The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3131-A fierce battle had erupted in this region.

Cultivators from the Sanctuary of Darkness and cultivators from the Elixir Pavilion were engaged in a life-and-death struggle.

Without waiting for James' instruction, Nico took action. He instantly rushed to a Quasi-Emperor, grabbed this Quasi-Emperor, and ripped them apart casually.

Blood and flesh were strewn about in an instant. The Quasi-Emperor's soul fled quickly.

However, how would a Quasi-Emperor have a chance to escape when faced against a Grand Emperor Rank's Fifth Heaven?

Nico struck and annihilated a Quasi-Emperor with ease.

James was standing in the air, holding the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword. He had a magnificent aura about him. It was extremely terrifying.

He looked around. In his surroundings, fierce combats had erupted.

The fights between Silvester and Tamuuz, as well as Helvius and Jadranka, were the most intense.

All of them were extremely powerful cultivators. Every movement they made could unleash forces with the potential to cause significant destruction.

The conflict kept escalating. Soon, it spread across half of the Elixir Realm.

The region continued to be destroyed.

While James was focused on the battle, a powerful cultivator from the Sanctuary of Darkness quietly appeared behind him. This powerful cultivator was a cultivator at Grand Emperor Rank's Second Heaven.

After this Grand Emperor appeared, they raised their arm, and an inscription manifested in their palm. This inscription quickly formed into a frightening longsword.

Carrying an unmatched force, the longsword charged toward James.

James sensed the danger immediately. He quickly turned around, and a longsword with an unusual power swept over him the moment he turned.

He raised the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword in his hand, casually waved it around, and a Sword Light burst forth.

The longsword and Sword Light instantly collided.

Boom!

The moment they collided, the sky exploded.

In the sky, a massive crack appeared. As it continued to grow, the crack spread across millions of kilometers.

A crack millions of kilometers long appeared in the sky. An extremely terrifying Sword Path Energy manifested from the crack. The Sword Path Energy swooped down, and the areas shrouded by the crack were instantly destroyed.

This was how terrifying cultivators at the Grand Emperor Rank were.

Although the Elixir Realm was the most powerful world and had a very durable space, it was also destroyed.

After they fought, James felt a terrifying force rushing toward him. His body was struck by this force, and he kept moving backward.

His physical body was very strong. A cultivator at Grand Emperor Rank's Second Heaven could not destroy his physical body.

Regardless, this force was too powerful. He was jolted backward several hundred thousand kilometers before he finally got rid of this force.

'So powerful.'

James was secretly astonished.

When he was astonished, the Grand Emperor who had struck him appeared in front of James once again.

Before James could react, thousands upon thousands of Sword Energies appeared all around him. Every Sword Energy was formed from sword-fighting inscriptions and carried dreadful force.

Countless Sword Energies formed a net of blades around his body. He was surrounded by the net of blades.

"Hmph." James huffed.

With the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword in hand, his body and the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword appeared to form a straight line. He charged forward. The Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword in his hand unleashed an extremely terrifying force.

The net of Sword Energies ahead was destroyed continuously. In an instant, the net of blades was shattered.

James and his sword appeared in front of the Grand Emperor and he pierced through his body.

However, after piercing his body, his body vanished on the spot.

Only then did James realize that it was an afterimage the Grand Emperor had left.

Before James could react, a frightful force approached him from behind. This force was crashing down on him like a world. He could feel the weight of this region's space growing heavier by the second.

Suddenly, before he could adjust, his body was crushed and fell from the sky, and he crashed hard into the ruins on the ground.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3132-James had only previously fought against an extremely powerful cultivator in the Cursed World when his strength erupted.

He lacked experience fighting extremely powerful cultivators. Due to his carelessness, his body was struck and fell from the sky, landing hard on the ground.

However, that was about it.

His physical body was unique. In the entire Sanctuary of Darkness, only a handful of individuals were able to break his physical body's defenses and harm him.

He climbed up from the ruins on the ground, reached out, and patted away the layer of dust on his body.

Whoosh!

During this time, an unrivaled Sword Energy descended from the sky.

Boom!

Sword Energy instantly destroyed the area where James was.

A deep pit of a million kilometers in circumference appeared on the ground.

James was in a sorry sight as he dragged himself out of the deep pit on the ground. The current him appeared disheveled.

“You’ve angered me!” James roared.

He shot up into the sky, wielding the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword. At this moment, a powerful Sword Intent manifested from his body. This Sword Intent was like a raging fire, scorching the sky.

With the buff of the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword, this Sword Intent became extremely terrifying. Though the opponent was a cultivator at Grand Emperor Rank’s Second Heaven, they trembled in fear.

While carrying the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword, James headed straight for this Grand Emperor.

In the eyes of the Grand Emperor, they saw James charging at them carrying the sword. James did not use any Sword Moves, but in the eyes of this Grand Emperor, he had performed innumerable sword techniques.

Every sword technique was an unrivaled sword technique.

“This?”

The cultivator was shocked. They hesitated slightly.

James’ sword had already arrived the moment they hesitated.

Nonetheless, at this crucial moment, this Grand Emperor broke out of their trance. A longsword appeared in their hand, blocking James’ attack.

Crack!

The longsword in their hand immediately snapped from the impact.

The terrifying Sword Path Energy directly struck this Grand Emperor’s body.

Dreadful Sword Energy entered their body, and their body was immediately sent flying. Sword Energy thrashed around in their body before exploding in an instant. Half of their body was blown apart.

However, that was all.

Although James’ strength was powerful and his swordsmanship was terrifying, he was only at the first Consolidation. He could not annihilate a cultivator at the Grand Emperor Rank’s Second Heaven with a single strike of his sword.

This Grand Emperor quickly moved backward. When they were moving backward, they used their strength, and their wounds were constantly repaired.

Nonetheless, cracks had already appeared on their Path Seal. The wounds on their body could heal quickly, but recovering their Path Seal would be difficult.

“So troublesome.”

The Grand Emperor had a grave expression.

At this moment, James arrived once again. He continued to attack the Grand Emperor.

Afterimages kept appearing all around them. As each silhouette emerged, their body was struck with a blade. Within a short amount of time, their body was struck with thousands of blades. Their body was riddled with gaping wounds.

James’ comprehension of the Sword Path was only at the first Consolidation.

Even so, with the strength of Emperor Jabari and the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword, he completely crushed the cultivator at Grand Emperor Rank’s Second Heaven.

In the beginning, the cultivator at Grand Emperor Rank’s Second Heaven moved to repel his attacks. Later, however, the cultivator at Grand Emperor Rank’s Second Heaven was attacked to the point where they were unable to fight back.

James was fighting, but he was also pondering.

The death of a cultivator at Grand Emperor Rank’s Second Heaven would have no effect on the state of the conflict.

To completely destroy the Sanctuary of Darkness, he had to first annihilate the leader.

He opened up his Divine Sense. His Divine Sense continued to spread throughout the entire Elixir Realm. However, he did not find Silvester and Tamuuz.

“In outer space.”

The voice of Emperor Jabari came from within the Celestial Abode.

“Got it,” James responded.

Emperor Jabari was aware of James’ thoughts. He knew what he wanted to do. He reminded him, “Be careful. Even though your physical body has reached the Grand Emperor Rank’s Fifth Heaven, your opponent is at the Grand Emperor Rank’s Seventh Heaven after all. He can easily destroy the defenses of your physical body. Even if you don’t die, you’ll be severely injured after getting hit.”

James smiled faintly and said, "Don't worry, Your Majesty."

He had a lot of tricks up his sleeve.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3133-Moreover, he was only going to assist Silvester. He was not going to engage in a fight to the death with Tamuuz directly.

James stopped attacking this cultivator, who was at Grand Emperor Rank's Second Heaven. With a flash, he appeared outside the Elixir Realm.

As soon as James appeared in the vast outer space outside the Elixir Realm, an extremely terrifying force descended upon him. This force was slamming against his physical body. Although his physical body had reached Grand Emperor Rank's Fifth Heaven, fine cracks appeared on his body. Blood kept seeping out. In an instant, he was covered in blood.

'What a terrifying force.'

James was astonished. The mere shockwaves from the fight harmed his physical body. It would be terrible if he was struck head-on.

After taking a deep breath, he focused his thoughts. One hundred and eight Infinity Steles appeared around his body.

A hundred and eight Infinity Steles circled his body, forming an extremely powerful formation. He was in the formation formed by the Infinity Steles.

Previously, in the Cursed World, he relied on the Infinity Stele Formation to resist and absorb the Chancellor's Curse Power attacks.

The Infinity Steles continued to rotate. As they rotated, they released an ancient and primal force that formed a powerful magnetic field. The magnetic field blocked the shockwaves from the battle in the distance.

The Infinity Stele was a divine object that had existed since the beginning of the universe.

Such a divine object held shocking secrets. However, James had a limited understanding of the Infinity Stele. Sophie had only taught him a little previously. With what little he had learned, he was able to form a powerful formation with the Infinity Stele.

Once he had completely understood the Infinity Stele, it would be quite frightening.

A terrifying battle was raging far away in outer space.

Silvester and Tamuuz were engaged in a fierce battle.

As the battle went on, Tamuuz became more and more shocked.

'Wasn't Silvester injured? Didn't his Path Seal show damage? How is he still capable of releasing such powerful strength? Can his Path Seal support him to fight with such ferocity?'

Nonetheless, at this precise moment, he sensed the aura of a cultivator approaching.

He struck his palm against Silvester's.

Boom!

Where their palms collided, a dot appeared in space. This dot grew instantly. In a flash, a spatial rift the size of a planet appeared.

Tamuuz backed away quickly.

After retreating far away, he noticed the appearance of James.

When he saw the one hundred and eight mystical steles floating around James, he could not help but be taken aback.

"What's this?"

He was at Grand Emperor Rank's Seventh Heaven and was both experienced and knowledgeable, but he was unaware of the history of the Infinity Stele. He could only sense that these steles were enigmatic.

James appeared in front of Silvester.

At this moment, Silvester's hair was unkempt. He looked like a mess. Clearly, he did not have the upper hand when battling Tamuuz.

"I'll help you," said James.

Silvester reminded him, "Be careful. His Curse Magic is too terrifying. Even I wouldn't dare to be careless."

James smiled faintly. He was terrified of everything except Curse Magic.

A cold voice rang out, "Brat, you have a death wish."

As the cold voice came, thousands of inextricably linked black auras rushed through the vast outer space, straight for the Infinity Steles.

The Infinity Steles continued to circle around, obstructing thousands of inextricably linked black auras. Even though they managed to block them, the impacts tipped some Infinity Steles.

James, who was in the Infinity Stele Formation, sensed a terrifying force approaching through the formation. It collided with his body, and tiny cracks appeared on him.

However, that was all. With the Infinity Steles blocking most of it, the remaining force was insufficient to completely annihilate James.

'What?'

When Tamuuz saw this, he could not help but be apprehensive.

At this moment, James catalyzed Elemental Inversion. The Five Elements of Genesis manifested within his body. With the exertion of James' strength, they were gathered together by force.

Elemental Inversion manifested Elemental Power. Five types of power were intertwined and layered with one another. With the addition of the five treasures that were the Five Elements of Genesis, they formed a massive wheel.

When the wheel appeared, the sky and earth shifted. The vast expanse of outer space began to shake as well.

"What's this?"

Tamuuz stared as he continued to back away, having sensed an extremely terrifying force. Even he was shaken and terrified by it.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3134-The Five Elements of Genesis manifested Elemental Power.

Although James' understanding of the Five Elements was still in its early stages, the Five Elements of Genesis were the most powerful Genesis since the beginning of the universe.

Currently, under the exertion of the Elemental Inversion, the Five Elements of Genesis formed an unrivaled wheel.

The wheel was massive, hanging horizontally in the vast outer space. The interior of the wheel was Elemental Power. Elemental Power had merged to create an extremely terrifying force.

James had yet to know what kind of force this was.

He only knew that the wheel formed by the Five Elements of Genesis was terrifying.

When Silvester witnessed this, he was slightly stunned.

“What’s this?” He cast an odd look at James.

James, on the other hand, looked serene.

Previously, in the Cursed World, he resisted the Chancellor with the Elemental Wheel and stalled for time. This enabled him to defeat the Chancellor.

Even the Chancellor, who was equivalent to being in Grand Emperor Rank’s Ninth Heaven, feared the Elemental Wheel, let alone Tamuuz, who was in Grand Emperor Rank’s Seventh Heaven.

When Tamuuz was secretly astonished, the Elemental Wheel flew out quickly, seemingly appearing in front of Tamuuz in an instant. The enormous wheel was charging at him with a strange force.

This space had already been sealed off at this moment. Tamuuz wanted to dodge, but it was already too late. He could only passively defend himself.

He exerted all his might, then raised his hands with great force. Within his palms, boundless black energies formed. These black energies quickly gathered and formed strange black characters.

Every character possessed shocking power. They quickly gathered and formed a wall above Tamuuz’s head.

With an all-powerful force, the Elemental Wheel charged over. Space was constantly blown apart wherever it went. The scene was horrifying.

Boom!

The Elemental Wheel slammed into the wall formed by the black characters.

A powerful explosion rang out at this precise moment.

The sound was deafening and echoed throughout the entire outer space. Even the inner region of the Elixir Realm in the distance heard the intense noise and sensed the approach of a terrifying force.

Under the crushing of the Elemental Wheel, the defense wall formed by Tamuuz was instantly shattered into countless black energies and dissipated.

Tamuuz recoiled. His body could not help but fall backward, and he appeared in the distance.

“Damn it.”

His expression was frighteningly grave. He now believed what the Chancellor had said.

Tamuuz believed James was the mysterious cultivator who had foiled the Sanctuary of Darkness’ plan in the Cursed World.

“What is this exactly?”

He was experienced and knowledgeable, but he did not know of the Elemental Wheel’s history. He was aware that the plan to destroy the Elixir Pavilion would fail in the presence of James. The thought of escaping had entered his mind, as the force of the Elemental Wheel was too powerful.

If the fight continued in this manner, he would be hurt.

Silvester seemed to have noticed Tamuuz’s desire to stop fighting zealously. At this moment, he appeared behind Tamuuz. With a raise of his hand, a handprint formed from the interweaving of inscriptions descended and attacked Tamuuz with great force.

This handprint was made up of intertwined inscriptions. It possessed tremendous power and was extremely destructive.

Tamuuz did not dare to be careless. He raised his hand and cast Curse Magic. Curse Power gathered in his palm and started to strike back.

Rumble...

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3135-In this outer space, extremely powerful forces collided and destroyed the void continuously.

Tamuuz and Silvester were at the same rank. They both had a similar level of understanding of the Path. However, Tamuuz cultivated Curse Magic. Curse Magic was very peculiar. He was more powerful than Silvester.

Nonetheless, with James' addition, it was now different.

James was in the distance, wielding the Elemental Wheel and launching lethal attacks on Tamuuz. Simultaneously, Infinity Steles were constantly manifesting and slamming toward Tamuuz with mighty force.

Although James did not fully comprehend the Infinity Steles, when used with his current strength, they were the most powerful heavy weapons in the universe. Each Infinity Stele weighed more than a world.

The Infinity Steles slammed toward Tamuuz. Even Tamuuz could not withstand them.

In the Celestial Abode, Emperor Jabari was watching the battle as well.

Emperor Jabari was once a powerful cultivator at the peak of the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven. He had been on countless expeditions, charged into many dangerous places, encountered many dangers, and fought numerous battles.

"Even though the Five Elements of Genesis are terrifying, James did not gain insight into the Elemental Path. He can only draw on the Five Elements of Genesis' power to confront his opponent. I'm afraid this won't be enough to completely annihilate them."

Emperor Jabari could tell that the Elemental Wheel formed from the Five Elements of Genesis was frightening.

Regardless, James did not cultivate the Elemental Path. He could not fully utilize the Five Elements of Genesis and Elemental Inversion.

He was assisting the battle from the sidelines and could only trouble Tamuuz. Even if he could hurt Tamuuz, killing him was too difficult.

Silvester, on the other hand, was about the same level as Tamuuz. It was extremely difficult for him to kill Tamuuz as well. It was simple to pick a winner between cultivators of the same rank, but it was much more difficult if it was a battle to the death.

Right now, the only way to end the battle quickly was for him to intervene.

Emperor Jabari was contemplating whether he should get involved.

If he intervened this time, it would not be as simple as the last time he took action and injured Kai. If he struck this time, he would use a superior Path. This would undoubtedly catch the attention of the Heavenly Path.

"Nowadays, the Heavenly Path is in disarray. The Heavenly Path might not be able to detect my presence."

Emperor Jabari began to sense the Heavenly Path once more.

He could sense that the Heavenly Path of the Elixir Realm was in complete chaos. Far too many uncertainties had appeared.

After he had an idea, Emperor Jabari said, “James, find a chance to get close to Tamuuz. I’ll step in and deliver a fatal blow to him. However, after striking, I may expend all of my current Soul Power. I’m afraid I’ll go into a deep sleep once again after I step in this time.”

When James heard that, he immediately asked, “Are you sure you can kill him with a single blow?”

Emperor Jabari said, “I’m not sure. In my prime, I was only at the Grand Emperor Rank’s Ninth Heaven. The opponent is at Grand Emperor Rank’s Seventh Heaven. If it’s during my prime, I’m sure I can kill him with a single blow.

“But I’m just a soul state. My strength is very weak. Catalyzing an extremely potent Path with weak strength will not be able to kill a Seventh Heaven Grand Emperor. It can only seriously injure them at best.”

“Serious injuries will be enough,” James said, “Silvester is present as well. He’s also a Seventh Heaven Grand Emperor. As long as the opponent is severely injured, Silvester will definitely be able to kill them here.”

James was conversing with Emperor Jabari.

After a brief discussion, James quickly moved closer and entered the battlefield.

As soon as he appeared, Tamuuz noticed him.

By this point in the battle, Tamuuz had also figured out James. He learned that James’ strength was not very powerful. It was just that his treasures were impressive.

During James’ appearance, the Elemental Wheel smashed at Tamuuz.

“F*ck off!” Tamuuz was furious. He used Curse Magic to forcefully resist the Five Elements of Genesis wheel, sending it flying with his strike.

Although he sent it flying, he bore the attack of the Elemental Wheel forcibly. He was jolted, and his Blood Energy seethed. His blood was raging. He could not help but spat out a mouthful of blood.

During this time, James had already moved closer to Tamuuz.

Slabs of Infinity Steles around him were flung at him.

With the black Imperial Weapon in hand, Tamuuz struck back relentlessly, repelling every Infinity Stele thrown at him.

During this period, he caught a sliver of a chance, traversed a gap between the Infinity Steles, and quickly appeared in front of James. The Imperial Weapon in his hand was aimed squarely at James' head.

"James, be careful," Silvester warned loudly.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3136-As a powerful cultivator at Grand Emperor Rank's Seventh Heaven, Silvester could sense James' true fighting strength as well.

James only possessed impressive treasures. His true strength was not very powerful.

When he gave his warning, it was already too late.

With the Imperial Weapon in hand, Tamuuz had already crossed through a gap between the Infinity Steles and appeared in front of James in an instant.

It was very difficult for James to get close to Tamuuz.

What he intended to do was to expose a weak point and make Tamuuz approach him on his own.

"Die."

Tamuuz had arrived. When he roared out the word 'die', he had already lunged at James with the sword in his hand.

James did not dodge. At this critical moment, he raised his hand.

Right now, Emperor Jabari, who was in the Celestial Abode, had already taken action.

Emperor Jabari exerted all his might and performed his own Path. He was a Seventh Heaven Grand Emperor in his prime and had been in the Grand Emperor Rank for countless years. He mastered various cultivation paths, fused them, and created his own Path.

His Path was the Infinity Path.

The Infinity Path was the force after the fusion.

The moment James raised his hand, thousands of inscriptions manifested from his palm. Countless inscriptions merged and formed the Infinity Path. Through his palm, terrifying Infinity Power manifested.

The black Imperial Weapon in Tamuuz's hand struck James' palm.

Under normal circumstances, a cultivator at Grand Emperor Rank's Second Heaven would be unable to withstand this attack.

Even if their physical strength was comparable to that of a Fifth Heaven Grand Emperor, when confronted with an attack with the full force of a Seventh Heaven Grand Emperor, their body would be pierced through.

However, James' palm blocked this terrifying strike of the blade.

Tamuuz felt his sword being blocked by a mysterious force. He exerted all of his strength, but he could not move forward even slightly.

At this precise moment, an extremely terrifying force came through his blade. This force spread through his entire body. In an instant, his arms split open, and the cracks spread throughout his body.

His physical body was destroyed in an instant, exploding into countless chunks of flesh. His spirit was left to flee in haste.

It escaped into the distance. He focused his thoughts, and a fragment of his physical body quickly grew, transforming into a new physical body in an instant.

This was the terrifying aspect of a Seventh Heaven Grand Emperor. As long as there was a drop of blood left, he would be able to reconstruct his physical body.

Though his physical body was reconstructed, Tamuuz's expression was unusually grim. Currently, he was suffering from severe injuries that were unprecedented. His Path Seal was riddled with holes and could disintegrate at any moment.

"What is this Path?" He looked at James gravely.

"The Infinity Path." James enunciated each word.

"What a fantastic Infinity Path." Tamuuz's fists were clenched. On his face, veins swelled.

"James, back away quickly. My strength can no longer support you in battle. Leave the rest of the battle to Silvester," the voice of Emperor Jabari came from the Celestial Abode.

His voice was very weak.

Clearly, he had used up all of his strength in order to step in and seriously injure Tamuuz. It took him a while to finally regain a little of his strength. After this battle, Emperor Jabari would fall into a deep sleep again.

James could feel his own strength dissipating rapidly. He dared not be careless and backed away quickly.

If Tamuuz seized an opportunity once his strength dissipated, he would be doomed.

“Silvester, I’ll let you handle the rest,” James yelled as he backed away.

“Got it. Leave it to me,” Silvester replied.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3137-He knew that Tamuuz was already injured. Moreover, he was severely injured. It had a significant impact on his fighting ability.

“Damn it.”

Tamuuz’s expression was grim and frightening.

He noticed Silvester approaching him with an attack. His body instantly transformed into thousands of strands of black energy. These black energies fled in all directions.

After that, they completely vanished from this vast outer space.

“James, regardless of your origin, you will perish as you oppose the Sanctuary of Darkness.”

Tamuuz had vanished from this vast outer space, but his enraged roar still rang through this region.

James had already retreated to the edge of the Elixir Realm.

After retreating to this location, Emperor Jabari’s strength completely vanished. The strength in his body had weakened and returned to Divine Power. His physical strength had also faded into his body.

With a grave expression, Silvester rushed over and said, “When a powerful cultivator at the Grand Emperor Rank’s Seventh Heaven wants to flee, no one can stop him.”

James wore a disappointed expression on his face.

Emperor Jabari had exhausted all his strength in order to seriously injure Tamuuz. However, he never expected Tamuuz to abandon countless cultivators of the Sanctuary of Darkness and flee.

At this point, James was at his wits' end.

He looked at Silvester and said, "I'm not going to get involved with the battle in the Elixir Realm. The rest is up to you. The most powerful cultivator of the Sanctuary of Darkness has already fled. The rest won't be a problem. You should be able to quickly alleviate the battle.

"Remember to capture them alive if you can. Right now, we know far too little about the Sanctuary of Darkness. It would be fantastic if we could get some leads about it from these cultivators."

"Got it." Silvester nodded. He did not hesitate and quickly entered the Elixir Realm.

This time, the Sanctuary of Darkness had dispatched hundreds of Grand Emperors and countless Quasi-Emperors.

The goal was to completely obliterate the Elixir Pavilion.

The battle of the Elixir Pavilion had already spread throughout the entire world.

After Tamuuz fled, Silvester did not linger in outer space. He returned to the Elixir Realm to aid Helvius in battle.

Helvius was engaged in a fierce battle with Jadranka. Both of them had similar ranks. They were an equal match and could not do anything to each other.

With the addition of Silvester, the situation was different.

With the help of Silvester, a Seventh Heaven Grand Emperor, Jadranka was soon defeated. She wanted to escape as well. However, this time, Silvester was on guard. When Jadranka wanted to flee, he had already sealed off the space in advance, preventing her from tearing open the void and escaping.

Jadranka was captured alive, and her cultivation base was sealed.

After Jadranka was captured alive, Helvius and Silvester had their hands free to deal with the other cultivators of the Sanctuary of Darkness.

Plus, there was Nico, a powerful cultivator in Grand Emperor Rank's Fifth Heaven. The Sanctuary of Darkness cultivators suffered defeat after defeat. Many of them were killed. The rest were all captured alive.

This battle to obliterate the Elixir Pavilion by the Sanctuary of Darkness began and ended quickly.

In less than ten days, half of the Sanctuary of Darkness cultivators were killed in battle. The rest were all captured alive.

James was in outer space and did not enter.

After losing Emperor Jabari's strength, he dared not get close to the battlefield at all. If he got close, any Quasi-Emperor could take his life.

After the battle was over, he finally appeared in the Elixir Pavilion.

The Elixir Pavilion had been completely demolished. Countless scenic wonders of mountains and rivers were destroyed. Sky City had also fallen into ruins. There was nowhere in the Elixir Pavilion that was unharmed.

In the ruins of the Elixir Pavilion, the Elixir Pavilion cultivators who had experienced an intense battle were all seated in the lotus position, carefully tending to their injuries.

Some of the Elixir Pavilion's main powerhouses gathered.

James appeared on the ruins. As soon as he appeared, Silvester walked over.

James took a quick scan of his surroundings. When he saw that this area had turned into ruins, he could not help but ask, "How is the battle situation?"

Silvester sighed and said, "The Elixir Pavilion suffered a great loss during this battle. Many of our disciples were killed in battle. There have been numerous casualties among powerful cultivators in the rank of Sect Elders as well. However, this time, we prevailed. Many Sanctuary of Darkness cultivators were eliminated. The rest were all captured.

"It's just a pity that the most powerful cultivator from the Sanctuary of Darkness escaped." James sighed as well. Tamuuz's escape concerned him greatly. Once Tamuuz's injuries healed, he would definitely make a comeback.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3138-The battle this time could be considered a complete victory. They had completely destroyed the Sanctuary of Darkness at a minuscule cost.

The only regret was that Tamuuz had escaped.

Following the battle, the Elixir Pavilion began to tally the Elixir Realm's casualties.

Although some sects and families of the Elixir Realm had left with their disciples before the battle began, there were some who did not. Those who did not leave were caught up in the battle, and they all died in it.

While tallying the casualties, the Elixir Pavilion also began its reconstruction.

Rebuilding the Elixir Pavilion was not a big deal to them, as all Elixir Pavilion cultivators were extremely powerful. It was too easy to reconstruct the Elixir Pavilion.

Before rebuilding the Elixir Pavilion, the Elixir Pavilion first repaired an underground prison and imprisoned the Sanctuary of Darkness cultivators who had been captured there.

James was eager to get some leads about the Sanctuary of Darkness.

In the underground prison, James went to the prison cell where the Chancellor was being held first.

James looked at the Chancellor.

The Chancellor currently had unkempt hair and appeared wretched. His face was wrinkled, with only a layer of skin remaining. Even his bones were visible.

James walked into the cell. When the Chancellor saw James appear, he could not help but tremble. He was truly beaten to the point of trauma.

"We meet again." James waved his hand casually, and a chair appeared. He sat in the chair, looking at the Chancellor, who was on the verge of death on the ground and smiled faintly.

The Chancellor stared at James.

James said nonchalantly, "You're probably aware of what happens when you fall into my hands. If I want you to die, you won't be able to live through tomorrow."

The Chancellor looked at James and took a deep breath. He was aware of the Sanctuary of Darkness' demise.

When the Sanctuary of Darkness besieged the Elixir Pavilion this time, far too many powerful cultivators were dispatched. Except for the most enigmatic Master, nearly the entire force was dispatched. Nonetheless, the entire army was defeated.

“What do you want to know?” The Chancellor asked.

James smiled. He did not expect the Chancellor to be so pragmatic.

“I want to know all the secrets of the Sanctuary of Darkness.”

The Chancellor started to ponder. After quite a while, he finally said, “I also don’t know much about the Sanctuary of Darkness.”

“You don’t know?” James furrowed his brow.

The Chancellor said hurriedly, “I don’t know much.”

“Then what do you know?” James asked.

The Chancellor said, “I’ve been a member of the Sanctuary of Darkness for quite some time. Since I’m proficient in the Extrapolation Path, I became the Chancellor of the Sanctuary of Darkness and assisted the Sanctuary of Darkness in strategizing and planning.

“I only know that the Sanctuary of Darkness is a force from the Primeval Age.”

The Chancellor started to get lost in his thoughts. After some time, he finally continued, “During the Primeval Age, a world-shaking event occurred in the universe. Human Ancestral Gods wanted to destroy the Heavenly Path and establish a new system.

“The Sanctuary of Darkness came into being during that time period. In my understanding, the first Master of the Sanctuary of Darkness was a Heaven’s Adjudicator.”

Upon hearing that, James was shocked. The Sanctuary of Darkness was indeed targeting him, just as he had suspected.

The Chancellor went on, “The first Master of the Sanctuary of Darkness was a Heaven’s Adjudicator. Back then, the Boundless Realm was sealed off, and the influence of the Sanctuary of Darkness invaded the Boundless Realm unnoticed.

“As to why the Sanctuary of Darkness wanted to infiltrate the Boundless Realm, I have no idea.”

After listening up until this point, James asked, “Last time, in the Eidolon Realm’s Cursed World, which prominent figure was the Sanctuary of Darkness making a fuss about trying to resurrect?”

The Chancellor shook his head slightly and said, “I-I’m not sure. I only know that it was an extremely powerful cultivator of the Sanctuary of Darkness. If my guess is correct, they should be a Heaven’s Adjudicator.”

“What other secrets do you know about the Sanctuary of Darkness?”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3139-“James, I really don’t know anything else. The Master holds all the Sanctuary of Darkness’ secrets. The Master is very mysterious. I’ve been a member of the Sanctuary of Darkness for a very long time, but I’ve never met them. I always carried out orders after the Master has given them to me.”

James continued to ask some questions. However, even the Chancellor was stumped on many of the questions.

After that, he went to ask other Sanctuary of Darkness cultivators.

Nonetheless, how would they know things that even the Chancellor did not?

After a series of inquiries, James walked out of the underground prison rather disappointed.

As soon as he walked out of the underground prison, Silvester approached and asked, “James, how did the inquiries go?”

James shook his head slightly and said, “I didn’t get any useful answers. I only learned that the Sanctuary of Darkness originated from the Primeval Age and that the first Master of the Sanctuary of Darkness was a Heaven’s Adjudicator in the Primeval Age. Now I’m pretty sure the Sanctuary of Darkness was after me and trying to stop me from looking for the Ancestral God Rank Elixir.”

When James mentioned the Ancestral God Rank Elixir, Silvester handed over an elixir to him.

“This is...?” James froze.

Silvester explained, “This is an Ancestral God Rank Elixir I obtained back then. I’m giving it to you now.”

James accepted it. The Ancestral God Rank Elixir was big. It was about the size of a basketball and felt warm to the touch. It could be detected that this elixir contained an extremely powerful force.

After James looked at it for a while, he put it away. A fifth of the Ancestral God Rank Elixir had been found. There were still four-fifths scattered around.

He was currently worried that after eons, the Ancestral God Rank Elixir that was somewhere out there had already been obtained and absorbed by other cultivators.

James revealed his concern.

Silvester said with a smile, "Be at ease, James. It is the Ancestral God Rank Elixir, how could it be refined so easily? Actually, only those who are fated can refine and absorb the Ancestral God Rank Elixir. If they are not fated, even a powerful cultivator at the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven might not be able to refine the Ancestral God Rank Elixir."

With Silvester's words, James felt relieved.

The two walked side by side out of the underground prison and towards a mountain range that had already been restored.

On the way, Silvester asked, "James, what do you plan to do next?"

James started to get lost in his thoughts. Right now, there were a few things he had to do.

First, gather Empyrean herbs in order to recover a soul.

Second, locate the materials required to reconstruct a physical body and help Emperor Jabari in his resurrection.

Third, search for the Ancestral God Rank Elixir.

Fourth, go on an expedition.

After thinking for a while, he looked at Silvester and said, "I came to the Elixir Pavilion because I need some rare materials. Jules said that the Elixir Pavilion has a lot of the materials I need."

After hearing that, Silvester asked, "What materials do you need?"

James took out the list of materials he had shown Jules and handed it over to Silvester.

Silvester glanced at it, then gave a strange look at James and asked, "What exactly do you intend to make with these materials?"

James gave a faint smile but did not say anything.

Silvester considerably did not ask any further questions. He returned the list to James and said, "The Elixir Pavilion has indeed collected quite a lot of these materials. Alright. I'll go find Helvius first to organize and tally them. After that, I'll give you the materials you require."

"Okay." James nodded.

The two ascended the mountain peak that had been restored.

Many structures had already appeared on the summit. For the time being, James stayed at the Elixir Pavilion.

His stay lasted quite a while. Several months passed. The Elixir Pavilion was almost fully restored. Sky City, which had been destroyed, had also recovered.

Silvester brought the materials James needed as well.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3140-The Elixir Pavilion was indeed the most powerful force in this world.

All the materials on the list given by Emperor Jabari were rare. Regardless, quite a few of them had been collected by the Elixir Pavilion.

Currently, he had already acquired the majority of the materials on the list. Only a small portion remained uncollected. Perhaps it would not take him ten thousand years to collect all the materials required to reconstruct Emperor Jabari's physical body.

After obtaining the materials, James stayed at the Elixir Pavilion for a while longer.

This stay lasted three months.

Three months later, James planned to leave.

He wanted to return to the Eidolon Realm first to look for Thea, then make further plans after meeting Thea.

"Old Master, I'm ready to leave." James went to say his goodbyes to Silvester.

Silvester furrowed his brow in front of a wood cabin. He did not expect James to leave so soon. However, as James wanted to leave, he did not urge him to stay.

He said, "I'll continue to investigate the Sanctuary of Darkness and ask around for the whereabouts of the Ancestral God Rank Elixir. If there are any leads, I will notify you right away."

"Alright." James nodded.

After saying goodbye to Silvester, James returned to his courtyard. He let out Yevpraksiya and Monica, who were in the Celestial Abode.

James looked at Yevpraksiya and Monica, and said, "I'm ready to leave."

"Sir, where are you going? I'll go with you..."

James waved his hand slightly, cutting Monica off, and said, "I still have some very important things I have to do. Stay in the Elixir Pavilion for the time being. The Elixir Pavilion is quite a nice sacred location for cultivation. Staying at the Elixir Pavilion is better than following me."

"But, sir..."

"No buts," said James. He then looked at Yevpraksiya, who was nearby, and said, "You'll stay in the Elixir Pavilion as well."

Yevpraksiya said nothing. She was only a maid. To be precise, she was not even a maid. Whatever James said ought to be.

Monica looked reluctant. She asked, "Then where are you going, sir?"

"Where am I going?" James looked befuddled. He, too, had no idea where he was going.

The reason he came to this world was to search for the Ancestral God Rank Elixir.

Among the known Ancestral God Rank Elixirs, one of them was in the possession of the Sanctuary of Darkness.

The Sanctuary of Darkness was too enigmatic. It was too difficult to locate the headquarters of the Sanctuary of Darkness and find one of the Ancestral God Rank Elixirs. He was even more clueless about where the rest of them were.

He intended to travel around the world in search of the Ancestral God Rank Elixir while looking for the materials required to reconstruct Emperor Jabari's physical body in passing.

After thinking for a while, James said, "Travel around, I suppose."

"Okay." Monica did not say anything else.

Jules and Yuina, who had heard the news, also showed up.

Jules was walking over and already speaking loudly from a long distance away, "Mr. Caden, are you leaving? Don't. Stay a while longer. Did the Elixir Pavilion not attend to you well?"

James looked at Jules, who was approaching, and said, "No. I simply have very important matters to attend to."

Yuina also appeared reluctant. She asked, "Are you really leaving?"

"Mhm." James nodded and said, "Once I've dealt with a few things, I'll leave."

There were still some matters James had yet to take care of. Previously, he had promised Benedict and the others that he would reward them after the Sanctuary of Darkness was eliminated.

Almost the entire army of the Sanctuary of Darkness was annihilated. He needed to keep his promise.

He said his goodbyes to Jules, Yuina, and the others.

After that, he left the Elixir Pavilion with Nico and appeared in Elixir City.

Previously, when the battle began, the formation of Elixir City was activated, and Elixir City was teleported to a safe region. After the battle ended, Elixir City reappeared.

Elixir City's cultivators were not caught up in the battle.

James arrived at the Oscar Residence with Nico.
