The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3211-Tadhg did not hesitate and immediately turned to leave. Then, he catalyzed a secret art and summoned the powerful figures of the Sanctuary back. Upon receiving the order, the Sanctuary's powerful figures returned at once. In a short amount of time, many of them had gathered at the headquarters on Polaris.

Polaris was a planet devoid of Spiritual Energy. The sky was greyish, and the world seemed lifeless and barren.

At that moment, a fissure appeared in the sky outside Polaris. Then, swarms of airships gushed out. They exuded an intimidating aura.

James was in the airship at the forefront, looking at the planet before him.

Silvester pointed at the planet and said, "That's Polaris."

"Mhm."

James nodded.

At that moment, he asked Jabari, "Grand Emperors, how's your strength recovering?"

Jabari's expression was grim. At that moment, he had yet to regain his peak form and was only a slight distance away.

He said, "I haven't fully recovered, but don't worry. In the past, I have left behind an elixir. Once I consume it, my strength will return to its peak form. Though there might be lingering effects, there's nothing much I can do at this point."

Jabari swallowed the elixir, and immense power circulated throughout his body. He slowly stood up. Then, his body flashed, and he vanished without a trace. In the next instant, he was already before James.

When he saw him, James immediately greeted him respectfully, "Grand Emperor."

"Mhm." Jabari nodded and gazed at Polaris before him.

Upon consumption of the elixir, his power, rank, and physical strength rose drastically. Everyone in his surroundings could sense an immense power awakening inside his body. As Jabari's strength had not returned to its pinnacle, his power swiftly recovered.

"Do we make a move, Grand Emperor?" James asked.

Jabari looked straight ahead as Polaris came into full view. Then, he saw the countless powerful figures of the Sanctuary and a man with a skeleton tail. Upon seeing this man, Emperor Jabari's face paled as he staggered backward unconsciously.

"What's wrong?" James asked.

"He's strong." Jabari's expression was grim. He could sense an immense power inside Ludwig's power that was comparable to or might have surpassed his.

"Is that an Ancestral God?" Jabari murmured. Then, he shook his head and dismissed those thoughts.

"Since the Primeval Age, this world no longer has any Ancestral Gods. Could he be a Heaven's Adjudicator? Legends say that the strength of the Heaven's Adjudicators is comparable to Ancestral Gods. If we have to categorize their strength, they should be considered Quasi Ancestral Gods."

Jabari murmured. Then, he took a deep breath and looked at James grimly, saying, "I'm afraid this battle will be treacherous. The Sanctuary has a Heaven's Adjudicator among them."

"A Heaven's Adjudicator?"

James was stunned.

Upon hearing this, the other powerful figures all unconsciously staggered backward, unable to conceal the horrified expressions on their faces. The Heaven's Adjudicators were too terrifying.

Wearing a grim expression, Silvester asked, "Didn't you say they will only appear at the Fourth Calamity?"

Jabari shook his head and said, "I don't know."

James looked at him and asked, "Grand Emperor, how likely are you to win against a Heaven's Adjudicator?"

After some contemplation, Jabari said, "Heaven's Adjudicators are Quasi Ancestral Gods. I, on the other hand, am at the peak of the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven. As such, I'm only a step away from reaching the Quasi Emperor Rank. However, the disparity in strength between these two ranks is insurmountable. I am no match for him. However, I might stand a chance if I have the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword."

James did not hesitate at all and immediately summoned the Divine Sword before handing it over to Emperor Jabari.

"Take this, Grand Emperor. This battle concerns the Fourth Calamity. If we lose, we will not stand a chance when the Fourth Calamity arrives."

Jabari nodded grimly and accepted the sword. Immediately, the Divine Sword glimmered a radiant purple light.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3212-The Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword was a true Ancestral God Weapon. Though it possessed terrifying power, its true power could not be unleashed while in James' possession. The opposite was true for Emperor Jabari, however. As a cultivator at the peak of the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven, the Ancestral God Weapon's concealed power was completely unleashed.

Holding the Ancestral God Weapon in hand, Jabari turned to look at James and said, "We don't need so many of our men there. They will just be cannon fodder. Once we get rid of Heaven's Adjudicator, the rest will be no threat to us."

He waved slightly and said, "You're dismissed. Only a remaining few need to stay and fight."

Hearing this, James fell into deep thought. Then, he ordered, "Apart from the 400,000 Quasi Emperors, everyone else should leave and stay far away from the region."

James knew what Emperor Jabari was concerned about. They would emerge victorious once Heaven's Adjudicator was defeated. Otherwise, they would be defeated. Meanwhile, the battle against the Adjudicator solely depended on Jabari. No one else could lend a helping hand. Even a Grand Emperor at the Seventh Heaven like Silvester could not intervene in the fight.

"Let me help you, Grand Emperor."

James said, "The 400,000 Quasi Emperors have cultivated the Nine Heavens God-Annihlating Formation. Once I absorb their power, my strength will also soar."

"Mhm." Jabari nodded.

"Hahaha!"

At that moment, a peal of laughter boomed from inside Polaris. Then, a middle-aged man appeared in the void. At his back was a tail devoid of flesh and blood.

"Can't wait to make a move already?" Ludwig had a mischievous grin on his face as he looked at James and the others.

The other airships hurriedly left. Ludwig did not stop them. To him, humankind would be exterminated sooner or later anyway.

Wearing a grim expression, James looked at Ludwig and asked, "Are you a Heaven's Adjudicator?"

Ludwig snickered and said, "I'm merely a subordinate working for Lord Theophanes. You know, helping him manage the universe and annihilating those who step out of line."

"Is the Ancestral God Rank Elixir in your possession?' James questioned.

Hearing this, a golden light appeared in Ludwig's hands. This was the Ancestral God Rank Elixir.

"Are you referring to this?" He said coldly, "As expected of the creation of the Ancestral God of the human race... Not even I can destroy it."

James looked at the elixir, suppressing the urge to lunge forward. He knew that only by defeating this man before him could he obtain the elixir.

At that moment, he was intrigued by the so-called Lord Theophanes. He had long heard that there was a powerful figure behind the scenes of the Heavenly Path called Theophanes. However, no one had ever heard of him. Perhaps the Ancestral Gods of the Primeval Age would know. However, they were dead long ago. Now that there was a Heaven's Adjudicator before him, he wanted to use this opportunity to know more about Theophanes.

"What kind of person is Theophanes?"

"Lord Theophanes?" With great admiration and respect, Ludwig answered, "He's the most supreme being in this universe. He was the one who created the Heavenly Path that controls all things in the universe. You, foolish humans, are delusional into thinking that you could annihilate the Heavenly Path and create a new order. You don't understand that there are greater forces at work here. The so-called Four Calamities are merely a test from Theophanes. If humankind survives the ordeal, you may continue living. Otherwise, you'll be completely annihilated. Without Lord Theophanes' power, he could destroy every one of you here with a flick of a finger. He just has other important matters to attend to."

"What matters?" James asked.

"I guess it won't hurt telling you this, ignorant humans." Ludwig said nonchalantly, "Do you think that this is the only universe out there? No, this universe is but one among many. This universe is called the Twelfth Universe. This means there are eleven more universes out there."
