The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3089-James recalled his promise and said to Jules, "I have another favor to ask you."

Jules patted his chest and said confidently, "Whatever you need, I'm at your service!"

James explained the crisis encountered by the Stardust Realm.

Jules vowed, "No problem! Leave it to me. The Stardust Realm is my home. I won't let anyone mess with it!"

With Jules' word of assurance, James was relieved.

At that moment, a disciple of the Elixir Pavilion approached and said respectfully, "Young Master, a few people have arrived outside our mountain gates requesting to see James."

"Reject them." Jules immediately refused the visitation.

James was famous now and did not have time to meet just anyone.

"Young Master, one of them claimed to be Thea Callahan."

Hearing Thea's name, James immediately asked, "What did you say? Thea is here?"

Jules knew that Thea was James' wife. He slapped the disciple reporting to him and cursed, "Why are you still here? Go and invite them in!"

"Alright!" The disciple quickly turned around and left.

James never expected Thea to come to the Holy Realm.

'Isn't she supposed to be gathering information about the Sanctuary of Darkness in the Eidolon Realm?'

After waiting for a while, a group arrived at the courtyard.

It was Thea, Xainte, and the Martial Reverend of the Eidolon Realm.

The Martial Reverend immediately greeted James respectfully, "Mr. Caden."

James lightly waved his hand.

He turned to Thea and asked, "What are you doing here, Thea?"

Seeing many people in the courtyard, Thea hesitated to speak.

James immediately understood that Thea had something important to tell him. He glanced at Jules and the others, saying, "Leave us alone for now."

"Of course, Mr. Caden."

Jules did not linger and quickly left the courtyard.

Apart from Thea's party, only Yevpraksiya and Monica were left in the courtyard.

Xainte glanced at James and said, "I didn't expect you to find another woman so fast."

James immediately reprimanded her, "What nonsense are you spouting? She's my disciple."

Meanwhile, Monica was trying to figure out who Thea and Xainte were to James.

James glanced at Monica and Yevpraksiya, then said, "You're dismissed."

"Yes, Young Master."

"Alright, Sir."

The two left the courtyard.

James pointed to the stone chair aside and said, "Sit, Thea. What happened? What made you travel all the way to the Elixir Pavilion?"

Thea said solemnly, "After you left, we used some connections to investigate the Sanctuary of Darkness and finally discovered some stuff. We learned that their powerhouses were all heading toward the Holy Realm. I was worried their target was the Elixir Pavilion, so I rushed here."

"Mhm." James nodded.

He had already heard about it.

James had just found out the news and did not expect Thea to have gotten hold of the Sanctuary of Darkness' movements so fast.

The Martial Reverend said, "I came along to meet the Elixir Pavilion's Master to report this matter."

James waved his hand and said, "There's no rush to report it to him."

Surprised, the Martial Reverend questioned, "Why not?"

James said, "I learned that spies from the Sanctuary of Darkness managed to infiltrate the Elixir Pavilion. The enemy might get hold of the news if you report it to him now."

Thea looked at James and asked, "Then, what's your plan?"

James smiled lightly and said, "I want to lure them out."

He had already formulated a plan.

The Sanctuary of Darkness was a mysterious organization, and he did not know much about them. He wanted to use this chance to lure all of their powerhouses out and wipe them out. Since Emperor Jabari and Nico were with him, he was not afraid of them.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3090-James did not disclose the details of his plan.

He looked at Thea and said, "Thea, chaos is about to befall the Elixir Realm. You should leave first. Head back to the Eidolon Realm and wait for me there. I'll be back in a few thousand years."

"James..."

Thea looked at James and said solemnly, "I'm no longer the young and naive girl that didn't understand anything. I'm a powerful cultivator right now—a Quasi-Emperor at the Ninth Tribulation. Besides, I also have the Four-Quadrant Art. Even if I go against a Grand Emperor, I won't go down so easily. I can stay to help you."

Thea's intention from the beginning was always to help James.

Her goal had remained the same since they were in Sol to the current catastrophes of the human race.

Even up to now, she hoped to fight beside James. Even if she were to die, she wanted to perish with him.

James replied solemnly, "I've learned that this Elixir Pavilion isn't the one we're looking for. Initially, I didn't want to interfere with the battle against the Sanctuary of Darkness. However, Emperor Jabari suspected that their target is us. That's why I chose to stay behind to fight.

"Listen to me, Thea. Leave first and continue gathering information about the Elixir Pavilion we need to find as well as the Ancestral God Rank Elixir. A hundred thousand years might seem like a long time, but it'll pass in the blink of an eye."

Hearing this, Thea nodded and replied, "Alright. I'll leave first."

James looked at Xainte and said, "Go back with your mother."

Xainte glanced at James and nodded silently.

"I finally got to see you after so long. At least let me stay a bit longer," said Thea.

She finally reunited with James and did not want to separate so soon.

"Mhm." James nodded.

After that, Thea temporarily stayed in the Elixir Mansion as well.

James initially planned to leave the Elixir Mansion and head toward the Desolateness Sanctuary. However, since Thea had shown up, he wanted to spend some time with her.

The two were glued together for the entire stay. They had been separated for a long time, which made them treasure their time together.

Thea stayed for about three months.

Three months later, in the courtyard, Thea took out the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword that James had previously handed to her and said, "You should have it back for now. You'll be in more danger than me. I'll feel more at ease if you have the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword."

"Alright."

James nodded and accepted the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword.

Thea did not stay any longer and left.

The Martial Reverend and Xainte also left along with her.

After watching Thea leave, James took a deep breath and murmured, "It's time I get moving as well."

Jules and Monica walked into the courtyard after seeing Thea, Xainte, and the Martial Reverend leave.

“Are you really leaving, Mr. Caden? We don’t have long before the Elixir Pavilion’s disciple recruitment conference takes place. How about you venture into the Desolateness Sanctuary after the conference?”

James smiled and said, “There are still two to three thousand years more before it occurs. That’s more than enough time. I’ll be back as soon as possible before the conference.”

Since James insisted on leaving, Jules could not help it either.

“Then, I’ll send you off.”

Afterward, Jules accompanied James out of Sky City and headed toward Elixir City.

“Take care, Mr. Caden.”

Jules waved him farewell.

“Please be careful, Sir! I’ll be waiting for your safe return in the Elixir Pavilion!” Monica also waved at James.

James said smilingly, “Alright. You two should head back.”

With a flash, James disappeared from their sight.

The next moment, he was already in the starry universe.

Then, James said, “Emperor Jabari, could you help me open up a spatial passage to save some time?”

Suddenly, a trace of energy emerged from the Celestial Abide and sank into James’ body.

James immediately felt as if his whole body was rejuvenized.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3091-“Thank you, Grand Emperor,” James expressed his gratitude while waving his hand. Powerful energy emanated from his palm, subsequently merging with the void in front of him. A crack materialized into an opening. Once James stepped into the opening, the crack disappeared along with him.

In another realm, another fissure appeared out of thin air, allowing a rather handsome man into the realm. Wearing a white robe, James walked out of the crevice. He saw stars, millions of them. Many abandoned planets were floating around. Each of them was enormous, comparable to those of the Elixir Realm. He could sense the violent energies circulating around him.

“Thump!” The sound of an explosion spread from a distance. Following the explosion, a flash of red colored the night sky. James followed the direction of the sound. A planet, devoid of humans, had just been blown into pieces, discharging violent energies. The power of that eruption was equivalent to that of someone who had attained the Grand Emperor Rank’s First Heaven. Although the distance between the planet and James was great, he felt its ferocious energy moving toward him in waves. These waves were so great that he could not control his body from swaying from left to right. Summoning the entire might of his body, he finally managed to resist the planet’s energy.

“This place is creepy.” James’ expression was grim. The Desolateness Sanctuary was one of the most dangerous places in the Boundless Realm. Even if one held the rank of Grand Emperor, they would not recklessly enter the Sanctuary. Out of all the abandoned planets that he sensed, some were destroyed and left in half, and some looked complete but were surrounded by frightening energies. In the night sky, wind blades appeared from time to time, tearing the void apart. This caused the void to be unstable, resulting in the materialization of chaotic currents in the void.

“Be careful, James. This place is no joke.” Even Emperor Jabari in the Celestial Abode was sending James a reminder. “I can sense extraordinary energy at work in this place. If I’m not mistaken, an Ancestral God must have fallen here in the Primeval Age.”

James became more cautious after hearing the Emperor’s reminder. However, at the same time, he was filled with excitement. He knew that the Ancestral God Rank was the pinnacle of what any cultivator could achieve. If someone who reached the Ancestral God rank fell here, this place must not be taken lightly. There must have been something frightening. If he stayed here for two to three thousand years, he would definitely ascend to the Divine Rank.

“Emperor, have you ever studied Ancestral Script?” James enquired.

“Yes, I’ve studied it before.” Emperor Jabari answered him.

“Did you discover anything?” James eagerly asked.

The Emperor replied, “I didn’t go too deep in terms of the Ancestral Script and can only understand the broad strokes of it. After some research and analysis of the ancient scroll, I believe its general idea is that there’s a magical place in this realm that even the Heavenly Path is unable to govern. That essentially means, once you enter that place, whatever you do will not be known by the Heavenly Path.”

“So to put it in simpler terms, that would mean a lawless space?”

“Equivalent to a place on Earth where laws do not exist.”

Once Emperor Jabari said these words, James understood immediately. If this was a place out of the Heavenly Path’s reach, then it must indeed be a place of mystique.

“But...”

Emperor Jabari interrupted and said, “I only managed to derive this out of the scroll. I still have to slowly research the rest.”
