The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3361-“Y-You’re...”

Lana took a few steps back in shock.

James put away his Ousias and said offhandedly, “It’s nothing special.”

“What in the...?”

Lana had a solemn expression. She stared at James, trying to discern more about him. However, James seemed impossible to read and was very mysterious.

He had more than ten Ousias.

The Heavenly Path only permitted one to possess nine.

How was it possible for him to have so many?

“Are you truly human?” Lana exhaled shakily.

James reminded her. “I regard you as a family. That’s why I’m telling you my secret. Don’t tell others about it because it might get me killed.”

“Why would you tell me specifically if you knew how contentious this information is and deliberately endanger yourself?”

James simply smiled in return. “You’re like a sister to me! Family shouldn’t keep secrets from one another, right?”

To be accepted by the Callahans, James knew he would have to develop a good relationship with their family members.

He planned to start with Lana. Then, he would gradually get closer to the other Callahans and eventually, win Thea over again.

James planned to tell Thea the truth after he wooed Thea.

Lana nodded and said, “Since you’ve chosen to trust me, far be it for me to betray it.”

Her eyes darted around as she fell into thought.

She was very interested in James. It was amazing that he managed to cultivate more than ten Ousias. When James grew stronger, he would surely become the greatest cultivator in the universe. Lana wanted the Callahans to be associated with this immensely gifted man.

"Your name is James Caden, right?" asked Lana.

James nodded. "Yeah."

Lana prodded further. "Are you married?"

James shook his head and said, "Not yet."

Hearing this, Lana grinned. She responded cheerfully. "That's good. There's many beautiful women in my family. What's your type? Let' me know what you want in an ideal woman, and I'll try to find you a match? You can marry into the Callahans and become part of our family."

James shook his head and said, "My ideal woman is Thea."

Lana's expression immediately froze. Then, she replied. "You should forget about her. It's impossible. There's absolute no chance you'll marry her."

James shrugged and said, "Then there's no need to discuss this matter."

Lana approached James and giggled. "What do you think about me? I'm currently a Terra Ancestral God."

James looked at her and smiled. "I consider you my sister, yet you're romantically attracted to me?"

"Pfft!"

Lana said disdainfully, "I'm just joking. Although you've got great potential, your cultivation rank is still pitifully low. You don't meet the lowest requirements I want for a partner."

"Thank goodness." James heaved a sigh of relief.

His indifferent response ticked off Lana. She gritted her teeth and said, "I'm a beautiful woman and also an Ancestral God. Do you think I'm beneath you?"

James quickly explained. "Wait, you don't get it. I meant that I'm the one who's unworthy as a partner. You're a Terra Ancestral God. That rank is extremely high, and I don't think I'll ever catch up to you."

"You're such an outstanding woman and you shine brightly like the stars in the galaxy. I admire you a lot..." James hurriedly uttered some flattering remarks.

Hearing his compliments, Lana's mood eased. She said with a satisfied smile, "That's more like it."

After hearing numerous rumors about James, Lana took the opportunity to verify them with James.

James also used the chance to establish a good relationship with her. After a brief chat, the two grew much closer and laid the foundation for James to approach the Callahans more easily.

“Alright, that’s enough chatting for now. I have to go check on Danielle.”

James continued sitting in a lotus position. He propped his chin on his arm and began thinking about Thea.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3362-Lana left the courtyard where James stayed.

As soon as she left, the smile on her face was replaced with a tense expression. She quickened her pace and hurried toward the mountain range where Danielle lived.

Danielle was seated in a lotus position on her bed as she tried to suppress the Destructive Power in her body.

Creak!

The door opened, and Lana walked inside the room.

Danielle asked. “How did it go? Are the rumors true?”

Lana sat down, nodded, and said, “Yeah, the rumors are true. James does indeed have the Ancestral Sword Master’s sword. He also cultivated the Five Great Paths’ Ousias. Moreover, he...”

Lana wanted to tell her that James had cultivated more than ten Ousias but held her tongue after recalling the promise she made to James about keeping it a secret.

Danielle inquired. “What else?”

“Nothing.” Lana shook her head.

Danielle began to consider the information she obtained. After a while, she said, “He’s the Ancestral Sword Master’s disciple and has also cultivated the Five Great Paths’

Ousias. On top of that, he possesses Crucifer. Given time, he will surely become one of the greatest cultivators in the universe.”

Lana asked, “What should we do? Should we let him go or continue keeping him here? If the Ancestral Sword Master persecutes us for our actions, it would be detrimental to the Callahans.”

Danielle sighed and replied. “Let’s make plans after Briana returns.”

“Alright.”

Lana did not say anything more.

...

After James was confined within the Callahan Residence, he could not leave.

However, he was not in a rush and waited patiently.

He began to cultivate and study the Time Path.

His Time Path was about to go through its second Consolidation.

James set up a Time Formation and began to analyse the Time Path more deeply.

A hundred years passed in the blink of an eye.

Thea had left the Callahan Residence for a hundred years. She traveled the world looking for the Ancestral Needle Master, who had been wandering the world to train. Fortunately, Thea was a Caelum Ancestral God with great strength, so it was not difficult for her to locate him.

Thea sat in the highest seat in the Callahan Residence’s main hall. Sitting below her was an old man in a white robe. He had long white hair and a long white beard. The old man had a very unearthly aura and radiated a quiet might.

“Sir.”

Although Thea was a Caelum Ancestral God and was one of the top ten powerhouses of the universe, she addressed the old man respectfully. The old man was a well-known powerhouse for a very long time.

“My eldest sister, Danielle, was injured by Benji Lowther. Her body is tainted with his Destructive Power. We need your help to treat her.”

The old man was none other than the Ancestral Needle Master, a legendary powerhouse with a long-standing reputation.

The Ancestral Needle Master was also a Caelum Ancestral God. Despite not being one of the strongest people in the universe, he was definitely a figure worthy of the highest respect.

He stroked his white beard lightly and said, "Thank you for your courtesy. As a medical practitioner, it's my duty to save lives and heal the wounded. However, I'm incapable of using Crucifier right now."

Thea looked at the Ancestral Needle Master and asked. "Why is that so?"

The Ancestral Needle Master said solemnly, "I'm not too sure why. It started a hundred years ago. My prized Crucifier started acting abnormally. It showed signs of disintegrating whenever I tried to use it and was seemingly trying to repel something."

Immediately, Thea thought of James.

After she found the Ancestral Needle Master, she brought him directly to the Callahan Residence.

She had not had the chance to tell the Ancestral Needle Master about James yet.

Thea asked. "Do you possibly have a direct disciple named James Caden?"

"James Caden?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3363-The Ancestral Needle Master was taken aback for a moment. Then, he replied, "I've taken in many disciples, but none of them is named James Caden."

Thea immediately barked an order. "Bring James here."

"Yes, Miss."

The disciple standing at the door left instantly.

At that moment, James was still cultivating within his Time Formation.

A hundred years passed in the outside world, but he had spent more than 30,000 years in the Time Formation.

Although he spent over 30,000 years comprehending the Time Path, he still had not reached the second Consolidation stage. However, his understanding of the Time Path had grown significantly.

A disciple of the Callahan family walked into the courtyard and interrupted James from his meditation.

James dispersed the Time Formation, looked at the disciple, and asked. "What's the matter?"

"Ms. Briana is asking for you. Come with me."

"Thea's back?" James was ecstatic.

He looked at the disciple and asked confusedly. "Why are you still standing there? Quickly lead me to her."

The disciple looked at James perplexedly. "Who the hell is this guy? How dare he utter Ms. Briana's real name?"

"Follow me."

The disciple turned around and left.

The disciple led James to the main hall atop a mountain.

Thea sat at the highest seat of the council table. James could not suppress his happiness and impulsively called out to her, "You're back, Thea!"

However, he was instantly struck by a powerful force. A crushing pressure closed in on him and he immediately sank to the ground, unable to get back to his feet.

Thea hissed, "How dare you call my name? If you keep doing that, I won't hold back against you."

She released the pressure after warning him.

James got up from the ground and wiped the blood from his lips. He looked at Thea sitting in the highest seat. His mouth opened and closed like a fish, seemingly wanting to say something, but he held back.

He felt helpless being repelled by his wife, but there was nothing he could do.

James asked. "What did you call me for, Briana?"

Thea looked at the Ancestral Needle Master and said, "That's James Caden. By the way, I forgot to mention that he also has a Crucifier. I've seen it with my own eyes, and can confirm it's real."

"Oh?"

The Ancestral Needle Master's curiosity was immediately piqued. He looked at James and asked, "Do you also have a Crucifier?"

"Who are you?" James looked at the old man.

The next moment, James immediately guessed his identity. He clasped his fist and said respectfully, "My name is James Caden, Sir. It's a pleasure to meet you, Ancestral Needle Master."

James glanced at the guard at the main hall's entrance and said, "What we are about to discuss is highly confidential, and it would be best if less people know about it."

Thea waved her hand casually, and the guard immediately shut the door. Then, she set up a formation to close off the main hall.

Only then did James begin to explain. "I do indeed have a Crucifier, Sir. To be honest, I've traveled to this age from the future. I've had this Crucifer with me for a long time in the future."

"Show it to me." The Ancestral Needle Master was doubtful of James' words.

James immediately summoned Crucifier and handed it over to the Ancestral Needle Master.

The Ancestral Needle Master took it and began to scrutinize it.

"It's indeed Crucifier."

The Ancestral Needle Master was shocked. Suddenly, he sensed terrifying Karma Power bear down on him. Although he was a Caelum Ancestral God, he was still fearful of Karma Power.

"I see."

The Ancestral Needle Master promptly returned Crucifier to James.

James also quickly put it away.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3364-At that moment, the Ancestral Needle Master understood what was happening.

There were two Crucifiers in this world. This was why his Crucifer showed signs of dissociating when he tried to use it. It was instinctively repelling its other counterpart.

Two of the same rarity could not exist together in this age.

Although he doubted that James truly traveled through time, the evidence stood right in front of him.

He looked at James and asked puzzledly. "You're not an advanced cultivator, so how did you travel through the River of Time? How did you withstand the pressure while traveling through the River of Time? Also, why did you come to our age from the future?"

The Ancestral Needle Master peppered him with questions.

James replied truthfully. "I used the Time Capsule to travel through the River of Time. Not only do I have Crucifier, but I also have Exalter. Fusing the two will form the Time Capsule."

"Oh?" Intrigued, the Ancestral Needle Master pressed for more details. "What is an Exalter? Are you saying it can be fused with Crucifier? Why don't I know of its existence?"

James shook his head. He was not sure either.

Theoretically, if Crucifier existed in this age, Exalter must also exist. However, it seemed Exalter was not in the hands of the Ancestral Needle Master but was possessed by another powerhouse.

Thea asked. "Then what's your purpose for coming here?"

James looked at her and said, "I'm here to find my wife."

"What do you mean?" The Ancestral Needle Master was puzzled by his answer.

James explained everything without skipping a beat.

However, the Ancestral Needle Master and Thea could not hear what he was saying, nor could they discern his words from reading his lips.

"...And that's what happened."

James looked at Thea and the Ancestral Needle Master and said, "That's the reason I came to this age."

The Ancestral Needle Master and Thea glanced at each other and nodded knowingly.

The Ancestral Needle Master said, "He spoke of Heaven's secret which can't be disclosed. Knowing it would change history. Therefore, it was obscured by the Heavenly Path. We're not allowed to know about the future."

Thea nodded. "Yeah."

She was a Caelum Ancestral God and naturally also understood the implications. She could not hear James because he spoke of the secrets of heaven and knowledge of them could change the course of history."

"Don't tell me you didn't hear a single word after I said all of that?" James looked at them warily.

The two nodded in unison.

Hearing this, James was disappointed.

He wanted to tell Thea the truth, but it seems like it would take a long time for her to finally learn about their relationship.

In the past 100 years, Thea had traveled the universe to find the Ancestral Needle Master and had heard many rumors.

She could not help but ask. "Did you also bring the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword from the future?"

"Yeah." James nodded in complete admission.

Thea stopped asking any more questions. She looked at the Ancestral Needle Master and asked. "What should we do to save my sister?"

After a brief thought, the Ancestral Needle Master said, "There's only one method I can think of."

"Please do tell us, Sir," Thea said respectfully.

The Ancestral Needle Master replied, "It's very simple. We have to seal one of the Crucifiers so they don't sense the other."

He thought for a while and said, "Since James also has one, I'll seal mine."

With that said, he sealed away his Crucifier.

Afterward, he looked at James and said, "Take yours out. I'll go treat Ms. Danielle."

"Okay." James nodded and took out Crucifier.

This time, there wasn't a trace of Karma Power.

Thea was also relieved.

The Callahans were very grateful to the Ancestral Needle Master.

James and the Ancestral Needle Master sat inside a manor within the Callahan Residence.

The Ancestral Needle Master stroked his white beard and smiled fondly at James. "Since you've obtained Crucifier in the future, that means you're my successor. Why don't you follow me? I'll teach you the best medical skills in the universe."

James promptly refused him. "Your medical skills are the greatest of the universe and you're also an unparalleled powerhouse. It's a great honor to be under your tutelage. However, I have some other important matters to settle, and can't leave with you yet. How about I reunite with you after I've dealt with my affairs?"

The Ancestral Needle Master nodded lightly and said, "That works out too. I've already sealed away my Crucifier. From now onward, you can use Crucifier without facing any consequences."

James said gratefully, "Thank you, Sir."

The Ancestral Needle Master did not say much and vanished.

As for James, he did not immediately leave the Callahan Residence. There were still about a hundred years before the Ancestral Sword Master's lecture. He had a lot of time left and wanted to stay in the Callahan Residence to see Thea a couple more times.

Mount Heavenly Path was the most terrifying place in the world.

The most powerful person and the only Macrocosm Ancestral God of the universe resided in this place.

Moreover, many prominent powerhouses and Heaven's Adjudicators also lived on Mount Heavenly Path.

Somewhere within Mount Heavenly Path, a man sat on a rock in front of a river holding a fishing rod.

The man looked to be about 25 or 26 years old. He was quite dashing and wore a white robe.

Swoosh!

A man in a blue robe appeared and kneeled on one knee. "Young Master."

"What's the matter?" the man asked lightly.

"Young Master, I've heard from the Callahans that a young man had visited the Callahan Residence. His name is James Caden, and he publicly addressed Briana by her real name, Thea."

Hearing this, the man's face immediately darkened.

"He called her Thea? Interesting."

Afterward, a smile formed on his face. "I'm the only one that can call her Thea. He must have a death wish to call my woman by her name."

James did not know that Herschel on Mount Heavenly Path had already set his sights on him.

He had no idea of the fact that he addressed Thea by her real name had spread to Mount Heavenly Path. In fact, he did not really care either.

Even though Herschel was powerful, it was unlikely that he would kill James right?

At that moment, James leisurely wandered around the Spiritual Mountains within the Callahan Residence.

Ever since the Ancestral Needle Master treated Danielle, he was no longer locked up in the courtyard house and was promptly freed. Although he had not obtained permission from the Callahans to wander their estate, he was bored and began roaming around.

"You can't go any further."

At this moment, a voice came from behind.

Hearing the sound, James turned around and saw a beautiful woman approaching him.

The woman was Lana.

“Why not?” James asked. “The mountain ahead is full of Primordial Energy, and seems like an interesting place. I’d like to have a look at it.”

Lana said, “That’s our seventh sister, Sienna’s mountain. She’s currently meditating in seclusion there.”

“So what if she’s in seclusion? Why can’t I go there?”

Lana replied, “You don’t understand. Sienna is suffering from an Energy Deviation. If you step into that area, you’ll be destroyed instantly.”

“Is that so?”

James’ curiosity was piqued. He asked. “How did she end up in that condition? Please tell me.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3366-James was curious about Sienna’s condition.

The Callahan sisters were very powerful, especially the younger ones.

Sienna was only second to Thea, so what could cause a powerhouse like her to suffer an Energy Deviation?

“Sigh.”

Lana sighed helplessly after mentioning Sienna.

“Sienna is an incredibly talented cultivator. She was just as full of potential as Briana. However, she accidentally wandered into an unknown place and disappeared from our universe before becoming an Ancestral God.

“She returned an Epoch later but had already been corrupted. Her body was mangled, and her bones were already exposed by the time she came back home.

“Fortunately, her physical body has almost completely recovered after recuperating over the years. However, her soul is severely damaged and is unable to restore itself that easily. Even the most miraculous medicine in the universe might not be able to heal her.”

Hearing Lana’s description of Sienna’s encounter, a place immediately came to James’ mind— the Dark World.

“Could she have wandered into the Dark World?”

Lana shook her head slightly and said, “I don’t know. There aren’t any records of this unknown place in our ancient books. When Sienna regained consciousness, she told us the place was pitch black. In the depths of that place was a powerhouse that was as strong as a Macrocosm Ancestral God.”

Hearing this cemented James’ suspicions that the place was indeed the Dark World.

He knew very little of the Dark World and only knew that it was like a parallel dimension of the universe. Perhaps, it might be the Twelve Universes’ other dimension.

A creature with a physical body could not linger in the Dark World for long.

“Could I examine her?” James was interested in Sienna’s condition.

He wanted to see what Sienna had become like after staying in the Dark World for an extended period.

Lana said, “It’s best not to see her. Although Sienna is corrupted, she occasionally regains lucidity. She doesn’t want outsiders disturbing her.”

“What if I can possibly treat her condition?” asked James.

“Huh?” Lana was slightly taken aback and looked at James doubtfully.

“You’re saying you can treat her? Are you kidding me? Sienna’s cultivation progress was greatly affected by her condition, and she hadn’t yet stepped into the Ancestral God Rank. However, she is still a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor. Her condition is so bad that even Briana can’t do anything. What can you do?”

James replied. “I’ll have to see her first before I know whether I can treat her.”

Lana contemplated his proposal.

James had very mysterious origins, and it was possible he might have the means to treat Sienna.

After thinking about it, she said, "In that case, I'll bring you over to check on her."

"This way, please."

Lana led James toward the mountain ahead.

The mountain was surrounded by a formation, which was set up by a powerful member of the Callahans. After Sienna was corrupted, she often wandered aimlessly and unwittingly injured other disciples of the Callahans.

Therefore, they set up a formation to trap Sienna within the mountain.

Lana and James arrived at the mountain foot after passing through the formation.

There was a winding mountain road ahead of them.

Lana led James up the mountain along the mountain road. Soon, they arrived at the top.

A cage was constructed atop the mountain. It was enormous and was made out of special materials.

Moreover, there was another formation set up around the cage.

The cage was so strong that an Ancestral God would find great difficulty in escaping it if they were to be trapped in it.

A woman sat in a lotus position within the cage.

Only her lovely figure was visible.

As soon as James got close, he sensed powerful Dark Power coming from her. Despite being familiar with it, James was shocked at how terrifyingly potent the Dark Power was.

Seeing Sienna's condition, Lana's pretty face was full of sadness.

"Sigh. My poor sister has gone through a lot. She wouldn't have suffered an Energy Deviation if she hadn't wandered into that unknown world. With her potential, she would've already become a Caelum Ancestral God by now. I'm sure she'd be on par with Briana."

At that moment, the woman trapped inside the cage sensed their presence. She stood up abruptly, and a hostile aura erupted from her.

She reached out and clawed through the cage bars.

Her powerful force left marks on the bars.

James finally caught a glimpse of her face.

She had a clean and beautiful face. However, her eyes were crimson, and she radiated a malicious aura, giving her the impression of a ferocious beast.

“Calm down, Sienna. It’s me, Lanathia.”

Lana spoke gently to her.

However, the woman trapped inside the cage seemed to not hear her words.

Sienna kept charging at the cage and trying to break out of it.

After struggling for a long time, she was still unable to free herself.

Gradually, she calmed down and returned to a lotus position.

Lana looked at James and asked, “What do you think? Do you know how to treat her?”

James gently shook his head.

He could sense that Sienna possessed very potent Dark Power in her body. However, that was all he could discern from her for now.

James asked, “Lana, could you subdue her and knock her unconscious for a bit? I must enter the cage to examine her before I can be sure.”

Lana said, “I know her condition quite well. When she regained consciousness for a bit, she mentioned that she had to cultivate the power of that unknown world. Therefore, she developed a cultivation method and absorbed the power from that world, which is likely the Dark Power you mentioned.

“After cultivating it for a while, she ended up like this.

“The Dark Power destroyed her body and corrupted her soul.

“Briana said the only way to cure her was to eliminate the Dark Power in her body. However, the power is incredibly unstable, and even Briana failed to get rid of it.

“Sienna had cultivated Dark Power. If she were to disperse her Dark Power, she’d also lose her life.”

Hearing this, James was shocked.

“She’s genius to have created a cultivation method to absorb Dark Power.”

James knew that Emperor Jabari had tried to create one in the past, but never succeeded.

The only reason he could cultivate Dark Power was because of the cultivation method left by Yukia.

Lana looked at James and said, “That’s all we know of her condition. Do you have a way to treat her?”

After she asked James, Lana found the situation mildly amusing.

None of the members of the Callahans could do anything to help Sienna, so how could a cultivator at the Divine Rank like James do anything?

“Let’s go. We shouldn’t disturb her any longer and leave her alone.”

Lana sighed helplessly and turned to leave.

Suddenly, James said, “I might have a way to treat her.”

Lana halted in her tracks and looked at James in shock. Then, she asked. “What?! Did you say you can treat her?”

James nodded lightly and said, “To be honest, I’ve also been to the Dark World before and have cultivated a Dark Ousia. I’m able to absorb Dark Power. Perhaps I can absorb the Dark Power in her body, and allow her to recover.”

However, James was different. He had already cultivated a Dark Ousia. Despite that, he could not further improve it in the Illuminated World.

James felt that it was an opportunity for him.

Lana looked at James puzzledly and asked, "Can you really treat her?"

James replied, "I won't know until I try. Could you knock her out for a while? I'm afraid she'll tear me to pieces if I enter now."

After mulling it over briefly, Lana replied, "Alright."

She activated a Secret Art, and a powerful force emerged from her palm. The force entered the cage and caused Sienna to slowly lose consciousness.

Afterward, Lana opened the cage.

James walked inside and looked at Sienna lying on the ground. He squatted down, took her hand, and a sliver of his True Energy permeated her body to examine her condition.

He found that the power in Sienna's body was chaotic. Sienna's own energy continuously struggled against the Dark Power and was causing damage to her body.

James propped her up into a lotus position. Then, he sat opposite her, placed his palm on hers, and began to activate the cultivation method from the Dark Scripture to absorb the Dark Power from her body.

At that moment, the Dark Power within Sienna's body flowed toward her arm and into James' palm.

James refined the Dark Power he absorbed and used it to strengthen her Dark Ousia.

Seeing this, Lana lit up with excitement. She exclaimed, "Is it really working?!!"

James nodded. "Yeah. It's working."

She asked, "How long will it take for you to completely absorb the Dark Power from Sienna's body?"

James shook his head and said, "I don't really know. It wouldn't take long if I'm able to gain a deeper knowledge of the Dark Path more quickly and get my Dark Ousia to go through a Consolidation. However, if I reach the Consolidation Stage but can't overcome the Consolidation, the process will take longer. You should stay on guard outside. I'll set up a Time Formation to absorb the Dark Power. Also, remember to keep track of time. Let me know when it's almost time for the Ancestral Sword Master's lecture. I need to rush over to Mount Sword God."

"Alright," said Lana.

Afterward, James proceeded to set up a Time Formation around him.

After the Time Formation was set up, he began to concentrate on absorbing the Dark Power from Sienna's body. The Dark Power was pure, and he absorbed it without problems.

His Dark Ousia kept growing stronger.

While absorbing the Dark Power, he also attempted to master the Dark Path.

In the past, he was inspired while practicing Curse Magic and perfected the Dark Scripture's cultivation method.

Since he did not know much about the Dark Path, he turned to Curse Magic in hopes of finding a breakthrough from the Curse Inscriptions he possessed.

Soon, his Dark Ousia came close to the second Consolidation.

James was thrilled.

Mysterious inscriptions floated around James' body, all of which were Curse Inscriptions.

Lana stood outside the formation and watched James, who was focused on comprehending the Dark Path. Seeing the Curse Inscriptions around him, she was shocked.

"He's incredible. He even obtained Curse Inscriptions from the Ancestral Talisman Master."

Tap, tap, tap!

Suddenly, the sound of footsteps grew nearer.

Lana turned around and saw Thea. She greeted her sister. "Briana."

Thea walked over and saw James inside the Time Formation. She asked, "What's going on?"

Lana explained everything to Briana.

Thea nodded lightly and said, "If he can really save Sienna, we'll be indebted to him."

Lana replied, "He'll very likely succeed. He's already absorbing the Dark Power from Sienna's body."

"He's rather mysterious." Thea looked at James in the formation. Seeing the Curse Inscriptions around his body, she said, "The Ancestral Talisman Master's Curse Magic isn't normally passed on to outsiders. It's surprising that he even has Curse Inscriptions."

Thea looked at James.

From her angle, she could only see his back.

After looking at his back for a while, she was taken aback. A familiar figure appeared in her mind. It was the figure that kept popping up in her mind since she was a child.

The figure's back looked identical to James'.

After a while, she shook her head lightly and thought, 'That's impossible. The figure that's been lingering in my thoughts couldn't be James.'

'...But how can they look so similar?'

Thea stared at James' back for a while and closed her eyes.

The figure immediately appeared in her mind.

She opened her eyes and looked at James again.

'They really do look identical. Could it really be him?'

Thea was confused.

"What's wrong, Briana?"

A voice came from behind her.

Thea immediately straightened herself and replied. "I-It's nothing. The Ancestral Sword Master is going to be giving a lecture soon. He invited me to Mount Sword God, so I'll head out for a bit."

After speaking, Thea turned to leave.

Meanwhile, James was still focused on comprehending the Dark Path.

The Curse Inscriptions held intricate and profound knowledge.

James obtained a lot of knowledge from the Curse Inscriptions. He could sense the Principles of Space, Life, and Death.

In short, all kinds of Paths of the Illuminated World could be gleaned from the Curse Inscriptions.

“How is this possible?” James was puzzled.

Could the so-called Curse Magic be the collection of the Dark World’s Laws?

James began trying to overcome the second Consolidation.

He wanted to confirm whether his understanding was correct.

As he went through Consolidation, he rapidly absorbed the Dark Power from Sienna’s body. The Dark Power entered his body and fed the Dark Ousia.

Soon, James successfully prevailed through Consolidation.

“It worked.”

James took a deep breath and said, “It’s just as I expected. Curse Magic is related to the Dark World and might even be the collection of the Dark World’s Laws.”

“How did the Ancestral Talisman Master learn of the Dark World’s cultivation method?

“He said the Macrocosm Ancestral God from the Eleventh Universe taught him Curse Magic. Could the Eleventh Universe’s Macrocosm Ancestral God be from the Dark World?”

James had many questions.

However, there was no one to answer them for now.

James did not continue to dwell on it and focused on absorbing the Dark Power as well as deepening his comprehension of the Dark Path.

His Dark Ousia continued to grow stronger.

The Dark Power in Sienna’s body was extremely concentrated. James had only absorbed a little bit so far. If he could absorb all of it, his Dark Ousia could be raised to the Quasi Emperor Rank.

As for what stage he could reach in the Quasi Emperor Rank, he could not be sure for now.

Ten years passed in the blink of an eye. In that time, James had cultivated in the Time Formation for over 3000 years.

At that moment, the power of his Dark Ousia was already close to the third Consolidation.

As James comprehended the Curse Inscriptions, his Curse Ousia's power improved rapidly and passed the second Consolidation. His Curse Ousia was also close to the third Consolidation.

Suddenly, Sienna slowly opened her eyes.

The crimson in her eyes faded away, and her eyes returned to normal.

However, she was confused by the sight before her.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3370

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3370-Sienna was confused.

She looked in front of her and saw a rather handsome face.

The man's palms were raised and pressed against hers. He rapidly absorbed the Dark Power in her body. She regained consciousness because the Dark Power in her body was slowly diminishing.

"Who is he? Why is he absorbing the Dark Power in my body?"

Sienna was puzzled.

James had not realized that Sienna had awakened and was still focused on cultivating.

His comprehension of the Curse Inscriptions grew more profound, and he was almost reaching the Curse Ousia's third Consolidation.

Sienna could sense that the man before her was about to go through a Consolidation and knew she should not disturb him. Calling out to him could potentially cause him to fail.

She began to sense her surroundings and could feel the mysterious inscriptions floating around James' body.

Sienna knew about the Ancestral Talisman Master but had never seen Curse Inscriptions before. As soon as she saw the Curse Inscriptions, her heart fluttered.

The problem that had been plaguing her for so long was solved in such a short time.

She had been stuck in the Dark World for more than an Epoch. While in the Dark World, she created a cultivation method that could absorb Dark Power after doing her own research.

However, the cultivation method was incomplete. Therefore, she suffered an Energy Deviation and entered a demonic state.

Seeing the Curse Inscriptions around James, she came to a sudden epiphany.

Sienna murmured, "With these inscriptions, I can overcome my current struggles and make a completely new Path for myself."

While James was cultivating, Sienna also began comprehending the Curse Inscriptions surrounding James.

Time passed slowly.

Soon, James' Dark Ousia had successfully gone through the third Consolidation. His Dark Power had also grown tremendously.

Meanwhile, Sienna gathered the Dark Power in her body and was almost about to form a Dark Ousia.

James immediately noticed what was happening.

"Huh?"

He stopped to look at Sienna and saw her cultivating.

Sienna comprehended the Dark Path quite quickly. She cultivated her Dark Ousia almost instantly. Soon, it went through the first, second, and third Consolidation. With that, she officially stepped into the Quasi Emperor Rank.

Her Dark Ousia's rank rose rapidly, and quickly became a Path Seal.

James was shocked.

"How is this possible?"

After a while, Sienna slowly open her eyes.

Their eyes immediately met.

Sienna's eyes were crystal clear and bursting with life.

She stood up, and her dress fluttered.

James stood up as well and looked at her doubtfully.

“Y-You...?” He was slightly puzzled.

“Thanks.” Sienna smiled at him, and her pleasant voice responded.

“I saw the inscriptions around your body and was inspired to perfect the cultivation method I created. I successfully cultivated a Dark Ousia using that and can control the Dark Power in my body now.”

“I see.” James finally understood what had just happened.
