The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3201-At that moment, Tadhg thought about escaping. With that thought in mind, he yelled, "Retreat!"

As he spoke, he distanced himself from Jabari and hurriedly escaped. Since a Grand Emperor at the peak of the Eighth Heaven was trying to flee, even Jabari could not do anything to stop him. While Tadhg made his escape, Tamuuz and the rest of the Sanctuary fled as well. In just a short period of time, they disappeared without a trace.

Though the battle was over, there was still a lingering battle aura in the air.

Emperor Jabari, Thea, and Nico walked toward James and Moacir.

Thea asked with concern, "Are you alright, Darling?"

James smiled and said, "Of course I am."

Then, he looked at Jabari and asked, "How are you doing, Grand Emperor?"

Wearing a grim expression, Jabari said, "I have yet to return to my peak form. Faced with the Leader of the Sanctuary, I can only keep him at bay. I won't be able to annihilate him anytime soon. Besides, the Curse Magic he cultivated is terrifying. I'm injured after lowering my guard."

"What? How's your injury?" James was stunned.

Emperor Jabari said, "It's no big deal. I'll be returning to the Celestial Abode to treat my injuries."

Then, his body flashed, and he vanished without a trace.

Moacir looked at James and the others, clasped his fists, and said, "Thank you for your help."

James waved slightly and said, "Don't mention it, Grand Emperor Moacir."

Moacir looked at them and asked, "The human race seldom enters the Boundless Sea. What happened? Why are so many powerful figures mobilized?"

James asked, "Surely you know the reason?"

Moacir shook his head and answered, "No."

"Is that so?" James said coldly, "Allow me to refresh your memory, then. Countless years ago, did you not obtain a treasure?"

“What treasure?” Moacir asked.

James continued, “An elixir, which is currently inside your body. However, you’re unable to refine this elixir. You only manage to attain such strength by absorbing the power exuded by the elixir.”

Moacir answered truthfully, “Indeed, I obtained an elixir when I was still very weak.”

Moacir happened to obtain a fragment of the Ancestral God Rank Elixir. Through the power and the inscriptions engraved on the interior of the elixir, he managed to attain such strength. Though he researched the elixir, he could not figure out what that was. Now, a group of powerful figures of the human race had come knocking on his door.

He looked at James and asked, “Do you know this elixir?”

James nodded and said, “This is an Ancestral God Rank Elixir. It was concocted through the combined efforts of countless Ancestral Gods of the human race in the Primeval Age.”

“An Ancestral God Rank Elixir?!”

Moacir was stunned.

James continued, “However, the Ancestral God Rank Elixir cannot be absorbed nor refined and has always been guarded by the Elixir Pavilion. However, many years ago, the Sanctuary attacked the Pavilion in an attempt to seize the elixir. Meanwhile, the Ancestral God Rank Elixir was divided into five fragments. The one you obtained is among the five fragments.”

Maocir listened intently.

James reached out and said, “Though the Ancestral God Rank Elixir may not be useful to you, it’s fundamental to the survival of the human race and even the world. Hand it over.”

Moacir was not an idiot. He only managed to attain such strength by relying on the Ancestral God Rank Elixir. With the elixir, he could even reach the Ancestral God Rank. Thus, he did not want to hand it over.

Seeing that he was reluctant to forfeit the elixir, James said, “The Ancestral God Rank is deeply tied to the plans of countless Ancestral Gods and the struggle between them and the Heavenly Path. In the Primeval Age, the human race lost, causing the entire age to perish alongside them. If humans are defeated once more, this era will come to an end. You, on the other hand, will also die. Do you understand me?”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3202-“Is that so?”

Moacir did not believe a single word. Even if what James said was true, there was no way he was handing over the Ancestral God Rank Elixir's fragments, considering that the human race was fighting against the Heavenly Path.

“Yes, I'm speaking the truth.” James said, “The Fourth Calamity of the human race is just around the corner. By then, Heaven's Adjudicators will descend, and all of humankind will be annihilated.”

Moacir said coldly, “I'm not a member of the human race. How does the fate of humankind concern me?”

James tried convincing Moacir nicely. However, it was apparent that Moacir had no plans to give up the Ancestral God Rank Elixir.

James' face darkened, “Since you're reluctant to hand over the elixir, let's battle each other. I can obtain the elixir by annihilating you anyway.”

Hearing this, Moacir unconsciously staggered backward. He knew just how powerful James and the others were, especially Jabari who fought against the Leader of the Sanctuary. Even he could feel his blood run cold. If Jabari made a move against him, he would not stand a chance at all.

After weighing the pros and cons, he smiled and said, “I'm just messing with you. I don't really care about the Ancestral God Rank Elixir anyway. If you want it, I'll simply give it to you.”

Then, he opened his mouth. A golden light glimmered in it, which slowly gathered to form a shining elixir.

James immediately took the elixir. After confirming the authenticity, he stored it away.

Clasping his fists, he said, “Thank you.”

Though Moacir was reluctant, he had no other choice but to act generously and say, “Well, this thing is no longer useful to me anyway. Take it if you wish. Don't return to the Boundless Sea ever again.”

After he spoke, his body flashed, and he entered the sea. Since he was injured, he had to return to treat his injuries.

After he left, Thea said, “Now, we have obtained three of the five fragments. Apart from the one in the Sanctuary's possession, there's only one remaining in the outside world.

We should hurry and locate the whereabouts of the fourth. Once the Sanctuary gets to it before us, things will get troublesome.”

“Alright.” James nodded.

Then, they summoned Crucifier and Exalter and catalyzed Heavenly and Demonic Transformation to form a Time Capsule. At that moment, a painting materialized in the Time Capsule, on which a young girl was depicted. The girl was about seven years of age. She was wearing tattered clothes, and her hair was tied into two pigtails.

“...”

Everyone was stunned.

James asked, “Don’t tell me that the fourth fragment is related to a young girl.”

Thea shook her head and said, “I don’t know.”

Nico said, “We should ask Emperor Jabari to divine.”

The image formed by the Time Capsule disappeared almost immediately. James and Thea dispersed their cultivation methods and stored their treasures away. James immediately contacted Emperor Jabari who was inside the Celestial Abode to extrapolate.

In the Celestial Abode, Jabari began his divination. Approximately thirty minutes later, the Extrapolation Formation created by Jabari shattered.

“James,” his voice echoed in James’ mind.

James hurriedly asked, “How did it go, Grand Emperor?”

Jabari said, “I can’t divine.”

“Why not?” James was confused.

Jabari said, “There’s only a single possibility.”

“What?”

“The Ancestral God Rank Elixir must have taken the form of a human and become the young girl in the painting. Since she materialized from the elixir, there are inscriptions that conceal Heaven’s secret inside her body. Naturally, we won’t be able to locate her.”

Hearing this, realization dawned on James’ face.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3203-He looked at Thea and Nico and shook his head, "The outcome can't be extrapolated."

They froze momentarily before asking in unison, "Why?"

James explained, "This fragment has already transformed into a human, which is the young girl depicted in the painting. As she has inscriptions that conceal Heaven's secret in her body, no one is able to locate her current whereabouts."

Wearing a grim expression, Nico said, "This is a little complicated."

James said with a sigh, "Now that things have come to this, we have very few options. Let's return to the Elixir Pavilion and think of a way."

"Mhm." Thea nodded.

Though they obtained the third fragment, they could not find the whereabouts of the fourth. Thus, James decided to return to the Pavilion first.

Nico slashed the void open, and the three vanished without a trace.

At the same time, at an unknown location in the Boundless Realm...

There was a palace in the depths of a gloomy mountain range. In the main hall of the palace, Tadhg, Tamuuz, and many powerful figures of the Sanctuary were kneeling. At the front stood a middle-aged man with a bizarre-looking tail. He was the powerful figure the Sanctuary had gone to great lengths to resurrect. Though he was not the first Leader of the Sanctuary, he was a Heaven's Adjudicator. His name was Ludwig Amir.

"My Lord, I have confirmed that James is an envoy sent by the humans. He possesses immense power, and he has an extremely powerful figure by his side, whom even I am no match for. Since we have failed to seize the Ancestral God Rank Elixir, please punish us for our incompetence."

Ludwig sat down, his tail hovering and waving before him. He said nonchalantly, "This is within my expectation."

Tadhg who was kneeling said, "Please divine the whereabouts of the next fragment. This time, we'll surely get to it first."

Ludwig waved slightly and said, "Even I can't do that. I only know that it has transformed into a human."

As he casually waved his hand, the image of a young girl appeared before them.

“She’s the living being materialized from the elixir fragment. Send all our disciples to look for her. Find her, even if you have to search through every nook and cranny.”

“Understood.” Tadhg nodded.

“Go.” Ludwig waved slightly.

“Understood.”

Tadhg stood up and turned to leave.

Once Tadhg and the others left, Ludwig slowly stood up and vanished without a trace. In the next instant, he was already on the border of the Boundless Realm’s seal. Looking at the seal before him, he contemplated for some time before transforming into a thread of black aura, which managed to seep through the seal and leave the Boundless Realm.

At an unknown location in the outside world...

It had picturesque scenery, and a man was currently fishing by the riverside.

At that moment, a black aura appeared, gathering to form a middle-aged man with a tail. He was Ludwig who left the Boundless Realm.

Kneeling on the ground, he said respectfully, “My Lord.”

The man who was fishing did not turn around. Instead, he said with a hoarse voice, “Stand up and speak.”

“Understood.” Ludwig stood up and told about the events that unfolded in the Boundless Realm.

The hoarse voice came, saying, “I understand... I will give you the power of the Curse to curse all of humankind.”

He casually waved his hand, and a mysterious inscription appeared and entered Ludwig’s body. Immediately, Ludwig could feel his power reaching its pinnacle.

Delighted, he said, “Thank you, My Lord.”

Meanwhile, the man before him slowly turned illusory before vanishing without a trace. As he disappeared, the picturesque scenery disappeared alongside him. Now, only a barren wasteland of nothingness remained.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3204-Failing to find the fourth elixir fragment, James and the others returned to the Elixir Realm. When they returned, however, they realized that the Sanctuary's forces stationed outside the Elixir Realm had already retreated.

In the void outside the Elixir Realm...

James gazed into the distance. Unable to find any trace of the Sanctuary's forces, his expression turned grim as he said, "Why did the Sanctuary retreat?"

Nico said, "Isn't this a good thing?"

James shook his head slightly and said, "Something's not quite right."

Thea thought about it and said, "Don't overthink things. Let's return for now."

"Mhm."

James nodded.

Then, the three of them entered the Elixir Realm.

In the main hall of the Elixir Residence of the Pavilion's Sky City, many powerful figures gathered. Silvester was in the lead.

James asked, "When did the Sanctuary retreat?"

Silvester said, "We have been observing them closely. They retreated a few minutes before you returned."

"Before we returned?" Wearing a grim expression, James looked at Thea and said, "Don't tell me that the Sanctuary has learned that the fourth fragment has transformed into a human. Did they retreat to begin their search for the young girl?"

Thea nodded and said, "It's possible."

Melinda asked, "How did the search for the Ancestral God Rank Elixir go?"

James narrated the events that unfolded.

"I now have the elixir fragments. As for the remaining two, one of them is in the Sanctuary's hands, and the other has transformed into a human."

Taking out the Time Capsule, he handed Melinda the image and said, "She's the one we're looking for."

Melinda accepted the Time Capsule and scrutinized the image. Then, she returned it to James.

James looked at her and asked, "What should we do now?"

Melinda shook her head. She had no idea how to proceed.

After some contemplation, she said, "Since we can't find them, let the Sanctuary do the hard work. We just have to seize them back from them."

Hearing this, James furrowed his eyebrows. It would be nigh impossible for them to seize the Ancestral God Rank Elixir from the Sanctuary. However, since things had come to this, he had no other choice.

"I'm tired. I'm heading back to my room to rest."

James turned to leave and returned to the courtyard and the accommodation that belonged to him. Sitting on a stone chair, he fell into deep thought. He was running out of time, but he was still short of two fragments of the elixir. Thus, he was worried that humankind could not overcome the Fourth Calamity. When that happened, humankind would perish at the hands of Heaven's Adjudicators. From that day onwards, there would not be a single human left in this universe.

"What's on your mind, James?" came a voice.

James turned around to see a woman in a white dress walking toward him. Her appearance was gorgeous, and she exuded a charismatic aura.

James shook his head slightly and said, "I-It's nothing."

The woman was none other than Monica. Over the past 100,000 years, she had been staying at the Elixir Pavilion, focusing wholeheartedly on cultivation. Her strength had reached the Quasi Emperor Rank's Ninth Tribulation, thanks to Elemental Inversion given to her by James. Otherwise, she would not have reached such a rank in just a few short 100,000 years.

Monica approached him and asked, "You have a frown on your face. Something on your mind?"

"No." James waved slightly.

Since Monica would not be able to understand anything anyway, James opted not to say anything.

“Alright, then.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3205-Taking the hint, Monica changed the subject and started asking about Elemental Inversion.

James began conversing with her.

At the same time, at the headquarters of the Sanctuary of Darkness...

Ludwig had returned. Previously, he had yet to regain his strength. Now, however, he had reached the pinnacle of his strength. He was only slightly weaker than an Ancestral God. Besides that, he had mastered true Curse Power.

In the main hall, Ludwig murmured, “Curse all of humankind?”

A slight grin crept up on his face. At that moment, he raised his hand, and a black aura materialized in his palm, gathering to form mysterious characters. These were all Curse Characters.

As Ludwig’s mind stirred, the Curse Characters permeated the air. In the blink of an eye, the Curse Characters had covered the entirety of the Boundless Realm. Then, they spread all across the universe. At that moment, a terrifying Curse Power appeared in all corners of the world. They gushed forth and appeared in the bodies of all of humankind.

James was in the midst of discussing Elemental Inversion with Monica. Over the past 100,000 years, she had worked hard, and her comprehension of Elemental Inversion had now surpassed even James’.

At that moment, a black aura descended from the sky and entered Monica’s body. She immediately collapsed to the ground and let loose an agonizing scream of pain.

“Argh!”

“What happened?” James hurriedly helped her up. He sensed the presence of Curse Power inside her body.

“What’s going on?” James froze and muttered, “Why would there suddenly be Curse Power?”

James thought that the Third Calamity had arrived. Raising his hand, he absorbed the Curse Power inside Monica’s body.

“Thank you, James.”

Monica’s cheeks returned to a normal complexion.

Suddenly, James sensed something.

“I’ll go out and have a look.”

Then, he hurriedly turned to leave.

He headed straight for the main hall, where many powerful figures gathered. James could sense the presence of Curse Power inside their bodies.

“The Third Calamity has finally arrived.”

James finally understood.

“Is everyone alright?’ James asked.

Silvester waved slightly and said, “It’s no big deal. It’s just that Curse Power has suddenly appeared inside me.”

James said, “This is the Third Calamity. As long as you are a human, you’ll be contaminated with Curse Power. This Curse Power is firmly attached to us and cannot be removed even by a Grand Emperor. This Curse Power will forever accompany us.”

Everyone had heard of the Third Calamity.

That was because the tribulations had already appeared. Seals that prevent them from making breakthroughs had appeared inside their bodies. Not just them, all the humans of the Boundless Realm were experiencing the same thing. In that case, would this mean the imminent arrival of the Fourth Calamity?

Everyone’s expression was grim.

Thea looked at James and said, “The Third Calamity has appeared. We’re running out of time. We have to find the remaining elixirs as soon as possible.”

“Mhm.”

James nodded.

“One of them is the hands of the Sanctuary. It’s about time to launch an all-out assault.”

Now that they were running out of time, their priority was to get their hands on the elixir in the Sanctuary's possession. As for the one that had transformed into a human, they would have to deal with it afterwards.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3206-Since the Third Calamity had arrived, this meant that the Fourth one was not too far off. Time was running out for James, and he had to seize the Ancestral God Rank Elixir in the Sanctuary's possession and annihilate them as soon as possible.

James looked at Melinda and asked, "Do you have any ideas about an all-out assault on the Sanctuary?"

Melinda shook her head slightly and said, "Not at the moment."

James looked at Silvester, who stood up and said, "Once you give the order, we'll support you to the best of our ability."

"Good."

Hearing this, James was relieved. He looked at Silvester and said, "I need a group of powerful figures."

Silvester asked, "How many?"

"Four hundred thousand," James answered.

The Sanctuary was extremely powerful. To ensure his total victory, he planned to form a 400,000-strong army and cultivate the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation.

"Four hundred thousand?" Silvester furrowed his eyebrows.

James continued, "It would be great if they are all Grand Emperors."

Silvester shook his head and said, "We don't have that many Grand Emperors in this world. Over the past one hundred thousand years, the Pavilion has invited many powerful figures to join our ranks. However, based on my estimates, we only have at most three thousand Grand Emperors among our ranks."

Among the 3000 Grand Emperors, most of them were in the First to Second Heaven.

"Quasi Emperors work as well," James said.

Silvester said, "If Quasi Emperors are all you want, I should be able to assemble four hundred thousand of them, assuming that you have no preference for their sub-ranks."

Delighted, James said, "Good. We're running out of time. Summon four hundred thousand Quasi Emperors at once."

"Sure."

Silvester did not hesitate at all and hurriedly left to summon the powerful figures that had joined the Pavilion.

After Silvester left, silence fell in the main hall. Everyone was wearing a grim expression for none of them wished to fight the Sanctuary to their deaths. If they fail, only death awaits them.

James remained silent.

Melinda stepped forward and glanced at James, saying, "I'll be heading to the Reincarnation Pond for a while."

James asked, "Why? Did something happen?"

Wearing a grim expression, she said, "It won't be easy launching an all-out assault on the Sanctuary. There could be real Heaven's Adjudicators hidden among them. Though they aren't Ancestral Gods, they are only just slightly weaker. If Heaven's Adjudicators truly exist among the Sanctuary, we won't be able to win no matter how detailed and meticulous our plans are."

She paused before saying, "I walked out of the Reincarnation Pond. During the process of reincarnation, I lost too much of my power. Even if I cultivate as hard as I can, I won't be able to regain my peak strength. I plan to return there to see if I could find my lost power."

Hearing this, James nodded and said, "Alright then, go."

Melinda's body flashed, and she disappeared without a trace.

James left the main hall too and returned to his accommodation.

Upon his return, Monica walked toward him.

"What happened, James?"

"It's nothing."

James did not say much. His body flashed, and he entered the Celestial Abode. At the closed-door meditation sanctuary of Emperor Jabari, James found him there.

Jabari was sitting in a lotus position, hovering a few meters above the ground. He exuded mysterious inscriptions all over his body, and he was covered in the Path's power.

"Grand Emperor."

James said.

Jabari stopped and looked at him, asking, "What's wrong?"

James said, "The Third Calamity has arrived. This means that the Fourth one is just around the corner. We're running out of time. So, I plan to launch an all-out assault on the Sanctuary and seize their fragment."

Jabari's expression turned grim.

An all-out assault on the Sanctuary? This was no laughing matter.

"Mhm." James nodded firmly.

"Good," Jabari said, "In that case, I'll definitely help you out. Before you make your move, I'll make an extrapolation and extrapolate anything that is related to the Sanctuary. As the saying goes, "Know the enemy and know yourself, and you can fight a hundred battles with no danger of defeat."

"Thank you, Grand Emperor." James clasped his fists and thanked him.

Jabari waved his hand slightly and said, "Go make the necessary arrangements. I'll inform you of the outcome."

"Understood."

James turned to leave.

After leaving the Celestial Abode, he waited outside the courtyard.

Soon, Silvester appeared.

“James, I have prepared the four hundred thousand men that you requested.”

“Great!” James was delighted.

“Here, follow me.” Silvester beckoned.

Then, he left alongside James and headed to the city center of Sky City. On a piece of empty land gathered 400,000 powerful figures. All of them possessed immense power; the weakest was at the First Tribulation of the Quasi Emperor Rank, whereas the strongest was at the Ninth Tribulation.

James brought James to the very front and said, “Here they are. All four hundred thousand of them will obey your every command.”

James looked at the men. Looking at them, he noticed that he was lacking three leaders. He already had a few candidates in mind.

The first would be Thea, who had cultivated the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation and was a leader before. As a Second Heaven Grand Emperor, she was the perfect candidate.

The second would be Nico, who was a Fifth Heaven Grand Emperor. By becoming one of the leaders, he could mobilize the power of 400,000 men. That way, his strength would increase drastically.

As for the third, James still did not have a candidate in mind.

“Stay put and await my order.”

After he spoke, James turned to leave and returned to the main hall. The powerful figures were still there. James scanned them from head to toe. In the end, his gaze was fixed on Helvius. As the Master of the Pavilion, he was a Grand Emperor at the Fifth Heaven. If he joined, the might of the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation would soar.

“I’m going to have to form a Superformation. For this Formation, I need four core leaders, whose identities I have already determined. That would be me, Thea Callahan, Nico Eastwood, and Helvius Daniela.”

Nico immediately stepped forward and said, “Feel free to give me any command, James.”

James said, “You promised me you’d follow me for a hundred thousand years, and look at how fast time passes by. After this battle, I’ll return you your freedom.”

Nico smiled and said nothing.

Helvius stepped forward as well and said, "We are now at a pivotal moment. Give me an order and I'll follow through till the end."

Thea said, "Same here."

"Alright, let's get going," James said.

Then, he turned to leave the main hall, while the other three followed suit. When they reappeared, they were at the plaza of Sky City.

As the 400,000-strong army and four leaders gathered, James' mind stirred. Immense power came from within the Celestial Abode, and everyone entered the abode.

There was already a 400,000-strong army inside the Celestial Abode. Over a long period of time, they had been cultivating non-stop. However, as they were merely ordinary soldiers, they had limited potential. After making a breakthrough into the Sage Rank, their ranks no longer increased rapidly.

Though 100,000 years had passed, they had yet to cross into the Divine Rank.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3208-On a training ground at the back of the Celestial Abode, James ordered the soldiers that were previously here to rest.

Now, a new batch of 400,00 men gathered.

James looked at them and said, "You are some of the greatest figures of all of humankind. You must have heard of the Four Calamities on Earth. Now, the Third Calamity has appeared in the form of a Curse. All humans in the universe have been cursed. In this universe, ordinary people are the majority. As they can't endure Curse Power, they will slowly die. Of course, the same goes for some cultivators. You are powerful figures who are able to resist the Curse Power, but you cannot remove the Curse. So, first, allow me to remove it."

James' voice boomed.

Then, he summoned the mysterious Jade Seal, which hovered in the air. Then, he catalyzed the Jade Seal, from which mysterious power materialized.

At that moment, the Curse Power of those 400,000 men was slowly absorbed by the Jade Seal, which in turn was transported into James' body. In the past, he would not be able to endure such an immense Curse Power. However, ever since he cultivated the Curse Ousia and reached the Divine Rank, this Curse Power was considered nourishment for the Curse Ousia. However, he did not absorb and refine them for now. As Curse Power entered and spread throughout his body, he exuded black mist and a terrifying aura. He paid no heed to the Curse Power for they would not deal much damage to his physical body.

He continued, "Perhaps some among you do not know who I am. Allow me to introduce myself. My name is James Caden. I come from a world beyond the Boundless Realm. I came here in search of an Ancestral God Rank Elixir, the only hope of resolving the current crisis of humankind. At the Fourth Calamity, Heaven's Adjudicators will appear and annihilate us all. Meanwhile, upon consuming the Ancestral God Rank Elixir, I'll obtain a power equivalent to an Ancestral God in a short period of time and annihilate the Adjudicators, thereby resolving the crisis. Countless years ago..."

James narrated the history of these events.

"Now, I have obtained three fragments of the Ancestral God Rank Elixir. One of them is in the Sanctuary's possession. That's why we must launch an all-out assault. I have mastered a Superformation passed down from the Ancient Heavenly Court Age, and I need 400,000 men to cultivate it at the same time..."

Then, James began describing the cultivation method of the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation. This time, he described the whole thing in detail and not a simplified version. That was because their enemy this time was insanely strong.

"This is the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation. Cultivate well and try your best to comprehend."

After he spoke, he walked to the side, sat in a lotus position, and began suppressing the Curse Power inside his body.

At the same time, while the 400,000 Quasi Emperors were cultivating the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation...

Ludwig was sitting on the throne in the main hall of the Sanctuary's headquarters, his tail hovering before him. This tail seemed bizarre. It did not have any flesh, only bones. Vaguely, one could see threads of black aura materializing from within.

Many people were standing in the main hall—Tadhg, Tamuuz, and even the Chancellor.

"My lord."

Tadhg knelt and said respectfully, "Our forces stationed outside the Elixir Realm have retreated and dispersed all over the world in search of the Ancestral God Rank Elixir's human form. If it truly is in the Boundless Realm, we can certainly find it within three years.”

The powerful figures of the Sanctuary were spread all over the world. Now, all of them were out searching for the human form of the Ancestral God Rank Elixir. If each of them searched a world, they would be able to finish searching in three years.

He will certainly think of a way to seize the Ancestral God Rank Elixir in the Sanctuary’s possession. If my calculations are correct, he will launch an all-out assault on us soon.”

Hearing this, Tadhg was stunned as he asked, “My Lord, the powerful figures of the Sanctuary are out searching for the final remaining fragment. If James attacks while we’re gone, what do we do?”

Ludwig waved slightly and said, “There’s nothing to worry about. James is nothing to me. Even the figure backing him in the shadows is no match for me.”

Ludwig was confident in his strength. His strength had returned to its pinnacle, and he was only slightly weaker than an Ancestral God. In this world where Ancestral Gods no longer exist, he was invincible.

“Alright now, you’re dismissed.” He waved a hand slightly.

“Understood.”

Tadhg and the others nodded before turning to leave.

After they left, Ludwig’s expression turned grim. Then, his body transformed into a thread of black aura before disappearing without a trace.

In an unknown location in the universe...

The scenery was picturesque, and there was a man fishing on a rock by the riverside. As a cool breeze came, the man’s body became illusory as if he was not physically present. After the breeze, his body materialized once more.

A thread of black aura approached him before gathering to form a man with a tail.

"My Lord," Ludwig approached him and greeted him respectfully, "I have followed the wishes of the Heavenly Path and performed the Third Calamity. Every human being in this universe has now been cursed. When do we perform the Fourth Calamity?"

A hoarse voice answered, "The Fourth Calamity..."

"We can't exterminate them, nor can we simply turn a blind eye to them. If we exterminate them all, the Twelfth Universe will be hollowed out. When the other universes attack, there's nothing I can do to stop them," the man murmured.

"In truth, I hope that an extremely powerful individual will emerge among the humans. By annihilating the Heavenly Path and recreating a new order, I can no longer be afraid of other universes."

His voice was weak.

"What should we do now, my lord?"

"You're dismissed. Don't worry, I will make the necessary preparations."

"Understood."

Ludwig turned to leave.

After he left, this region disappeared into nothingness, and only the silent void remained.

Meanwhile, James was in the Celestial Abode suppressing the Curse Power inside his body. Soon, Curse Power was suppressed and transformed into Curse Characters. Meanwhile, the other powerful figures were cultivating the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation. As their strength was immense, they easily gained insight into the Formation. However, this battle was significant, and James did not wish for any unexpected accidents to happen. So, he allowed them to continue comprehending the Formation until they have completely become one with it.

In the blink of an eye, a year passed. Over the past year, 400,000 Quasi Emperors had completely comprehended the Nine Heavens God-Annihilating Formation. The Formation created by 400,000 Quasi Emperors was frightening. However, James had no sure way of finding out just how terrifying it was before the battle.

James looked at them and asked, "Is everything alright?"

"Yes, sir!"

Their voices rang in unison.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3210

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3210-“Let’s move out!” James yelled.

Then, as he waved his hand, the 400,000-strong army left the Celestial Abode.

In the Elixir Residence of Sky City...

After bringing the 400,000 Quasi Emperors to the Celestial Abode to cultivate, Silvester summoned every powerful figure of the Pavilion to stay put and await their commands.

At that moment, Silvester sensed the presence of 400,000 Quasi Emperors. Then, James appeared.

“James.” Silvester rushed toward him.

“Mhm.” James nodded and asked, “Are we prepared to move out?”

Silvester nodded. “Yes, we can move out anytime.”

James said, “Good. Give me a minute.”

Then, he entered the Celestial and found Jabari, saying, “Grand Emperor, we are ready to move out.”

Jabari casually waved his hand, and a scroll appeared before him before hovering over to James.

He said, “This is the map of the Sanctuary’s headquarters which I obtained after serious extrapolation.”

“Thank you.”

James accepted the scroll. Then, he turned to leave the Celestial Abode. In the next instant, he was already back in the outside world.

In the main hall, James opened the ancient scroll, on which the whereabouts of the Sanctuary were marked.

Silvester asked, “What is this?”

James answered, “A map of the Sanctuary’s headquarters.” Looking at the ancient scroll, he continued, “The headquarters of the Sanctuary is located in a world west of the Boundless Realm called Polaris.”

Silvester immediately opened a celestial map when he heard this. Upon close inspection, he said, "Polaris is located in a faraway world, and there are few inhabitants living there. Besides that, the regional planets nearby Polaris are all devoid of Spiritual Energy."

James stored the ancient scroll in his hand away and said, "Alright, let's move out."

Airships appeared outside Elixir City. Each of them was huge and could accommodate at least a million soldiers. The powerful figures of the Pavilion all boarded the airships. All of them were at least at the Divine Rank or above.

Soon, the army was assembled. James and his 400,000-strong army gathered on an airship. Standing on the deck, his expression was grim. The outcome of this struggle would be determined by this battle. If they succeed, they would obtain an Ancestral God Rank Elixir. Otherwise, all of them would perish on the battlefield. Besides, this was only just the beginning. Once the Fourth Calamity appears, all of humankind would be eradicated by Heaven's Adjudicators.

"Let's move out!" James' voice boomed.

As he yelled, a spatial fissure appeared in the void before him and immediately increased in size. Then, the airships entered the spatial fissure.

Meanwhile, at the Sanctuary's headquarters...

Ludwig was sitting on the throne contemplating.

Tadhg hurriedly rushed in and yelled, "My Lord, my scouts have informed me that the Pavilion has moved out!"

"Hahaha..." Ludwig laughed. Then, he stood up and said with a murderous expression on his face, "Humans... what can these insignificant creatures do?"

"My Lord, should we order the Sanctuary's powerful figures to return?" Ludwig asked.

"Mhm."

Ludwig nodded and said, "Order all disciples to stop searching for the Ancestral God Rank Elixir immediately and return. We have to annihilate James first. Once he's removed, no one else can stop us. Once the Fourth Calamity appears, there will be no more pesky humans in this world!"

Then, he looked at Tadhg and said, "Of course, your lives will be spared."
