The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3285-Helvius walked into the main hall and asked respectfully, "Is there something wrong?"

Silvester asked, "How many members do we have at the Grand Emperor Rank?"

Helvius replied, "About a hundred. We used to have a lot more, but many joined the Heavenly Court in the Human Realm after its establishment."

Silvester immediately ordered, "Summon all of them."

Startled, Helvius asked, "What's the matter, Old Master?"

Silvester said smilingly, "James has returned and wants to seize the position as the Heavenly Court's Lord. Naturally, I'm going to support him."

Helvius exclaimed, "J-James? Are you talking about the James that died in the battle against Heaven's Adjudicators a hundred thousand years ago?"

Silvester nodded and said, "Yeah."

"Alright! I'll go gather our powerful members immediately." Helvius left without any hesitation.

Soon, the Grand Emperors and powerhouses of the Elixir Pavilion were gathered in the main hall.

These Grand Emperors chose to stay in the Elixir Pavilion because they were focused on their cultivation and had no desire for power.

Monica was also among them.

For the past one hundred thousand years, Monica had stayed in the Elixir Pavilion and earnestly practiced Elemental Inversion. Her strength improved rapidly over the years. One hundred thousand years later, she finally became a Grand Emperor.

Monica asked, "What's the matter, Old Master? Did something happen?"

Sitting in the highest seat, Silvester stroked his white beard and asked, "If James returned and wanted to seize the position as the Lord of the Heavenly Court, would you guys support him?"

"James?"

Monica was thrilled. She stood a few steps forward and asked excitedly, "What did you say, Old Master? Are you saying James is back?"

Jules was also shocked by the news and asked, "Didn't Mr. Caden die in the deepest part of the universe a hundred thousand years ago? Is he still alive?"

Silvester nodded and said, "That's right. James is still alive, and he just visited me. He wants to be the Heavenly Court's Lord. I summoned everyone here to seek your opinions on whether you're willing to support him. If you support him, you'll be standing against the Heavenly Court."

At that moment, one of the Elixir Pavilion's elders stepped forward and said, "I'll definitely support him! In my heart, James is the Human Race's Lord. What has Xandros done for humanity to deserve the position? What gives him the right to be the Human Race's Lord?"

"I'll also support James."

Many of the Elixir Pavilion's powerhouses expressed their opinions.

"Very well."

Satisfied by their answers, Silvester said, "If that's the case, let's depart to Earth and wait for James' further instructions."

"Alright!"

Afterward, Silvester led over a hundred Grand Emperors and powerhouses of the Elixir Pavilion to the Human Realm, Earth.

Meanwhile, a discussion was taking place in a palace in the Divine Dimension on Earth.

The palace was Yehuda's accommodation and was named Yehuda Palace.

"This is the perfect chance, Grand Priest Yehuda."

Yehuda sat in a chair and rested with his eyes closed. He looked to be in his forties and was wearing a white robe.

An old man stood beside him and kept expressing his opinions.

"James has declared his stance against the Heavenly Court. He'll start to recruit powerhouses to fight against the Heavenly Court. You should use this opportunity to overthrow Xandros and kill James. Then, you'll become the Heavenly Court's Lord."

Yehuda opened his eyes, and a strange glow emerged from his eyes.

He replied gently, "The situation in the Heavenly Court is very complicated. There's Xandros' faction, and now we have James' faction. Besides, there's Connor Landon as well. Although he doesn't bother with the Heavenly Court's affairs, I'm sure he joined the Heavenly Court for the position of the Heavenly Court's Lord too."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3286-Yehuda was a very low-key powerhouse.

He had achieved significant accomplishments in his cultivation during the Primordial Age. Back then, he was already a powerhouse. The Demon Race had gained insight that the Heavenly Path would target the Human Race, so they started a war against the humans first.

Many creatures in the universe got involved in the battle.

Countless Grand Emperors participated in the fight and died. A few humans betrayed the Human Race and turned to the Demon Race.

There were also a few that were afraid to die and hid themselves to survive the war.

Yehuda was one of those that chose to hide.

After avoiding the battle, he devoted his time to cultivating and eventually became a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor. However, it was the highest rank he could reach, and he could no longer advance even a single bit.

After Earth's Four Calamities were over, he saw the hope of making another breakthrough in his cultivation rank.

His plan was to become the Human Race's Lord and gain the blessings bestowed upon the Human Race.

After he joined the Heavenly Court, he secretly recruited powerhouses to join him. It had been tens of thousands of years, and there were currently many powerhouses under him.

He thought for a while and replied, "There's no need to rush. Let's see how the fight between Xandros and James goes. We should hold back while they go at each other."

"Is there something you're worried about, Grand Priest Yehuda?"

"Of course. Melinda is a Quasi Ancestral God. If she were to support James, how would I compete with him?"

"I'll look for Melinda and try to win her over to our side."

"Go ahead."

Yehuda lightly waved his hand, then closed his eyes again.

Since James' declaration to overthrow Xandros, the Heavenly Court had been in chaos. Yehuda and Connor seized the opportunity to begin recruiting powerhouses to establish their own forces.

A storm was about to break out in the Heavenly Court.

Meanwhile, Silvester had brought over a hundred powerhouses to Earth.

The powerhouses temporarily stayed on Earth and waited for James' subsequent arrangements.

On the other hand, James arrived at the Boundless Realm's Aqua Realm.

He came to look for Winnie.

James refused to believe that Winnie was dead.

Winnie was an Ancestral God and would never be in a position where she had to sacrifice her life to kill three of Heaven's Adjudicators.

James arrived at the black palace in the Aqua Realm, which had been Winnie's seclusion sanctuary in the past.

The palace was still in the same spot and was surrounded by formations.

"Winnie."

After arriving outside the palace, James called out, and his voice resounded throughout the area.

No one responded to him, and the surroundings remained quiet.

"Are you inside, Winnie?"

"It's Dad. I'm back!"

James kept calling out for Winnie.

However, he did not get a response even after shouting a few times.

“Could Winnie have really...”

James’ face filled with sorrow. He did not believe Winnie died but did not know where else she could have gone.

He turned around in disappointment.

Just as he was about to leave, the black palace gate opened, and a woman walked out.

The woman wore a plain, white dress and had long, black hair.

She called out lightly, “Dad.”

James immediately turned around. Seeing the woman, he rushed over with a smile, shouting, “It’s you, Winnie! I’m so glad you’re still alive!”

Winnie’s face was pale, and it looked like she was seriously ill.

“Wh-What’s wrong?” James noticed something was wrong with her.

Winnie replied, “I’m a sinner.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3287-“Huh?” James was startled.

Winnie replied, “I’m one of Heaven’s Adjudicators. I’m supposed to be fair and just, but I got involved in the affairs of the Human Race. I’ve gone against the Heavenly Path’s will and have been imprisoned in this palace.”

After speaking, Winnie raised her hands.

A pair of handcuffs made out of Law Inscription appeared on her wrist.

“Why did this happen?” asked James.

Winnie replied, “I-It’s my destiny. I might have to stay in this place for the rest of my life.”

“I-Is there no way to free you?” asked James.

Winnie looked at James and said, “There is a way to free me.”

“What is it?”

Winnie replied, "You'll have to become a Macrocosm Ancestral God, defeat Radomir, and take control of the Heavenly Path. Then, you could change the Heavenly Path's rules, and the shackles placed on me would disappear. Only then would I be able to leave."

"Huff." James took a deep breath.

It would be difficult to become a Macrocosm Ancestral God, defeat Radomir, and take control of the Heavenly Path.

James fell into thought.

After a while, James asked, "By the way, who's Melinda?"

Winnie glanced at James and said, "Didn't I tell you she was the daughter of our universe's previous Macrocosm Ancestral God and also the Young Lady of the Mount Heavenly Path?"

With an embarrassed look, James asked, "I wanted to know what kind of relationship we had."

"About this..."

After a brief hesitation, Winnie said, "You'll find out soon."

James inquired further, "Did you meet your mother after you returned to the Primeval Age?"

Winnie did not answer his question and turned back to enter the black palace.

The palace gate closed again.

James shouted, "Wait, Winnie! Answer my question!!! Did you see your mother in the Primeval Age?"

Winnie's voice came from inside the palace. "You should head back, Dad. There's no need to come and see me again. Come rescue me after you've become a Macrocosm Ancestral God, defeated Radomir, and taken control of the Heavenly Path.

"As for Mom, you'll have to do your own research. I can't tell you anything."

James fell silent.

What exactly happened in the Primeval Age?

Both Melinda and Winnie refused to tell him anything.

James said again, "Winnie, I want to seize the position as the Heavenly Court's Lord. I have two potent opponents, both of whom are at the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven. I need your help. Can you really not leave this place?"

Winnie replied from inside the black palace, "Dad, I've truly been imprisoned here by the Heavenly Path. I can't get too far from the palace. If I leave this place, I'll be obliterated by the Heavenly Path.

"You'll have to figure out a way to deal with the Heavenly Court's affairs alone."

Winnie's voice gradually became weaker, and the surroundings returned to silence.

James stood at the gate, lost in thought.

After a long time, he shouted, "Don't worry, Winnie! I'll work hard to raise my cultivation rank. I'll definitely become a Macrocosm Ancestral God, defeat Radomir, take control of the Heavenly Path, and come to free you."

Unfortunately, Winnie did not reply to him.

After seeing Winnie and learning that she was still alive, James was relieved.

After resolving the internal conflict in the Heavenly Court, he would be at ease and could go looking for Thea.

As for the Heavenly Court's affairs, he was not really concerned about them. Melinda, a Quasi Ancestral God, was supporting him. She could easily suppress two Ninth Heaven Grand Emperors.

However, what he needed now was a reason to get rid of them.

All that was left now was to wait for Yehuda and Connor to rebel.

He would not have a reason to take action against them if they did not rebel against the Heavenly Court.

James began to grow more curious about the events that occurred in the Primeval Age.

What exactly happened in the Primeval Age, and what role did he play back then?

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3288-James' worried heart was at ease after finally seeing Winnie.

Although Winnie was imprisoned by the Heavenly Path, it was still possible to get her out someday.

James did not linger in the Aqua Realm any longer.

He left through the intergalactic passageway and returned to Earth.

Silvester had brought the Elixir Pavilion's powerhouses to Wurmstead, which was in the Earth's Mortal Dimension. They patiently waited for James' return to Earth.

Inside the main hall of Wurmstead's Imperial Palace, James sat in the highest seat of the council. All the powerhouses from the Elixir Pavilion were gathered inside the hall.

Standing at the bottom, Silvester asked, "What's next, James?"

James lightly tapped his fingers on the table. He did not have a detailed plan yet.

After a brief thought, James replied, "We're not in a rush, so we'll wait for a bit. Meanwhile, I'll head to the Divine Dimension to check out the situation."

James left the Mortal Dimension after a brief discussion and headed toward the Divine Dimension.

Similar to the Mortal Dimension, the Divine Dimension was vast and boundless.

After reaching the Divine Dimension, James raised his head. Many palaces could be seen in the sky, and it was where the Human Race's Heavenly Court was situated.

The Heavenly Court was established to better manage the Human Realm.

Swoosh!

A blurry shadow immediately appeared before James upon his arrival. The shadow gradually materialized into a beautiful woman.

James looked at Melinda and felt slightly awkward.

However, they knew Melinda must have shown up because of something important.

"Oh, it's you?" James tried to act nonchalant.

Melinda nodded lightly and replied, "Yeah."

James asked, "What is it?"

"Ever since you declared war against Xandros, many powerhouses from the Human Race have come to see me."

Without thinking about it, James asked, "Was it Yehuda and Connor?"

Melinda nodded and said, "Yeah. They've sent people to see me and tried to win my support. However, I turned them down. Eventually, Yehuda and Connor both came to see me in person and expressed their wishes for me to join their side, promising to give me great benefits after they gain control over the Heavenly Court."

James asked, "And your reply was?"

Melinda said, "I didn't agree to join them, of course. I told them I didn't want to get involved in their fight for the position of the Heavenly Court's Lord."

James nodded and said, "Mhm. Both of them are worried about which side you'll join, as you'll greatly increase the chances of victory of whichever side you choose to join."

Melinda continued, "Although the Heavenly Court seems stable on the surface, a lot is going on behind the scenes. Yehuda and Connor are trying to win over the powerhouses in the Heavenly Court, and Xandros' forces are decreasing significantly."

James listened carefully.

Melinda asked, "What do you plan to do?"

James fell into thought. Initially, he planned to go to the Fiend Realm to look for Qusai to get the Fiend Race to help. He also wanted to seek Henrik's help to get the Demon Realm on his side.

However, he gave up on the idea after thinking about it.

Since it was a problem of the Human Race, he did not want to get other races involved.

After a brief thought, James replied, "Since you've already told them you wouldn't get involved in this matter, you shouldn't come to see me. If Yehuda and Connor find out, they'll definitely put a hold on their ambitions, and we'll lose the chance to wipe them out. You should leave for now. I'll take care of the rest."

Melinda nodded, then disappeared from James' sight with a flash.

James looked at the palaces in the sky and flew toward them.

Soon, he arrived at the Heavenly Court.

The Heavenly Court was massive, and there were many palaces in there.

Every Grand Emperor of the Heavenly Court was granted a palace.

There was a powerful Accumulation Formation around the Heavenly Court that absorbed Primordial Energy from the Divine Dimension. It was the perfect place to cultivate.

James came to the Heavenly Court again to win over more powerhouses.

He activated his Divine Sense and scanned the Heavenly Court's surroundings. Soon, he sensed Yehuda Palace.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3289-James hesitated for a bit but then disappeared from the place with a flash.

In the next moment, he was already outside Yehuda Palace.

There were many guards at the palace gate.

These bodyguards were relatively strong. To serve as Yehuda Palace's guard, one had to be at least at the Divine Rank's Third Stage.

"Stop right there!"

As soon as James approached, he was blocked by the guards.

The guards recognized James.

However, they did not show him any respect.

"James, this is the Grand Priest Yehuda's residence. It's not a place you can visit as you please. Get lost."

One of the guards chased James away.

All of them knew that James was the hero that saved humankind.

However, they also knew that James only acquired the power of an Ancestral God after consuming the Ancestral God Rank Elixir.

Now that his strength as an Ancestral God was gone, James' cultivation rank was relatively low. Compared to the Grand Priest Yehuda, James was nothing.

James stood at the palace gate and said with a bright smile, "Go report that James has come to visit."

"Wait right here," One of the guards said before walking into the palace.

James was in no rush and waited patiently at the gate.

In the main hall of Yehuda Palace, a man that looked in his forties sat in a lotus position with his eyes closed. Mysterious inscriptions revolved around him, and a powerful aura erupted from his body.

A guard walked into the main hall and reported, "Grand Priest, James has come to visit."

Yehuda replied softly without even opening his eyes, "Let him in."

"Alright."

The guard left the main hall.

After waiting for a while, the guard came to the gate and led James into the palace.

James was brought into the main hall and immediately saw Yehuda, who was still cultivating.

Yehuda looked relatively young and did not seem like someone who had lived for a very long time.

Yehuda stopped cultivating and slowly stood up. He looked at James and smiled faintly.

"I wasn't expecting you, James."

James clasped his fists and said smilingly, "It's a pleasure to see you, Grand Priest Yehuda."

Yehuda said, "A seat for my guest."

A few beautiful servants walked over with a chair immediately.

James did not hold back and made himself comfortable.

Yehuda sat in the highest seat and asked, "What brings you here?"

James went straight to the point. "You're aware that I've declared war against Xandros and want to overthrow him, right? I came to ask for your help to acquire the position as the Lord of the Heavenly Court."

"Haha," Yehuda chuckled and asked, "What makes you think I have the power to help you?"

James replied with a smile, "You'll never know if you don't try."

Yehuda waved his hand lightly and said, "Please leave. I won't help anyone fight for the position of the Heavenly Court's Lord."

James stood up, clasped his hands, and said, "That would be great as well. Thank you. As long as you don't help Xandros, I'm sure I can overthrow him."

James turned around and left.

He did not really expect Yehuda to help and was simply doing it for show.

Yehuda was a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor and was one of the strongest in the universe. Moreover, he was also eyeing the position, so he definitely would not agree to help.

After James left, the smile on Yehuda's face gradually disappeared.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3290-James left after seeing Yehuda and went to visit Connor.

Connor was also a Grand Emperor that chose to stay hidden during the Primordial Age after learning of the Human Race's fate.

He did not reveal himself until the establishment of the Heavenly Court after the Fourth Calamity was over.

He never asked for the position of the Lord of the Heavenly Court, nor did he have a high position in the Heavenly Court. He was relatively free and did not have many responsibilities on him.

James appeared outside Connor Palace.

The palace was relatively desolate, and there were no guards outside the gate.

James walked toward the door and knocked lightly. Soon, the door opened, and a graceful woman walked out.

The woman was slender and wore a pink dress.

“Master has been expecting you. Please do enter.”

The woman made a welcoming gesture.

James was not surprised and walked in without hesitation.

After entering the palace, he was taken to the backyard.

In the backyard, there was a table with a chess board in an open field. A man who looked to be in his sixties could be seen playing chess alone.

He wore a gray robe and had a beard. His appearance was of an elderly man, but his body was full of vitality.

The woman walked over and reported respectfully, “Master, James is here.”

“Alright.”

Connor put the chess piece in his hand down and looked at James. He pointed at a chair and said softly, “Have a seat.”

James sat down and looked at Connor seated opposite him. Connor was calm and elegant, unlike someone who had great ambitions.

James greeted him, “Nice to meet you, Sir.”

Connor gently waved his hand and said, “There’s no need to be so formal with me. In the cultivation world, only the strong are respected. You defeated over a hundred of Heaven’s Adjudicators and are the hero of the Human Race.”

James did not beat around the bush and cut straight to the chase. “I came to see you because...”

Before James could finish speaking, Connor cut him off, saying calmly, “I know you’re here to ask for my help. You’re not confident in winning despite being the Human Race’s hero. Even though you’ll gain a lot of support if you ask for it, Xandros has a high prestige amongst the Human Race, and many powerhouses are loyal to him.”

James asked, “Then, what’s your answer?”

Connor raised his head to the sky. After a long silence, he said, "Being the Lord of the Heavenly Court and Human Race sure is tempting. However, I'm not interested in it. It doesn't matter to me who holds the position."

Just like Yehuda, Connor refused his request for help.

James knew they turned him down because they wanted him and Xandros to fight so they could reap the benefits.

"I see. As long as you don't support Xandros, It'll be a piece of cake for me to defeat him."

James did not say much. He stood up, clasped his fists, and turned to leave.

After James left, Connor smiled faintly. "Haha. You're still too naive, Young Man."

After visiting Yehuda and Connor, James went to see Yaraka.

Yaraka used to be the Earth's Chamber of Scriptures custodian. She guarded the place for many years and provided James with a lot of help when he was still very weak.

She even helped him reform his physical body.

In the backyard of the palace where Yaraka resided, James and Yaraka walked side by side.

Yaraka wore a white dress. She was incredibly beautiful and looked pure and innocent. Her aura was ethereal, and her every move was graceful.

"Yaraka."

James parted his lips and said gratefully, "When I was weak, it was you who kept helping me from behind the scenes. Without you, I wouldn't be where I am today."
