The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2976-“What should we do?”

James was clueless about what to do next either.

Emperor Jabari had asked him to prevent the activation of the Resurrection Formation.

However, his cultivation rank was relatively low.

Moreover, his wife was on their opposing side.

He could not imagine what he would do if Thea fought everyone that entered this world in front of him.

Should he assist them in killing Thea or help Thea kill everyone to activate the Resurrection Formation?

James was at a loss.

With his strength, there was little he could do. He could only take a step at a time.

After thinking briefly, James said, “Let’s check on the situation.”

“Mhm.” Xainte nodded.

Afterward, the two quickly left the mountain.

They chose a direction and advanced rapidly.

The unknown world was huge, and many powerful cultivators from the Eidolon Realm and other worlds had entered this world. It was estimated that tens of billions of powerhouses had entered this world.

Although the world was huge, it was easy to encounter the other cultivators since there were so many of them.

James and Xainte found a group of one hundred people after departing from the mountain. The group was entangled in a fight with some monsters.

The monsters were at least above the Divine Rank and had very strong Curse Magic. These monsters were being controlled by the Curse Magic and did not have consciousness.

Killing all the outsiders that had entered this world became their only goal.

It was a fierce battle that caused a lot of destruction to the surroundings.

A few cultivators were killed, but so were some monsters.

Regardless of whether it was the corpse of a cultivator or a monster, their Blood Essence was absorbed by the mysterious formation in the sky. The words grew more evident after a large amount of Blood Essence was absorbed.

“You need to take action, James.” Xainte’s voice rang in James’ ears.

She urged James, “These monsters are being controlled and have become killing machines now. All they know is to kill. You need to suppress them immediately.”

James replied helplessly, “Xainte, the truth is I’m actually very weak. I’m indeed only at the Sage Rank’s Tenth Stage. If I join the fight, I’ll be wiped out by the shock waves before I even get close to the battlefield.”

“H-How is that possible?”

Xainte was shocked by his confession.

James displayed great strength when he solved the Sacred Blossom Puzzle Formation.

Thus, she thought James was a peerless powerhouse.

Even the Martial Reverend thought James was strong.

James raised his hand and showed her the ring on his finger.

Then, he explained, “This ring is actually a Celestial Abode, which was left behind by a powerhouse at the Grand Emperor Rank’s Ninth Heaven. His inheritance and legacy were left behind in the Celestial Abode. I could only solve the Sacred Blossom Puzzle Formation because he guided me.”

Xainte said, “Then ask him to help.”

James shook his head, saying, “He can’t. He’s already dead and is officially dead to the Heavenly Path. If he exposes himself now, he’ll be detected, and the Heavenly Path will kill him.”

James had already discussed the situation with Emperor Jabari before.

Emperor Jabari could only secretly lend a portion of his strength to James.

Even so, James could barely reach the peak of the Quasi-Emperor Rank. He could not reach the strength of a Grand Emperor.

Moreover, Emperor Jabari only agreed to lend his power to James if James' life was in danger.

He could not expose himself as he wished, or else he would be wiped out by the Heavenly Path.

Also, he had very minimal power as he was still a remnant soul. It would be difficult to regain his strength while he remained a soul fragment.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2977-Xainte looked at the fierce battle ahead. After briefly thinking about it, she said, "These monsters aren't powerful. Since you can't do anything, I'll fight them off. I'll try to save as many as I can."

James quickly pulled her back.

"What's wrong?"

Xainte looked at James.

James said, "I can't worry about other people's lives right now. My priority is to find Thea and get her out of this place as soon as possible. I might be able to dispel the Curse Magic controlling her, but I have to find her first."

James came from the Apocalypse Age on Earth.

During the Apocalypse Age, many people died daily due to curses.

He had already gotten used to seeing casualties.

James knew he was not a hero that could save everyone.

Between saving the lives of all these cultivators and his wife, he chose his wife.

It was not an act out of selfishness, but he knew he did not have the strength to save everyone.

Xainte's goal was also to find Thea and find out what happened to her.

After contemplating, she nodded and said, "Since things have come to this, I guess there's no other choice."

Xainte quickly led James forward. She was traveling at an insane speed, and James could not even see his surroundings clearly.

Along the way, the two saw many fights between cultivators and monsters.

The cultivators were holding off pretty well. Although there were an overwhelming number of monsters, the cultivators that entered this unknown world were all powerhouses. The weaker ones were at least at the Divine Rank. Therefore, they had many ways of ensuring their survival. Despite the endless stream of monsters, these cultivators would not be trounced.

One month later, Xainte suddenly came to a stop.

Xainte said solemnly, "There's a situation ahead."

James fixed his eyes ahead and saw various monsters hidden within dark clouds.

Standing ahead of the monsters was a woman. She wore a black dress and had long black hair.

Moreover, black energy was emerging from her body.

It was none other than Thea.

The Demonic Energy radiating from Thea was vigorous and terrifying.

"Thea."

James' heart skipped a beat after he spotted Thea.

Xainte called out for her, "Mother!"

After thirty thousand years, she finally got to see her mother again. Seeing Thea, Xainte could no longer hold back her emotions and rushed toward Thea.

"Careful, Xainte..."

James shouted for her, but Xainte had already flown toward Thea.

In the area ahead of them, a fierce battle was taking place.

Thea was leading tens of thousands of monsters to fight a group of powerhouses from the Eidolon Realm.

Among them was the Martial Reverend, a few powerhouses from the Paragon Sect, several members of the five major academies, and several powerhouses from the Eidolon Realm.

The powerhouses gathered and fought off the monsters. The shock waves from the battle were terrifyingly strong. Their force alone destroyed mountains and caused countless pits to form on the ground.

James looked at Thea, who was caught in the battle, worriedly.

At that moment, Thea was besieged by dozens of powerhouses. Among them were the Martial Reverend and some other Quasi-Emperors.

Even though Thea was powerful, she still struggled against the group of powerhouses.

She sustained several injuries and was stabbed in the chest, with blood overflowing from the wound.

Her black blood dripped onto the ground. A drop of her blood formed a pit about several hundred meters deep.

Seeing her entangled in the fight, James had a solemn look.

“What should I do?”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2978-James' expression was solemn.

At that moment, Thea was besieged by countless powerhouses. The weakest among the group was a Quasi-Emperor, and there was also a Grand Emperor.

Thea was not a match against so many of them and was constantly sustaining injuries.

“What should I do, Emperor Jabari?”

He turned to Emperor Jabari in the Celestial Abode for guidance.

Emperor Jabari's voice came from the Celestial Abode. “I already told you I can't easily expose myself. Besides, I can't resolve this situation even if I were to intervene.”

“What about you, Nova? Could you help me? I need to save Thea and take her away.”

Novas replied, “I don't stand a chance against them. The weakest among them is a Quasi-Emperor, and the strongest is a Grand Emperor. My strength is only equivalent to the Grand Emperor Rank's First Heaven. I won't be of much help even if I take action.”

James was left with no other choice.

He wanted to take advantage of the chaotic situation to bring Thea somewhere safe from everyone, then dispel the Curse Magic in her body.

However, Emperor Jabari could not intervene, and Nova stood no chance against the Martial Reverend's party as well.

Meanwhile, James was weak and could only watch the battle from afar. He could not even get close to the battlefield. Otherwise, the force from the battlefield might kill him.

He observed the battlefield worriedly.

Although Thea had not become a Grand Emperor yet, she had the Four Holy Beasts' blood and practiced the Four-Quadrant Art. Moreover, she had Exalter as a weapon. Therefore, she was still managing to block the powerhouses' series of attacks.

At that moment, Xainte rushed into the battlefield.

Seeing that Thea was injured, she could not be bothered about others finding out about her identity.

She quickly shouted, "Stop it! Everyone, stop attacking!"

Just as she rushed into the battlefield, a gorilla monster controlled by the Curse Magic attacked her. It was a behemoth that was about a hundred meters high.

The black gorilla stomped its foot at Xainte.

Xainte's body flashed to the distance. She casually waved her hand, and a powerful force emerged, knocking away the black gorilla at the Divine Rank's Second Stage.

The black gorilla's huge body crashed into the ground, and it died instantly.

As soon as the black gorilla died, the Resurrection Formation absorbed its Blood Essence, and the corpse immediately dried up.

Xainte rushed toward Thea without hesitation and shouted, "Mother, stop it!"

Seeing Xainte rush toward the Malevolent Demon, the other powerhouses immediately stopped attacking.

The Paragon Sect's Great Elder shouted, "What are you doing, Xainte? Quickly back away!"

Tears welled up in Xainte's eyes and rolled down her cheeks. She looked at Thea, who was shrouded by Demonic Energy. She cried out, "Please stop, Mother!"

Thea was already possessed and had lost all rationale. There was only one goal in her mind—Kill everyone.

She raised the Malevolent Sword without hesitation and flickered before Xainte, thrusting her sword through Xainte's body.

Then, she knocked Xainte away with another palm attack.

The Paragon Sect's Great Elder immediately flew over and caught the wounded Xainte. He quickly brought her away from the battlefield.

The Martial Reverend immediately shouted, "Set up a formation!"

Following the Martial Reverend's order, the powerhouses dispersed and besieged Thea.

The powerhouses immediately cast a powerful formation.

It was a formation created by the Martial Reverend and some other powerhouses after their battle against the Malevolent Demon thirty thousand years ago.

Thea was trapped within the formation, and powerful energy struck her body like a crashing wave. She could not find her balance as the attacks continuously hit her body.

Soon, injuries formed on her body.

James was anxious.

Thea was his wife. Although she was not in her right mind, he did not want anything to happen to her.

Meanwhile, the Paragon Sect's Great Elder had brought Xainte away from the battlefield.

He placed Xainte down on a boulder.

"Xainte, you're being careless. What were you doing?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2979-Blood kept overflowing from Xainte's lips. Her eyes were teary, and tears kept rolling down her face. She choked up, saying, "That's my mother, Sir. That's my mother! Someone is controlling her. Please think of a way to save her!"

The Paragon Sect's Great Elder frowned.

He had his suspicions about Xainte's identity.

Hearing her confirm his thoughts, he was not surprised.

"There's nothing I can do, Xainte. Your mother must die. If she doesn't, our world will never be in peace."

"Wah..."

Xainte wept loudly.

She was a Quasi-Emperor. For the past tens of thousands of years, she never cried regardless of what she went through. However, at that moment, she could no longer suppress her tears.

She wept sorrowfully.

"Treat your injuries."

After leaving a few words, the Paragon Sect's Great Elder rejoined the battle.

Xainte stood up with difficulty. Her heart tightened upon seeing Thea being besieged and constantly sustaining injuries.

James floated up into the distant sky and watched the battle.

He clenched his fists upon seeing Thea repeatedly getting injured. She was about to lose the battle.

James knew very well Thea would be killed if she were to lose.

His fists clenched tighter, and veins bulged on his hand.

He could not hold back anymore. With a thought, a long purple sword manifested in his hand.

James gripped the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword.

The Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword was once the Ancestral Sword Master's weapon. It was an Ancestral God Weapon that was superior to an Imperial Weapon.

With James' strength, an Ancestral God Weapon was just a sword.

He was unable to unleash the full power of the Ancestral God Weapon.

However, he knew Thea could exert the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword's power.

At that moment, he did not hesitate.

His only hope was for Thea to survive the battle and not die.

As for the consequences, he did not have the time to think about them.

"Take the sword, Thea!"

James mobilized his strength and shouted.

His voice pierced through the surroundings and suppressed the clanking weapons on the battlefield.

Immediately afterward, he threw the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword toward Thea.

Thea heard the voice and saw the long purple sword approaching her. Soon, the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword was right before her.

Since Thea's consciousness was being controlled, she had no idea someone deliberately threw her the sword.

All she knew was that the sword radiated powerful energy.

Therefore, she subconsciously grabbed the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword.

As soon as her hand came into contact with the sword, the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword burst out with a dazzling purple light that spread throughout the area.

The purple Sword Light spread through the air like rippling water and immediately broke the formation the Martial Reverend and the other powerhouses set up. The powerhouses that participated in setting up the formation were immediately knocked away and injured by the Sword Light.

Just as Thea wanted to seize the chance to take her opponents down, a powerful force emerged from the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword.

The Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword's power temporarily suppressed the evil energy within her body. Thea's sealed-away consciousness gradually returned.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2980-Thea had been controlled by Curse Magic for tens of thousands of years.

During these long years, she constantly fell into a trance but would occasionally regain consciousness. However, the mastermind of the whole scheme had repeatedly been sealing away her consciousness.

Before the attack against the cultivators in this unknown realm, her consciousness was once again sealed.

Even when faced with her own daughter, she showed no emotions.

After she obtained the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword, she broke through the formation and wounded several powerhouses.

Then, the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword temporarily suppressed the Curse Magic in her body.

Thea slashed the sword, and the powerhouses were severely injured.

Even a powerhouse like the Martial Reverend sustained a serious injury.

The injured powerhouses turned to James in the distance with solemn expressions.

The Martial Reverend frowned and murmured, "What's James doing? Why is he helping Thea?"

He could not figure it out.

The Martial Reverend was not the only one confused by James' actions. The other powerhouses also could not understand why James would help the Malevolent Demon.

At that moment, Thea regained consciousness.

After gradually waking up from a trance, she immediately realized what was happening.

Thea scanned her surroundings and saw the countless monsters fighting with cultivators. She waved her hand, and several black words emerged and flew into the air.

Immediately, black energy shrouded the sky.

The energy descended from the sky and submerged into the monster's body. Soon, the monsters stopped fighting.

Seeing that the monsters stopped attacking, the cultivators also halted their actions.

The fierce battle was temporarily put to a stop.

Thea looked at James in the distance.

James was still clueless about what had happened.

At that moment, Emperor Jabari's voice came from the Celestial Abode. "The Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword's power might have suppressed the curse in Thea's body."

Hearing this, James was pleased.

Fortunately, he saved Thea's life by giving her the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword at a critical moment. Otherwise, Thea would've still been in a demonized state.

James floated through the sky and approached Thea under the many watchful eyes.

He advanced at a steady speed and finally arrived before Thea.

Thea looked at James, then at the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword in her hand. Suddenly, she burst into tears. Crystal droplets rolled down her cheeks.

"Thea."

James was also choked up and called out for her with difficulty.

Then, he immediately pulled Thea into his arms.

Everyone present was shocked by the scene.

"Huh?"

"What's going on?"

"What's James' relationship with the Malevolent Demon?"

"Why are they embracing each other?"

All the powerhouses were shocked.

Seeing this scene, Xainte chuckled.

Her eyes were still filled with tears, but she smiled subconsciously at the scene.

Watching them, she could tell that James' words were true. James was definitely her father.

"You've gone through a lot."

James tightly embraced Thea.

"James..."

Thea parted her lips and said, "If not for the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword's Power suppressing the curse in my body, I might've..."

Thea did not dare to think about the consequences.

"It's alright."

James let go of Thea and wiped the tears rolling down her cheeks. Then, he said, "You've been through a lot this time. I'll find a way to eliminate the curse in your body."

He thought for a while and concluded that the only thing that could dispel the curse in Thea's body was the Jade Seal.

However, the Jade Seal could only be used as a medium.

After the Jade Seal absorbed the Curse Magic from Thea's body, it would be transferred into James' body.

The Curse Magic in Thea's body was unlike the curses in the human body. The curses on the four hundred thousand soldiers in the Celestial Abode could not compare to the curse on Thea's body.

However, James did not want to see Thea suffer anymore.
