The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2947-James and the three Lehman siblings were still together.

Seeing Xainte depart, James immediately stood up and followed the crowd of people further into the depths of the Great Wilderness.

Although the depths of the Great Wilderness were supposedly full of dangers, James did not encounter any monsters along the way.

After traveling for a few days, he appeared in front of a massive mountain.

The mountain was hundreds of thousands of meters tall, and its peak was nowhere within sight.

On the mountaintop was a massive boulder with several vivid and ancient words engraved on it reading- Malevolent Demon Residence.

After seeing the words on the boulder, everyone clamored with excitement.

The Malevolent Demon Residence was where the Malevolent Demon cultivated.

So, They hoped to obtain the Malevolent Demon's inheritance if they found her.

Xainte was the first to arrive.

She hovered in the sky and pondered deeply after seeing the words engraved on the boulder.

Yikron whispered a reminder from behind, "Be careful." Xainte snapped out of her thoughts and replied lightly, "There's nothing to worry about.

No matter how strong the Malevolent Demon is, she's only at the QuasiEmperor Rank's Ninth Tribulation.

Moreover, she was injured thirty-thousand years ago, so her fighting ability must've been considerably compromised.

I may be weaker than her, but that doesn't necessarily mean I'll lose." Despite her reassuring words, Xainte was actually worried about her mother.

She was well aware of what had happened to her mother.

Although Xainte did not know much about her mother, she knew her mother had suffered an Energy Deviation and had lost her rationality.

Xainte was not sure whether the Malevolent Demon would even recognize her own daughter.

She slowly descended from the sky and landed on the ground.

There was a stone wall with a gate and mysterious words carved on it.

Xainte walked over to the stone gate.

She raised her hand, and a strong force pushed open the door.

After the stone gate had opened, she quickly rushed inside.

By the time Yikron realized what had happened, Xainte had already rushed through the stone gate.

He chased after her but eventually lost track of Xainte.

“What is she doing?” Yikron frowned.

He could not figure out why Xainte wanted to avoid him.

Many others also eyeing the Malevolent Demon’s inheritance appeared at the stone gate and rushed inside without hesitation.

Although knowing they were risking their lives by entering the Malevolent Demon Residence, they wanted to hold onto the hope that the rumor about the Malevolent Demon’s inheritance was real and that they had a chance to obtain it.

Obtaining the Malevolent Demon’s inheritance would allow them to become nigh unstoppable.

Therefore, they did not hesitate to risk their lives.

James also followed the crowd into the Malevolent Demon’s Residence.

The Malevolent Demon’s Residence was a natural cave that had been slightly restructured.

It consisted of winding passages, and the people that entered the cave all chose random paths to travel in.

After James entered Thea’s residence, he bid farewell to the Lehman siblings.

“Goodbye, guys.

I wish you the best of luck in obtaining the Malevolent Demon's inheritance." After he bid them farewell, James chose one of the passages and made his way deeper.

He wanted to meet up with Thea before everyone else.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2948-The Malevolent Demon Residence was a cave where Thea cultivated.

The paths inside the cave extended in various directions.

James randomly chose a path and quickly moved through it.

After traveling for a while, he encountered some other people.

These people were gathered together in a group and began talking in low voices.

"This must be a formation set up by the Malevolent Demon.

She's probably testing us.

We'll have to break the formation before we can obtain her inheritance." "You may be onto something.

That must be it.

The Malevolent Demon is one of the Eidolon Realm's greatest powerhouses.

She hasn't become a Grand Emperor, yet she was able to seriously injure one.

It makes sense that she wants her successor to be excellent in every aspect." "This formation is pretty strong.

How can we break through it?" Many powerhouses huddled together.

As James approached, he overheard their chatter.

Only then did he realize that a formation was blocking the path ahead.

He had to first break the formation if he wanted to advance further.

James was surprised to see two familiar people.

One was Xainte, and the other was Yikron.

Many people were ahead of him, and he could not squeeze through the crowd.

Thus, he had to wait in the back.

However, he paid close attention to everything that was happening ahead.

In the front was another stone gate blocked by colorful rays of light.

The rays of light intersected and overlapped, forming a spectacular scene.

Meanwhile, a few people were lying on the ground.

These people were unaware of the formation and were injured when they tried to advance hastily.

At that moment, everyone was watching Xainte's every move.

Xainte was the strongest among them, and if anyone could break the formation, it would definitely be her.

Xainte looked at the formation before them.

Seeing the numerous people around her, a frown formed on her face.

She did not want them following her to the deepest parts of the cave to meet the Malevolent Demon.

"I can't break the formation." She looked at the crowd and said helplessly, "Going further through this passage isn't possible.

We should go around to see if there are other passages." Despite her advice to find a different route, Xainte remained in place.

When they saw her stay in place, the crowd also refused to disperse.

Xainte had a solemn expression, seeing that no one was turning away.

She began thinking about how to get rid of the crowd.

After thinking for a while, she carefully observed the formation.

She thought of bypassing the formation without obliterating it.

In front of the stone gate were colorful lights crisscrossing to form a magical pattern.

Xainte had learned about formations before and was rather familiar with them.

She stared at the light rays, and they gradually faded away into mysterious words.

The words changed constantly and formed countless variations in a short period.

About ten minutes passed.

During this time, Xainte had already figured out how to enter the formation.

She took a step forward.

Seeing her advance, everyone else followed suit.

Xainte looked around.

She smiled slightly and her body became a flash of light, passing through the formation unharmed.

Many people from the crowd wanted to follow her, but they did not dare to rush blindly through the formation.

Xainte entered the formation under everyone's vigilant gaze and vanished to the other side.

After passing through, Xainte turned around and looked at the people outside the formation.

She smirked and continued to advance further.

The people outside knew how powerful the formation was, and that it was powerful enough to cause a Divine Ranked person to become seriously wounded or even die.

"What should we do?" "What's going on with Xainte? How is she able to enter alone?" "I don't care anymore! I'm going to go all out!" One of the powerhouses was unwilling to give up.

He drew upon all his strength and rushed toward the formation.

After he entered the intersecting rays of light, he was immediately struck by a terrifying force.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2949-The man's body was sent through the air.

He crashed into the ground and spat out a mouthful of blood.

He was severely injured despite being at the Divine Rank's Third Stage.

Seeing the formation hurt a powerhouse like him, the others did not dare to breakthrough the formation carelessly.

Yikron stood before the formation and observed it pensively.

He also knew a little about formations but was not very well versed in it.

With his current knowledge, it was impossible to break the formation.

James frowned upon seeing Xainte enter the formation.

He forcibly squeezed his way through the crowd and arrived in front of the formation.

"Can you break the formation, Nova?" James asked Nova in the Celestial Abode for help.

Soon, a voice replied telepathically to James.

"Although the formation is complicated, it's not very advanced.

Breaking it should be a simple task." "Could you help me pass through the formation? I want to follow after Xainte to find Thea." Right after James finished his sentence, a powerful force emerged from the Celestial Abode and cloaked James.

Nova's voice came from the Celestial Abode.

"You should be able to go through it now." Since Nova was created by Emperor Jabari, he had accompanied the latter for a long time.

Therefore, he had vast knowledge, and James was relieved to have his support.

James walked toward the formation without any hesitation.

Yikron mocked him, "You must really have a death wish.

You're only a cultivator at the Sage Rank's Tenth Stage, but think you can pass through the formation?" Seeing that a human at the Sage Rank was trying to pass through the formation, everyone watched James in amusement.

James walked into the pattern formed by the intersecting lights.

The pattern was not very big, but its interior looked like a totally different world and was incredibly vast.

After James entered the formation, countless Sword Energies shot at him.

However, the powerful force around his body repelled the series of attacks.

“To your front.” Nova guided James forward.

Soon, James passed through the formation and arrived before the stone gate.

All the powerhouses outside the formation were shocked to see James successfully walk through.

“U-Unbelievable.

A human at the Sage Rank’s Tenth Stage just passed through the formation.” “Where did that human come from?” “For him to pass through the formation, he must be more capable than he looks.” The crowd outside began to chatter astonishedly.

Meanwhile, James had already passed through the stone gate behind the formation.

After entering the stone gate, he found another passage.

James advanced through it.

Soon, he met up with Xainte, who had entered before him.

Xainte stood before a painting in a daze.

Seeing Xainte, James felt nervous.

James called out to her, “Xainte.” He had known about her for a long time and wanted to talk to her.

However, he never had the chance until this moment.

Hearing someone calling out for her, Xainte turned around.

Seeing James, Xainte was shocked that a cultivator at the Sage Rank’s Tenth Stage managed to come so far.

“You... How did you pass through the formation?”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2950-Xainte looked at James in surprise.

She knew the formation outside was powerful.

It would be impossible to pass through the formation unless one had reached the Emperor rank.

Yet, James was only at the Sage Rank's Tenth Stage.

He was supposed to be too weak to force his way through the formation.

Was he actually proficient in formation techniques and knew of a way to break it? Xainte glared at James.

James walked closer to Xainte.

This was the first time he had come face to face with Xainte and seen her from up close.

The more James looked at Xainte, the more he saw her resemblance to Thea and Winnie.

"Haah!" James took a deep breath to calm himself.

He did not dare act recklessly, knowing he might get beaten up if he were to tell her that he was her father.

James asked tentatively, "Have you come to see Thea?" Stunned, Xainte took a few steps backward and stared at James warily.

Did this man know her identity? Why does he know the Malevolent Demon's real name? No one knew the Malevolent Demon's name, so how could a human at the Sage Rank's Tenth Stage possess knowledge about it? When he saw Xainte's reaction, James knew that Xainte was familiar with Thea.

"If I told you I know Thea, would you believe me?" James asked gently.

Xainte calmed down and looked at James, asking, "Who's Thea?" James touched his nose and said, "That's the Malevolent Demon in the rumors.

Aren't you her daughter? I knew you were her daughter the moment I saw you.

You resemble her a lot." Xainte scoffed.

“Impossible.

The Malevolent Demon has always worn a mask.

No one knows what she looks like, not even me.

How would someone like you know?” “What? You’ve never seen Thea’s face before? You don’t know what she looks like?” Although Xainte did not know James, her desire to kill him grew as she listened to him expose her secrets.

She clenched her fists.

There was no way she could let anyone know about her past.

It would put her in danger if word got out.

James sensed Xainte’s hostility and knew she wanted to kill him.

He quickly explained in a panic, “Me and Thea, the Malevolent Demon, are old acquaintances.

We’ve known each other for a long time.

It’s a long story, so calm down.

I’ll slowly explain it to you.” Xainte glared at James, silently calculating her next move.

She wanted to hear what James had to say.

After thinking for a while, James said, “I’ll have to start explaining from when I used to be on another world called the Earth...” James began to reveal his past and told Xainte everything about Earth.

He started from the Cadens’ mansion being set on fire and Thea rescuing him from the inferno which left her face disfigured.

“Thea saved my life, but her face was disfigured because of her bravery.

After I served ten years in the army, I looked for her and married into her family.

She’s actually my wife.” James recounted the events wistfully.

Xainte listened silently while staring at James.

James continued to speak about his relationship and experiences with Thea.

He even told her about the Earth undergoing dramatic changes after recovering its Spiritual Energy.

He went on to mention about the Earth's Four Calamities.

“The humans of Earth will have to face Four Calamities.

With the help of the Human Realm's Lord, Thea and I came to the Boundless Realm.”
