The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3313-“Th-The Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword... Impossible!”

His expression was full of disbelief.

The Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword was the sword of the Ancestral Sword Master, who always had the sword by his side. He found it hard to believe that a cultivator at the Divine Rank possessed the sword of the Ancestral Sword Master.

“Not bad...” James said, “I didn’t expect you to recognize the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword.”

“Wh-Who are you to the Ancestral Sword Master?” Murchadt’s voice trembled.

However, at that moment, James could feel an overwhelming power charging toward him out of nowhere. Without any indication, he was crushed by the power, and the Divine Sword in his hand showed signs of disappearing.

“What?” James was stunned.

At that moment, unable to withstand the power, the Blood Energy inside his body churned, and he spurted out a mouthful of blood. Meanwhile, the Divine Sword in his hand transformed into a purple light and disappeared into the Celestial Abode.

‘What’s going on?’

He was shocked.

Murchadt, Letitia, and the guards of the Lachesis family were all confused.

James’ injuries aggravated the Heavenly Path’s injuries inside his body, and he felt excruciating pain throughout his body. Immediately, he sat in a lotus position on the ground and catalyzed Dark Power to suppress the injuries.

Murchadt, on the other hand, was wearing a grim expression.

Letitia glanced at him and grunted, “I told you he’s no ordinary man. Yet, you’re worried that he’d bring trouble to the family. How can he be an ordinary man when he possesses the sword of the Ancestral Sword Master? Even the most distinguished disciples of the Ancestral Sword Master may not be able to obtain the sword.”

Murchadt simply remained silent.

At the same time, on Mount Sword God in the Human Realm...

A middle-aged man was sitting in a lotus position at a place with picturesque scenery. Sword Energy circulated throughout his body. These Sword Energies were made up of the shards of the Law of Heaven and possessed a mysterious power.

At that moment, a purple light glimmered, and a sword appeared before him. The Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword before him began to tremble. The man immediately opened his eyes and looked at the sword with a grim expression on his face.

“What’s going on?”

The man was the Ancestral Sword Master, who was practically unrivaled in this age full of powerful fighters. He was wearing a grim expression, as he had no idea why the Divine Sword was trembling. Besides, he could sense a chaotic power inside the Divine Sword.

He then began to extrapolate.

“There’s another Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword?”

The Ancestral Sword Master froze.

Immediately, realization dawned on his face as he murmured, “So this Divine Sword came from the future. This means that a powerful figure from the future came to this age with the sword. However, as two similar objects cannot appear in the same space, there was a repulsion. That’s why the Divine Sword reacted so weirdly. Who was the one who came to this age with the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword? Who exactly was the one who could endure such great Karma by traversing and going against the tide of the River of Time?”

The Ancestral Sword Master wanted to divine the identity of the person who came to this age with the Divine Sword. However, he could not do so no matter how hard he tried. He tried sensing the Heavenly Path, but it showed no anomalies.

“This shouldn’t be,” the Ancestral Sword Master gazed at the sky and murmured, “If someone traversed through the River of Time from the future, the Heavenly Path should undergo extraordinary changes. However, this did not happen. Could it be that this person is originally from this age, but traveled to the future and brought back another Divine Sword?”

The Ancestral Sword Master was confounded.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3314-The appearance of a Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword that came from the future caused anomalies to the one in the Ancestral Sword Master's hands. Though he could sense that there was a similar sword in this age, he could not sense the whereabouts nor the identity of the wielder.

He sat in a lotus position on the ground and fell into deep thought. Then, he made the decision to seal his own sword away. This meant that the Divine Sword of this age no longer existed. Thus, the appearance of the other Divine Sword would not bring about any anomalies. This also meant there was only a single Divine Sword in this age.

Upon sealing his Divine Sword, he said, "Sword Guard."

A shadow appeared out of nowhere. Then, the shadow knelt on one knee and said melodiously, "Master."

The Ancestral Sword Master ordered, "There are now two Crepe Myrtle Divine Swords in this age, and I want you to investigate the whereabouts of the other Divine Sword. Remember not to spook the future owner of the Divine Sword. Once you have completed your investigation, return immediately and inform me of the results."

"Understood."

The shadow said and vanished without a trace.

At the same time, James was sitting in a lotus position in the Lachesis family while catalyzing the power of Dark Ousia to suppress the Heavenly Path's injuries inside his body. Though his Dark Power was weak and had only accomplished Consolidation, Dark Power was the nemesis of the Heavenly Path's power. Soon, the injuries were suppressed, and the pain subsided. The pain remained. However, the pain was now bearable to James.

James slowly stood up.

Seeing that his face was pale and he was sweating profusely, Letitia hurriedly pulled out a white cloth from her pockets and wiped the sweat off his forehead.

James accepted the cloth and said, "I can do it by myself."

He wiped the sweat, which was also stained with blood, off his forehead and returned it to Letitia. Letitia did not hesitate at all and took the cloth.

"What happened, Mr. Caden?" she asked.

James fell into deep thought. He had no idea what had just happened either.

'Could it be Karma? There's another Divine Sword in this age as well. Did he bring about Karma by taking out the sword Divine Sword?'

James contemplated. He believed that his hypothesis was plausible. After all, he could clearly sense that the Divine Sword was showing signs of disappearing. Perhaps he had transgressed Heaven's Law. However, these were only his thoughts. There was no evidence to support his claims.

He simply said, "I'm alright. My injuries from before were aggravated. Don't worry, I have already suppressed them."

Letitia believed that things were not as simple as they seemed. However, since James was reluctant to speak, she did not inquire further.

Letitia simply stood by the side and contemplated. She began to suspect James' identity.

She had heard of the Divine Sword, one of the most terrifying weapons in this world. As the sword of the Ancestral Sword Master, it possessed mysterious purple energy. Under normal circumstances, the Ancestral Sword Master would not let his sword leave his side. Now, however, the sword had appeared in the hands of a human with a weak cultivation base. Besides, James had terrifying injuries from the Heavenly Path on his body.

There were a few possibilities.

One, he was attacked by Radomir Theophanes, the controller of the Heavenly Path.

Two, he was attacked by Hadad Theophanes, the ruler of the universe.

Three, he was attacked by Heaven's Adjudicators.

Four, when James was overcoming a Heavenly Tribulation, he was attacked by Heaven's Adjudicators.

In any case, this meant that James was an enemy of Mount Heavenly Path, an entity the Lachesis family could not afford to cross. Even though the family could potentially obtain great providence by befriending James, the cost was simply too immense. So, Murchadt became firmer in his belief that they had to keep away from James.

"Seize her!" Murchadt said.

"Mr. Caden!" Letitia hurriedly hid behind James.

James looked at Murchadt and said, "I told her I don't need her bringing me to Mount Sword God. I'll just accompany her there. She can bring someone else along if she wishes."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3315-Murchadt looked at James and said, "I'm not targeting you, Sir. This has nothing to do with you. Since your injuries have stabilized, please leave this place at once. The Lachesis family cannot accommodate you, I'm afraid."

Murchadt ordered James to leave.

"I told you I'm not bringing garbage along," Letitia said adamantly.

James was at a loss.

"Help me, Mr. Caden," Letitia said. Seeing that James was hesitating, she hurriedly said, "I was the one who saved your life. Can't you help me out a little here?"

James was stuck between a rock and a hard place. Murchadt was an Eighth Heaven Grand Emperor. Though his physical strength was powerful, it was only equivalent to a Grand Emperor at the Fifth Heaven. What else could he do if Murchadt insisted on stopping them from leaving?

He looked at Letitia and advised, "Why don't you bring that Ximun guy along?"

Letitia looked at him and fell into deep thought. After some time, she sighed deeply and said, "If you say so..."

Letitia had no other choice. Looking at Murchadt, she said coldly, "Satisfied?"

Murchadt said nothing and ordered his guards, "Bring Mr. Ximun here."

"Understood."

The guards turned to leave.

James, Letitia, and Murchadt waited. James looked at the two and said, "Please don't tell anyone about the Divine Sword. It's for your own good as well."

James was afraid indeed. The Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword was the sword of the Ancestral Sword Master, one of the world's most powerful figures. Most importantly, he had no idea what sort of person the Ancestral Sword Master was. If news of the Divine

Sword in his possession leaked, he might be hunted down. Previously, he was only trying to intimidate Murchadt with the sword. He was only reminded of the dangers the moment the Divine Sword underwent extraordinary changes. Thus, from this moment onward, he would no longer summon the Divine Sword. Not only that, he would not be using the Five Elements of Genesis easily. That was because the Five Ancestral Masters of Heaven and Earth also existed in this world. The Five Elements of Genesis were the precious treasures of the Five Ancestral Masters. If news spread, he would be in deep trouble. So, he planned to use them only after he had understood the situation he was in.

Letitia nodded and said, "Don't worry, my lips are sealed."

Murchadt looked at James and said, "I saw nothing."

Hearing this, James was relieved.

Soon, Ximun arrived at the gates of the Lachesis family.

"Hey there, Letitia," he greeted her with a bright smile.

"Hmph!" Letitia grunted before turning to leave.

James followed suit.

Murchadt ordered, "Alright now, get going then. Be careful along the way. Once you arrive at Mount Sword God, be sure to comprehend the sermons of the Ancestral Sword Master. Everything will now depend on your providence."

"Understood, Murchadt. Thank you."

After speaking, Ximun hurriedly chased after James and Letitia.

Upon leaving the city, Letitia gazed at the sky and casually waved. Then, a Saucer materialized out of thin air.

James froze and asked, "How long do we need to reach the Human Realm? Do we not have Galatic Highways in this age?"

"Galatic Highways?" Letitia asked, "What are they?"

"I-It's nothing." James shook his head slightly and said nothing else. It appeared that Galatic Highways were not yet created in the Primeval Age.

Letitia said, "As our strength is weak, we can't travel by tearing open the void. So, we can only travel via a Saucer. Don't worry, my Saucer is rather advanced, and we can leap through space. Our journey to the Human Realm will take approximately 300 years. We can definitely make it on time.”

“Let’s go.”

She boarded the Saucer.

As James’ physical strength was equivalent to a Grand Emperor at the Fifth Heaven, he could already tear open the void and travel through space. However, he remained silent and boarded the Saucer. A few hundred years were nothing to him, after all.

Letitia’s Saucer was pretty high-class and had plenty of rooms. Upon boarding the Saucer, James was arranged a room of his own. In his room, he continued catalyzing the power of Dark Ousia inside his body to suppress the Heavenly Path’s injuries. At the same time, he used the Dark Power to rejuvenate his body.

In the blink of an eye, a hundred years passed.

A hundred years later, the Saucer suddenly stopped.

Knock! Knock! Knock!

While James was in a closed-door meditation, a knock came on the door.

He stopped cultivating and opened the door. A gorgeous woman was standing outside. The woman was Letitia.

“Mr. Caden, we have arrived at the Katun Realm. We will make a brief stop here to replenish the Saucer’s energy.”

“Mhm.” James nodded and walked out of the room.

Knowing that James was unfamiliar with this world, she explained, “The Katun Realm is a powerful world that’s only beneath the Seven Realms. Besides, the Katun Realm is a mysterious place.”

A somewhat handsome-looking man walked toward them. Stopping before Letitia, he said smilingly, "I know, Letitia. There's a flower in the Katun Realm."

Letitia glanced at him with an expression full of disgust. Ignoring him, she looked at James and explained, "That's right, there's a Sacred Blossom in this place. The Sacred Blossom is a magical thing created by heaven and earth and will only blossom once every Epoch."

"A Sacred Blossom?"

James froze.

He had heard of the Sacred Blossom. When he was in the Boundless Realm, he encountered a Flowery Pattern Formation. When he fought against a Heaven's Adjudicator, Jabari performed a terrifying cultivation method that gathered the Paths of this world and created a Sacred Blossom. With the strength of a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor, he gravely injured the Heaven's Adjudicator. He never thought he would hear of the Sacred Blossom upon arriving in the Primeval Age.

Letitia continued, "It takes the Sacred Blossom 4.9 billion years to blossom and wither. This is also called an Epoch."

"Mhm."

James nodded slightly. He knew of this.

Letitia said, "I specifically chose to replenish the Saucer's energy here because I know that the Sacred Blossom in the Katun Realm is about to bloom."

Stunned, James asked, "Oh? It's blooming?"

"Yes." Letitia nodded and said, "It takes a long time for the bud of the Sacred Blossom to form. Meanwhile, the time the Sacred Blossom blooms is short. Three months after blooming, the Sacred Blossom will wither. Meanwhile, the Sacred Blossom in the Katun Realm is about to blossom. So, I came here to see if we could secure a few spots to observe the Sacred Blossom. This will be a great providence."

Ximun poured cold water on her by saying, "Dream on, Letitia. Do you have any idea what sort of object the Sacred Blossom is? How could ordinary people like you and me have the right to observe the blossoming and the materialization of various Paths?"

Letitia could not even be bothered to pay any heed to him.

She looked at James and asked, "Can you do something about it, Mr. Caden?"

James shrugged and said, "What can I do?"

“Let’s head over there for now.” She said.

“Alright, then.” James nodded.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3317-Then, the Saucer left space and entered a radiant planet. This planet was the Katun Realm, a powerful world that was only beneath the Seven Realms. Each time the Sacred Blossom in the Katun Realm blossomed, countless powerful figures would flock over there to have a glimpse of the flower.

Upon entering the Katun Realm, the Saucer landed in a powerful city called Path City. Meanwhile, the Sacred Blossom was located in a sect outside Path City called the Path Sect.

Letitia brought James to an inn where they would stay and said, “Please rest here for now, Mr. Caden. I’ll go ask around.”

“I’ll go with you, Letitia.” Ximun hurriedly chased after her.

“Get lost.” She said coldly.

Ximun, however, was not angry at all. Apparently, he had gotten used to her abrasive remarks. He said smilingly, “In that case, be careful on your way out!”

Seeing this, James simply remained silent and entered his room. Sitting in a lotus position, he was lost in contemplation. Then, his body flashed, and he entered the Celestial Abode. Currently, the Celestial Abode was completely empty, and only the Spirit Tool remained.

James went looking for him. In a manor in the City Lord Manion’s courtyard, James called out to the Spirit Tool, “Master Spirit Tool!”

The Spirit Tool hurriedly said, “Please don’t call me that, James. Just call me the Spirit Tool.”

James asked, “Do you remember Emperor Jabari’s final battle?”

The Spirit Tool asked, puzzled, “Yeah, I do. Why though?”

James replied, “Emperor Jabari summoned a Sacred Blossom in his final battle. However, as his comprehension of the Paths was limited, he did not manage to gain insight into the Five Great Paths and the Karma Path. In the end, he had no choice but to sacrifice himself to replenish the power of the Five Great Paths and the Karma Path to gravely injure the Heaven’s Adjudicator.”

“Mhm.” The Spirit Tool nodded and said, “Indeed.”

James asked, “What was the Supernatural Power performed by Emperor Jabari?”

The Spirit Tool answered truthfully, “Emperor Jabari looked for Yukia Dearnaley all his life. That was why he traversed countless ancient ruins. Coincidentally, he came across a withered Sacred Blossom. The Sacred Blossom has long its power and can no longer blossom. Regardless, as a Sacred Blossom, it still contained incredible power. Emperor Jabari entered a closed-door meditation beneath the Sacred Blossom and created a Forbidden Art called ‘Blossoming’. However, ‘Blossoming’ was incomplete as Emperor Jabari only had a fundamental comprehension of the Five Great Paths, let alone the bizarre Karma Path. That’s why ‘Blossoming’ was incomplete.”

The Spirit Tool explained it briefly.

James asked, “Did he leave behind any cultivation methods for Blossoming?”

“Of course, please follow me.”

The Spirit Tool stood up.

James followed suit.

Under the Spirit Tool’s guidance, James arrived at the back of the City Lord’s Mansion. There was a pagoda nine stories high. On the gates, the words ‘Chamber of Scriptures’ were engraved.

The Spirit Tool explained, “Emperor Jabari was well-versed in various Paths. If not for the Heavenly Path’s restrictions, he would have surely crossed into the Ancestral God Rank. Every secret art he obtained and the Supernatural Powers he acquired while scrolling through the ancient texts in ancient ruins are all hidden in the Chamber of Scriptures. The cultivation method of Blossoming is on the ninth floor.”

“Great, I’ll be heading there.”

James nodded and pushed the door open.

There were many bookshelves on the first floor, on which many books could be found. James did not linger for long and hurriedly headed to the ninth floor.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3318-James arrived at the ninth floor. Though there were many bookshelves here as well, there were lesser books on the bookshelves. James scanned his surroundings and immediately discovered Blossoming. As he headed toward the bookshelf where Blossoming was located, he noticed an ancient jade piece there. Holding the jade piece in his hand, he catalyzed his power and injected them into the object.

At that moment, the jade piece began to glimmer. Mysterious characters materialized from within and appeared before James. James scrutinized the pieces of information.

After some time, the jade piece returned to normal.

James put down the jade piece, sat in a lotus position on the ground, and began absorbing the information he saw in earnest.

As a Forbidden Art, Blossoming was an unparalleled Supernatural Power Jabari acquired beneath a withered Sacred Blossom. Once performed, one's energy would be completely depleted. Even someone as mighty as Emperor Jabari could not support Blossoming and had to sacrifice his own life to successfully perform Blossoming. Meanwhile, the requirements for performing Blossoming were strict. Not only must one be a Grand Emperor, but he or she must also comprehend various Paths. When Blossoming is performed, one needed to comprehend every Path there is to successfully perform the Forbidden Art.

Upon learning of this, James gave up. That was because he had yet to reach the requirements for cultivating Blossoming.

He left the Chamber of Scriptures. After bidding farewell to the Spirit Tool, his body flashed, and he disappeared from the Celestial Abode. In the next instant, he was already back in the inn.

Since Letitia was out gathering information, James had nothing to do at the moment. So, he sat in a lotus position on the bed and catalyzed Dark Power to suppress and rejuvenate his injuries.

Soon, Letitia was back.

Knock! Knock! Knock!

A knock came on the door.

James stopped suppressing the Heavenly Path's injuries inside his body. Then, his body flashed, and he appeared before the door and opened it.

A glamorous-looking woman was standing outside. Wearing a green robe, her appearance was stunningly beautiful, and her figure was slender and enticing.

"Come in."

James returned to the room. Letitia walked in and shut the door. He sat on a chair, while Letitia sat beside him.

James asked, "Did you find anything out?"

Letitia nodded and said, "Yes, I did."

James listened intently.

Letitia said, "The Sacred Blossom will completely blossom in five years. The Sacred Blossom is located in the Path Sect, a powerful sect outside the city. The Path Sect has an Ancestral God who's called the Ancestral Cultivator Master. He's a Mystical Ancestral God.

"Oh?" Hearing this, James froze momentarily before asking, "Is the Ancestral God Rank divided into multiple sub-ranks as well?"

Letitia looked at him weirdly.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3319-Did James not know the most fundamental knowledge of cultivation?

James scratched his head awkwardly and said, "I have never interacted with any Ancestral Gods, so I don't know much about them."

Doubtful, Letitia explained, "The Ancestral God Rank is indeed divided into a few sub-ranks. From the weakest to the strongest are the Mystical Ancestral God Rank, the Terra Ancestral God Rank, the Caelum Ancestral God Rank, and the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank."

"I see." Realization dawned on James' face as he signaled for Letitia to continue.

Letitia continued, "In the past, every time the Sacred Blossom blossoms, there will be forty-nine thousand and eight hundred individuals who would be able to spectate in the Path Sect and comprehend the various Paths."

"Forty-nine thousand and eight hundred individuals? That's quite a lot, huh?" James said.

"Not at all." Letitia sighed. "This universe is huge. The Human Realm alone is full of prodigies. This number of spots is far from enough."

James asked, "What are the requirements to watch the blossoming?"

Letitia explained, "Strength is not the primary condition. These spots have mostly been occupied by some of the more powerful worlds. Everything operates behind the scenes. Unless an Ancestral God helps us out, it would be nigh impossible to secure a spot."

James sighed, "In that case, it's not possible to watch the Sacred Blossom blossoms..."

"But..." Letitia said.

James asked, "But what?"

Letitia continued, "Circumstances are different this time around. We have extra spots now."

Hearing this, James was delighted. He asked, "How do we secure these spots?"

Letitia said, "It's not that easy. That being said, it's not impossible either."

"Alright now, cut to the chase."

Letitia explained, "This time, the Path Sect has offered extra spots for each rank, starting from the Divine Rank's Third Consolidation, the Quasi Emperor Rank, and to the Quasi Ancestral God Rank. This means that the Divine Rank's Third Consolidation will have three extra spots. The same goes for each sub-rank from the Quasi Emperor Rank's First Tribulation to the Ninth. Even the Quasi Ancestral God Rank has three as well. As long as you are in a certain rank, you can register to participate in a competition. Those who emerge victorious will obtain the spots. "

"Is that so?" Hearing this, James murmured, "My rank is at the Divine Rank's Second Consolidation. Won't I be bullying the others by competing against those at the same rank?"

Letitia glanced at him weirdly, wondering what those words meant.

"Mr. Caden, I plan to give it a try. I have already cultivated three Ousias. One of them has already accomplished the First Consolidation, and the other is at the Second Consolidation. Meanwhile, my Sword Path Ousia is already at the Third Consolidation. The division of ranks is based on our highest-ranked Ousias. At the moment, I'm at the Divine Rank's Third Consolidation. So, I plan to give it a go."

She paused before continuing, "With my strength, I should be able to secure a spot for myself as long as I don't encounter the Grand Priests and Priestesses of the powerful sects. Besides, those people tend to secure their spots through some deals behind the scenes. They shouldn't be here to compete for the spots. That's why my chances are rather high."

“Mhm.” James nodded slightly and said, “I’m glad to know that. Since you wish to go, go ahead. We can only know the outcome after the competition.”

“What about you?” she asked.

James said smilingly, “If I compete against those cultivators at the Divine Rank, I’d be accused of bullying the others.”

“What do you mean?” Letitia was puzzled.

James said smilingly, “Though my rank is low, my physical strength is unrivaled. My physical strength is at the Grand Emperor Rank’s Fifth Heaven. Let me ask you this. Do you think any cultivator at the Divine Rank can withstand a single blow from me?”

Letitia’s mouth was agape.

Though James’ rank was at the Divine Rank’s Second Consolidation, his physical strength was at the Grand Emperor Rank’s Fifth Heaven. How did he manage to pull this off?

She looked at him and asked, “By the way, how many Ousias have you cultivated?”

“Me?” James scratched his nose.

He looked at her and asked, “I believe nine Ousias is the maximum I can cultivate.”

Letitia nodded and said, “Indeed. Even so, no one has been able to reach the maximum limit since antiquity. To my understanding, you will be considered a prodigy if you can cultivate five Ousias. You should be able to join any sect freely. Even the owner of Mount Heavenly Path will admit you as an Inner Disciple.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3320-Ordinary cultivators could only cultivate a single Ousia. The more Ousias one cultivated, the more difficult it would be. Cultivators who could cultivate five Ousias were considered prodigies in this age. Someone like this would be vied for by any sect and would emerge as a powerful figure in the future.

“Is that so?”

James murmured.

He had cultivated ten Ousias. The previous nine were a breeze, and only the tenth was challenging.

“What do you mean?” James asked.

After some thought, Letitia said, “The more Ousias one can cultivate, the greater his potential. Without potential, you cannot cultivate many Ousias. Take me, for instance. If my potential only allows me to cultivate three Ousias, I won’t be able to cultivate a fourth no matter how hard I try.”

“I see.”

Hearing this, James understood. This meant that he had unlimited potential. That was why cultivating the Ousias felt like a breeze to him.

“Mr. Caden, how many Ousias have you cultivated?” Intrigued, Letitia asked.

James smiled and said, “It’s a secret.”

Five Ousias were incredible enough. If word of his ten Ousias spread, the world would be stunned. So, he did not wish to attract unwanted attention.

“Are you keeping a secret even from me?” Letitia grinned mischievously.

James simply remained silent.

Letitia did not inquire further and said, “The Sacred Blossom will blossom in five years. The registration deadline is also coming to a close. Let’s head over to register ourselves for now.”

“Mhm.” James nodded.

Then, they turned to leave the room.

Upon opening the door, they noticed a man standing outside trying to eavesdrop on their conversation. Seeing that Ximun was outside, Letitia furrowed her eyebrows and asked coldly, “What are you doing here so sneakily?”

Ximun said smilingly, “Oh, I was just passing by. By the way, are you on your way to register for the Sacred Blossom?”

“That’s none of your concern. Stay in the inn and don’t wander about. Once everything’s settled, I’ll be back,” Letitia spoke coldly. She turned to leave alongside James, hand in hand.

As Ximun watched their retreating figures, the smile on his face froze, and his face darkened.

Upon leaving the inn, James and Letitia headed toward the Path Sect.

Outside the city, there were undulating mountains that were endless.

Letitia explained, "This is the Path Sect, the strongest sect in the Katun Realm. It is also one of the most powerful in this universe."

James nodded slightly and said nothing.

Soon, they arrived at the foot of the Path Sect.

At the foot of the Path Sect, many disciples were patrolling the place. Many living beings were entering and exiting the place. They were here to secure a spot to observe the Sacred Blossom.

James and Letitia were stopped by a few guards. After explaining their purpose for coming here, they were allowed passage. They even instructed them to head to the mountain in charge of registering cultivators at the Divine Rank.

James and Letitia headed in the direction of the mountain. Soon, they arrived at the foot of a mountain. Along the way, they came across many cultivators at the Divine Rank.

Since they were to register their names, they were all fairly confident in their strength. They were some of the best in the Divine Rank's Third Consolidation.

The two began ascending the mountain. Soon, they arrived at the peak.
