

The Almighty dragon general by crazy chapter 2921

Chapter 2921

"Nine times?!" Yuina exclaimed.

"Yes." James nodded and asked, "How much is this worth?"

Yuina was lost in contemplation.

Elixirs that boost one's strength and surpass one's rank were the most difficult to concoct. Not only was this an elixir at the Divine Rank's First Grade, but it even had a mysterious Elixir Inscription. Due to the presence of the Elixir Inscription, the elixir's effects were guaranteed.

She silently estimated the value. An elixir like this was a lifesaver, and most cultivators would normally be willing to spend a fortune to purchase one.

After some time, Yuina said, "An ordinary elixir at the Divine Rank's First Grade should be around three billion Holy Stones. However, since your elixir contains an Elixir Inscription, its worth should increase by manyfold. Still, we're also a business, so we won't be able to purchase this at too high a price."

Then, she glanced at James.

Seeing that James' expression was composed, she said, "Our selling price is approximately six billion Holy Stones. How about this? We'll purchase your elixir at five and a half billion Holy Stones per item." "Sure"

James said without the slightest hesitation.

He never thought that an elixir would be worth so much. Previously, he had concocted a whole cauldron of elixir and had nine in total. This meant that he would earn at least tens of billions. After concocting a few additional elixirs, he would be able to purchase a Saucer soon.

Then, he pulled out the bottle that contained his elixirs and tossed them to the Yuina, saying, "I have a few other elixirs I'd like you to appraise."

Yuina grabbed the bottle and opened it.
As a Divine Rank alchemist, she could tell that this batch of elixirs was concocted by the same person and the same furnace.
“Since there are a total of nine elixirs, you’ll receive a total of forty-nine and a half billion Holy Stones. Please wait here while I order my men to prepare the payment.”
After she spoke, she turned to leave.
After leaving the office, she ordered men to prepare the Holy Stones James needed.
At the same time, she arrived at another office. Sitting in a lotus position, an ancient, mysterious sigil materialized in her hand, and a powerful aura exuded from her body.
She was using ancient secret art to contact her father in the Holy Realm.
After a while, she spoke, “Father.”
Meanwhile, at the Medicine Pavilion in the Holy Realm...
A middle-aged man was sitting in a lotus position at the peak of a mountain. Sensing a presence, he replied, “What’s wrong, Yuina? Why are you contacting me all of a sudden? Did something unexpected happen?” “No, Father. I’m currently at the Heavenly River Realm. I encountered a mysterious young man who has an Imperial Weapon in his possession here. It was a purple sword. He was also here to sell elixirs, and he has an elixir at the Divine Rank’s First Grade. This is hardly anything surprising. However, the elixir has an Elixir Inscription. Besides that, I can sense that he used a Sage Rank herb to concoct the Divine medicine.”
Hearing this, the middle-aged man was stunned.
“An Imperial Weapon? A Divine Rank elixir? Not only that, but he even used a Sage Rank herb to concoct a Divine Rank elixir?” “Yes, Father.” “What’s his name?” “He calls himself James Caden.” “I see... We mustn’t cross him no matter what. Since he has an Imperial Weapon and such elixirs, he must have a powerful figure backing him. Even the Elixir Pavilion will have to tread carefully on this matter for fear of provoking this powerful individual. In these circumstances, do your best to befriend him.”

“Understood,” Yuina said and dispelled the secret art. A gleam of brilliance flashed in her pitch-black eyes as she murmured to herself, “What a mysterious young man.”

Chapter 2922

Soon, Yuina was back. She took out an exquisite bag and handed it to James, saying, ‘This storage bag has all the Holy Stones for our transaction.’ James accepted the bag and peered into it. Though the bag was small, the space inside was huge. In the storage bag, James could see a mountain of colorful Holy Stones glimmering. He could not care less to count them as he believed that the Elixir Pavilion would never resort to such underhanded tactics. So, he casually put them away. Yuina smiled and said, “Does the powerful figure that you mentioned wish to cooperate with the Elixir Pavilion?” James nodded and said, “That powerful figure still has a batch of elixirs in his possession. I’ll return to look for him. I’ll be back in a few days.” Then, he stood up and turned to leave. Yevpraksiya had been waiting outside. Upon seeing James, she walked toward him and asked, “How did it go, Mr. Caden?” James said with a bright smile and said, “Not bad. I have sold the elixirs I concocted during the Alchemy Tournament for tens of billions of Holy Stones. Let’s get going for now.” James turned to leave.

The two left the Elixir Pavilion's elixir pharmacy. They did not linger for long inside the city. After leaving the city, they headed toward a forest with dense foliage. After making sure that they were not being followed, James grabbed Yevpraksiya's hand and entered the Celestial Abode. Not only did James possess an Imperial Weapon and an Emperor Rank alchemy furnace, but he even had a Celestial Abode in his possession. Moreover, this Celestial Abode looked more like an Imperial Abode. It was simply stunning. 'Who exactly is Mr. Caden?' Yevpraksiya wondered. "Stay here for now. I'll find a place to concoct the elixirs." After he spoke, James turned to leave. He left the city, headed toward the mountain range outside, and began choosing the herbs he needed. There were all sorts of Celestial herbs being planted inside the Celestial Abode. In fact, there were even Divine herbs here. However, as James' rank was currently too low, he had no need for the Divine herbs. After gathering some Celestial herbs, he returned to the city and entered the Time Chamber to concoct elixirs. This time, he also used the Martial Alchemy Furnace to concoct his elixirs. After all, the Martial Alchemy Furnace was convenient and easy to use. Soon, he was done concocting a few elixirs. Though he used Celestial herbs as the ingredients, the quality of his elixirs was all above the Divine Rank. After roughly calculating the price, James believed that these elixirs in total were worth at least 5 trillion Holy Stones. With that amount of money, he could splurge on anything he wanted. However, he did not leave immediately. Instead, he gathered some more low-quality Celestial herbs and continued concocting elixirs. Alchemy required constant experimentation and contemplation in order to improve the level of the alchemist.

After using the Martial Alchemy Furnace, James switched to an ordinary alchemy furnace. Unexpectedly, his alchemy skills increased, and he easily concocted an elixir at the Sage Rank's Eleventh Grade. This delighted him.

An Emperor Rank alchemy furnace was simply good stuff that could greatly increase an alchemist's level.

After learning for some time, James left the Time Chamber. By the time he left, he was already capable of using an ordinary alchemy furnace to concoct an elixir at the Sage Rank's Twelfth Grade. Now, he could be considered an alchemist at the Sage Rank's Twelfth Grade. However, much would be different if he used the Emperor Rank alchemy furnace.

James was out of the Time Chamber after a few days of waiting.

"Is everything alright now, Mr. Caden?"

Yevpraksiya looked at James with tenderness on her face. The more she looked at James, the more satisfied she was with him. She believed that James had no weaknesses, and was a perfect and flawless man.

Chapter 2923

If she could be married to such a decent man, she would consider herself to be extremely fortunate. However, such thoughts were merely wishful thinking. She knew that she was not worthy of James, and the only ones who were worthy of him were the daughters of the major sects and prestigious families.

"Yes, let's get going."

James grabbed Yevpraksiya's hand and left the Celestial Abode. Then, they headed to the Elixir Pavilion in Heavenly Secrets City.

During the past few days when James was away, Yuina used the influence of the Elixir Pavilion in the Boundless Realm to inquire about everything related to James.
As the Heavenly River Realm was not too far away from the Stardust Realm, Yuina was able to easily track James' movements and learn of his participation in the Alchemy Tournament in the Stardust Realm with the intelligence network she has.
Upon learning that the elixirs James sold were concocted by him, Yuina was stunned.
"An Imperial Weapon... An Emperor Rank alchemy furnace... Who exactly is he?"
Yuina sat in her office and contemplated.
Knock! Knock! Knock!
A knock came on her door.
Yuina collected herself and said, "Come in."
The door opened, and a chambermaid walked in, saying respectfully, "My Lady, Mr.
Caden is here."
Hearing this, Yuina was immediately invigorated. She stood up excitedly and asked,
"Really? Where is he? Invite him in." "I'm here," came a voice from outside.
Then,
James walked in and simply sat on the chair. Seeing that there was a cup of colorful tea on the table that exuded an alluring fragrance, he knew it was good stuff. Without any hesitation, he grabbed the cup of tea and swallowed the contents in a single gulp.
Immediately, he felt a surge of power throughout his body.
"This is quite a good tea."
Yuina glanced at him and could not help but frown slightly. She had just taken a sip of the tea. However, she remained silent. Smiling at James, she asked, "Mr.
Caden, you must be here with the elixirs, I assume?" "Mhm." James nodded and took out the elixirs he concocted. Handing them over to Yuina, he said, "Please appraise them and calculate the price for me."

Yuina accepted the bottle and scrutinized the elixirs. These priceless elixirs were at the Divine Rank's First Grade and possessed an Elixir Inscription.
She calculated the price. Then, she said, "They should at least be around 5 trillion Holy Stones. How does that sound?"
Yuina smiled at James.
This price was what James had in mind.
"Sure."
James did not say anything else.
"I'll order my men to prepare the Holy Stones." Yuina turned to leave. After giving her orders, she turned back and sat opposite James, asking smilingly, "Are you perhaps going to the Holy Realm?" "How do you know?"
James glanced at her and asked, "Did you investigate me?"
Yuina smiled faintly and said, "Not exactly an investigation. Surely the Elixir Pavilion
must look into your details before conducting business with you."
James said nothing. Since he was not from the Boundless Realm, the Elixir
Pavilion
could never find out anything about his past.
Yuina asked smilingly, "Are you participating in the discipleship examination of the Elixir Pavilion?" "Is something the matter?" James asked.
"No, of course not." Yuina smiled and said, "With your alchemy skills, you should be able to join the Elixir Pavilion easily. You might even become a Sect Elder." Yuina was speaking the truth. Since James possessed an Emperor Rank alchemy furnace, he would be able to become a Sect Elder of the Pavilion despite his insignificant rank and elementary alchemy skills.

Chapter 2924

James really could not care less about becoming a Sect Elder of the Elixir

Pavilion.

He was only heading there to search for the Ancestral God Rank elixir.

Previously,

Xandros had told him that the Ancestral God Rank elixir was located in the Elixir Pavilion. However, James was unsure if this Elixir Pavilion was the one he was looking for. That was why he was heading there to investigate the matter.

Meanwhile,

the only way of joining the Elixir Pavilion was to pass the discipleship examination.

He had no desire for authority and preferred to live a peaceful and carefree life.

Then, Yuina began conversing with James about his master.

“James, since you’re no ordinary man, your master must be a renowned figure, I assume. Maybe I might have encountered him before in the past.”

Yuina said with a smile.

James, on the other hand, only returned the smile and remained silent.

Since he was not someone of this world, Yuina had no way of knowing if he remained silent. Soon, the 5 trillion worth of Holy Stones James needed were fully prepared.

Yuina personally handed the Holy Stones to James. James did not even bother counting them but instead put them away immediately. He stood up and clasped his fists, saying, “Farewell.” “Goodbye.”

She waved her hand. As she watched James’ retreating figure, she knew that they would surely meet again. As long as James was heading to the Holy Realm for the Elixir Pavilion’s discipleship examination, they would certainly meet again.

After leaving the elixir pharmacy, James immediately went straight for the Saucer shop and spent a fortune to buy a Saucer. As he now had a fortune, he purchased a Saucer worth a trillion Holy Stones.

The Saucer was the size of a manor with five rooms and two foyers. Its defensive capabilities were strong and could defend against the attack of a Divine Rank cultivator.

After purchasing the Saucer, James and Yevpraksiya did not linger for long and left immediately. James smelted a trillion Holy Stones straight away as energy for the Saucer.

After making all preparations, Yevpraksiya controlled the flight of the Saucer. James, on the other hand, entered the Celestial Abode.

The journey to the Holy Realm was long. Even with the Saucer, they needed a few centuries to arrive at their destination. In the meantime, James did not wish to remain idle. So, he entered a closed-door meditation to cultivate. His current rank was at the Sage Rank's Sixth Stage, whereas his physical strength was at the Sage Rank's Eighth Stage. He was far too weak.

After giving Yevpraksiya his orders, he entered the Celestial Abode.

After entering the Celestial Abode, James did not enter a closed-door meditation straight away. That was because he had ample time. Instead, he headed to the back of the city.

There was a training base there, housing a 400-thousand-strong army. This army had been inside the Celestial Abode for a very long time. Even while James was on Planet

Galileo and experienced the thirty-thousand-years tribulation, they had been training continuously.

James' arrival immediately attracted their attention.

"Dragon King." "Black Dragon."

Along the way, the soldiers greeted him respectfully.

Chapter 2925

James looked at the soldiers who were training incessantly and waved at them,

“You’ve worked hard!” “Not at all, Sir!” their voices rang in unison. As James gazed at these familiar yet unknown faces, James was feeling a little guilty. After all, he was the one who placed them inside the Celestial Abode to train incessantly. As a cultivator, he knew how boring and uninteresting cultivation could be. Though their movements were not restricted, and they could move about freely inside the Celestial Abode, this was a world sealed off from the outside world. As such, they could not interact with anyone outside. With the passage of time, they would become bored and lose interest in cultivating. James was thinking of giving them a vacation. However, upon being reminded that this was the Boundless Realm, a world full of danger, he put those thoughts aside. At that moment, the Spirit Tool appeared. James looked at him and asked, “How’s the strength of these soldiers?” The Spirit Tool replied, “Because of the curse, they had to constantly suppress its power. This has severely slowed down their cultivation speed.” Hearing this, James was lost in contemplation. He knew just how terrifying the curse was. Even he almost could not endure the excruciating pain when he was overwhelmed by the curse. Now, he was thinking that he should perhaps seize the opportunity and remove the curse on the 400- thousand-strong army. Now that his strength had increased, his endurance toward the curse should have increased as well. Besides, he had already gotten used to the curse’s power inside his body. An increase in the curse’s power should not have too consequential of an effect on him. After long contemplation, he decided to remove the curse on his soldiers. “My warriors, today I shall remove the curse within your bodies so that you may be spared the agonizing pain.”

James' voice boomed.
Hearing this, everyone cheered.
All this while, they had suffered excruciating torture. Though the curse was not lethal, the agonizing pain they went through was no laughing matter either.
After the Spirit Tool made the necessary arrangements, all 400 thousand soldiers gathered and sat in a lotus position on the ground.
Meanwhile, James was standing in front of the 400-thousand-strong army.
As he looked at the crowd before him, he took a deep breath and regulated his condition to ensure that he was in peak form. After regulating his condition, he took out the Jade Seal on which the summary of the Curse Inscription was engraved, and catalyzed threads of Demonic Energy. Immediately, the Jade Seal flew into mid-air.
Under his control, the Jade Seal exuded a black aura that permeated the air, gathering to form an immense power.
Below him, threads of black aura materialized on the soldiers' heads and were absorbed by the Jade Seal. After the curse of the soldiers was absorbed, they spread throughout James' body. A single curse was nothing to be afraid of.
However, the combined curses of 400 thousand men were an entirely different story.
James could sense an immense curse power spreading throughout his body. The moment they entered his body, his body was gravely injured as the curse frantically ravaged his body, leaving it riddled with holes. Fine cracks appeared on the surface of James' skin, from which the black curse seeped out and formed a terrifying magnetic field around him. The curse continued to spread, and James tried his best to suppress it. However, the curse was too terrifying. Not only did he fail to suppress it, but the curse even went on a rampage, frantically destroying his physical body and devouring his life force.

James took a deep breath.

‘What a powerful curse... I guess I underestimated the curse’s power for four hundred thousand men. I’ll die if this continues.’

James’ expression was solemn.

Chapter 2926

James underestimated the power of four hundred thousand curses.

The weight of these curses piled together was so frightening that he could not withstand them in one go.

Injured and corroding under the load of the curse, his mental condition deteriorated, and his consciousness blurred. There was a buzz reverberating throughout his mind as if someone was hitting his skull with a blunt weapon.

He summoned the might of his entire body, forcefully clearing his mind.

Then, he catalyzed the Jade Seal, beginning to suppress the power of the curse within his body.

The magnetic field around his body grew and grew, causing the soldiers who absorbed the power of the curse to stand up and retreated, moving further away from

James.

They stopped at a distance away from James that was just enough to observe from afar.

“Is everything alright?” “James absorbed the curse within our bodies. Will something happen to him?” “He should be alright. I am confident that James wouldn’t do something that he is doubtful of.”

They prayed silently for James.

Legs crossed, James sat on the ground. Cracks continuously appeared on the surface of his body. He summoned Demonic Energy, healing himself incessantly. His injury repeatedly oscillated between recovery and destruction. This state of being continued for a whole century.

In the blink of an eye, a century passed. James had completely suppressed the Demonic Energy.

Under the suppression of the Jade Seal, the Demonic Energy congealed internally, leading to the creation of irregular patterns and symbols.

James had learned Elysian characters prior to this. While theoretically speaking, he had full knowledge of all existent scripts, he could not recognize those suppressed by the curse's power.

He scrutinized his insides.

In the elixir field, a black aura materialized. The aura formed an array of mystical symbols and characters.

He fell into deep thought. 'Why is this happening?'

James had no idea as to why the curse's power was assuming its current form. The power of the curse could not be absorbed. Even if he learned Curse Magic, even if he took up the form of the Demonic Body, he would not be able to absorb nor defuse it.

However, it was at this moment that he recalled a memory. He remembered that when he met the Ancestral Talisman Master at Planet Galileo, the Master told him that absorbing the curse would bring about a disaster, but also fortune and opportunity-the opportunity to cultivate the curse to its maximum capacity.

"Doesn't this mean that this has something to do with the curse I'm cultivating? It's just that I'm at a lower rank and am unable to cultivate it just yet?" he mumbled to himself softly.

To test his hypothesis, he attempted to summon the Curse Magic as well as to control the mysterious symbols within him.

Just as he was performing the Confinement, the mysterious black symbols inside him materialized into enormous power. The power of the curse, trapped by the Confinement, elevated the Confinement Art to the next level.
This situation caused James to be delirious. "It worked?"
He could not conceal his ecstasy. Subsequently, he tried performing the Reincarnation
Art.
The Reincarnation Art was this Curse Art Supernatural Power's name because it could immediately age a living being, causing them to lose their life force in a short time.
He called this Reincarnation. Based on his understanding, Reincarnation was the process from life to death.
"Reincarnation."
He sat on the ground with his legs crossed. His mind stirred, and the black characters in his body materialized into an enormous power that incessantly exuded his body, striking a tree in the distance.
