The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2985-Meanwhile, the mysterious words forming within the Resurrection Formation had grown much more evident. The words were made up of the deceased's blood. Many must have already died since there were so many red words in the sky.

The monsters were being controlled and had been commanded to fight the cultivators that entered this world.

Thus, they fought with all their strength and caused destruction and damage to the surroundings.

As soon as Thea appeared, she quickly waved her hand. A few mysterious black words emerged from her palm and disintegrated into dark mist, submerging into the monsters' bodies.

The monsters immediately stopped their attacks. Then, they temporarily regained consciousness and scanned their surroundings puzzledly.

'Who am I? Where am I? What am I doing?'

All these monsters were powerful and had achieved high cultivation attainments. Thus, they were capable of transforming into human forms.

After the monsters stopped fighting, the cultivators were finally relieved.

Thea walked over and explained the whole situation to the cultivators.

The cultivators immediately gained a clear picture of the situation.

Thea said, "Now, we must unite and head to the Sanctuary of Darkness to kill the mastermind. Otherwise, everyone will die."

"Understood!"

All cultivators and monsters shouted in response.

Then, Thea led the rescued people forward.

Along the way, she took action to end the battles that were taking place.

Gradually, the number of people following behind her increased.

Soon, there were hundreds of millions of powerhouses in the group.

Ten days later, Thea suddenly halted in her tracks. She turned to James solemnly and said, "I think it's inappropriate to keep going on like this, James. This world is too big, and it's impossible to save everyone in such a short time."

James was relatively weak and powerless in the current situation.

He did absolutely nothing along the way.

James looked at Thea and asked, "Then, what do you suggest?"

Thea thought awhile and said, "The mastermind behind this is in the Sanctuary of Darkness. This disaster will be resolved as long as we can eliminate him. Let's quickly find the Martial Reverend and his party and head to the Sanctuary of Darkness."

James nodded and said, "Alright. You call the shots."

Xainte immediately interjected, saying, "If that's the case, I can activate our sect's Secret Art to relay the message to my teacher."

After speaking, she sat in a lotus position and raised her hand. She made a few gestures, and several symbols emerged.

At that moment, the Martial Reverend and some other powerhouses were fighting a group of powerhouses somewhere within the unknown world.

In the past few months, the Martial Reverend and other powerhouses had rescued many cultivators and killed a lot of monsters.

With numerous powerhouses working together, they easily took down many waves of monsters.

At that moment, the Paragon Sect's Great Elder suddenly sensed a transmission from Xainte while fighting a Demonic Dragon. He immediately rushed to the Martial Reverend and said, "Sir, I've received news from Xainte."

"Wait a minute. I need to kill these monsters first."

The Martial Reverend ignored Xainte's message.

He shouted, "Destroy all of them! Leave none of them behind!"

Soon, all the monsters were killed.

The cultivators immediately sat in lotus positions to treat their wounds.

During this period, the Martial Reverend rescued many cultivators. In total, he saved about a billion people.

The Martial Reverend approached the Great Elder and asked, "What did Xainte say?"

The Great Elder replied, "Xainte said we shouldn't continue on like this. In short, rescuing everyone is impossible. The top priority is heading to the Sanctuary of Darkness to kill the mysterious mastermind. After we kill him, these monsters will be freed from his control, and our disaster will be resolved."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2986-Xainte used one of their sect's Secret Art to send a message to the Paragon Sect's Great Elder.

Then, the Paragon Sect's Great Elder conveyed the message to the Martial Reverend.

After learning of the message sent to them, the Martial Reverend fell into contemplation. He thought for a while, then said, "If that's the case, we'll meet up with the Malevolent Demon first."

The Paragon Sect's Great Elder could sense Xainte's location.

After pinpointing her whereabouts, the Martial Reverend led his party of powerhouses toward Xainte's location.

After Xainte used a Secret Art to send the message, they waited in place.

After waiting for three days, the Martial Reverend appeared in the area with a large group of people.

At that moment, the total number of powerhouses that Thea and the Martial Reverend had saved exceeded one billion.

After the Martial Reverend appeared, he immediately asked, "What do you plan to do, Malevolent Demon?"

Although Thea was dissatisfied with how he addressed her, she kept it to herself. After thinking for a while, she said, "We have to find the Sanctuary of Darkness as soon as possible. If we kill the mysterious mastermind, this disaster will be over..."

"Kill?"

The Martial Reverend frowned and said, "Can you kill him? Can a person who carefully schemed all this to lure powerhouses into this world and took control of so many monsters be killed so easily?"

"This..."

Thea was slightly troubled.

The Martial Reverend asked earnestly, "Can you confirm the strength of this mastermind?"

Thea nodded. "I'm not sure, but I estimate him to be a Grand Emperor at the Second Heaven at most."

"You're not sure? Your estimation?"

The Martial Reverend frowned and said, "You want to lead us to the Sanctuary of Darkness even though you're not sure? What if you're on their side? Then we'll be falling right into your trap."

Before they reunited, the Martial Reverend had thought of many things.

There was a possibility the Malevolent Demon was working with the mastermind behind this scene. James might also be on their side.

After all, James was the person that solved the Sacred Blossom Puzzle Formation and allowed them to enter this unknown world.

Moreover, James had the power to suppress curses.

The Martial Reverend knew he could not be careless as this would determine the fate of countless lives.

"What's wrong? You don't trust me?"

James glanced at the Martial Reverend and said, "If I were on their side, I wouldn't have gotten rid of the curse in Thea's body, and neither would I have stopped the fights. The casualties would've been far worse right now."

The other powerhouses remained silent.

Although they also had doubts, they waited for the Martial Reverend to decide.

Thea interjected in the conversation, "I was indeed controlled by them and was used as a puppet. However, the curse in my body has been removed. How could I still be on their side?"

The Martial Reverend asked, "Then, do you have the confidence in killing this mastermind?"

"About this..."

Thea was stunned by his question.

James suddenly replied, "I do."

"You?"

Xainte turned to James and asked, "Didn't you say you're only a Sage? What can you do?"

The Martial Reverend also looked at James. Until now, he still could not figure James out.

He claimed to be a Sage but then displayed tremendous strength. When he solved the Sacred Blossom Puzzle Formation, his energy was that of a Grand Emperor.

Thea also turned to James.

Sensing everyone's gaze, James stepped forward and said, "To kill him, everyone here will have to participate."

The Martial Reverend shook his head and said, "We can't kill him. Curse Magic is terrifying, and he can defeat those of the same cultivation rank as him."

James said, "I know a mysterious technique passed down from the Ancient Heavenly Court Age. As long as everyone here learns it, we can unite and kill this mastermind."

The technique James was telling them about was the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2987-The Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation was an extraordinary Supernatural Power from the Ancient Heavenly Court Age.

It was created by the War God of the Ancient Heavenly Court Age.

During the Ancient Heavenly Court Age, the War God used this Supernatural Power to conquer the universe for the Jade Emperor.

The Martial Reverend asked, "What kind of technique is it?"

James replied, "It's called the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation. To activate this formation, we'll need four hundred thousand people and four leaders."

The Martial Reverend said, "That's simple. I'll choose the four hundred thousand people and leaders."

Next, the Martial Reverend began to select four hundred thousand powerhouses from the crowd.

More than one billion powerhouses were present, and it was easy to find four hundred thousand people.

Soon, four hundred thousand people from the Divine Rank's Third Stage to the Qusai-Emperor Rank were selected to perform the formation.

As for the four leaders, it was tentatively decided to be Thea, the Martial Reverend, the Southern Reverend, and James.

After the selection process, the Martial Reverend looked at James and said, "Since we've already chosen the people needed, we'll need you to teach us the rest."

James looked at the several leaders and the four hundred thousand powerhouses. He took a deep breath and thought, "With such powerful people performing the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation, we'll surely be able to unleash tremendous strength.'

Then, James explained the essentials of the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation in detail.

Those present were powerhouses and had very high comprehension skills. It was very easy for them to understand the simplified version of the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation.

After some practice, they realized how powerful the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation was.

All of them marveled at the wisdom of the powerhouses from earlier ages to create such a powerful formation.

Naturally, James was in charge of leading the formation.

He had learned the essence of the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation. Without him, the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation would be incomplete.

Therefore, he was not afraid of them knowing a little about the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation. Without the core of it, they would not be able to activate the formation.

While James was teaching them how to perform the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation, the Southern Reverend snuck off to the distance. He sat on a rock and lightly waved his hand. A few mysterious symbols emerged from his palm and sank into the ground.

No one noticed his strange behavior.

At that moment, some black mist emerged in the highest seat of the Sanctuary of Darkness' main hall.

Then, a few mysterious symbols appeared.

The black mist slowly gathered and formed a figure.

It was an older man wearing a black robe. He had a very old appearance, and there seemed to be only skin left on him. His skin was so wrinkled that it made him look very skeletal.

Seeing the mysterious words in the hall, he cursed out, "Damn it."

"Do you think you can destroy my plan so easily? It's a fool's dream to think you can take me down. All those who show up will die!"

The old man in the black robe growled in anger.

He learned that the curse in Thea's body had been removed.

Additionally, he was informed about James and Thea's plan to take him down.

After venting his anger, he calmed down and sat down in the highest seat in the main hall.

"They got rid of the curse?"

"Is there a powerhouse that can dispel curses in this world? Just where is this guy from?"

The old man was puzzled.

He knew how terrifying Curse Magic was. Throughout the ages, there had not been anyone who could dispel Curse Power.

Unable to figure it out, he put his thoughts away.

A mysterious symbol emerged from his palm, then he shouted, "Master, I've encountered a little bit of trouble and need some help. Please send some powerhouses from the sect into the Cursed World to assist me."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2988-The mysterious old man in the black robe was the one who had been controlling Thea.

He was confused about how the Curse Power in Thea's body was removed.

Which powerhouse was capable of dispelling the curse in her body?

His mission could only succeed, and failure was not acceptable.

To revive this powerhouse, the Sanctuary of Darkness had spent a long time planning everything,

Now that someone had appeared and was interfering with their plan, the old man called for backup to ensure the operation ran smoothly.

Soon, he received a response.

"I'll send the Twelve Furies of Heaven and Earth to help you. This mission must succeed. If you fail, don't bother coming back to me alive."

A voice resounded in the mysterious black-robed man's mind.

His expression immediately darkened and was terrifyingly grim.

With the Twelve Furies of Heaven and Earth helping him, regardless of who dispelled the Curse Power in Thea's body, that person would eventually end up dead and be converted into energy to revive the powerhouse.

James did not know that his plan had been leaked and that the mastermind was already preparing for their attack.

At that moment, James had already gathered four hundred thousand powerhouses and taught them the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation. They were currently conducting a simple practice.

James knew there would be traitors hidden among them.

Therefore, he did not teach them the complete version of the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation.

Three months passed in the blink of an eye.

After several months of training, these powerhouses had temporarily comprehended the simplified version of the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation.

At that moment, James, Thea, and Xainte gathered.

James whispered, "There must be a traitor amongst them. It's possible our operation might fail because of the traitor."

Xainte nodded lightly and said, "The traitor must be one that spread the rumors about Mother's inheritance. He deliberately spread the news to lure many powerhouses into this Cursed World."

James nodded and said, "Mhm. This person was able to spread rumors throughout the Eidolon Realm and the Boundless Realm. He must be someone very influential."

Thea's eyes scanned the powerhouses one by one.

She asked, "Who do you think it is?"

James shook his head.

He still could not determine who the traitor was.

James held back information about the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation because he suspected there was a traitor among them.

He also did not reveal his trump cards to them.

His actual trump cards were the Infinity Steles and the Five Elements of Genesis.

While he was relatively weak, he would be able to exert the true strength of the Five Elements of Genesis and the Infinity Steles if he absorbed the power of the four hundred thousand soldiers and the other three leaders after they completed the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation.

"We can only take one step at a time."

James sighed softly.

He looked at Thea and asked, "How did you get controlled by this mysterious man?"

Thea harked back into her memories. After a while, she replied, "Back then, we entered the Boundless Realm together but got separated, right? When I woke up, I was alone.

"I trained alone for many years. When I became strong enough, I realized we got separated while traveling through the River of Time.

"I had no idea how I was targeted. I was put under the control of the curse when I wasn't paying attention."

James thought awhile and said, "Emperor Jabari said they might be purposely targeting us. The Heavenly Path knew that powerhouses in the Primeval Age had left behind the Ancestral God Rank Elixir for humans. Therefore, it deliberately left behind a powerhouse to prevent us from finding it.

"If this is the case, then the Ancestral God Rank Elixir has most likely already fallen into the enemy's hand.

"It's going to be extremely challenging for us to obtain the Ancestral God Rank Elixir."

Obtaining the Ancestral God Rank Elixir would be much more complicated than James had imagined.

Xainte had no idea what they were discussing, so she silently sat aside and looked at them.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2989-Their mission would be hard to complete if that were true.

James sighed and said, "No matter what, we have to find the Ancestral God Rank Elixir. It's humanity's last hope. We won't be able to acquire the strength of an Ancestral God and won't be able to kill Heaven's Adjudicators if we don't find it. Our failure will mean the extinction of humans."

At that moment, the Martial Reverend walked over to them.

"What are you guys discussing?"

James stood up and said, "It's nothing."

The Martial Reverend said, "Everything is ready."

"Mhm."

Thea nodded and looked at the four hundred thousand powerhouses prepared for the mission. Then, she looked at the other powerhouses and said, "Since everything is ready, we'll head into the depths of this world. Our victory or defeat will be dependent on this mission. If we succeed, we'll survive this together. If we fail, we're all going to die."

The Martial Reverend nodded solemnly.

After everyone was ready, James and the others started to advance.

Although Thea was previously controlled by the curse and was unconscious most of the time, she vaguely remembered the approximate location of the Sanctuary of Darkness.

The Sanctuary of Darkness was located in the deepest part of the Cursed World. With their strength, they would be able to reach the perimeter of the Sanctuary of Darkness in about a month.

The large group of powerhouses marched mightily toward the center of the Cursed World.

Time passed day by day.

A month passed in the blink of an eye.

James and the others arrived at a boundless barren area.

Walking ahead of the group, Thea halted in her tracks. She looked ahead and said, "If my memory serves me correctly, the Sanctuary of Darkness should be in this area."

Hearing this, everyone was on high guard and advanced cautiously.

After they advanced a little further, they saw a black palace ahead.

The floating palace was huge, and it was shrouded in black mist.

Thea shouted, "We're here."

Everyone stopped in place.

Meanwhile, the mysterious old man in a black robe sat in the highest seat in the Sanctuary of Darkness' main hall. Twelve people were standing below in the hall. All of them were dressed in black robes and covered their faces with black masks.

"Haha!!!"

The mysterious old man burst out laughing.

“They’re here! They’re finally here! These people sure do have a death wish! How dare they march into my territory?”

The old man looked at the twelve masked people below him.

“With the Twelve Furies of Heaven and Earth here, this group won’t pose a threat.”

The Twelve Furies of Heaven and Earth were top powerhouses in the Sanctuary of Darkness. They had all reached the Grand Emperor Rank and could set up a powerful Heaven and Earth Formation. The Twelve Furies of Heaven and Earth were invincible in the Boundless Realm.

James noticed the black energy surrounding the Sanctuary of Darkness and frowned.

He murmured, “That’s terrifying Curse Power.”

Standing aside, Thea held tightly onto James’ hand. She turned to him and said, “Please be careful, James.”

James smiled faintly and said, “There’s nothing to worry about. Although I have a low cultivation rank, I have the Celestial Abode. Emperor Jabari’s remnant soul is still within the Celestial Abode. If I ever get into a dangerous situation, he’ll help me. It shouldn’t be a problem for me to survive even if we fail to kill this mastermind.”

The atmosphere in the area was very bizarre.

James was also pressured as the upcoming war was about to take place.

He could only smile to ease the tense atmosphere.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2990-Countless powerhouses gathered outside the Sanctuary of Darkness. All of them had come to obtain the inheritance of the Malevolent Demon but fell into a trap.

The group of people only comprised those that Thea and the Martial Reverend had rescued.

There were many more people scattered throughout the Cursed World who were still fighting with monsters.

After so long, many of them succumbed to the monsters.

The pungent smell of blood permeated the world.

Countless fights took place in the Cursed World.

James, Thea, Xainte, the Martial Reverend, and the other powerhouses looked at the floating Sanctuary of Darkness ahead of them.

The Sanctuary of Darkness was massive and black in color. It was shrouded in black mist that did not dissipate, giving the Sanctuary of Darkness a very eerie and terrifying aura.

“Roar!”

At that moment, an unknown beast growled.

Immediately afterward, the gates of the Sanctuary of Darkness swung open. Then, a black mist emerged from inside and quickly turned into a giant dragon.

The dragon was a thousand meters long and had black scales all over its body. Moreover, it exuded very bizarre energy.

The Martial Reverend immediately took a deep breath, and his face became solemn.

All the other powerhouse had wary expressions. They did not expect to encounter a Demonic Dragon as soon as they arrived at the Sanctuary of Darkness. Moreover, it was a powerful Demonic Dragon at the rank of a Grand Emperor.

The Demonic Dragon was a powerhouse being controlled by Curse Power. At that moment, his only goal in mind was to kill everyone.

The old man in a black robe sat in the Sanctuary of Darkness’ main hall.

He was the Chancellor of the Sanctuary of Darkness.

His mission was to revive a powerhouse from the Primeval Age.

To achieve the resurrection of this powerhouse, the Sanctuary of Darkness had prepared for many years.

During these long years, the Chancellor of the Sanctuary of Darkness used Curse Power to control many powerhouses.

The Demonic Dragon attacking the group of cultivators was one of them.

Initially, the Demonic Dragon was to be used as nourishment. After the powerhouses that entered the Curse World were killed, the monsters and humans he had taken control of were also to die and become energy for the Resurrection Formation.

However, the Chancellor of the Sanctuary of Darkness had no choice but to send out the powerhouses he was controlling to kill the group of human cultivators.

“Haha! You guys overestimate yourselves.”

The Chancellor of the Sanctuary of Darkness smiled indifferently.

He casually waved his hand, and a black bag appeared in his hand.

The black bag had a few mysterious inscriptions on it.

At that moment, the black bag opened, and mysterious black energy was released. The energy rushed out of the hall and manifested into various creatures, including dragons, phoenixes, and some famous beasts that existed in historical times.

All of them were being controlled by the Chancellor of the Sanctuary of Darkness with Curse Power. They were all to be used as energy to activate the Resurrection Formation.

However, the Chancellor of the Sanctuary of Darkness released them to defeat James’ party.

James and the others outside of the Sanctuary of Darkness had worried expressions.

Even Thea exclaimed, “So many of them?”

She thought the monsters controlled by the Sanctuary of Darkness were already scattered throughout the Curse World to kill the cultivators. She never expected so many more to be within the Sanctuary of Darkness. Moreover, they were very powerful monsters.

The weakest among them was at the Divine Rank’s Third Stage. Moreover, many of the monsters released were at the Grand Emperor Rank.

Seeing the thousands of monsters appearing in the sky, the Martial Reverend and the other powerhouses immediately had solemn expressions.

The Martial Reverend glanced at Thea.

At that moment, the Martial Reverend felt that his previous speculation was correct. Thea was indeed on the Sanctuary of Darkness’ side. Her goal was to lure them to this place and wipe them all out.

Thea waved her hand, trying to prove her innocence.
