

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3141

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3141-When James arrived at the gates, a few guards greeted him respectfully and quickly went to report his visit.

Soon, Yulia, Benedict, and other core members of the Oscars came to welcome him.

Benedict walked over and respectfully greeted James. "Mr. Caden."

He was a powerful Grand Emperor and could sense the battle in outer space. He knew James was the person that injured Tamuuz; forcing him to flee and abandon the Sanctuary of Darkness' members. His escape allowed James to wipe out the now leaderless army.

Benedict showed the utmost respect while standing before James.

James nodded slightly and said, "Nice to meet you. I came to fulfill my promise. I told you I would give you the Curse Inscriptions after destroying the Sanctuary of Darkness. Now that I've almost completely eliminated them, I came to give you the Curse Inscriptions and say goodbye."

Surprised, Yulia asked. "What?! Are you leaving?"

"I have some important business to settle," said James as he nodded.

After replying to her, James copied several of his Curse Inscriptions and passed them to Benedict.

Benedict was thrilled to have obtained such an invaluable treasure.

James did not stay long and left with Nico shortly after the conversation. He continued to pass the Curse Inscriptions to a few core members of the Elixir Pavilion.

Outside the Elixir Realm, James floated in the starry universe. He looked at the massive planet in front of him in a daze. He had not been in the Elixir Realm for long, but it was very eventful.

James murmured, "I don't know when I'll be able to visit the Elixir Realm again,"

By his side, Nico said, "It's time to go, James."

James turned around, looked at Nico, and said, "Alright, let's head to Eidolon Realm."

"Alright."

Nico nodded and effortlessly waved his hand. A mysterious energy appeared from his palm and a void appeared in the space ahead.

Then, Nico pulled James into the void and disappeared from the area.

After the two vanished, the void immediately closed, and the place fell silent.

Outside Eidolon Realm, a crack suddenly formed in the space, and two figures walked out.

It was James and Nico who had just left the Elixir Realm.

James looked at the planet ahead of him absentmindedly. Traveling from the Eidolon Realm to the Elixir Realm took him a long time. However, it was different now that he had Nico with him.

They were able to arrive instantaneously at the Eidolon Realm.

A Grand Emperor indeed wielded remarkable powers. They could go anywhere they pleased in the universe.

"We're here, James," said Nico.

"Alright." James nodded and walked through the space. With a few steps, he disappeared and entered Eidolon Realm.

Nico followed closely behind him.

Meanwhile, Thea and Xainte were together in the Paragon Sect.

The two were discussing the great battle that happened in the Elixir Realm.

Several months have passed since the war broke out in the Elixir Realm. During these past few months, news of the war had spread throughout the Boundless Realm. At the same time, James' had also attracted considerable attention to himself.

News spread that James was the savior that turned the tide and defeated the strongest powerhouse of the Sanctuary of Darkness, bringing victory to the Elixir Pavilion.

Everyone discussed how the Elixir Pavilion might have been destroyed without James' intervention.

"It's already been ages, Mom. Why hasn't Dad come back for us?"

"Don't worry. He must have been caught up in something. He'll surely come back to us after he settles everything."

“Mom, what exactly is Dad’s cultivation rank? I’m a little confused. He is strong at times, yet also sometimes weak.”

Xainte was perplexed by James’ cultivation strength.

She had no idea what his true strength was.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3142

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3142-The Sanctuary of Darkness was the Boundless Realm’s most powerful and secretive force.

Their attack on the Elixir Pavilion caused a considerable uproar in the Boundless Realm.

Additionally, James made a name for himself.

However, no one knew of James’ origins or his cultivation rank. All they knew was that he defeated the strongest person in the Sanctuary of Darkness which turned the tides in the Elixir Pavilion’s favor.

James’ reputation throughout the entire Boundless Realm had grown.

Meanwhile, Thea and Xainte gathered and discussed the battle in the Elixir Realm.

Swoosh!!!

Suddenly, a gust of wind blew toward them.

Immediately afterward, two figures appeared before them in the Paragon Sect.

“James...”

Thea immediately stood up, and her pretty face lit up with joy. “You’re back.”

“Yeah.” James nodded lightly.

“Dad,” Xainte greeted him as well.

James walked over while Nico stood to the side and casually surveyed their surroundings.

“Are you alright?” Thea’s face was full of worry. She had heard about the dangerous battle in the Elixir Realm and was anxious about James’ safety.

James smiled teasingly and said, "What's the worst that could happen to me?"

"Let's have a seat and talk."

Thea pulled James over and sat down beside him. Although James returned safely, she wanted to know what had happened in the Elixir Realm.

She asked. "Has the Sanctuary of Darkness been completely wiped out?"

James detailed the entire battle to Thea.

"I've almost completely wiped them out. Unfortunately, the strongest member, who was a Seventh Heaven Grand Emperor managed to escape. He'll definitely be a potential threat in the future."

Suddenly, James recalled something and added. "By the way, I've already acquired information about the Ancestral God Rank Elixir."

"Really?" Thea was overjoyed.

"But..." James frowned.

Thea inquired. "...But what?"

James explained the Elixir Pavilion's history.

Hearing the explanation, Thea understood the situation.

"Then what should we do next?" Thea looked at James.

James racked his brain for answers. After a while, he said, "I'm exhausted after the fight. I'd like to use this opportunity to have a good rest. Then, we'll leave and continue looking for the Ancestral God Rank Elixir. We'll also have to find various other rare materials to resurrect Emperor Jabari."

Thea reassured him. "Don't worry. We still have time. Don't put too much pressure on yourself."

"Thanks." James smiled back at her.

The Paragon Sect's Master was immediately notified of James' return and quickly came to see him.

"Mr. Caden."

The Martial Reverend was very respectful toward James. He remarked. "You should've informed me of your return. I would have prepared a welcome for you."

James waved the offer away and said, "That won't be necessary. I plan to stay with the Paragon Sect for a while. Please pardon the inconvenience."

"You're no inconvenience, James. Don't worry." The Martial Reverend was thrilled.

It was an honor for James to stay within the Paragon Sect's base.

The Martial Reverend said, "If you need anything, please let me know, Mr. Caden."

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3143

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3143-The Martial Reverend excused himself and left shortly after greeting James.

James planned to rest in the Paragon Sec for a while and spend time with Thea and Xainte.

He spent the next 300 years there.

He continued to perfect his swordsmanship and stabilize his Sword Path Ousia for 300 years. He eventually reached the Divine Rank's First Stage and was finally regarded as a powerhouse.

The next thing for him was to stop focusing on his swordsmanship and to familiarize himself with other Paths. He would have to cultivate Nine Ousias, then slowly enhance them.

James was cultivating on a certain mountain within the bounds of the Paragon Sect. Apart from Thea and Xainte, no one else was permitted entry onto the mountain.

In the courtyard on the mountain, James sat in a lotus position and floated a few meters above the ground. A few strange, black inscriptions circled around him. A Jade Seal also floated beside him.

A veil of black energy and several black inscriptions surrounded the Jade Seal.

James was trying to comprehend the Curse Inscriptions.

He had already entered the Divine Rank and could now understand the mysterious Curse Inscriptions. Each of them transformed rapidly and contained mysterious power.

After cultivating and comprehending for some time, James discovered the relationship between the Jade Seal and the Curse Inscriptions in his body.

The engravings on the Jade Seal were general guidelines on Curse Magic.

The inscriptions within his body were Curse Inscriptions.

James now vaguely grasped the Curse Inscriptions in his body.

The Curse Inscriptions created by the Ancestral Talisman Master were horrific and evil. He did not want future generations to learn and practice his techniques, so he destroyed his cultivation base and his Path Seal during the fall of the Primeval Age.

However, the Ancestral Talisman Master could not bear for his signature skills to be lost. Moreover, he had already gained insight into Heaven's secret and knew the Heavenly Path would use Curse Magic against humans in the future.

While breaking his Path Seal, he engraved the general guideline of his Curse Magic in the Jade Seal at the last moment. Then, he allowed it to be passed down in Galileo.

After his Path Seal was shattered, his Curse Power spread to the whole world.

The Curse Magic engraved within the Jade Seal was incomplete.

To obtain the complete Curse Magic, one would have to use the Jade Seal to absorb Curse Power from the outside world and condense it.

This Curse Power from the outside world would be used by the Heavenly Path to curse humans in the future.

These future visions were indecipherable by other cultivators practicing Curse Magic.

However, James had the Jade Seal passed on by the Ancestral Talisman Master. As such, he could gain insight into these secrets.

James murmured, "It seems the Curse Inscriptions I have now are only part of the complete version. To obtain the complete Curse Magic, I would have to absorb the Curse Power within all the humans' bodies and turn them into inscriptions."

He looked at the Jade Seal floating before him.

James learned that the Jade Seal was the key to practicing Curse Magic. Using the inscriptions on the Jade Seal, he could cultivate an Ousia and form a Path Seal.

Without the Jade Seal, one could only practice a few Secret Arts using Curse Magic after obtaining the Curse Inscriptions.

“Curse Magic is really extraordinary. It’s almost omnipotent. If I master it to its fullest potential, I’ll become a top powerhouse.”

After James understood the basics of Curse Magic, his eyes were opened to its myriad of potential.

Curse Inscriptions varied wildly, and each could form countless variations.

The general outline engraved in the Jade Seal was even harder to understand.

If he wanted to fully comprehend it, he would have to spend a long time studying it.

James murmured pensively, “Perfecting Curse Magic will take an eternity. I still have a long way to go.”

Then, he put away the Jade Seal.

After putting away the Jade Seal, the mysterious black Inscriptions dispersed into black energy and were absorbed into his body to form inscriptions again.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3144

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3144-James’ body slowly descended and landed steadily on the ground.

He stood in the courtyard and looked at the Empyrean plants. Using his mind, black inscriptions emerged from his palm as he raised his hand.

The inscriptions shifted constantly and transformed into black energy.

The black energy swept over the surroundings like a strong wind.

The Empyrean plants in the distance immediately withered.

Immediately afterward, James raised his hand, and a few more black inscriptions emerged from his palm. The black inscriptions rapidly changed and transformed into black energy again.

The energy washed over the withered plants, and they immediately regained vitality. The plants grew rapidly, instantly reaching a height of more than one meter.

James had a basic understanding of Curse Magic.

Curse Magic was capable of anything. It could destroy life but also bring it back.

James smiled faintly.

He only understood the very basics of Curse Magic.

If he perfected it, he would be able to resurrect the dead with just the wave of a hand.

“Dad!”

A voice came from the distance.

Soon, a woman in a white dress hurried over to him.

James glanced at Xainte running toward him and chided her. “You’re already a Quasi-Emperor. Where are your manners?”

Xainte explained frantically. “You don’t understand, Dad. Something happened!”

Cocking his brow, James asked. “Oh? What is it?”

“Aqua Realm has dried up!” screeched Xainte in alarm.

“Aquazues?” James was slightly taken aback.

Standing to the side, Nico said, “The Aqua Realm is a world within the Boundless Realm. The entire planet is full of seawater.

“However, it’s not just ordinary seawater. The water there is unusually and extremely corrosive. Even a Grand Emperor wouldn’t dare to venture into that world.”

“The Aqua Realm is huge, but no one knows its exact size. Since ancient times, it has always been full of seawater. No one has been able to explore its depths.”

Xainte nodded repeatedly and said, “Yeah. The Aqua Realm has always been full of seawater and is a forbidden planet. No powerhouse dared set foot into the place. However, the seawater there has suddenly vanished. The news of it has already spread all over the Boundless Realm. Many curious powerhouses are going there to find out what happened.”

“Let’s go see what’s happening too, Dad. There must be something wrong.”

Xainte looked at him with pleading eyes.

It had been a while since she had left on adventures to train. Thus, she was eager to go and explore the outside world.

Since James was powerful, she felt safe going to a dangerous place with him.

At that moment, Thea also came over.

“I also heard about the Aqua Realm’s situation. Everyone is talking about it,” said Thea.

James rubbed his chin and asked. “What’s the history behind the Aqua Realm? Are there any myths about the place?”

Both Thea and Xainte shook their heads.

Nico replied, “I’ve heard some rumors about the place.”

James turned to Nico.

Nico asked. “Have you heard of the Ancestral Aqua Master?”

James asked. “The Ancestral Aqua Master? One of the Five Ancestral Masters from the Primeval Age?”

Nico nodded and said, “Yeah. It’s rumored the Aqua Realm used to be a prosperous world during the Primeval Age. However, it was taken over by one of Heaven’s Adjudicators.”

“During the Primeval Age, a fierce war broke out, and the Five Ancestral Masters fought against the Heaven’s Adjudicator.

“To destroy their opponent, the Ancestral Aqua Master relied on a powerful treasure. It was the Water Genesis’ Spring. The Ancestral Aqua Master used it to unleash great power to destroy the world and seal the Heaven’s Adjudicator there. After the battle, the planet was dubbed the Aqua Realm.”

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3145

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3145-Nico began to share some of the rumors he knew. However, he was unsure if the rumors he heard were reliable.

He knew the form of the Water Genesis was a spring. However, he had no idea what exactly it looked like.

“Yeah?”

James rubbed his nose pensively. Suddenly, he recalled something, and his expression became serious.

“If the legends you’ve heard are true, then we’ve got a troublesome situation.”

Thea asked. "What's wrong?"

James replied, "The Sanctuary of Darkness' first master was one of Heaven's Adjudicators. If the Aqua Realm is related to the Heaven's Adjudicator, then the drying up of the planet must definitely be related to the Sanctuary of Darkness."

James' speculation was well-founded.

Previously, he had almost wiped out the Sanctuary of Darkness. However, they would not be crushed so easily and would surely find a way to rebuild themselves. The Heaven's Adjudicator was likely crucial to their plan.

A Heaven's Adjudicator was an existence that transcended almost everything in the universe. Defeating a Heaven's Adjudicator is impossible their opponent was an Ancestral God. Not even a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor would be able to stand against them.

The abnormal situation in the Aqua Realm was likely related to the Sanctuary of Darkness whose goal was to find the Heaven's Adjudicator.

After voicing his thoughts, James looked at Xainte and said, "You're right. There must be something wrong. The Aqua Realm is definitely a dangerous place at the moment. You should stay here. I'll go check on the situation."

Thea looked at James and said, "I'll come with you."

James paused for a moment.

After mulling over it, James discerned that Thea was a Quasi-Emperor at the Ninth Tribulation. Her strength was almost equivalent to that of a Grand Emperor. Thus, he nodded in approval and said, "Alright."

Suddenly, the Martial Reverend appeared just when James, Thea, Xainte, and Nico were about to leave.

The Martial Reverend had also heard about the news and came to discuss it with James.

However, James did not say much to him.

After bidding farewell to the Martial Reverend, James departed with Thea and Nico.

The Aqua Realm was located in a relatively remote area of the Boundless Realm. If James were to use his Saucer, it would take them at least a thousand years to reach it.

With Nico's assistance, they could greatly expedite their travel.

They could reach the Aqua Realm in a very short time.

Nico created a void in space.

The trio disappeared from the area and reappeared outside the Aqua Realm.

They saw a blue planet ahead of them in the distance.

Many powerhouses hovered outside the planet.

Nico said, "James, that's the Aqua Realm."

James looked at the planet with a frown and said, "I hope the situation is different from what I suspected."

"I hope so too."

Nico glanced at James and asked. "When you were fighting the Sanctuary of Darkness powerhouse outside the Elixir Realm, you used Elemental Power and merged them into an Elemental Wheel."

"Yeah. What's wrong with that?" asked James.

Nico said, "Elemental Power comes from five great treasures. Although I have never seen these treasures myself, I have my suspicions about what they might be. They must be from the Five Elements of Genesis of the Primeval Age, right?"

James smiled faintly and said, "That's right."

"Haah!"

Nico took a deep breath.

He had thought as much but never asked the question.

After hearing James' confirmation, he was shocked. He could not help exclaiming. "The Five Elements of Genesis is a great treasure that has existed since ancient times. Obtaining any of them is insanely fortuitous, yet you acquired all five."

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3146

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3146-Thea knew James had numberable priceless treasures, so she was not surprised to hear that.

Her gaze rested on the giant planet before them.

The planet was immense and looked azure blue from a distance.

“Is that the Aqua Realm?” asked Thea.

Nico composed himself and replied, “Correct. That’s the Aqua Realm. I came to this place to train many years ago when I was still weak. Back then, the Aqua Realm was covered with seawater.”

After speaking, Nico turned to James and said, “It’s rumored the Aqua Realm’s seawater was formed using the Water Genesis. It’s not just normal seawater, and harbors potent energy.”

“Alright, let’s go have a look.”

James moved through outer space. With a few steps, he arrived right before the Aqua Realm.

He passed through its atmospheric layers and entered the planet, floating right above the land.

Below him was the Aqua Realm’s surface.

He could see some ancient buildings on the ground.

Most of the buildings had collapsed and turned into rubble. Only some of the city walls still stood intact.

There were also various plants that grew on some mountains.

As soon as Nico appeared, he observed the land below and said, “This place used to be full of seawater and was named the Aqua Realm. From my understanding, there shouldn’t be any creatures or plants here. Seeing the fact that there are growing plants, we can assume the seawater has been gone for quite a while.”

James agreed with Nico’s observations.

In the blink of an eye, he appeared on the ground below.

He stood on a mountain and surveyed his surroundings.

There were many plants that he had never seen before. Additionally, there were also a few short trees.

James lightly flicked his wrist, and one of the tree trunks shattered instantly.

He picked up the wood shards and examined them.

After determining the tree's age, James had a better idea of what had happened.

James said softly, "If the Sanctuary of Darkness is responsible for the abnormality on this planet, then they must have come to the Aqua Realm and gotten rid of the water here after their failed attack on the Elixir Pavilion."

Thea looked at James in shock and asked. "Did they come here looking for the sealed Heaven's Adjudicator on this planet?"

James shook his head hesitantly.

He was unsure whether the seawater's disappearance had anything to do with the Sanctuary of Darkness or if the Heaven's Adjudicator was really sealed on this planet.

James turned to Nico and asked. "Is the lore you told us before reliable?"

Nico shook his head.

"I'm not certain. These events happened too far back. Knowledge of them was from information recorded in ancient books. No one really knows how true it is. The Primeval Age is too far in the past, and almost everyone who survived that age is long gone."

James said solemnly, "If the Sanctuary of Darkness is responsible for this, we'd be in quite the predicament."

James knew he would have to stop the Sanctuary of Darkness if they were the culprits.

However, Emperor Jabari was deep in slumber. Without Emperor Jabari's help, James was rather weak.

To stop the Sanctuary of Darkness, relying on Nico's strength alone would be insufficient.

James had to notify Silvester in the Elixir Realm about the situation.

Without hesitation, James sat in a lotus position and activated the Secret Art Silvester taught him during his stay in the Elixir Pavilion. It was a Secret Art that could be used to communicate with Silvester, who was a great distance from them.

"What's the matter, Mr. Caden?"

A voice resounded.

James felt it echo in his ear, but the voice sounded like it was far away.

After establishing the connection, James immediately said, "Have you heard about the abnormality in the Aqua Realm?"

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3147

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3147-The Elixir Pavilion was the most influential faction in the Boundless Realm. Naturally, they had already noticed the aberration in the Aqua Realm.

Silvester replied, "Yeah, I did. I've already sent a few of my men to investigate the situation but haven't gotten a definite answer yet."

James shared his conjecture. "I suspect the Sanctuary of Darkness is behind this incident. I'm already at the Aqua Realm. If this has something to do with them, I won't be able to stop them with my current strength. I suggest you come over along with Helvius."

"Alright, no problem."

James' contributions in the previous battle helped the Elixir Pavilion avoid annihilation.

That was why Silvester agreed to James' call for help without any hesitation.

After communicating with Silvester, James deactivated the Secret Art.

Afterward, Silvester hastily headed out to find Helvius.

Silvester explained the situation to Helvius and made a few arrangements in the Elixir Pavilion. Then, the two departed for the Aqua Realm.

Silvester and Helvius were powerful cultivators. Therefore, it was easy for them to traverse the Boundless Realm in mere moments.

Very shortly after James' requested their assistance, the two showed up.

"Mr. Caden."

A voice called out to James.

James turned around and saw Silvester and Helvius. He clasped his hands together and greeted them.

Silvester looked at Thea and asked. "Who might this be?"

James pulled Thea over and smiled. "She's my wife."

"Thea, this is the Old Master of the Elixir Pavilion, Silvester. The other man is Helvius, the current Master of the Elixir Pavilion."

Thea immediately paid her respects. "It's a pleasure to meet the two of you."

Silvester waved his hand and said, "You don't have to be so formal with me."

James did not waste time on inconsequential matters and quickly jumped to the topic at hand, saying, "Nico told me that a Heaven's Adjudicator was sealed in the Aqua Realm during the Primeval Age. This Heaven's Adjudicator seems to be related to the Sanctuary of Darkness. So, I'm worried the drying up of the Aqua Realm's seawater was caused by the Sanctuary of Darkness."

Helvius thought for a while and said, "To the Elixir Pavilion's knowledge, we know the Sanctuary of Darkness has a master. However, he did not show up during the recent battle. The person leading the fight was merely their deputy master."

Silvester nodded and said, "The Sanctuary of Darkness' Deputy Master is Tamuuz Darkness. As for their master, we have no information on their name nor appearance."

James asked. "Then what about their strength?"

Both Silvester and Helvius shook their heads.

Although the Elixir of Pavilion were in conflict with the Sanctuary of Darkness for some time, they had never seen the Sanctuary of Darkness' Master, nor did they know how strong they were.

James fell into deep thought.

The Sanctuary of Darkness' Deputy Master already possessed such overwhelming strength. Their Master would likely be a lot more powerful.

"Haah."

James inhaled sharply after briefly pondering it.

If the Sanctuary of Darkness' Master was more formidable than their Deputy Master, he must be invincible in the Boundless Realm.

Their only chance of victory would be resurrecting Emperor Jabari.

"Let's check out the situation in the Aqua Realm first," said James.

Then, the group began to wander around the Aqua Realm.

The planet used to be filled with corrosive seawater, and some ruins were severely corroded. A few cities were unable to withstand the corrosion, and were destroyed.

Judging from the ruins left behind, the planet used to be vast and prosperous during the Primeval Age.

Just as Silvester and Helvius appeared inside the Aqua Realm, some mysterious men in black suddenly appeared in the space outside of the Elixir Realm.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3148

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3148-A few mysterious men in black appeared outside the Elixir Realm.

Their silhouettes were initially hazy but gradually gained more form.

The person in the lead was Tamuuz, who had escaped after his defeat in the previous battle.

After his defeat, Tamuuz fled from the Elixir Realm and returned to the Sanctuary of Darkness' base.

He was reprimanded heavily for failing his mission. If not for his usefulness, he would have been disposed of instantly.

Previously, all the powerhouses from the Sanctuary of Darkness were dispatched to the battle. However, their mission failed, and most of the Sanctuary of Darness' powerhouses were captured.

To save them, the Sanctuary of Darkness drew up a rescue mission.

They planned to lure away their opponents.

One of the Heaven's Adjudicators was indeed sealed within the Aqua Realm.

Tamuuz knew the presence of the Sanctuary of Darkness in the Aqua Realm would attract James and the Elixir Pavilion's attention. Following that, the Elixir Pavilion's men would surely be dispatched to Aqua Realm to investigate.

It would give the Sanctuary of Darkness the perfect opening to launch a sneak attack on the Elixir Pavilion and rescue their captured members.

“When do we strike, Sir?”

A voice came from behind Tamuuz.

Tamuuz’s expression was grim and menacing. He glared at the world ahead of them and said, “There’s no rush. Our master will trap James and notify us of our next step.”

Swoosh!

Suddenly, a shadow flickered, and a cultivator in a black robe appeared in front of Tamuuz.

Tamuuz asked. “How’s the situation?”

“Silvester and Helvius have left the Elixir Pavilion and should be in the Aqua Realm presently.”

Hearing this, a smug formed on Tamuuz’s wicked face.

“The Elixir Pavilion will be an easy target after our Master traps Silvester and Helvius.”

Tamuuz led some powerhouses and hid outside the Elixir Realm. However, they did not immediately launch their attack but waited for their Master’s orders.

Since the Sanctuary of Darkness had fewer people at their disposal, their master had to personally participate in the mission.

At the same time, the Sanctuary of Darkness’ Master roughly discerned James’ cultivation level. Their chancellor and deputy master were unable to stop him even after they absorbed Curse Power. Therefore, he concluded that James would not be an easy opponent.

Even he was not confident he could deal with James.

Therefore, he decided not to confront James in a head-on fight. Instead, he would set up a trap to capture James.

After James was successfully immobilized, he could not return to help the Elixir Pavilion even if he learned about their attack.

Meanwhile, James was completely unaware he had already fallen into a trap.

James, Nico, Silvester, Helvius, and Thea were still exploring the Aqua Realm.

The Aqua Realm was a forbidden place. For thousands of years, no living being dared to step foot on the planet. However, the news of Aqua Realm drying up attracted the attention of many powerhouses, and many came to investigate the incident.

Along the way, James' party encountered many other cultivators.

The cultivators they met were generally from very high ranks.

However, they did not know James and as such, did not acknowledge him.

In the blink of an eye, James' party had been on the Aqua Realm for three years.

During these three years, they ventured all over the Aqua Realm.

They arrived at the central region of the Aqua Realm and stood before a mountain range.

Ahead of them were towering mountains hundreds of thousands of meters tall. The mountains were blanketed in white mist and seemed idyllic from a distance.

James and the others hovered in the sky outside of the mountain range.

James observed the mountains ahead of him. The shape and structure of the mountain range were very unique, as they were lined up to form a triangle.

It seemed somewhat like an altar or a mysterious formation.

James looked at the mountains ahead and said, "We've searched almost every corner of the Aqua Realm and haven't found anything out of the ordinary. This is the only place left that we haven't explored. If there's nothing unusual here, then it means the planet might not have been sealed after all. The Heaven's Adjudicator might not even have been sealed here in the past."

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3149

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3149-Silvester immediately activated his Divine Senses and began to scan the surrounding area.

Before his Divine Sense could extend toward the mountain range, it was blocked by a mysterious force.

"Huh?"

Silvester gasped in surprise. "There's a formation here blocking out my Divine Sense. It seems to be quite a powerful formation."

Hearing this, Nico casually waved his hand. A powerful force emerged from his palm and charged toward the mountains ahead.

The force struck the mountain range, and strange inscriptions suddenly appeared in the sky above the mountains. An ancient and mysterious formation gradually appeared in their sight.

The formation protected the entire mountain range.

It repelled Nico's attack, and the force rushed back toward them.

"Stand back!"

Silvester and the rest immediately retreated.

After getting to a safe distance, the group looked at the mysterious formation.

"That's a very powerful formation." Nico looked at it in shock. He was a Fifth Heaven Grand Emperor, yet his attack was repelled effortlessly.

Nico turned to James and asked. "James, aren't you proficient in formations? Do you know what kind of formation it is?"

James had an awkward expression.

'What do you mean?

'How am I proficient in formations?

'Without Emperor Jabari's assistance, I'm useless.'

"That's a Heaven and Earth Sacrifice Formation."

A voice rang out.

Hearing this, everyone turned toward the source.

A woman hovered in the air.

She looked to be in her 20s. The woman wore a long purple dress, and her black hair fluttered behind her. She was a beautiful and elegant woman.

"Melinda?"

James was surprised by the approaching woman and wondered why she was in this place.

Hearing James mutter to himself, Thea asked him, "What's going on? Do you know her?"

James whispered, "I've met her twice before."

Suddenly, Melinda appeared before them.

She gazed at James and the others, then smiled faintly.

Silvester looked at her and sensed that Melinda's cultivation rank was relatively low. She was only in the Divine Rank but had a powerful Soul Power.

Therefore, he suspected that Melinda was a terrifying powerhouse.

After observing Melinda for a while, Silvester asked. "A Heaven and Earth Sacrifice Formation? What kind of formation is that?"

Everyone looked at Melinda since they could not grasp her words.

Melinda stared at the formation ahead and explained. "It's a formation passed down from the Primeval Age. This formation was personally set up by an Ancestral God."

Startled, James asked. "Was a Heaven's Adjudicator sealed here in the past?"

Melinda looked at James and nodded. "That's right. There is indeed a Heaven's Adjudicator sealed here."

"How do you know?" asked James.

Melinda said calmly, "The last Heaven's Adjudicator is sealed here. She had great potential and was an existence that surpassed the Heavenly Path. She was too powerful, and it was impossible to kill her. Ultimately, an Ancestral God set up this formation to trap her here."

"The last Heaven's Adjudicator?"

James was taken aback.

'She couldn't possibly mean...'

'Isn't the last Heaven's Adjudicator Winnie, who was in the Apocalypse Age?'

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3150

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3150-“Are you sure she’s the last Heaven’s Adjudicator?”

James looked at Melinda.

However, Melinda did not respond to his question. She observed the formation ahead and murmured, “A formation laid down by an Ancestral God will be difficult to break.”

Melinda did not say much.

James fell into deep thought.

He felt there was more to Melinda’s words than she implied.

Silvester, Helvius, and Nico listened intently.

They had heard of Heaven’s Adjudicators before but only read about them in ancient books and were unsure of the details. Now they finally met someone who has knowledge about Heaven’s Adjudicators.

Silvester asked. “It’s rumored that Heaven’s Adjudicators judge the living beings that violate the Heavenly Path’s rules. Is that true?”

Melinda glanced at Silvester and replied, “Yes, and no.”

Confused, Silvester inquired, “What do you mean?”

After a brief thought, Melinda replied, “Let me put it this way. The Heavenly Path was created by a powerful person. It’s like a set of rules that govern the universe.

“The Heaven’s Ajudicators are the Heavenly Path’s confidants. They’re not under the control of the Heavenly Path. They’re not only able to kill those that defy the Heavenly Path but can also kill any living being as they wish.

“For example, you created the Elixir Pavilion and established the rules there. All the disciples of the Elixir Pavilion must abide by your rules and those that violate the rules will be punished accordingly. However, those with authority in your sect can convict anyone.”

After her explanation, everyone obtained a clearer understanding.

James looked at her and asked. “Who are you exactly?”

Melinda smiled but did not answer his question.

Afterward, she looked at James and said, "The formation is multi-layered. There are about thirty thousand layers. I'm only capable of breaking the foremost layers. You'll need to break the last layer yourself."

"Me?!" James was taken aback.

Melinda said, "Yes. The Ancestral Aqua Master set up the formation. To completely break the formation, we'll need the Water Genesis."

After speaking, Melinda refused to elaborate further.

In a flash, she appeared in the sky ahead of them. She raised her hand, and some mysterious inscriptions appeared out of her palm.

James touched his chin and murmured, "Where'd she come from? Why does she know I have the Water Genesis? It seems like she knows me quite well."

Melinda's identity was a mystery.

James had no way to figure out her background for now.

Meanwhile, Melinda began to break the formation.

The others waited to the side.

Three years passed in the blink of an eye.

Melinda mentioned the formation had 30,000 layers. After three years, she had only destroyed 1,000 of those layers. To completely break the formation would take a substantial amount of time.

Three years was a long time for mortals.

However, it would pass in a flash for cultivators.

James knew it would take quite a long time to completely break the formation. Thus, he did not stay idle. Instead, he used the opportunity to cultivate.

To utilize the time well, James asked Nova in the Celestial Abode to set up a Time Formation.

James cultivated within the Time Formation. Nico and the others were thrown off by him. He had displayed powerful combat strength in the past, but his current energy felt extremely weak.

Meanwhile, James focused on learning Curse Magic.

He tried to understand the inscriptions engraved in the Jade Seal.

As he comprehended the general guideline, he started deciphering the Curse Inscriptions in his body.

The general outline of the Curse Inscriptions was omnipotent, and many signature skills could be mastered from it. However, James would need powerful Curse Magic to unleash these skills.

At the moment, it was more important for James to cultivate Curse Power instead of learning these signature skills.

Recommended Novels