The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2971-Emperor Jabari was at the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven but was only a soul fragment.

His current strength was only equivalent to the Grand Emperor Rank's Second Heaven.

If the situation was set up by a mastermind in the Primeval Age or by the Heavenly Path, then it would be hard for him to resolve it.

"What should we do now, Emperor Jabari?"

At that moment, Emperor Jabari was also deep in thought. His current state made it impossible for him to resolve the situation. He would have to reshape his physical body and regain his strength.

However, the Heavenly Path already deemed him dead.

Once he reshaped his body and Primordial Spirit, the Heavenly Path would surely catch on and immediately kill him.

"It's fate. Everything is fated."

Emperor Jabari took a deep breath.

He felt the reason a fragment of his soul survived was that everything was already predetermined by fate.

"You can't rush it, James. We still don't know the exact situation yet. If it's really what I guessed, then I'll have to reshape my physical body ahead of time. However, I'll need your help with that."

Stunned, James asked, "How will I help you when I'm so weak?"

Emperor Jabari said, "I need some rare materials to reshape my body. I won't be able to go out to find them in person, so I'll need your help. Moreover, I have to set up a formation to avoid the Heavenly Path's detection.

James replied, "As long as you need me, I'll do whatever it takes to help, even if it means risking my life."

Emperor Jabari said, "Things haven't progressed to such unfavorable lengths yet."

After speaking, Emperor Jabari fell silent.

James continued to wander around in the unknown area.

At that moment, Nova looked at Emperor Jabari inside the Celestial Abode and asked, "What exactly is going on, Emperor Jabari?"

Emperor Jabari had an unusually solemn look. He replied, "I'm thinking about some stuff. I should've definitely met my end back then. Even though I'd forged the Celestial Abode in advance, the Heavenly Path would still have been able to sense my remnant soul. There must have been a force that secretly protected my remaining soul in the Celestial Abode."

Nova was also a powerhouse, so he immediately understood Emperor Jabari's words.

"Everything was set up so that you would participate in this fight against the Heavenly Path. To be precise, it's a fight against the force behind the Heavenly Path." Nova looked at Emperor Jabari.

Emperor Jabari nodded solemnly. "It's a fateful battle that was started ages ago. Countless powerhouses were involved in it. All humans and living beings are like chess pieces. However, I can't figure out who's in control of the game."

Emperor Jabari had no idea who initiated this fateful battle. He also knew the opponent was the force behind the Heavenly Path. However, who was the mastermind planning everything for the humans?

Was it the group of Ancestral Gods during the Primeval Age?

What did they see for them to insist on killing the Heavenly Path? He still could not figure it out despite being at the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven.

Since Emperor Jabari could not find an answer, he stopped thinking about it. He was already involved, so he had to be fully prepared for the fight.

"I'll have to go into seclusion to research a formation that can avoid the Heavenly Path's detection. Then, I'll ask James to help me find some materials to reshape my body.

As long as I can reshape my physical body, my soul will have a vessel. Then, I'll be able to recover my peak strength shortly."

Emperor Jabari looked at Nova and instructed, "Take care of James for me. He's an essential piece in this chess game. His existence might disrupt the Heavenly Path's plan, so he must be kept safe."

Nova nodded and said, "Don't worry. I'm always paying attention to James. He'll be fine."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2972-Soon, the Southern Reverend also brought a group of powerhouses into the Malevolent Demon Residence. Since all the formations had been deactivated, the Southern Reverend's party easily advanced through the Malevolent Demon Residence.

They reached the deepest part of the cave and saw the deciphered Sacred Blossom Puzzle Formation.

The Southern Reverend hesitated. He looked at the powerhouses present and said, "The Martial Reverend must've already led powerhouses through this door. The Malevolent Demon is likely beyond this point. Let's go and check out the situation. This time, we have to kill the Malevolent Demon!"

"We'll follow after you, Southern Reverend!"

"Yeah! We'll definitely besiege and kill the Malevolent Demon this time!"

Many powerhouses responded enthusiastically.

The Southern Reverend smiled lightly and took the lead through the door.

The other powerhouses followed suit.

Many cultivators traveled deep into the Great Wilderness, entered the Malevolent Demon Residence, and arrived at the world shrouded in Curse Magic.

Time passed day by day.

Three years passed in the blink of an eye.

In the past three years, many other powerful cultivators from the Eidolon Realm continuously ventured into the world full of Curse Magic. Even those from other outside worlds also joined them in adventure.

An estimation of ten billion living beings had entered the unknown world.

The weakest among these cultivators were at the Divine Rank.

James stayed in the world shrouded in Curse Magic for three years.

Fortunately, they did not encounter any dangers.

James did not find Thea, nor did he find the way to leave or the source of the Curse Magic.

Curse Magic was like oxygen coexisting with this world.

In the beginning, many powerhouses ventured into the world together.

However, most of them gradually scattered in the past three years to find their own boons.

James' party was left with Xainte and the dozens of powerhouses led by the Martial Reverend.

Many humans gathered on a mountaintop in a barren mountain range in a world shrouded in Curse Magic.

Among them was James.

James sat in a lotus position on a rock and looked toward the sky surrounded by black mist with a solemn expression.

He had searched this unknown world for three years, but there was no trace of Thea. James was worried, especially because of Emperor Jabari's speculation that the mastermind behind this scheme might have taken control of Thea.

"James."

Xainte approached him. Seeing that he was in a daze, she asked, "What are you thinking about?"

James snapped back to reality. He turned to Xainte, sighed, and said, "I was thinking about the... the Malevolent Demon's whereabouts. It's already been three years, but there haven't been any signs of her. Is she really in this world?"

James was doubtful about Thea being in this world.

Xainte sat down on a rock.

She did not have the answer to James' question.

Xainte was also eager to find her mother but had no idea where she could be.

"Don't worry. We'll find her sooner or later."

Xainte could only comfort him.

James nodded lightly in response.

Meanwhile, the Southern Reverend also led a group of powerhouses in the unknown world for three years. All the powerhouses he led were significant existences in the Eidolon Realm, and all were at the Divine Rank's Third Stage or above.

There were also many Quasi-Emperors among them.

At that moment, black clouds appeared in the air and swept over to them, trapping the powerhouses before they could react.

Only one person was not affected by the black cloud—the Southern Reverend.

The Southern Reverend stood in place and looked at the powerhouses trapped by the black clouds with a cold expression.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2973-At that moment, some black clouds slowly gathered together to form a dark silhouette before him.

The Southern Reverend could not see the dark silhouette's appearance clearly.

"I've already done what you've asked of me. Many powerhouses have been lured into this world. Where's the thing you promised me?" said the Southern Reverend.

"Hehe..."

The dark silhouette let out a burst of eerie laughter.

He casually waved his hand, and several mysterious inscriptions appeared in his palm.

"These are Curse Inscriptions. Take them and practice hard. You'll be immune to the Curse Magic here after you master it. Moreover, you'll be able to gain tremendous strength with Curse Magic to control the powerhouses in this world."

The Southern Reverend accepted these mysterious inscriptions.

He asked, "What are you trying to do after luring so many powerhouses into this strange world?"

"You don't need to know."

The dark silhouette disappeared.

Immediately afterward, the black clouds also disappeared, and the powerhouses were released.

The Southern Reverend walked over and looked at everyone, asking, "Is everyone alright?"

"We're fine, Southern Reverend."

"The black clouds were bizarre. I lost all my senses after being trapped by it."

"Yeah. This place is bizarre."

Many powerhouses were frightened by the experience.

The Southern Reverend said, "The Malevolent Demon must be playing some trick on us. Don't worry. There are so many of us. Since the Malevolent Demon has already appeared, we should find the Martial Reverend as soon as possible and join forces."

"Alright."

The powerhouses nodded in approval.

Meanwhile, a woman sat in a lotus position in a black palace that floated tens of thousands of meters in the air. The palace exuded black mist and looked very strange.

She wore a black dress and looked exceptionally stunning. However, her beautiful face was full of pain.

Black mist continuously emerged from her body.

If James were in the hall, he would have recognized that the woman was none other than his wife, Thea.

Thea sat in a lotus position on the ground with a pained look, evidently suffering.

Veins bulged on her face, making her flawless face seem slightly horrifying.

Curse Magic had taken control of Thea. However, she had the Four Holy Beasts' blood and could suppress the sinister energy.

Still, the Curse Magic was powerful.

Despite having the Four Holy Beasts' blood in her body, the Curse Magic still managed to control her consciousness. However, she would occasionally regain consciousness.

Swoosh!

A dark silhouette appeared out of thin air.

He looked at the struggling Thea and raised his hand.

Black characters appeared in his palm and submerged into Thea's forehead.

Thea stopped struggling and stood up. Her hair was messy, and her eyes were crimson. Sinister energy erupted from her body at that moment.

"A large number of powerhouses have entered this world. Lead the monsters to kill them and acquire their Blood Essence. I need their Blood Essence to resurrect an unrivaled powerhouse."

The dark silhouette made an order.

"Alright."

Thea had no expressions, and she could only nod emotionlessly.

At that moment, she had no idea who she was.

There was only one thought in her mind—kill everyone that had entered this world.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2974-The deepest region of the world was shrouded in Curse Magic.

A black palace floated in the sky, and many ferocious monsters surrounded the area.

There were flying monsters, land monsters, and all kinds of different monsters.

They all had one similar characteristic—their whole body exuded black energy.

The monsters looked very evil.

At that moment, a beautiful, expressionless woman flew out of the black palace.

She appeared in the air and held a black sword. The sword's tip was slightly curved and the blade radiated terrifying black energy.

She waved her sword, and black energy emerged to form several mysterious words that looked like a command.

The various monsters around the palace roared as soon as they saw the words appear.

At that moment, the color of the sky immediately changed.

Then, the ferocious monsters began to charge out in different directions.

Thea led the group of monsters away from the black palace.

Terrifying monsters suddenly attacked the cultivators that entered the unknown world, and fights broke out.

The fallen cultivators had their Blood Essence sucked away by a mysterious force. The absorbed Blood Essence gathered in the air, and a mysterious formation began to form.

Meanwhile, James was sitting on a mountaintop somewhere in the mysterious world.

“What’s that?”

Xainte pointed at the sky.

James regained his senses and looked toward the sky. He saw the vague red words in the sky.

At the same time, James noticed the smell of blood permeating the area.

The Martial Reverend and the other powerhouses also looked toward the sky.

Everyone was shocked by the scene.

After looking at it briefly, Xainte turned to James, asking, “Do you know what that is?”

James shook his head and said, “I don’t know.”

Then, James turned to ask Emperor Jabari, who was inside the Celestial Abode, about the phenomenon.

However, Emperor Jabari had already gone into seclusion. Thus, Nova was the one who responded instead.

Nova had been paying attention to the outside world, but he could not make sense of what was happening.

“Wait for a while, James. I’ll go and ask Emperor Jabari.”

Nova then went to look for Emperor Jabari.

He headed to the independent manor inside the Celestial Abode, stood before a statue, and said, "Emperor Jabari, there's a situation outside."

At that moment, the statue immediately came alive and transformed into a handsome young man.

It was Emperor Jabari.

Emperor Jabari sensed the outside world.

The scene of the red words in the sky immediately appeared in his mind.

After ten minutes, Emperor Jabari's expression became solemn.

"It's a Resurrection Formation."

Emperor Jabari said solemnly.

Taken aback, Nova asked, "What's that?"

Emperor Jabari immediately contacted James, saying, "It's a Resurrection Formation, James. I finally understand the goal of this whole scheme."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2975-James was slightly taken aback by his remark and asked, "What formation? What do you know about it?"

Emperor Jabari explained solemnly, "Resurrection Formations are terrifying and are like a taboo existence. The formation requires the Blood Essence of countless living beings to be activated. Once the formation is triggered, a tremendous force will form within the formation. With the assistance of other treasures, it can resurrect the dead.

"I can sense a Resurrection Formation that covers this whole world. With such a large formation, the person they're trying to resurrect must be a terrifying powerhouse at the Grand Emperor Rank's Fifth Heaven or above."

James exclaimed, "What?!"

Emperor Jabari said, "You have to stop it, James. The formation requires the blood of countless powerhouses. Since the mastermind behind it has begun to take action, a massacre against the people that have entered this world must've already begun."

After receiving the news, James' face turned grim.

He looked at Xainte and asked, "Is this a Resurrection Formation?"

Xainte was taken aback by his question. It was evident she did not know what Resurrection Formations were.

Even the Martial Reverend was clueless.

The Martial Reverend asked, "What's a Resurrection Formation, Mr. Caden?"

James said, "All living beings have a limited lifespan. Even a Grand Emperor is no exception and will eventually die. A person that has died can't be revived.

"Resurrection is a transcendent act.

"Resurrection Formations go against the Heavenly Path and can revive the dead.

"I finally understand why so many rumors have been going around recently. It was to lure a large number of powerhouses into this world. The mastermind of this scheme plans to kill us all and absorb our Blood Essence to activate a Resurrection Formation to bring a powerhouse back from the dead."

James repeated Emperor Jabari's words to them.

After hearing this, the Martial Reverend looked at the red words in the sky. At that moment, he immediately realized the red words were formed by blood.

It was evident a few cultivators had already fallen.

"We have to stop it!"

"I didn't expect the Malevolent Demon to be so ruthless."

"The Malevolent Demon must've also led monsters into the Eidolon Realm's cities thirty thousand years ago to collect Blood Essence and revive a certain powerhouse."

"Damn it, Malevolent Demon!"

Many powerhouses present scolded Thea.

However, James remained silent.

He did not dare to refute them.

Thea's action had aroused public outrage.

Thus, he did not dare to speak up for her.

However, he knew someone was using Thea. She was the executor, but someone was controlling her behind the scenes.

The Martial Reverend looked at James and said, "Please take the lead and resolve this disaster, Mr. Caden."

James thought for a while and said, "Right now, we have to gather all those that have entered this unknown world. Also, the Malevolent Demon isn't the mastermind. Her strength makes it impossible for her to have planned all this. I'm sure there's someone else controlling everything."

The Martial Reverend nodded and said solemnly, "You're right. The Malevolent Demon probably isn't the real mastermind. She's only a puppet executing everything. There must be another person behind her."

"Huff!"

He took a deep breath.

The Malevolent Demon was already a terrifying opponent. How strong was the person controlling her?

However, his worries were immediately relieved upon remembering that James was with them.

He thought that James' strength must have been greater than his. With James in charge, they might be able to kill the Malevolent Demon and even the force behind her.

James immediately ordered, "Let's divide into two groups. Martial Reverend, you lead the people you've brought here and quickly search for those who've entered this world. After we gather everyone, we'll take action against the mastermind together."

The Martial Reverend did not linger and quickly left with his party of powerhouses.

After they left, Xainte looked at James and asked solemnly, "What should we do?"
