

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2957

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2957- 'Thirty thousand years ago, the Martial Reverend was already a Grand Emperor.

However, he was severely injured by the Malevolent Demon back then. After returning from the battle, he stayed in seclusion for the next thirty thousand years."

"Since it took so many powerhouses to subjugate the Malevolent Demon, one will surely become invincible after obtaining her inheritance."

"Let's go to the Great Wilderness and watch what happens."

After countless powerhouses gathered in the Southern Academy for the discussion, many cultivators of the Eidolon Realm departed to the Great Wilderness.

They wanted to watch the fight against the Malevolent Demon and attempt to obtain her inheritance.

Although they barely had a chance of obtaining the inheritance, they wanted to cling onto the belief that they would somehow luck out.

Meanwhile, James was unaware of the affairs outside the Great Wilderness.

He had no idea countless powerhouses of the Eidolon Realm were making their way into the depths of the Great Wilderness.

James had been waiting outside the Malevolent Demon

Residence for a month. He noticed that the people that entered the cave never came out, and had a bad premonition about this.

"Could something have really happened?"

James stood on the mountaintop and looked at the cultivators continuously heading into the Malevolent Demon Residence. His heart grew increasingly uneasy, and a grim look was plastered on his face.

He took a deep breath, wondering what exactly was happening in the Malevolent

Demon Residence. Why were there people going in, yet none appeared to leave?

Ultimately, he felt it was necessary for him to check on the situation.

The Malevolent Demon Residence was located under a massive mountain, which towered endlessly in the sky.

James entered the Malevolent Demon Residence.

After traveling into the cave, he attempted to use his Divine Sense to perceive the surroundings. However, the cave was surrounded by powerful formations, and it was impossible for him to get a sense of his surroundings.

James had no choice but to randomly pick a passage and quickly make his way through it.

After advancing for a while, James came across a formation blocking his path.

Fortunately, he could ask Nova within the Celestial Abode for help. With Nova's assistance, he easily passed through the formation and continued to advance forward.

James kept traversing through the cave.

Ten days passed in the blink of an eye.

While traveling through the cave, James encountered many cultivators. Some of them were trapped outside formations and were trying to pass through them. There were also a few sitting on the ground resting as they tried to find ways to get deeper into the cave to obtain the Malevolent Demon's inheritance.

Fortunately for James, he could easily travel deeper into the cave with the help of Nova.

After one month, he finally reached the deepest part of the Malevolent Demon Residence.

The deepest region of the cave was an open area.

When James arrived, many others had already reached before him. Xainte was also among those that had arrived earlier.

Seeing James reappear inside the Malevolent Demon Residence, Xainte pursed her lips. She wanted to walk over and ask James why he had returned. However, many other people were in the area, and she did not want to risk exposing her identity.

Moreover, it would also cause a massive uproar if word got out that she spoke to James.

She was a prodigy of the Eidolon Realm, and James was just a cultivator at the Sage Rank's Tenth Stage.

After James appeared, he scanned the surroundings and found at least 100,000 people in the area. All of them were powerhouses, and the weakest had reached the Divine Rank.

James discovered the stone wall ahead engraved with chaotic patterns a thousand meters high.

Some of the cultivators were studying the patterns on the wall.

James slowly walked over. After a while, he calmly approached Xainte while pretending to be observing the patterns. He cast a glance at Xainte, who was nearby.

Xainte returned James' look with a frown.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2958

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2958-James returned to the cave because he feared that something had happened to Xainte in the Malevolent Demon Residence.

Seeing that Xainte was safe and sound, his heart was put at ease.

Judging from the current situation, those who had entered the Malevolent Demon Residence were fine. They all had the ability to leave but were unwilling to.

All of them wanted to go deeper into the cave and obtain the inheritance of the Malevolent Demon.

After James confirmed Xainte's well-being, he continued to observe the patterns on the stone wall.

The patterns were messy and jumbled, and there was a missing piece in the middle of it. The stone wall before them was evidently some sort of puzzle.

James murmured, "Do we need to rearrange the patterns to pass through?"

Afterward, he walked toward Xainte and asked, "What do you think? Does it remind you of anything?"

Many people were standing beside Xainte, including Yikron and Jules who had fought Xainte earlier. Those that were in Xainte's close proximity were all powerful people. As soon as James approached her, Yikron walked over and stood in front of Xainte. He pointed at James and shouted, "Get lost."

James looked at Yikron with a frown and said calmly, "Does this place belong to you? What right do you have to order me around?"

"I'm stronger than you."

Yikron clenched his fist and prepared to strike James.

'What do you think you're doing?"

Xainte quickly stopped him.

Yikron turned around and smiled at her. "Xainte, a piece of trash like him thinks he's worthy of approaching you."

Xainte looked at him coldly. "It's none of your business. You don't have to interfere in my affairs."

James took a deep breath. He knew that Xainte was one of the greatest prodigies of this age, and had many people guarding her. He did not want to cause trouble for Xainte, since his identity as her father was still hidden.

James stopped trying to get close to Xainte. Instead, he looked around and asked,

"Do you guys see anything unusual? What kind of pattern is this?" Unfortunately, James had a very low cultivation rank, and no one wanted to speak with a weakling like him.

James asked around a number of times, but no one answered.

Jules sneered at him. "Ha."

Yikron also regarded him with disdain. 'This place is the deepest part of the Malevolent Demon Residence. The Malevolent Demon is one of the most dreadful powerhouses in the world. What she left here must be beyond incredible. You're only a human at the Sage Rank. What gives you the right to be here?"

James ignored Yikron's scathing insults and contacted Nova inside the Celestial Abode.

"Nova, what's this?"

Nova stood at the City Lord's Mansion inside the Celestial Abode. He sensed his master's surroundings and observed the patterns on the stone wall. Suddenly, his face became solemn.

After a while, he said, "I don't know what it is, but there might be someone who does."

Hearing this, James was taken aback. He asked, 'Who?"

Nova replied very slowly, "Emperor Jabari."

James was stunned by his answer.

“Didn’t Emperor Jabari die in the Primordial Age?”

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2959

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2959-“Haha.”Nova chuckled and said, “A Grand Emperor that’s achieved as much as Emperor Jabari won’t be killed that easily. It’s not easy for him to die completely. Even the Heavenly Path couldn’t completely dispose of Emperor Jabari.”

“Wait, is Emperor Jabari still alive?” asked James.

James stood motionless in place while his Primordial Spirit entered the Celestial Abode.

His Primordial Spirit materialized his appearance as he stood in front of Nova.

James asked, “Do you mean Emperor Jabari is still alive?” Nova thought for a while and replied, “He’s dead.”

“He’s dead? But you just said...”

James was bewildered by the conversation.

Nova explained, “Emperor Jabari is indeed dead. His body was destroyed during the Primordial Age, and his soul was severely injured. As such, he disappeared from this world.”

James knew very little about Emperor Jabari.

All he knew was that Emperor Jabari was a figure from the Primordial Age. Before the demons attacked the universe, he was a famous powerhouse that had reached the Grand Emperor Rank.”

James asked, “Can you tell me more about Emperor Jabari?”

Nova slowly nodded.

Nova slowly dredged the memories of his past. After a while, he said, “Emperor Jabari was born in an ordinary family. Not only was he unable to cultivate, but he also had a frail body ever since he was a child.

“However, Emperor Jabari had a fortunate encounter. He met the most important person in his life. This person went on to become his protector, his teacher, and the love of his life.”

Intrigued, James asked, 'Who's this person?'

Nova replied, "I don't know her, but I heard from Emperor Jabari that her name is Yukia Dearnaley."

"Yukia guided Emperor Jabari on his cultivation path and taught him invincible techniques. Despite being an ordinary person, this allowed Emperor Jabari to rise above everyone and become a peerless powerhouse.

"However, Yukia only guided Emperor Jabari in secret.

"After he became a Grand Emperor, she disappeared. He tried to find her, traveling all over the universe, but was unsuccessful."

James asked, "Then how did he die? Did he die in the battle during the Primordial Age?" Nova shook his head and said, "No. Emperor Jabari was born in the early phase of the Primordial Age. His life ended way before the battle during the Primordial Age. Emperor Jabari's death was destined."

"Destined? What fate did he have?" asked James.

Nova explained, "His fate was to become an Ancestral God."

While speaking, Nova's expression became solemn. After a long pause, he said,

"After the Primeval Age, it was impossible for anyone to become an Ancestral God. Since ancient times, many people have come close but none succeeded. Those that tried to make themselves Ancestral Gods died."

"Emperor Jabari was the same. Back then, he traveled all over the universe and visited various worlds. He ventured into various rare and dangerous places and eventually created his own unrivaled Supernatural Power. He was already at the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven and was only one step away from becoming an Ancestral God.

"After Emperor Jabari made careful preparations, he was prepared to break into the rank that only existed in the Primeval Age. However, he was punished by fate. His physical body was destroyed, and his soul was eradicated."

Hearing this, James took a deep breath. He never expected that Emperor Jabari was so strong that he was on the cusp of becoming an Ancestral God.

'Then what did you mean by your statement just now? Is he still alive or not?' Nova said, 'Theoretically, he is dead.'

“However, Emperor Jabari seemed to have known his fate beforehand. Therefore, he forged the Celestial Abode in advance and fused a portion of his Primordial Spirit inside this place.

“Although his body disappeared, and his soul is no more, he’s not really dead as long as the Celestial Abode still exists.”

James glanced around in shock and asked, “D-Do you mean that Emperor Jabari is still within the Celestial Abode?”

Nova nodded. “Indeed. Emperor Jabari has been using the Celestial Abode to reform his soul and Primordial Spirit. He attempts to go against the Heavenly Path and resurrect himself from death. He has always been waiting for the opportunity to do so.”

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2960

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2960-James never expected Emperor Jabari’s remaining soul to fuse with the Celestial Abode.

He had possessed the Celestial Abode for a long time but was unaware of this fact.

Nova said, “I’m the only one in the universe who knows about it. Even Sophie, who resided in the Celestial Abode for a long time, had no idea that Emperor Jabari’s soul fused with the Celestial Abode.”

James fell into thought. After a while, he asked, “How is Emperor Jabari doing now?” Nova replied, “How do I put this...? Emperor Jabari is indeed dead, but a small fraction of his soul remains in the Celestial Abode. As long as some fragment of his soul still exists, he will be resurrected sooner or later. Emperor Jabari had already recovered some power initially. However, Sophie came into contact with the Heavenly Path’s restrictions while trying to help you, and the remnant of Emperor Jabari’s soul appeared to deflect the Heavenly Path’s lethal blow.”

“Huh?”

James was surprised by the information. He did not expect Sophie to be attacked by the Heavenly Path for helping him.

Sophie would have died if not for the remnants of Emperor Jabari’s soul.

“Come. I’ll take you to see him.”

After speaking, Nova began to lead the way.

James followed behind him and they walked deep into the city.

Soon, they reached another yard.

James had never been to this place before. Although he was the Celestial Abode's owner, his strength had always been insufficient to enter these places.

A lone mansion was in the yard, surrounded by a bamboo forest.

Eventually, they arrived at the mansion's doorstep.

James walked into the courtyard curiously. The place was full of fallen leaves, and it was evident it had been long since anyone had last cleaned it.

A statue stood silently in the courtyard.

The statue was carved in the image of a handsome man in his 30s. The statue's eyes looked into the distance, and his face was full of contempt for the world.

James walked over to the statue and murmured, "Is this the statue of Emperor Jabari?"

At that moment, the statue's eyes suddenly moved. Shortly after, the stone statue slowly transformed into a young man wearing a white robe.

Seeing this, Nova greeted him courteously. "Emperor Jabari."

Knowing that the man before him was Emperor Jabari, James did not dare show any disrespect. He also immediately greeted the man. "Emperor Jabari."

Since he obtained Emperor Jabari's Celestial Abode, he had greatly benefited from it and it had helped him through many tough situations.

As such, James was very grateful to Emperor Jabari. Emperor Jabari stretched his body, then turned to James.

He smiled satisfactorily and said, "Your growth is rather slow, but you have a stable foundation. Moreover, you have a lot of treasures. With some time, you'll definitely reach great heights."

James humbly replied him, "You're flattering me, Emperor Jabari."

Glancing at the emperor, James was curious as to why he could not sense any energy from him.

Right then, Emperor Jabari seemed just like an ordinary human.

“I’m sure Nova has already informed you about my situation. Right now, I’m a mere soul fragment. I’ve recovered and repaired my soul over time, but had gotten severely injured again after protecting Sophie last time. However, my soul has already recovered significantly since I’ve been able to recuperate for a while.”

James nodded. “I see.”

He suddenly remembered the purpose of his visit and asked, “Do you know what’s going on outside?”

Emperor Jabari nodded lightly and said, “I just woke up, but I think I know what you’d like to ask me. You want to know about the patterns on the stone wall, correct?”

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-