The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3041-Suddenly, the ground began to quake.

As the growl of an unknown monster's voice filled the air, the mountain split open, and a chasm appeared.

Then, a massive horned head emerged from the valley.

The monster had a large mouth with two rows of sharp teeth.

A foul and foreboding atmosphere suffused the surroundings.

At the sight of the monster, both Jules and Monica retreated slightly.

Emperor Jabari immediately drew out a small amount of his power from the Celestial Abode.

His power diffused into James' body and roused his physical strength.

James' energy immediately grew stronger.

The Demonic Lotus' energy also surged through his body and pushed his strength to its limits.

Jules and Monica were surprised by the sudden change they saw in James.

Both of them took further steps back.

Monica appeared in the distance and looked at James, whose energy had skyrocketed. She was startled to sense the energy coming from James. "Is he really that strong?"

She was a Quasi-Emperor at the Fourth Tribulation.

This was a clear sign that James' strength was much superior to hers.

James sensed the power flowing through his body and renewed vigor in his limbs.

He inadvertently broke into a smile.

His overwhelming power was not his strength from cultivating but pure physical strength.

After a cultivator reaches the peak of the Sage Rank's Thirty-Third Stage, they can choose a Path to continue cultivating towards to further develop their strength.

"Haah!"

Monica took a deep breath.

"If he's already this strong physically, then how much stronger is his cultivation strength?"

Monica could not imagine how much James had comprehended while cultivating and what kind of Path he was following since she could not sense his Path Energy.

Jules glanced at the bewildered Monica and said proudly, "See, I wasn't lying to you. This isn't all there is to Mr. Caden's strength. He is only showing a portion of his strength at this moment. You should've seen him fight the elite powerhouses. The fight was so intense and destructive that every move he made caused immense damage to their surroundings."

Monica exclaimed in astonishment. "I-Impressive."

In the distance, the monster slowly launched itself into the sky from the huge chasm.

James had never seen a monster like this before.

The monster had a colossal body similar to the size of a mountain and was covered in black scales. It looked like a winged cow.

The monster exuded vicious hostility.

When the monster flew into the sky, it transformed into an unkempt man with huge crimson eyes wearing a black robe.

The man looked at James below him who was bursting with energy.

"Human, this place is forbidden. Entry here is prohibited."

His hoarse voice boomed in the sky.

James looked at him and asked calmly, "What if I insist on entering?"

"Then you'll die where you stand."

The burly man threatened him and unleashed a terrifying and murderous aura.

James clenched his fists.

Although he had incredible physical strength, his cultivation strength was comparatively weak. He was still relying on Sage Energy. James knew he could not activate the Elemental Wheel nor fully utilize the Infinity Steles.

His only choice was to defeat this strange monster with his physical strength alone.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3042-The monster guarding the place was a Divine Cow with corrupted blood.

He had guarded the place for a long time.

He had not even reached the Grand Emperor rank when he first arrived. Fortuitously, he discovered a miraculous Emperor Rank Herb hidden within Mount Baidi's Formation.

However, around the mountain was a formation.

The reason he guarded the place was in order to break the formation.

A long time had passed since he first arrived, and he had already become a Grand Emperor at the Fourth Heaven. Yet, he was still unable to break the formation.

Unfortunately, humans had trespassed into the area.

The Divine Cow transformed into his human form. He hovered in the air and looked at James who seemed terrifyingly strong. The Divine Cow's face darkened and his expression contorted into a hostile snarl.

"Die!"

After the Divine Cow cried out, his body flickered. He suddenly appeared before James. Clenching his fist, he swung a mighty punch at James.

His attack contained immense destructive strength.

However, James did not respond fearfully.

Emperor Jabari's energy had triggered the strength in his body, and his hidden power had been unleashed. At that moment, his physical strength was comparable to a Grand Emperor's at the Fifth Heaven.

He raised his hand and blocked the powerful punch.

Their fists smashed into each other.

Boom!!!

Two unstoppable forces collided, and a void materialized at the point of impact. The void continued to enlarge and rapidly spread across the sky.

Even though they were within an advanced world with a stable space, their strength happened to shatter the space around them.

As the space split open, the Divine Cow was sent flying by the force.

The Divine Cow was a Grand Emperor at the Fourth Heaven, but there was an obvious disparity between his and James' strength. He was not able to withstand James' might.

After James repelled the attack, he took the opportunity to further suppress his opponent.

In the distance, Monica watched the fight in disbelief.

James displayed fearsome strength.

The force of their attack was palpable. Despite standing away from them, Monica could sense the horrifying aftershock sweeping toward them. If the attack had struck her, she would have been killed instantly.

The Divine Cow immediately understood the extent of James' strength after they exchanged moves.

While retreating, the Divine Cow was furious. 'Damn it.'

As a Grand Emperor at the Fourth Heaven, he could sense that James had not activated any of his Path Energy and was only using his physical strength. How strong must his cultivation rank be if his physical strength had reached such a terrifying level?

The Divine Cow could not fathom James' true strength.

While he was preoccupied with his own thoughts, James had already charged toward him.

James' physical strength was nothing short of disturbing. He had maximized his speed and instantly appeared in front of the Divine Cow. James clenched his fist and swung it at the Divine Cow.

Suddenly, mysterious inscriptions appeared around his opponent.

The inscriptions fused and formed a shield.

The Divine Cow had activated his Path to resist James' attack.

James still did not have a proper understanding of Paths and had not fully mastered it. He smashed his fist into the inscriptions without any hesitation.

His powerful punch crashed into the shield formed by the inscriptions.

Crack!

Cracks formed on the shield, and it immediately shattered.

The Divine Cow was knocked away by the resultant force.

James was clueless about Paths, but he knew his potent physical strength was just as strong as any Path.

"Any Path will crumble to absolute strength. I can break through anything using my strength."

James' voice resounded.

The Divine Cow spat angrily. "Damn it!"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3043-The Divine Cow immediately reverted to his true form.

He flapped his black wings, and a few mysterious lines emerged on his wings.

After that, the lines activated and connected with each other.

A disturbing force was immediately unleashed.

The Divine Cow flapped his wings again, and lightning filled the sky.

The flashes of lightning contained great strength and was enough to injure inexperienced Grand Emperors.

Unfortunately, they dealt no damage to James.

James' physical strength was immeasurable. The Divine Cow's Path was unable to break through James' defenses.

The attack merely made James' Blood Energy churn slightly.

A fierce battle broke out in the barren world.

The Divine Cow unleashed his terrifying signature skill along with the full strength of his Path.

The Path he mastered was that of lightning.

Although the Lightning Path boasted devastating strength, the Divine Cow could not inflict any substantial damage to James nor break his physical defenses.

After fighting for some time, the Divine Cow became fatigued. James' attacks had knocked off the scales on his body and he was bleeding all over.

The Divine Cow knew he would die if the fight continued.

The Divine Cow shouted, "Hold on!!!"

James restrained himself just in time.

The Divine Cow immediately turned back into a human.

He floated in the air and wheezed laboriously. Turning to James, he waved his hand as he said, "Enough. I don't want to fight anymore."

"You're surrendering?" James smirked.

His physical body was sturdy since it was reformed by the Demonic Lotus.

He was only capable of unleashing the Demonic Lotus' full potential with the help of Emperor Jabari. However, he firmly believed his physical strength would eventually reach this level if he continued to train diligently.

When that time comes, he would become a formidable existence.

The Divine Cow looked at James nervously. He wondered, 'Where did this guy come from? Why is his physical strength so impressive?'

He stammered, "W-Who are you? Why have you come to this place?"

Instead of answering, James directed his question back at him. "Shouldn't I be the one asking who you are? Why are you living here?"

The Divine Cow raised his head and said proudly, "I'm a Five-Blooded Divine Cow with an enhanced bloodline."

Divine Cows were a noble race.

Thus, he was very proud of his origins.

James inquired, "What are you doing here?"

With a hint of frustration, the Divine Cow replied, "When I was adventuring, I chanced upon this deserted planet. I sensed an Emperor Rank Herb here and knew I would be able to evolve again if I were to consume it. Not only would I become a Nine-Blooded Divine Cow, but I'll also become a Grand Emperor at the Fifth Heaven, and my strength will also increase considerably."

"Emperor Rank Herb?"

Confused, James asked, "What is that exactly?"

He was worried that the Divine Cow was looking for the Mystic Piece.

The Divine Cow replied, "It's an Aquacollis."

Hearing this, James heaved a sigh of relief.

He had heard of Aquacollis before.

It was recorded in the books left behind by Emperor Jabari. Aquacollis were a type of miraculous and rare Emperor Rank Herb. An Aquacollis plant took thousands of years to grow.

The Divine Cow said dejectedly, "I've been here for a long time but haven't managed to break the formation in this place."

James looked at the Divine Cow and fell into deep thought.

Then, he addressed Emperor Jabari in the Celestial Abode, "Could you break the formation for me, Emperor Jabari?"

Emperor Jabari replied, "I should be able to."

James was relieved after hearing Emperor Jabari's reply. Looking at the Divine Cow in the distance, he said, "I can break the formation for you and help you obtain the Aquacollis, Divine Cow. However, I have one condition."

The Divine Cow replied excitedly, "What is it?"

James replied, "I want you to be my subordinate for a hundred thousand years. When that time is up, you'll be free."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3044-James had to stay in the Boundless Realm for about 100,000 years.

His cultivation rank was relatively low.

Moreover, Emperor Jabari was only a remnant of his original soul. Thus, it was impossible for James to continue relying on his energy.

James understood he would face a lot of dangers in the future and would have to recruit a powerful subordinate. If the Divine Cow could serve as his confidant for the next 100,000 years, it would greatly ease his future travels.

"One hundred thousand years?"

The Divine Cow was stunned by James' request.

No respectable powerhouse would readily agree to be someone else's follower.

Moreover, the Divine Cow was a Grand Emperor at the Fourth Heaven.

He was unwilling to submit to another person but desperately wanted the Aquacollis.

If he were to obtain the Aquacollis, he would evolve again into a Nine-Blooded Divine Cow and improve his cultivation rank.

It was challenging for cultivators at the Grand Emperor Rank to improve their cultivation rank.

The Divine Cow had guarded the area for a long time, attempting to break through the formation. Compared to that indefinite amount of time, a mere 100,000 years was a much better choice.

He contemplated for a while.

James knew others would need some time to consider his condition.

Emperor Jabari's strength faded from James' body, and his physical strength returned to its original limits.

James turned around and walked toward Monica and Jules in the distance.

As soon as he reunited with them, Jules gave him a thumbs up and praised him enthusiastically. "You're amazing, James! You're invincible!"

James smiled faintly in response.

After what happened, Monica's opinion on James had completely changed.

She had never felt admiration toward another prior to this.

However, James immediately became a hero to her right there and then.

James remained calm and looked at the hesitant Divine Cow in the distance. He said, "We'll have to wait some time and give him a moment to consider my request."

Meanwhile, the Divine Cow was weighing his options.

He was trying to determine whether devoting the next 100,000 years of his life to serving another person was worth obtaining the Aquacollis for.

The Divine Cow murmured, "One hundred thousand years isn't that long. I'm sure it'll pass in the blink of an eye."

After making a decision, the Divine Cow appeared before James.

Jules and Monica immediately stepped back and looked at him warily.

The Divine Cow smiled brightly and said, "Okay, I accept your condition. As long as you can break the formation and help me obtain the Aquacollis, I'll serve you for a hundred thousand years."

Top powerhouses stood by their words.

Under normal circumstances, they would never break their word after committing to it.

Hearing this, James felt relieved. With a Grand Emperor at the Fourth Heaven at his side, it would make his future journeys much smoother.

James looked at Mount Baidi ahead of them and asked Emperor Jabari in the Celestial Abode, "How do I break the formation, Emperor Jabari?"

Emperor Jabari observed the formation from the Celestial Abode.

"Give me some time to figure it out."

James did not rush him.

After three days, Emperor Jabari finally deciphered a way to solve the formation.

James remained idle and motionless for the past three days.

Jules and Monica knew that James was also studying the formation.

The Divine Cow likewise stayed patient.

He had attempted to break the formation for a long time. It had already been a few Epochs since he had arrived in this place, but he never succeeded. Despite experiencing James' strength for himself, he knew breaking the formation would take some time.

When Emperor Jabari had figured out how to break the formation, he began instructing James.

He lent James his power again, and James' strength soared to that of a Grand Emperor's.

It was not physical strength this time but cultivation strength.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3045-Monica and Jules had no doubts about James' strength. They were no strangers to James displaying a Grand Emperor's energy.

James appeared in the air in a flash. He casually waved his hand, and mysterious inscriptions emerged from his palm.

The words appearing from his palm were Formation Inscriptions.

All formations were formed by these inscriptions.

The greater one's knowledge of Formation Inscriptions, the stronger the formation one could set up.

The inscriptions slowly appeared and flowed into the void ahead of them.

At that moment, the skull-shaped mountains gradually morphed and began to shift.

They moved rapidly, and the invisible formation surrounding the area slowly came into view.

James used Formation Inscriptions to break through the formation.

Under the assault of the Formation Inscriptions, the formation around Mount Baidi gradually disappeared.

The formation's dissolution took around three years.

After that, the formation around Mount Baidi was completely broken, and a utopian area emerged.

The skull-shaped mountains had disappeared, and a canyon shrouded in white mist appeared ahead of them.

Behind the mist was a beautiful landscape of mountains and rivers.

At the same time, waves of pure Primordial Energy permeated the air.

"The formation is broken! He really broke the formation!"

The Divine Cow cried out excitedly.

He had stayed in this place for several Epochs but never succeeded in breaking the formation. He did not expect James to break it in only three years.

"From now onward, I, Nico Eastwood, shall serve you."

Nico was thrilled. Now that the formation was gone, he could finally get his hands on the Aquacollis and develop himself further. His strength could finally reach greater heights.

"Let's go have a look."

James stepped forward.

Monica, Jules, and Nico followed behind him.

Just as they stepped into the canyon, several figures appeared in the distance.

The figures watched James' party advance into the canyon and quietly left the place.

Concurrently, a huge airship floated elsewhere in the barren world.

A glamorous party was taking place in the airship's main hall.

A few beautiful women were dancing to the music.

Meanwhile, an old man sat in the topmost seat of the main hall.

Suddenly, a few dark shadows appeared and gradually materialized into cultivators donning black robes and masks. They immediately got on their knees, and one of them reported. "Chancellor, we've noticed something abnormal."

The Chancellor sat at the highest seat, enjoying a massage from a number of beautiful women.

He replied lazily, "What happened?"

"We spotted a few cultivators in the world's central region. A very strong formation had been set up there, but these cultivators managed to break it and have already made their way into the canyon."

The Chancellor immediately pushed away the beautiful women beside him.

He stood up abruptly and asked, "Who are they?"

"I'm uncertain. Guessing from their energy, one should be a cultivator at the Sage Rank, two are Quasi-Emperors, and one is a Grand Emperor."

The Chancellor began to ponder.

This planet was desolate, and hardly attracted any cultivators. So how were there other living beings on the planet?

After a brief thought, he murmured, "Coincidentally, we need the soul of a Grand Emperor to stir up the remnant soul."

As he devised a plan, the Chancellor immediately issued an order. "Gather everyone. Instruct them to halt their missions and head directly to this world's central region."

"Understood."

As the order was relayed, the powerful subordinates that were dispersed all over the world collecting soul sigils quickly gathered in the planet's central region.

Meanwhile, James' party had already entered the Divine Shadow Sect's ruins and was unaware of the impending danger.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3046-After James broke the formation around Mount Baidim, the mountain disappeared, and revealed a canyon in the area.

White mist shrouded the canyon, and glimpses of mountains and rivers could be seen through the gap.

James and his party entered the canyon.

After walking through the canyon for about ten minutes, they reached a cliff.

Ahead was beautiful scenery.

A wide mountain range was connected by a winding river.

Primordial Energy was abundant, and the scenery was spectacular.

The Divine Cow began sensing the Aquacollis' location as soon as they reached the cliff. Then, he disappeared the next moment.

Right then, Emperor Jabari's voice came from the Celestial Abode.

"Keep moving forward, James."

James immediately followed his instructions.

Under Emperor Jabari's guidance, James advanced deep into the Divine Shadow Sect's ruins. He passed through some mountains, crossed the river to finally enter a barren valley.

There were almost no plants inside the valley.

A few tiny cracks were spread across the ground, and strange blue mist seeped out from them.

In the center of the valley was a blue plant.

The plant was oval shaped and somewhat resembled a cactus.

"There it is. That's the Mystic Piece!"

Emperor Jabari's voice came from within the Celestial Abode.

James looked at the plant in front of him. It was more than three meters tall and looked magical as it emitted a faint, blue light. Although the valley was barren, James could smell an enchanting fragrance wafting through the air as he approached the plant.

James walked over and uprooted it without much hesitation. Then, he stored it in the Celestial Abode.

Then, he asked, "Are there any other worthwhile items here, Emperor Jabari?"

Emperor Jabari sensed the area and replied, "There are only two Emperor Rank Herbs here. One being the Aquacollis and the other being the Mystic Piece. As for any other boons or weapons, that you'll have to discover for yourself."

He did not give James any other clues.

To him, there was not anything else of value in the area.

He was a Grand Emperor at the Ninth Heaven. His Path was the most valuable thing to him. Unless it was a treasure left by an Ancestral God, he was not interested in anything else.

James never expected to obtain the Mystic Piece so soon.

The liquid from a Mystic Piece was perfect for making blood.

After James successfully acquired the Mystic Piece, he left the valley.

Then, he headed back to reunite with Jules and the others.

Meanwhile, Nico had obtained the Aquacollis and was ecstatic. He could not wait to isolate himself and refine it. After he successfully refined it, his blood would evolve to a higher level.

His cultivation rank would also improve, and he would become a Grand Emperor at the Fifth Stage.

Jules and Monica scanned their surroundings on a mountaintop within the Divine Shadow Sect's ruins.

The two saw James and Nico returning.

Jules looked at James, asking, "How did it go, Mr. Caden? Have you found what you needed?"

James nodded. "Mhm."

His goal was to acquire the Mystic Piece, and he had already succeeded.

Monica looked at James respectfully and said, "Since you've already obtained what you needed, what about the other boons around here?"

James knew Wollongong had sent Monica to obtain the inheritance left by the Divine Shadow Sect.

There was a Supernatural Power and an Ancestral God Weapon.

However, James was not interested in either of them.

He already had the Infinity Stele, which contained an extraordinary Path.

Moreover, he had the Five Elements of Genesis and the Elemental Inversion created by the five Ancestral Gods.

He was satisfied with possessing these signature skills.

Therefore, the boons in this area were of no interest to him.

James waved his hand and said, "Go ahead. Whatever you find is yours to keep."

Monica replied excitedly, "Thank you, Mr. Caden!"

Immediately after, she left and began to search for boons around the area.

"I'll also have a look around, Mr. Caden."

Jules did not stay idle either. After informing James, he also quickly left to search the area for treasure.

James sat at the entrance of a hall on the mountain's peak.

Countless years ago, this place used to be the base of a powerful sect. However, it currently lay deserted. Although many of the Divine Shadow Sect's buildings were still intact, the place was shrouded in silence.

James looked at mountains full of Primordial Energy in the distance.

He could not help but feel overcome with sorrow.

What was immortality?

Was there anything truly everlasting?

Even powerful Ancestral Gods were eventually defeated and could not escape death.

Nico sat beside James and transformed into his human form. He had a wild appearance, tanned skin, and a thick black beard.

He glanced at James and said, "I really didn't expect things to turn out like this. I spent countless Epochs trying to break the formation but never succeeded. Yet, you managed to undo it in just a few years."

Nico noticed a hint of sadness on James' face and could not help asking, "What are you thinking about?"

"It's nothing." James composed himself and lightly shook his head.

Nico said, "I'll stay true to my word. I'll follow you from today onward and serve you for a hundred thousand years."

Hearing this, James smiled lightly.

He was pleased to have a Fourth Heaven Grand Emperor by his side. Moreover, Nico would evolve again and enter the Fifth Heaven after consuming the Aquacollis. He would definitely be one of the most potent powerhouses in the Boundless Realm.

With such a strong subordinate by his side, he had nothing to worry about.

His next move was to focus on finding the Ancestral God Rank Elixir.

At that moment, a cloud of black mist appeared in the distance.

James and Nico stood up in unison and looked at the approaching mist.

The black mist closed in rapidly and immediately appeared above the ruins of the Divine Shadow Sect. It slowly dissipated, revealing a giant airship.

An old man stood on the deck of the airship. Behind him were a few men in black.

As soon as the chancellor appeared, he noticed James standing below.

After seeing James, his expression immediately changed. He frantically issued an order. "Run, let's go! We need to escape this planet immediately!"

Suddenly, the airship sped off.

As the airship turned around, James saw the chancellor. He was the mysterious man involved with the Cursed World that James had defeated. Unfortunately, the airship had already disappeared by the time James recognized him.

Nico looked at James confusedly and asked, "What just happened?"

James said, "I saw him somewhere else previously and defeated him. I wasn't expecting to see him here again. Nico, chase after the airship and try to capture a few of their men."

James did not know why the chancellor had shown up. However, James knew he was surely up to no good.

"Alright."

Nico nodded and disappeared in a flash.

At that moment, the airship had already traveled through space and left the planet.

On the airship, the accompanying elder looked at the pale chancellor and asked, "What's the matter, Chancellor? Why are we leaving so suddenly?"

The chancellor had not recovered from the earlier fright, and sweat beaded his forehead. He raised his hand and wiped away the sweat.

"I failed my previous mission because I encountered a certain powerhouse. That powerhouse was right there. I couldn't defeat him even when I absorbed Curse Power and raised my strength to a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor. I'm but an ant to him currently."

Recalling his battle with James, the chancellor felt shivers down his spine.

"Since James was there, we've no choice but to give up on this planet. We'll search for another planet to carry out our plan."

"Did you think you could leave so easily?" A menacing voice remarked.

Then, an invincible pressure swept toward the airship and sealed the surrounding space, trapping the airship in the starry universe.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3048-Nico had caught up to the airship.

He sealed the space within with immense power and imprisoned the airship that was trying to escape through the void.

The huge airship was trapped within the starry universe.

Nico showed up soon after. He floated in space and looked at the airship before him. With a flick of his hand, a phantom palm appeared and swept toward the airship as it continued to grow in size.

Some of the powerhouses on the airship, including the chancellor and elder, quickly acted to withstand the force.

A powerful force shot out from the airship and into space.

However, the force was completely steamrolled by Nico's energy.

Nico's palm attack struck the airship and instantly destroyed it.

Countless men on the airship died pitifully from the impact.

The chancellor and the elder sustained injuries.

Although the chancellor was also a Grand Emperor, he was weaker than Nico.

Grand Emperors of different sub-ranks were not on equal footing. A difference in sub-rank was a world apart in terms of strength.

"Damn it!"

The chancellor coughed up blood.

His face darkened, and he cursed furiously.

He knew he was against a formidable foe, so he decided not to fight. He forcefully broke through the sealed space and fled.

Although the chancellor escaped, the other elder was not as lucky. The elder tried to run, but Nico leaped forth and exploited the opening to seal off his energy.

After sealing the elder, Nico then chased after the chancellor. He followed after the chancellor's energy trail but found no trace of him.

Nico was forced to turn back.

Soon, he returned to James with the elder.

Nico causally threw the Sanctuary of Darkness' Elder on the ground.

"Mr. Caden, I killed most of them and caught one. Unfortunately, the other one escaped. He seemed to be the leader of these people."

James looked at the man on the ground and immediately realized the person who escaped was the one he had fought prior.

He looked at the sealed elder on the ground. James lifted him off the ground and patted the dust off his clothes, saying softly, "Don't worry. I won't harm you."

The Sanctuary of Darkness Elder looked at James and thought, 'Is this the person that defeated the chancellor last time and caused his mission to fail?'

The elder was in disbelief.

James' energy was incredibly weak and could hardly be considered a powerhouse.

"What's your name?" asked James.

The Sanctuary of Darkness Elder answered honestly, "Jimmu Melqart."

James pressed him further. "Who are you working for?"

However, Jimmu refused to answer.

He had recently joined the Sanctuary of Darkness but knew their rules by heart. If he revealed their secrets, he would be considered a traitor and would be punished.

The consequences were much scarier than death.

"Answer the question!"

Nico had a foul temper. Seeing that Jimmu refused to speak, he was immediately enraged.

He struck Jimmu's back with his palm. Since Jimmu's cultivation base was sealed, he could not dodge and was knocked to the ground.

The impact formed cracks in the ground, and Jimmu sunk into the soil.

Nico picked him up by his hair and said, "Whatever Mr. Caden asks, you answer."

A wound formed on Jimmu's back, and blood gushed out. Despite this, he kept his composure.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3049-Jimmu looked at James and said calmly, "If you want to kill me, go ahead."

James frowned at his reply.

He immediately activated the black inscriptions in his body, and thousands of them materialized instantly. They thrummed with bizarre power.

"Surely you understand what this is right, right?"

James patiently replied to him. "I'm sure you know how terrifying Curse Magic is, so I'll give you one last chance."

The color drained from Jimmu's face when he saw the mysterious Curse Inscriptions. "How is this possible? You shouldn't be able to do this! How do you know Curse Magic?" he screamed in alarm.

The Curse Inscriptions that James summoned were extraordinary and intricately made.

Jimmu had joined the Sanctuary of Darkness to learn Curse Magic but had only obtained one Curse Inscription so far. Although he only possessed one, it was already a challenge for him to understand it because of how profound it was.

On the other hand, James could easily summon tens of thousands of Curse Inscriptions at once, and every one of these inscriptions was stronger and more profound than the one inscription he had.

James knew Jimmu was panic-stricken by the Curse Inscriptions.

However, James had never actually tried using the Curse Inscriptions and could only summon them out of his body for now.

James put away the Curse Inscriptions.

Then, he sat at the hall's entrance and said nonchalantly, "To be honest, I'm not really interested in the force behind the Sanctuary of Darkness. You can tell me if you want, but it doesn't matter to me either way. In my eyes, you're as insignificant as an ant. I can easily kill you if I want to."

He knew very well how terrifying Curse Magic was.

Curse Magic was all-encompassing and was capable of unleashing unimaginable evil.

His forehead was soon slick with sweat.

Nico shouted, "Are you still holding your tongue?"

Jimmu was startled by Nico's commanding tone.

After a while, Jimmu calmed himself before saying, "Okay, I'll talk."

Only then did James smile as he asked, "Who are you?"

Jimmu replied, "I'm an elder from the Sanctuary of Darkness."

Jimmu was not a pushover. He was already a Grand Emperor and had been promoted to an elder because of his strength.

James further inquired. "What's the story behind the Sanctuary of Darkness?"

Jimmu shook his head, saying, "I only joined the Sanctuary of Darkness recently, so I don't know much about their background."

James frowned and asked, "Then why did you guys come to this planet?"

Jimmu revealed the truth. "After some investigation, we found many soul sigils on this planet. We came here to collect them. We planned to use Curse Magic to piece them together to form a powerful evil spirit."

Hearing this, James gasped.

He never expected that the Sanctuary of Darkness would come to this planet for such deplorable reasons.

"Tell me everything you know about the Sanctuary of Darkness."

Jimmu glanced at James and said, "I don't know much about the Sanctuary of Darkness. I only know that they are a very enigmatic organization that has existed for a long time.

"Having existed for ages, the members of the Sanctuary of Darkness are spread out all over the realms. Even a powerful sect like the Elixir Pavilion has been infiltrated by members of the Sanctuary of Darkness. Moreover, they have very high positions in the Elixir Pavilion."

James was surprised by Jimmu's report.

He knew the Sanctuary of Darkness was strong but never expected them to be powerful enough to infiltrate major forces in the Boundless Realm.

What exactly was the Sanctuary of Darkness trying to do?

James could not help asking, "What are they trying to achieve?"

Jimmu replied, "I don't know. I'm truly in the dark. The only people who know are the core members. I'm just a new recruit. Although I'm an elder, I'm not considered a core member. This was the first time I've been allowed to join a core mission."

Hearing this, James fell into silence.

To the side, Nico asked, "What should we do now, Mr. Caden? Should we kill him or...?"

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3050

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3050-Jimmu immediately panicked upon hearing Nico's suggestion to kill him.

He looked at James and said pleadingly, "No, please don't kill me. Keep me with you. I might be useful to you in the future. Don't you want to know more about the Sanctuary of Darkness? I'll infiltrate the Sanctuary of Darkness as a spy and acquire information for you."

Everyone was afraid of death.

Jimmu was a Grand Emperor who took several Epochs to attain this rank. He did not want his life to end so pitifully.

Although he was not afraid of death, he did not want to die just yet.

James looked at Jimmu and pondered briefly.

After a small pause, James said, "Let him go."

Nico asked puzzledly, "You're going to let him go? Are you sure about that, Mr. Caden? Do you really trust him? If we let him back to the Sanctuary of Darkness, we might never even find him again."

Jimmu immediately swore his loyalty. "That won't happen! I promise! I can swear an oath to you right now!"

Then, he immediately took a vow, "I, Jimmu Melqart, swear in the name of the Heavenly Path that I will never betray..."

He abruptly paused and looked at James, asking, "M-May I ask for your name?"

James replied calmly, "James Caden."

Jimmu started over again. "I, Jimmu Melqart, swear in the name of the Heavenly Path that I will never betray James Caden and will help him acquire information from the Sanctuary of Darkness. If I fail to stay loyal, I shall be erased from existence!"

Right after Jimmu swore an oath in the name of the Heavenly Path, James immediately sensed a slight connection between him and Jimmu.

He knew the oath in the name of the Heavenly Path had taken place.

Now that he was bound by the oath, it was impossible for Jimmu to betray James. He would have to keep to his oath and help James investigate the Sanctuary of Darkness.

Jimmu looked at James eagerly and asked, "Will you let me go now?"

James looked at Nico and said, "Unseal him."

Receiving the order, Nico immediately dissolved the seal on Jimmu.

Jimmu did not dare to stay any longer and quickly left.

Making an oath in the name of the Heavenly Path at his cultivation rank meant he could never turn back on his word.

Moreover, a connection was formed between him and James. Thus, James could easily sense wherever Jimmu was in the Sanctuary of Darkness whenever he liked.

Meanwhile, Nico was behind on outside affairs since he had stayed around the formation for several Epochs. Unsure of the Sanctuary of Darkness they were speaking about, he could not help but ask, "What exactly is this Sanctuary of Darkness, Mr. Caden?"

James shook his head lightly and said, "I'm not sure either. I only know that it's a wicked organization. They have strong members and are proficient in Curse Magic."

Nico knew about Curse Magic.

Since he was a powerful Grand Emperor, it was only natural that he had heard of it before.

Curse Magic was an extraordinary Secret Art passed down from the Primeval Age.

It was a dreadful and evil existence.

However, he only knew of them from records in ancient books.

Nico looked at James suspiciously and asked, “Do you also know how to use Curse Magic?”

James replied honestly. “I don’t.”

A puzzled expression formed on Nico’s face. “Then what about the inscriptions you summoned earlier?”

His question was met with silence.

Nico was merely a follower, so there was no need to explain to him.

Seeing that James refused to elaborate, Nico did not pry further.

James continued to wait where he stood.

Meanwhile, Jules and Monica were still searching the area for boons.

James waited a few days for them to return.

Eventually, Jules and Monica reunited with him.
