

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2931

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2931-James nodded, looked at Yevpraksiya, and asked, "How much time did I spend in closed-door meditation this time?"

James was cultivating in the Time Chamber. His rank had continual breakthroughs. He knew he had been in the Time Chamber for a very long time, but he had no idea how many years had passed in the outside world.

Yevpraksiya said, "Not many. Only fifty years." "Fifty years?" James muttered.

He assumed a lot of time had passed. Never did he imagine that it had only been fifty years.

After cultivating for a long time, he was also a little bored. He asked, "Where are we? Are there any larger worlds around here? Let's take a short break."

Yevpraksiya promptly opened the interstellar navigation system and took a look.

"Sir, the Eidolon Realm is just up ahead." "The Eidolon Realm?"

James looked puzzled. He knew nothing about the Boundless Realm, so he had no idea what kind of world the Eidolon Realm was.

Yevpraksiya explained, "The Eidolon Realm is one of the top major worlds in the Boundless Realm. It's second only to the Holy Realm. Moreover, Xainte, whom I previously mentioned to you, is a human of the Eidolon Realm.

"In the Eidolon Realm, there is an extremely powerful sect. Its name is the Paragon Sect.

"Xainte is from the Paragon Sect, and she's already the Sect Elder. She wields considerable power and status."

When he heard these, James said, "Then let's go visit the Eidolon Realm."

As she heard that, Yevpraksiya laughed. "Sir, Xainte is a stunning beauty.

Not only is she a distinguished prodigy, but she's also an extremely attractive woman. She is known as the Boundless Realm's Sweetheart." "Really?"

James smiled faintly. He had little interest in beautiful women. He was only curious about Xainte as a person.

He was also curious to see what kind of person could become a QuasiEmperor in only thirty thousand years.

He was a cultivator as well. Despite the fact that the time between his birth and the present was short, he had the Time Chamber. He frequently accelerated his cultivation there. Furthermore, he once went through thirty thousand years of tribulation.

According to the calculations, he had been cultivating for tens of thousands of years as well.

However, he was currently only at the Sage Rank's Tenth Stage. He did not even enter the Divine Rank yet, let alone the Quasi-Emperor Rank. So, he came to be interested in Xainte.

"How long will it take to travel to the Eidolon Realm?"

Yevpraksiya opened the interstellar navigation system. In the navigation system, a major planet appeared.

Yevpraksiya pointed at this planet and said, "This is the Eidolon Realm. Based on the speed at which the flying saucer is moving forward, we should arrive in the Eidolon Realm in about a year." "A year is not very long."

James felt relieved. A year was not a particularly long period of time. It would be over very soon.

After that, James did not head to the Celestial Abode. He remained in the Saucer.

In the blink of an eye, a year had passed.

"Sir, we'll enter the Eidolon Realm soon."

Yevpraksiya was quite excited because it was her first long journey, her first time heading to a large world like the Eidolon Realm.

Xainte was also her idol. If she could see Xainte in person when they were at the Eidolon Realm this time, it would also be a worthwhile trip.

"Speed up," James instructed.

During this time, he was bored out of his mind. Such days were too lackluster. He also wanted to visit the Eidolon Realm.

"Alright."

Yevpraksiya controlled the Saucer to advance at full speed. They soon passed through the atmosphere of the Eidolon Realm.

Majestic mountains and rivers gradually came into view.

After traversing the vast galaxy for so long, when he saw these landscapes, James could not help but be excited as well.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2932

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2932-After traveling through the galaxy for over a hundred and fifty years, James planned to take a break in the Eidolon Realm.

The Eidolon Realm was one of the top major worlds in this universe. In this world, there was a legend.

She was Xainte Callahan. Xainte's name was well-known throughout the entire Boundless Realm.

The Saucer quickly entered the Eidolon Realm and came to a stop somewhere on a mountain range.

James and Yevpraksiya opened the hatch of the Saucer and walked outside. James casually waved his hand, and the Saucer shrank. It was eventually stored by him in the Celestial Abode.

James took a look around him. It was a mountain range, and in it there was an abundance of Primordial Energy.

Indeed, it was the highest level of heaven and earth's power.

With his arms extended, James breathed in the air. The pores on his entire body were relaxed, and it was indescribably at ease.

"This feeling is quite wonderful."

There was a smile on James' face.

From the side, Yevpraksiya asked, "Sir, where are we going next?"

James looked at her and asked, "Do you have a map of the Eidolon Realm?" "Yes." Yevpraksiya nodded.

When she learned that James wanted to visit the Eidolon Realm, she downloaded the Eidolon Realm map into the Saucer's system.

She took out the communicator. It was similar to mobile phones used on Earth, but it was more sophisticated.

Yevpraksiya opened the communicator, pulled out the map of the Eidolon Realm, and said, 'I've already downloaded the map of the Eidolon Realm.'

James asked, "What is our location right now?"

After Yevpraksiya looked at the map, she said, 'We're at the Southern Plains of the Eidolon Realm.' "The Southern Plains?" James furrowed his brow.

Yevpraksiya immediately explained, 'The Eidolon Realm is expansive. It is, however, roughly divided into five regions: the Southern Plains, the Northern Border, the East Sea, the Western Regions, and the Central State.' "Hm."

After hearing Yevpraksiya's explanation, James more or less understood his location in the Eidolon Realm.

He asked again, "Make a search. Check to see if there are any dangerous places in the Southern Plains."

Yevpraksiya looked at James, perplexed. She did not understand why James asked if there were any dangerous places.

"Sir, what do you mean by that?"

James smiled and said, "After being in closed-door meditation for so long, I feel like the days are a little dreary. I want to go on an adventure. The Eidolon Realm is massive. Even a single region is quite vast. There must be some perilous places, and I intend to take a stroll there." 'You're really bored out of your mind,' Yevpraksiya secretly murmured in her head.

In normal circumstances, cultivators would not go to dangerous places of their own volition, unless they needed something from those places. Otherwise, they would not go exploring there.

James was indeed bored out of his mind.

He considered himself to be extremely fortunate. Furthermore, he had heard from others that he appeared to be a person of great fortune, protected by the Heavenly Path. Wherever he went, he would meet with providence and favorable circumstances.

Even if he came across danger, he would make his misfortune a blessing.

Nonetheless, Yevpraksiya was unaware of all that. She opened the map and examined it.

After a while, she finally said, "Sir, I looked it up. In the Southern Plains, there is in fact a dangerous location. This place is known as the Great Wilderness." "The Great Wilderness. Is there any history to it?" James asked.

Yevpraksiya shook her head and said, "That, I don't know. Alright, let's locate a city first and ask around about it." "Okay." James nodded.

After that, the two left the mountain range.

Not far from the mountain range, there was a city. This city was the largest city in the Southern Plains. It was named the Southern Plains City. Moreover, one of the Eidolon Realm's ten major forces, the Southern Academy, was located near the Southern Plains City.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2933

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2933-Southern Plains City was quite old, and it had a long history. The city wall stood several tens of thousands of meters tall, built of pitch-black rocks. Moreover, the city wall was severely worn down by the passage of time. Numerous repairs had been made to it.

At the city gate, there was constant traffic. People were coming and going in droves.

On the ancient road outside the city, a man and a woman were approaching.

The man was handsome. He was dressed in a white robe and exuded extraordinary charisma.

The woman was beautiful. She was wearing a blue dress and following the man. At a glance, it was obvious that she was his attendant.

They were James and Yevpraksiya who were rushing over.

Upon seeing such a majestic and bustling city, James could not help but exclaim, "How massive. As to be expected from one of the best worlds in the Boundless Realm."

Yevpraksiya was stunned as well.

She came from the Stardust Realm, a small place. She had never been to a world as vast as the Eidolon Realm. When she saw the splendor and thriving of the Southern Plains City, her mouth dropped open.

"Let's go."

James stepped forward and walked into the Southern Plains City.

Once they entered the city, the two did not immediately inquire about the Great Wilderness. Instead, they strolled around the city. Whenever they found something they liked, they bought it. After all, James had plenty of Holy Stones on him.

After wandering around for a day, the two began to ask around about the Great Wilderness.

As soon as they started asking around, James' interest was piqued.

"You're asking about the Great Wilderness? It hasn't been peaceful lately. Your cultivation base is average, so you'd be better off staying away from the Great Wilderness."

As soon as they asked around, James knew something significant had happened in the Great Wilderness.

However, regarding what had happened, he asked many living beings in the Southern Plains City about it, but these living beings were unwilling to elaborate.

The more this happened, the more intrigued James became.

Since they were unable to learn about it by asking around, James decided to visit the Great Wilderness personally.

Yevpraksiya immediately dissuaded him, saying, "Sir, let's not be rash. We asked so many living beings, but they were all evasive about what happened in the Great Wilderness. Something major must have happened. Let's not poke our noses into it." "What is there to be afraid of?"

James was skillful and daring. Besides, he was a man of great fortune, protected by the Heavenly Path. Nothing would happen to him.

"But..."

Yevpraksiya still had something to say.

"No buts." James cut Yevpraksiya off and said, "If you're afraid, stay in Southern Plains City and wait for me, or enter my Celestial Abode and stay there." "I'm not afraid," Yevpraksiya immediately said, "Since the day I started following you, there is nothing I'm afraid of. Even if we have to climb mountains of swords and cross seas of fire, if you're not afraid, neither am

I" "Don't worry. It will be fine," James said unequivocally.

From the time he became a cultivator until now, he had encountered countless dangers, but he always managed to turn them around. Furthermore, he was a firm believer in the principle that the more dangerous a location was, the more providence and opportunities it offered.

After making the decision, James did not linger in the Southern Plains City and instead left the city with Yevpraksiya.

As they left, outside the city, a colorful glow appeared on the horizon in the distance.

This glow drew the attention of many living beings in the Southern Plains City.

At the city gate, many living beings looked over into the distance in unison.

The colorful glow continued to float over and soon appeared outside the city gate of Southern Plains City. A woman then appeared in the sky, and she stood on the colorful glow.

“What?”

Upon seeing this, many living beings were taken aback.

“Xante!” someone shouted.

It instantly caused a stir.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2934

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2934-As soon as James left the city, he saw a woman who was standing on a vibrant ethereal glow appear at Southern Plains City.

Soon, she appeared in the sky outside the city gate. She descended slowly from the sky and landed steadily on the ground.

Someone shouted, “Xainte”.

When the name ‘Xainte’ appeared, everyone present was buzzing.

“I-It’s really Xainte.” “Wow. I never expected to be able to see Xainte here.”

Every man’s expression was passionate. They stared at Xainte as if they were looking at their ideal lover.

James had heard the name ‘Xainte’ before.

He knew that Xainte was the most terrifying prodigy in the history of the Boundless Realm. In only thirty thousand years, she entered the QuasiEmperor Rank, becoming one of the foremost cultivators of this world.

He also knew that Xainte was the most beautiful woman in this world. His gaze remained on Xainte as well.

Xainte appeared to be about twenty years old. She was wearing a white dress. Her height was approximately 1.8 meters. Her long, black hair cascaded down her back. She had delicate facial features, and her skin was fair and clear.

It was as if that face had been meticulously carved. There were no flaws to be found.

Her eyes sparkled with life. There seemed to be a vibrant world hidden within her eyes.

However, after seeing her appearance, James was slightly astonished.

She had a slight resemblance to Thea. To be more specific, she looked very similar to someone, and that person was Winnie. Regardless, James knew she was not Winnie.

Still, why did she resemble Thea and Winnie in some ways? Could it be that she was related to Thea?

For a brief moment, James' mind was flooded with numerous ideas.

"Sir," Yevpraksiya, who was beside him, called out.

Only then did James emerge from his thoughts and asked, "What's the matter?"

Yevpraksiya said with a smile, "Were you astounded by Xainte's beauty?"

James smiled slightly and said nothing. Right now, he only wanted to find out if there were any connections between Xainte and Thea. He wanted to walk over and ask. However, he had just taken a few steps and was still some distance away from Xainte when a figure emerged from the city.

It was a young man. He appeared to be about twenty-five or twenty-six years old.

He was dressed in a golden robe and looked incredibly handsome. He exuded the air of a nobleman.

"It's the Southern Academy's top prodigy." "Yikron Gildrim." "I didn't expect that even Yikron came out of seclusion. It appears that the situation in the Great Wilderness is not promising."

The surrounding living beings who were watching with amusement started to talk among themselves once again.

Yikron walked out and appeared in front of Xainte. With a hint of adoration in his expression, he said with a smile, "Xainte, welcome to Southern Plains City."

Xainte glanced at Yikron and nodded softly at him in response.

Her expression was serene. She said nonchalantly, "I came to the Southern Plains to travel to the Great Wilderness. How is the situation there? Is there any news about my mother?"

Yikron shook his head and said, "Not yet. Don't worry. Come into the city first and let's have a discussion. Then, we'll travel to the Great Wilderness together."

James wanted to walk over and ask, but the two had already entered the city.

James became frozen in place. After some time, he eventually asked, "What is the connection between Xainte's mother and the Great Wilderness?"

Yevpraksiya shook her head. She, too, was ignorant about these.

James scanned his surroundings.

Numerous living beings had gathered in the vicinity. There were around a hundred thousand in total. He grabbed a male cultivator haphazardly and asked, "Sir, I heard you were talking about Xainte just now. Do you know much about Xainte? Do you know what her connection to the Great Wilderness is?"

This man looked pleased. He said, "You asked the right person, sir. I do know a little."

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2935

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2935-This man began talking incessantly.

"Rumor has it that Xainte is from the Great Wilderness.

"Thirty thousand years ago, a Sect Elder of the Paragon Sect detected anomalies in the Great Wilderness, so he went to the Great Wilderness and then returned with a baby.

"As for what had happened exactly, other than the Great Elder of the Paragon Sect, no one knows."

By asking around, James learned something, and that was Xainte came from the Great Wilderness.

No one knew about the details.

Previously, he had heard the conversation between Xainte and Yikron.

Xainte's mother seemed to be in the Great Wilderness. As for what this was all about, no one knew.

Xainte resembled both Thea and Winnie. James felt that it was not a coincidence. She might be related to Thea.

However, if they were really related, how exactly were they related? Could it be that Xainte was Thea's daughter? Who was her father, then?

At this moment, James felt as though he had been cuckolded.

Phew!

James took a deep breath. He felt certain that Thea would not do anything hurtful to him.

If he wanted to understand what was going on, he had to find Thea, or find Xainte and ask her directly.

"Sir, what are you thinking about?"

Yevpraksiya tugged James, who was lost in his thoughts.

James finally returned from his thoughts and said, "Nothing. It's nothing.

Let's head into the city first."

After saying that, James walked toward Southern Plains City. Shortly after making some inquiries, he discovered that Xainte was currently at a residence in the city. The residence belonged to the Southern Academy.

Soon, he arrived at the main entrance of the Southern Academy's residence. He wanted to go in, but his path was blocked by disciples of the Southern Academy.

"I'm looking for Xainte," James said with a straight face, "You better get out of my way. If you hinder Xainte's important business, you'll regret it." "Looking for Xainte?"

A disciple of the Southern Academy glanced at James and immediately saw through his cultivation base and strength. With a contemptuous expression on his face, he said,

"You're only at the Sage Rank's Tenth Stage. How could you possibly know Xainte? Brat, do you know what Xainte's rank is? She is a Quasi-Emperor." "Step aside." James' face darkened.

"Get lost."

The expression of the Southern Academy's disciple guarding the entrance changed as well. They waved their hand casually. A powerful force swept over, and James was immediately sent flying.

The Southern Academy was one of the world's ten major powers. Even the disciples stationed at the entrance were cultivators on the cusp of reaching the Divine Rank. James was no match for such powerful cultivators at all.

James' body was sent flying, and he fell hard on the ground in the distance.

He pulled himself up from the ground awkwardly, looked at the main entrance of the Southern Academy's residence, and started to ponder. He was thinking about how he could get into the Southern Academy's residence and what he needed to do to meet Xainte.

Yevpraksiya quickly walked over. With a touch of concern on her face, she asked, "Sir, how are you? Are you alright?"

James shook his head slightly and said, "I'm alright."

Yevpraksiya advised him, "If it doesn't work out, forget about it. A person like Xainte is worlds apart from us."

James said, "You don't understand."

Yevpraksiya did not understand indeed. She assumed James wanted to meet Xainte merely because of her beauty, but that was not the case.

James wanted to meet Xainte because she looked very much like Thea. He felt that Xainte was Thea's daughter, that she was related to Thea.

Nonetheless, these were all based on his intuition. To learn the truth, he still had to find Xainte and ask her directly.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2936

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2936-James wanted to know the truth. Nonetheless, he could not get in right now.

This place was the residence of the Southern Academy. Even the disciples guarding the main entrance were cultivators at the Sage Rank's Thirty-third Stage, on the verge of entering the Divine Rank.

With such powerful cultivators guarding the main entrance, it was extremely difficult for him to enter the residence.

Right now, his only option was to wait outside the entrance.

"Sir, let's forget about it." Yevpraksiya kept dissuading him.

"We'll wait here. There's no way I won't be able to see Xainte." James stood at the entrance of the Southern Academy's residence.

James started to wait at the entrance, and Yevpraksiya waited with him as well.

However, they had only waited a short time before many living beings gathered at the entrance. These living beings were all clamoring to see Xainte, but all of them were stopped by the guards at the entrance.

At this moment, Yikron was seated at the forefront in the main hall of the Southern Academy's residence.

Xainte, on the other hand, was seated on the seat below. She looked worried.

Yikron glanced at Xainte with adoration in his expression. Xainte was the most terrifying prodigy in this era, if not the most terrifying prodigy since the birth of the Boundless Realm. Yikron was also a prodigy.

A prodigy paired with another prodigy. A talented man and a beautiful woman. They were simply made for each other.

"Ms. Xainte, I have a question on my mind."

Yikron looked at Xainte. She glanced at Yikron and said nonchalantly, "What is it?"

Yikron asked, "What is the relationship between you and the Malevolent Demon?"

When she heard that, Xainte furrowed her brow slightly. She did not answer the question.

Yikron continued, "Rumor has it that you were brought out of the Great Wilderness by the Great Elder of Paragon Sect thirty thousand years ago. Thirty thousand years ago also happened to be several thousand years after the powerhouses attacked the Malevolent Demon.

“Could it be that your mother is the Malevolent Demon?” “How is that possible?” Xainte cast a glance at Yikron and corrected him, saying, “My mother is not the Malevolent Demon. She’s just a maid by the Malevolent Demon’s side.”

After saying that, she took a deep breath.

“It’s complicated. You don’t know much. Even if I tell you, you wouldn’t understand.”

Yikron was tactful and did not ask any further. He changed the subject and said, “According to rumors, the Malevolent Demon has not died and is still alive. In order to confirm the veracity of this information, the Southern Academy’s powerhouses are already on their way to the Great Wilderness.

“However, someone spread the word that the Malevolent Demon is nearing the end of their life and has appeared this time to find a successor. This drew the desire of many cultivators from the Eidolon Realm. Numerous living beings have already entered the Great Wilderness. It seems that the Great Wilderness is about to be in chaos.”

Xainte asked, “Is this information real or fake?”

Yikron shook his head and said, “That’s not clear. The Southern Academy powerhouses are already heading toward the depths of the Great Wilderness, so there should be some news soon. Just wait patiently for a while.”

Currently, James was at the main entrance of the Southern Academy’s residence.

Many prodigies from the Southern Plains City had gathered at the entrance. All of these prodigies were outstanding individuals from prominent sects or families.

They came here to see Xainte and to invite her to have dinner with them.

As word of Xainte’s appearance in Southern Plains City spread, the number of prodigies appearing in Southern Plains City grew.

All of these prodigies were the most spectacular powerhouses of this era.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2937

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2937-The strength of the weakest among them had reached the Divine Rank. There were even some individuals who had reached the Three Divine Stages and were about to enter the Quasi-Emperor Rank.

When James saw so many prominent figures appear at the main entrance of Southern Academy's residence, he slightly furrowed his brow. 'Is this Xainte really that famous? She's able to attract so many powerful figures.'

As the numerous prominent figures gathered, once again, a man walked over from a distance.

The man appeared to be about twenty years old and was dressed in a white robe. On the robe, the word 'Elixir' was depicted on it. He was also wearing a glittering badge on his chest.

James recognized it the moment he saw it. It was an alchemist's badge.

Yevpraksiya said in a lowered voice beside James, "Sir, he's from the Elixir Pavilion. The badge he wears on his chest is a special badge. It's a dedicated badge for alchemists at the Divine Rank's Third Grade. Even in the entire Boundless Realm, there aren't many badges like this."

James could not help but give another glance at the man who was walking over, slightly astonished. 'He's actually an alchemist at the Divine Rank's Third Grade.'

An alchemist at the Divine Rank's Third Grade was much more terrifying than a cultivator at the Three Divine Stages.

The man strode over.

As soon as the Southern Academy disciple standing guard at the main entrance noticed that it was a person from the Elixir Pavilion, and an alchemist at the Divine Rank's Third Grade at that, he did not dare to slight him. He walked over and called out to him respectfully, "Greetings, sir."

With an insouciant look on his face, the man looked at the entrance of the Southern Academy residence and said, "Go and report that the Young Master of the Elixir Pavilion, Jules Daniela, has come to pay a visit. Just say that Jules wants to meet Xainte." "Y-Young Master?"

Upon hearing these two words, the Southern Academy disciple backed up slightly in shock.

Elixir Pavilion was the most frightening force in this world. Although the headquarters of Elixir Pavilion was not in the Eidolon Realm, the influence of Elixir Pavilion had already reached the Eidolon Realm.

"Yes, I'll report your visit right away."

This Southern Academy student dared not be negligent in any way.

He turned around and entered the residence.

In the residence's main hall, Yikron was seated at the forefront. Xainte, on the other hand, sat below him. The two were talking about the Great Wilderness.

At this moment, a Southern Academy disciple walked over and called out with a face filled with respect, "Mr. Gildrim."

After that, he looked at Xainte and said respectfully, "Ms. Xainte, many prodigies have arrived outside. All of them came to see you. Even the Young Master of the Elixir Pavilion has appeared and specifically requested to see you." "The Elixir Pavilion's... Young Master?"

Xainte was slightly taken aback.

The headquarters of the Elixir Pavilion was not in the Eidolon Realm. What was the Young Master of Elixir Pavilion doing in the Eidolon Realm? He even asked to see her specifically.

"I won't see them."

Currently, Xainte was distraught with anxiety. She did not have the mood to meet other people.

"Ms. Xainte. You can choose not to see other people, but I'm afraid it's best if you meet with the Young Master of Elixir Pavilion," Yikron promptly advised her, "That's the future Master of Elixir Pavilion, one of the most powerful people in this world." "So what?" Xainte's face was filled with contempt. Even if his father, Xavkarem Daniela, showed up in person, she would not bother with him, let alone Jules.

There was an awkward look on Yikron's face. He said, "Ms. Xainte, you're too famous. Countless men in this world wish to conquer you. As long as you don't choose a partner, there will be constant inconveniences. In my opinion..."

At this point, he took a brief pause.

"I think you should choose a partner. Even if it's fake, it can convince many prominent figures to give up. How about this? What if I help you smooth things over and pretend to be your partner?"

Yikron adored Xainte. He had known her for a very long time and had long been interested in her. He was already scheming in his head.

How could Xainte possibly be unaware of Yikron's thoughts?

She cast a glance at Yikron. Without paying him much attention, she stood up, walked toward the door, and said nonchalantly, "Even if I had to choose, I wouldn't choose you."

After saying that, she turned around and walked out the door.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2938

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2938-Xainte walked towards the main entrance and soon arrived at the main entrance.

At the main entrance of Southern Academy's residence, prodigies from prominent families and sects in Southern Plains City had gathered.

Jules from the Elixir Pavilion, on the other hand, had rushed over from the Holy Realm. He came specifically to see Xainte.

As soon as Xainte stepped outside, she noticed a dense mass of living beings. When she saw these men, she had a look of disgust on her face.

James had been waiting at the entrance. Upon seeing Xainte come outside, he quickly walked over. However, before he got close, he felt a powerful force. With this force obstructing him, he could not move forward.

He looked ahead and realized the person emitting this force was Jules from the Elixir Pavilion.

A powerful force was emanating from Jules' body, preventing all of the men at the entrance from moving closer.

Jules strode up to Xainte and appeared several meters away from her.

With a satisfied smile on his face, he looked at Xainte and said, "Just as seductive and beautiful as the rumors suggest."

Xainte glanced at Jules and said nothing.

James' strength was limited. He could not pass through the barrier of Jules' force, and could only shout loudly from afar.

"Xainte, over here. Over here!" he shouted loudly while waving his hands continuously.

Nonetheless, there were too many men. They were all yelling and shouting Xiante's name. James' shouts were drowned out.

Xainte was right in front of him, but James could not meet her or speak to her. He was distraught.

Meanwhile, Xainte ignored the shouts of the crowd. She fixed her gaze on Jules, a cold and detached look on her face, and said, "Why? What's the matter?"

Jules smiled faintly and said, "People have been saying that only a true prodigy is capable of conquering you. Only by conquering you can one be considered a real man, so I'm here."

Xainte did not pay him much attention, turned around, and left.

She could not wait in Southern Plains City any longer. She wanted to go to the Great Wilderness personally, to find her mother.

Yikron's guess was correct. Her mother was, in fact, the Malevolent Demon mentioned in the rumors.

No one else knew about this. Even the Great Elder of Paragon Sect who brought her out of the Great Wilderness was unaware.

Xainte was unusual. As soon as she was born, she had memories and knew about her mother. She declared to others that her mother was only a maid at the Malevolent Demon's side. The only person who knew the truth was herself.

All these years, she had always wanted to travel to the Great Wilderness and find her mother, but she never had the chance. After getting the news about her mother this time, how could she stand by and wait at Southern Plains City?

With a flash, Xainte vanished from everyone's line of sight.

When Yikron rushed outside, Xainte had already left.

As soon as Xainte left, Jules followed her.

Yikron, who had rushed outside, frowned slightly upon seeing that, but then quickly followed as well.

"Yevpraksiya, wait for me in Southern Plains City."

After finishing this sentence, James pursued them as well.

"Sir...!" Yevpraksiya shouted, but James had already left. She had no choice but to stay in Southern Plains City for the time being and wait for James here.

James chased after them. However, his strength was vastly different from that of Xainte, Jules, and Yikron. After pursuing them outside the city, he lost track of these people.

James could roughly infer that Xainte had hurried to the Great Wilderness, while Jules and Yikron had followed her.

“To the Great Wilderness.”

James decided to travel to the Great Wilderness. He had a strong hunch that Xainte was related to Thea.

Given that he did not know which direction the Great Wilderness was, he did not immediately head toward the Great Wilderness.

He walked toward the city to find Yevpraksiya and ask her for a detailed map of the Southern Plains.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2939

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2939-At the same time, he made an inquiry to the Spirit Tool in the Celestial Abode.

“Spirit Tool, is there a possibility that Xainte is my daughter?” James asked the Spirit Tool in the Celestial Abode.

It was a bold notion. However, when he was approaching Xainte, he felt some sort of bloodline connection. It was an absurd idea since he had not done that with Thea in a very long time.

Furthermore, before coming to the Boundless Realm, he spent some time in closed-door meditation with Thea, studying Elysian characters and even cultivating in seclusion. Immediately after that, they came to the Boundless Realm.

It did not line up in terms of timing. Xainte could not possibly be his daughter.

All of James’s experiences were known to the Spirit Tool.

After giving it some thought, the Spirit Tool said, “Mhm. It is possible.” “It’s possible?” James was immediately delighted.

Spirit Tool explained, “Ten months of pregnancy is only for typical humans. The stronger the cultivation base, the longer the pregnancy period. It’s even possible for it to last for hundreds or even thousands of years. This is related to natural endowments.

The more sacrilegious the individual, the longer the pregnancy. It's possible that Thea was already carrying a child before coming to the Boundless Realm."

When he heard that, James felt relieved. If that was the case, he was not cuckolded.

His mood lightened up, and he said with a smile, "Xainte is too similar to Thea and Winnie. I couldn't help but think along those lines. If she is really my daughter, then there is information about Thea.

"So our previous theory was correct. In the River of Time, Thea and I were involved in an accident. As a result, Thea appeared in this era several tens of thousands of years before me."

When he considered these, the anxiety in James' heart was completely gone.

Nonetheless, whether these were true and exactly as he thought remained to be determined. He still needed to find Xainte and ask her. Then, he might be able to find Thea.

Shortly after, he returned to the city. He found Yevpraksiya.

"Sir, didn't you follow them? Why are you back?" Yevpraksiya looked surprised.

With a look of embarrassment on his face, James said, "I don't know how to get to the Great Wilderness. Give me a detailed map of the Southern Plains." "Sir, you need to buy a communicator first. A detailed map of the Southern Plains can be downloaded directly from the communicator." "Got it." James nodded and said, "Wait for me in Southern Plains City for now. After I take care of these things, I'll come back and find you."

James finished saying that, then turned around and left. In Southern Plains City, he found a store that specialized in selling communicators and purchased one.

After downloading a detailed map of the Southern Plains and locating the Great Wilderness, James summoned the Saucer and rode it to the Great Wilderness.

It was a long journey to the Great Wilderness. Even if he hurried along with all his might, it would take several hundred years with his current strength.

It was different, however, when using a Saucer. With a Saucer, even if he did not execute a Space Leap, it would only take a few days. This was one of the advantages of having a Saucer.

The Saucer was used for interstellar travel. It possessed a unique ability: it could perform a Space Leap, advancing by leaping across a section of space.

James entered the Saucer.

Three days later, he appeared in an unfamiliar location. He stepped off the Saucer and stood in a mountain range.

The so-called Great Wilderness was not a desolate region, but a rolling mountain range.

James looked at the summit of a mountain, took in his surroundings, and muttered softly, "This Great Wilderness is far too big. Where exactly are Xainte and the others? In which direction should I go now?"

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2940

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2940-The Great Wilderness was far too big. It was extremely difficult for James to find Xainte in the vast mountain range of the Great Wilderness.

He stood on top of a mountain and started to ponder.

If he wanted to find Xainte, he needed to first understand why Xainte came to the Great Wilderness.

He had previously heard Xainte conversing with Yikron and mentioning her mother.

"Could it be that Xainte came to the Great Wilderness to find her mother?"

As he thought about this, James was instantly energized. According to his speculation, Xainte was his daughter, so Thea would be her mother, right? Was Thea in the Great Wilderness?

At this moment, James was worked up. However, he was also at a loss. He had no idea where to go from here.

He sincerely hoped that everything was as he suspected, that Thea was indeed in the Great Wilderness. Then, he would be able to meet with her and would not have to worry about finding her.

He did not know which direction he should take moving forward.

Nonetheless, he guessed that moving toward the depths of the Great Wilderness would be fine. After determining which direction he had come from, he moved forward.

He was already in the Great Wilderness, so he did not press on his journey with the Saucer. Instead, he exerted all of his strength and flew at full tilt.

James was a powerful cultivator who had reached the Sage Rank's Tenth Stage. The speed at which he was traveling was fairly good.

However, along the way, he noticed a strange phenomenon. In the vast mountain range of the Great Wilderness, he did not come across a single creature. It struck him as odd and did not make sense.

The Primordial Energy in this mountain range was quite good. In normal circumstances, there would be monsters. Even if there were no monsters, there would be some animals who did not develop wisdom. Regardless, he did not come across any life along the way.

The entire Great Wilderness was dead silent.

James kept moving forward, into the depths of the Great Wilderness. While he pressed on for a dozen days, he did not come across any life, nor did he find any trace of humans either.

After traveling nonstop for half a month, he came to a temporary halt. He took out the communicator, opened the map, and started to look at it. He discovered that his current location was still at the fringe of the Great Wilderness.

The Great Wilderness was vast. With his current strength, if he wanted to reach the deepest part of the Great Wilderness, he would need to fly with all his might for about three years.

James took a short break. After he had a good rest and recovered the expended Sage Energy, he took out the Saucer and started using the Saucer to advance.

Following the use of the Saucer, he was traveling at a much higher speed.

Soon, he appeared in the depths of the Great Wilderness.

After arriving at the depths of the Great Wilderness, James put away the Saucer. He stood on the crest of a mountain and looked at his surroundings.

He was surrounded by an undulating mountain range. The mountain range was covered in massive trees that stood several thousand meters tall.

Gales raged through, causing the massive trees to sway incessantly. Waves formed from the leaves of countless large trees.

The wind was howling, and the tree branches were rustling.

James stood on the mountain's summit, surveying his surroundings. His Divine Sense dispersed, and everything in this area emerged in his mind.

At this moment, he discovered that in an area not far away, there were living beings.

After he detected the living beings, James promptly hurried toward these living beings. In a short period of time, he appeared in the vicinity of these living beings.

There were three cultivators-two men and one woman.

The three were sitting under a large tree, around a campfire. They had taken out fresh meat that had already been prepared from the Storage Ring and were roasting the meat.

As soon as James drew near, the three instantly got to their feet.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-