The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2999-The Blood Essence was absorbed by the mysterious Resurrection Formation. At that moment, everyone lost hope.

"It's over."

"Are we really going to die here?"

"We'll fight to the death to crush that demon!"

Many roared in fury.

At that pivotal moment, they burned their souls and acquired immense power before frantically launching a counteroffensive. However, the Curse Power of this world was simply too terrifying. The Chancellor who had obtained the power of this world was now at the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven. Being the first existence to ever reach the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven in the Boundless Realm, he was now invincible.

"Hahaha, die, all of you!"

The Chancellor cackled.

The battle ensued.

No one surrendered, showing that they wished to die an honorable death.

Thea and Xainte were in the midst of a fierce battle.

At that moment, James was lying on a pile of rubble, his life hanging by a thread. He was enveloped by Curse Power. As the Nine Heavens God- Annihilating Formation had been broken and he had lost the power of the four-hundred-thousand-strong army, he could no longer suppress the Curse Power inside his body. Though he had some remaining physical strength, even that was slowly being depleted. Cracks began to appear all over his body. At the current rate, he would soon be completely annihilated by Curse Power.

Jabari was observing this from inside the Celestial Abode.

"Are you not planning to make a move soon?" The Spirit Tool was anxious.

James could be killed soon.

Jabari waved his hand lightly and said, "He obtained the mysterious Elixir of Nine Deaths in the Ancient Heavenly Court's ruins. Since he has nine lives, he would be reborn every time he's killed. Not only that, he would gain immense power, and his rank would increase. His rank is too weak at the moment. This is the perfect opportunity for him to grow."

Emperor Jabari knew everything about James. He did not act impulsively as he knew that James would survive this.

Meanwhile, James was lying on the pile of rubble.

After losing the power of the four-hundred-thousand-strong army, his stimulated physical strength was slowly being depleted, and his consciousness began to blur.

Soon, he passed out.

At that moment, a mysterious power materialized and circulated throughout his body, temporarily suppressing the Curse Power that plagued him. Meanwhile, James stood up and tried sensing his rank.

His rank had increased from the Sage Rank's Twelfth Stage to the Fifteenth Stage. He had jumped three sub-ranks in a row.

"The Elixir of Nine Deaths truly is magical."

James knew that the Elixir of Nine Deaths that he obtained in the Ancient Heavenly Court's ruins had been activated.

The Elixir's power did not disappear. Instead, it circulated throughout his body and temporarily suppressed the Curse Power.

Emperor Jabari smiled slightly and said, "Not bad. He jumped three subranks in a row in an instant."

At that moment, he raised his hand, and powerful force gathered in his palm. This power spread from the Celestial Abode and entered James' body.

James scrutinized his insides. Upon sensing the power from the Celestial Abode, he said delightedly, "Thank you, Emperor Jabari!"

Jabari's voice came, "End the battle at once. I'm currently in a soul state, and as such, my power won't last for much longer. Besides, my power is being depleted at a rapid pace. Now, I only possess strength equivalent to a cultivator at the Grand Emperor Rank's Second Heaven. You need the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword, the Infinity Steles, and the Five Elements of Genesis to end this."

"Got it!"

James had a murderous expression on his face.

Jabari continued, "The enemy has absorbed too much Curse Power. As such, his strength is equivalent to mine when I'm at my peak form. To annihilate him, you first need to remove the Curse Power inside his body. Otherwise, our powers combined won't stand a chance against him."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3000-The Chancellor was simply too powerful. He had absorbed the entirety of this world's Curse Power and reached the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven. Of course, Jabari was exaggerating slightly. However, this was evidence of the Chancellor's strength. He was merely trying to remind James to be careful.

James stood on a rock on a pile of rubble below. A fierce battle had erupted up there. Millions of living beings fought against each other, and heaven and earth shuddered.

"Hahaha! Die, all of you!"

The Chancellor was completely demonized. Though he practiced Curse Magic, it was nigh impossible for him to control such immense power. His expression became contorted, and his consciousness blurred. He only had a single thought in mind—annihilate all living beings in this world and resurrect the powerful being.

James did not sit around for long. As his mind stirred, he catalyzed the Jade Seal that had sealed away the Curse Inscription. The Jade Seal flew to the sky and began absorbing the Curse Power of this world. As the immense Curse Power was absorbed by the Jade Seal, it transferred the power to James. Though James no longer had the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation, he borrowed Emperor Jabari's power and temporarily suppressed the Curse Power entering his body.

The Chancellor was immersed in ecstasy when he sensed something was amiss. His Curse Power was slowly seeping away. Shocked, he scanned his surroundings, searching for the source that was absorbing the Curse Power. Then, he saw the Jade Seal and James.

James was standing on a rock on a pile of rubble below. Wearing a black robe, he was holding the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword in his hand. As his black hair fluttered with the wind, he exuded the aura of a Grand Emperor.

At that moment, many sensed James' presence.

Xainte, who was in the midst of a fierce battle, turned around and saw James the moment she sensed the presence of a certain individual. At that moment, she could clearly sense the aura of a Grand Emperor exuding from James' body.

"What?"

She froze.

She was dumbfounded. What rank was her father in? How could his rank fluctuate so suddenly?

Thea, the Martial Reverend, and many others sensed James' presence. Upon seeing James, they all breathed a sigh of relief.

"I-Impossible..."

With a ferocious expression on his face, the Chancellor roared, "What are you standing there for, Southern Reverend? Hurry up and wipe him out!"

Upon seeing James reappear and sensing the Grand Emperor aura he exuded, the Southern Reverend's blood ran cold as fear overwhelmed him. He was only a Quasi-Emperor at the Ninth Tribulation and had not even reached the Grand Emperor Rank. Faced against a Grand Emperor, he had no wish to fight against him.

He turned to flee.

However, at that moment, the Chancellor was enraged upon seeing him trying to escape. As he casually waved his hand, a swathe of Curse Power swept toward the Southern Reverend and enveloped him.

"Y-You...!"

As Curse Power entered his body and frantically destroyed it, the Southern Reverend roared, "Why?! After everything I've done for you, why are you doing this?"

His roar reverberated throughout the region.

"Argh...!"

As the Curse Power devoured him, cracks began to appear on his body. His expression became contorted.

He did not wish to die just like that. As such, he struggled with all his might. However, as a Quasi-Emperor at the Ninth Tribulation, he could not break free of such overwhelming Curse Power. In just a few minutes, he was completely devoured by the Curse Power and vanished from this world.

Upon seeing this, many fell silent.

Such was the fate of a traitor.
