Thea, he stood up.

Xandros greeted them, "James, Thea."

Thea had never seen Xandros before but had heard about him from James.

Therefore, she immediately guessed that the man was the Human Realm's Lord in the Primordial Age.

She nodded slightly and said respectfully, "Sir Tegan."

Xandros gently waved his hand and said, "I called you two here because I have a few more things to brief you on before your departure to the Boundless Realm."

Both James and Thea listened carefully.

Xandros explained, "The only way to open a passage to the Boundless Realm is to use Crucifier and Exalter. Naturally, it'll also require power from both of you."

"You two probably don't know much about Crucifier and Exalter, right? I requested to meet you to teach you two about them and how to use them."

"Crucifier and Exalter are mighty weapons and were refined from the most precious materials that have existed since the beginning of the universe."

"They played a great part in refining the Ancestral God Rank elixir."

While speaking, Xandros waved his hand, and two pieces of jade appeared in his hand.

The colors of the jade pieces were white and black respectively.

The white jade floated toward James and the black jade toward Thea.

James observed the jade and found it similar to the treasures in the Ancient Heavenly Court's ruins.

All of the boons were jade pieces with mysterious words on them.

James asked, "What's this?"

Xandros explained, "Before you started cultivating, you found Crucifier and the Medical Book. However, the Medical Book only briefly introduces the basics of Crucifier."

"The Medical Book only contains a small fraction of the Heavenly Transformation."

"I have the complete version of the Heavenly Transformation."

After learning it, you'll be able to unleash the true power of Crucifier and open the passage to the Boundless Realm."

Xandros turned to Thea and said, "The version you have is the complete Demonic Transformation."

"For the following period, Yaraka will teach you Elysian characters. After you learn to read Elysian characters, you'll be able to comprehend the content within the jades."

James and Thea looked at each other.

They never expected Crucifier and Exalter to have such a significant origin.

Could it be that Xandros had arranged for them to obtain Crucifier and Exalter? It was highly possible. Since Xandros was a Grand Emperor, it was easy for him to prepare everything in advance.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2878-After Xandros briefly explained things to them, he disappeared from the mountain.

Yaraka casually waved her hand and laid out a Time Formation.

She looked at James and Thea, saying, "I'll teach you how to read Elysian characters. Under normal circumstances, it's impossible to teach Elysian characters. One will have to gradually comprehend it alone."

Elysian characters were a very mysterious existence.

Most of the well-known Supernatural Powers were recorded with Elysian characters.

Usually, Elysian characters could not be taught.

One would have to reach a certain level of cultivation and understand it with one's own wisdom.

However, human knowledge was endless.

A Grand Emperor had an infinite lifespan.

Thus, they specifically researched Elysian characters in their long years.

James was very excited after hearing that Yaraka would be teaching them Elysian characters.

Yaraka stood before James and Thea and began the lesson.

"Elysian characters are very mysterious. Every character has a different meaning and can be understood differently by different creatures. Only a few characters have fixed meanings."

Both James and Thea listened carefully.

Yaraka taught them Elysian characters very carefully so they could comprehend the jade pieces given to them by Xandros.

Eight hundred years passed in the blink of an eye.

James and Thea had stayed in the Time Formation for eight hundred years.

During these eight hundred years, James and Thea learned Elysian characters and gradually began unraveling the Supernatural Powers recorded in the scriptures.

Yaraka could only teach them so much.

As for the rest, James and Thea would have to figure it out themselves.

Aman and a woman sat within a formation at a mountain range of a particular realm in the Three Thousand Worlds.

The two were focused on training.

At that moment, pure and mysterious Heavenly Yang Essence emerged from James' body.

Eighty- one golden needles revolved around his body and released a powerful energy.

Meanwhile, Demonic Yin Essence emerged from Thea's body, which could make one shudder from the coldness.

The sun and moon were not visible from the mountain range.

Thea and James focused on training within the Time Formation.

During this period, the Elemental Inversion in James' body continuously increased his strength until he reached a breakthrough point.

After staying in the formation for a while, he made a breakthrough.

James advanced into the Sage Rank's Sixth Stage from the Sage Rank's Fifth Stage.

His physical strength had also improved from the early stage of the Sage Rank's Sixth Stage to the middle stage.

Yaraka had been watching them from the sidelines the whole time.

Xandros also showed up.

Sensing the energy from the two, he knew they had comprehended a lot.

He walked over to James and Thea, then said, "Alright. That's enough."

Both James and Thea stopped.

Xandros looked at them and said, "The Heavenly Transformation and Demonic Transformation are very extraordinary, and it won't be possible to completely master them in a short period.

With your current strengths, you two won't be able to completely master them anyway.

"Now that you two have a basic understanding of Crucifier, Exalter, Heavenly Yang Essence, and Demonic Yin Essence, it's enough to open up a passage to the Boundless Realm."

Xandros replied, "Right now. I'll personally send you to the seal of the Boundless Realm."

After speaking, Xandros casually waved his hand, and a miraculous force emerged from his palm and surrounded James and Thea.

Then, a crack formed in the space before them.

Xandros leaped toward the crack with a flash.

He brought James and Thea through space and out into the universe.

The universe was silent, which made it seem terrifying.

Suddenly, a crack formed in the space.

Xandros, Thea, and James came out of the crack.

As soon as James appeared in the starry universe, he looked ahead and saw the countless planets.

"Have we arrived?" asked James.

Xandros nodded, pointed ahead of them, and said, "Yeah. That's the Boundless Realm."

Thea also looked toward the planets.

Xandros explained, "The Boundless Realm isn't a single planet but a collective name for a few planets. It's currently sealed off, and both of you need to work together to open a passage."

Xandros' face became solemn.

"The Boundless Realm has been sealed since the Primeval Age. It prevented the destruction of the Ancient Heavenly Court Age and was spared from the fight during the Primeval Age.

"There must be a few powerhouses within the Boundless Realm at the Grand Emperor Rank. You two will have to be careful.

"However, there isn't much to worry about. The Elixir Pavilion that guards the Ancestral God Rank elixir was given an absolute order. The powerhouses there will hand over the Ancestral God Rank elixir as long as they see Crucifier and Exalter.

"However, the Elixir Pavilion has gone into hiding after receiving their mission to guard the Ancestral God Rank elixir. Thus, finding the Elixir Pavilion will take some time and effort."

James frowned and asked, "The Boundless Realm must be huge. How will we find the Elixir Pavilion when they are in hiding? Do you not have any clues?"

Xandros shook his head. He did not have any clue about the Elixir Pavilion's whereabouts.

To prevent the Ancestral God Rank elixir from being targeted, the Primeval Age's powerhouses did not leave any clues behind.

James was troubled.

"Then, how will we look for it?"

Xandros replied, "You'll have to figure that out. Also, there isn't much time, so you should hurry up."

Thea asked, "How long more until the Earth's Fourth Calamity happens?"

Xandros shook his head and said, "I don't know. I've already joined forces with the other powerful humans, and we only have a rough estimation of when it will happen.

"Although it's impossible to have a precise date, we know it might likely happen more than a thousand years later." James listened carefully.

Seeing Xandros looking at the starry universe, James asked, "Is there anything else you need us to know?"

Xandros said, "I know there are about thirty thousand worlds with Primordial Energy. That is to say, there are thirty thousand inhabitable planets. According to my conjecture, the Elixir Pavilion is probably on a smaller planet and likely one that isn't well-known. Thus, you should try searching the smaller planets."

James nodded and said, "Alright. I understand."

Xandros casually waved his hand, and great force emerged from his palm, gradually dispersing into the starry universe.

At that moment, the force came into contact with a barrier.

Invisible ripples appeared in the vast, starry sky.

Immediately afterward, a barrier composed of magical inscriptions appeared.

It was mysterious and bizarre.

Hearing this, James asked, "Would the Elixir Pavilion's disciples steal and consume the Ancestral God Rank elixir to temporarily gain the strength of an Ancestral God and leave the Boundless Realm?"

Xandros shook his head and said, "That's impossible. The powerhouses guarding the Ancestral God Rank elixir in the Elixir Pavilion are loyal to humans. They know the importance of it to humans. It's humanity's last hope. They would not dare take it for themselves."

"Alright."

James did not pursue the topic any further.

He asked, "How do we open the seal now?"

Xandros explained, "It's very simple. You two have to fuse Crucifier and Exalter."

“Fuse?”

James was taken aback.

Xandros nodded and explained, “Yeah. After the fusion, a Time Capsule will form.”

“A Time Capsule? What’s that?” asked Thae.

Xandros replied, “A Time Capsule is a supreme treasure formed by the union of Yin and Yang. With the Time Capsule, you two can break the time constraint and pass through time, allowing you to transcend to the future or past.”

“Is it that incredible?” James was shocked.

Xandros nodded and said, “Of course. However, you’re still relatively weak and can’t fully exert the Time Capsule’s power. For now, you’ll only be capable of using the Time Capsule to open a passage into the Boundless Realm.”

James and Thea followed Xandros’ instructions.

They summoned Crucifier and Exalter.

Eighty-one golden needles revolved around James, whereas eighty-one black needles circled Thea.

Both of them exerted Yin and Yang Energy respectively.

At that moment, their energies blended and formed a strong magnetic field.

“Close your eyes, carefully sense each other’s energy, and allow your energy to fuse.

“The fusion of Yin and Yang, also heaven and earth, can create an invincible Supernatural Power.”

James and Thea closed their eyes simultaneously.

At that moment, their bodies rotated in the starry universe, gradually forming a Grand Extremity.

The Yin and Yang were hard to see but progressively became visible.

A pattern of Yin and Yang was now clear as day.

At that moment, James felt the fusion of Yin and Yang. He had acquired Thea’s power.

Thea also sensed James’ power fusing into her body and felt much more potent.

Seeing this, Xandros nodded in satisfaction.

At that moment, James' Crucifier and Thea's Exalter gradually merged to form a Sceptre.

The Sceptre was relatively small, only the size of a baby's arm. It was the manifestation of James and Thea's combined energy.

"Is this the Time Capsule?"

James looked at the fused Exalter and Crucifier and could sense the powerful energy in the Time Capsule.

"And here we go!"

At that moment, Xandros made a move. He mobilized all his strength and controlled the Time Capsule.

James and Thea felt imprisoned by the powerful force and could not break free.

The Time Capsule displayed a dazzling light after being activated by Xandros' energy.

The dazzling light rushed toward the seal and made a crack in it.

James and Thea uncontrollably rushed toward the crack on the seal.

As soon as they entered the crack, they felt like they were in a gushing river.
