The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3085-James was dumbfounded.

‘What exactly is going on?’

The Curse Inscriptions calmed down, and James snapped out of the mysterious state.

He could no longer sense the Curse Power coming from them when he looked at them again.

James fell deep into thought.

‘What exactly happened?’ thought James.

James knew Jules quite well and knew he could not be a member of the Sanctuary of Darkness. Yet, why did he sense Curse Power from him twice?

Jules called out again, “Mr. Caden?”

James returned to his senses and said smilingly, “Sorry, I was absorbed in my thoughts for a moment.”

Benedict stared at James. He was not convinced the weak-looking man before him could defeat Kai, who was a Fourth Heaven Grand Emperor, in a single blow.

He carefully used his Divine Senses.

However, he was sure that he was right about James being at the Sage Rank’s Twenty-Fifth Stage.

Benedict asked tentatively, “I heard you’re also an alchemist and would like to discuss alchemy with me, Mr. Caden?”

James replied with a smile, “Nope. How could I be an alchemist? I’ve heard many things about you and wanted to use this opportunity to see you. Now that I’ve seen you, I’ll take my leave.”

After speaking, he stood up and turned to leave.

As soon as James got up, Monica also followed.

“Why are you leaving, Mr. Caden?” Jules got up and chased after them.

Yulia was puzzled by the situation. She looked at her father and asked, “What’s wrong?”

Benedict stood up and said calmly, "It's nothing. That man is very weak. He's not worthy of stepping foot into our house."

After speaking, Benedict turned to leave.

Regardless of the rumors, Benedict trusted his judgments better.

He concluded that James was just a weak and unknown cultivator.

Jules chased after James and shouted, "Mr. Caden! Mr. Caden, wait for me!"

After catching up, he asked, "Why did you suddenly leave when everything was fine?"

James said solemnly, "It's nothing. I'm tired and want to return to Sky City to rest. Help me apologize to Yulia for my sudden departure."

After speaking, he turned to leave.

Jules touched his head and murmured puzzledly, "What happened? Everything seemed fine, so why did he suddenly leave?"

On the way back, Monica asked, "What's the matter, Sir? Everything seemed fine, so why did you leave?"

James did not respond.

At that moment, he was communicating with Emperor Jabari in the Celestial Abode.

Although Emperor Jabari was in seclusion trying to recover his strength, he could still talk to James.

"Emperor Jabari, why did I sense Curse Power from Benedict and Jules?"

Emperor Jabari's voice came from the Celestial Abode. "I don't know. You'll have to figure it out yourself. However, since you sensed Curse Power from them, it's most likely that the Sanctuary of Darkness has infiltrated the Elixir Pavilion. You have to be careful while in the Elixir Pavilion."

"Alright. I will."

James took a deep breath.

It seemed necessary for him to contact Jimmu and check if there had been any activity in the Sanctuary of Darkness recently.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3086-James and Jules had been traveling together for a while.

However, James had never sensed Curse Power on Jules' before. It was only recently that he sensed Curse Power twice from Jules.

There was definitely something wrong.

James had a feeling the Sanctuary of Darkness had already infiltrated the Elixir Pavilion and was about to make a big move.

The Elixir Pavilion was about to hold a grand event to recruit disciples. It was also going to be their biggest event in thousands of years. James felt that if he were in the Sanctuary of Darkness' shoes, he would also choose to cause trouble at a time like this.

James returned to his room, sat in a lotus position, and tried to establish a connection with Jimmu.

"Jimmu, do you hear me? Jimmu?"

After sensing Jimmu's location, James telepathically called out to him.

At that moment, Jimmu was with a few powerhouses from the Sanctuary of Darkness outside the Holy Realm. They had been around the area for some time but could not find a chance to infiltrate.

After hearing James' call, Jimmu headed to a desolate place in a flash.

"I hear you."

He replied telepathically to James.

James heard Jimmu's voice and asked, "Has the Sanctuary of Darkness been planning anything recently?"

Jimmu replied, "I don't know. I'm just a newly promoted elder who doesn't have any authority. The Sanctuary of Darkness' plans isn't disclosed to me. However, I do know that the powerful members scattered around the Boundless Realm have headed toward the Boundless Realm. They're all trying to get in, and their final destination is the Elixir Realm."

Jimmu's words immediately confirmed James' speculation.

The Sanctuary of Darkness was planning to take action against the Elixir Pavilion.

“Has the Sanctuary of Darkness already gathered many powerhouses?” asked James.

Jimmu’s voice resounded in his mind. “There are a lot of them. The weakest is at the Divine Rank’s Third Stage. There are many Quasi-Emperors and Grand Emperors. The Sanctuary of Darkness seemed to have sent out all their forces this time.”

“Alright. If you have any more updates, let me know immediately.”

After James spoke, he deactivated their communication.

Then, he teleported into the Celestial Abode with a flash.

James headed to Emperor Jabari’s seclusion spot in the Celestial Abode.

Since Emperor Jabari did not have a body, he needed a vessel to restore his Soul Power. His current vessel was a statue.

James walked toward the statue and passed on the news he had just obtained.

The statue’s mouth started to move, and a voice came from it. “If I’m not mistaken, the Sanctuary of Darkness wants to attack during the Elixir Pavilion’s disciple recruitment conference.”

“What should I do?” asked James.

Emperor Jabari replied, “Don’t worry. If the Sanctuary of Darkness really wants to destroy the Elixir Pavillion, it’ll be done during the conference that will take place about two to three thousand years later. There’s still a lot of time. By then, I would’ve already recovered much of my Soul Power. Even though I’m still in a soul fragment, I’ll have the strength of a Fifth Heaven Grand Emperor. Besides...”

After thinking for a while, Emperor Jabari continued to speak, “You’re weak right now. Even if I lent you my strength, you’ll still be clueless about Paths. The most important thing for you to do right now is to step into the Divine Rank and gain a basic understanding of Path Energy.

“Only by doing so can you exert Path Energy after borrowing my strength.”

Emperor Jabari gave his suggestion.

He wanted James to improve as soon as possible.

However, James had a troubled expression.

It was tough for him to enter the Divine Rank.

He was only at the Sage Rank's Twenty-Fifth Stage and was far from the Divine Rank.

However, he would have enough time to reach the Divine Rank if the Sanctuary of Darkness was planning to attack during the conference taking place in two to three thousand years.

Two to three thousand years was sufficient time.

"Mhm. I'll try to improve as soon as possible." James nodded lightly.

He formulated a plan.

The pressure motivated him.

He would not be able to improve if he continued to stay in Elixir City. Thus, he planned to go on adventures in some dangerous places.

Only in true desperation could one reach true potential.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3087-James bid farewell to Emperor Jabari, then went into the Time Chamber.

Nico was in seclusion inside the Time Chamber.

When James arrived at the Time Chamber, he saw Nico in a lotus position on the ground.

Nico's body emanated multicolored lights, which was a spectacular sight. At the same time, powerful energy also emitted from his body.

James knew Nico was refining the Aquacollis.

After he succeeded, his blood would go through an enhancement, and his cultivation rank would be raised to the Grand Emperor Rank's Fifth Stage.

However, how long it would take was uncertain.

"How long more do you need, Nico?" asked James.

The Sanctuary of Darkness was lurking and preparing to attack, making James slightly anxious.

James was worried about being unable to defeat the Sanctuary of Darkness with Emperor Jabari in his current state.

Nico opened his eyes and looked at James. Then, he replied, "I need about a hundred thousand years."

"One hundred thousand years? That long?" James was surprised.

"I'll try to finish as soon as possible."

After replying to James, Nico concentrated on cultivating again.

James did not inquire further.

The passage of time in the Time Chamber was much faster than that of the outside world.

Since they had two to three thousand more years, Nico should be able to finish cultivating in the Time Chamber by then.

After meeting up with Nico, James left the Time Chamber.

He went to see Emperor Jabari again.

"I'll be going on adventures to train. I'm planning to head over to the Desolateness Sanctuary. Could you take some time to study the ancient scroll? I'll try my luck in finding any boons from the Desolateness Sanctuary."

"Okay."

Emperor Jabari did not say much.

After James informed Emperor Jabari, he left the Celestial Abode.

Then, he walked out of his room.

It was already dark outside.

He sat in the courtyard and looked at the night sky, deep in his thoughts.

Soon, Jules came to see him.

Jules called out, "Mr. Caden."

"Mhm." James returned to his senses and said, "I'm going to leave soon."

“Huh?”

Surprised, Jules asked, “Everything is fine here, so why are you leaving? You promised to be a judge during our conference. How could you just leave?”

James said, “I bought an ancient scroll unearthed from the Desolateness Sanctuary at the Oscars’ auction. I’m planning to venture into the Desolateness Sanctuary for some time. Besides, there are still two to three thousand years before the Elixir Pavilion’s disciple recruitment conference. I’ll probably be back by then.

Jules was relieved.

At that moment, Monica also came over.

She was startled to hear their conversation and asked, “Sir, you’re going to the Desolateness Sanctuary?”

“Yeah.” James nodded.

James turned to Jules and said, “Since I don’t know much about the Desolateness Sanctuary, could you help me collect some information? The more details, the better.”

Jules asked, “When do you need it?”

James replied, “As soon as possible.”

“Alright. I’ll gather information right away!”

Jules turned to leave.

Monica sat beside him and said, “I’ll come with you.”

James glanced at her and said, “You can’t follow me this time. Stay in the Elixir Pavilion. I’ll go have a look and come back as soon as possible.”

Monica said coquettishly, “Please? I don’t care. I’m coming with you.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3088-James had gifted her the Supernatural Power, Elemental Inversion.

She had greatly benefited from it. However, she had a minimal understanding of it. Therefore, she wanted to follow James so that he could guide her.

Moreover, it would be great if James could also pass her some other Supernatural Power or Secret Art along the way.

After following James around for some time, she felt that James was pretty easy to get along with and was not arrogant because of his strength.

James met all her criteria for a partner.

She walked toward James and linked arms with him.

Monica said smilingly, "Sir, what do you think about starting a romantic relationship with me?"

She was a beautiful woman that could mesmerize any man. Even James was slightly tempted by her advancements.

However, James only had one woman in his heart.

He replied to her solemnly, "What are you doing? Where are your manners? Let go."

Monica reluctantly let go and said, "I'm just joking. Training is boring, and I was just looking for some fun."

James said solemnly, "The Desolateness Sanctuary is a very dangerous place. Even Grand Emperors might die if they were not careful. Just stay in the Elixir Mansion and wait for my return."

Monica replied reluctantly, "Fine. I'll obediently stay in the Elixir Mansion and wait for your return, Sir."

"Good." James was relieved.

Monica was really seductive, and he did not dare to stay any longer. Thus, he quickly returned to his room.

After he left, Monica looked down at her body and murmured, "Is my figure not good enough? Or does he not find me attractive?"

James returned to his room and hit the sack.

The next day, James woke up and walked out of his room.

He stood in the courtyard and breathed the fresh Primordial Energy.

Soon, Jules arrived in the courtyard. He immediately took out some documents and handed them to James, saying, "Mr. Caden, the information about the Desolateness Sanctuary that you asked for."

James accepted them and reviewed them.

The Desolateness Sanctuary was located in the starry universe outside of the Elixir Realm.

The Elixir Realm was a powerful planet located in a certain galaxy. There were not many habitable planets within this galaxy. Only a few hundred planets were habitable.

Most of the planets in this galaxy were desolate or abandoned.

The Desolateness Ruins was located in the southwest of the galaxy. If James were to use the Saucer he bought, it would take him about ten years to arrive. However, it would only take him a short period if he used a spatial passage.

However, James did not have the strength to open up a spatial passage.

The Desolateness Ruins was left behind from the Primeval Age, and there were many myths about the place.

However, no one could really confirm the truth of these myths.

The only thing certain about the place was it was incredibly dangerous.

After James carefully looked through the details about the place, he put the documents away.

Jules beside him asked, "When are you leaving, Mr. Caden?"

James thought for a while and said, "If there's nothing else, I'm planning to leave right away."

Jules' eyes sparkled, and he said, "Would you like my little sister to come with you, Mr. Caden? She's quite beautiful, don't you think?"

"Ahem, ahem."

James coughed a few times and hurriedly stopped the topic, saying, "No, I'll be fine going alone. It'll be troublesome to have company. If we encountered any danger, I'll be distracted having to protect others."

"Alright."

Jules merely wanted to try his luck. He did not have much hope that James would bring Yuina with him.

Afterward, James summoned Yevpraksiya from the Celestial Abode.

James instructed Yevpraksiya to stay in the Elixir Mansion and wait for his return.

“Master...”

Yevpraksiya hesitated to speak.

She looked at James and asked, “Master, do you remember your promise to the Lord of the Stardust Realm?”

“Oh, right.”
