The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3113-Helvius walked into the main hall and sat on the throne.

“Everyone,” he looked at the crowd and said, “I invited you here today to discuss the upcoming Elixir Gathering. Throughout many Great Eons of development, the Elixir Pavilion has become the most powerful sect of the Boundless Realm. This unprecedented Gathering has attracted the participation of many alchemists from around the world. Though their strength is mediocre, they possess tremendous potential. If we can recruit these alchemists, the Elixir Pavilion will certainly reach even greater heights with an additional few Great Eons of development.”

Helvius’ voice boomed.

At that moment, James was behind the curtains at the back of the main hall. Silently, he catalyzed the Curse Inscription. Immediately, Curse Power circulated throughout his body.

He looked at everyone in the main hall.

Beside him was Yuina.

Under James’ watchful gaze, James realized there was Curse Power on many of the powerful individuals. This meant that they had defected to the enemy’s side.

“The one in a purple robe. That lady in red,” James said.

Meanwhile, Yuina remembered every single person James mentioned.

Once he discovered the spies, James stood up and turned to leave through the backdoor.

Meanwhile, Helvius continued the meeting.

After the meeting, everyone gradually left.

Helvius returned to the holy site at the back of Sky City, where James had been waiting for him.

Upon his return, Yuina took out the list of names and handed it to him.

As Helvius glanced at the names, a chill ran down his spine. Wearing a grim expression on his face, he said, “I never thought there would be so many spies among us. If they work with the Sanctuary from the inside at the Gathering, the Pavilion will be doomed.”

He looked at James and asked, "What do you think we should do now?"

After brief contemplation, James said, "For now, we need to neutralize them before the Gathering commences."

Wearing a grim expression on his face, Helvius said, "Neutralize? That's easier said than done. It's nigh impossible to neutralize them without arousing suspicions. Besides, the Old Master and I are injured."

James waved his hand slightly and said, "There's no need to rush things. We can discuss more when you have regained your strength."

With Crucifier, James was able to heal their injuries before the Gathering commenced.

After some contemplation, James said, "I have a question."

"What question?" Silvester asked.

James said, "After doing some research, I learned that Jules is a playboy who only has his mind on the ladies. However, not too long ago, he kept appearing at the main peaks of the Pavilion and would remain there for some time. Since he's now under the control of the Sanctuary, we need to understand what he's up to."

Jules' movements were easy to track. After all, he did not bother hiding his tracks.

"The main peaks of the Pavilion?"

Silvester froze momentarily. Then, realization dawned on his face as he said, "Could it be that his objective is to research the Mountain Formation of the Pavilion?"

After brief contemplation, James said, "It's possible."

"That scoundrel!" Helvius cursed and said, "I'll tear him to pieces!"

James hurriedly said, "Let's not act impulsively. Curse Magic is bizarre. Perhaps Jules himself has no idea that he's under the Sanctuary's influence."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3114-Helvius gradually calmed down.

James continued, "We shouldn't alert them. Since we know what Jules is up to, we have ways of dealing with him. He's observing the Formation, thinking of ways to break them.

At the pivotal moment, he would open the Formation and allow passage to the Sanctuary. In that case, we just have to secretly change the Formation.”

Silvester nodded and said, “We will have to refrain from acting recklessly. I will come here every day at precisely the same hour to heal your injuries. Once you’ve recovered, we have to find a way to neutralize the spies among our ranks before the Gathering. When the Gathering commences and the Sanctuary attacks, we will annihilate them once and for all.”

Silvester and Helvius were in agreement with James’ idea.

After the discussion, James turned to leave.

For the coming years, James would arrive on time to heal their injuries. With Crucifier’s assistance, their injuries recovered rapidly. In just a few short years, they had completely rejuvenated.

Now, only three years remained till the Elixir Gathering. Even so, alchemists from all over the world had flocked to Elixir City. Some were from the Boundless Holy Realm, whereas others came from even further beyond.

James was together with Silvester and Helvius.

“We should make our move soon.”

James sat on a chair and gently tapped the surface of the table with his finger. All these years, he would arrive at the holy site every day without fail. Thus, slowly and gradually, he had become close acquaintances with Helvius and Silvester. They would frequently discuss strategies. Now that they formulated a plan, the time had come for them to execute it.

“Mhm.”

Silvester nodded and said, “We will first make a move on Benedict Oscar and neutralize him.”

Helvius’ face darkened as he clenched his fists and said, “I never thought that Benedict would be a spy of the Sanctuary. I will definitely tear him to pieces!”

James waved slightly and said, “We’ll see once we have imprisoned him.”

Helvius said, “I will now summon Benedict here to the holy site.”

Their plan was to summon these spies to the holy site so that the Old Master could neutralize them.

James nodded slightly.

In the basement of the Oscar Residence, Benedict was sitting in a lotus position on the ground. Black sigils emerged in his surroundings, as his expression turned more and more ferocious.

Clack! Clack! Clack!

The sound of footsteps could be heard.

Then, a gorgeous lady walked in. She was wearing a red dress. Her appearance was impeccable, and her figure was flawless.

"Father," she greeted him respectfully.

Benedict's face darkened as he said coldly, "Didn't you warn you against interrupting me while I'm in a closed-door meditation?"

"Father, I have just received news from the Elixir Pavilion. The Master has something important to discuss with you at the holy site behind Sky City," Yulia said respectfully.

Hearing this, Benedict froze.

No disciple was allowed to trespass into the holy site as that was the closed-door meditation sanctuary of the Old Master.

"Why did he summon me there at this moment?" Benedict murmured to himself, "He must have summoned me to discuss matters relating to the Elixir Gathering since he's currently too injured."

Benedict did not suspect anything at all. He dispersed his aura and stood up before leaving the basement. Then, he arrived at the Elixir Pavilion, entered Sky City, and headed to its back.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3115-The guards here had been rotated out. Now, they were absolutely loyal to the Pavilion.

"Official Benedict, you have kept the Master waiting. He has instructed that you head straight toward the mountain upon your arrival," the guard said respectfully.

“Mhm.”

Wearing a composed expression on his face, Benedict strode forward.

Soon, he arrived at the peak of the mountain and saw a wooden house. Two people could be seen there, Helvius and James.

Benedict froze and thought to himself, “Why is he here?”

After collecting himself, he walked toward Helvius. As he arrived before Helvius, he clasped his fists and greeted him, “Master.”

Helvius waved slightly and said, “Have a seat.”

Benedict took a seat and glanced at James before looking at Helvius and asking, “Is something the matter, Master?”

Helvius’ expression turned grim.

“Official Benedict, how long have you joined Pavilion for?”

After some contemplation, Benedict said, “I can’t remember. A few Great Eons, I think.”

“Indeed, many Great Eons...” Helvius said grimly, “The Pavilion is in deep peril. We will be relying on you in the future.”

Hearing this, Benedict asked, “What’s wrong?”

Helvius said, “A few thousand years ago, Official Jadrank turned traitor and manipulated me into attacking the Old Master. Enraged, the Old Master retaliated and injured me. Now, both the Old Master and I are injured. Our Path Seals are broken, and they have not recovered since. Recently, I received news that Jadranka belonged to the Sanctuary of Darkness and that the Sanctuary intends to make a move on us at the Elixir Gathering. Since the Old Master and I are injured, we’ll leave the responsibility of defending the Pavilion to you and the Great Elder.”

Stunned, Benedict asked, “What?! The Old Master and you are injured?”

“Yes.” Helvius nodded.

At that moment, Silvester walked out of the wooden house ahead. His expression was surly.

Upon seeing Silvester, Benedict immediately greeted him respectfully, “Old Master.”

Silvester walked toward Benedict and patted his shoulder. Wearing a grim expression, he said, "Benedict, we'll be leaving the fate of the Pavilion in your hands."

Benedict gave his assurance, "Don't worry, Old Master. I will give my life to the Pavilion."

"Very good. I'm relieved to hear this." Silvester was delighted. His hand rested on Benedict's shoulder as he said, "The Sanctuary is terrifying. You mustn't let your guard down."

Benedict said, "The Pavilion is full of powerful individuals. If the Sanctuary dares attack, we'll annihilate them all."

The moment Benedict let his guard down, Silvester summoned his full strength and slammed his fist against his shoulder. Immediately, a crack appeared on his shoulder, which soon spread throughout his body. In an instant, there were countless cracks on Silvester's body. Meanwhile, his body collapsed to the dirt below.

"You..."

Benedict's face darkened. Enraged, he summoned immense power.

At that moment, however, Silvester slammed his palm against his chest.

After being struck twice in a row, even a Grand Emperor such as Benedict could no longer endure for much longer. Cracks had already appeared on the Path Seal inside his body.

Meanwhile, Silvester swiftly sealed away his strength.

Upon seeing this, James smiled faintly and said, "I never thought you'd be able to subdue Benedict so easily."

Helvius said smilingly, "The Old Master is a Grand Emperor at the Seventh Heaven. Who can stand against him?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3116-As a Grand Emperor, Benedict's retaliation would be catastrophic even though his Path Seal was broken. Concerned that this region could be utterly destroyed, Silvester sealed his strength away.

Benedict collapsed to the ground. There were cracks all over his body. His face was pale, and there was blood dripping from the corner of his mouth. His face was solemn as he asked coldly, "Why?"

"Hmph!"

Silvester sat down and looked at Benedict who was lying on the ground before saying coldly, "Surely you know the reason."

"A-Aren't you injured?" Benedict's face was pale.

He never thought that he would be ambushed and that Silvester's strength had recovered.

Helvius stood up and walked toward Benedict. Glancing downward, he said coldly, "Benedict Oscar, we have never mistreated you. Why did you defect to the Sanctuary?"

Benedict's face was dark. He knew that his identity was exposed. As such, he remained silent and simply glared at them.

"Didn't expect this, did you?" Helvius said, "You never expected we'd make a move on you before the Elixir Gathering commences."

"Indeed."

Benedict said coldly, "However, do you think you stand a chance against the Sanctuary just because you have subdued me? No way. The Sanctuary's might is beyond your comprehension."

James said coldly, "If the Sanctuary is as mighty as you say, they wouldn't have tried taking the Old Master out of the equation."

Then, he uttered word by word, "That's because they fear the Old Master."

Silvester did not waste his breath on Benedict. He ordered his subordinates to imprison him in secret. His fate would be determined once the Sanctuary was annihilated.

Now that Benedict, the strongest among the spies, had been dealt with, the rest was but a piece of cake. Based on their original plan, they would summon the spies here and subdue them while their guard was down. Just like that, they managed to subdue the spies effortlessly and imprison them. Now, all preparations had been made. Once the Elixir Gathering commenced, they would wait for the Sanctuary to make a move, and that would be the downfall of the Sanctuary. As for Jules, everyone put him aside for now. That was because they knew that Jules was under the influence of the Sanctuary and would open the Mountain Formation at the critical moment to allow passage to the enemy forces. Meanwhile, Silvester had already secretly changed the Formation, unbeknownst to Jules.

Since James had nothing else to do at the moment, he waited patiently for the Elixir Gathering to arrive.

In the Celestial Abode...

James appeared at the place where Emperor Jabari was in closed-door meditation and looked at the statue before him, asking, "How's your soul recovering, Grand Emperor?"

The statue came to life and transformed into a handsome-looking man. A smile crept up on Emperor Jabari's face as he said, "Very good, my soul has recovered by a lot."

Hearing this, James was relieved.

"All preparations have been made. Now, we're only waiting for the Sanctuary to appear. The Sanctuary also has a fragment of the Ancestral God Rank Elixir in his possession. Once we annihilate the Sanctuary, we can seize their elixir. Together with the elixir in the Pavilion's possession, we'll have a total of two fragments. By then, we just have to find the remaining three and my journey to the Boundless Realm will be considered mission accomplished."

Emperor Jabari said smilingly, "The Ancestral God Rank Elixir should be easy to locate. Once I regain my physical body and am resurrected, I can extrapolate the whereabouts of the other fragments."

"But..."

His smile froze.

"I don't think things will go so smoothly. Obtaining the Ancestral God Rank Elixir will be near to impossible. The Heavenly Path won't allow for this, and so does the Sanctuary."

Now that it had come to this, there was nothing else James was worried about. He said, "I guess we can only take one step at a time now."

Emperor Jabari nodded.

Then, James turned to leave.

He headed to the Time Chamber to meet Nuub.

As Nuub was a powerful fighter, he needed to borrow his strength to fight against the Sanctuary.

The moment James entered the Time Chamber, he sensed an extraordinary power shredding through the air. Even he could not approach the source of the power.

Standing in the distance, he asked, "How's it going, Nuub?"

Nuub said, "I'm almost done. I'm close to making a breakthrough. James, help me find a desolate place. I'm about to undergo a Heavenly Tribulation. After overcoming the Emperor Tribulation, I'll be a Grand Emperor at the Fifth Heaven."

"Mhm." James nodded.

Nuub left his closed-door meditation at that precise moment.

Then, James left the Celestial Abode. Borrowing Emperor Jabari's strength, he left the Elixir Pavilion and headed for the stars. Upon arriving in space, Nuub appeared.

At that moment, Nuub was exuding a powerful aura, and he was enveloped in the Path's power. The power made even James' blood run cold.

James stood in the distance and watched.

Soon, weirdly shaped Tribulation Clouds gathered in the skies, in which bolts of lightning tribulations flashed. The lightning tribulations descended from the sky and struck Nuub. At that moment, Nuub's entire body was charred. As this was an Emperor Tribulation, the lightning tribulations possessed immense power that could annihilate even a Grand Emperor.

James stood in the distance and observed. Since he had crossed into the Divine Rank, he could sense the presence of the Great Path of Heaven and Earth and the terrifying Path inside the Heavenly Tribulation.

"Is this the power of the Heavenly Path?" James murmured.

He wanted to sense the Heavenly Path. Closing his eyes, he tried perceiving. With his perception, he sensed that countless mysterious characters surrounded his body. The characters were ever-changing. In an instant, there were already billions of changes.

Boom!

Suddenly, a loud rumble boomed in James' mind. James immediately spurted out a mouthful of blood and collapsed to the ground.

“The Heavenly Path is so terrifying...” He was stunned.

At that moment, Emperor Jabari’s voice came, “This is only natural. The Heavenly Path is supreme, unrivaled. Since antiquity, no one has been able to comprehend the Heavenly Path.”

Glancing at Nuub in the distance, James took a deep breath and said, “The Heavenly Path is too mysterious and powerful. If I can gain insight into it, I’ll become the most powerful individual in the world.”

Emperor Jabari said, “Don’t even bother. No living being can cultivate the Heavenly Path, no matter how many Paths you have comprehended.”

James asked, “Grand Emperor, is the gap between an Ancestral God and the Heavenly Path huge?”

Emperor Jabari shook his head and said, “I don’t know since I have never crossed into that rank. I don’t know the answer to your question.”

“What about the Grand Emperor Rank’s Ninth Heaven and the Heavenly Path?” James asked once more.

Emperor Jabari said slowly, “Everything beneath the Heavenly Path is nothing but an ant. Back then, when I reached the peak of the Grand Emperor Rank’s Ninth Heaven and tried to make a breakthrough into the Ancestral God Rank, the Heavenly Path crushed me. That’s because ever since the Primeval Age, no living being has been allowed to cross into the Ancestral God Rank.”

Hearing this, James finally understood.

Even though the Grand Emperor Rank’s Ninth Heaven was powerful, this was nothing compared to the Heavenly Path. In that case, how would they be able to annihilate Heaven?

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3118-James thought that he would be considered a powerful figure once he crossed into the Divine Rank. After conversing with Emperor Jabari, he realized that the Divine Rank was considered weak. Even a Grand Emperor at the Ninth Heaven stood no chance against the Heavenly Path, let alone a cultivator at the Divine Rank. Since the Heavenly Path wished to annihilate humankind, James had no choice but to fight against Heaven. He knew that this journey would be a treacherous one. Regardless, he knew he had to soldier on.

Next, he concentrated on observing Nuub's tribulation.

An Emperor Tribulation was extremely terrifying. Each lightning tribulation was enough to annihilate a Grand Emperor at a similar rank. However, Nuub was extremely powerful, and he had mastered many terrifying secret Supernatural Arts. Not only that, but his blood had evolved, allowing him to resist the Heavenly Tribulation. Even so, he was in a wretched state after being relentlessly bombarded by the Heavenly Tribulation. As the Heavenly Tribulation descended, Nuub was covered in blood all over his body no matter how many tactics he had.

As the Heavenly Tribulation continued, James observed from afar.

This Heavenly Tribulation lasted for three whole months. Over the past three months, Nuub was almost turned to ashes. However, through his terrifying bloodline power, he managed to overcome the tribulation.

The Heavenly Tribulation disappeared. Standing in the void, Nuub was covered with injuries all over his body. His physical body was scarred and covered in blood, his hair was disheveled, and he was in a wretched state. However, he was laughing.

"Hahaha! Hahahahaha! Finally, I have crossed into the Grand Emperor Rank's Fifth Heaven!"

His laughter boomed.

James walked toward him and said smilingly, "Congratulations, Nuub. You have reached even greater heights. After reaching the Fifth Heaven, you will be invincible in the Boundless Realm."

Nuub catalyzed his bloodline power to heal his injuries, which recovered at a rapid pace.

Looking at James, a smile crept up on his face as he said, "I was able to make a breakthrough thanks to Aquacollis. Thank you for getting me such a great item! Otherwise, I'll never be able to cross into the Fifth Heaven in my lifetime."

"I'm glad that you made a breakthrough."

James said, "Soon, there'll be a fierce battle, and I need your help."

Nuub gave his assurance, "I promised you I'd obey your every command for the next 100,000 years. Don't worry, I'll hold up my end of the bargain."

Hearing this, James was relieved. With Silvester, a Grand Emperor at the Seventh Heaven, and Helvius and Nuub, who were at the Fifth Heaven, James was confident they could annihilate the Sanctuary this time and seize the Ancestral God Rank Elixir in their possession.

“Let’s return to Elixir City for now,” James said.

“Sure.”

Nuub did not hesitate at all. He casually waved, and powerful energy emerged from his palm and tore the void open. Then, they disappeared without a trace from space. When they reappeared, they were already outside Elixir City.

James passed through Elixir City and headed to the Elixir Pavilion. Then, he entered Sky City and the Elixir Residence.

At an accommodation at the Elixir Pavilion’s courtyard...

Upon returning to his accommodation, James stayed there for some time and did not wander about. He was waiting for the Elixir Gathering to commence. In the meantime, he made the necessary preparations. He knew that once the battle erupted, the Elixir Pavilion, Elixir City, and even the world, could be utterly destroyed. He had no idea how many would perish, but he was not Superman. The best he could do was to ensure the safety of his loved ones and acquaintances.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3119-Before the Elixir Gathering’s commencement, he had brought Monica and Yevpraksiya, the subordinate he had taken from the Stardust Realm, into the Celestial Abode, where they would remain for some time.

Time passed.

In the blink of an eye, the day of the Gathering had arrived.

Countless powerful individuals and forces of the Boundless Realm had been invited. At that moment, the Elixir Pavilion was open to all. Under the guidance of the disciples of the Elixir Pavilion, these guests entered the Pavilion and arrived at the main peak. Meanwhile, powerful individuals and alchemists gathered in Elixir City.

At that moment, a radiant light glimmered above Sky City. Then, a man appeared in mid-air.

It was Helvius Daniela, the current Master of the Elixir Pavilion.

“Helvius has appeared!”

“Helvius, the current Master of the Pavilion, is a Grand Emperor at the Fifth Heaven.”

“Is he the most powerful individual of the Pavilion?”

Countless gazes were fixed on Helvius, who was hovering in mid-air.

The Pavilion was a cultivation holy site for many alchemists, and Helvius Daniela was their idol. Upon his appearance, a sensation was created.

Standing in mid-air, Helvius glanced at the Elixir Pavilion, gazing at the countless individuals and alchemists from around the world. Then, a smile crept up on his face.

“Welcome to the Elixir Pavilion!” his voice boomed.

“The Elixir Pavilion has been in existence for many long years. Today, we have invited powerful individuals from all over the world for the discipleship examination. However, before the examination, there’ll be an Elixir Gathering. In this Gathering, the Pavilion will sell the elixirs we have accumulated at a low price as a way of giving back to society.”

Hearing this, the crowd cheered.

Many powerful individuals were tempted.

Elixirs were worth a fortune, and Divine Rank and Emperor Rank Elixirs especially were priceless. Now that the Pavilion was selling them at a low price, this was the perfect opportunity. Every cultivator was looking forward to the Elixir Gathering.

“The Elixir Gathering will be held here in the Pavilion for three days.”

Helvius’ voice boomed.

“In those three days, there will be elixir pharmacies on the many peaks of the mountains here at the Pavilion. Our alchemists will be selling the elixirs we have prepared beforehand. Feel free to purchase whatever you need.”

After briefly saying a few words, Helvius disappeared from view and returned to the holy site.

At that moment, there were many people there—Silvester, James, and Nuub.

Helvius descended from the sky and looked at James and the others, smirking, “The Elixir Gathering has finally begun. Now, we just have to wait for the Sanctuary to appear to annihilate them all in one fell swoop.”

“Mhm.” James nodded slightly. Wearing a grim expression, he said, “But there are alchemists from all over the world gathered in Elixir City. As their strength is weak, I’m concerned they would be killed instantly the moment battle erupts.”

Silvester said, “We have made the necessary arrangements. I have set up a powerful Formation in Elixir City. The moment the Sanctuary appears and a battle erupts, this Formation will immediately activate. Elixir City will then be transported to a safe region instantly.”

James knew about the plans they made. However, the Sanctuary was too mysterious and powerful. Even though they had formulated a well-thought-out plan, he was nonetheless worried. However, since things had already come to this, he could take one step at a time.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3120-The Gathering had begun. Meanwhile, James and the others waited patiently for the Sanctuary to arrive.

At the same time, many elixir pharmacies appeared on the main peaks of the Pavilion. Each elixir pharmacy was managed by an Elder of the Pavilion, and they sold all kinds of elixirs. The weakest were Divine Rank Elixirs, and each of them was rare and priceless. There were even Emperor Rank Elixirs being sold at some of the main peaks. The cultivators all began to choose the elixirs they needed.

At that moment, a group of mysterious people in black silently appeared outside the Elixir Realm. In the lead was a young man about twenty-five years of age. Wearing a black robe, he was somewhat handsome-looking. However, he was enveloped in a black aura that seemed malicious and malevolent.

He was Tamuuz Darkness, the Deputy Master of the Sanctuary. As the core member of the Sanctuary, he was in the loop of all plans in the Sanctuary. Besides that, he possessed immense power and was at the Grand Emperor Rank’s Seventh Heaven, a rank similar to Silvester Daniela, the Old Master of the Pavilion. Not only that, but he practiced Curse Magic, which was both malevolent and terrifying. Faced against Grand Emperors of a similar rank, even if he could not overwhelm his enemies, he would not be easily defeated either.

There were many people behind him—the Chancellor and even Jimmu Melqart. Those who followed Tamuuz were at least Sect Elders of the Sanctuary, and even the weakest were at the Grand Emperor Rank.

Behind Tamuuz, meanwhile, were 300 men. This meant that the Sanctuary had mobilized 300 Grand Emperors for this occasion.

As they appeared, huge airships appeared in the void. Each of them carried many powerful individuals at the Quasi Emperor Rank. To annihilate the Elixir Pavilion, the Sanctuary had given its all.

“When will we make a move, Master?”

The Chancellor approached him and asked humbly.

Though the Chancellor was the one who formulated the strategies, he was nonetheless extremely subservient toward this mysterious Deputy Leader.

The Deputy Leader, on the other hand, had a grim expression on his face. He said slowly, “Something’s not quite right. None of our men who infiltrated the Elixir Pavilion is responding.”

The Deputy Leader tried contacting the spies he inserted among the Pavilion’s ranks to no avail. It made him wary.

Swoosh!

At that moment, a ball of black aura emerged. The black aura gradually formed a humanoid shape. Then, a woman with a curvaceous figure appeared before Tamuuz.

“Deputy Leader,” Jadranka greeted him respectfully.

Tamuuz asked, “What’s the situation inside? Are there any anomalies?”

Jadranka said, “After I manipulated Helvius into attacking Silvester, Helvius was also injured as well. Now, the two most powerful figures of the Elixir are severely injured. Their strength will be diminished in a fight. Over the past two thousand years, I scouted the restricted areas of the Pavilion to learn more about their Formation. Now, we can open the Mountain Formation anytime we want. In the meantime, the Elixir Pavilion has summoned its powerful members dispersed all around the world. Other than that, everything’s business as usual.”

As Jadranka had been secretly manipulating Jules, she knew the Pavilion inside-out and that there were no anomalies within the Pavilion.
