

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3221

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3221-After regaining his strength, Ludwig walked toward James and the others in mid-air.

James, Thea, Helvius, Silvester, Nico, and the 400,000 Quasi Emperors kept retreating. Then, James absorbed the Curse Power inside the men's bodies, alleviating their suffering.

"Who are you?" Ludwig stared at Melinda.

He sensed a terrifying aura that was not from this age emanating from her.

"Mount Hadad... The Sacred Blossom Painting... A dream, fleeting and transitory," Melinda said.

"..." Hearing this, Ludwig unconsciously staggered backward. "Y-You are..."

His face paled.

"That's right," Melinda said, "I'm Melinda Theophanes, the daughter of the Ancestral God Hadad Theophanes."

"Y-Y-You..." Ludwig stammered.

Melinda raised the sword in her hand. Then, a figure flashed. In the next instant, she was already back to her original spot.

Meanwhile, Ludwig had been decapitated. His head fell to the ground, and his soul dissipated. As his body gradually disappeared, a golden elixir appeared in the void.

Melinda casually waved her hand, and the Ancestral God Rank Elixir flew toward her.

Upon seeing this, the powerful figures of the Sanctuary were dumbfounded.

Who was she? How did she manage to annihilate a Heaven's Adjudicator in a single move?

Melinda's expression was ice-cold. Looking at the remaining individuals of the Sanctuary, she slowly raised her sword.

At that moment, Tadhg, Tamuuz, and everyone else in the Sanctuary only had a single thought in mind, and that was to flee. However, their speed was incomparable to the speed of Melinda's sword. Melinda transformed into a shadow and darted about in the void. Meanwhile, the figures of the Sanctuary were being killed left and right.

Upon seeing this, James and the others were dumbfounded.

“H-How scary.”

After some time, James took a deep breath.

Who was Melinda? How did she manage to eliminate Ludwig so easily?

Soon, Melinda was done annihilating the Sanctuary. Sheathing her sword, she appeared before James. The light that enveloped her had already dissipated.

“James,” she said.

“Ah.” James collected himself and looked at her. He could not believe that this woman managed to kill Ludwig and every figure of the Sanctuary.

“If you had come sooner, Emperor Jabari wouldn’t have...”

James’ expression was ghastly.

“I’m sorry,” Melinda apologized, “I have just regained my lost power. I hurriedly made my way here when I sensed that you were in danger.”

James sighed softly.

Since everything had already happened, there was no point in blaming others. Besides, Emperor Jabari was not truly dead and had only just headed to the Dark World. One day, he would see him again.

“So your true name is Melinda Theophanes.”

James looked at her and asked, “Mount Hadad... The Sacred Blossom Painting... A dream, fleeting and transitory... What do these words mean?”

Melinda’s expression turned grim. After some contemplation, she said slowly, “This is a long story that touches on the secrets of the Primeval Age. That is, the fundamental reason the Ancestral Gods of humankind turn against Heaven.”

Hearing this, James was intrigued.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3222

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3222-The reason why the Ancestral Gods of humankind in the Primeval Age wished to annihilate the Heavenly Path had always been enshrouded in secrecy. James had no idea until now.

He looked at Melinda, and so did everyone else present. They were all stunned by her strength. In the past, Melinda had set up a Superformation in the Elixir Realm to protect the realm's safety. Regardless, she did not demonstrate remarkable strength. Now, in just a few instants, she had annihilated every powerful figure of the Sanctuary and even the injured Heaven's Adjudicator.

Melinda was lost in contemplation. A slight frown could be seen on her face. After some time, she said, "The Primeval Age is a bright era. There was a sect that ruled the world—the Heavenly Path Sect. Mount Hadad is the headquarters of the Heavenly Path Sect, whereas the Sacred Blossom Painting is a totem. Meanwhile, the Sect Leader is also the Macrocosm Ancestral God of the Twelfth Universe."

Then, she glanced at James and the others and said, "Our universe is not the only one out there. There are twelve universes in total in this world."

James nodded slightly. He had learned of this from the dead Heaven's Adjudicator.

Melinda continued, "The ruler of the Twelfth Universe is Hadad Theophanes, who was also the Sect Leader of the Heavenly Path Sect. There were many powerful figures in the sect. Even the Ancestral Gods of humankind once headed to Mount Hadad to listen to Hadad preaching about the Path. The Heavenly Path Sect has many disciples. Meanwhile, Hadad the Sect Leader had admitted many distinguished disciples. One of them was an Inner Disciple called Radomir Theophanes, a name given to the disciple by Hadad. Radomir possessed immense potential, and his cultivation speed was unparalleled. As he had gained insight into countless Paths, he had Hadad's trust, who entrusted him with the responsibility of managing the rules of the Heavenly Path.

"The Heavenly Path is an existence that controls everything in this world. It is a Path that has existed since the creation of the universe and not something artificial. In this universe, only a single individual can manage the Heavenly Path. As the Heavenly Path will be depleted during the process of operation, the controller needs to sustain the power of the Heavenly Path to ensure a smooth operation."

"Though Radomir obtained great authority, he was not satisfied. He wanted to replace Hadad as the Macrocosm Ancestral God and become the sole ruler of this universe. So, he launched a coup d'état. During the battle, there was bloodshed on Mount Hadad, and Hadad, the sole ruler of this universe met his demise.

"Hadad was the primogenitor of humankind, and the Ancestral Gods of men have received his grace. However, once Radomir seized power, he planned to annihilate the remnants of Hadad's influence. So, he made a move against the remaining Ancestral Gods of humankind. This was why they turned against Heaven and the Heavenly Path in the Primeval Age. Upon controlling the Heavenly Path, Radomir secretly modified the Heavenly Path and created many rules that disadvantage humans.”

After she spoke, Melinda took a deep breath.

James asked, “Who are you then?”

Melinda said, “I came from the Primeval Age. My father is Hadad Theophanes, the true master of the Heavenly Path.”

Realization dawned on James’ face as he said, “Are you saying that the one behind the Heavenly Path is Radomir Theophanes, your senior disciple?”

“Yes.” She nodded.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3223

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3223-James asked once more, “What about your rank?”

Melinda said, “I was an Ancestral God. However, I went through the reincarnation process in the Primeval Age. In the process of reincarnation, my power was lost. That was why I headed to the Reincarnation Pond to search for my lost power. Now, I have yet to cross into the Ancestral God Rank. I’m only a Quasi Ancestral God.”

“A Quasi Ancestral God...”

James was stunned.

No wonder she was able to annihilate the figures of the Sanctuary and the injured Ludwig easily. Only an Ancestral God or Quasi Ancestral God was capable of accomplishing such a feat.

James never expected Melinda Theophanes to have such a history and that so many events happened in the distant Primeval Age. At that moment, he finally understood the history of the Primeval Age and the reason why the Ancestral Gods of humankind turned against Heaven. So, everything began because Radomir launched a coup, killed his master, and became the sole ruler of this universe.

He was now more curious about the other universes.

“Since ours is the Twelfth Universe, what do the other universes look like?”

Melinda shook her head and said, “I’m not sure. Though I’m Hadad’s daughter, I have never been to other universes. As such, I have no idea what it’s like over there. I only know that we are the weakest universe. The others have a handful of Ancestral Gods, whereas ours only have a single one. If only..."

She sighed and said, "If only Radomir did not turn traitor, our universe would have two Macrocosm Ancestral Gods."

Everyone was stunned.

This meant that there was only a single Macrocosm Ancestral God in this universe. Though the other universes have more — maybe a couple — there were only a handful of Macrocosm Ancestral Gods in all of the twelve universes. Only when one reached the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank one could be considered a powerful figure.

Melinda handed the Ancestral God Rank Elixir to James and said, "Here, keep this."

James accepted the elixir and said, "Since you were an Ancestral God in your past life, you can surely regain your strength. By then, we won't need to find the remaining Ancestral God Rank Elixir anymore. Your presence alone should suffice to keep the Heaven's Adjudicators at bay."

Melinda shook her head and said, "Reaching the Quasi Ancestral God Rank is the furthest I can go. Hadad once managed to Heavenly Path. As his daughter, the Heavenly Path has chosen to turn a blind eye to my deeds. Otherwise, I wouldn't have been able to cross into the Quasi Emperor Rank. Besides, there won't be just a single Heaven's Adjudicator in the Fourth Calamity. The Ancestral God Rank Elixir raises our chances. However, this doesn't mean that humankind is guaranteed to survive. Radomir is cruel and ruthless, and he won't stop until all humans are eradicated."

Hearing this, James' expression turned grim.

After some contemplation, he said, "We have now obtained the four fragments of the Ancestral God Rank Elixir, and only a single one remains. We should still have time till the Fourth Calamity. Let's return to the Elixir Realm for now and think of a way to search for the final one."

Melinda nodded slightly.

Then, everyone turned to leave this destroyed space.

In the next instant, James and the others were already at the Elixir Pavilion of the Elixir Realm.

In the main hall of Sky City's Elixir Residence, James said, "Though most of the Sanctuary has been vanquished, there must be remnants throughout the Boundless Realm. Give the order to search for them and annihilate them all."

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3224

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3224-Though the Heaven's Adjudicator and many powerful figures of the Sanctuary were eradicated, the Sanctuary had deep roots in the Boundless Realm. As such, James gave the order to find the remnants of the enemy and annihilate them without mercy.

The remnants of the Sanctuary would not stand a chance against the Pavilion for the Pavilion emerged from the previous battle unscathed.

The order was given.

Many powerful figures gathered in the main hall.

"I have something important to announce." James looked at them and said, "A single Heaven's Adjudicator almost ruined our plans. During the Fourth Calamity, many Heaven's Adjudicators will appear. As they are all at the Quasi Emperor Rank, we need to find the remaining Ancestral God Rank Elixir to annihilate them and save humankind."

James said and took out an image of the Ancestral God Rank Elixir in the form of a young girl, "The remaining Ancestral God Rank Elixir has transformed into a young girl. I now order every member of the Pavilion to search for her all over the world."

James gave a series of orders. Upon receiving their orders, the figures of the Pavilion moved out.

After making the necessary arrangements, James returned to the courtyard. Pensive, he rested his head on his arm.

Thea sat beside him and asked, "A penny for your thoughts?"

James collected himself and said, "Too much has happened recently. Everything's jumbled up in my brain."

Thea grabbed his hand and said, "Don't overthink things, everything will be over soon. By the way, what does the Dark World Emperor Jabari mentioned look like?"

She had heard Jabari talking about the Dark World. However, she had no idea what the Dark World looked like.

"By the way, who's Yukia?"

James laughed and said, "Emperor Jabari was born in the early stages of the Primeval Age. Though he was an ordinary man, he came across a good mentor. Yukia Dearnaley is his master. She was the one who offered guidance to him. However, Yukia always had her back toward Emperor Jabari. As such, he had no idea what she looked like. He only knew that she was a woman."

Thea asked once more, "What about the Dark World?"

Speaking of the Dark World, James' expression turned grim. Though he had been there once, he only roughly knew the place.

"The world has two sides, one illuminated and one dark. When a living being dies, he or she will enter the Dark World and live there in a soul state. Our world is the Illuminated World. The Paths of the Illuminated World are extremely weak in the Dark World. Not only that, those who possess a physical body cannot remain too long there. That's because the power of the Dark World contains a substance that erodes the physical body."

James briefly described what he knew about the Dark World.

Thea was stunned.

She was already shocked to learn that there were twelve universes in this world. Now, there was something called the Dark World. Ignorance truly is bliss.

At that moment, Melinda walked toward them. She was wearing a purple dress that accentuated her curvaceous figure.

"James," she called out to him.

James stood up and looked at her. She then walked toward him and took a seat.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3225

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3225-James followed suit and said, "Coincidentally, I have something to ask you."

"Ask away." She looked at James.

He asked, "Previously while we were in the Desolateness Sanctuary, you once headed to the Forsaken Land. What is this Forsaken Land? Are there places outside the reach of the Heavenly Path in this universe?"

"You really want to know?" Melinda asked.

"I'm just curious," James replied.

After some contemplation, she said, "Actually, the Forsaken Land of the Desolateness Sanctuary isn't in this universe. Rather, it's the borderland between this universe and others. Since the Forsaken Land isn't in this universe, the Heavenly Path can't control anything there."

"I see." Realization dawned on James' face.

"Yes," Melinda said.

James asked again, "Radomir Theophanes is the Macrocosm Ancestral God behind the Heavenly Path, who also happens to be the most powerful individual in the Twelfth Universe. If he insists on annihilating humankind, can we truly survive the ordeal even if we overcome the Fourth Calamity?"

James was concerned. In the Primeval Age, there were many Ancestral Gods. However, all of them were defeated. In this age where none existed, how could they possibly stand a chance against Radomir?

"He wouldn't dare," Melinda said.

"Why not?' James asked puzzledly.

She said, "The Heavenly Path has its operating rules. Even if Radomir can change some rules here and there to disadvantage humans, he wouldn't dare annihilate mankind even if they overcome the Fourth Calamity. After all, he would be transgressing against the operating rules of the Heavenly Path. Besides, he is a Macrocosm Ancestral God and the ruler of the Twelfth Universe. He knows that humans are the most suitable for cultivation, and many extremely powerful figures are human. The Twelfth Universe is also the weakest. With other universes breathing down our necks, Radomir's attention has been diverted to deal with the external threat. As such, he seldom pays any attention to this universe. The so-called Fourth Calamity is a trial for humans by the Heavenly Path that was created after he modified the rules of the Heavenly Path. In the Primeval Age, the Ancestral Gods of humans wanted to annihilate the Heavenly Path. That was why Radomir targeted the humans. However, he cannot totally eradicate all of you. Hence, the Fourth Calamity."

Melinda gave a brief explanation.

The Heavenly Path had a consciousness of its own. Radomir, on the other hand, could only manage and even modify the rules, yet he nonetheless could not violate the Heavenly Path.

Hearing this, James understood.

“This means that humans will be safe once we overcome the Fourth Calamity?”

“Mhm.” Melinda nodded and said, “Theoretically, yes. Unless humans have given birth to a being that threatens Radomir, he would not interfere in the matters of the Twelfth Universe.”

James asked once more, “How many Heaven’s Adjudicators will there be during the Fourth Calamity?”

Melinda shook her head and said, “I’m not sure.”

After some contemplation, she said, “When my father ruled over the universe, the Heaven’s Adjudicators are embodiments of justice. Even as the Macrocosm Ancestral God, he never once made an exception. Instead, every Heaven’s Adjudicator was born naturally, selected by the Heavenly Path. However, once Radomir seized the reins of power, he quietly modified the operating rules, leading to the creation of many Heaven’s Adjudicators. These Heaven’s Adjudicators are not fair and just, for they are only his tools for removing his political opponents.”

Hearing this, James thought of Winnie. This meant that Winnie was selected by the Heavenly Path to become a Heaven’s Adjudicator, meaning that she was fair and just. She was not Radomir’s subordinate who was merely a ruthless killing machine devoid of all emotions.

Thinking about this, James was relieved.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3226

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3226-Previously, James knew nothing about Heaven’s Adjudicators, and everything he knew came from Sophie’s words. Besides, as Sophie was not a Heaven’s Adjudicator, everything she knew came from the records of ancient texts. In the ancient texts, Heaven’s Adjudicators were described to be ruthless and emotionless killing machines. So, James had been worried about Winnie. Knowing that she was a true Heaven’s Adjudicator, he breathed a sigh of relief.

“By the way,” James asked, “will the Heaven’s Adjudicators during the Fourth Calamity be the embodiments of justice or will they be Radomir’s subordinates?”

Melinda said, “The latter. In the Primeval Age, he modified some rules of the Heavenly Path. Once the time has arrived, the Heavenly Path will resurrect the Heaven’s Adjudicators of the Primeval Age and annihilate all of mankind.”

Since Radomir was able to change the rules of the Heavenly Path, the Ancestral Gods of humans were able to detect it and prepare the Ancestral God Rank Elixir in advance.

Speaking of the elixir, Melinda said with admiration, "The Ancestral God Rank Elixir is no ordinary elixir. Upon consumption, you will gain the strength of an Ancestral God that is only slightly weaker than a Macrocosm Ancestral God."

Speaking of the elixir, James said with concern, "The Ancestral God Rank Elixir has been divided into many fragments. At present, there is still a remaining one outside. I hope I can find it before the Fourth Calamity."

"Let's hope so."

James could only wait patiently for now.

Melinda did not linger for long. After a brief conversation with James, she hurriedly left.

Then, James remained in the Elixir Pavilion temporarily. In the meantime, he did not forget to cultivate the Sword Art in an attempt to accomplish the second Consolidation.

Time passed.

In the blink of an eye, a thousand years passed.

At the back of the mountain of Sky City, James was sitting in a lotus position. His pores had opened up, and threads of Sword Energy materialized from within his body and rotated in a circular motion. Meanwhile, his Sword Path Ousia hovered above his head. Over the past thousand years, James had been comprehending the Sword Path left behind by the Ancestral Sword Master. This pushed him to the verge of Consolidation.

At that moment, he was trying to accomplish Consolidation. A greater and greater amount of Sword Energy surrounded him. Each of them possessed terrifying power.

The Sword Energies merged with the Sword Path Ousia, and the aura he exuded grew increasingly powerful.

This scene lasted for a few days.

After a few days, James' aura subsided.

"Congratulations," a melodious voice came.

Thea walked toward him with a smile on her face, "Congratulations on accomplishing the Second Consolidation. The power of your Sword Path has reached even greater heights."

James, on the other hand, smiled bitterly and said, "You're already at the Second Heaven Grand Emperor Rank, whereas I'm stuck at the Second Consolidation of the Divine Rank. The power disparity between us is too great."

“What’s the hurry? Take it slowly, will you?” Thea smiled mischievously and said, “Besides, you are cultivating nine Ousias at once. I only have one.”

James did a stretch and sensed the power coming from the Sword Path Ousia inside his body. A smile crept up on his face. Though he was only at the Second Consolidation, his rank was stable, and the power that burst forth was immense. If he goes all-out, not even a Quasi Emperor would stand a chance against him.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3227

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3227-“By the way...” James asked, “A thousand years have passed. Is there any information on the Ancestral God Rank Elixir’s whereabouts?”

Thea shook her head slightly and said, “No... Over the past thousand years, the disciples of the Pavilion have been searching throughout the Boundless Realm but to no avail. I’m even beginning to suspect if there truly is a fifth fragment out there.”

“What?”

James frowned.

A thousand years had passed since the Third Calamity. The current timeline had long surpassed the time he and Thea spent in the Boundless Realm. The Fourth Calamity could occur at any moment. If they could not find the Ancestral God Rank Elixir in time, the consequences would be disastrous for humankind once Heaven’s Adjudicators arrive.

James sighed.

Thea walked toward him and grabbed his hand, consoling him, “Calm down, Darling. I believe we will certainly find the remaining fragment before the Fourth Calamity arrives.”

After some contemplation, James said, “Could it be that the fifth fragment isn’t even in the Boundless Realm? Maybe it flew out of the Boundless Realm when the Ancestral God Rank Elixir shattered. That’s the reason why we can’t find it in the Boundless Realm.”

Pensive, Thea said, “Perhaps... You should find Melinda and ask about the specifics. Since her rank is higher, she may know more.”

“Alright.” James nodded and turned to leave.

Soon, he arrived at Melinda's accommodation. Before he could approach the place, a multicolored light radiated from inside. James arrived at the door and pushed the door open.

In the courtyard was a woman in a purple dress sitting in a lotus position in the air, exuding a terrifying aura. Sensing James' presence, Melinda stopped cultivating. Her body flashed, and she appeared before James in an instant, sighing, "All these years, I've been trying to regain my strength."

"How did it go?" James asked.

Melinda shook her head and said, "I lost too much strength during the reincarnation process. In the Reincarnation Pond, I managed to return to the Quasi Ancestral God Rank. This is the farthest I can go. I won't be able to return to the Ancestral God Rank anytime soon."

James said, "Take things easy. I have come here today to ask you about the Ancestral God Rank Elixir. A thousand years have passed, and the disciples of the Pavilion have searched throughout the Boundless Realm but to no avail. Could it be that the elixir has flown out of the Boundless Realm when it shattered?"

After some contemplation, Melinda said, "It's possible. Let's make haste. We should leave the Boundless Realm immediately and head toward the outside world."

James asked again, "As a Quasi Ancestral God and the daughter of the Macrocosm Ancestral God of the Primeval Age, can you sense when the Fourth Calamity will happen?"

Previously, even a Ninth Tribulation Quasi Emperor like Sophie could sense the previous calamities. As a Quasi Ancestral God, Melinda must have been able to do so as well.

Wearing a grim expression, Melinda said, "Though I can sense the previous three, I won't be able to sense the fourth one. Heaven's Adjudicators could appear the next second, or maybe they might not even appear for another 10,000 years."

After some contemplation, James said, "No matter when it happens, we have to be fully prepared. I'll go inform Thea, and we'll leave the Boundless Realm at once."

"Alright." Melinda nodded.

Then, James turned to leave.

He found Thea and told her about leaving the Boundless Realm, to which Thea agreed. Now, they could only head to the outside world and search around.

Then, James found Nico.

Many people gathered in the Pavilion.

James looked at them and said, "Though a thousand years have passed, we have failed to locate the final fragment of the Ancestral God Rank Elixir. We hypothesize that the final fragment could have flown out of the Boundless Realm when it shattered. So, we plan to leave temporarily and search around outside."

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3228

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3228-James immediately received support.

Silvester immediately said, "I also suspect that the final fragment isn't in the Boundless Realm. All these years, we have searched every nook and cranny of this place. Yet, we could not find any trace of the elixir in the form of a young girl. We should search around in the outside world."

"Let me go alongside you, James."

Nico stepped forward even though the 100,000 years agreement was over. After all these years, he had gotten used to obeying James' orders. Now that James was leaving, he had no idea what to do.

James, however, waved his hand slightly and said, "Stay here in the Boundless Realm. You aren't a human, and these are the affairs of mankind. Since this doesn't concern you, don't get involved."

"But..."

James interrupted him.

"No buts."

"Take me along, James. I also want to see what the world outside the Boundless Realm looks like." Monica stepped forward and looked at James in anticipation.

"Reporting!"

At that moment, a disciple hurriedly rushed in and knelt on one knee.

Silvester waved his hand slightly and said, "Stand up and speak."

"Sir, the seal on the Boundless Realm has disappeared." The disciple hurriedly said.

“What?” James and the others exclaimed.

Even Melinda was stunned. She asked, “The seal disappeared?”

“Y-Yes,” the disciple answered.

Melinda was wearing a grim expression.

James glanced at her and asked, “Is something the matter?”

She said, “The disappearance of the seal on the Boundless Realm can only mean that the Fourth Calamity is about to arrive. Perhaps it would be years, maybe it could be days. In any case, the Heaven’s Adjudicators will soon appear in this universe.”

Melinda had no idea when the Fourth Calamity would happen. However, she knew there was a prerequisite to the calamity—the seal set up by the humans in the Primeval Age would have to disappear.

“Go.” James hurriedly said, “Leave this place at once and head to Earth. We have to discuss the situation with Xandros, the Lord of the human race.”

“Alright.”

Melinda nodded.

Then, James, Thea, and Melinda did not linger for long and hurriedly turned to leave.

As the seal disappeared, James did not have to spend time removing the seal. Though Melinda was a Quasi Ancestral God, she had no idea about the specific location of Earth. Cutting through the void, they entered the space. In the next instant, they were already at the seal of the Boundless Realm. Now, however, the seal was nowhere to be seen.

Just as they arrived, a fissure appeared in the void before them. Then, a somewhat handsome-looking man appeared. He was none other than Xandros Tegan, the Lord of the human race. Upon sending James back 100,000 years in time, he had been constantly observing the seal on the Boundless. Sensing that the seal had disappeared, he immediately appeared.

“Xandros.” James walked toward him and clasped his fist.

Xandros waved his hand slightly and hurriedly asked, “James, how did it go? Did you find the Ancestral God Rank Elixir?”

James shook his head.

“What?” Xandros’ face paled.

James said, “Please hear me out.”

Then, James narrated the events that unfolded.

“Now, we have found four fragments of the Ancestral God Rank Elixir, and only a single one remains, which has already transformed into the image of a living being.”

“We’ll talk more when we return,” Xandros said. Then, he casually waved his hand and cut through the void. Then, they stepped into the void and disappeared without a trace. In the next instant, they were already back in a Sealed Realm on Earth.

There were many Grand Emperors here. All these years, they had been researching an elixir that was able to suppress Curse Power. After a long time, the research had shown progress.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3229

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3229-James could recognize one of these Grand Emperors — Yaraka Xenmour, the custodian of the Chamber of Scriptures.

“You’re back, James. Did you bring the Ancestral God Rank Elixir?” Yaraka asked. She was dressed in a white dress. Pure and untainted, she seemed like a beautiful fairy. Not only that, her voice was melodious.

James shook his head slightly.

“What?” Yaraka was shocked.

Xandros said, “Summon everyone here. We will have a meeting.”

“Yes.”

Knowing the severity of the situation, Yaraka hurriedly informed the others.

In the main hall of a building on the peak of a mountain...

Xandros was sitting on a throne, and some Grand Emperors gradually arrived.

“Greetings, Xandros.”

Upon meeting Xandros, they all greeted him respectfully.

Soon, there were ten or more Grand Emperors in the main hall. James glanced at them. He could sense that they were weak and only at the First or Second Heaven. Compared to the Grand Emperors in the Boundless Realm, they were many times weaker. The strongest among them was Xandros. Through James' perception, he could tell that Xandros was an Eighth Heaven Grand Emperor. Even in the Boundless Realm, he would be a top-notch fighter.

"James, you have returned."

"James, did you bring the Ancestral God Rank Elixir back?"

They greeted James. Though James did not know them, they had heard of James.

Xandros slightly raised his hand, and the crowd immediately quieted down.

He said, "Many events have happened in the Boundless Realm. The Ancestral God Rank Elixir has shattered. While in the Boundless Realm, James had found four of them, and only a single one of them remains."

Xandros narrated the chain of events that unfolded.

Hearing this, Yaraka's expression was grim as she said, "The seal on the Boundless Realm is gone. This means that the Fourth Calamity is upon us."

Xandros ordered, "Give the order. All humans in the universe must turn their attention towards finding the final Ancestral God Rank Elixir."

Then, he casually waved his hand, and an image appeared. This image was the one James gave to him.

"Understood."

The powerful figures turned to leave.

Swish!

A blinding light appeared in the main hall at that moment. Then, a few figures appeared — Silvester, Helvius, and the other powerful figures of the Boundless Realm.

When he saw this, Xandros immediately entered a defensive position.

James hurriedly explained, "This man is Silvester Daniela, the Old Master of the Boundless Realm's Elixir Pavilion. He's the descendent of the man who guards the Ancestral God Rank Elixir."

Hearing this, Xandros breathed a sigh of relief.

Silvester said, "As the seal on the Boundless Realm has disappeared, we were able to come here. Now, our priority is to find the Ancestral God Rank Elixir. Everyone in the Pavilion will assist you."

The Pavilion's strength was immense. With their strength, they could certainly sweep through the entire universe. That was because they did not experience the chaos of the Primordial Age.

Hearing this, Xandros breathed a sigh of relief.

Next, a huge number of powerful figures from the Pavilion began searching for the final fragment all over the universe.

Now, James had no choice but to wait.

Though he did not leave Earth for too long, to him, 100,000 years had passed. He had many friends and family members on Earth.

"Xandros, I'll be taking my leave. Inform me at once if you receive any news." James said.

Xandros nodded and said, "Get going."

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3230

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3230-"Let's return to Earth, Thea," James said.

"Alright." Thea nodded.

Then, they left the sealed space.

Now that they possessed immense power, the seal on Earth was nothing to them. As such, they were able to traverse the Sealed Realms with ease.

Thea casually waved her hand, and a fissure appeared in the sky. Then, they entered the fissure and reappeared on Earth.

In the sky...

After so many long years, Earth's surface area had increased, and countless mountains and rivers had emerged. Standing in mid-air, James gazed at his surroundings. Under his perception, he sensed that there were many new regions on Earth and that there was great destruction here.

Because of the curse of the Third Calamity, all humans on Earth had been contaminated by Curse Power, which caused the death of many humans. Meanwhile, some weaker cultivators who could not withstand the Curse Power also died after undergoing excruciating torture by the Curse Power. Meanwhile, the comparatively more powerful cultivators of the three thousand Sealed Realms could barely help themselves, preventing them from lending a helping hand to those contaminated with Curse Power.

On every street in every city on Earth lay humans whose lives were hanging by a thread on the ground. These modern-looking cities were completely devoid of life.

Upon seeing this, James was frustrated.

“Earth once had a population of about ten billion. Now, not even a hundred million remains.”

He sighed.

Thea grabbed his hand firmly and said, “Everything will be over soon.”

There were 10 billion inhabitants on Earth. Now, many of them lay dead. Besides, many of the surviving humans came from the Sealed Realms.

Standing in mid-air, James summoned the Jade Seal. Catalyzing the Jade Seal, a mysterious power emerged from within and enveloped the sky. At that moment, the Curse Power in the bodies of every human being transformed into threads of black aura and flew to the sky. Then, they entered the Jade Seal before moving to James’ body.

In the past, James could not save them as he was weak. Now that he had crossed into the Divine Rank’s Second Consolidation and cultivated the Curse Ousia, he was no longer afraid of Curse Power.

In an instant, the Curse Power in the bodies of every human being was absorbed.

“The Curse Power inside my body has disappeared!”

“I have recovered!”

“Hahaha! Thank the heavens!”

...

Cheers erupted all over Earth as James stored the Jade Seal away. At that moment, he was enveloped in Curse Power all over his body. Glancing at Thea, he said, “Return to Sol and Wyrmsstead first, Thea. I will find a place to suppress the Curse Power.”

“Mhm.” Thea nodded. Then, her body flashed, and she disappeared without a trace.

James, on the other hand, descended from the air and landed on an island in the middle of the ocean. Sitting in a lotus position on an empty plot of land, he began suppressing the Curse Power.

Just as Thea left, a figure appeared out of nowhere and blocked her path.

“Xandros, is something the matter?”

Thea froze.

“Thea.” Xandros’ expression was solemn.

Seeing that Xandros opened and shut his mouth, Thea said, “Please tell me what it is.”

“I came here to tell you something about the Ancestral God Rank Elixir.”

“Huh?” Thea froze.

What did the final Ancestral God Rank Elixir have to do with her?

Recommended Novels