

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3161

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3161-The tightly shut palace gate was a hundred meters high.

On the gate was a plaque with several mysterious and ancient characters engraved.

Although James had studied Elysian characters before, he could not comprehend the engravings on the plaque.

He turned to Melinda and asked. "What do they mean?"

Melinda looked at the plaque briefly and murmured, "It reads 'Prison Ground'."

"W-What?" James was confused.

The others also looked at Melinda perplexedly.

Melinda tried to recall past events. After a while, she said lightly, "It's a long story."

James said, "We're all ears."

Melinda replied, "During the Primeval Age, many Heaven's Adjudicators existed in the universe. They were ruthlessly loyal to the Heavenly Path, carrying out its orders without question.

"The humans that reached the Ancestral God Rank in the Primeval Age wanted to destroy the Heavenly Path. To do that, they had to eliminate all Heaven's Adjudicators before challenging the Heavenly Path.

"Unexpectedly, one Heaven's Adjudicator refused to see living beings being tormented and falling to ruin due to the battle's aftermath. So, they made a prison and sealed themselves within the area, swearing never to step out of the place."

James looked at the palace ahead and asked. "Is that palace the place that Heaven's Adjudicator set up for themselves?"

Melinda nodded and said, "Precisely. This the Prison Ground they prepared for themselves."

After a brief thought, James asked. "The Heaven's Adjudicator swore never to leave this place, so what will happen to them if they did so?"

"I don't know about that," Melinda replied as she shook her head doubtfully.

Silvester asked. "A powerful formation surrounds the palace. Is it possible to unlock it?"

Melinda sadly said, "I can't break a formation set up by a Heaven's Adjudicator. Unless they leave of their own volition, there is no way to reach them."

"So did we come here for nothing?" asked James.

Melinda looked at James and replied encouragingly, "Perhaps they will leave this palace someday. We should go. Even if the Sanctuary of Darkness finds this place, they can't get through the formation, nor will they be able to convince the Heaven's Adjudicator to leave."

James was disappointed.

This seemed to be within Melinda's expectations. Yet, she went through the trouble of breaking all the 30,000 layers of the formation.

Melinda did not elaborate further. She clasped her hands and said, "We'll meet again."

After speaking, her body flickered and disappeared from their sight.

James and the others looked at each other puzzledly.

After a while, James said, "Since Melinda has already reassured us nothing will happen, let's head back."

James' party did not linger and chose to return to the Paragon Sect.

During this period, the Sanctuary of Darkness' Master had been tailing them in secret. After James' party left, he finally walked into the open and stood outside the palace.

He looked at the palace in a daze. Then, he suddenly kneeled on the ground.

"I'm the Sanctuary of Darkness' Master, Tadhg Gallagher. It's an honor to meet you."

Tadhg's voice resounded outside the palace.

However, there was no response.

Tadhg continued to kneel on the ground and said, "My Lord, the Sanctuary of Darkness has run into a huge problem. The humans looking for the Ancestral God Rank Elixir have appeared.

"The Sanctuary of Darkness' purpose is to destroy the Ancestral God Rank Elixir. However, that task is beyond our powers. While trying to destroy it, we only managed to split it into five parts.

"The final reckoning is about to begin. If those humans obtain the Ancestral God Rank Elixir, turn the tides in their favor. I implore you to step forth and ensure our victory."

Tadhg's voice resounded, but the palace remained silent.

Kneeling on the ground, he grumbled in frustration, "Why are you refusing to show yourself? Did you not seal yourself to avoid the war during the Primeval Age in anticipation of this day?"

Tadhg was bewildered.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3162

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3162-The Sanctuary of Darkness' Master, Tadhg, did not leave.

He pleaded for the Heaven's Adjudicator's assistance outside the black palace.

However, his pleas were answered with silence.

Meanwhile, James and the others had returned to the Paragon Sect.

Many powerhouses gathered within the Paragon Sect.

The Martial Reverend was seated in the highest seat. Although seated above everyone else, he did not dare to disrespect the people in the hall. He looked at Silvester and Helvius sitting below him respectfully and conducted himself carefully.

Silvester looked at James and asked. "Mr. Caden, what should we do next?"

James thought awhile and said, "The Sanctuary of Darkness set up a trap for us to rescue their members. I expect they are going to make another move very soon. However, I'm not so sure what they're planning."

Initially, James planned to travel and hone his skills after briefly staying in the Paragon Sect.

While training, he also wanted to find the remaining materials needed to resurrect Emperor Jabari.

James was not too worried that he had not found the Ancestral God Rank Elixir yet.

Emperor Jabari was proficient in the Extrapolation Path.

As long as they could resurrect Emperor Jabari, he could help them locate the Ancestral God Rank Elixir.

James replied, "I plan to leave in search of some materials. There's nothing much I can do about the Sanctuary of Darkness at the moment, so I'll leave this matter to you guys."

Silvester nodded lightly and said, "We can only proceed step by step."

Click, clack, click.

Suddenly, the sound of footsteps could be heard.

Immediately afterward, a beautiful woman entered the hall.

No one sensed her approaching and only noticed her when she walked into the hall.

Everyone stood up and stared at Melinda.

Melinda's lips formed beautiful smile and said, "Hello again."

James looked at her and asked. "What brings you here?"

Melinda walked into the hall and found an empty seat. After making herself comfortable, her smile was replaced with a more serious expression.

"Whatever happens in the Boundless Realm will directly affect humanity's survival during the Fourth Calamity. The Sanctuary of Darkness exists to prevent humans from finding the Ancestral God Rank Elixir."

James looked at Melinda suspiciously.

He had never told Melinda these things, so how did she know about it?

Melinda continued to speak, "If I'm not mistaken, the Sanctuary of Darkness is preparing something major. They'll attempt to conquer the worlds within the Boundless Realm as as fast as they can.

"We must build a safe haven."

James cocked his brow. "What are you suggesting?"

Melinda replied, "We must establish a new organization and win over the powerhouses throughout the Boundless Realm. We must form a powerful force before the Sanctuary of Darkness enacts their plan so that we can stand against them.

"Otherwise, they'll make short work of us."

James was now curious about Melinda's identity. How was it that she knew everything?

Although Melinda's identity was still a mystery, her words were very reasonable.

After a brief thought, James said, "You guys can proceed to handle these matters. I have other business to settle right now."

Melinda nodded lightly and began to explain her plan.

She wanted to use the Elixir Realm as their base, and establish a brand new sect. At the same time, they would deploy a powerful formation around the Elixir Realm to resist the Sanctuary of Darkness' forces in the future."

Despite the plan sounding relatively simple, it would be hard to implement.

To achieve it, they needed Silvester and Helvius to take the lead. Their involvement was crucial since they were very reputable in the Boundless Realm. If they called for help, they could recruit many powerhouses.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3163

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3163-Silvester, Helvius, and Melinda rushed to the Elixir Realm to implement their plan after they discussed the details.

Meanwhile, James stayed in the Paragon Sect.

James, Thea, and Xainte gathered in a mansion behind Paragon Sect's main mountain.

Xainte asked. "When are you leaving, Dad?"

James replied, "In a few days."

Thea reminded him. "You must be careful and avoid acting rashly while outside. No matter what happens, staying alive should be your priority."

James smiled at her. "Do you take me for a child? Don't worry about me"

Afterward, James stayed in the Paragon Sect for a few more days.

During his stay, he came up with a rough plan for his next journey.

He inquired about dangerous places within the Boundless Realm, especially those that were normally inaccessible to Grand Emperors.

The materials needed to reform Emperor Jabari's body were rare and could only be found in dangerous places. James wanted to gather them as soon as possible to resurrect Emperor Jabari.

He would not have to worry about anything after Emperor Jabari was brought back.

Many people stood behind James at the Paragon Sect's mountain gate.

James turned around and said, "It's fine, you guys don't have to send me off. You should head back inside."

Thea walked over, took James' hand, and said tenderly, "Please be careful."

James reached out and stroked her hair. Smiling gently, he reassured her. "Don't worry. I'll be fine."

Thea's pretty face looked weary. She said, "We've been on the move all these years, and it's taking its toll. After we overcome the Fourth Calamity, let's find a place no one knows about and live in seclusion. Then, we'll have a bunch of sons!"

James chuckled and said, "Alright, I'll promise you that."

He waved at them and turned to leave.

Nico followed closely behind him.

Outside the Eidolon Realm, two people stood in the twinkling galaxy. One was a handsome young man in a white robe. The other was a burly, middle-aged man with tan skin.

Nico asked. "Where are we going next, James?"

James replied, "There's a deserted planet near Eidolon Realm. Apparently, it used to be a vast world but was destroyed after a certain incident."

"The planet seems to be rather mysterious. I'm planning to go check it out."

Nico immediately asked. "Are you talking about the Azure Realm?"

"Yeah." James nodded.

After a brief thought, Nico said, "I've also heard rumors about the Azure Realm."

"According to ancient books, an unknown incident occurred there and caused the entire planet's living beings to disappear overnight."

“After that incident, the planet became desolate.

“For countless years, many powerhouses have gone to the Azure Realm to investigate what happened but never returned. As a result, the Azure Realm was deemed unsafer and was classified in the Boundless Realm’s list of Ten Dangerous Regions. Like the Desolateness Sanctuary, most powerhouses, including Grand Emperors, wouldn’t carelessly venture into the Azure Realm.”

“I see.” James rubbed his chin thoughtfully.

He heard similar rumors and wanted to check the place out.

The materials Emperor Jabari needed would most likely appear in these long-ruined and forbidden places.

Nico rubbed his hands excitedly and said, “I’ve wanted to visit the Azure Realm for the longest time. I’m happy to finally have the opportunity.”

James grinned at him. “Alright. Let’s go.”

Immediately afterward, the two disappeared.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3164

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3164-Somewhere in the Boundless Realm’s outer space, a void suddenly appeared and broke the area’s silence.

Two figures walked out of the tear and into the starry space.

It was none other than James and Nico.

As soon as the two appeared, they observed their surroundings.

In the darkness, they spotted a desolate planet.

It had a vast area. From a distance, it looked forboding as a black mist shrouded it.

James and Nico approached and soon arrived in its vicinity.

James looked at the black mist around the planet with a frown. He murmured, “The energy here is somewhat similar to Curse Power. However, it seems slightly more sinister than Curse Power.”

After speaking, he turned to Nico and asked. “Why is the Azure Realm shrouded by this black mist?”

Nico shook his head and said, “I’ve no idea. The Azure Realm has existed for a long time. It’s impossible to remember what happened during the Primeval Age. However, according to rumors, the living beings on Azure Realm disappeared sometime after the Primeval Age. Ever since the incident, this place has been shrouded by black mist.”

James said pensively, “That’s strange. We’ll have to tread carefully.”

“Yeah.” Nico nodded.

Suddenly, a voice came from the Celestial Abode.

“Careful, James. Something about this planet is off.”

Hearing the voice, James lit up in joy and immediately responded. “You’re awake, Emperor Jabari?”

Emperor Jabari replied, “I was slumbering, but I sensed the unusual energy. This energy is familiar to me.”

“Is that so?”

Surprised, James asked. “What kind of energy is it? Where did you encounter it previously?”

Emperor Jabari fell into thought. After a while, he replied, “When wandering through a deserted area in the universe, I accidentally entered an unknown ruin. I proceeded through a passage in this ruin but got lost. It took me three thousand Epochs to finally leave the place.

“The energy here feels very similar to what I felt in that passage.

“Although I called it a passage, it felt more like an unknown world. There was no light in that world, and it was completely shrouded in darkness. Moreover, powerful, evil spirits lurked in the dark. They were very powerful. All of the evil spirits I encountered were at the Emperor Rank.

“After leaving the place, I ventured to many other ruins. Eventually, I found some information about the place.”

James listened carefully.

Emperor Jabari continued. “Our universe is split into two dimensions—light and dark.

“Our universe is called the Illuminated World.

“Meanwhile, the dark dimension is called the Dark World.

“I learned that souls of living beings would enter the Dark World after their death. In the Dark World, these souls can continue living on in the form of evil spirits.”

“The Dark World?”

James was startled by what he heard.

Emperor Jabari nodded and said, “Yeah, the unknown world I stumbled upon was the Dark World. The Dark World was extremely sinister and foreboding. Even I, myself have very little knowledge of the place.”

“The Dark World is enormous and is as big as our universe.

“I only strayed into the outer bounds of the Dark World, yet I still got lost. If I were to have traveled deeper into the Dark World, I’m afraid I wouldn’t have made it out alive. The evil force within the dark world is capable of eating away the body of a living being. Eventually, it’d eat up one’s body, leaving only their soul.

“If the force completely erodes your body, your soul can only live on in the Dark World as an evil spirit, and you can never return to the Illuminated World.”

“Huff.” James took a deep breath.

He guessed that the disappearance of the living beings in the Azure Realm was related to the Dark World.

“James.”

Suddenly, James heard Nico’s voice.

“What are you thinking about?”

James returned to his senses and said, “I-It’s nothing. By the way, Nico. Have you ever heard of the Dark World before this?”

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3165

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3165-Nico shook his head, expressing that he did not know.

Since Nico did not know about the Dark World, James did not ask any further questions, and said, "Alright. Let's go check out the Azure Realm."

The two walked through the black mist and entered the Azure Realm.

Soon, they landed on the ground.

The sky was filled with dark clouds, and the ground was uneven. Traces of black energy oozed out of the cracks in the ground.

As soon as the energy came in contact with James' skin, he immediately noticed its corrosive effects.

Fortunately, he had good physical strength, and was at the Divine Rank. Thus, the black energy was unable to cause substantial damage to his physical body.

"This is very bizarre."

Nico also noticed the unusual black energy and said, "This black energy is corrosive."

"Be careful."

James reminded Nico, then began to advance.

While advancing, James contacted Emperor Jabari.

"How's your condition now, Emperor Jabari?"

Emperor Jabari replied, "In the previous battle, I exerted all my strength to seriously injure that Seventh Heaven Grand Emperor. I'm still in a weakened state."

James inquired, "Are you capable of executing a divining formation? I'm going to start looking for materials needed to reform your body, but I haven't a clue where to begin my search."

Emperor Jabari replied, "Sadly, I can't. I'm very weak and barely have any strength in me. Unless you can find a divine object that can restore my Soul Power, I'm powerless."

James made a mental note.

To find the materials needed for Emperor Jabari's resurrection, he would first need to find something to restore his Soul Power.

James and Nico continued to wander the desolate planet.

Soon, they stumbled upon a city.

Although many ages have passed, the city was relatively well preserved.

The city walls still stood tall and proud.

The two walked into the city.

Swoosh!

A cold wind blew toward them as soon as they entered the city.

James shivered inadvertently.

“Careful!”

Nico immediately called out, teleported in front of James, and thrust his palm forward.

His palm attack struck a blurry shadow. It screeched in pain, then disappeared.

Cold sweat ran down James’ back.

He felt fortunate that Nico was accompanying him. Otherwise, he would have met a miserable end.

After driving away the assailant, Nico stared at the shadow that dispersed into black mist.

Nico said solemnly, “That was an evil spirit. It was at least at the Grand Emperor Rank.”

“Thanks a bunch, Nico.”

Nico smiled and said, “You’re too kind, James. The evil spirit couldn’t have hurt you even if I stood by idly. It was presumptuous for me to interfere.”

James looked at him embarrassedly.

He felt the need to tell Nico the truth about his strength.

If he kept quiet, Nico would not come to his rescue if he were to face danger again. This would greatly impede his journey through the realms.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3166

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3166-“Nico, actually...”

After careful consideration, James decided to tell Nico the truth about his strength.

“What is it, James?” Nico looked at James earnestly.

James said sheepishly, “Actually, my cultivation base is very weak. It’s precisely the rank your Divine Sense is detecting. I’m only at the Divine Rank.”

“Huh?” Nico was startled by the revelation.

James explained. “My body was destroyed once in the past, and my current body was reformed using a Grand Emperor’s Natal Demonic Lotus. As such, my physical body possesses great strength.

“There’s also a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor living within my Celestial Abode. By borrowing some of his strength, I can call forth the power hidden within my physical body.”

After hearing the explanation, Nico immediately understood James’ circumstances.

Nico grinned and said, “That’s alright. I’m sure you’ll become the universe’s strongest cultivator with your potential and treasures. Although you’re weak right now, I’ve given my word to follow you for a hundred thousand years. I’m not going to break my promise.”

James felt relieved by Nico’s reassurance.

Meanwhile, Nico grew interested in the powerhouse that lived within James’ Celestial Abode.

“Where did the powerhouse living in your Celestial Abode come from?”

James smiled knowingly. “You’ll find out very soon. Right now, I need to collect materials to rebuild his body so he can be resurrected.”

“I see.”

Nico did not pry any further.

He shielded James protectively and advanced cautiously.

James followed behind him and inspected their surroundings.

Everything around them was well preserved.

The buildings within the city were extravagant. However, there was not a single living being within the huge city. Everything was covered by darkness, and it looked like a ghost town.

The two walked around for a while but found no promising leads.

However, they encountered many evil spirits along the way. Some of them were strong, but they also faced some weaker ones.

The strong evil spirits were at the Grand Emperor Rank, while the weaker ones were at the Divine Rank. Occasionally, they encountered a few evil spirits at the Sage Rank.

The city teemed with evil spirits. After walking for a while, they encountered about a dozen of them.

James was taken aback by the situation.

“Under normal circumstances, the souls of the living would disperse after death. Very few evolve into evil spirits, but strangely, this city is full of evil spirits.”

Hearing this, Nico suddenly thought of a possibility and gasped aloud.

“Could it be that the Azure Realm’s living beings were wiped out? Is that why they disappeared so suddenly?”

James was taken aback by the possibility.

“That’s impossible. I heard that the Azure Realm was formidable. It used to be one of the central planets in the Boundless Realm and was as strong as the current Elixir Pavillion back then. Who could’ve wiped them out at once?”

Nico waved his hand exasperatedly and said, “I don’t know. It was just a wild guess.”

James said, “Don’t jump to conclusions. Let’s continue searching the place.”

“Alright.”

Afterward, the two left the desolate city and began to explore different areas of the Azure Realm.

Along the way, they found many other cities infested with evil spirits.

In the blink of an eye, 300 years had passed since James and Nico entered the Azure Realm.

During that time, the two had ventured to almost every corner in the Azure Realm.

During this period, Nico fought off several powerful evil spirits and even killed a few.

They also encountered some extremely powerful evil spirits that Nico could not fight off and had to flee a number of times.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3167

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3167-James sat in a lotus position on a mountain range within the Azure Realm and was immersed in his cultivation.

There was a lack of vegetation around the mountain range, and the only thing that could be seen were a number of black boulders.

Nico stood to the side and watched James protectively.

James had already cultivated his Sword Path Ousia, Curse Ousia, and the five Elemental Ousias. In total, he had seven Ousias.

At that moment, he was trying to cultivate the Yin and Yang Ousias.

He had learned Heavenly Transformation and also knew Thea's Demonic Transformation.

Additionally, he had already cultivated Heavenly Power and Demonic Power.

Both powers reached the peak of the Sage Rank's Thirty-Third Stage.

James sat within a Time Formation and concentrated on grasping the Paths. Gradually, his understanding of the two Paths grew deeper.

At that moment, he had reached the Consolidation stage.

Heavenly Power and Demonic Power in surged throughout his body.

Heavenly Power gathered in the upper half of his body, while Demonic Power gathered in the lower half.

The Heavenly Power grew increasingly concentrated and formed the shards of the Law of Heaven, which slowly gathered into a round, scorching sun.

Meanwhile, the Demonic Power also transformed into the shards of the Law of Heaven. The shards then gathered together to form a bright moon.

"It's a success."

James stood up.

As he stood up, his eyes transformed dramatically. A scorching sun took the place of one of his irises, and a bright moon shone from the other.

Immediately, his eyes illuminated the dark world.

“A fusion of heaven and earth, as well as Yin and Yang.”

James twirled his hand, and the scorching sun and bright moon merged to form a new force.

The force was overpowering and caused the surrounding space to tremble and distort. A few cracks formed in space.

“It’s powerful.”

James took a deep breath.

Immediately afterward, he dismissed the scorching sun and bright moon.

James withdrew his energy and walked out of the Time Formation.

Nico had been protecting him throughout this period.

Seeing James leave the Time Formation, Nico smiled and said, “Congratulations, James. You’ve developed another two Ousias. In total, you have nine currently and have reached the limit allowed by the Heavenly Path.”

“Yeah.”

James sighed and said, “I finally cultivated nine Ousias. With the amount I possess, getting through the next Consolidation will be difficult.”

Nico comforted him. “Don’t worry. Take your time. Your comprehension of Paths is exceptional. I’m sure the subsequent Consolidation will be easily overcome.”

Nico had great confidence in James.

Other cultivators would have to overcome countless obstacles to cultivate a second Ousia. However, James easily formed nine Ousias without problems.

Once James became a Grand Emperor, he would have Nine Path Seals, and the universe would surely tremble before his might.

Nico was looking forward to that day.

James suddenly asked, "By the way, has no one been able to cultivate ten Ousias in the past?"

Nico was startled by his question but quickly caught himself and said brightly, "It's not easy. Ordinary cultivators can only cultivate one Ousia. A couple of prodigies managed to form two Ousias. The amount of people that can form three are only about a handful.

"It will get progressively more difficult.

"Although the Heavenly Path permits living beings to cultivate nine Ousias maximum, no one prior has ever been able to develop a fourth Ousia, let alone nine."

James murmured pensively, "I'm going to try anyway."

He was determined to learn a new Path and form another new Ousia. James wanted to surpass the universe's limits and achieve the unachievable.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3168

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3168-If anyone else had known James' aspirations, they would definitely have been flabbergasted.

People who could form a second Ousia were already considered prodigies. It was rare for people to be capable of forming a third Ousia. Those who could develop a fourth Ousia were among the best of the best.

Cultivating nine Ousias was an astronomical achievement.

Yet, James wanted to cultivate a tenth one and break the universe's record.

Even Ancestral Gods could not surpass the limits set by the Heavenly Path.

300 years had passed since James had entered the Azure Realm. He had been wandering around the planet all this time and stopping only occasionally to cultivate.

James and Nico encountered many dangers along the way.

Fortunately, Nico was powerful enough to deal with them.

"Where do we go next, James?"

Nico looked around, pointed ahead, and said, "That's the only place we haven't been to yet."

James stood up and looked in the direction pointed by Nico.

The area ahead of them was cloaked in black mist, and it was impossible to see what was past it.

Even with their Divine Senses, they could not sense what has hidden behind the black mist.

James said, "That area seems quite unusual. My Divine Sense is unable to see through the mist. If my guess is right, that area might be related to the disappearance of the Azure Realm's living beings."

Nico said boldly, "Then let's go check it out."

"Alright." James nodded.

After a brief discussion, the two rushed toward the unknown area ahead.

Then, they walked into the dark mist.

Light was completely blocked out of the area, and it was impossible to see what was ahead.

Even using their Divine Senses, they could only detect a mere few kilometers around them.

"Sir, this place seems a little eerie."

Nico's hoarse voice was shaky in the darkness.

James whispered, "Be careful."

Nico walked in front of James and carefully surveyed the surroundings.

The black mist around them contained corrosive power, which ate through James' skin and slowly melted his flesh.

Although the corrosive effect was gradual, James knew his body would eventually be destroyed if he stayed in the area too long, leaving only his soul behind.

"This place is exactly as Emperor Jabari described. There's only darkness and no light. The energy here even has corrosive power."

James said solemnly, "Be careful, Nico. We might've already entered the Dark World. Even if we have yet to, the Azure Realm is still connected to the Dark World."

“What exactly is the Dark World, James?”

Nico was a Fifth Heaven Grand Emperor but had never heard of or read of the Dark World in ancient records.

James relayed the information he obtained from Emperor Jabari to Nico.

Hearing this, Nico had a clearer grasp of their situation. He took a deep breath and said, “I wouldn’t have guessed that another world like this existed if you hadn’t told me about it.”

James said, “The Dark World is very strange. Even a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor like Emperor Jabari barely knows about it. We have to be cautious.”

“By the way...”

James suddenly noticed something strange and asked. “How long has it been since we entered this region?”

Nico was startled by James’ question.

He was a powerhouse and had a keen sense of time. However, he could not sense how much time had passed.

“I feel like we haven’t been here long, but also as if we were here for many years,” said Nico.

Recommended Novels