

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3281

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3281-Xandros shook his head and said, "You don't understand, James. We're in a peaceful age right now. You resolved our calamity, and humanity was able to avoid the fate of extinction. From now onward, the Human Race will be blessed with good fortune.

"These two powerhouses are both at the highest possible cultivation rank a human can reach right now. They can't progress any further. If they could become the Lord of the Human Realm and the Heavenly Court, they could seize the Human Race's great luck. It might even be the key for them to enter the Ancestral God Rank.

"All these years, I've been grooming Jacopo to be the successor to my position. Earlier in the Heavenly Court's main hall, you understood what I was trying to relay to you very well. It's also my wish for Jacopo to take over my position.

"I want to use this opportunity to eliminate a few threats who are trying to seize the luck of the Human Race to become Ancestral Gods. I'll pass the title on to Jacopo after making sure none of these threats remain."

Xandros did not care about these superficial titles.

He would be satisfied as long as the Human Race continued to be prosperous.

Xandros wanted to prevent the Human Race's good luck from being stolen as it would result in the humans becoming weak again.

"What part do I play in this?" asked James.

Xandros replied, "Melinda is a very important person that will affect the results of my plan. She's a Quasi Ancestral God and will increase your chances of winning if you can get her support.

"Three days later, I'll announce that I won't pass on the position to Jacopo and to cut all ties with you. If you cause a scene in the Heavenly Court after that, the two Ninth Heaven Grand Emperors will surely seize the opportunity to make a move to fight for the position with you.

"I'll everything else after that to you."

James nodded, slightly waved his hand, and said, "Alright, I get it. You can leave."

"Alright."

Xandros did not stay long and disappeared from James' sight in a flash.

After Xandros left, Melinda came to see James.

Melinda called out, "James."

James looked at her, nodded lightly, and asked, "What are you doing here?"

Melinda walked over and lightly bowed to Thea's tombstone. Then, she said, "I knew you wouldn't die so easily and would return. If you truly died, everything would cease to exist.

"I also predicted you would cause a huge scene in the Heavenly Court."

"Oh?" James looked at her.

Melinda replied, "After the Four Calamities were neutralized, the Human Race once again became the leader of all creatures. Being the leader of all creatures means great blessings from the Heavenly Path.

"Under the circumstances that the Heavenly Path doesn't permit anyone to step into the Ancestral God Rank, this might just be the chance for one to surpass the limit.

"I'm aware of this, and so is Xandros. However, the other powerhouses must also be thinking the same. You must've reached some kind of agreement with Xandros to cause a massive commotion in the Heavenly Court today."

Melinda spoke softly, giving her analysis of the situation.

Although Xandros was the Human Realm's Lord, many of the powerhouses in the Heavenly Court were eyeing his position. The temporary peace could only be sustained because a chance had not surfaced yet.

James was the perfect opportunity.

Therefore, Xandros wanted to use James to lure out everyone who was trying to seize the position.

"Since you already know so much, are you not interested in becoming the Lord of the Heavenly Court and the Human Race? If you were to fight for the position, who would dare to stand against you?" asked James.

Melinda smiled faintly and said, "I was already an Ancestral God in the past. Why would I need to fight for the position to seize the Human Race's blessings just to become an Ancestral God again? With enough time, I'll surely become an Ancestral God again."

"Then, will you help me?" asked James.

Melinda smiled and said, “Who else am I going to help?”

After speaking, Melinda sat beside James and wrapped her arms around James’ waist. With a happy smile, she said, “My dummy.”

“ ... ”

James immediately jumped up and looked at Melinda warily.

Melinda stood up embarrassedly and stroked her hair. Then, she said smilingly, “If there’s nothing else, I’ll take my leave first.”

After speaking, Melinda disappeared in a flash.

James touched his chin.

“What does she mean? It’s hard to decipher her words. Could it be we had some sort of intimate relationship in the Primeval Age?”

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3282

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3282-James was startled by Melinda’s strange behavior.

However, he did not think much about it.

James waited patiently for a few days.

Three days passed in the blink of an eye.

James brought Jacopo to the Heavenly Court’s main hall in the morning.

The Heavenly Court was heavily guarded that day, and many powerful warriors were on guard at the main hall’s entrance.

Seeing James, they immediately barricaded him.

James glanced at them coldly and said, “Get out of my way.”

“Let him in.”

After hearing the voice inside the main hall, the guards stepped aside and let him pass.

James strode into the main hall.

“Do you really have to go this far, Dad?”

Jacopo whispered, “Uncle Xandros has cared for me pretty well all these years. The Heavenly Court has also been like home to me. Uncle Xandros has indeed been training as the successor of the Heavenly Court. Waiting a few more years wouldn’t hurt, right?”

“What do you know? Just follow me and don’t ask questions.”

James did not explain.

Soon, they arrived inside the main hall.

Many powerhouses of the Heavenly Court were present in the main hall. Those that could join the Heavenly Court and step into the main hall were mostly Grand Emperors.

Although the Human Race went through a tragic battle in the Primordial Age that caused the death of many Grand Emperors, many human Grand Emperors that hid throughout the vast universe survived.

Now that the Human Race was prosperous, many of these powerful humans joined the Heavenly Court.

A man sat in the highest seat of the council. He wore a yellow robe and a crown, radiating an authoritative aura.

“What’s your decision, Xandros?”

As soon as James stepped into the hall, he immediately questioned Xandros.

Looking at James standing in the main hall, Xandros said troubledly, “James, the Human Race is indeed indebted to your family. I can understand why you want Jacopo to be the Human Race’s Lord, but I can’t put the future of humanity into the hands of an inexperienced child.”

James frowned and said coldly, “If that’s your decision, then there’s nothing left to discuss.”

At that moment, many guards outside rushed inside with their weapons. A few of the warriors in the Heavenly Court also stepped forward and drew their weapons, besieging James.

James glanced at them and said coldly, “I, James Caden, announce Jacopo’s departure from the Heavenly Court. Xandros, you can keep the position for a little longer. But, I’ll definitely seize the position for my son very soon.”

After speaking, James pulled Jacopo and attempted to leave the main hall.

However, many powerful guards blocked his path.

In the highest seat of the hall, Xandros said, "Let him go."

The guards moved out of the way, allowing James to walk away unscathed.

As soon as James left, a powerhouse of the Heavenly Court said, "Lord Tegan, are you really going to let James mess around like this? He saved the Human Race and has high prestige among the humans. If he were to call for help, many powerhouses would surely support him. If he were to insist on fighting the Heavenly Court, it'd be very troublesome for us. Why didn't you take this opportunity to kill him to prevent the Human Realm from falling into dire straits again?"

"I agree."

"Even though James saved the Human Race, giving him a title would suffice. However, he's openly provoking the Heavenly Court and deserves to be punished for his crime."

Many of the Heavenly Court's powerhouses expressed their opinions.

"Let's not rush this matter. Let him calm down for a while." After Xandros concluded his decision, he dismissed the meeting.

Meanwhile, James had already left with Jacopo.

Now that he had declared war against the Heavenly Court, his next move was to win over the powerhouses in the Heavenly Court.

From now onward, the two Ninth Heaven Grand Emperors, Yehuda and Connor, would surely begin to openly compete for the Heavenly Court's Lord position.

"What a headache."

James massaged his temples, then turned to Jacopo standing beside him with an innocent look. Then, he said, "Return to the Mortal Dimension first, Jacopo. I'll make a trip to the Boundless Realm."

Jacopo replied, "Okay."

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3283

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3283-The Earth had basically evolved and become the main base for the Human Race.

However, there were many other planets where humans lived. The Boundless Realm was one of them.

After the Earth's seal was lifted, Silvester remained in the Boundless Realm and did not choose to settle in the Human Realm's Heavenly Court. If James wanted to successfully wipe out the powerhouses with ill intentions, he would have to recruit a lot of powerhouses to support him.

James left through the intergalactic passageway and appeared in the Boundless Realm. Then, he headed for the Elixir Realm.

The Elixir Realm had grown even more prosperous than it was a hundred thousand years ago.

James traveled through the Elixir Realm at great speed. The next moment, he had already reached Elixir City.

James immediately recalled the memories of the days he stayed in the Boundless Realm.

Soon, he arrived outside the Elixir Pavilion's gate.

"State your name."

As soon as James got close, he was blocked by disciples of the Elixir Pavilion. They drew their swords at James.

James smiled and crossed his hands behind his back. Then, he said, "Quickly report that James Caden has come to visit."

"Haha! James Caden? You could've pretended to be anyone else but chose James. Don't you know James is the Human Race's hero? He died in the deepest parts of the universe a hundred thousand years ago."

"I'm really James."

James felt helpless.

'Why does no one believe me?'

"Get lost. Otherwise, I won't go easy on you."

The Elixir Pavilion's disciples chased James away. Although he looked exactly like James, they did not believe he was the real deal.

"What's wrong?"

A voice came from the Elixir Pavilion.

“Young Lady.”

The disciples immediately greeted her respectfully.

The woman was none other than Jules’ younger sister, Yuina.

Yuina wore a white dress with a dazzling badge on her chest. Her delicate features and glamorous temperament had not changed.

As soon as she arrived at the gates, she noticed James being blocked by the disciples. Upon seeing him, she froze in place for a few seconds, then called out, “James?”

James replied with a smile, “Long time no see, Yuina.”

“Is that really you, James?”

Hearing James’ voice, Yuina immediately rejoiced. She took a few steps forward and stared at James, asking, “Didn’t you die in the battle a hundred thousand years ago? How are you still alive?”

“What’s wrong? Do you want me dead that badly?”

Yuina said frantically, “No, of course not!”

James chuckled and said, “Alright, let’s not talk about this for now. I have some important business to discuss with the Elixir Pavilion.”

“Come this way.”

Yuina immediately led James into the Elixir Pavilion, ascending the stairway to Sky City. Along the way, she asked James how he was still alive.

However, James could not answer her questions.

He was not sure how he was resurrected either.

“The Old Master is cultivating in the holy site located in the back mountain. Go ahead and see him.”

“Alright.”

James did not stay for long. After entering Sky City’s back mountain, he immediately headed to the Elixir Pavilion’s holy site.

Soon, he arrived at the mountaintop.

The same wooden house was still situated atop the mountain.

The surroundings were quiet, and the breeze blew up a few fallen leaves.

James walked over to the wooden house and called out softly, “Old Master.”

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3284

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3284-Creak!

The door opened instantly.

An old man walked out wearing a gray robe. He had a beard and a few strands of hair growing on his face.

“James?”

Silvester walked out of the wooden house and looked at James standing outside. He approached James and stared at him in disbelief.

“How is this possible? Didn’t you die in the battle a hundred thousand years ago?”

James sat down and said smilingly, “It’s a very long story. Let’s put that aside for now. I came to see you because I needed help with some stuff.”

“Oh? What is it about?”

Silvester sat down.

James explained, “My family has sacrificed a lot for the safety of humanity. However, the current Human Race’s Lord is Xandros. I’m unsatisfied with how things turned out and want to seize the position. I need your help.”

Silvester’s expression became solemn. He would have agreed instantly if James had requested help with anything else. However, James was asking for a very burdensome favor. He was trying to overthrow the Heavenly Court’s Lord. The Elixir Pavilion might also be destroyed if James failed to seize the position.

James did not rush for an answer and waited patiently for Silvester to consider.

After a long time, Silvester said, “We’re old friends, James. We’ve known each other for many years and experienced many battles together. I should definitely help you, but...”

He said, "The Human Race has already gone through so many catastrophes and is finally peaceful. I don't want the Human Race to experience another disaster. If you insist on fighting the Heavenly Court, humans will suffer, and the Human Realm will fall into dire straits again."

Silvester's words were a clear rejection of James' request for help.

James also expected Silvester's rejection.

He smiled and explained, "There's a reason I'm doing this. As a Seventh Heaven Grand Emperor, I'm sure you know the Heavenly Path has permitted the Human Race to become the leader over all other races in the universe again. The Heavenly Path has also blessed the Human Race with good fortune. Obtaining the Human Race's blessings might be the key to becoming an Ancestral God."

One hundred thousand years ago, Silvester was a Seventh Heaven Grand Emperor.

However, his cultivation rank had not improved in many years.

At his cultivation rank, it was tough to make new breakthroughs. Even if given one or ten Epochs, he might not be able to reach the Grand Emperor Rank's Eighth Heaven.

Silvester nodded lightly at James' words and said, "Indeed. I can sense the blessings bestowed upon the Human Race's Lord. Whoever is in the position will be blessed with the entire Human Race's luck, which could increase their cultivating effectiveness."

James continued, "There are two Ninth Heaven Grand Emperors in the Heavenly Court right now. One is Yehuda Baxter, and the other is Connor Landon. Both of them joined the Heavenly Court with the intention to seize the Lord's position.

"Xandros is aware of their motives. However, there's nothing he can do against them despite being the current Human Race's Lord. Xandros intends to use this opportunity to eliminate them."

James explained Xandros' plan to him.

Silvester fell silent. After a while, he said, "Since it's for the greater good of the Human Race, I should support you. If there's anything you need me to do, just ask away."

James said, "I need you to leave seclusion and order all of the Grand Emperors in the Elixir Pavilion to head over to the Human Realm. Then, wait for my next order."

"Alright." Silvester nodded.

"I still have other business to settle, so I'll take my leave first. You should head to Earth first, and I'll come look for you when I return."

After speaking, James left.

Silvester stood up and left the holy site. Then, he appeared in the Elixir Pavilion's main hall and summoned the Elixir Pavilion's Master, Helvius.

Recommended Novels