

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3195

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3195-Chancellor Garland turned around and entered the residence, followed by James, Thea, and Nico.

At the main hall of the residence, the Chancellor sat in his seat. His expression was filled with worry.

James asked, "What's wrong? Is this a troublesome thing for you?"

Garland let out a sigh and said, "It's not that I'm unwilling to share what I know. It's just that Grand Emperor Moacir Bartholomew makes my blood run cold. No Seafolk in the entire Boundless Sea is his match, not even the Four Dragon Kings. The Grand Emperor is notoriously frightening. He single-handedly destroyed the Dragon Palace of the Northern Sea, wiping out innumerable Seafolk."

He sighed again.

James said, "Don't worry. Just continue."

"Right." Garland nodded. He went deep into thought for quite a while before saying, "Grand Emperor Moacir Bartholomew lives in the northern part of the Boundless Sea called the Northern Pole Sea. He's the ruler of the Boundless Sea whose power could chill one's blood to the marrow. But, this wasn't the case many years ago. The Boundless Sea was initially ruled by the Four Dragon Kings. Yet, after Moacir rose to power, he annihilated the Dragon Palace of the Northern Sea, coercing them to buckle under him."

James took note of Moacir's place of stay. Cupping his fist in the other hand, he said, "Thank you for letting me know." Once he said so, he stood up, signaling his intention to exit.

The Chancellor attempted to restrain them by asking, "My dear superiors, are you going to find trouble with Moacir?"

James merely let out a faint smile and said nothing else. The three of them left the residence. After buying a detailed map of the Boundless Sea from the island's city, they confirmed the exact location of the northern part of the Boundless Sea before setting off.

James said to Nico, "Let's go."

"Alright."

Nico waved his hand. From his palm, a powerful force materialized, slashing open the space in front of them.

They entered the crack and disappeared along with it. At the next moment, they found themselves in the northern part of the Boundless Sea.

Nico said, "James, this is the northern part of the Boundless Sea. But it's humongous. It would be rather difficult to find where the Grand Emperor lives."

James replied encouragingly, "Since we're already here, the task's difficulty has already been reduced by a lot." He looked around, but the area was devoid of Seafolk. Even the most common fish and crustaceans were absent.

"Let's move further in," James instructed the group.

Subsequently, the group advanced forward while also making observations of the area below them. Their observation speed was as quick as their advancement.

Time moved quickly. A month passed, but they had still yet to find the location of the Grand Emperor.

Another month passed again before Nico suddenly stopped and said, "Wait a minute."

James asked, "What's up?"

Staring ahead, Nico sharpened his senses and said, "There's a battle ahead."

Hearing this, James became cautious immediately. He asked, "Which direction?"

Nico pointed ahead, to which James responded, "Let's go have a look."

The three of them advanced quickly. Around half a day passed. Now, even Thea could sense the aura of the battle. However, James could not.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3196

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3196-The three of them advanced at high speed. They did not tear apart the void to get to their destination. However, since all three of them were powerful figures, they could still move very quickly. One step, and they disappeared from the area.

Very soon, Thea started sensing the battle as well. Her expression was serious as she said, "The remnants of the battle are frightening. Those fighting must have attained the Grand Emperor Rank's Fifth Heaven or beyond."

James' power was comparatively weak, so he could not sense the aura of the battle. However, after hearing what Thea said, he was stupefied. A fight between figures of the Grand Emperor Rank's Fifth Heaven? There were only a handful of them in the Boundless Realm. He thought of a possibility—a fight between the Leader of the Sanctuary of Darkness and Grand Emperor Moacir Bartholomew.

"Hurry," he called out, and his companions picked up speed.

It did not take long for James to finally sense the battle's aura. The aura was so oppressive that even James felt suffocated.

He immediately contacted Emperor Jabari in the Celestial Abode and said, "Emperor, there are immensely powerful figures fighting against each other. Perhaps we need your help this time."

The Emperor's voice came from the Celestial Abode. "Don't panic. Look at the situation first."

"Right."

James did not say more and propelled forward. Very quickly, the three of them appeared near the battleground. There was an intense fight on the surface of the sea. A man in a black robe was fighting against a middle-aged man in a gray robe. Their power was so strong that a lift of their finger released energies destructive enough to wipe out the earth and the heavens.

James recognized one of them. The man in black was Tamuuz Darkness, the Sanctuary of Darkness' Deputy Master. There was also a woman he recognized. She was one of the officials of the Elixir Pavilion, Jadranka Yevdokiya.

Beholding this, James exhaled a long breath.

Thea looked at James anxiously and asked, "What do we do now, honey?"

James shook his head slightly and said, "Don't panic yet. Let's watch and see."

He saw a man at a distance who did not partake in the battle—Tadhg Gallagher, the Leader of the Sanctuary of Darkness. Tadhg was merely staring at the battle ahead. Although Moacir was strong, Tamuuz was his equal. With Jadranka helping on the side, Moacir was not a worthy opponent at all.

Tadhg sensed someone else at the scene and immediately turned around. When he saw James and his companions, he became worried.

"Damn, how did they arrive so fast?" He looked concerned.

After some time, worry dissipated from his face. In the next moment, he appeared in front of James and his group. This caused James, Thea, and Nico to take a few steps backward and eye him cautiously.

Tadhg was rather good-looking. Wearing a faint smile, he said, "I didn't expect you to arrive this quickly."

James looked at him. While he felt shaken inside, he kept his expression calm and asked, "If my guess is correct, you must be the mysterious Leader of the Sanctuary of Darkness."

Tadhg smiled faintly and asked him, "Then, you must be the messenger sent by humans to the Boundless Realm in search of the Ancestral God Rank Elixir?"

James was not shocked that his identity was exposed. That was because the Sanctuary of Darkness was very mysterious. Having so many powerful figures within the Sanctuary, knowing such things was not a difficult feat. As such, he merely kept quiet.

Tadhg was sure that his hypothesis was true. This was indeed the messenger sent by humans, James. There was only one thing he was confused about—why was James' rank so low? He was not fooled easily, however, as he was reminded of how James had disrupted the plans of the Sanctuary multiple times.

He looked at James and said, "In the Primeval Age, humans and Ancestral Gods opposed the Heavenly Path, but all of them disappeared after, taking the entire age with them. Although you're a human, I advise you to think twice before you act. Why are you siding with the humans? If you follow the Heavenly Path, you'll obtain immortality."

Tadhg began to persuade him.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3197

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3197—"The Heavenly Path manages all rules and order. Without the constraint of the Path, the entire world will be in chaos. In the Primeval Age, the Ancestral Gods of the Human Race wanted to destroy the Path because of personal interest, causing the entire destruction of the Age as well. Humans have sinned."

Hearing this, James merely continued watching the battle. The middle-aged man in a gray robe was losing due to the simultaneous attack by many powerful figures of the Sanctuary of Darkness. The man should be Moacir, he guessed.

Even though Moacir was losing, that did not mean that the Sanctuary would have an easy time defeating or killing him.

James was disinterested in whatever Tadhg was saying. At this point in time, the urge to kill James surfaced in Tadhg's heart. He clenched his fists, wanting to attack James. However, the ring on James' finger suddenly lit up, followed by a flash of white light, from which a handsome man wearing a white robe appeared.

The man stood in front of James. Tadhg sensed that this man was rather powerful, so he carefully took a few steps back, eyeing him cautiously.

Emperor Jabari's appearance helped James recover from the anxiety, as his power was so great that even the Master of the Sanctuary might not be his opponent. Looking at Tadhg, he could sense that Tadhg had attained the Grand Emperor Rank's Eighth Heaven, just a step away from the peak of the Grand Emperor Rank. This person was a difficult opponent. Even if one yearned to defeat him, some effort would be needed.

The Emperor was not afraid even though he knew Tadhg was powerful. "I must obtain the Elixir," he spoke determinedly.

"Then, we'll have to see whether you deserve it." Tadhg's expression turned gloomy as well. A powerful force erupted from his body. Once this force surfaced, the heavens shattered, causing the waters beneath it to boil, stirring up waves as tall as a thousand meters.

Thea, James, and Nico quickly took a few steps back and evacuated from the area.

At that moment, both the Emperor and Tadhg moved.

Thump! Two powerful forces fused, causing a strong ripple-like effect that spread across the Boundless Sea. Within the area, numerous Seafolk were facing terrible calamities.

"How strong," James could not help but sigh. If it were not because of Nico shielding him from the battle's fluctuations, his physical strength would have buckled under the remnant fluctuations of the battle between Tadhg and Emperor Jabari.

The fight ensued when Thea said, "If we want to acquire the Elixir now, we must defeat the powerful figures of the Sanctuary."

Nico gave her words some thought and said, "While Emperor Jabari is distracting the most powerful figure of the Sanctuary, let's go help Moacir."

Thea felt awkward and said, "I've merely reached the Grand Emperor Rank's Second Heaven. I don't think I would be of any help in this battle."

At that moment, the Spirit Tool in the Celestial Abode summoned its entire body's energy into James' body. His physical strength was once again stimulated. The power hidden within his body recovered, allowing him to become stronger. The Spirit Tool, having attained the Grand Emperor Rank, caused his power to ascend to the level of a Grand Emperor as well.

“Let’s go, Nico.” James was confident now that his physical strength was completely stimulated and his power was comparable to that of a Grand Emperor.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3198

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3198-In the deepest parts of the Boundless Sea, two intense battles were being fought. One was a battle between Emperor Jabari and the Leader of the Sanctuary of Darkness, Tadhg Gallagher. The other was between Grand Emperor Moacir Bartholomew and many powerful figures of the Sanctuary.

Having attained the Grand Emperor Rank’s Seventh Heaven, he was one of the top three strongest figures in the Boundless Realm. However, he was very humble, staying within the Boundless Sea and never stepping into other worlds. That was why very few knew about his existence.

At this moment when he was fighting against so many powerful figures of the Sanctuary, he was forced to return to his original form—a whale as big as an island. Moacir’s power ascended when he returned to his original form. Apart from Tamuuz Darkness, no other figure from the Sanctuary could actually harm him. The most they could do was annoy him.

Tamuuz felt pressured immediately. He held a long, black sword, swinging it from side to side. Each swing produced a sword light that carried the Supreme Wheel of the Path.

These invincible sword lights continually fell on Moacir. Although he had an unrivaled physical body, attacks like this still felt unbearable. Injuries surfaced on his humongous body.

Tamuuz appeared in the sky. With a flip of the palm, a scary palmpoint fell. The print continuously expanded, like a world was crashing down on Moacir. His enormous body was crushed, falling into the waters.

The vast sea was split in half immediately. One could see the sea floor in that instant. Moacir who fell to the sea bed was infuriated. His giant body was hurled outward in a split second, causing the seawater to boil up and condense, forming a world of water that was charging toward Tamuuz.

Tamuuz held his Imperial Weapon and swung it vigorously. Frightening sword light materialized like waves, cutting apart this world of water.

The battle was extremely intense. Now that James has acquired the Spirit Tool's power that stimulated his physical body and activated his internal energies, his physical strength had now reached the Grand Emperor Rank's Fifth Heaven. With the help of the Spirit Tool, his own power was comparable to that of a Grand Emperor.

Swish!

Purple light flashed, and a weapon of the Ancestral God Rank—the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword—appeared in his hand. He looked at the enthusiastic Nico beside him and said, “Nico, I'll leave Jadranka to you. Leave the rest of the powerful figures of the Sanctuary to me.”

James had been observing for quite a while now. The most powerful among them was most likely Tamuuz. Now that Tamuuz was occupied, what was left was Jadranka, who had attained the Grand Emperor Rank's Fifth Heaven. The fight would not be short if James were to go against her. Now, the fastest way to end the battle was to deal with the rest of the powerful figures.

James could sense that even the weakest of them all had reached the Grand Emperor Rank's Fourth Heaven. It looked like the Sanctuary of Darkness really did dispatch the strongest forces among them for the Elixir.

Nico assured James, “No problem. Leave it to me.” Then, he flew away immediately.

“Honey, be careful,” Thea reminded James and took a few steps back immediately.

James was holding the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword. After he had successfully cultivated the Sword Path Ousia, his comprehension of the Sword Path reached even greater heights. The Sword in his hand could reciprocate much more powerful forces than before.

Even if his own strength reached a mere Grand Emperor Rank's First Heaven, the power of the Sword helped buttress his power, allowing him to win a battle against a figure at the Grand Emperor Rank's Third Heaven. In addition, his physical strength was comparable to that of a Grand Emperor at the Fifth Heaven.

In the battle, nobody was his opponent apart from Tamuuz and Jadranka. His desire for war escalated, and he charged with his Sword. He took one step and appeared on the battlefield, standing before a powerful figure at the Grand Emperor Rank's Fourth Heaven.

This man was an elder who was thin and frail. His face was wrinkly, and his bones were visible to the naked eye. However, his gaze could make one's flesh crawl. He glanced at James immediately upon sensing his arrival, and an incessant amount of power swept toward James.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3199

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3199-James casually waved his hand, and powerful Sword Energy materialized and slashed this shapeless power.

“Goodbye.”

James’ expression was devoid of emotion. Holding the Divine Sword in hand, he pierced the elderly man. Though his move seemed ordinary, it actually contained countless sophisticated moves that were merged into one. Space seemed to be sealed, and time appeared to have been frozen.

The elderly man froze.

In the meantime, James’ sword was already right before him.

He reacted in time and raised his hand to block the attack. As he raised his hand, countless mysterious Inscription Sigils emerged in his palm, gathering to form a bizarre pattern. Mysterious power appeared from within the pattern, and James’ sword pierced through the pattern.

Boom!

The First Sword Realm with the boost of the Divine Sword was terrifying. James’ sword had surpassed even his own strength, and an unbelievable power burst forth. The mysterious sigils formed were instantly shattered, and the sword pierced through the elderly man’s body.

“Dammit!”

The elderly man was enraged.

Instinctively, he raised his palm and struck. At that moment, countless inscriptions gathered, each containing devastating power. Then, the power struck James. Since he attacked from such a short distance, James did not have time to react, and his chest received a direct hit.

The elderly man was a Fourth Heaven Grand Emperor. Now that he had summoned his full strength, even James, whose physical strength was equivalent to a Fifth Heaven Grand Emperor, suffered some damage. Cracks appeared on the surface of his skin, the Blood Energy inside his body churned, and he spurted out a mouthful of blood.

However, that was everything he had. After retaliating, the elderly man hurriedly escaped.

"Think you can leave?"

James said coldly.

Instantly, he summoned the Infinity Steles, and 108 of them materialized. One of them charged straight toward the elderly man, exuding a mysterious power that froze time and space.

The elderly man's movements turned sluggish. At that moment, the Infinity Steles crashed into him. Plummeling from the sky, the elderly man crashed into the waves below and caused a great wave.

James scanned his surroundings. Then, he summoned the Infinity Steles and willed them to attack the Fourth Heaven Grand Emperors attacking Moacir.

Knowing how terrifying the Infinity Steles were, they hurriedly dodged.

"Curses!"

Tamuuz, who was in the midst of fighting Moacir, cursed, "Why the hell is he here?"

As he had been concentrating wholeheartedly on the battle, he had no idea when James appeared.

He tried requesting the Leader for help. However, when he collected himself, he realized that the Leader was engaged in a fierce battle against a handsome man in white. What was shocking was that the Leader was gradually losing ground and had suffered a few injuries.

"What?!"

Tamuuz was stunned.

He knew just how powerful the Leader was, who was at the peak of the Eighth Heaven of the Grand Emperor Rank. He was merely a step away from becoming a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor. Since the man in white was able to overwhelm the Leader, just how powerful was he?

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3200

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3200-Tadhg Gallagher, Leader of the Sanctuary of Darkness, was at the peak of the Eighth Heaven of the Grand Emperor Rank. He seldom made a move in public for he was near invincible in the Boundless Realm. Even during the previous assault on the Pavilion, he did not intervene. As such, Tamuuz could not believe that someone would be able to overwhelm Tadhg in the Boundless Realm.

While he was distracted, Moacir counterattacked and injured him. Fearful of letting his guard down again, he summoned his full strength and focused on fighting.

James summoned the 108 Infinity Steles and overwhelmed all his foes, who hurriedly dodged the attacks. Then, they swiftly gathered and attacked James all at once.

“Very good!”

James laughed.

As his mind stirred, the Five Elements of Genesis materialized from within his body, and the five treasures that had existed since the creation of heaven and earth exuded immense power. The power of the Five Elements gathered and interwoven with each other, forming a huge wheel. The moment the huge wheel emerged, a devastating power burst forth. Under the destruction of this power, cracks began to appear in the void. This scene stunned the Fourth Heaven Grand Emperors, who dared not approach.

James seized this opportunity and stirred his mind, and the huge Elemental Wheel charged toward Tamuuz.

Tamuuz was in the midst of a fierce battle against Moacir when the Elemental Wheel charged at him. By the time he tried to dodge, he was too late.

Raising the black Imperial Weapon in his hand, he slashed the Elemental Wheel ferociously. Though the terrifying power struck the Elemental Wheel, he could not deal any damage to the wheel. Rather, he was sent flying by the powerful force.

At that moment, the Elemental Wheel pursued him. As this was a fusion of five terrifying powers, even Tamuuz did not dare let his guard down.

He hurriedly dodged the attack. At that moment, the void he was in a moment ago was crushed by the Elemental Wheel, and a black hole appeared.

Once James intervened, Moacir now had some breathing room. Upon transforming into his original form, his body flashed, and he appeared before a Fourth Heaven Grand Emperor. An illusory sigil emerged and grabbed hold of the Grand Emperor, tearing him apart. Even his soul was completely annihilated. This was how terrifying a Seventh Heaven Grand Emperor was. He was able to annihilate a Fourth Heaven Grand Emperor in an instant.

“Dammit!”

In the distance, Tadhg, who was in the midst of a fierce battle against Jabari, was sensing the battle elsewhere in the region. Seeing that one of the powerful figures of the Sanctuary was torn to pieces just like that, he was enraged. Though he wanted to charge at Moacir, he was stopped by Jabari's unrelenting attacks.

After tearing apart a member of the Sanctuary, Moacir's body flashed, and he appeared before James. His hair was disheveled, and he was in a wretched state. Not only that, but he was covered in injuries all over his body. As these were injuries caused by the Great Path, no ordinary power could rejuvenate them.

"Thank you, my friend." He clasped his fists.

Holding the Divine Sword in his hand, James said, "Let's mop everything up for now."

"Alright."

As Moacir gazed at the powerful figures of the Sanctuary, his face darkened as he roared, "I have been living in seclusion all my life and have never left the Boundless Sea. Since you came here looking for trouble, don't think about leaving this place!"

Tamuuz and the others were wearing solemn expressions.

In the distance, Tadhg was also contemplating while he fought. He knew that he would not be able to obtain the Ancestral God Rank Elixir.

Recommended Novels