The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3071-“The Tribulation Liquid has many uses. It can be used to temper one’s body and repair Primordial Spirits. In short, it’s handy. The starting price is one unopened Path Stone.”

“I’ll bid two Path Stones.”

“Three Path Stones!”

...

Following Yulia’s introduction, a few powerhouses began to bid for it.

James remained patient and asked Emperor Jabari in the Celestial Abode, “You’ve got a lot of experience, right, Emperor Jabari? How much is the Tribulation Liquid worth?”

Emperor Jabari replied, “For those who need it, it’s priceless and is worth one’s life savings.

“However, it’s useless to those who don’t need it.”

Hearing this, James was slightly taken aback. He asked, “Then, how many Path Stones should I bid for it?”

Emperor Jabari said, “As much as you need. I’ve traveled all over the universe and ventured to countless ruins. I’ve collected a lot of Path Stones. Moreover, I’m an experienced alchemist and have also collected various herbs when I helped others refine elixirs.”

James immediately understood that the Celestial Abode had a great amount of Path Stones after hearing Emperor Jabari telling him to bid as much as needed.

The bidding continued in the auction hall. Those who needed the Tribulation Liquid were slowly increasing their bids. The atmosphere made it seem as if they were in a market, as it was incredibly noisy.

James knew it would take a long time if the bid went on at this rate.

He wanted to quickly buy the stuff he needed and leave as soon as possible.

James pressed the auction button on his table and said, “One thousand Path Stones.”

While bidders were shouting in the auction hall, one of the private rooms lit up, and a voice resounded in the hall.

“One thousand Path Stones.”

The noisy hall immediately fell silent.

The powerhouses in the auction hall raised their heads, looking toward the private room that had lit up.

Bidders in private rooms were prominent figures.

Being a powerful cultivator alone was not enough for one to be assigned to a private room.

One would have to be strong and also have a terrifying background.

“Forget it. I’m giving up.”

“A prominent figure made a bid for it. We’re not going to be able to compete.”

“Even if we want it, we won’t be able to win anyway. Who can compete with someone who’s bidding one thousand at once?”

Many powerhouses gave up on the bid.

Just as James thought he would win the bid, another private room opposite him lit up. A hoarse voice sounded from it.

“One thousand and one hundred Path Stones.”

Hearing the bid, many people in the auction hall looked at the other private room that lit up.

“Interesting.”

“Two prominent figures are bidding for it.”

“I wonder who they are.”

Many of them were curious about the two bidder’s identities.

James was troubled.

He had already raised the bid from a few hundred to one thousand, thinking no one would dare to compete with him. He never expected someone from another private room to also bid for it. Moreover, the other party had added another hundred Path Stones.

Unwilling to be outdone, James made another bid. "One thousand and two hundred."

"One thousand and three hundred."

The other party immediately followed.

"One thousand and four hundred." James did not hesitate since he had no idea how valuable Path Stones were. All he knew was that Emperor Jabari needed the Tribulation Liquid.

"One thousand and five hundred."

The other party was unwilling to back down either.

James continued to bid. "One thousand and six hundred."

"Two thousand!"

The other party immediately raised the price by a significant margin.

His bid shocked everyone in the auction hall.

How could these bidders so rashly spend so much valuable Path Stones?

Who exactly were these two bidders?

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3072-Everyone began speculating the bidders' identities in the private rooms that were drastically increasing the bidding price for the Tribulation Liquid.

Unopened Path Stones were scarce and valuable items formed by heaven and earth's energy. It was difficult even to obtain one, and a Grand Emperor might have life savings of only about one thousand Path Stones.

The two bidders in the private rooms competed for the Tribulation Liquid,

James never expected the other party to increase the bid to two thousand Path Stones so suddenly.

He was curious about the identity of the opposite party, but the private room had excellent isolation measurements. Thus, he could not see the person in the other private room.

However, to James, Path Stones were just some useless crystals. He had no idea how rare and valuable they were.

Thus, James did not hesitate to bid.

He pressed the button, and the light outside his room lit up again. Then, his voice resounded, "Three thousand!"

Hearing James' bid, the other party hesitated.

The auction hall went dead silent for a while.

Who could compete with three thousand Path Stones?

Time passed by the minute.

Yulia also remained silent, waiting for the other party to continue with the bid.

Her family estimated for the Tribulation Liquid to be sold for about one thousand Path Stones at most. Unexpectedly, the bidding price had been raised to three thousand.

The price might continue to increase.

Seeing that a significant amount of time had passed since the last bid, Yulia immediately said, "Our honorable bidder in the private room has bid three thousand Path Stones. Is there a bid higher than three thousand?"

"Three thousand, once!"

"Three thousand, twice!"

After calling out twice, Yulia paused for a moment.

"Three thousand and one!"

Finally, the other party made another bid.

However, he only increased the bid by one Path Stone.

James frowned. "He's still competing for it? When will he give up?"

Frustrated, James bid, "Three thousand and one hundred!"

A hoarse voice sounded from the opposite private room, "Damn it! You better go overboard, Young Man! I'm the Spiritual Realm's Lord! The Tribulation Liquid will be of great use to me."

The other bidder revealed his identity.

He immediately caused an uproar in the auction hall.

“I wasn’t expecting it to be Spiritual Realm’s Lord.”

“Hasn’t the Spiritual Realm’s Lord been in seclusion for many years? He hasn’t shown himself for a long time. Why did he suddenly appear? Could it be that his Primordial Soul is injured?”

Many discussions began in the hall.

James knew about the Spiritual Realm.

It was one of the Eight Major Realms in the Boundless Realm.

The Boundless Holy Realm comprised these Eight Major Realms and dominated the Boundless Realm.

The Lord of the Spiritual Realm was one of the most prominent figures in the Boundless Realm. The Oscars were not even on par with them. The only comparable force against him was the Pavilion Elixir.

However, James was not afraid.

James replied, “I’m sorry, but I need the Tribulation Liquid as well. If you want it, you can continue bidding. It’s yours if you can bid a higher number than me.”

With Emperor Jabari backing him up, James was fearless.

“Alright, good.”

A hoarse voice came from the opposite private room.

“I’d like to see if you can leave Elixir City alive.”

His words contained extreme menace.

However, James did not care about his threats.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3073-The other powerhouses began speculating on James’ identity.

“Who’s the other bidder?”

“He’s not even scared of the Spiritual Realm’s Lord.”

“From what I know, the Spiritual Realm’s Lord seems to be a powerful cultivator at the Grand Emperor Rank’s Fourth Heaven.”

“Yeah, it’s rumored that Kai Yagmur is a Fourth Heaven Grand Emperor. However, that was his cultivation rank many epochs ago. He’s been in seclusion for at least a hundred epochs, and his strength must’ve already risen to a higher level.”

At the auction hall, the discussion continued.

Hearing the discussions, James learned that the Spiritual Realm’s Lord’s name was Kai. He smiled faintly after learning that the Spiritual Realm’s Lord was only a Fourth Heaven Grand Emperor.

A Fourth Heaven Grand Emperor would be nothing if Emperor Jabari lent him some strength. He could stimulate his physical body’s maximum strength, which was equivalent to that of a Fifth Heaven Grand Emperor.

Moreover, Nico inside the Celestial Abode was also a Fourth Heaven Grand Emperor. As long as Nico succeeded in enhancing his bloodline, he would break into the Grand Emperor Rank’s Fifth Stage.

James was confident and fearless in the Boundless Realm with his current trump cards.

Seeing that Kai stopped bidding, Yulia continued to speak, “Three thousand and one hundred, once! Three thousand and two hundred, twice! Three thousand and three hundred, sold!”

The auction hammer resounded. Suddenly, extremely hostile energy came from Kai’s private room.

Kai was enraged by James’ actions.

He was one of the most powerful cultivators in the Boundless Realm. No matter where he went, he was treated with honor. He never expected someone to not respect him.

Kai would have taken action against James if not because he was in Elixir City, the Oscars’ territory.

Kai knew how influential the Oscars were. Benedict was one of the Elixir Pavilion’s prominent Officials.

Benedict was a Third Heaven Grand Emperor and an Emperor Rank Alchemist.

Kai could get away with offending a Third Heaven Grand Emperor.

However, he could not afford to offend an Emperor Rank Alchemist.

Everyone present in the auction hall sensed Kai's hostile aura and turned to look at his private room.

Ultimately, Kai suppressed his energy.

The powerhouses sighed in relief.

Yulia also glanced at James' private room.

As the young lady of the Oscars, she knew that James' private room was the one Jules personally asked for an invitation for.

'Who did Jules get the invitation for? If he really offended Kai, it'd be troublesome,' thought Yulia.

However, she did not interfere in the conflict. Instead, she continued with the auction.

"The next item is an ancient scroll unearthed from the Desolateness Ruins.

"About five epochs ago, our Grand Patriarch, Benedict, ventured into the Desolateness Sanctuary and obtained the ancient scroll after a narrow escape from danger. After researching the ancient scroll for a few Epochs, we still could not find out what exactly it was for.

"Today, we've specially taken it out for auction.

"The starting price of the ancient scroll is five unopened Path Stones, and each bid must increase by at least five Path Stones."

Hearing the starting bid of the ancient scroll, an uproar broke out in the auction hall.

"What is the Oscar family doing? The starting price for a useless ancient scroll is five Path Stones?"

"They couldn't figure it out after several epochs but are auctioning it for so much?"

Many dissatisfied voices sounded in the hall.

Yulia smiled and said, "Don't worry, and let me explain."

Finally, the crowd calmed down.

Yulia explained, "I'm sure everyone has heard of the Desolateness Ruins, right? It's one of the Ten Dangerous Regions of the Boundless Realm. It's rumored to be the place where Ancestral Gods died.

"It's speculated that many Ancestral Gods' inheritances could be found there.

"The fact that the ancient scroll was obtained from the Desolateness Ruins alone qualifies it as a valuable item that's definitely worth the price."

Yulia explained to the crowd.

James was intrigued by the Desolateness Ruins and decided to venture there after the auction.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3074-Majority of the powerhouses knew about the Desolateness Sanctuary.

It was a forbidden place, and it was true that Ancestral Gods had fallen there.

However, it was full of dangers. Even a Grand Emperor might not survive if he encountered trouble.

Therefore, very few Grand Emperors were willing to step into the Desolateness Sanctuary for the boons there. Only a few daredevils were willing to risk their lives.

After hearing Yulia's explanation, many powerhouses immediately agreed that an item unearthed from the Desolateness Sanctuary was indeed worth a few Path Stones.

They were convinced to spend a few Path Stones to see if they could gain anything from the ancient scroll.

"I'll bid five Path Stones."

"I'll bid ten Path Stones!"

A few powerhouses immediately made bids for it.

However, the bidding progressed very slowly.

When the bid for the ancient scroll reached thirty Path Stones, the bidding stopped.

No one thought it was worth more than thirty Path Stones.

Even a powerful family like the Oscars could not figure out the ancient scroll. Therefore, they might not be able to put it to use even if they were to win the bid. Hence, most of them did not want to buy such a useless thing and were more interested in getting practical stuff.

However, the Oscars felt the ancient scroll was priceless.

They expected the ancient scroll to be sold for at least three thousand Path Stones. Therefore, they specified that the bid had to be at least five Path Stones higher each time.

However, the situation was different from what they expected.

Seeing that no one was willing to bid after thirty Path Stones, James pressed the button on his table and said, "Forty Path Stones."

James felt that he could buy the ancient scroll to study it.

The Oscars could not figure it out, but Emperor Jabari might be able to comprehend it.

He might actually gain something from it.

As soon as James made a bid, Kai also followed.

"Forty-five Path Stones!"

Kai had no interest in the ancient scroll but just wanted to get in James' way.

He was furious with James. Seeing that James wanted to bid for something, he wanted to make James spend more money on it.

James calmly made another bid, "Fifty Path Stones."

"Fifty-five."

"Sixty."

"Sixty-Five!"

The two repeatedly increased their bids.

The bid for the ancient scroll increased from a few dozen Path Stones to a few hundred.

The powerhouses in the auction hall watched on as if it was a show.

No one expected things to turn out this way.

Kai was evidently trying to enrage his opponent.

“One thousand.”

James was getting impatient and immediately raised the bid to one thousand.”

“You sure are ruthless. You can have it.”

After James bid a thousand Path Stones, Kai gave up on the bid. However, he was satisfied with making James spend a thousand Path Stones for something he could have easily bought for a few dozen Path Stones.

Now that James had spent a thousand Path Stones, the anger in Kai’s heart dissipated.

James said contemptuously, “Who are you to fight with me?”

Naturally, James knew Kai was purposely raising the bid to annoy him.

Thus, James did not hold back on dissing him.

Kai murmured, “You better be careful, Young Man.”

Yulia did not expect the price to be raised to a thousand Path Stones. Thus, she was very grateful to Kai.

A faint smile formed on her beautiful face. Then, she asked, “Is there anyone who wants to bid higher than one thousand?”

“It’s a valuable item unearthed from the Desolateness Sanctuary and might be related to the inheritance of an Ancestral God.”

However, the powerhouses were unconvinced no matter what she said and were unwilling to bid for it.

“One thousand, once!”

“One thousand, twice!”

“One thousand, thrice!”

“Sold!”

As the auction hammer fell, James successfully purchased the second item.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3075-After obtaining the two items he wanted, everything else was useless to him.

James stood up and walked out of the private room after successfully buying the ancient scroll.

Standing outside the private room was a staff arranged by the Oscars. She was gorgeous and had an extraordinary temperament. Moreover, she had a very sexy figure.

Seeing James walk out of the room, the woman looked at James and asked respectfully, "Is there anything I can do for you, Sir?"

James said gently, "I'd like to proceed with payment."

"Alright. This way, please."

The woman made a welcoming gesture and led James to a VIP room behind the auction hall.

At that moment, Yulia was also notified while on the auction stage.

"I'm very sorry. There are some urgent things that I need to tend to immediately. The auction will proceed with another auctioneer."

After Yulia informed the bidders, she turned and left. At the same time, another auctioneer immediately took the stage.

She wanted to see the mysterious bidder who bought the Tribulation Liquid and the ancient scroll.

Yulia wanted to know who exactly Jules gave the auction invitation to.

James waited for a while. Soon, a gorgeous woman walked into the room with a bright smile.

When Yulia entered the room, she noticed James and was slightly taken aback. She never expected James to be so young, nor for his aura to be so weak.

"Is there a mistake?"

Yulia looked at the staff at the door, who was responsible for bringing James to the VIP room.

The staff replied, "There's no mistake."

Yulia walked over and looked at James. She sat opposite him and said smilingly, "Hello, my name is Yulia Oscar."

James nodded lightly in response.

He took out the Path Stones from the Celestial Abode and said, "Here are the Path Stones. Give me the items I bid for."

Yulia took the small pouch handed over by James. She opened it and carefully counted the Path Stones.

After confirming it was the right number, she smiled.

She was intrigued by James, a human cultivator with the energy of only a Sage. However, he was willing to splurge and was not even afraid of a powerhouse like Kai.

"I've never seen you before, Sir. May I ask who you are?"

James looked at her and said lightly, "What's wrong? Do I need to report my background to you to buy the stuff?"

Yulia laughed and said, "No, of course not. Wait here for a moment. Your stuff will be here shortly."

Then, she snapped her fingers.

A guard at the door immediately walked into the room.

Yulia ordered, "Bring the Emperor Tribulation Elixir and the ancient scroll here."

"Of course, Young Lady." The guard nodded and left.

Meanwhile, Yulia kept staring at James.

She lifted her leg and crossed it before James, revealing her long, slender legs. She looked at James with a charming smile.

"I've known the Young Master of the Elixir Pavilion for many years and know what kind of person he is. I also have a rough idea of the kind he's acquainted with."

James had no idea what Yulia's words meant.

He looked at her and asked, "What do you mean?"

"Nothing." Yulia smiled.

'She must be crazy,' thought James. Then, he ignored Yulia and patiently waited for his things to arrive.

Meanwhile, Yulia was distressed.

She thought James was also a young master of a particular prominent family and was a playboy like Jules.

Jules had pursued her for a long time and had asked for her hand in marriage a few times. However, she rejected him.

Meanwhile, James was completely indifferent to her temptations.

'Could it be I'm wrong about him?' thought Yulia.

She secretly pulled up her dress and also deliberately exposed her slender neck.

However, James completely ignored her advances as he was busy communicating with Emperor Jabari.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3076-James asked Emperor Jabari in the Celestial Abode, "Emperor Jabari, I've already obtained the Tribulation Liquid. How much of your Soul Power can be recovered?"

He was concerned about how much of Emperor Jabari's Soul Power could be recovered after using the Tribulation Liquid.

Emperor Jabari replied, "It depends on the Tribulation Liquid's rarity."

"Huh? Even this has grades to it?" James was shocked.

Emperor Jabari said, "Yeah. The Tribulation Liquid is a magical item formed during the Heavenly Tribulation. It's graded into different ranks. If the Tribulation Liquid is obtained from a Sage's Heavenly Tribulation, its effects won't be as good.

"If it's obtained from an Emperor Rank's Heavenly Tribulation, it should be able to restore about half of my Soul Power."

"I see."

James had a clearer picture of the Tribulation Liquid's effects.

After getting an answer, he snapped back to reality and looked at Yulia.

Seeing Yulia's dejected expression, he asked, "What's wrong?"

"Nothing," Yulia replied troubledly.

James asked, "By the way, what kind of Heavenly Tribulation was the cultivator facing when they obtained the Tribulation Liquid?"

"Huh?" Yulia was slightly taken aback. She never expected James to ask such a question.

"What's wrong? Was that a difficult question to answer?" James asked suspiciously.

Yulia replied, "The Tribulation Liquid was obtained by a powerhouse from our family when making a breakthrough to the Divine Rank."

"Divine Rank?" James was disappointed.

He just learned that Tribulation Liquids obtained from higher Heavenly Tribulations had greater effects. A Divine Rank Tribulation Liquid's effects would be mediocre and much inferior to an Emperor Rank Tribulation Liquid.

"What's the matter? Did you expect one to obtain the Tribulation Liquid while trying to survive an Emperor Tribulation?" Yulia rolled her eyes at James.

James stopped speaking and patiently waited in the room.

Soon, a member of the Oscars walked into the room with the Tribulation Liquid and the ancient scroll and handed them over to Yulia.

Yulia handed them to James, saying, "Go ahead and check them out. If there's nothing wrong, you can leave your energy on them."

James took some time to inspect them.

The Tribulation Liquid was contained in a transparent bottle. There was only a drop, about the size of a berry. It was purple, and a few purple inscriptions could be seen flowing within the liquid.

Emperor Jabari spoke from inside the Celestial Abode, "That is indeed Tribulation Liquid."

James picked up the ancient scroll and looked through it.

He unfolded the scroll. The entire scroll was about one meter long and one meter wide. There were some strange lines and symbols drawn on it.

James could not understand the drawings on it.

Emperor Jabari said, "I can't decipher them right now. Keep it for now. I'll study it later."

James stored the Tribulation Liquid and the ancient scroll. Then, he left his energy on a black crystal.

After the successful transaction, James turned to leave.

"Hey, wait!"

Yulia stood up and called out for James.

James turned to her and asked, "What's wrong? Is there anything else?"

Yulia said, "You just offended Kai, the Lord of the Spiritual Realm. From what I know, Kai is a very ruthless person. Are you not afraid he'll try to seek revenge if you just leave like this?"

She kindly reminded him.

James did not answer her but turned to leave.

He left the auction venue and arrived at the street outside.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3077-Kai was already aware that James had left his private room.

He had been watching James' every move. Kai refused to let James go after losing the bid for the Tribulation Liquid.

As soon as James left the auction venue, he was blocked by a middle-aged man.

The middle-aged man was about forty years old and wearing a gray robe. His chubby face was grim.

James' brows furrowed.

The man trying to stop James was none other than Kai.

Kai stretched his hand out and said coldly, "Hand it over."

From his words, James immediately identified the man to be Kai.

Just as James was about to reply, a cold voice sounded from behind him, "Where do you think you are, Kai?"

James turned around and saw Yulia walking out of the auction venue.

She walked over and stood in front of James. Glaring at Kai, she said, "You're in Elixir City, the territory of the Elixir Pavilion. How dare you pick a fight in Elixir City?"

"Ms. Oscar, my affairs have nothing to do with you."

Although Kai was afraid of the Elixir Pavilion and the Oscar family's powerhouses, Yulia did not pose a threat to him.

"He's a distinguished guest of the Oscars. You'll face the consequences if you lay hands on him."

Kai snorted coldly and said, "He's already left the Oscars' auction house. What's going on now? Do the Oscars intend to protect him?"

Yulia said, "Yes. The Oscars will protect him."

James looked at Yulia. He never expected her to be such a decent person. She clearly knew Kai was the Spiritual Realm's Lord, but she still stood her ground to defend him.

"The Tribulation Liquid is mine."

Kai's expression darkened, and potent energy erupted from his body.

His energy formed a terrifying magnetic field. Even Yulia, a Quasi-Emperor, could not withstand the force and was forced to back away.

Emperor Jabari was enraged by the situation.

"Get lost!"

Emperor Jabari exerted his energy.

James casually waved his hand accordingly.

As soon as James swung his hand, countless Paths emerged from his hand and gathered to form tremendous strength.

It was formidable Path Energy.

Although Emperor Jabari had lost his physical body and only a trace of his soul remained, his comprehension of the various Paths remained intact. With him taking action, Kai was immediately knocked away.

Kai was about to make a move, but James beat him to it.

He felt a powerful force pervading, and his body was blasted away.

Kai slammed into the ground, and cracks formed on his Path Seal.

“Wh-What kind of Path is this?”

Kai was shocked by James’ strength.

Yulia, who stood behind, was also dumbfounded. She stared at James in disbelief.

She did not sense any energy from James, but Kai was defeated with a casual wave of James’ hand.

Under normal circumstances, Emperor Jabari would refrain from taking action as it would consume his Soul Power. However, he could easily recover much of his Soul Power since they had obtained the Tribulation Liquid.

James clicked his tongue in awe.

As expected from a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor, Emperor Jabari could defeat a Fourth Heaven Grand Emperor with a casual attack.

Since Elixir City was bustling with people, a crowd had gathered and witnessed the fight.

The powerhouses were shocked by the outcome.

Meanwhile, James ignored the strange gazes of the crowd. With his hands crossed behind his back, he left Elixir City. Then, he walked to the mountain range where the Elixir Pavilion was located. Soon, he arrived at the Elixir Pavilion.

He entered the Elixir Pavilion without any obstacles and returned to Sky City.

Upon returning to the Elixir Mansion, James went to the courtyard and teleported into the Celestial Abode.

“You’re amazing, Emperor Jabari.”

Inside the Celestial Abode, James gave Emperor Jabari a thumbs up and could not help but praise him.

Emperor Jabari smiled faintly and said, “This is nothing. Sooner or later, you’ll reach my level and might even surpass me to become an Ancestral God.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3078-Emperor Jabari was right.

As long as their plan worked and the mysterious force behind the Heavenly Path was eliminated, James might advance beyond the level of an Ancestral God and reach an unprecedented cultivation rank.

“Aren’t you afraid of Karma for helping me, Emperor Jabari?” asked James.

When he was really weak, Sophie told him she could not easily help him because it would attract Karma to herself.

Emperor Jabari smiled lightly and said, “There’s nothing to worry about. The moment you inherited the Celestial Abode, our fate was intertwined. What I did just now was trivial and wouldn’t affect me.”

James did not ask any other questions.

He took out the ancient scroll he bought from the auction and asked, “What’s this?”

Emperor Jabari took over the ancient scroll and reviewed it.

After a while, he said, “The writings on this scroll are magical characters from the Primeval Age. I’ve encountered similar characters in a ruin while traveling the universe.

“Is that so?” James was overwhelmed.

He was right that Emperor Jabari would be able to figure it out.

After all, he had traveled the entire universe and ventured into dangerous places, searching for his beloved, Yukia.

Emperor Jabari put down the ancient scroll and fell into deep thought.

After a while, he said slowly, "The Primeval Age was a glorious time. Grand Emperors were not the limit of cultivation. Instead, one could reach the highest level of an Ancestral God.

"However, very few could become Ancestral Gods.

"The characters on this scroll are called Ancestral Script.

"Ancestral Emperors used Ancestral Script to communicate. The Heavenly Path controlled everything in the universe and was all-knowing.

"However, the Heavenly Path couldn't decipher things recorded in Ancestral Script."

James listened carefully. He understood that Ancestral Scripts transcended everything else and that even the invincible Heavenly Path could not understand Ancestral Scripts.

He looked at Emperor Jabari and asked, "Do you understand Ancestral Script?"

Emperor Jabari shook his head, saying, "I've seen them before and tried to study them. However, I'm not very proficient. The Ancestral Script on this scroll is very complicated, and it'll take some time for me to decipher it. There's no rush. I'll consume the Tribulation Liquid and try to comprehend it after I recover more of my Spirit Power."

James asked, "How long will it take you to recover after consuming the Tribulation Liquid?"

Emperor Jabari glanced at the Tribulation Liquid on the table and said, "Very soon."

"Mhm." James nodded lightly and was relieved by Emperor Jabari's words.

James did not linger in the Celestial Abode for long and left shortly after.

Soon, he returned to the outside world.

As soon as he left his room, he saw Monica sitting dejectedly on a stone chair in the courtyard.

James walked over and asked, "What's the matter? Why are you unhappy?"

Monica stood up and said, "You've finally shown up, Sir. I encountered a problem while cultivating."

"Is that so? What's the problem? Tell me about it," said James.

James immediately regretted his words.

He slapped his forehead and thought, 'Why did I have to say that?'

Overjoyed, Monica quickly told him about her problem.

"I have an Elemental Holy Body, perfect for cultivating Elemental Inversion. However, I found it incredibly difficult to forge the Elemental Inversion Formation in my body. And this is only the first step in learning Elemental Inversion.

"The premise of cultivating Elemental Inversion is cultivating my organs into Elemental Ousias. Then, I'll need to borrow the Ousias' strength to generate strength. However, it's really difficult. I've tried a few times but failed to transform my organs into Elemental Ousias. Sir, what does your Elemental Path Seal look like? Can you summon it for me to see?"

"About this..." James was troubled.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3079-Elemental Ousias? Elemental Path Seal?

He was only at the Sage Rank and had not cultivated an Ousia yet, so how could he have a Path Seal?

Meanwhile, his internal organs had already been integrated with the Five Elements of Genesis.

He used his consciousness to summon the Five Elements of Genesis.

Five great powers appeared before him.

James looked at the dejected Monica and asked, "Is this what you mean?"

Monica was astonished.

She was unsure whether they were Path Seals, but she sensed a powerful energy coming from the Five Elements of Genesis.

James was afraid that Monica would sense something strange, so he quickly put them away. Then, he said awkwardly, "You need to walk your own journey. I can't teach you much."

Monica returned to her senses and said, "As expected from you, Sir! Your Elemental Path Seals are amazing!"

Since Monica was still a Quasi-Emperor, she had no idea what the Five Elements of Genesis were and thought James had summoned his Path Seal.

Moreover, most Grand Emperors only had one Path Seal. Yet, James had five.

She thought James was incredibly admirable.

Jules, who was nearby, was also shocked by the sight. He only approached after James put away the Five Elements of Genesis.

Before he came into sight, his voice resounded.

“That was amazing, Mr. Caden.”

Both James and Monica turned toward him.

Jules gave a thumbs up, saying, “You’re so strong. I’ve been dissatisfied with the Spiritual Realm’s Lord for a long time. I never expected him to trouble you. You taught him a good lesson. Serves him right!”

After Jules sat down, he began blabbering.

“Do you know how much of an uproar you caused after taking action against Kai? All the powerhouses in Elixir City are trying to figure out your identity.”

Monica looked at him puzzledly and asked, “What happened?”

Jules explained, “Mr. Caden went to the Oscars’ auction, but the Spiritual Realm’s Lord was troubling Mr. Caden and even blocked his path. Ultimately, Mr. Caden made a move and shattered his Path Seal.”

“You’re so powerful, Mr. Caden!”

Jules did not witness James exerting his Path Energy.

However, he heard rumors about it.

He heard from a Grand Emperor that when James made a move, countless Paths emerged from his palm and fused. With just one move, Kai was defeated.

James was embarrassed by his words.

He coughed and said, “You’re flattering me. I’d like to stay more low-key.”

Jules immediately understood and said, “Understood! Low-key it is!”

Suddenly, Jules thought of something and asked, "By the way, I heard from the Oscars' Young Lady. She asked me about you, saying she prepared a feast. She wants to invite you. Are you interested in attending?"

Jules looked at James eagerly.

He was hoping James would agree.

Jules had been pursuing Yulia for a long time, but she had always remained indifferent to him.

Finally, his opportunity had come.

He might succeed if he handled her favor well.

"It's her?"

James was lost in thought.

Yulia seemed decent and still stood up for him despite knowing Kai's strength.

After thinking about it, James replied, "I've nothing to do anyway. I don't mind going to Elixir City and exploring it for a bit more."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3079-Elemental Ousias? Elemental Path Seal?

He was only at the Sage Rank and had not cultivated an Ousia yet, so how could he have a Path Seal?

Meanwhile, his internal organs had already been integrated with the Five Elements of Genesis.

He used his consciousness to summon the Five Elements of Genesis.

Five great powers appeared before him.

James looked at the dejected Monica and asked, "Is this what you mean?"

Monica was astonished.

She was unsure whether they were Path Seals, but she sensed a powerful energy coming from the Five Elements of Genesis.

James was afraid that Monica would sense something strange, so he quickly put them away. Then, he said awkwardly, "You need to walk your own journey. I can't teach you much."

Monica returned to her senses and said, "As expected from you, Sir! Your Elemental Path Seals are amazing!"

Since Monica was still a Quasi-Emperor, she had no idea what the Five Elements of Genesis were and thought James had summoned his Path Seal.

Moreover, most Grand Emperors only had one Path Seal. Yet, James had five.

She thought James was incredibly admirable.

Jules, who was nearby, was also shocked by the sight. He only approached after James put away the Five Elements of Genesis.

Before he came into sight, his voice resounded.

"That was amazing, Mr. Caden."

Both James and Monica turned toward him.

Jules gave a thumbs up, saying, "You're so strong. I've been dissatisfied with the Spiritual Realm's Lord for a long time. I never expected him to trouble you. You taught him a good lesson. Serves him right!"

After Jules sat down, he began blabbering.

"Do you know how much of an uproar you caused after taking action against Kai? All the powerhouses in Elixir City are trying to figure out your identity."

Monica looked at him puzzledly and asked, "What happened?"

Jules explained, "Mr. Caden went to the Oscars' auction, but the Spiritual Realm's Lord was troubling Mr. Caden and even blocked his path. Ultimately, Mr. Caden made a move and shattered his Path Seal."

"You're so powerful, Mr. Caden!"

Jules did not witness James exerting his Path Energy.

However, he heard rumors about it.

He heard from a Grand Emperor that when James made a move, countless Paths emerged from his palm and fused. With just one move, Kai was defeated.

James was embarrassed by his words.

He coughed and said, "You're flattering me. I'd like to stay more low-key."

Jules immediately understood and said, "Understood! Low-key it is!"

Suddenly, Jules thought of something and asked, "By the way, I heard from the Oscars' Young Lady. She asked me about you, saying she prepared a feast. She wants to invite you. Are you interested in attending?"

Jules looked at James eagerly.

He was hoping James would agree.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3080-"When is it happening?" asked James.

Jules replied, "It's tonight."

James looked to the sky. It was already evening and would be nighttime soon.

He nodded and said, "Alright. Let's go."

"Okay, I'll inform Yulia immediately and tell her to ensure it's a grand party!"

Jules immediately notified Yulia.

After the auction, Yulia had been trying to figure out James' identity. Thus, she looked for Jules to inquire about him. It was her first time taking the initiative to talk to Jules after countless years.

She briefly learned about James through Jules. James was considered the best powerhouse in the Boundless Realm. Even the Elixir Pavilion's Old Master would not be a match against him.

After learning about James, it took a long time for her shock to subside.

She never expected James, an ordinary-looking young man, to possess such great strength.

Thus, she invited James to the Oscar Residence as a guest.

Seeing that he finally had a chance, Jules immediately promised to bring James over.

Yulia was sitting in the courtyard of her family's mansion when she suddenly received the notice from Jules. After hearing the news, she was thrilled and regained her energy instantly. She quickly instructed her family, "Quick! Everyone in the mansion, prepare to welcome James!"

Upon hearing her instructions, all the members of the Oscars quickly begin making preparations.

Her actions caught the attention of a few elders.

An elder immediately found Yulia and reprimanded her, "What are you doing, Yulia?"

"Great Elder, I'm inviting James to our house as a guest. He's the powerful cultivator that bought the Tribulation Liquid at the auction and easily defeated Kai with a single move!"

Yulia explained excitedly.

Saffron Oscar, the Oscars' Great Elder, was taken aback by her words.

He was present at the auction and knew about the conflict between James and Kai. He also heard about James injuring Kai. Everyone in Elixir City was trying to figure out James' identity.

Unexpectedly, Yulia managed to invite James to their house as a guest.

Saffron looked at Yulia and asked doubtfully, "How did you manage to invite him, Yulia?"

Yulia replied, "He has a good relationship with the Elixir Pavilion's Young Master, Jules. They met when Jules was training outside. Currently, James is staying in the Elixir Mansion in Sky City. I invited him through Jules. That's enough chatter for now! I have to prepare for his arrival. We have to make sure not to disappoint him!"

After speaking, Yulia rushed to finish up the preparations.

Saffron thought for a while, then turned to leave. He felt it was necessary to tell their family head about it.

A middle-aged man sat in a lotus position in a secret room within the Oscar Residence's backyard. Mysterious inscriptions emerged from his body.

The man wore a white robe and was fairly handsome. He was one of the Elixir Pavilion's Officials, a Grand Emperor, and an Emperor Rank Alchemist.

The man was none other than Benedict Oscar.

Benedict had a great reputation in the Boundless Realm and was not inferior to the Elixir Pavilion's Master.

The Great Elder walked over and called out respectfully, "Sir."

Benedict stopped his cultivation and retracted his energy. He stood up and looked at Saffron, asking, "What's the matter? Did something happen?"

Saffron recounted the events that happened during the auction.

"Oh?"

Benedict was surprised. He asked, "A mysterious powerhouse that's wealthy and even defeated Kai with one move?"

"Yeah," Saffron replied.

Benedict said, "If such an honorable guest is coming to visit, we must ensure he's treated well."

Shortly after, all members of the Oscar family began to prepare to welcome James.
