

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2889

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2889-Empyrean herbs were abundant in the Celestial Abode.

James began to practice.

Soon, he could extract some components from the herbs, but they were low-graded components.

Afterward, he started using extracted components according to the formulas to refine elixirs.

Many medicinal herb powders appeared in the alchemy furnace.

James carefully controlled the flame, and the powders slowly fused to form a few round pills.

“Haha! I did it!” Seeing that he successfully refined a pill, James laughed out loud.

Nova immediately humbled him by saying, “Don’t get too excited.

You only refined a very simple pill.

It’ll be much more complicated to refine higher- grade pills and elixirs.

You must at least refine a Fifteenth-Grade Sage Rank Elixir to win the Alchemy Tournament.

You still have a long way to go.” Hearing this, James grew dejected.

A Fifteenth-Grade Sage Rank Elixir? Could he succeed with the remaining time? The pill that James refined was of an average grade.

Average elixirs were also graded from the First Grade to Ninth Grade.

Only elixirs after the Ninth Grade were considered Sage Rank.

James immediately felt a headache coming up upon thinking about all of this complicated stuff.

Alchemy was very complex.

If not because he had to become an alchemist, he would never want to learn alchemy.

However, it was important since he had to obtain the Ancestral God Rank elixir.

The Ancestral God Rank elixir was related to the survival of humans in the entire universe.

James took a deep breath and put away his thoughts.

Then, he continued practicing and refining medicinal elixirs in the Celestial Abode's Time Chamber.

James' improvement was pretty fast.

Even Nova could not help praising James as a talented alchemist and saying that James would become an outstanding alchemist with more practice.

Time passed by quickly as James continued to practice in the Time Chamber.

Three years passed in the outside world in the blink of an eye.

'Time's almost up, James.

You'll miss the Alchemy Tournament if you don't leave now." Nova reminded him.

Hearing Nova's voice, James stopped practicing.

James looked at Nova and said, "I'm only capable of refining a Tenth- Grade Sage Rank elixir now.

Do you think I can win or stand out in the Alchemy Tournament?" Nova smiled and said, "I don't know, but you'll have to try.

Bring the Martial Alchemy Furnace with you.

It might be of help." "Mhm." James nodded.

There was no other choice but to try.

"Still, your improvements are the fastest among the alchemists I've seen.

You've got great potential.

Emperor Jabari had recruited many disciples in the past, but none of them compare to you." Nova was very optimistic about James.

James smiled in response.

The great number of herbs available in the Celestial Abode was a vital factor that contributed to his quick attainment of such great results.

He would not have improved at such a rapid pace if there were not so many Empyrean herbs available for practice.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2890

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2890-From a novice, James successfully became an alchemist in the Time Chamber with the continuous resources and materials in the Celestial Abode.

Now, he could refine a Tenth-Grade Sage Rank elixir.

That was incredibly impressive.

As for whether he could win the Alchemy Tournament held in the Stardust Realm would depend on his luck.

James would have no regrets even if he were not able to qualify.

After all, he did his best.

Learning that time was almost up, James left the Celestial Abode.

He reappeared on a mountain range of the Stardust Realm.

James was unsure how long he had before the Alchemy Tournament took place, nor did he know where it would be held.

He left the mountain range and headed toward a city to inquire.

Eventually, he learned that the Alchemy Tournament would be held in Stardust Realm's largest city, Stardust City.

Stardust Realm was huge, and even with James' current strength, it would take him a long time to travel across the entire Stardust Realm.

Fortunately, there was a Teleportation Formation in every city.

After paying a certain amount of spiritual crystals, he could easily teleport to another city.

Since James did not have any spiritual crystals, he picked up some Empyrean herbs in the Celestial Abode and sold them for spiritual crystals.

Then, he teleported to Stardust City.

The Teleportation Formation outside Stardust City continuously shone brightly.

With the Alchemy Tournament happening soon, alchemists from all over the Stardust Realm were teleporting to Stardust City.

Although they were not qualified to participate, many came to watch the tournament to learn from it.

The Teleportation Formation lit up, and James walked out.

As soon as he appeared, James saw the vast city.

The city gate was tens of thousands of meters high.

From a distance, the city was grand and extravagant.

‘Tsk, tsk! Impressive!’ After seeing the city, James was amazed.

After a brief shock, he walked toward the city gate ahead and entered the city in an orderly manner.

As soon as he entered the city, he inquired about the Alchemy Tournament and learned it would be happening in three days.

The Alchemy Tournament was divided into many stages.

The first stage was the knockout round.

Since the Stardust Realm was huge, tens of thousands of alchemists had rushed to participate.

However, there was only one spot, and some weaker alchemists had to be eliminated first.

The remaining advanced alchemists would be filtered out to compete for the slot.

Only by successfully winning the Alchemy Tournament could one represent the Stardust Realm to participate in the Elixir Pavilion’s discipleship examination.

The Alchemy Tournament was happening in three days.

Since it was almost time, there was nothing much James could do.

Therefore, he found himself an inn to stay in for the time being.

Three days passed in the blink of an eye.

Three days later.

Stardust City was bustling with its streets crowded with people.

At that moment, a flash of light shot up from the City Lord's Mansion in the distance.

Then, a man appeared in the sky, The man looked to be about forty years old.

He wore a golden robe and looked full of life.

With a bright smile, he looked at the many people in the city.

He laughed and said, "Haha! Welcome to Stardust City! "As you all know, the Elixir Pavilion will recruit disciples from throughout the Boundless Realm.

The Stardust Realm was also given a spot to participate in the disciple recruitment."

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-