

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3111

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3111-“Even so, it’s impossible to find who the spies are among our ranks.”

As the Old Master, Silvester was the one who established the Elixir Pavilion. Over a long period of time, many powerful individuals joined the Pavilion. As such, he had no idea who among them were spies.

James fell into deep thought. Now, the only way was to use the Curse Inscription inside his body. Only by sensing the presence of Curse Power in one’s body could he discover the spies. That was because only the Sanctuary was capable of Curse Magic in the entire Boundless Realm.

“I’ll think of a way,” James said.

James had to test things out with Jules to confirm whether the Curse Inscription could sense the presence of Curse Power. If everything went perfectly, they would organize a gathering and round up every powerful individual of the Pavilion. Meanwhile, James would remain hidden in the shadows and observe.

James voiced his thoughts.

Hearing this, Silvester nodded and said, “I guess that’s the only way.”

“I’ll be taking my leave for now. I’ll be back tomorrow for the treatment.” James said as he stood.

Helvius stood up as well and looked at Yuina, instructing her, “Yuina, show James the way out. Remember not to leak any information, is that understood?”

Yuina glanced at James and nodded, saying, “Understood.”

Yuina never expected that James would have such a back story and have to shoulder the fate of humankind on his shoulders. She also did not expect that the Elixir Pavilion would have such a history.

“This way, James.”

She made a welcoming gesture.

James nodded and turned to leave.

Soon, he arrived at the Elixir Residence in Sky City.

James returned to the accommodation he stayed in previously. Upon his arrival, Monica walked out of her room and cheered delightedly, "You're back, Master! I missed you!"

Then, she pounced on James, leaping into his embrace.

James dodged in time and walked toward a stone chair before taking his seat.

Monica grinned and took a seat beside him, asking, "When did you return, Master?"

James said, "Just now."

Yuina who was by the side asked, "Do you need anything else, James?"

James said, "Nope, you're dismissed for now. Come back tomorrow early in the morning."

"Understood." Yuina nodded and bid farewell to James before turning to leave.

Upon his return, James waited in the courtyard for Jules to appear. He did not go looking for Jules. After all, he had already been under the Sanctuary's control. As such, he could raise suspicions if he acted impulsively.

He waited for the whole day.

In the evening, Jules appeared.

"James." Jules walked in with a smile on his face, saying, "I have prepared a banquet in Elixir City to celebrate your return. Many prodigies there wish to make acquaintances with you. This includes Yulia Oscar whom you encountered previously."

James glanced at him.

At that moment, he surreptitiously catalyzed the Curse Inscription inside his body.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3112

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3112-The Curse Inscription in James' body was created through the suppression of the mysterious Jade Seal after absorbing immense Curse Power.

As he surreptitiously catalyzed Curse Inscription, Curse Power circulated throughout his body, and he stared at Jules standing before him. At that moment, he sensed the presence of Curse Power on him. Under his watchful gaze, he noticed there was a black aura attached to the surface of Jules' skin. Upon witnessing this, James was now sure that the Curse Inscription he catalyzed was capable of detecting Curse Power. Then, he silently dispersed the Curse Power inside his body.

“Will you be going?”

Jules had no idea that James had seen through him. Actually, even Jules had no idea that he was under the control of Yadranka.

James glanced at him and said, “I won’t be going. I like quiet places, not hectic places like that.”

Hearing this, Jules was dismayed.

He had gone to great lengths to welcome James’ return. Not only did he invite the prodigies of various families, but he even extended the invitation to Yulia. Once again, he missed the opportunity to have a close interaction with her. However, since James was reluctant to go, there was nothing else he could do.

“Alright, then.”

He turned to leave with a sad frown on his face.

James rested.

Soon, a day passed.

Early the next morning, Yuina appeared on time and brought James to the Pavilion’s holy site to meet Silvester and Helvius. Then, once again, James used Crucifier to heal their injuries.

“How unbelievable!”

Sensing that his Path Seal had recovered immensely, Silvester was stunned as he said, “As expected of a treasure of the Primeval Age! This is simply unbelievable!”

Helvius said, “Indeed... With Crucifier, we should be able to restore our Path Seals before the Elixir Gathering.”

James smiled and said, “I have tested things out. I can sense the presence of Curse Power by catalyzing Curse Inscription. Now, we just have to summon the powerful individuals of the Pavilion and gather them in one place. Meanwhile, I’ll observe from the sidelines to discover the spies among our ranks.”

Helvius said, “In that case, I’ll go make the necessary arrangements. I’ll organize a meeting to discuss the Elixir Gathering.”

“Mhm.”

James nodded.

Then, James discussed the next course of action with Silvester and Helvius. After the discussion, he returned to his accommodation.

Meanwhile, Helvius left his closed-door meditation and summoned the powerful individuals of the Pavilion.

In the evening, at the main hall of the Pavilion’s main peak...

Millennia ago, Helvius ordered everyone to return after they were injured. Now, all the powerful individuals of the Pavilion had gathered once more.

Tens of thousands of powerful individuals gathered in the main hall. They were the core of the Pavilion. Many of them were Grand Emperors, and even the weakest ones were at the Quasi Emperor Rank.

“What’s going on?”

“Why did the Master suddenly summon us here?”

“I don’t know.”

Before Helvius arrived, many powerful individuals gathered and discussed in whispers.

At that moment, a middle-aged man slowly walked into the main hall. Immediately, silence befell the main hall.

Benedict Oscar was among the crowd. He knew of Helvius’ injury. However, upon seeing Helvius’ great strides, he quietly muttered to himself, “What’s going on? Isn’t he injured?”

Recommended Novels