The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3171-“Then what should I do?” asked James.

Emperor Jabari replied, “There’s nothing we can do for now. In the past, I, too, captured many evil spirits in the Dark World and forced them to hand over their cultivation methods.

“After acquiring various cultivation methods from those evil spirits, I discovered their cultivation methods were only suitable for their kind. They weren’t meant to be cultivated by living beings with physical bodies.

“However, after obtaining so many of them, I discovered something. If you give me some time, I might be able to create a suitable cultivation method for living beings.”

James thought awhile and asked, “You’re a soul fragment now, right? Theoretically, you’re also considered an evil spirit, so why don’t you cultivate in the Dark World?”

Emperor Jabari said, “I’ve considered that but dismissed the idea. If I were to cultivate in the Dark World, I wouldn’t be able to return to the Illuminated World.”

“I see.” James now had a better understanding of the situation.

“Keep moving for now. Before going into slumber, I studied cultivation methods suitable for humans. However, I gave up after catching some clues. I thought I’d never enter the Dark World again. Unexpectedly, you entered the Dark World. Since it’s come to this, I’ll try to pick up my research again.”

“Alright.” James nodded.

Emperor Jabari had been to the Dark World before and had some understanding of the palace. Additionally, he had obtained many cultivation methods of the evil spirits and already had some knowledge of them.

Resuming his research should be an easy feat.

James continued to advance under the guidance of Emperor Jabari.

In the Dark World, the passage of time was imperceptible.

Although it seemed that only a short while had passed, in actuality, a long time had passed.

James and Nico walked in the Dark World. Suddenly, a black palace entered their view.

Seeing the black palace, James immediately grew vigilant.

Just then, the black palace flickered and disappeared from their sight.

“Nico, did you see that?” asked James.

Nico stared ahead and replied, “I seem to have seen a palace, but it disappeared in the blink of an eye.”

After getting Nico’s confirmation, James was sure he was not mistaken. He scanned the surroundings, but his perception range was limited. From the area he could sense, there was nothing abnormal.

“James.”

At that moment, Emperor Jabari’s voice came from the Celestial Abode. “I sense a material here that can be used to reform my physical body.”

Thrilled, James asked, “What is it?”

Emperor Jabari replied, “I can’t sense exactly what it is because my Divine Senses are weakened in the Dark World. If not because my Extrapolation Path has reached the Grand Sage Realm, I wouldn’t be able to sense it at all.”

James inquired, “Where is it?”

Emperor Jabari said, “It’s nearby. Look for it carefully.”

“Alright.” James nodded.

James turned to Nico and said, “There’s something valuable in this area. Let’s look around.”

“Alright.”

Nico also began scanning the area.

The two carefully searched the place.

Swoosh!

A cold breeze blew toward them.

Immediately afterward, the black clouds began to disperse, and a speck of light shone down onto the Dark World.

Both James and Nico’s eyes widened in shock.

They were in the Dark World, which was supposed to be shrouded in darkness. However, light was now illuminating their surroundings. Both of them immediately had their guards up.

With the disappearance of the black mist, their surroundings gradually became clear to them.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3172-The dark surroundings were illuminated and looked no different from the outside world.

A palace appeared in their sight.

White light spots continuously emerged from the palace.

The lights from the palace lit up the surroundings.

The light spread out and devoured the darkness, brightening up the place.

However, the light did not spread far and only remained within a few kilometers' range.

Beyond the few-kilometer range, the world was still shrouded in darkness.

James and Nico advanced toward the black palace.

Soon, they arrived at the palace gate.

James said thoughtfully, "This must be the palace we saw just now."

Nico nodded. "Most likely."

James looked at the palace. The palace gate was more than thirty meters high. There were some bizarre characters engraved on it. Additionally, the palace was also surrounded by black energy.

However, white lights constantly emerged out of the black energy.

"Do you recognize the words, Nico?" asked James.

Nico looked at them for a while, then shook his head, saying, "They're too deep. I don't recognize them."

James turned to ask Emperor Jabari in the Celestial Abode.

“Emperor Jabari, do you recognize the words on the palace gate?”

Emperor Jabari observed the black palace from inside the Celestial Abode. After studying the words, he said, “It’s probably Ancestral Script.”

James was immediately intrigued upon hearing it was Ancestral Script.

Ancestral Script was the text passed around between Ancestral Gods.

Since Ancestral Script was used, the black palace must have been related to Ancestral Gods.

Emperor Jabari continued, “James, I can sense that the material I need is in this black palace.”

“I’ll see if I can open the gate.”

James walked closer to the black palace and touched the gate. Then, he exerted a little bit of force.

Creak!!!

With a little force, the palace gate was pushed open.

As soon as the palace gate opened, the white light spots poured out from the black palace to form a white circle of light.

James squinted his eyes as the light was blinding.

After a while, he finally got used to the dazzling light.

James strode into the black palace.

After entering through the palace gate, he arrived at a large hall. The hall was several meters high and surrounded by a few white pillars with unique characters engraved on them.

Nico also followed after him and scanned the surroundings.

The hall was empty, and there was not even a door.

James replied, “Let’s look around.”

The two began to search the hall.

James walked over to the wall and began scanning it.

The white walls had mysterious characters carved on them.

After observing them for a while, he could not understand them.

Emperor Jabari in the Celestial Abode also inspected the hall. The characters engraved on the walls were Ancestral Scripts. It was impossible for him to decipher them in such a short time.

After walking around, James went to the center of the hall.

James and Nico sat down, leaning their backs against each other's in the hall's center.

James asked, "What kind of place is this? Why did a palace suddenly appear in the Dark World?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3173-Nico shook his head. "I don't know either. I thought I was well-versed in this universe. However, after coming here, I now know there's still a lot more for me to learn."

"No way!!!"

Suddenly, a voice exclaimed from inside the Celestial Abode.

Immediately afterward, James' ring emitted a white glow, and a silhouette appeared.

The silhouette was Emperor Jabari's remnant soul.

Emperor Jabari walked straight ahead. He stood before the hall and stared at the wall.

James stood up and asked, "Why did you come out, Emperor Jabari?"

Emperor Jabari did not respond.

Nico also stood up, looked at the blurry silhouette in front of him curiously, and thought, 'Is this the powerhouse in James' Celestial Abode?'

James walked over and followed Emperor Jabari's gaze.

He looked at the strange patterns and characters on the wall. The engravings were unique and incomprehensible.

“What are you looking at, Emperor Jabari?” asked James.

Emperor Jabari remained silent and stood in place observing the wall.

James also turned to the wall again.

The engravings were very complicated, and he could not understand them.

After scrutinizing them for a while, James identified a pattern.

One of them was a drawing of a Guqin. In a trance, James saw the engravings on the wall changing. Apart from the Guqin, the other engravings gradually disappeared.

James could only see a Guqin on the wall.

Shortly after, a woman appeared.

The woman wore a green dress and had long, black hair. She sat in a lotus position on the ground with a Guqin on her knees.

James heard the beautiful melody of the Guqin resound in his ears.

He tried to see the woman’s face but could not no matter how hard he tried. The more he tried to see her face, the more blurry it grew.

Slowly, the woman’s body also became blurred.

Eventually, she disappeared and returned to the Guqin on the wall. The other strange engravings on the wall also reappeared.

James returned to his senses.

He stared at the wall, but it did not change. He scratched his head and murmured, “What happened?”

James heard Emperor Jabari mumbling.

He turned to Emperor Jabari and asked, “Who are you talking about, Emperor Jabari? Who was she? What did you decipher from the engravings?”

Emperor Jabari took a deep breath.

"In the past, I traveled all over the universe and ventured to countless ruins to find a woman. But I never found her even after adventuring to every corner of the universe. I wasn't expecting to find her traces here."

Hearing this, James immediately understood who Emperor Jabari was talking about.

It was Yukia Dearnaley.

Yukia was a mysterious woman.

Back when Emperor Jabari was still an ordinary person, he met Yukia.

Yukia taught Emperor Jabari and helped him with his cultivation.

However, Emperor Jabari had no idea what Yukia looked like.

Yukia had never shown her actual appearance to him.

James scratched his head puzzledly and said, "That can't be right, Emperor Jabari. We're in the Boundless Realm, which was sealed in the Primeval Age. You're a cultivator from another planet and were born in the early phase of the Primordial Age. How could she have been here?"

Emperor Jabari shook his head and said, "I don't know either. But I'm sure it's her. She must've been here before."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3174-Just by the Guqin engraved on the wall, Emperor Jabari knew Yukia must have been to this place.

He did not know Yukia's real name.

He had asked for her name in the past, but she refused to tell him.

James asked, "What's written on the wall, Emperor Jabari? Why are you so sure she'd been here before?"

Emperor Jabari shook his head and said, "I'm not sure yet. The Ancestral Script is really profound, and even I can't understand it instantly despite having learned it before. The only way to understand it is by stepping into the Ancestral God Rank."

Since Emperor Jabari could not figure it out, James put the topic aside.

He scanned the surroundings.

Apart from the gate, there were no other passages. Then, he asked, "Emperor Jabari, you mentioned there being a material here that you could use to reform your body, right? Where is it?"

"There's no rush. Let me study these engravings for a while."

After replying to James, Emperor Jabari fell silent.

James waited in the hall patiently.

Standing aside, Nico did not ask questions and silently looked around the hall. He would love to understand the Ancestral Scripts engraved on the walls, but he was only a Fifth Heaven Grand Emperor and could not comprehend the words.

Nico looked at Emperor Jabari's blurred silhouette and turned to James, asking, "James, what's this powerhouse's background?"

James shook his head slightly and said, "I'm not exactly sure of all the details either. I only know that he used to be a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor. When he was trying to reach the Ancestral God Rank, he was attacked by the Heavenly Path. Fortunately, he'd prepared for his death in advance and saved a fraction of his soul. Otherwise, he would've been long gone."

Nico gave a thumbs up. "That's amazing."

He was a Grand Emperor and understood how hard it was to advance further in the Grand Emperor Rank.

Because of the difficulty, there existed many Grand Emperors who were only in the First or Second Heaven. Only a few could go beyond the Grand Emperor Rank's Fifth Heaven.

James and Nico waited patiently in the hall while Emperor Jabari inspected the place.

They were not able to regain their sense of time in the palace as well. It felt as if a long time had passed, but also as if only a few seconds had passed.

At that moment, Emperor Jabari walked over to the wall. He wanted to touch the Guqin carved on the wall, but he did not have a physical body and could not make contact with the wall.

He called out, "James."

"Yeah?"

James quickly reacted and walked over. Standing beside Emperor Jabari, he asked, "What do you need?"

Emperor Jabari pointed at the Guqin on the wall and said, "Try to exert your energy to see if you can stimulate the Guqin. I'd like to verify my thoughts."

"Okay."

James immediately followed his instructions. He raised his hand and exerted his force toward the Guqin.

James' energy submerged into the Guqin, and a miraculous sight took place.

The Guqin seemed to have come alive as James' energy submerged into the wall. It slowly emerged from the wall and appeared in front of James.

Seeing this, Emperor Jabari said tremblingly, "It's her! It's really her."

James was confused.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3175-James looked at the Guqin floating before him. It looked very old and worn out.

The Guqin had many strings, and each was of a different color.

James noticed the Law of Heaven and inscriptions on the Guqin.

"James, let me borrow your body."

After Emperor Jabari finished speaking, his silhouette disappeared. The next moment, he returned to the Celestial Abode and used his energy to control James' body.

Meanwhile, James lost control of his body.

Emperor Jabari controlled James' body to sit in a lotus position. With a wave of the hand, several mysterious inscriptions emerged from his palm. Stimulated by the inscriptions, the Guqin floated toward James' body and landed in his lap.

Emperor Jabari used James' body to caress the Guqin. After a while, he gently plucked the strings.

The melodious sound of the Guqin resounded throughout the hall.

Mysterious inscriptions formed from the Guqin's strings and submerged into the surrounding walls.

Suddenly, the engravings on the wall began to change rapidly.

James was dumbfounded by the sight.

Even Nico was puzzled and kept observing the changing surroundings.

The engravings kept changing, and some of them gradually disappeared.

James' expression became solemn as he watched the scene unfolding before him.

He seemed to have figured out something from the walls.

Clank!

A string snapped, and a rattling sound resounded from the Guqin.

Throughout all this, James had no control over his body, and he had no clue what Emperor Jabari had learned from the engravings on the wall.

Suddenly, he felt freed from the control and immediately stood up. Then, he questioned, "How did it go, Emperor Jabari?"

Emperor Jabari's voice came from the Celestial Abode. "There wasn't much information, but I found a secret door in the wall ahead of us. The material I need to reform my body is in there."

James turned to the wall and inspected it.

The mysterious engravings had vanished, and nothing was left on the wall. James walked closer to the wall.

"Wait."

Emperor Jabari called out and said, "Pick up the Guqin and store it away first."

James turned around and saw the Guqin with a snapped string on the ground. He walked over and stored it in the Celestial Abode without hesitation.

Then, James walked toward the stone wall and inspected it. Soon, he found the secret door. With a light push, the door swung open.

A warehouse was hidden behind the door.

There were all kinds of miraculous materials stored in the warehouse. James was surprised to find that all of the materials were precisely what Emperor Jabari needed to reform his body.

James was perplexed.

“Th-This is a lot of materials. It has the remaining materials you need. Does this mean you don’t need any other materials, Emperor Jabari?”

“Yeah.” Emperor Jabari’s voice came from the Celestial Abode.

“Yukia predicted my death and that a fraction of my soul would survive. She knew I would come here someday and prepared these materials for my resurrection.”

James was stunned.

“What exactly is Yukia’s origin? She’s amazing. How could she have predicted your death? Besides, she met you somewhere else in the universe. We came to this palace from the Boundless Realm. Could she be capable of passing through the Boundless Realm’s seal?”

However, Emperor Jabari did not say much.

“Store the materials away first. After I restore my Soul Power, I’ll figure out how to reform my body and come back to life.”

“Alright.”

James did not hesitate and quickly stored the materials in his Celestial Abode.

At the same time, Emperor Jabari said, “Yukia has left a cultivation method here. It’s a cultivation method that living beings from outside the Dark World can use. It will allow you to absorb the power of the Dark World. I’ve already comprehended it just now. After we leave this palace, I’ll teach you so that you can travel freely around the Dark World.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3176-“Really?”

James was thrilled.

Previously, Emperor Jabari said it would take him some time.

Surprisingly, he had learned a cultivation method from the Ancestral Scripts on the wall.

Emperor Jabari's voice came from the Celestial Abode again. "Mhm. Yukia specifically left behind the Guqin. She's also the one who left the engravings on the wall, including the cultivation method."

James asked, "Then, what should we do next?"

Emperor Jabari replied, "This palace is made of the Law of Heaven. Now that the Ancestral Scripts have disappeared, the palace will soon be gone. It's best to leave as soon as possible."

After Emperor Jabari finished his sentences, the surroundings began to disperse into sparks of light.

The walls began to disintegrate rapidly, and the palace disappeared from sight.

The sparks of light also gradually vanished into the darkness.

The area returned to pitch black.

"What happened?" Nico was shocked by the sudden events.

James explained, "The palace was formed by the Law of Heaven. The Ancestral Scripts supporting it disappeared, so the palace ceased to exist."

Then, James also told Nico about Emperor Jabari controlling his body and discovering some information from the Ancestral Scripts, including the cultivation method.

Nico asked, "Then, what's next?"

"We rest here."

James sat in a lotus position.

He could only wait for Emperor Jabari to teach him the cultivation method he could use while in the Dark World. Then, Emperor Jabari would have to recover his Soul Power.

Meanwhile, inside the Celestial Abode, Emperor Jabari wore a sorrowful expression.

He stood in a courtyard and looked into the distance with a sad expression. It was hard to tell what was on his mind.

"Huff."

After a while, he sighed.

Then, he casually waved his hand, and mysterious inscriptions emerged from his palm. The inscriptions flowed out from the Celestial Abode and entered James' mind.

At that moment, James received a vast amount of information.

He sat in a lotus position and accepted the information.

After a long time, James received the complete information.

"Amazing."

James took a deep breath and murmured, "It's impossible for a living being with a physical body to cultivate in the Dark World. However, this mysterious Yukia created a method."

Since it would take a while for Emperor Jabari to recover his Soul Power, James planned to use the time to comprehend the cultivation method he had just received from Emperor Jabari.

The cultivation method was called Dark Scripture, created by Yukia.

However, the cultivation method was imperfect. It only explained how to absorb the Dark Power from the Dark World.

James did not know to what extent the Dark Scripture could be practiced because there were no detailed records of it.

Sitting in a lotus position, James began to meditate.

Without a sense of time, there was no knowing how much time had passed.

Suddenly, he raised his hand.

He spread out his arms, then relaxed his body.

James began to use the cultivation method to integrate Soul Power into his physical body.

That was the first step in cultivating Dark Power.

Dark Power was only suitable for souls to cultivate. A living being with a physical body could not cultivate such power.

Therefore, the first step in using the cultivation method was integrating Soul Power into his physical body.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3177-One's soul and body were separate existences.

The body was merely the carrier of the soul.

Under normal circumstances, souls were to disappear after leaving the physical body.

However, a powerful soul could be preserved after the destruction of the body. As long as there was a physical body to carry the soul, one could be easily resurrected.

After practicing the Dark Scripture, James would have to integrate Soul Power into his physical body. In the future, his soul would also be damaged if his physical body were to sustain injury.

This was the disadvantage of practicing the Dark Scripture.

Despite the one downside, there were many benefits.

After practicing the Dark Scripture, James could cultivate Dark Power and could roam freely in the Dark World. He would no longer have to be afraid of the corroding effect of Dark Power.

Powers from the Illuminated World were feeble in the Dark World. However, forces from the Dark World were terrifyingly strong in the Illuminated World.

Dark Power was much more horrifying than Curse Power.

James could sense that Dark Power was somewhat similar to Curse Power. Therefore, he suspected Curse Magic was a Secret Art that originated from the Dark World.

James spread out his arms and relaxed his mind.

At that moment, his soul began to shred apart.

Even he could not bear the excruciating pain of tearing his soul apart. His face distorted from the pain, and he growled.

Nico watched from aside. Seeing James in such severe pain, he could not help reminding him, "If you can't bear it, just give up, James."

However, James gritted his teeth and persisted.

He forcibly split his soul and integrated a portion of it into his physical body.

Separating just a little of his soul was painful enough to make him sweat profusely.

James raised his hand and wiped the sweat off his face.

"I don't know how long we'll be in the Dark World. If I don't cultivate Dark Power, my physical body might not make it."

He took a deep breath.

After recomposing himself, James continued to split his soul apart.

Without practice, forcibly tearing one's soul could be very damaging.

However, James' soul was not harmed because he used the cultivation method left behind by Yuki to separate and merge his soul into his body.

In the future, improving his physical strength would increase his Soul Power.

There were many benefits from fusing his soul into his physical body.

"Ahh!!!"

James' painful growls resounded in the Dark World.

Despite the pain, James continued to split his soul.

The passage of time was undetectable in the Dark World. Thus, James had no idea how many years had passed.

In the past few years, he had been forcibly tearing his soul and fusing it into his physical body bit by bit.

James fell feebly to the ground when the last trace of soul merged with his physical body.

However, he chuckled happily.

"I did it. I succeeded."

He got back up from the ground and stretched his body.

James could feel the powerful Soul Power inside his body, and his body showed no abnormalities.

“Congratulations, James.”

Nico quickly congratulated him, saying, “You’ve succeeded in the first step.”

“Hehe!”

James chuckled and said, “After enduring so much pain, I’ve finally completed the first step. The following steps will be much simpler. As long as I practice according to the cultivation method and improve my Dark Power, I might be able to cultivate a Dark Ousia.

“It’ll be my tenth Ousia. If I succeed, my achievements will be unprecedented and will break the universe’s record!”

“I’m looking forward to that day.” Nico also anticipated James’ success.

He also wanted to know if someone could break the universe’s record and cultivate a tenth Ousia.

James stopped talking and resumed sitting in a lotus position. Then, he began to practice the cultivation method.

At that moment, power materialized out of the black mist from the surroundings. The power entered James’ body through his pores. After the power was refined, they formed a brand new power.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3178-James knew he had spent a long time merging his soul into his physical body.

He felt tormented by the pain during the process, but now he was completely fine.

After James refined some Dark Power in his body, he was ecstatic.

Although the power was still weak and could not even form a palm attack, it was a good start for him to successfully refine Dark Power.

Dark Power was abundant in the Dark World, and he could absorb as much as needed. As a result, his cultivation speed was very fast.

After cultivating a bit of power, James temporarily halted his cultivation.

Now that he had completed the first step, the rest was just a matter of time. His main concern at the moment was Emperor Jabari.

He asked Emperor Jabari inside the Celestial Abode, "How long more would it take for you to begin reforming your physical body?"

Emperor Jabari replied, "You don't need to worry about me for now, James. After I recover my Soul Power, I'll use the materials to reform my body. I'll let you know when the time comes."

"Alright."

With Emperor Jabari's reassurance, James did ask any more questions.

He concentrated on his cultivation, absorbing the Dark Power from the mist.

James' Dark Power increased continuously as time passed.

Two figures sat cross-legged on the ground in the darkness.

The area was dead silent.

Time seemed non-existence in the Dark World.

The two figures sat in lotus positions for a while, but it felt like an eternity had passed.

It was none other than James and Nico.

James' aura kept growing stronger.

Suddenly, he opened his eyes.

As soon as he woke up, he felt a piercing pain throughout his body and could not help screeching in pain.

Beside him, Nico immediately reacted and asked, "What's wrong, James?"

James stretched out his hand and touched his chest with a pained look.

He already had significant Dark Power in his body, and it had reached the peak of the Sage Rank's Thirty-Third Stage. With one more improvement, the power would reach the Divine Rank.

However, the Dark Power had affected his body.

The Dark Power permeated his body, and an excruciating pain spread all over his body. Not only did his physical body suffer from the pain, but even his soul was affected.

In just a short period, James was bathed in sweat. His face distorted while trying to endure the pain.

Dark Power was destructive, and his body showed signs of disintegrating. Even his soul which was fused with his physical body seemed to be on the verge of destruction.

James immediately activated the Dark Scripture's cultivation method and restrained the Dark Power in his body.

The pain dissipated as soon as he began restraining the Dark Power.

James sat on the ground and finally caught his breath after a while.

"I've unknowingly cultivated the Dark Power in my body to the peak of the Sage Rank's Thirty-Third Stage. I'm very close to forming a Dark Ousia.

"However, the Dark Scripture only records the technique of absorbing Dark Power. It has nothing recorded that teaches me how to form a Dark Ousia.

"The Dark World is different from the Illuminated World. Using techniques from the Illuminated World to form an Ousia will not work. Moreover, the Dark Power seems to be affecting my body and soul after cultivating it to the Sage Rank's Thirty-Third Stage."

James murmured, "Is it impossible to cultivate a Dark Ousia?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3179-"Or is it possible that there's a cultivation method that allows me to form a Dark Ousia that I haven't obtained?"

James fell into deep thought but could not figure out what had happened.

Unable to get to the bottom of it, James put the problem away for now. His purpose of cultivating Dark Power was to prevent his physical body from being destroyed. The Dark

Power in his body was strong enough to prevent his body from being destroyed while in the Dark World.

After returning to his senses, James turned to Nico and said, "I-I'm fine."

Nico stared at James.

Although powers from the Illuminated World would weaken in the Dark World, Nico was still a Fifth Heaven Grand Emperor. Even though his strength was weakened, he was still a powerhouse.

His Divine Senses could detect the Dark Power that was formed in James' body.

Nico could sense that James' Dark Power was close to reaching the Divine Rank and that he was close to forming an Ousia.

"Is there no other way to form an Ousia?" asked Nico.

James shook his head slightly and said, "The Dark Scripture that Emperor Jabari passed on to me only has records of how to absorb Dark Power. It doesn't have anything related to forming a Dark Ousia."

Nico thought for a while and said, "I'm sure it's not going to be much different from the Illuminated World's techniques. Despite being different worlds, the essence of cultivation is the same. You could try doing it with the same technique from the Illuminated World."

"Alright. I'll give it a try." James nodded.

James sat in a lotus position and performed the cultivation method again. The Dark Power began surging through his body's meridians. James felt a severe pain permeating his body as soon as the Dark Power started to move.

The Dark Power caused discomfort in his physical body and soul.

James felt as if the Dark Power was an incompatible force with his body and soul.

He rolled on the ground in pain. His meridians were severed, and there were slight cracks on his body.

James immediately stopped cultivating and restrained his Dark Power.

Seeing James covered in blood, Nico asked, "How was it?"

James shook his head and said, "It won't work. The Dark Power in my body has already reached the point of forming an Ousia. However, my body can't withstand the full strength of the Dark Power."

"That shouldn't be happening."

Nico stroked his chin and said, "What's the problem? Is the Dark Power not compatible with your physical body? Or is it because you've already cultivated nine Ousias and aren't able to form another one?"

James shook his head. Even he could not figure out what was wrong.

Perhaps the Dark Scripture was incomplete, and he could not make the Dark Power completely compatible with his physical body.

His failure could also be due to having already cultivated nine Ousias. Despite being in the Dark World, the Dark Heavenly Path prevented living beings from developing ten Ousias and could be suppressing him. The Heavenly Path might punish or kill him if he continued his attempts.

James was unsure of what the problem was.

When he was still weak, he had tried mobilizing Dark Power. The Dark Power could flow smoothly through his body and did not cause any discomfort.

However, he was so immersed in his cultivation that he had forgotten about the passage of time and even his own existence.

If not because he failed to cultivate his Ousia and the imperfection of the Dark Scripture, he might just continue cultivating until the power reached the Emperor Rank.

The severe pain interrupted him and forced him to stop.

James sat in a lotus position but could not mobilize his power from the Illuminated World. Even when he succeeded, his power was weak, and he could heal his injuries.

Therefore, James could only rely on his body's self-healing mechanism.

Before he knew it, his injuries had completely healed.

This time, James attempted to mobilize a small amount of Dark Power.

The small amount of Dark Power flowed through his body without hindrance.

James murmured, "It seems I can't fully exert the Dark Power in my body."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3180-James did not bother himself with it.

Whether he could cultivate a Dark Ousia was up to fate. His main concern was how long he had been in the Dark World.

Additionally, he was also concerned about Emperor Jabari's recovery.

James said, "Nico, let's go inside the Celestial Abode to have a look."

"Alright." Nico nodded.

Afterward, James brought Nico into the Celestial Abode.

It was Nico's first time entering James' Celestial Abode. He was a Grand Emperor and could also create a similar place. Thus, he was not too surprised.

Inside the city of the Celestial Abode, Emperor Jabari was cultivating in a courtyard.

Suddenly, the courtyard gate was pushed open. James walked toward the statue in the courtyard and asked, "How are you, Emperor Jabari?"

The statue came alive, then a silhouette emerged.

Emperor Jabari looked slightly different, and his face was visible.

He smiled and said, "I'm doing well. Among the materials left behind by Yukia, there were Emperor Rank Herbs that could restore Soul Power. I've already recovered about half of my Soul Power.

"However, I'll have to reform my physical body to continue recuperating."

"Congratulation, Grand Emperor," James said smilingly.

Emperor Jabari smiled and casually waved his hand. A large number of materials appeared in front of him.

All of the materials were to be used to reform his physical body.

When Emperor Jabari raised his hand, mysterious inscriptions emerged from his palm. Then, a strong force swept toward the materials before him.

The materials began to refine and turned into liquid. Ultimately, the liquid solidified and formed a physical body.

The appearance of the physical body looked exactly like Emperor Jabari.

It was incredibly easy for a formidable powerhouse like him to reform a physical body for himself.

In just a short moment, he made a brand new body ready.

Emperor Jabari looked at the physical body before him and said, "The materials we've found are the best of the best in the universe. This physical body's defensive strength is equivalent to that of a Seventh Heaven Grand Emperor.

"After my resurrection, my strength will only be of a Fourth or Fifth Heaven Grand Emperor.

"Still, it'll be easy for me to reach my heyday again."

Hearing this, James was relieved.

As long as Emperor Jabari could be resurrected, he would not have to worry about anything in the future.

Emperor Jabari could suppress even the powerful force, the Sanctuary of Darkness.

With a solemn expression, Emperor Jabari said, "However, I'm already dead to the Heavenly Path. I'm unsure if the Heavenly Path will punish me after my resurrection."

Emperor Jabari was like a criminal sentenced to death, but if somehow found alive, the relevant authorities would capture him again after discovering his existence.

"Whatever."

Emperor Jabari sighed and said, "At this point, I can only take one step at a time. I'm sure the Heavenly Path will turn a blind eye to my existence as long as I don't do anything against its will or attempt to harm it."

James looked at Emperor Jabari and asked, "Let's begin, Emperor Jabari. I can't wait!"

Emperor Jabari nodded.

He casually waved his hand, and the brand-new physical body on the ground floated toward him.

Emperor Jabari stepped into the body, and his soul began to merge into the body.

If they were in the Illuminated World, Emperor Jabari would have to set up a formation to hide from the Heavenly Path.

However, it was unnecessary since they were in the Dark World. The Heavenly Path of the Illuminated World could not interfere in the affairs of the Dark World.

Under James and Nico's watchful gaze, Emperor Jabari's soul gradually merged into the physical body. The process lasted for quite a long time.

Although they were in the Celestial Abode, it was still impossible to sense the passage of time.

Emperor Jabari's soul integrated with the reformed body.
