

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3311

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3311-Murchadt looked at Letitia and said, "Go meet him."

Letitia remained silent and simply turned to leave. Then, she headed to the foyer.

A man about twenty-five years of age was sitting there. Wearing a golden robe, he had a somewhat handsome-looking appearance and exuded the aura of a playboy.

As Letitia walked toward him, he hurriedly stood up and looked at her endearingly.

"You're here, Letitia."

Letitia looked at him and asked coldly, "What are you doing here?"

Ximun said smilingly, "Murchadt promised me that you would bring me to Mount Sword God. My Sword Path Ousia has accomplished the Third Consolidation, and it would be difficult for me to advance further. If I can listen to the Ancestral Sword Master's sermons, maybe I'll gain some insight and cross into the Quasi Emperor Rank."

Letitia looked at him and said, "I'm sorry, but I may not be able to bring you along."

"Why?" Ximun asked puzzledly.

She replied, "That's because I've promised someone else I would them along."

"Who?"

"That's none of your concern," Letitia said and turned to leave.

Ximun chased after her and grabbed her hand, asking, "We have an engagement, Letitia. This is the perfect opportunity for us to bond. Yet, you chose to bring someone else along. If word spreads, how would outsiders view the Lachesis and Zaccai families?"

"That has nothing to do with me."

Letitia was determined to bring James along. She knew he was no ordinary man the moment she laid her eyes on him. After all, how could a man who had suffered so many Heavenly Path injuries be ordinary and mundane? Even though Murchadt was afraid of him causing trouble to the family, she was not. Worse came to worst, she just had to leave the Lachesis family. In any case, she was just a tool to consolidate the power of the family in her father's eyes. She would never marry Ximun. As a prodigy who cultivated three Ousias, she believed that only a genius greater than her would be worthy of her.

At that moment, Murchadt approached the two.

“Murchadt...”

Ximun immediately walked toward him with an aggrieved look on his face.

Murchadt looked at Letitia and ordered, “You must bring Ximun along to Mount Sword God.”

“No way.” Letitia was adamant.

“You...!” Murchadt was livid.

As Letitia turned to leave, Murchadt sighed and looked at Ximun, saying, “No worries. I’ll talk some sense into her. You should leave for now.”

Ximun clasped his fist and said, “Thank you, Murchadt.”

Then, he turned to leave.

Since Letitia had nothing to prepare, she immediately went looking for James.

“Let’s get moving, Mr. Caden.”

“So soon?” James froze. He never expected they would leave so soon.

Since Letitia was not someone who loved hiding secrets, she simply answered truthfully, “I originally planned to make some preparations. However, my father insists that I bring someone else along. That’s why we should sneak away while we still can.”

“Oh,” James said.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3312

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3312-To prevent any unexpected events from occurring, Letitia decided to leave now. So, she went looking for James and informed him of her decision before leaving together.

However, before they could leave the gates, Murchadt appeared with a group of guards and blocked their path. He said coldly, “Where do you think you’re going? If you don’t bring Ximun along, say goodbye to your journey to Mount Sword God.”

Letitia’s face darkened.

"Think twice, Father. If I miss this opportunity, I will lose out on a great providence. This might be the opportunity the Lachesis family desperately needs to emerge as a force to be reckoned with."

Murchadt said, "I have carefully considered this. I also wish for the Lachesis family to leave the Void Realm so that we can spread our name throughout the universe. However, there is a prerequisite. The Lachesis family must possess a strength that's comparable to our ambitions. What's the point of leaving the Void Realm if we don't have any powerful figures?"

Though Murchadt was ambitious, his strategy was to go about this step-by-step. Without becoming the most powerful force in the Void Realm, how could they possibly leave the Void Realm and spread their name far and wide?

"You can stay in the Void Realm and become the number one you so desire all you want. I'm leaving." Letitia said. Though Murchadt was her father, she was ruthless in her words.

James who was standing by the side scratched his head awkwardly. He did not know what to say.

"Seize her! Do not let her go without my permission!" Murchadt ordered.

Immediately, a few guards stepped forward.

Letitia hurriedly leaned on James and pleaded, "Help me leave this place."

James said awkwardly, "You are father and daughter, after all. I don't think a falling out with him is a good idea."

She said, "I make my own decisions in life."

"Alright, then." James nodded.

Though he was unsure he could help her leave, he knew he had to at least do something. He stepped forward and blocked the guards' path, saying coldly, "Stop right there."

Murchadt looked at James, who did not conceal his aura. Though he cultivated Sacrilegious Ascension and had carved out many energy reservoirs inside his body, all his power was stored inside. Regardless, as an Eighth Heaven Grand Emperor, Murchadt could sense that James was only at the Divine Rank at a single glance.

"Do you wish to interfere in the internal affairs of the Lachesis family?" Murchadt said coldly.

James said nonchalantly, "There's no need to resort to violence over such an insignificant matter. Actually, I don't need Letitia bringing me to Mount Sword God. I can go there by myself. She can bring that Ximun guy along if she wishes."

He was confident that he could ascend Mount Sword God even without Letitia's assistance. However, as he was unfamiliar with this universe, he needed someone to show him the way.

"Dream on," Letitia said, "Even if you ascend Mount Sword God by yourself, I'm not bringing some burdensome garbage along."

In Letitia's eyes, Ximun was nothing but trash. Though she was not yet distinguished by cultivating three Ousias, she would be a shining pearl once she crossed into the Grand Emperor Rank. A Grand Emperor with a single Ousia was incomparable to one with three Ousias, after all.

James shrugged and said, "Since she has no desire to do so, there's nothing I can do."

Murchadt looked at James and said coldly, "Stay out of the Lachesis family's internal affairs, you outsider. Men, seize the Young Lady! Kill anyone who stands in your way without mercy!"

"Who dares?" James roared.

He summoned a sword from the Celestial Abode.

Previously, he lent the Celestial Abode to Xandros Tegan, who in turn passed it to Jacopo. However, before arriving at the Primeval Age, Jacopo had returned the Celestial Abode to James.

James held the sword in his hand. The sword was purple and radiated a purple light.

"What?"

Murchadt's face paled as he unconsciously staggered backward. He stared at the sword in James' hand like it was some sort of dangerous object.

Recommended Novels