The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3391-The energy was turbulent and violent and was not suitable to be absorbed by all living beings. However, this was nothing to James. As long as it was energy, he could absorb and refine it.

Appearing at the center of this planet, he casually set up a Formation and frantically cultivated by absorbing the planet's power to increase the power of his Ousia. At the same time, he comprehended the Path. Unknowingly, the Sword Path Ousia showed signs of a breakthrough.

Reaching the pinnacle of power, the Sword Path Ousia was showing signs of division. As the new Ousia divided, the Heavenly Tribulation appeared.

"Nice timing."

James was overjoyed. He had been waiting for the Heavenly Tribulation for it possessed unlimited energy.

Lifting his head, he glanced at the Tribulation Clouds in the sky. Then, his mind stirred, and the Elemental Ousia soared to the sky and entered the clouds. James wanted to use the Elemental Ousia to absorb the Tribulation Clouds' power by entrenching them within. However, the Tribulation Clouds were terrifying, and the Elemental Ousia showed signs of disintegration the moment they appeared in the clouds.

"What should I do?"

James furrowed his eyebrows.

There were no Primordial Pulses on these destroyed planets. As such, there was no constant stream of heaven and earth's power. Once fully depleted, he would have to change places.

This would be troublesome. James wanted to seize this opportunity and increase the Ousias that were already at the Second Consolidation to their pinnacle in preparation for his Third Consolidation.

'Do I have no choice but to use the Five Elements of Genesis?'

James thought to himself.

The Five Elements of Genesis were treasures that had existed since the creation of heaven and earth and would certainly withstand the Tribulation Clouds' power. However, he was worried that he would generate Karma and aggravate the injuries in his body.

Rumble!

Lightning tribulations descended from the sky and struck James. Some lightning exploded in his body. They entered his bloodstream and traversed through his blood vessels. James planned to use this opportunity and use the Lightning Tribulation's power to nourish his physical body. However, his physical strength was already at the Fifth Heaven of the Grand Emperor Rank, so it would be difficult to further increase his strength.

"Karma," James murmured. "Karma Power is the most terrifying power in this world. Even a Caelum Ancestral God like Thea feared Karma Power. If I can comprehend Karma Power and cultivate the Ousia of Karma Power, I will be invincible."

James was interested in Karma. If the others learned of this, they would be shocked and would reprimand James for crossing a red line.

"Let's see..."

James took a deep breath. Then, he activated the Five Elements of Genesis, which materialized before him.

The Five Elements of Genesis were able to replace the Elemental Ousia. Once James' Elemental Ousia reached the Quasi Emperor Rank's Ninth Tribulation, the Ousia would be merged with the Five Elements of Genesis when the Path Seals merged. By then, his Elemental Path Seal would be invincible.

Immediately, James could sense the Five Elements of Genesis trembling. Seemingly being influenced by a mysterious power, the Five Elements were showing signs of disappearing. At the same time, his body shivered. Then, an unknown power descended and enveloped him. Under the destruction of this power, injuries began appearing on his physical body. Veins bulged on his face, and sweat beads trickled down his forehead as he grimaced in pain.

"Is this Karma Power? What a mysterious power! How do I absorb and refine it?"

James was enduring incredible pressure and pain. However, his brain was at full capacity.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3392-James was intrigued by Karma Power. He believed that he could cultivate any sort of power. The Five Great Paths were considered power as well. However, not many truly cultivated them, and since there were no detailed cultivation methods in existence, he could only rely on himself to comprehend them. Since he could do so with the Five Great Paths, why not Karma?

James sat in a lotus position on the ground, and the Five Elements of Genesis appeared above his head. The Five Elements of Genesis existed in this age, yet he had brought with him ones that came from the future. Hence, he had transgressed the laws of the universe and was now being devoured by Karma Power.

Karma Power enveloped his entire body. Unable to withstand the Karma Power, cracks began appearing on his body, and he was soon covered in blood. With the provoking of the Karma Power, the injuries in his body from the Heavenly Path were aggravated.

At that moment, James felt excruciating pain all over his body. Even his soul trembled and shivered, and he could not help but scream in pain. However, he gritted his teeth and pressed through. He was sensing the Karma Power and trying to absorb and refine it. However, the cultivation methods he had mastered could not pull off such a feat. He shut his eyes and begin to sense the Karma Power.

At that moment, at a place with picturesque scenery somewhere in the universe...

Swoosh!

An elderly, sage-like man appeared. There were four other elderly men there. They summoned their Natal Treasure—the Five Elements of Genesis—at the same time.

They were the Five Ancestral Masters of Heaven and Earth, some of the most ancient figures of this universe. They had lived for countless years, and they had reached the Caelum Ancestral God Rank long ago. As people with great providence, they had the Five Elements of Genesis that existed since the creation of heaven and earth.

“What’s going on?”

“Something seems to be guiding the Five Elements of Genesis. They’re experiencing signs of repulsion, dissolving, and disappearing. Yet, they won’t completely vanish.”

Wearing grim expressions, they looked at the treasures before them.

“Could it be that a similar thing has appeared in this world? Is that why there’s a repulsion?”

“Could be.”

They conversed.

As Caelum Ancestral masters, they were knowledgeable in many things. With a little extrapolation, they could easily get to the bottom of things. Hence, they immediately began to extrapolate, seeking to discover the identity of the one who possessed the Five Elements of Genesis and the whereabouts of the other one. However, they could not discover anything no matter how hard they tried. It seemed there was some powerful force preventing them from extrapolating.

“Karma... What terrifying Karma...” Wearing a grim expression, an elderly man said, “I’ve never seen such terrifying Karma Power. What caused such terrifying Karma Power to appear?”

Without a cause, there would be no Karma.

“I heard there recently came an incredible prodigy. He once spectated the blossoming of a Sacred Blossom in the Katun Realm, and he’s comprehended the Five Great Paths.

Besides, rumors say that he performed the Elemental Ousia and some terrifying Supernatural Powers when fighting against his enemies.

“I also heard that Mount Heavenly Path has given the order to pursue this young man. The signature cultivation method he performed resembles what we’ve just comprehended.”

Then, an elderly man casually waved, and an image of James’ battle against the thirty Fifth Heaven Grand Emperors appeared.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3393-As Caelum Ancestral Gods, they had many tricks up their sleeves. Though no one was present when James fought against the group of Fifth Heaven Grand Emperors, many extremely powerful figures returned to the scene and used Time Reversal to replay the fight. Once the image of the fight was generated, the Five Ancestral Masters could easily replay the image with their strength.

“How terrifying... He possesses the Elemental Ousia...”

“The cultivation method we created isn’t completed yet. The one he used should be different from ours.”

“But what if he came from the future? What if he obtained the Five Elements of Genesis and the cultivation method we have yet to create at this moment in the future?”

“Then everything will make sense. He should possess the Five Elements of Genesis. Our Five Elements of Genesis only reacted strangely after he summoned the ones he brought from the future.”

They hypothesized.

At the same time, James was being tortured by Karma Power. At the same time, while he was enveloped by Karma Power, the Heavenly Path's injuries inside his body were aggravated. The agonizing pain caused him to grimace, and the expression on his face became distorted.

“Why can't I?!”

“Why can't I absorb Karma Power?! This shouldn't be! I should be able to absorb and refine all powers!”

James roared frantically.

He was unable to endure the pain any longer. He could only dissipate the Five Elements of Genesis. Then, immediately, the Karma Power dispersed. However, as the previous Karma Power was too terrifying, it had entered his body and entrenched itself within his limbs. With his current strength, he could not expel it from his body.

He was currently entangled with Karma Power. He did not know that his appearance in this world would cause him to be so deeply intertwined with the events that occurred. His appearance was destined to change the fate of this age. However, as James' rank was too low, he was unable to comprehend Karma.

James was now contaminated by Karma Power, and he could not fully expel it. Even though he had dispersed the Five Elements of Genesis, he was already contaminated by Karma.

Karma Power frantically destroyed his body. In addition to the Heavenly Path's injuries, the agonizing pain caused him immense suffering.

His consciousness blurred. Unable to endure it any longer, he passed out. Even so, the Elemental Ousia that was still present continued to absorb the power of heaven and earth with great speed. The Tribulation Clouds in the sky were still there, and the Lightning Tribulation continued to strike him.

The Sword Path Ousia inside his body continued to divide. As he was unconscious, his rank steadily grew unbeknownst to him. Soon, his Sword Path had reached the Quasi Emperor Rank's Third Tribulation.

After making a breakthrough, the Tribulation Clouds disappeared.

James had yet to regain consciousness. However, the Elemental Inversion Formation was still there, steadily absorbing the power of heaven and earth and increasing his strength.

Crack!

A crack appeared in the void a distance away. Then, many living beings poured out of the crack. They were in pursuit of James.

Previously, James disappeared without a trace after annihilating thirty Fifth Heaven Grand Emperors. However, Herschel had planted a sigil inside his body.

James did not belong to this age, and as such, his whereabouts could not be extrapolated as it would be prevented by Karma Power. However, through the sigil Herschel had planted, his approximate location could be determined. Though much time was needed, it could still be accomplished.

“I sense an aura coming from that direction.”

The moment they appeared, they immediately headed in James’ direction upon sensing his aura.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3394-There were many living beings in pursuit of James. The first batch of pursuers consisted of hundreds of individuals.

Some of the strongest was at the Seventh Heaven of the Grand Emperor Rank, whereas the weakest were at the Grand Emperor Rank.

Upon appearing in this place, they immediately headed in James’ direction. They arrived at the region where James was passed out and sensed his presence inside the Formation. They also learned that he had lost consciousness.

“Did he experience Energy Deviation when an accident happened during his cultivation?”

“This is the perfect opportunity to kill him!”

Overjoyed, they hurriedly rushed toward James, wishing to annihilate him.

Sensing the imminent danger, James suddenly awakened. Immediately, he could feel excruciating pain throughout his body. Putting the sensation aside, he dispersed the Time Formation and allowed the Elemental Ousia to return.

His body flashed, and he appeared in mid-air, gazing at his pursuers.

The pursuers stopped ten thousand meters away.

At that moment, James was simply too terrifying. He was covered in blood, his expression was ferocious, and he was enveloped in a terrifying power. As Grand Emperors, they knew about Karma Power. Under normal circumstances, only those who committed unforgivable acts would incur the wrath of Karma Power; for instance, annihilating the bloodline of a powerful figure. Otherwise, most extremely powerful figures should be able to resolve this Karma.

Seeing that James' hair was disheveled and he was enveloped in Karma, they all took a deep breath.

"What has he done?"

"What terrifying Karma Power..."

"He's contaminated by Karma. He won't live for long. So, there's no need for us to do anything. We can simply wait here until he's annihilated by Karma."

Many spoke.

Seeing that James was contaminated by Karma, they knew that he would not live for long.

James, on the other hand, stared at his pursuers. He did not expect them to arrive so soon.

"James, what unforgivable sins have you committed? How did you incur the wrath of such a terrifying Karma?" One of the powerful figures questioned.

Wearing a pained expression on his face, James remained silent as he faced his pursuers.

He wanted to find a quiet place and rejuvenate in peace. However, this place had been sealed off. Even though he had cultivated the Space Path, he could not break open space and escape. That was because his comprehension of the Space Path was insignificant. As such, he could not break through the seal of a Seventh Heaven Grand Emperor with his Space Power.

"Don't bother trying to escape, James. You're dead meat." Sensing that James was trying to escape by tearing the void open, someone said.

"In that case, I won't be escaping."

James' face darkened.

As his mind stirred, the 108 Infinity Steles appeared around him. Each of them was black, and mysterious inscriptions were engraved on them. They also radiated a bizarre power.

"Die!"

James roared.

He catalyzed the Infinity Steles with all his might, and the surrounding Infinity Steles crashed toward his enemies.

The pursuers had no idea what they were. Sensing a terrifying power, they did not dare let their guard down and hurriedly dodged. Meanwhile, a few powerful figures who were overconfident planned to resist forcefully. However, upon being crushed by the Infinity Steles, they plummeted from the sky and crashed to the ground.

The moment a Grand Emperor made his move, the planet immediately disintegrated.

The might of the Infinity Steles was unmatched. However, they were not enough to completely wipe out the enemies.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3395-As his mind stirred, the Five Elements of Genesis appeared. Since he was already contaminated by Karma, he did not mind more.

The Five Elements of Genesis gathered to form an Elemental Wheel, one that was mightier than an Elemental Wheel formed by the Elemental Ousia.

As the Elemental Wheel swept toward James' enemies, none could resist. Some weaker ones were immediately killed by the wheel's power. The stronger ones tried to fight against the Elemental Wheel. However, against the overwhelming power of the Elemental Wheel, all of their efforts were for naught. The Elemental Wheel swept through them and obliterated a huge number of them.

In the distance, a crack appeared in the void once more, and more pursuers poured out of the crack. This time, they numbered in the thousands. Upon seeing the might of the Elemental Wheel and Infinity Steles, they were horrified.

James was unable to prolong the fight any longer. He knew he had to end this quickly. Otherwise, he would die.

The Elemental Wheel crashed against the sealed space and tore the void open. Then, storing the Elemental Wheel and Infinity Steles away, he vanished without a trace. Using the Space Path, he immediately traveled far away from this region. Upon arriving at an unknown location, he found a concealed spot, sat in a lotus position, and summoned his full strength to suppress the Heavenly Path's injuries and Karma Power.

However, the Karma Power was too overwhelming, and he could not suppress it with his current strength. As the Karma Power entered his blood and limbs, his injuries from the Heavenly Path were aggravated. If he could not endure it, he would die. James did not want to die just yet. He still had many things he needed to do. Hence, he endured it with all his willpower.

At the same time while James was rejuvenating, news traveled fast in the outside world.

At the Callahans' in the Human Realm...

The disciples of the Callahans were reporting the latest information they had on James.

"Our latest report reveals that James annihilated at least fifty powerful figures on an unknown planet. Among them were Seventh Heaven Grand Emperors."

Hearing this, Thea frowned and said, "No way. James' physical strength is only at the Grand Emperor Rank's Fifth Heaven. How was he able to annihilate a Seventh Heaven Grand Emperor with his physical strength?"

The disciple answered, "Based on the witnesses there, James used his treasures-the Infinity Steles and the Five Elements of Genesis of the Five Ancestral Masters of Heaven and Earth. That was how he managed to annihilate them."

"The Infinity Steles? The Five Elements of Genesis?!"

Stunned, Thea stood up abruptly and asked, "Are you referring to the Infinity Steles of the Infinity Cities?"

"Should be. However, we don't have the exact details yet."

Thea took a deep breath.

“Who exactly is James Caden? Why does he possess the Infinity Steles and the treasure of the Five Ancestral Masters?”

She was confounded.

The Callahans were not the only ones paying close attention to James’ news, but so were Mount Sword God, the Ancestral Talisman Master, and Mount Heavenly Path.

In a beautiful place on Mount Heavenly Path, a woman was sitting on a chair, gazing into the distance with a displeased look on her face.

She was Winnie.

Upon arriving at this age, she coincidentally joined Mount Heavenly Path and became an Inner Disciple of the ruler of the universe.

“Is that you, Dad? Have you come to this age as well?”

Her expression was grim.

After all, every piece of news regarding James was not exactly good news.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3396-Winnie arrived at this age tens of thousands of years ago. With her awakened Scythe of Judgment, she joined Mount Heavenly Path and became an Inner Disciple of the ruler of the universe. She was treated immensely well here, and Mount Heavenly Path ensured that she had a steady stream of cultivation resources. Hence, her rank increased rapidly. She had crossed from her initial Sage Rank into the Grand Emperor Rank’s Ninth Heaven.

However, as she did not leave Mount Heavenly Path at all, she had no idea what was going on outside. She also had no idea when James arrived at this age. She only coincidentally learned of this when conversing with her fellow disciples of Mount Heavenly Path. In the beginning, she was unsure whether James was her father. However, upon hearing of the Infinity Steles and the Five Elements of Genesis, she was now completely sure.

“What has Dad done? Why is Herschel pursuing him?”

Winnie was confused.

After some contemplation, she stood up and left her accommodation.

She appeared on the peak of a mountain on Mount Heavenly Path. This mountain was where Herschel resided and where he would enter closed-door meditations. There was a majestic palace on the peak.

At that moment, a young and somewhat handsome-looking man was sitting on the throne. Wearing a white robe, he was deep in contemplation.

Clack! Clack! Clack!

The sound of footsteps came.

Herschel turned around and saw Winnie. Putting on a warm smile, he said, "Hello there, Winnie. Why are you here when you're supposed to be cultivating?"

Herschel was rather fond of Winnie as she possessed immense potential, not to mention her awakened Scythe of Judgment. In the future, she could become the Lord of Judgment and the Heaven's Adjudicator who ruled over the universe. She would be helping the ruler of the universe better manage the universe.

Winnie walked toward him and sat on a chair, asking, "Young Master, I heard you've been busy recently."

Saying that, she glanced at Herschel.

"Why are you going all-out against a mere human?"

As Winnie was confused, she came here in search of answers. However, until she could shake off the feeling of uncertainty, she would not reveal her identity as the daughter of James. Besides, she had kept the fact that she came from the future a secret.

Wearing a grim expression, Herschel looked at her and said, "Winnie, there are some things you won't ever understand. But since you've awakened the unique Scythe of Judgment and will be the Lord of Judgment in the future, I'll tell you everything."

Winnie listened intently.

Herschel took a deep breath and said, "Previously, my father sensed the appearance of the embryonic form of Macrocosm Power. Someone has cultivated the Five Great Paths. Once his cultivation of the Five Great Paths reaches the pinnacle, he will become a Macrocosm Ancestral God. This will affect the status of my father and Mount Heavenly Path."

Winnie was taken aback. She never expected her father to have cultivated the embryonic form of Macrocosm Power and for him to have the potential of becoming a Macrocosm Ancestral God.

“Is this why you gave the order to pursue James?”

“Of course.” Herschel sighed and said, “Originally, I planned to annihilate James straight away. However, Thea Callahan intervened, saying that she intends to shield James from harm. Now, even the Ancestral Sword Master has stepped forward. Unwilling to offend him, I have no choice but to resort to such underhanded tactics.”

There was a Callahan family in the Primeval Age with eight daughters. Winnie knew a little about Thea. That was because she was well-renowned. However, she had never seen the Thea of this age and had no idea what she looked like. As such, she had never connected the Thea of this age to her mother.

Now that Herschel stated that Thea wished to protect James, Winnie froze. She fell into deep thought. Could it be that the Thea of this age had something to do with her mother?

Putting those thoughts aside, she asked, “Do we really have to kill him? Can’t we pull him over to our side? We can nurture him so that Mount Heavenly Path has another Macrocosm Ancestral God.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3397-Herschel shook his head and said, “No way. There can only be one Macrocosm Ancestral God in the universe.”

Hearing this, Winnie fell silent.

She stood up and turned to leave.

Upon returning to her room, her expression turned grim. She had learned of Mount Heavenly Path’s decision. They were determined to kill James. She knew that Mount Heavenly Path was full of powerful figures, not to mention they had a Macrocosm Ancestral God. How was James supposed to live?

She wanted to save him. However, she was only a disciple of Mount Heavenly Path. Even though she was an Inner Disciple, she had no say in this matter. How was she supposed to stop Herschel and the Macrocosm Ancestral God from killing James?

“What should I do, Dad?”

Winnie sighed.

Just as she was helpless, a voice came, “A penny for your thoughts, Winnie?”

Winnie collected herself and turned around to see a beautiful woman walking toward her. The woman was wearing a pink dress. Her figure was flawless and curvaceous, her appearance was gorgeous, and she exuded a charismatic aura.

She was Melinda Theophanes.

Winnie hurriedly stood up and looked at her, saying, "Melinda."

Melinda took a seat beside her and asked, "What's wrong?"

"Nothing." Winnie shook her head.

"Is that so?" Melinda did not trust her word. However, she did not inquire further but shifted the subject instead, asking, "Surely you must have heard of the rumors out there?"

"What rumors?" Winnie asked.

Melinda said, "Rumors of my brother going after James Caden."

Winnie nodded slightly and said, "Mhm, I have heard."

"What's your relationship with James?" Melinda asked.

In the beginning, she did not link Winnie and James together. However, upon learning that Herschel had given the order to pursue James, she remembered that James had asked about Winnie back in the Katun Realm when they spectated the Sacred Blossom. She was puzzled. Winnie was an Inner Disciple of her father and a human who awakened the Scythe of Judgment. Her existence should be top-secret, and few knew of her even within Mount Heavenly Path. Therefore, how did an outsider like James know about her? Besides, not only did James know about her, he even knew who she was and her current whereabouts. Everything was just bizarre. The only explanation would be that James was related to Winnie and that everything he knew came from Winnie's mouth.

Winnie froze momentarily before saying smilingly, "How can that be? Just because we're both Cadens doesn't mean we're related."

Melinda said, "I encountered James by chance when I headed to the Katun Realm to spectate the blossoming of the Sacred Blossom. Though I'd never met him prior to the event, he knew about me. I've never left Mount Heavenly Path. So, how did an outsider like him know about me?

Besides..."

She looked at Winnie and uttered word by word, "He even asked me if you were doing fine here on Mount Heavenly Path. What do you have to say about this?"

"I don't know."

Winnie shook her head.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3398-How could Winnie possibly confess her relationship with James at such a critical moment? Mount Heavenly Path was determined to annihilate James, her father. If they knew that they were father and daughter, they would not let her off the hook easily.

"Is that so?" Full of disbelief, Melinda said, "Don't lie to me, Winnie. Feel free to speak your mind. I will keep your secret. Do you not trust me?"

Winnie shook her head slightly and remained silent.

Seeing this, Melinda did not inquire further. She conversed with Winnie about other matters-James and the events that occurred when she met him in the Katun Realm.

"By the way..." Upon being reminded of something, she asked, "What's the relationship between James and the Callahans, in your opinion? Why would Thea Callahan intervene to protect him? Even the seventh daughter of the Callahans would offend Mount Heavenly Path to protect him."

Winnie shook her head slightly and signaled her ignorance.

She was not in the mood. Pensive, she contemplated how best to resolve James' crisis.

While she was deep in contemplation, James found an unknown place and focused wholeheartedly on suppressing Karma and the Heavenly Path's injuries inside his body. If not for Karma Power, he would be able to suppress the Heavenly Path's injuries easily to alleviate the pain.

However, now that he was contaminated by Karma Power, he could not expel the power no matter how hard he tried. Besides, the more he tried to expel the power, the greater the Karma Power enveloped him. The Heavenly Path's injuries in combination with Karma caused James' condition to deteriorate.

At that moment, he was covered in injuries all over his body. This meant that his soul was also greatly damaged. His life was hanging by a thread, and if he failed to endure this, he would lose his life.

James' consciousness blurred. He knew he would die if he could not endure this. Now, all powers were worthless. The only thing he needed to do was to resist the damage brought about by the Heavenly Path's injuries and Karma Power with all his willpower. He had no choice.

Every second was hell to him.

"I cannot die... I must live..."

"Thea doesn't know who I am yet. She doesn't know I'm her husband."

"Winnie is still trapped here. I have to go save her."

James kept repeating those words of encouragement, and the desire to live grew increasingly stronger in his heart. A person's willpower knew no bounds. When such a strong desire emerged in his mind, he could overcome all obstacles.

After a long time, James was feeling slightly better. The condition of his body did not improve. However, he was feeling better as he could endure the pain. The Heavenly Path's injuries and the Karma enveloping him did not manage to annihilate him. Now that he had overcome the damage, the injuries could not worsen.

Upon overcoming the ordeal, he knew that he would not die.

However, he was not in a good condition yet. Sitting in a lotus position on the ground, he inspected his insides. A bizarre power was exuded from the Heavenly Path's injuries on his bones, frantically destroying his physical body. Also, there was a mysterious power in his flesh. That power was Karma.

As James inspected the insides of his body, he focused primarily on Karma Power. Calming himself down, he observed intently.
