The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2991-A Quasi-Emperor spoke, his voice shivering.

All who reached the Quasi-Emperor Rank were prodigies who possessed formidable mental fortitude. Yet, fear gripped the heart of this Quasi-Emperor.

Everyone looked at the Martial Reverend, Thea, and James.

“Hee hee hee...”

A peal of strange laughter boomed. Then, an elderly man in a black robe flew out of the main hall. Behind him were twelve masked powerful figures in black robes.

Upon seeing the elderly man, Thea’s eyes widened.

Sensing the opponent’s aura, she cried out, “He was the one who controlled me. He’s the Chancellor of the Sanctuary of Darkness and the mastermind behind the scenes.”

James glanced at the elderly man in the black robe.

“Thea Callahan, I never expected you to remove the curse inside your body. Who was the one who helped you?” the Chancellor questioned.

To him, the cultivators before him were insignificant. The only individual he was concerned about was the one who removed the curse. As he was not confident he could stand against the individual, he requested help from the headquarters, which sent the Twelve Furies.

“It was me.”

James stepped forward.

The Chancellor glanced at James. Sensing his cultivation base, he could not help but exclaim, “You?”

His expression was full of disbelief. How could a Sage Rank cultivator remove the curse?

“Impossible!”

The Chancellor could not believe this.

At that moment, Jabari, who was inside the Celestial Abode was watching the outside world. His voice sounded in James' mind. "James, he's only at the Grand Emperor Rank's Second Heaven. There's no way he's the mastermind behind this. There must be some sort of powerful organization backing him. Find a way to get more information from him. I speculate that this organization is related to the Ancestral God Rank elixir. To accomplish our objective, we'll have no choice but to deal with them."

Hearing this, James stood in the distance and watched the Chancellor, who was in mid-air. Behind the Chancellor were the Twelve Furies of the Sanctuary of Darkness. Not only that, but there was a horde of beasts at the far back. The beasts were huge in number, and each of them possessed tremendous power. Their combined aura made James feel overwhelmed and uncomfortable.

When he could no longer endure their aura any further, an immense power came from inside the Celestial Abode to support him. It lifted the overwhelming pressure from him.

He asked coldly, "Who are you? Who are you trying to resurrect by setting up the Resurrection Formation?"

James' voice boomed.

Hearing this, the Chancellor was stunned. He glanced at James and said, "Not bad, kid. To think that you recognize the Resurrection Formation."

Inside the Celestial Abode, Jabari said, "Don't waste your breath on him. Ask him about the organization backing him and his relationship with the Ancestral Talisman Master."

James asked once more, "You shouldn't be able to set up the Resurrection Formation with your strength. What's your relationship with the Ancestral Talisman Master and the organization backing you? How did you manage to learn Curse Magic and control the power of the curse?"

"You know too much for your own good!"

The Chancellor's expression darkened.

James knew too much. The Sanctuary of Darkness had yet to appear in the Boundless Realm. If word of the Sanctuary spread, the organization would be crushed by the combined might of the Boundless Realm. Since it was not yet time for the Sanctuary to make its appearance, the Chancellor knew that the information could not be leaked.

"Spare not a single one of them."

The Chancellor's face was solemn. As he waved his hand, mysterious sigils and runes materialized in his palm. At that moment, the countless beasts behind him went berserk.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2992-The Chancellor cultivated Curse Magic. However, after being passed down for generations, the Curse Magic now had many variations. The one he cultivated was the Mind Control Art.

The Mind Control Art was essentially a Curse Magic capable of controlling other living beings. As he catalyzed the Mind Control Art, the countless beasts behind him went berserk. These beasts seemed to be in excruciating pain, emitting agonizing roars. The deafening and mournful roars echoed through the sky, shattering the dark clouds and making the earth tremble.

“Charge!”

The Chancellor waved.

As he gave his order, countless beasts charged straight ahead.

James had asked the Chancellor a few questions, which he refused to answer. Seeing that the opponents were charging straight toward them, he ordered, “Enter into formation!”

As he gave his order, four hundred thousand cultivators flew into the sky and stood in different spots. Then, the Martial Reverend, the Southern Reverend, Thea, and James also flew into the sky.

James stood at the forefront, whereas the Martial Reverend, the Southern Reverend, and Thea stood in three different spots to form a triangle. Behind them was the four-hundred-thousand-strong army.

At that moment, the four-hundred-thousand-strong army catalyzed the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation. Immediately, their auras merged, forming a terrifying magnetic field around them.

The power of the four-hundred-thousand-strong army entered the bodies of the Martial Reverend, the Southern Reverend, and Thea. Then, their powers entered James’ body. As James was the core of the formation, he could absorb the power of the four-hundred-thousand-strong army and the other three leaders and transform them into his own.

At that moment, James’ power rose dramatically. The power was so immense that James’ body almost exploded. He could feel his body bloating, seemingly on the verge of exploding.

Seeing this, the Martial Reverend who was behind him grew worried.

'Such immense power... Can his physical body endure it?'

At that moment, he finally believed James' word that he was only at the Sage Rank. A cultivator at the Sage Rank had gained a level of power that surpassed even that of a Grand Emperor in such a short period of time. No living being at the Sage Rank would be able to endure such immense power. Besides that, the Martial Reverend also noticed that as the power of the four-hundred-thousand-strong army entered James' body, he seemed to be unable to control it. This power seemed to have turned violent, crashing and slamming inside his body.

'H-How terrifying...'

James could not help but be alarmed.

Though this was not the first time he performed the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation, he had the assistance of the four-hundred-thousand-strong army inside the Celestial Abode. Now, however, this was a formation created by cultivators at the peak of the Divine Rank's Third Stage. A Sage Rank cultivator could never endure the power of a single cultivator at the peak of the Divine Rank's Third Stage, let alone four hundred thousand of them.

However, James' body was formed using the Demonic Lotus, which was the Natal Primordial Spirit of a Grand Emperor. When Yaraka Xenmour helped James reshape his physical body, he suppressed the original power of the Demonic Lotus.

Now, as the immense power entered and stimulated James' body, the power concealed inside his body was released. His physical body soon adapted to the foreign power.

Sensing that James had adapted to the power, Thea breathed a sigh of relief.

At that moment, a fierce battle erupted.

Countless beasts charged straight ahead. Since the four-hundred-thousand-strong army had formed a powerful formation and boundary, the beasts could not break through them. Hence, they turned around and attacked the other cultivators.

The deafening screams and roars reverberated throughout the area.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2993-James relaxed his muscles and clenched his fists. Sensing the power inside his body, he could not help but exclaim, "Is this power that surpasses even the Divine Rank? How terrifying..."

"Fetch, James!"

Thea tossed the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword to James, who managed to grab it. Holding the Divine Sword in his hand, James shivered. Then, the Divine Sword glimmered with a radiant purple light.

"What a powerful Divine Sword!"

Holding the Divine Sword in his hand, James could sense devastating power coming from the sword. It was unprecedented.

At that moment, the Martial Reverend charged toward the beasts and slashed them. As he was one of the leaders, he could redirect some of the power of the four-hundred-thousand-strong army. With the support of the formation, he was like a war god. Charging into the horde of beasts, he slaughtered them all. The moment the beasts died, their Blood Essence was absorbed by the mysterious formation in the sky, and they were mummified.

At that moment, Thea pulled out the Malevolent Sword and summoned the Four-Quadrant Art before slaughtering her way through the endless hordes.

Only one person remained by the sidelines, and that person was the Southern Reverend.

James did not make a move as well as he was still adapting to the power inside his body. After a while, he took a step forward and charged straight ahead.

However, as he failed to control his power, he shattered and passed through the void, appearing outside the battlefield. As he watched the ensuing battle from outside the battlefield, he scratched his head awkwardly, "What power... Looks like I'm gonna need some time adjusting to it."

He took a deep breath. Then, he returned to the battlefield.

Immediately, thousands upon thousands of beasts charged toward him. Each of them was at the Divine Rank's Third Stage.

James smiled scornfully.

As he slashed with the Divine Sword, an invincible Sword Light materialized and shredded through the air like a water ripple. As the Sword Light struck the incoming beasts, they were immediately sliced into half. Then, the invincible Sword Energy exploded inside the body of these beasts. In an instant, the beasts were all dead.

“This is unbelievable! Hahaha!”

James burst into a peal of laughter. “This is what I call invincible power. This is the true power of swordsmanship!”

At that moment, James no longer held back. His body became illusory, and his shadow became omnipresent. Each of his shadows wielded the Divine Sword, and with each strike, a beast fell dead. After the beasts were slaughtered, their Blood Essence would be absorbed by the Resurrection Formation, and they would be mummified. In an instant, billions of beasts perished by James’ sword.

Upon witnessing James’ terrifying sword technique, the Chancellor, who was at the main hall of the Sanctuary of Darkness turned solemn. Meanwhile, the other powerful figures nearby widened their eyes.

“Wh-What swordsmanship is that?”

“What terrifying sword technique...”

Even the Martial Reverend, who was a Grand Emperor furrowed his eyebrows. As he glanced at the omnipresent shadows in the air, he could not sense the location of James’ true body.

“What terrifying swordsmanship... I have no idea what his rank is.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2994-At that moment, even someone as powerful as the Martial Reverend was confused.

Back then when James broke the Flowery Pattern Formation, he knew that James was an unknown powerful figure. When James admitted that his strength was insignificant and that he was only at the Sage Rank, he scoffed at his remarks. However, after seeing James struggling to endure the power of the formation, he chose to believe in his previous words. Now, upon seeing James performing the terrifying sword technique, he was confounded.

“Who the hell is he? What exactly is he rank?”

At that moment, James had already charged into the horde of beasts. Back on Planet Galileo, he fought against the Heavenly Path Embodiments for thirty thousand years.

The Embodiments performed invincible sword techniques, and he learned them and merged them into his First Swordsmanship. However, as his strength was limited before, he could not summon the true force of this sword technique. Now that he had the combined power of a four-hundred-thousand-strong army at the Divine Rank's Third Stage and a few Quasi-Emperors, he could perfectly utilize the true power of the sword technique.

Together with the unparalleled sword techniques, James' Ancestral God Weapon turned him into a war god. As he slaughtered his way through the horde, countless beasts perished by his sword. Whether at the Divine Rank or the Quasi-Emperor Rank, none escaped death. Even beasts at the Emperor Rank could not resist his sword.

Upon seeing this, the Chancellor's expression turned grim.

"What a bizarre sword technique... Who exactly is he?"

He could not figure it out.

He turned around and looked at the Twelve Furies of Heaven and Earth and said, "I'll leave him to you. He's the leader of these humans. Once he's dead, the others pose no threat to us."

The Chancellor could tell that James was the most troublesome to deal with. Even a Grand Emperor such as the Martial Reverend was nothing in his eyes. That was because, among the beasts he controlled, there were at least a hundred at the Grand Emperor Rank. As such, he could easily annihilate someone like the Martial Reverend. Now, he could tell that James and the four-hundred-thousand-strong army had created a formation, which he could not yet recognize.

The Twelve Furies stepped forward.

The one in the lead spoke in a hoarse voice, "Rest at ease, Chancellor. Once we make our move, he's dead meat, no matter who he is."

Then, they flew toward the battlefield.

In an instant, they arrived at the battlefield.

As James slaughtered his way through the horde, he gradually adapted to the power inside his body. Just as he thought he was invincible, twelve masked individuals wearing black robes appeared. As their aura was too terrifying, many surrounding beasts hurriedly retreated.

"Watch out, James!"

After knocking back a group of beasts, Thea appeared beside James and gazed at the Twelve Furies. She could sense that they were extremely powerful and were at the Grand Emperor Rank. Not only that, they were at least at the Third Heaven of the Grand Emperor Rank.

Holding the Divine Sword in his hand, James' battle intent grew. Glancing at Thea, he said, "Stand back."

"But they're Grand Emperors." Thea furrowed her eyebrows slightly.

James had a scornful expression on his face as he said, "So what? I'm gonna annihilate them all."

Saying that, he charged toward them. As he took a step forward, he appeared before the Twelve Furies.

Thea did not follow suit. Instead, she scanned her surroundings. Upon seeing the fierce battle around her, she raised her hand, and a black aura materialized from her palm, gradually forming mysterious characters.

She was familiar with the Mind Control Art, which was imparted to her by the Chancellor.

As she removed the Mind Control Art that controlled millions of beasts, they slowly regained consciousness. Then, they looked at the Chancellor with livid expressions.

The Chancellor's expression was solemn.

"Damn you, Thea!"

He cursed.

The Master of the Sanctuary was the one who controlled Thea. Then, he handed her to him and instructed him to nurture her, explaining that she would be put to good use. He never expected the curse inside Thea to be removed.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2995-Now, she had removed the Mind Control Art on these beasts and freed them from mind control.

After cursing, the Chancellor gazed into the distance with a solemn expression.

"Hmph, enjoy this while it lasts! Once James is dead, none of you shall escape."

The Chancellor did not panic. That was because he was the only one who knew the exit of the Cursed World. Besides, the Curse Power here was immense. In such a world, he was invincible.

After Thea removed the Mind Control Art on some beasts, the fierce battle stopped temporarily. All gazes were fixed on James and the four-hundred-thousand-strong army.

At that moment, James appeared before the Twelve Furies. Holding the Divine Sword in his hand, he looked at them and pointed the sword at them. Invisible Sword Energy shredded through the air, and he said with an indifferent expression, "Make your move."

"Hmph, you must have a death wish!"

A hoarse voice said.

Then, one of the Twelve Furies charged toward James at extraordinary speed. His speed was so great that James could not even react in time. That was because his rank was only at the Sage Rank. Though he had obtained immense power through the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation, he had yet to completely adapt to it.

Before he could even react, one of the Twelve Furies appeared before him and slammed his fist against his chest. Though James wanted to defend himself, he was too late. The fist slammed against his chest. At that moment, the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation circulated, and the four-hundred-thousand-strong army alongside the other leaders spread the damage among themselves.

James remained where he stood. Patting his chest, he said nonchalantly, "Aren't you too weak?"

"What?"

The Fury that attacked James was shocked.

His physical strength was at the Emperor Rank, and his power should be enough to shake heaven and earth. Even a Grand Emperor would suffer injuries after being struck. Yet, here was James completely unscathed.

From afar, the Chancellor cried out, "Use the Big Dipper Formation at once. Otherwise, you won't be able to annihilate him."

"Too bad you won't have the chance to do so anymore."

James said coldly.

He raised the sword in his hand, and his body flashed. Then, in the next instant, he appeared before the Fury and pierced him with his sword.

The ordinary swing of the sword encompassed all things. In the pupils of the Fury, the myriad paths of the heavens unfolded before his eyes. At that moment, he was dumbfounded. By the time he collected himself, the Divine Sword was already before him. He summoned his full strength and gathered them on the surface of his skin, forming a protective barrier.

Boom!

The moment the Divine Sword struck the protective barrier, the barrier instantly shattered. Then, the Divine Sword pierced through the Fury's body. At that moment, millions of Sword Light exploded within his body, and his physical body was destroyed.

The Fury's Primordial Spirit hurriedly escaped. However, James was everywhere. Countless shadows merged and appeared before the Primordial Spirit in an instant. As they merged, a bizarre swordsmanship power exploded and pierced through the Primordial Spirit.

"Argh!"

The Primordial Spirit screamed in pain. Then, the illusory face of the Primordial Spirit became distorted before completely disappearing from this world.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2996-The agonizing scream echoed throughout the region.

Under the watchful gaze of the crowd, a Grand Emperor at the Third Heaven was turned to ashes. Not even his Primordial Spirit remained.

Everyone was dumbfounded.

What just happened? Was a Grand Emperor at the Third Heaven annihilated just like that? Who was that person? How did he possess such terrifying power?

After annihilating the Fury, the remnants of James' shadow gathered to form his original body. Holding the Divine Sword, he looked at the remaining eleven with an ice-cold expression on his face, saying with a faint smile, "Curse Magic, huh? Allow me to show you the true Curse Magic."

Though James only knew Confinement and Reincarnation, he wanted to see the true power of the latter. Putting away the Divine Sword, he stood in mid-air and catalyzed Curse Magic. At that moment, the black characters inside his body materialized into mysterious power that enveloped his body. As he casually waved his hand, mysterious characters came into view and charged toward the eleven Furies.

Sensing an immense power sweeping toward them, the eleven Furies' faces turned pale as they hurriedly staggered backward. However, they were too late. Under the envelopment of the Curse Magic, their vitality was slowly being sapped away. Even though they were Grand Emperors, they could not break free of the curse. Soon, they gradually aged.

"Curses!"

Upon seeing this, the Chancellor could no longer stay by the sidelines. As he cursed, he charged out of the Sanctuary.

The Twelve Furies were the core of the Sanctuary. If they died here, he would be reprimanded by the higher-ups.

In an instant, he appeared before the remaining Furies and raised his hand. Powerful force materialized in his palm and forcibly removed the Curse Magic James performed.

After the Curse Magic was removed, the Furies breathed a sigh of relief.

The Chancellor stood before the Furies and gazed at James in the distance. With shock and horror on his face, he questioned, "Wh-Who are you? How do you know Curse Magic?"

James smiled faintly and said, "Curse Magic was created by the Ancestral Talisman Master. It doesn't belong to you, so why can't I learn it?"

"You're dead meat, kid."

The Chancellor's expression turned ferocious.

He opened his arms wide. Then, the Curse Power of the entire world swarmed toward him. In an instant, he was enveloped by the dark Curse Power. The Curse Power was so immense that even James grew fearful.

"Die, all of you!"

The Chancellor roared.

Then, mysterious characters materialized from the dark aura. Carrying a bizarre power, these characters swept toward the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation created by the four-hundred-thousand-strong army.

The Curse Power was unstoppable. Despite the terrifying magnetic field surrounding the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation, the boundary shattered immediately upon being struck by the Curse Power, and the four-hundred-thousand-strong army was instantly affected by the curse, which frantically destroyed their bodies.

James could sense that the power inside his body was being sapped away at an alarming rate. His face paled as he cried out, "Hang in there. Otherwise, the formation will break, and everyone will die!"

The four-hundred-thousand-strong army immediately concentrated their full force on resisting the Curse Power.

Meanwhile, the Curse Power continued to spread. In the distance, some beasts and living beings who could not resist the curse exploded, and their Blood Essence permeated the air.

"Hahaha!"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2997-The Chancellor burst into a roar of laughter. He was invincible in this world. No one could stand against him.

At that moment, Thea hurriedly appeared beside James. As she was affected by the Curse Power, her face was pale and full of bulging green veins.

"You have to think of a way, James! The four-hundred-thousand-strong army won't last for much longer. Once the formation breaks, it's all over for us."

She hurriedly said.

James' expression was unusually grim.

He looked at the Chancellor in the distance, who was enveloped by the overwhelming Curse Power. Not only that, the Curse Power was gathering non-stop, and the Chancellor was growing increasingly stronger. If his aura continued to rise, he would soon be able to destroy the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation with ease.

The only way was to stop him from using the world's Curse Power.

However, how?

Suddenly, an idea flashed through James' mind.

He summoned the Jade Seal and catalyzed it. The Imperial Seal appeared in the mid-air and frantically absorbed the Curse Power of this world. Even the Curse Power inside the Chancellor seemed to be showing signs of losing control. After absorbing the Curse Power, the Jade Seal transferred the power to James.

Thea's Curse Power from before was incomparable to this. The current Curse Power was too immense and concentrated. If not for the four-hundred-thousand-strong army, James' body would have immediately exploded the moment the Curse Power entered his body.

"Thea, Martial Reverend, Southern Reverend, go get them."

James ordered, "Use the power of the formation and annihilate the mastermind and the remaining eleven Grand Emperors."

The Martial Reverend nodded while Thea unsheathed the Malevolent Sword. Charging toward the Chancellor at the same time, they appeared before him in an instant.

At that moment, the Chancellor felt his Curse Power being sapped away. Disbelief and horror were written on the Chancellor's face as he exclaimed, "I-Impossible! How are you able to absorb the Curse Power inside my body?"

However, Thea and the Martial Reverend were already on his heels. Seeing this, the eleven Furies blocked their attacks.

A fierce battle erupted once more.

As the battle re-erupted, the beasts at the Grand Emperor Rank who were previously being controlled by the Sanctuary of Darkness were livid after regaining consciousness. Without any hesitation, they charged toward the Chancellor and the eleven Furies.

The battle escalated.

Divine Rank cultivators had no right to participate. Those who joined were at least at the Grand Emperor Rank.

Though the atmosphere in this world was strong, the ordinary swings of the sword by these Emperor Rank cultivators could create massive spatial fissures. Though the eleven Furies possessed immense power, they slowly lost ground against the horde of beasts at the Grand Emperor Rank. Meanwhile, the Chancellor was determined to re seize control of the Curse Power. However, the bizarre Jade Seal that was in mid-air was sapping it from him, and he had lost control of the Curse Power of this world. Even the Curse Power inside his body was being rapidly sapped away.

At that moment, he knew that he had lost and that the resurrection plan had failed. However, he did not wish to yield.

"No one can stop me!"

He roared incessantly and summoned his Curse Magic to the max in an attempt to re seize control.

At that moment, James was sitting in a lotus position in the air. When the immense Curse Power entered his body, he could not endure the sudden influx despite having already surpassed the Grand Emperor Rank. Hence, he could only hurriedly suppress and refine the Curse Power into mysterious black characters.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2998-The Jade Seal had absorbed all the Curse Power of this world, including the Curse Power in the bodies of the Chancellor and all living beings. The potency of this Curse Power exceeded James' understanding of power. As the Curse Power entered his body, it frantically destroyed his body.

At that moment, his Demonic Body was activated. The Demonic Energy inside his body circulated, frantically rejuvenating his injured body. James, on the other hand, borrowed the power of the four-hundred-thousand-strong army to suppress the Curse Power. Though the Martial Reverend and Thea had diverted some of the strength away, the remaining strength was nonetheless sufficient for James to suppress the Curse Power that surged into his body. For now, he had stabilized the situation. Now, he only had to wait to absorb all the Curse Power of this world to win the battle.

“Dammit!”

The Chancellor cursed.

At that moment, he no longer looked like a powerful figure. Now, he was only a foul-mouthed elderly man.

“Hurry up and make a move already!”

He roared while staring straight ahead.

Hearing this, James' blood ran cold. He knew that the Sanctuary must have had a spy among them. Immediately, he activated his Divine Sense and observed his surroundings.

At that moment, the Southern Reverend appeared before James and asked, “Are you alright, James?”

James shook his head slightly and said, “I should be fine. Don't worry about me.”

“There must be an enemy spy among us. I'll protect you.”

The Southern Reverend said.

“Mhm.”

James nodded.

Now that there was a Quasi-Emperor at the Ninth Tribulation protecting him, James could concentrate on suppressing the Curse Power.

However, just as James let his guard down, the Southern Reverend summoned his full force and struck James' back. Just as James was distracted, he suddenly sensed a terrifying power coming from his back. Since the power of the four-hundred-thousand-strong army had been diverted away by the Martial Reverend and Thea, not to mention that the four-hundred-thousand-strong army had already been weakened by the Curse Power, James did not have much available power left. Even though the damage from the incoming attack was spread across the four-hundred-thousand-strong army, James was immediately sent flying. He plummeted from the sky and crashed heavily to the ground and into a pile of rubble. At the same time, the four-hundred-thousand-strong army collapsed.

The Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation was destroyed.

“Hahaha!”

The Chancellor roared in laughter.

Now that James was injured, he lost control of the Jade Seal. Hence, the Jade Seal stopped absorbing Curse Power. This allowed the Chancellor to seize back control. Now that he had regained control of the Curse Power, he planned to use them to deal with the combating Grand Emperors. The Curse Power was too bizarre and terrifying, and the Grand Emperors stood no chance against them. As they gradually lost ground, the Furies seized the opportunity and launched a counterattack.

“James.”

Thea was in the midst of a fierce battle when she sensed the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation being shattered. She cried out in desperation and tried to reinforce James. However, she was tied down and had no way of leaving the battle.

Now that the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation was broken and the Jade Seal had lost control, the Curse Power was once again in the hands of the Chancellor. With the Curse Power under his control, the tables were turned yet again.

“Southern Reverend, you!”

“Dammit! You're a traitor!”

“Why, Headmaster? Why?”

Many roared.

Standing in mid-air, the Southern Reverend looked at them coldly and said nonchalantly, “Why? For supreme and unparalleled power, of course.”

At that moment, blood rained from above. It was the blood of the Grand Emperors who fought to their death.
