

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3061

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3061-Helvius walked through the crack in the formation and arrived inside Mount Truskie.

A simple wooden house was built in the open space on the mountaintop. There were simple tables and chairs placed outside the wooden house.

Upon arriving on the mountaintop, Helvius clasped his hands and called out respectfully, "Old Master."

Creak.

The wooden door opened, and an old man walked outside.

The old man looked quite long-lived. He had a head of white hair along with a white beard.

Seeing the old man with white hair, Helvius immediately greeted, "Old Master."

The old man was none other than the founder of the Elixir Pavilion, Silvester.

He was supposedly a Seventh Heaven Grand Emperor and was acknowledged as the strongest person in the Boundless Realm.

He had the highest cultivation rank among those whose cultivation ranks were also known. Many powerhouses have vanished from the public eye and were no longer remembered by people.

"What's the matter?"

Silvester walked out of the wooden house and sat down on a chair. He crossed his leg and lazily stretched his body.

"Old Maser, our pavilion will be holding a conference to recruit new disciples very soon. To expand the Elixir Pavilion's power, we've gathered alchemists from all over the world and will recruit only the cream of the crop.

"I implore you to come out of seclusion and be a judge during the conference. Your appearance will surely boost our reputation.

"Moreover, I came with a request from one of the Elixir Pavilion's Officials. She is a Grand Emperor at the Fifth Heaven. She joined the Elixir Pavilion a few Epochs ago. After learning of your proficiency with every Path, she wanted to consult you and inquire about her own Path in order to reach a higher rank."

Helvius stood at the top of the Boundless Realm's power hierarchy.

However, he remained respectful when speaking to the Elixir Pavilion's Old Master.

Silvester waved his hand and said, "I'm already old. I don't want to involve myself in worldly affairs. Moreover, I don't have the energy to be bothered by these things. You can take care of the Elixir Pavilion's affairs yourself. As for the Official's request for a consultation, reject her."

Helvius was slightly disappointed but still assented to his decision. "Alright."

After speaking, he turned around and was about to leave.

Suddenly, Silvester stood up and looked at the white clouds in the distance. He breathed a deep sigh and said, "Even after secluding myself all this time, I still haven't made a breakthrough. It's incredibly tough to enter the Grand Emperor Rank's Eighth Heaven."

As Helvius turned around, he suddenly froze.

He sensed a sinister force emerging from his heart. The force headed directly to his mind and took control of his consciousness.

He suddenly raised his hand and unleashed all his energy. There were traces of his Path emerging from his Palm.

Helvius suddenly leaped toward Silvester and struck his head.

Silvester was still lamenting about the hardships in cultivation when he suddenly sensed the impending danger.

However, he was too late. Helvius's palm had already struck his forehead.

Helvius's attack contained terrifying power and immediately shattered Silvester's Ousia.

Silvester bellowed furiously, "You b*stard!"

Then, he immediately launched a palm attack at Helvius, knocking him away.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3062

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3062-When one reached the Divine Rank, an Ousia would form in one's body.

This Ousia would change into a Path Seal upon reaching the Grand Emperor Rank.

Silvester was one of the strongest people in the Boundless Realm.

He was a Grand Emperor at the Seventh Heaven.

However, he did not spend much effort in training his physical body. Thus, his physical strength was much weaker than his cultivation rank. When Helvius attacked at full force, it immediately shattered his Path Seal.

Under normal circumstances, the shattering of one's Path Seal meant immediate death.

However, powerful cultivators could use their energy to stabilize and protect their Path Seals from being shattered.

Enraged, Silvester also struck Helvius in the chest. His devastating force spread through Helvius's body and destroyed his Path Seal.

Two powerful cultivators were effortlessly incapacitated.

After Helvius was wounded, traces of black energy emerged from his body and vanished into the air.

Helvius immediately regained consciousness.

The first thing he felt was extreme discomfort. He was a powerhouse and was able to immediately sense that his Path Seal had been shattered. The path he cultivated had been destroyed.

His ability to fight was effectively crippled.

"What happened?"

Helvius was confused.

Seeing Silvester on the ground nearby coughing up blood, he quickly got up and rushed to him.

"Old Master! What's wrong, Old Master?!"

Silvester got up from the ground and called upon his energy to stabilize his shattered Path Seal.

"Old Master, I don't know anything. What happened?"

Helvius quickly explained his circumstances. "Just now, I suddenly lost consciousness."

After Silvester calmed down, he took a deep breath.

He was caught up in the moment and acted rashly. After calming down, he sensed the remaining Curse Power in Helvius's body.

"Before you came here, did you come into contact with any powerful people?" asked Silvester.

Helvius replied, "I haven't contacted any other powerhouses. I've only stayed within Sky City recently. The only people I met up with are members of the Elixir Pavilion."

"What about the Official you mentioned just now?" asked Silvester.

With Silvester's prodding, Helvius immediately grasped what had happened. He asked, "Old Master, are you suggesting that she planned this?"

Silvester's face bore a stern grimace. He nodded slowly and said, "She's most likely responsible for this incident. The Sanctuary of Darkness might be acting up again. Could their goal be to wipe out the Elixir Pavilion?"

Silvester immediately regretted his actions.

He was taken by surprise when he was ambushed and immediately retaliated against Helvius. If he had not done so, they would not have to fear the Sanctuary of Darkness since Helvius was in his prime.

However, both of them were now injured.

What would happen if the Sanctuary of Darkness chose this moment to attack?

Helvius was anxious. He had a strong premonition that something terrible would happen but could not sense what it would be. Now, everything was clear to him.

He spat lividly. "Damn it!"

"I didn't suspect Jadranka to be one of the Sanctuary of Darkness' lackeys. She had been laying low in the Elixir Pavilion for several Epochs and waiting for this day."

Silvester sighed. "I never expected Curse Magic to be so terrifying. They were able to inconspicuously take control of you."

"What should we do, Old Master?" Helvius was worried.

The Elixir Pavilion's conference was upon them soon. The conference's purpose was to recruit disciples and also expand Elixir Pavilion's influence.

“Don’t panic,” Silvester reassured him.

“Although my Path Seal is damaged, it’s not fatal. I’ll go into seclusion immediately and try to restore it before the Sanctuary of Darkness strikes again.

“During this period, you must pretend that nothing has happened. We must avoid inciting panic.”

Silvester quickly made arrangements.

“Also, send people to quickly apprehend the Official you just mentioned. Don’t let her leave the Elixir Pavilion.”

Helvius immediately stood up. “Understood!”

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3063

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3063-Helvius quickly left without stopping. Then, he immediately issued an order to set up a formation around the Elixir Pavilion. During this period, no one was allowed to leave.

After that, he summoned many of the Elixir Pavilion’s powerful members.

The Elixir Pavilion was the most formidable sect in this world. Its core members were all accomplished cultivators, who were either Great Emperors or Quasi-Emperors.

Tens of thousands of powerhouses were gathered in the main hall.

They were all core members of the Elixir Pavilion.

The weakest among them were Quasi-Emperors at the Fifth Tribulation.

“What’s the matter, Pavilion Master? Why did you activate the formation so suddenly? Also, why have you summoned all the sect’s strongest out of the blue?”

Helvius immediately ordered. “Head to Mount Jakan immediately and detain everyone there.”

Everyone was shocked by this order.

Mount Jakan was the residence of the Elixir Pavilion’s strongest Officials.

During the meeting, Jules asked, “What’s the matter, Father? Why are you sending powerhouses to where my teacher is?”

Helvius' expression darkened. He immediately said, "Execute the order!"

"Understood." The elders immediately complied.

Thousands of powerhouses marched toward Mount Jakan.

Jadranka succeeded with her mission and was not confident she could take on the entire Elixir Pavilion despite being a Grand Emperor at the Fifth Heaven. Thus, she quickly escaped and had already left Elixir City.

She floated in the sky outside of the city.

Seeing the Elixir Pavilion's formation being activated, an eerie smile formed on her face.

"I successfully crippled Silvester. Even though it wasn't enough to kill him, I definitely damaged his Path Seal.

"Moreover, Helvius was also hurt in the process.

"Now that both pillars of the Elixir Pavilion are injured, the rest of the members can't pose a threat against us."

Jadranka Yevdokiya murmured, then she disappeared into thin air.

Meanwhile, Helvius summoned all the powerful members to head over to Mount Jakan, but they only captured a few maids and disciples working for Jadranka.

Jadranka herself was nowhere to be found.

Helvius ordered for those on her mountain to be temporarily detained.

In a secret meeting room of the Elixir Pavilion, several core members were gathered.

Elixir Pavilion's Great Elder was concerned and asked, "What exactly happened, Pavilion Master?"

Helvius casually waved his hand, and a mark appeared on his palm.

It was golden in color and had a number of cracks. The mark seemed as if it would shatter with the slightest touch.

"This?"

The elders present stood up in shock.

The Elixir Pavilion's Great Elder exclaimed, "What happened to your Path Seal, Pavilion Master? Why is it damaged?"

Helvius solemnly explained the incident.

"I never expected Jadranka to be a member of the Sanctuary of Darkness. She had infiltrated the Elixir Pavilion just for this day. Now that the Old Master's Path Seal is damaged and so is mine. Our ability to fight has been severely compromised.

"If the Sanctuary of Darkness were to appear now, how would we fight back?"

Helvius had a grim expression.

This was the biggest disaster that the Elixir Pavilion had encountered since a few Epochs ago.

After hearing this, the core elders' expressions immediately darkened, and the meeting room fell dead silent. No one said another word.

After a while, the Great Elder asked, "What should we do now, Pavilion Master?"

Helvius instructed them. "Use the conference as an excuse and summon all our disciples spread outside. At the same time, direct all Officials to gather in the Elixir Pavilion. Say that the conference is happening soon, and we plan to hold a grand festival."

Since things have already come to this, they could only try to make the best out of it.

"Hmph!"

Helvius snorted coldly and said, "Do you guys really think you can destroy the Elixir Pavilion just by taking me and Old Master out?"

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3064

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3064-The Elixir Pavilion had a long history and a stable foundation.

Although the Sanctuary of Darkness was a mysterious organization that caused a terrible disaster in the past, the Elixir Pavilion was determined to eliminate them if they appeared.

Helvius said, "Also, everything said today is confidential. Don't let the news spread. Otherwise, it'll cause panic among the people."

“Understood. We’ll carry out your orders, Pavilion Master.”

Helvius gently waved his hand. “Everyone’s dismissed.”

The core members began to take their leave. After everyone was gone, Helvius sank into his chair, and his face paled.

His Path Seal was damaged. Although he survived, he would eventually die if the damage continued to spread.

He went into seclusion without a moment’s thought.

Meanwhile, James was unaware of the events happening under the surface.

James temporarily stayed in Elixir Pavilion’s manor for many days.

The sun shined brightly today. James sat in the courtyard and rested. Meanwhile, Monica peppered him with questions about the Elemental Inversion.

Ever since she obtained the Elemental Inversion, she had been trying to comprehend it. However, it was a very profound Secret Art, and she could not thoroughly understand it within a short period.

James was slightly troubled by Monica’s questions.

He realized that Monica’s comprehension of the Elemental Inversion was already better than his. As such, he found it hard to answer some of her questions.

“About that...”

James stammered and said, “A-A teacher’s job is to guide you on the right path. As for your cultivation progress, that’s for you to discern for yourself. I can’t teach you everything, Monica. Everyone’s cultivation journey will be different, and everyone learns at different paces. If I were to point everything out to you, it’d be detrimental to your growth. You’ll have to figure it out yourself.”

James made up an excuse.

Monica found his words reasonable. She nodded, and said, “Okay.”

At that moment, Jules walked over to them.

He sat down in front of James and his handsome face formed a grim expression.

Monica looked at him and asked, “What’s wrong, Young Master? Did someone get on your nerves?”

Jules said depressedly, "I don't know what happened, but my father summoned all the Elixir Pavilion's powerhouses to detain some of my teacher's disciples and followers. Meanwhile, my teacher's whereabouts are unknown. I want to see my father, but he has already gone into seclusion."

Jules was aware that something had happened to Jadranka, but he had no idea what had caused it.

Moreover, he originally intended to introduce James to his father. However, his father entered seclusion and refused to meet anyone. All of this put him in a dispirited mood.

James had no say in the Elixir Pavilion's affairs.

He intended to stay to witness the Elixir Pavilion's grandest event in thousands of years. After the disciple recruitment conference, he would leave to reunite with Thea in the Eidolon Realm.

Then, they would have to discuss their next steps.

Monica was uninterested in the Elixir Pavilion's affairs and did not want to hear Jules' complaints. She turned to James and said, "Sir, I'll return to my room to continue training."

"Go ahead." James gently dismissed her.

Monica turned and left the courtyard, returning to her room.

Jules sat on the chair dejectedly, propping his chin in his hand. He murmured, "What in the world happened? Why did my father summon our sect's strongest members to apprehend the people on Mount Jakan? His target was definitely my teacher."

Jules was confused.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3065

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3065-He wanted to ask Jadranka for clarification, but he could not find her even after searching for several days.

"Mr. Caden, it'll take some time before I can give you the materials I promised. After my father returns from seclusion, I'll introduce you to him. My father is currently in charge of the Elixir Pavilion. I'll have to get his permission before I can give the materials to you."

James waved his hand and said, "There's no rush."

His main objective for staying at the Elixir Pavilion was to gather the materials needed to revive Emperor Jabari.

Emperor Jabari was a Grand Emperor at the Ninth Heaven. He had extremely high requirements to recover his physical body. The stronger his reformed body, the more powerful he would be. Moreover, it would also accelerate the speed at which he recovered energy.

The Elixir Pavilion was the strongest force in the Boundless Realm. After he obtained the materials from Elixir Pavilion, he would have gathered most of the materials needed to revive Emperor Jabari.

The remainder would be easier to collect.

"I'll stop bothering you, Mr. Caden. I'll head back to check on the situation and see what's happening in the Elixir Pavilion."

After speaking, Jules turned to leave.

James stayed in the Elixir Pavilion's manor for a few more days. He had not left Sky City in this time.

Curious about Sky City, he stood up and walked out of the manor.

James walked around the bustling streets and immediately noticed both sides of the street were full of elixir shops. The elixirs sold in these shops were at least at the Divine Rank.

He wandered around aimlessly.

Eventually, he entered the restaurant and ordered a flagon of wine. Then, he began drinking alone.

"The Oscars' auction will be happening in a few more days. I heard they will be auctioning an Emperor Rank Elixir this time."

"An Emperor Rank Elixir? Are you serious?"

"It's true. It's rumored it was made by the Oscars' Grand Patriarch. He expended a lot of Blood Energy in its creation. The elixir allows one to resist an Emperor Rank Tribulation."

Several Elixir Pavilion disciples were discussing an auction in the restaurant.

James eavesdropped on their conversation.

After he finished his wine, he left the restaurant.

Then, he returned to the Elixir Pavilion.

As soon as he entered the manor, he saw Jules rushing out.

Seeing his flustered expression, James asked, "What's the matter? Why are you in such a hurry?"

Jules was alarmed. "I think something bad has happened, Mr. Caden. I went to look for my father but he was in seclusion and refused to see anyone. Then, I tried to seek the Great Elder, but he also turned me away. Even the elders refused to see me."

James gave him a reassuring smile. "What could've happened? Perhaps the conference is happening soon, so they're simply too busy to entertain you."

"We'll catch up later. I just received a secret message from my teacher. She asked me to head outside of the city, so she can tell me what happened. I'll go meet her first," said Jules.

"By the way, do you know of the Oscars?" asked James.

Jules replied, "Yeah. The Oscars are Officials of the Elixir Pavilion. The Grand Patriarch of the Oscars is one of the strongest Officials and is on par with my teacher."

"I heard they're holding an auction in the Elixir City in a few days' time. Could you get me an invitation? I'm getting bored and would like to have a look," said James.

"Alright. That won't be an issue. I'll make arrangements when I'm back."

After Jules agreed to James' request, he hurriedly left.

Leaving the Elixir Pavillion, he headed outside of Elixir City.

He finally arrived at the location Jadranka specified.

It was a mountain range outside the city.

Since it was close to Elixir City, no monsters aside from some regular animals inhabited the mountain range.

After Jules arrived at his destination, he scanned his area and said, "Ma'am, I'm here! Where are you?"

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3066

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3066-Jules came to their meeting spot but found no one there.

He called out a few times.

Jadranka observed the surroundings from a distance.

She wanted to ensure that no one from the Elixir Pavilion had followed him. She watched him from the shadows for about ten minutes. Seeing that no one was following Jules, Jadranka finally showed herself.

“Ma’am!”

Seeing Jadranka, Jules immediately walked over and asked puzzledly, “What’s going on? Why did my father lead the powerhouses of the Elixir Pavilion to Mount Jakan?”

Jadranka wore a long purple dress. She was slender and looked lovely. She looked at Jules and said with a smile. “What could’ve happened I wonder? Don’t worry it’s not a big deal.”

“Then why did you leave Elixir Pavilion?” asked Jules.

His intuition told him that something must have happened.

However, he had no idea what was going on.

Jadranka dismissed his concerns. “It’s really nothing. I only called you here to tell you that I’m fine. You should head back. Don’t tell anyone you’ve seen me, not even your father, alright?”

Jules’ expression darkened.

However, Jadranka’s figure had already disappeared.

“What is she doing? She asked me to come here, saying she’ll tell me the truth. Why didn’t she tell me anything?”

Jules was frustrated.

However, he was unaware that a wisp of black energy had adhered to his body as Jadranka disappeared.

Even Helvius did not notice when this happened, so it was even more unlikely for Jules to have detected the energy.

He felt like he wasted his time.

Disheartened, he returned to Elixir City.

After entering the city, he remembered that James wanted an invitation to the auction. So, he stopped by the Oscars' residence to ask for one.

Since Jules was the Elixir Pavilion's Young Master, it was easy for him to acquire an invitation.

He returned to the Elixir Mansion in Sky City.

"Mr. Caden."

He arrived at the courtyard where James was staying. He walked inside and saw James sitting on a chair and looking into the distance, seemingly deep in thought.

James stopped daydreaming and looked at Jules. He nodded and said, "You're back?"

Jules took out the invitation, handed it over, and said, "I got you an invitation for the Oscars' auction. I also inquired about the auction and heard it's taking place in Elixir City in three days. I also heard they've put up a lot of valuable things for auction. However, they're not asking for Holy Stones, but Path Stones."

"I see." James nodded lightly.

He knew about Path Stones.

They were very valuable items.

Grand Emperors could gather Path Stones to deepen their understanding on Paths.

Path Stones are extremely hard to find and take countless years to form. They need to be cultivated with time and by the forces of heaven and earth.

Path Stones contained traces of Paths.

They also contained Genesis.

Powerhouses that reached the Grand Emperor Rank had to go through the effort of collecting Path Stones and educate themselves on the Paths within.

James scratched his head.

He still had a lot of Holy Stones on hand, but did not have any Path Stones.

James decided to enter the Celestial Abode to ask Nova if Emperor Jabari had any Path Stones.

"If there's nothing else, I'll take my leave first, Mr. Caden," asked Jules.

James waved his hand and said, "Go ahead."

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3067

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3067-"Mr. Caden, I've already informed the rest of the staff. If you have any needs, feel free to make a request. Everyone in the Elixir Mansion is at your beck and call."

When Jules finished, he turned and left the courtyard.

When he turned around, James suddenly sensed Curse Power on Jules.

"Wait," James called out and stopped Jules.

Jules turned around. "What's wrong?"

James stared at Jules.

He sensed Curse Power coming from Jules. Although it was for only a short moment, he was sure it was Curse Power. However, traces of the Curse Power had disappeared.

"N-No, it's nothing. I must've been mistaken."

James waved his hand and said, "It's fine. Go on."

"Alright." Jules nodded, and left.

After Jules left, James entered the Celestial Abode.

Emperor Jabari was still in seclusion. Meanwhile, Nico was also in the Celestial Abode and was cultivating within the Time Chamber.

Nico was a Fourth Heaven Grand Emperor trying to refine the Aquacollis to further enhance his bloodline. It would take a considerable amount of time for him to reach the Grand Emperor Rank's Fifth Heaven.

Nova greeted James respectfully, "Master."

James asked, "Nova, are there any Path Stones in the Celestial Abode?"

Nova said, "Yes, we have a good amount of them. Come with me."

James left the City Lord's Mansion with Nova and headed behind the city. There were many independent courtyards.

Nova brought James to one of the courtyards.

When Nova opened the courtyard gate, James saw many magical objects floating inside.

There were some unique crystals in various kinds of shapes.

All of them had one thing in common. They had a mystical aura and contained Path Energy.

Nova explained, "Emperor Jabari collected these Path Stones while traversing the universe. Sophie had always wanted these Path Stones, but she was not qualified to enter this place."

"Every Path Stone here is priceless."

Nova thought for a moment before saying, "Obtaining Path Stones is akin to gambling.

"Every Path Stone potentially contains either a complete Path or fragments of a Path and no one can tell what lies within. Even Grand Emperors are unable to discern Path Stones."

"Path Stones have to be cut open by a special tool. Only then will you have access to the contents within."

After listening to Nova's explanation, James gained a better understanding of what Path Stones were.

He looked at the various Path Stones floating in the air and asked, "Am I allowed to use them all?"

Nova said, "Of course. Emperor Jabari's highest strength was when he was at the peak of the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven. He was so close to becoming an Ancestral God. Thus, he's already proficient in all Paths. Path Stones are of no use to him."

With Nova's words, James was relieved.

"Alright. Then, I'll head out first."

James did not stay in the Celestial Abode for too long. He left and reappeared in the outside world.

There were three more days till the Oscar family's auction. James was not in a rush, so he leisurely spent his time at the Elixir Mansion.

Jules had been wandering around many of the Elixir Pavilion's mountains in the past few days and had no idea he was being controlled.

Jadranka puppeteered Jules, making him wander around the mountains. She was trying to understand the structure of the protective formation around the Elixir Pavilion. When the Sanctuary of Darkness' strikes, her job was to destroy the protective formation.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3068

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3068-It had been several epochs since Jadranka joined Elixir Pavilion. She had stayed there for so long, so she was familiar with the interior of the Elixir Pavilion.

However, there were many restricted areas that even the strongest Official could not visit. She did not dare to enter these places carelessly.

However, it was different when she had control over Jules.

His identity allowed him to leave and enter places as he pleased, allowing Jadranka to record the formation structure around the main mountain.

As long as she noted it down, she could study its structure and break it down after some time.

When the war breaks out, she would destroy the formation.

Without the protective formation, the Elixir Pavilion would be a sitting duck.

Three days passed in the blink of an eye.

James left Sky City and headed outside the Elixir Pavillion to Elixir City.

Elixir City was the mightiest city in the Boundless Realm, inferior to none.

Today, the city was lively because of the auction held by the Oscar family.

The Oscars had announced they would have an Emperor Rank Elixir up for bidding. It was capable of helping one withstand an Emperor Tribulation.

An elixir that could resist an Emperor Tribulation was invaluable, and many powerhouses were vying for it.

Apart from the Emperor Rank Elixir, there were many other valuable items.

It was rumored the Oscars had discovered ancient ruins by chance and unearthed many valuable items, including Imperial Weapons.

The Oscars spent a lot of effort promoting their auction.

James arrived at the entrance to the auction very early in the morning.

The auction venue was huge, and thousands of guards were stationed at the entrance. The guards were all powerful cultivators. The weakest one was at the Divine Rank's Third Stage. There were also many of them in the Quasi-Emperor Rank.

The guards' leader was a Grand Emperor and a key member of the Oscars.

Cultivators entered with their invitations in an orderly manner.

James also joined the queue.

Soon, he reached the security checkpoint.

Then, he entered the auction venue with the guidance of an auction staff. The venue was massive and could accommodate 100,000 people at once. Moreover, there were separate private rooms.

The auction hall could be seen from these private rooms.

"Please wait a moment, Sir. The auction will start very soon." The woman staff that brought James into the room informed him courteously.

James slightly waved his hand and said, "Alright, go on."

"Certainly. I'll be at the door if you need anything."

Private rooms were a symbol of power.

Those who got private rooms were prominent figures.

The staff did not know how James got an invitation to a private room, but she did not dare to be inhospitable to him.

The private room was large and had soft chairs inside. There were also some Emyrean fruits placed on the table, as well as a booklet.

James picked up the booklet and reviewed it.

The booklet recorded the items being auctioned.

Jams casually flipped through and found the items to be quite valuable. All of them were precious and highly sought after by cultivators.

However, most of these things were of no use to him.

His cultivation rank was low, so he could not utilize them.

“Tribulation Liquid.”

James reached the back of the list and noticed an extraordinary item.

The booklet introduced it as a magical liquid formed during a Heavenly Tribulation that could temper one’s body and repair one’s Primordial Spirit.

After seeing the introduction, James immediately asked Nova inside the Celestial Abode.

“Nova, is Emperor Jabari still in seclusion?”

“Yeah.”

“Could you get him for me? I found something that might be useful to him.”

“Alright.”

Nova immediately left the place and went to where Emperor Jabari secluded himself. Then, he roused Emperor Jabari, who was focused on his cultivation.

Soon, Emperor Jabari asked, “James, what did you find?”

James replied, “Tribulation Liquid. Apparently, it’s a magical liquid formed during a Heavenly Tribulation. It’s capable of tempering the body and repairing Primordial Spirits.”

“Tribulation Liquid?”

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3069

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3069-Tribulation Liquid was a rare item that was hard to acquire. His Primordial Spirit would recover significantly if he were to consume even a drop of Tribulation Liquid.

“James, you need to obtain it at all costs,” Emperor Jabari instructed him.

“Understood,” replied James.

Afterward, James continued to flip through the booklet.

He turned to the next page and saw an ancient leather scroll.

James read out its description, "An item left behind from ancient times. It's most likely a map. Unearthed from the Desolateness Ruins."

The booklet only described the item briefly.

"Emperor Jabari, what are the Desolateness Ruins?"

James asked Emperor Jabari, who was in the Celestial Abode.

However, Emperor Jabari was not sure either.

James stopped asking further questions.

All the items being auctioned were valuable.

There were a few things that caught James' attention.

People continued to pour into the auction venue. James noticed those that were present were at least at the Quasi-Emperor Rank.

Since the venue could accommodate about 100,000 people, there were at least 100,000 cultivators above the Quasi-Emperor Rank in attendance.

"Haah!" James took a deep breath.

What a grand event.

After coming to the strongest world in the Boundless Realm, James realized it was filled with so many talented people.

During his time on Earth, he had never met cultivators at such high cultivation ranks. Therefore, he was oblivious to their true capabilities.

Now, he was more than certain that countless powerhouses existed outside of the Boundless Realm. Although many Grand Emperors died in the war during the Primordial Age, there were others that avoided destruction and survived the catastrophe.

Many more powerful cultivators entered the auction venue.

James waited for about half a day.

Finally, the auction began.

A beautiful woman in a stunning dress with a flawless figure, walked onto the auction stage.

“Hello, everyone! I’m your auctioneer today. My name is Yulia Oscar. I’d like to sincerely welcome everyone to Elixir City. Thank you all for participating in this auction held by the Oscar family.”

Yulia gave a simple introduction of herself.

She was a beautiful and charming woman. When she smiled, two adorable dimples formed on her face.

Her voice resounded through the hall. “Without further ado, let’s officially begin with the auction. The first item of the day is an Emperor Rank Elixir.”

A powerhouse of the Oscar family brought out an elixir and placed it on the auction table.

The elixir swirled around in a clear vial.

Through the glass, a golden elixir with magical lines could be seen.

“This is an Emperor Tribulation Elixir. After taking this elixir, your body will temporarily become immune to the damage of the Heavenly Tribulation and will allow you to overcome the Emperor Tribulation safely. However, this only applies to tribulations below the Grand Emperor Rank’s Fifth Heaven. It’s unable to resist anything stronger than that.”

“The starting price for the Emperor Tribulation Elixir is one unopened Path Stone.”

Yulia’s voice reverberated in the hall.

“I’ll offer two Path Stones.”

“Three Path Stones!”

“I’ll raise it to four Path Stones!”

...

After Yulia briefly introduced the Emperor Rank Elixir, many Emperor Ranked cultivators began bidding for it.

They all specifically came for the Emperor Rank Elixir.

Since they were about to breach the next stage and were apprehensive about passing their tribulations, they came to acquire the Emperor Tribulation Elixir.

As Grand Emperors, they naturally had plenty of Path Stones. Even if they did not have as much as 1,000, they would at least have 800. To them, spending all their Path Stones to overcome the tribulation was worth it.

Some Grand Emperors began bidding wars for it.

Soon, the bid for the Emperor Tribulation Elixir was raised to more than 100 Path Stones.

Unlike the rest, James was uninterested in the Emperor Rank Elixir.

He watched the auction from his private room, waiting for the items he wanted to go on auction.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3070

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3070-The first item on auction was the Emperor Tribulation Elixir, a magical item allowing one to safely overcome an Emperor Tribulation. Benedict Oscar refined it through painstaking effort.

Benedict used countless Emperor Rank Herbs and Divine Rank Herbs to concoct the Emperor Tribulation Elixir.

Many powerhouses immediately started to bid against each other for the Emperor Tribulation Elixir.

Most of them were at the First or Second Heaven of the Grand Emperor Rank, and were not particularly accomplished.

Despite their lack of attainments in the Grand Emperor Rank, they were still powerful existences.

Being a Grand Emperor already puts them at the top of the pyramid of strength.

They were powerful cultivators that could easily defeat others with a stomp of their foot.

The Emperor Tribulation Elixir's starting price was one Path Stone. With the frenzied bidding of these Grand Emperors, its price was quickly raised to 300 Path Stones.

However, the bidding did not stop.

At this rate, it would most likely be auctioned off for 1,000 Path Stones.

Seeing these people's crazy bids, James asked Emperor Jabari, "Is an Emperor Tribulation Elixir really worth so much?"

From the Celestial Abode, Emperor Jabari said, "Of course. It's tough to concoct and requires a lot of materials. An Emperor Tribulation Elixir can allow a Grand Emperor to safely pass through a Heavenly Tribulation. A Grand Emperor that needs it would readily spend their life savings to acquire it."

"Can you make an Emperor Tribulation Elixir?" asked James.

James knew Emperor Jabari was powerful, but was curious whether Emperor Jabari could also concoct such a valuable elixir.

"Haha." Emperor Jabari chuckled enigmatically.

James immediately understood what he meant with his laughter.

He continued to wait patiently for the bidding to end.

"One thousand Path Stones!"

A powerhouse in the auction hall bid 1,000 Path Stones.

It was an astounding price for the Emperor Tribulation Elixir. Path Stones were tough to obtain, and a Grand Emperor's life savings might only amount to about 1,000 Path Stones.

After the powerhouse raised the price to 1,000 Path Stones, the number of bidders for the Emperor Tribulation Elixir immediately reduced.

However, there were still a few bidders who were determined to get it, and continued to fight for it.

"One thousand and one Path Stones!"

"One thousand and three Path Stones!"

"One thousand and five Path Stones!"

...

After a few rounds of bidding, the Emperor Tribulation Elixir's bid price was eventually raised to 1,500 Path Stones.

Many Grand Emperors were reluctant to give up, but they had insufficient Path Stones and had no choice but to stop.

“One thousand five hundred, going once!”

“One thousand five hundred, going twice!”

...

Yulia stood on the auction stage and looked at the countless bidders in the auction hall. With a smile, her pleasant voice announced. “The current bid is one thousand five hundred Path Stones. Do I hear any higher bids? If not, then the Emperor Tribulation Elixir will be sold for one thousand five hundred Path Stones!”

She scanned the auction hall.

Seeing no one else outbid the current price, she picked up her auction hammer and closed the bidding.

“One thousand five hundred, sold!”

With the crisp clap of the auction hammer, the Grand Emperor that bid 1,500 Path Stones finally relaxed. 1,500 Path Stones made up his entire savings. If someone bid higher than this amount, he would have no choice but to give up.

Fortunately, no one was willing to compete with him. After obtaining the Emperor Tribulation Elixir, he planned to enter seclusion to cultivate. Then, he could survive the tribulation and become a Third Heaven Grand Emperor. Once he achieved that, his reputation would also grow significantly.

The sale of the Emperor Tribulation Elixir made the auction hall lively.

After that, the following items began to be auctioned.

All of them were rare and highly valued to cultivators.

However, James had no use for them.

Thus, he continued to wait patiently.

After waiting about half a day, the item he desired finally showed up.

On the auction stage, Yulia’s pleasant voice rang through the venue. “The next item up for auction is called Tribulation Liquid. I believe many might be unfamiliar with Tribulation Liquid, so I’ll briefly introduce it.”

“Tribulation Liquid is formed during Heavenly Tribulations. From a few Heavenly Tribulations, only a drop of Tribulation Liquid would form.

“It’s very troublesome to collect and requires a lot of luck and strength.”

Recommended Novels