

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2951

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2951-“We used the Time Capsule and forcibly opened a passage into the Boundless Realm.

“There isn’t much time left for the humans.

To find the Ancestral God Rank Elixir, the Human Realm’s Lord sent us back into the past with the Time Capsule.

However, an unexpected issue cropped up while we were traveling through time.

“I appeared one hundred thousand years in the past, and Thea was sent to a different period of time.” While speaking, James cast a glance at Xainte.

Xainte’s brows furrowed.

She was trying to verify whether James’ stories were real.

James understood his stories may seem outlandish to Xainte, so he took out Crucifier and said, “This is Crucifier.

It was fused with Thea’s Exalter into the Time Capsule.” “You might not believe me, but she’ll surely explain everything after you find her.” Xainte chuckled and said, “Ha.

So according to what you’re saying, you’re my father?” James scratched his nose and said, “Theoretically speaking, yes.

I’m your father.

Could it be your mother never told you about your origin?” At that moment, Xainte frowned once more.

“My mother suffered an Energy Deviation and isn’t in her right mind.

She doesn’t remember who she is, nor where she came from,” said Xainte with a sigh.

James exclaimed in alarm, “What? An Energy Deviation? How is that possible?” Xainte shook her head and said, “I don’t know what happened.

I only know she was heavily injured during the battle thirty thousand years ago.

She was about to give birth to me and expended a lot of strength to ensure my safe delivery.

After that, the Paragon Sect’s Great Elder came for her.

“Back then, my mother was in a frail state and couldn’t fight back against the Paragon Sect’s Great Elder.

“Despite her delirious state, she was still trying to protect both of us.

She deliberately left me behind and hid.

The Paragon Sect’s Great Elder found me and brought me out of the Great Wilderness.” Xainte spoke lightly about her past.

She had never told anyone about these things.

However, she made an exception because James knew about her identity as well as her mother.

She was unsure of whether James was telling the truth, but James’ earlier claims were rather accurate and he did not seem to be lying.

Xainte looked at James and asked, “So you’re saying you and my mother came from outside the Boundless Realm and are here to find the Ancestral God Rank Elixir?” James nodded and said, “Yeah.

Some powerhouses from the Primeval Age left behind the Ancestral God Rank Elixir.

It’s humanity’s only hope.” “You said humans have curses inside their bodies because of the Third Calamity, right? So, where’s yours?” Xainte stared at James.

James lightly waved his hand, and black Curse Magic emerged from his body.

“This is Curse Magic.” “W-What...?” Xainte was startled at the sight of the force before her.

She was very familiar with the power.

It was the same kind she sensed from her mother’s body.

Seeing her strange expression, James asked, “What’s wrong?” Xainte said, “This energy is similar to the one I sensed from my mother.

Is this Curse Magic? Could the curse in my mother’s body cause her to suffer an Energy Deviation?” James replied, “Impossible.

Back then, I’d already dispelled the curse in her body.

It’s impossible for any curse to still be within her.” Xainte said solemnly, “I’m not lying.

I sensed some identical energy in my mother.

Compared to the one I felt from my mother, yours is much weaker.” James’ face darkened.

‘What’s going on? I’ve already cleared the curse in Thea’s body, so how can there still be Curse Magic in her body? Did Thea really suffer an Energy Deviation because of the curse?’ Many doubts immediately formed in James’ heart.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2952

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2952-James fell into thought.

Meanwhile, Xainte was also trying to determine whether James was telling the truth.

Judging by the current situation, it did not seem like he was lying.

He knew a lot, especially about Thea.

Moreover, he knew that the sinister energy exuded by Thea was Curse Magic.

This man also had Curse Magic in his body.

Considering all the facts, James would be her father should he be telling the truth.

Xainte glanced at James.

It was a little hard for her to accept a person as her father.

The fact that she found her father was wonderful, but he was disappointingly weak.

She could not immediately accept the truth before her.

“Where’s Thea right now? Is she within the Malevolent Demon Residence?” asked James.

Xainte was not ready to trust James completely.

At the same time, she could not bring herself to lie when faced with James ‘ question.

She replied honestly, “In my memories, there was never such a thing as the Malevolent Demon Residence.

My mother lived in the depths of the Great Wilderness but she didn't cultivate within a cave.

How could an unhinged person build a cave to cultivate in?" James frowned upon hearing her question.

"Then what is this place?" Xainte shook her head and said, "I don't know either.

Maybe my mother really did live here at some point, but she definitely didn't give birth to me here.

Perhaps my mother died thirty thousand years ago, and someone is deliberately using her identity to stir up some trouble." Xaine's speculations were well-founded.

She thought for a while and said, "My mother is supposedly in a state of madness, so she won't be able to tell if she was about to die.

It's also unlikely that she'd be worried about her unique martial art skills being lost to time and that she's scrambling to find a successor." As for the conspiracy behind everything, Xainte had not yet found an answer to it.

However, she hoped the rumors were untrue, and that her mother was still well.

After learning that this was related to her mother, she wanted to get to the bottom of it even though she knew it could be a wild goose chase.

James looked at Xainte and asked, "What are you planning to do next?" Xainte looked at James and said, "Regardless of whether your stories are true, this place is very dangerous.

You're not even at the Divine Rank yet, so you should leave as soon as possible.

I have a feeling that something very bad is about to happen.

No matter what it is, I'll be able to protect myself, but the same can't be said for you.

I don't want to be distracted by having to protect you too." Although Xainte could not completely confirm James' words, she would not be able to watch him get hurt if he found himself in danger since there was a possibility he was her father." Despite her hesitation to accept it, there was an undeniably high chance he was her father.

James could immediately tell that she looked identical to Thea and that she was Thea's daughter with just a glance.

After thinking for a while, James said, "You don't have to worry about me.

I can protect myself.

You should go ahead with whatever you need to do.

Our priority is to find out whether Thea is still alive.

We'll discuss the rest after finding her." Xainte nodded lightly.

"Alright." After speaking, she began to depart.

Watching her leave, James shouted, "Remember to bring Thea to me after you find her.

I might be able to dispel the Curse Magic in her body."

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2953

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2953-James was unsure why Curse Magic was in Thea's body again, but thankfully he was immune to it.

As long as he could find Thea, he could dispel the curse within her body.

Xainte paused for a moment, then hastily set off.

Meanwhile, James stayed in place.

The cave was full of unknown dangers and the entire thing could likely be a trap.

He was relieved that Xainte was here.

If these things stumped even Xainte, he would not be able to succeed with his strength alone.

James chose to turn back and leave.

He left the Malevolent Demon Residence and temporarily rested at a mountain range outside to wait for Xainte.

Meanwhile, the Southern Academy's Great Elder and other elders returned to the Southern Plains.

A middle-aged man sat on a rock on the cliff at the Southern Academy's back mountain.

He wore a beige robe and looked about 40 years old.

However, on his face was an unseemly white beard.

The Great Elder appeared on the cliff and respectfully greeted the man.” Headmaster.” The middle-aged man was none other than one of the five academies’ headmasters.

He was also one of the Eidolon Realm’s Ten Powerhouses.

He was called the Southern Reverend.

The Southern Reverend sat on a rock, looking at the mountains in the distance.

He did not turn back to face the Southern Academy’s Great Elder as he asked calmly, “How did it go?” The Great Elder said, “I led a few of the Southern Academy’s elders into the depths of the Great Wilderness and entered the Malevolent Demon Residence.

We met the Malevolent Demon within.” “Is she still alive?” The Southern Reverend immediately stood up.

The Great Elder chose his next words carefully.

“What’s wrong?” asked the Southern Reverend.

The Great Elder thought for a while and said, “Tens of thousands of years ago, the Malevolent Demon Residence didn’t exist in the Great Wilderness.

She didn’t have a cultivation cave back then, so where did this place come from? I entered the Malevolent Demon Residence with the elders and encountered a mysterious masked person.

Judging from their moves and Supernatural Powers, the person is most likely the Malevolent Demon.” The Southern Reverend’s expression suddenly became solemn.

After thinking for a while, he said, “I didn’t expect the Malevolent Demon to be still alive.

Thirty-thousand years ago, the Malevolent Demon took countless lives.

For the peace and safety of Eidolon Realm, we’ll have to strike her down.

Although she was merely at the Quasi-Emperor Rank’s Ninth Tribulation back then, she still managed to injure several Grand Emperors.

Since much time has passed since then, her strength must’ve also improved significantly.

“Contact the other four academies immediately and visit the Paragon Sect’s Martial Reverend.

Tell him to gather our world's strongest to attack the Malevolent Demon in the depths of the Great Wilderness.

We must eliminate the Malevolent Demon once and for all." "Understood, Headmaster." The Great Elder quickly left after getting the headmaster's orders.

The area returned to silence.

The Southern Reverend stood at the edge of the cliff, staring silently into the distance.

Suddenly, his solemn expression disappeared.

The corner of his lips raised and formed a malicious smile.

Afterward, he casually waved his hand, and a powerful force emerged out of his hand.

Swoosh! A shadow flashed past him.

A mysterious man in a black robe and mask appeared before him and kneeled on one knee.

With his hoarse voice, he called out, "Master." The Southern Reverend said lightly, "Spread the news that the Malevolent Demon is still alive.

Tell people she's about to meet her end and is looking for a successor.

I want more people to head into the Great Wilderness." "Understood." The mysterious man in black nodded, and he vanished into thin air.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2954

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2954-The Paragon Sect's Great Elder was also a Quasi-Emperor.

However, he was only at the Quasi Emperor Rank's Second Tribulation and his strength was similar to Xainte.

Not only could he be considered a powerhouse in the Eidolon Realm, but he was also regarded as a top powerhouse in the Boundless Realm.

After he received the order from the Southern Reverend, he informed the other four academies about the Malevolent Demon and invited their headmasters to gather in the Southern Academy to discuss the matter.

Then, he quickly rushed to the Paragon Sect.

When the Southern Academy's Great Elder reached the Paragon Sect, the Great Elder of the Paragon Sect, who was also Xainte's teacher, came to see him.

"Sir Haberly." Paragon Sect's Great Elder was named Mateo Jackman.

He was at the Quasi Emperor Rank's Eighth Tribulation.

Meanwhile, the Southern Academy's Great Elder's name was Niklaus Haberly.

Inside the Paragon Sect's main hall, an older man of about 60 sat on the highest seat of the council.

That person was none other than Mateo, Paragon Sect's Great Elder.

Mateo looked at Niklaus and asked with a smile, "Is there something you need from the Paragon Sect?" Niklaus replied solemnly, "The Malevolent Demon is still alive." Mateo's expression aski darkened in turn.

During this period, many rumors had spread about the Malevolent Demon.

Word of this also reached his ears, and he knew that his disciple, Xainte, had gone to the Great Wilderness.

Mateo asked, "Have these rumors been verified?" Niklaus nodded and said, "I've led a few of the Southern Academy's elders to the depths of the Great Wilderness.

We met the Malevolent Demon inside her cultivation cave and fought with her.

However, we sustained injuries from fighting it.

"Our headmaster entrusted me to request the Paragon Sect's Martial Reverend to lead the attack against the Malevolent Demon." Mateo replied, "Our Sect Leader is still in seclusion." Niklaus said solemnly, "The Malevolent Demon is a great threat.

If she returns, the Eidolon Realm will be thrown into chaos again.

Our Headmaster suggests that the five major academies should unite with the Eidolon Realm's powerhouses and hunt the Malevolent Demon in the Great Wilderness." Mateo thought for a moment and said, "Please wait, Sir Haberly.

I'll go see our Sect Leader and inquire about his opinion on the matter." Niklaus nodded.

"Alright." Mateo understood the seriousness of the matter, so he did not dare to treat it lightly.

He quickly left for Paragon Sect's back mountains where the Sect Leader's seclusion sanctuary was located.

There was a manor situated on the mountain, and it was shrouded in silence.

This silence was broken by the sound of approaching footsteps.

Mateo walked into the manor.

He stood before a room and called out.

"Sir." Creak.

The door opened, and a man walked out.

The handsome man seemed to be in his 30s and was dressed in a plain white robe.

He strode out with his hands crossed behind his back.

Mateo walked over and asked, "How's your injury, Sir?" The Martial Reverend said solemnly, "My injuries have recovered, but the Malevolent Demon is truly terrifying.

Even after tens of thousands of years, I still haven't eliminated the energy she left in my body.

I can only suppress it for now." Mateo said solemnly, "Sir... I have some bad news." "Hmm?" The Martial Reverend looked at Mateo.

Mateo explained, "I've just received news that the Malevolent Demon is still alive." "That's impossible."

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2955

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2955-The Martial Reverend was in disbelief.

"I watched her die with my own eyes back then.

I was so sure that she died in front of me, so how is it possible she's still alive?" "This news comes from a trusted source.

The Southern Academy's Great Elder led a group of elders into the depths of the Great Wilderness.

They even fought with the Malevolent Demon but ended up wounded.

The Southern Academy's Great Elder came personally to relay the news to us.

"The Southern Academy's Headmaster instructed him to pay us a visit and request you to gather the world's powerhouses to attack the Malevolent Demon in the Great Wilderness." Hearing this, the Martial Reverend's expression turned dour.

He had experienced first hand how terrifying the Malevolent Demon was.

He was a Grand Emperor who was considered to be unrivaled in the Eidolon Realm.

However, the Malevolent Demon managed to injure him despite being simultaneously attacked by countless powerhouses 30,000 years ago.

The Eidolon Realm would face a disaster if the Malevolent Demon truly did survive.

The Martial Reverend immediately got up and headed toward the main hall.

Niklaus had been waiting in the main hall for a while.

Soon, two figures approached.

He quickly stood up and courteously addressed them," Martial Reverend." The Martial Reverend gently waved his hand and dove straight into the main topic as he asked, "Is the Malevolent Demon really still alive?" Nicklaus nodded and said affirmatively, "Yes, she's definitely still alive.

Our elders came face to face with her and even engaged her in battle." Hearing the confirmation, the Martial Reverend took a seat.

Niklaus continued to speak, "We've already relayed the message, and powerhouses from the other four academies are making their way to the Southern Academy as we speak.

We're waiting for you to join us and lead the attack against the Malevolent Demon in the depths of the Great Wilderness.

The Martial Reverend fell into thought.

During the battle 30,000 years ago, he had gotten severely injured.

Although his injuries had recovered, the Malevolent Demon's sinister energy within his body had not been expelled.

He knew how terrifying the energy was since even he could not get rid of it.

If the sinister energy were to spread throughout the Eidolon Realm or across the entire Boundless Realm, it would definitely be a catastrophe.

After thinking for a while, the Martial Reverend stood up and said, "Go back and tell the Southern Reverend that I'll immediately summon powerhouses from the Paragon Sect and head to the Southern Academy." Niklaus stood up and cupped his hands, saying, "With the Martial Reverend's support, I'm sure we can take down the Malevolent Demon.

I'll take my leave and return to inform our headmaster about your participation." The Southern Academy's Great Elder, Nikalus, did not stay long and quickly left the Paragon Sect.

After Niklaus left, the Martial Reverend instructed Mateo, "Pass on the order that all powerhouses above the Divine Rank's Third Stage are to be prepared to set off toward the Southern Academy." "Understood." Mateo, the Great Elder of the Paragon Sect, immediately left to carry out the order.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2956

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2956-James loitered around the Malevolent Demon Residence for around a month.

He waited patiently on a mountain outside.

During this period, he saw large numbers of cultivators appearing within the depths of the Great Wilderness and entering the Malevolent Demon Residence.

However, none of those that entered the Malevolent Demon Residence had exited yet.

At least tens of millions of cultivators had entered the Malevolent Demon Residence as of now.

James looked at the huge mountain ahead of him pensively.

He thought, 'How big is the Malevolent Demon Residence? How couldn't any cultivators that entered come out again? I wonder if something actually happened...' As the possibility popped up in his mind, he quickly dismissed it.

'So many cultivators have gone inside.

It's impossible for something to have happened.' Meanwhile, countless powerhouses from the Eidolon Realm were gathered at the Southern Academy.

The Southern Academy was one of Eidolon Realm's five major academies.

They were considered a major force.

Although they did not have any Grand Emperors, they had many Quasi Emperors and several that were very close to becoming Grand Emperors.

The Paragon Sect's leader, the Martial Reverend, stood in front of the group.

He was a Grand Emperor and was the leader of the Eidolon Realm's Ten Powerhouses.

He was easily considered the strongest in the Eidolon Realm.

With his strength, he was indeed worthy of being called the Eidolon Realm's strongest cultivator.

The powerhouses gathered within a conference hall of the Southern Academy.

The Martial Reverend stood in front and beside him was the Southern Academy's Headmaster.

Standing below them were some elders from all of the five major academies.

Behind them were other powerhouses from other prestigious families and sects in the Eidolon Realm.

More than a hundred people were gathered in the hall.

The Martial Reverend sat in the highest seat and looked at the powerhouses before him.

He said solemnly, 'Thirty-thousand years ago, all of you went into the depths of the Great Wilderness to subdue the Malevolent Demon.

Unfortunately, the Malevolent Demon survived and is currently still alive.

If she is to order another attack on our cities, it'll definitely be a disaster for the Eidolon Realm." The Southern Reverend interjected, saying, "We've called everyone to the Southern Academy to prepare a foray into the Great Wilderness to take down the Malevolent Demon.

We must eliminate her before she launches another attack on our world." All the powerhouses gathered in the hall had already heard about the Malevolent Demon.

At that moment, a powerhouse shouted, "We'll follow after you, Martial Reverend.

If you give the order, I'll immediately send powerful cultivators from my sect to join you in the attack against the Malevolent Demon." "The same goes for me!" "The Malevolent Demon must be killed." "Back then, the Malevolent Demon ordered tens of thousands of monsters to attack our cities and caused a lot of people to die.

"We can't let such a disaster take place again." "We must kill the Malevolent Demon." The powerhouses present assented to the plan wholeheartedly

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-