The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3401-As he walked, he accomplished a Consolidation. Then another one. The Second Consolidation of the Five Great Paths was not obstructed at all. At that moment, his Five Great Path's power increased exponentially.

"How magical..."

James sat on the peak of a mountain and sensed the increase of the Five Great Paths. Sensing the mysterious power that emanated from the Five Great Paths, he could not help but exclaim. Now, he finally understood why some living beings were able to grow stronger this quickly. These people were called prodigies.

The comprehension ability of prodigies was terrifying and many times that of ordinary people. They could easily comprehend anything and save precious time cultivating.

James never believed himself to be a prodigy. However, upon the Second Consolidation of the Five Great Paths, he was starting to believe he was one. After all, not anyone can comprehend the Five Great Paths and accomplish Consolidation at the same time. James also knew that he was fortunate. Otherwise, he would not have been able to connect the Five Great Paths, comprehend them, and accomplish Consolidation at the same time.

Now, his Sword Path Ousia was at the Quasi Emperor Rank's Third Tribulation. Meanwhile, the other Paths were at the Second Consolidation. Apart from the Five Great Paths, the power of his other Ousias was at the peak of the Second Consolidation. Now, he only needed to comprehend the Path more to accomplish the Third Consolidation.

Ever since he was pursued by Herschel, James had a clear sense of his lack of strength. So, all he ever did now was cultivate and battle. Time passed slowly in the outside world, but many years had passed for him in the Time Formation.

He knew he needed more time to increase his rank further. Meanwhile, he would continue to face the relentless onslaught of his enemies. So, he had no choice but to hurry. Now, only his physical strength could be increased.

His physical strength had reached the Grand Emperor Rank's Fifth Heaven after consuming the Ancestral God Rank Elixir in the Apocalypse Age and the battle against Heaven's Adjudicators. Afterward, his physical strength remained stagnant for some time. Now that he was injured by the Heavenly Path and contaminated by Karma, it was the perfect opportunity to refine his physical body. He firmly believed that he would be able to resist Karma Power once his physical strength increased. He was not afraid of the Heavenly Path's injuries at all. As long as he could resist Karma Power, he would be able to suppress the Heavenly Path's injuries.

James sat in a lotus position on the ground and set up a Time Formation. Then, he began catalyzing the secret arts to refine his physical body. At the same time, he catalyzed Elemental Ousia, which materialized and appeared in mid-air, forming the Elemental Inversion Formation. The Elemental Inversion Formation was capable of absorbing the power of heaven and earth to increase his Sword Path's power and the Five Great Paths Ousia.

Increasing one's physical strength was nearly impossible. Only through destruction could one truly grow, so James' current condition was ideal. Through the destruction brought about by Karma Power, his physical strength was destroyed and rejuvenated over and over again. During the recovery process, his physical strength grew stronger.

James refined his physical body.

Meanwhile, on Mount Heavenly Path...

Herschel was at a loss. He planted a sigil in James' body beforehand, yet due to James' uniqueness, he could not track his current whereabouts. Each attempt to trace James' movements would cause him to exert much energy.

"How annoying... As expected of a being who cultivated the Five Great Paths... Though his rank is insignificant, he's able to annihilate so many powerful figures. Let us see what you've got..." Herschel murmured.

He wanted to annihilate James no matter the cost. This time, he would be using a true genius of Mount Heavenly Path.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3402-Tracking James' current whereabouts would be troublesome. Regardless, as a Terra Ancestral God, Herschel should be able to track James, considering that he had planted a sigil inside James' body beforehand.

At that moment, a man walked in. He was about thirty years old, wearing a black robe and carrying a blade on his back. His eyebrows were bushy, his face was round, and he exuded a crude and violent aura.

"Young Master."

The man knelt on one knee and greeted him respectfully.

"Rise."

The man stood up and awaited Herschel's instructions.

"Honorius Gunner, you're at the Grand Emperor Rank's Fifth Heaven. What's your ranking?" Herschel asked.

Honorius answered truthfully, "As a Fifth Heaven Grand Emperor, I'm number three within my rank. However, this is an evaluation of the public. There are countless geniuses in this universe. Many of them would remain stagnant at a certain rank and become invincible within it. In fact, I know a few who are not weaker than me."

Honorius was a disciple of Mount Heavenly Path. As a prodigy, his rank was at the Grand Emperor Rank's Fifth Heaven. However, he had remained stagnant for 3,000 Epochs. Within his rank, however, he was near unrivaled. It was why he was ranked third within his rank.

"Are you confident that you can defeat James Caden, an individual whose physical strength is at the Fifth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank?" Herschel asked.

Honorius immediately replied, "I will certainly annihilate him and return with his decapitated head."

Herschel cautioned, "James is no pushover. You must have heard of the rumors. He has annihilated even Seventh Heaven Grand Emperors. Not only that, he possesses countless treasures."

Honorius gave his assurance, "No matter the number of treasures he possesses, his rank is low and his physical strength is mediocre. I can certainly defeat him."

"Very good." Herschel nodded and said, "I will divine James' location as soon as possible. Once I learn where he is, head over there and annihilate him."

"Understood."

James had no idea that a genius of Mount Heavenly Path was out of him. Though Honorius was not the most distinguished prodigy of Mount Heavenly Path, he was still almost invincible in the Fifth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank. In his rank, no one was able to defeat him.

Herschel had promised the Ancestral Sword Master that he would only send people at most two ranks higher than James after him. However, he believed that Honorius was sufficient to kill James. If even Honorius failed in his task, he would have to send even more powerful figures after James.

At that moment, James concentrated wholeheartedly on refining his physical body. Though terrifying, Karma Power was the perfect power to refine one's physical body. As such, James' physical strength slowly and gradually grew.

In the blink of an eye, 50 years passed. Meanwhile, 10,000 years had passed in the Time Formation. With time, his physical strength was now at the Sixth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank.

A fissure appeared in the void a distance away. Then, a huge number of people poured out of the fissure. They were pursuing James.

Mount Heavenly Path had spread the information of James' whereabouts. Upon learning of the exact coordinates, powerful figures from all over the universe rushed here. Many of them were heirs of powerful sects who possessed indescribable treasures.

The moment they appeared, some used the incredible treasures of their sect and forcibly sealed off this world. That way, even if James mastered the Space Path, he would not be able to make his escape.

"Over there!"

Immediately, they sensed James' presence.

Meanwhile, sensing the presence of the hostile forces, James immediately stopped cultivating and dispersed the Time Formation.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3403-Though his physical strength had increased, there was still Karma inside his body. Unable to suppress the Karma, the Karma continued to destroy his body. Combined with the Heavenly Path's injuries, his condition worsened.

"So many of them..."

Seeing the number of pursuers, his expression turned grim.

He wanted to escape. However, he sensed that the space of this planet had been sealed. With his current strength, he was able to break through the seal.

"Looks like there'll be a fierce battle today."

James took a deep breath.

Since his enemies had shown themselves, he had no choice but to fight. Even if he died, he would have to drag a few of his enemies down with him.

Though he was injured and not in peak form, he would not go easy against his foes. Clenching his fists, veins bulged on his face.

In the distance, a group of powerful figures walked toward him in mid-air. There were tens of thousands of them. Meanwhile, cracks continued to appear in the void as more and more living beings arrived on this planet.

"You have nowhere to run, James! Surrender now while you still have the choice to do so!" someone yelled.

"Hahaha!" James burst into a peal of laughter.

Surrendering was not an option. He would rather fight to his death.

"Come fight me then! Let me see if you have what it takes to defeat me!" he roared.

As his voice boomed, a purple sword appeared in his hand.

"The Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword?"

Seeing this, their faces paled.

The Ancestral Sword Master was a well-renowned figure, and his sword had an intimidating effect on everyone. Even though they knew that James would die here, none were willing to risk their lives by initiating an attack.

Swoosh!

A figure appeared in the sky far away. Sienna Callahan appeared, wearing a white dress. After Mount Heavenly Path spread the news of James' location, she hurriedly made her way here as she was concerned for James' safety.

Seeing that the Heavenly Path's injuries on James remained, not to mention the Karma that enveloped him, Sienna could not help but feel sorry for James.

As Sienna appeared, Melinda arrived here as well alongside Winnie.

Appearing in the void, Melinda glanced at Winnie and said, "Are you really not related to James Caden? He's being surrounded now. With so many enemies here, he won't be able to overcome this ordeal."

Watching the scene from afar, Winnie remained silent. In truth, however, she was deeply anxious.

Holding the Divine Sword in his hand, James gazed at his enemies. At the same time, he noticed Sienna and Winnie who appeared.

“Winnie.”

James looked in her direction as adrenaline rushed through his veins. He wanted to make his way there and reunite with her.

However, when he saw Melinda who was beside Winnie, he suppressed the urge. Now, he was an enemy of Mount Heavenly Path, of which Winnie was a disciple. If their relationship was exposed, this would be disastrous for her.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3404-James and Winnie’s gazes met. In just a few seconds, however, James averted his gaze. He did not want anyone, especially Mount Heavenly Path, to learn of his relationship with her.

Meanwhile, Sienna’s appearance attracted the attention of many. Under their watchful gazes, Sienna walked toward James in mid-air. Unconsciously, many parted ways for her.

Sienna Callahan was the seventh daughter of the Callahans. Meanwhile, apart from her, the rest of the eight daughters of the Callahans were all Ancestral Gods. Many of them were Terra Ancestral Gods. The most terrifying of all was Thea Callahan, who was a Caelum Ancestral God. Her strength made her one of the most powerful figures in this universe.

“James…”

Appearing a hundred meters away, Sienna looked at the wretched state James was in and said, “Follow me to the Callahans. There’s no way Mount Heavenly Path would cross the Callahans just for a woman.”

James looked at her and shook his head slightly.

“Thank you for your offer, Sienna. But Mount Heavenly Path is targeting me. Even without Thea, they will still make a move against me. I don’t want to get the Callahans involved.”

Anxious, Sienna said, “But how would you survive without the Callahans’ protection? Even if you achieve a few victories here and there, there will only be more and more pursuers going after your life. How can you live for long?”

“Even if I die, I’m gonna drag a few down to hell with me.” James clenched the Divine Sword in his hand.

Sienna advised, “Don’t be stubborn. I just received news that Mount Heavenly Path has sent Honorius Gunner after you. Do you know who he is? Though he’s a Fifth Heaven Grand Emperor, he’s ranked third in his rank. Not only that, he has cultivated four Ousias and possesses four Ousias. He’s not afraid going up against a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor.”

Sienna came here personally because she was worried James would perish in Honorius’ hands. So, she planned to bring him to the Callahans. After all, she believed that Mount Heavenly Path would not risk antagonizing the Callahans just for James.

James’ expression was grim.

After some contemplation, he said, “Thank you for your kind gesture. However, I have long put death behind me. So what if I die?”

“You...!”

Sienna was exasperated.

At that moment, a figure appeared. She was wearing a black dress and an ice-cold expression on her face.

“Bria Callahan?”

Upon seeing the woman who just appeared, the crowd’s faces turned pale as they staggered backward.

Thea glanced at Sienna and said, “Return home, Sienna. I told you he won’t go to the Callahans.”

“But...”

Anxiety was written on Sienna’s face. How would James survive without going to the Callahans?

Thea turned to look at James and asked, “Are you willing to follow me back to the Callahans? The Callahans will protect you from danger. I believe Mount Heavenly Path won’t dare do anything against you.”

James looked at her.

He knew that Herschel was not trying to kill him just because he called Thea's name. There must be other reasons. After all, there was no need to go to such lengths for a mere woman.

"You are a Caelum Ancestral God. Do you really think Herschel's trying to kill me just because I called your name? If I go to the Callahans, I will only drag you into the conflict," James said.

Thea said, "Of course I know. Why don't we ruminate over the real reason after we have guaranteed your safety?"

Thea was here because Sienna pleaded with her to come.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3405-Sienna pleaded to her to save James. That was why she was here. Besides, James' potential was mind-wrecking. With time, he would certainly become a Caelum Ancestral God. If he married Sienna, the Callahans would have an additional Caelum Ancestral God. Besides, James resembled a figure that constantly surfaced in her mind, and she wanted to get to the bottom of this. Thus, James could not die, at least before she learned the whole truth.

"I don't want to get the Callahans involved. Besides, do you really think I would die just like that? The living beings that Mount Heavenly Path sent after me will only be two ranks higher than my physical strength. As long as they hold up their end of the bargain, I will survive."

James was confident. That was because he had cultivated too many Ousias and Paths. Once his Ousias accomplished Consolidation and turned into Path Seals, he would no longer be afraid of those who were significantly stronger than him.

Thea, however, snickered and said, "Do you know what it means to be invincible in a rank? Even if Honorois isn't invincible in his rank, no one is capable of annihilating him either."

"I'm not afraid," James said calmly. "If he shows up, I just have to kill him."

"You moron!" Thea was exasperated.

Sienna advised, "Now's not the time to be stubborn, James. Just follow us back."

James shook his head and said, "Sienna, Thea, return to the Callahans. I promise you I'll head over to the Callahans once the ten thousand-year deadline is over."

Thea remained silent. Since James was unwilling to follow her advice, there was nothing else she could do. She dragged Sienna by the hand, and they disappeared from the area.

In the distance, Melinda stroked her chin and murmured, "I never thought James is well-liked by so many people. Even Bria Callahan is here to offer her protection."

Winnie, on the other hand, remained silent. However, upon seeing Thea, she immediately knew that was her mother. However, she had no idea why her mother was at this age and was a Caelum Ancestral God. So, she believed that James' arrival at this age was related to her mother.

"Honourous Gunner... Is he the one Thea mentioned?"

"I've heard of him before. He's a disciple of Mount Heavenly Path and was once a prodigy of an era. He has cultivated four Ousias, and it has been quite some time since he last appeared."

"So many years have passed, yet he's still at the Fifth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank."

"Ranks aren't everything that matters. Didn't you hear what Bria said? Even a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor may not stand a chance against Honourus."

Honourous' appearance caused a commotion.

Meanwhile, James' gaze was fixed on him. From him, he sensed a terrifying power that made his skin crawl.

Clenching the Divine Sword in his hand, James knew that this battle was life or death. If he loses, he would be killed.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3406-As James stared at Honourus, he could sense an incredible power coming from him. From Sienna and Thea's words, he learned of his strength. Honourus was a Fifth Heaven Grand Emperor who cultivated four Ousias. Not only that, he remained in the same rank for many Epochs and possessed immense power. He even stood a chance against a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor. Such strength was terrifying.

James knew how difficult this battle would be. If he could not defeat Honorius, he could perish here.

Honorius was staring at James as well. However, his expression was composed and devoid of all emotion.

As their gazes met, the atmosphere in the air became tense.

In the distance gathered many living beings. They simply remained silent and observed. They knew that they would not have a chance to intervene now that Honorius was here.

“James,” Honorius said, “I’ve heard of your deeds. You are a true genius. If you hadn’t offended Mount Heavenly Path, you’d become one of the greatest figures in this universe. What a shame. I’ll give you the opportunity to commit suicide while you still can.”

He spoke nonchalantly as if James posed no threat to him at all. However, he was capable of being arrogant as a true prodigy of an era. Though he remained stagnant in the Fifth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank, he was merely trying to achieve perfection and not because he could not make a breakthrough. If he had chosen to make a breakthrough, he would have been an Ancestral God long ago.

“Cut the cr*p.”

His aura soared. Knowing that Honorius possessed immense power, he knew he could not hold back. The power of all the Ousias in this body gushed out, gathering to increase James’ aura. In combination with his physical strength which was at the Sixth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank, his power now reached the Seventh Heaven. Now, even against a Seventh Heaven Grand Emperor, he might still stand a chance.

“That’s it?”

Sensing the fluctuations in James’ aura, Honorius glanced at him and said nonchalantly, “You are a true genius. What a shame that your rank is too weak. If the power of your Ousias is stronger, I might not stand a chance against you. However, you are no match for me now. I do not wish to kill you. However, I have the Young Master’s orders.”

Honorius’ expression was calm and composed. His every action and word spoke of invincibility. James knew he was no match for Honorius.

At that moment, he catalyzed Sacrilegious Ascension, which he had not used for a very long time. Sacrilegious Ascension was the significant cultivation method of the Demonic Ape Race and had strict requirements for the physical body. This was a mysterious secret art that increases one's strength.

As James catalyzed Sacrilegious Ascension, his spine shattered, and a mysterious power emerged, frantically absorbing the power of heaven and earth to reshape the shattered spine. His aura merged with heaven and earth, rising dramatically. His aura soared. At that moment, he was heaven and earth itself.

"What?"

Seeing this, many were stunned.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3407-"What cultivation method is that? His aura and power are increasing at an unbelievable rate!"

"I knew it. He's no pushover."

"How terrifying... As expected of a once-in-a-lifetime genius. His potential might even exceed that of Thea. He will surely be a Caelum Ancestral God in the future.

In the distance, many were dumbfounded.

Meanwhile, Honorius simply looked at James with a composed look. He knew that James had used secret art. Through the power and aura, he could roughly estimate that James' strength was now equivalent to an Eighth Heaven Grand Emperor. Compared to a moment ago, his strength had increased by an entire sub-rank. This was simply unimaginable.

"Are you done?"

Honorius' voice boomed.

As he believed himself to possess overwhelming strength, he did not strike James immediately but instead allowed him to gather his strength.

James' expression was grim.

Though he had used every trick at his disposal, he was still significantly weaker than Honorius.

At that moment, a bone in his body began to glimmer.

It was the dragon bone. In the Apocalypse Age, before the seal on Earth was undone, James acquired it by chance. It was a bone left behind by a Grand Patriarch of the Dragon Race that contained the power of the Ancestral Dragon and the Dragon Race's signature cultivation methods.

It had been a while since James last used this bone. At that moment, he catalyzed the dragon bone's power.

Roar!

At that moment, the roar of an angry dragon could be heard. Meanwhile, an immensely powerful force exploded from within James' body. The shapeless energy soared to the sky like a mighty dragon and reached the atmosphere. Back then, James did not obtain much power by activating the dragon bone. Now, however, his rank was much higher than before. Upon catalyzing the dragon bone's power, he acquired an unbelievable strength. The power exuded from the dragon bone spread throughout his body, and his aura soared.

"Hahaha!"

James roared in laughter. Sensing the power inside his body, he was now unafraid of anything. Holding the Divine Sword in his hand, he laughed manically, "Honorius Gunner, invincible in the Fifth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank? Witness how a Quasi Emperor at the Third Tribulation like me obliterates you!"

James' voice boomed.

At the same time...

On an island in an unknown place in the universe, an elderly man who was deep in slumber suddenly woke up. Gazing into the distance, he murmured while wearing a grim expression on his face, "The Grand Patriarch's power? How can this be? Before the Grand Patriarch disappeared, he infused all his power into a dragon bone. Now that the dragon bone is still with me, how did his power appear out of nowhere?"

James had no idea that the dragon bone he obtained belonged to the Ancestral Dragon, who was a powerful figure of the Primeval Age and not the Primordial Age. Even so, he was still a powerful figure long ago in the Primeval Age.

At that moment, James' aura soared. With the support of various secret arts, his strength had reached the peak of the Grand Emperor Ninth Heaven's rank. He was now only a step away from reaching the Quasi Ancestral God Rank.

"How powerful..."

“Luckily I didn’t act impulsively. Otherwise, I’d have been dead.”

“He has too many tricks up his sleeves. Who exactly is he?”

Upon seeing James’ unbelievable aura, a chill ran down their spines.

Meanwhile, Honorius’s composed expression had been replaced by a grim one.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3408-James’ power shocked everyone, even Honorius who did not think much of James. James’ power was so immense that even he was feeling anxious. He knew it would be difficult to emerge victorious. However, he also knew that James forcibly increased his strength by using secret arts. As such, he would not be able to remain in this state for too long. If he could prolong the battle, he would certainly win.

He unsheathed his blade, which appeared in his hand. The blade was ordinary in size and glimmered a golden light. There were also mysterious inscriptions and characters engraved on the sword. It was apparent that this was an Imperial Weapon.

Holding the blade while wearing a grim expression, he uttered word by word, “Make a move, James.”

James gazed at the living beings in the distance. After dealing with Honorius, he would also have to deal with them. Besides, due to the Heavenly Path’s injuries and Karma inside his body, not to mention that he resorted to secrets arts, he could not last long in a fight. So, he had to annihilate Honorius in the shortest amount of time possible.

Then, his mind stirred, and the Divine Sword in his hand materialized into tens of thousands of Sword Light. Sword Lights swept through everything in their path, each possessing power that could annihilate even Eighth Heaven Grand Emperors.

Standing in the void, Honorius slashed the Sword Lights. Sword Lights also materialized from his blade, gathering to form a barrier to shield him from the incoming Sword Lights. The void before him instantly exploded. Powerful force spread throughout the planet, which was instantly destroyed. Such was the strength of a Superpower, who could destroy worlds with a flick of a finger.

Of course, this was an ordinary world. In some powerful worlds, not even these extremely powerful figures could destroy the planets. That was because the space there was solid.

After blocking James' attack, Honorius made his move. His body flashed, and he disappeared without a trace. In the next instant, he was already above James. Immediately, he slashed at James, summoning a Sword Light.

James hurriedly dodged.

As the Sword Light descended, a massive black hole was created down below. This black hole was so massive that it was as huge as the world.

In the distance gathered many living beings. Even Melinda and Winnie were standing in mid-air, spectating the battle from above. Meanwhile, Sienna and Thea had not left but instead concealed themselves in the shadows. They were curious to see if James was able to resolve this crisis. If not, Thea would intervene and forcibly drag him to the Callahans. Once he was safe, she would head to Mount Heavenly Path and seek to resolve the problem.

However, the moment James demonstrated his strength, even Thea was stunned.

"Persistent, isn't he? Isn't that the power of the Dragon Race? How does he have that inside him?"

Even a Caelum Ancestral God like Thea could sense something was amiss. She sensed the power of the Dragon Race coming from within James' body. Moreover, it was some of the purest of all the Dragon Race's power.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3409-As she scrutinized James, she immediately saw through him and discovered the dragon bone inside his body. Realization dawned on her face as she said, "I see! He has a dragon bone. It should have been left behind by a Caelum Ancestral God."

Sienna asked, "Does that mean that James is certain to win?"

Thea shook her head and said, "Not necessarily. Though the dragon bone's power has increased his strength tremendously, he was injured by the Heavenly Path. Combined with the Karma that has enveloped him, he's in a precarious situation. Besides..."

Shocked, Sienna asked, "Besides what?"

Thea said, "The dragon bone in James' body only recorded the signature cultivation method of the Dragon Race. Though it contains the power of a Caelum Ancestral God, the power is limited. Now that James has activated it, this won't last for long. I can sense that his power will diminish once the energy is depleted. To activate the power of the dragon bone once more, he would have to wait for the energy to be replenished."

As a Caelum Ancestral God, Thea saw through James.

Hearing this, Sienna was worried about James as she said, "If he's in danger, you have to drag him out of there."

Thea nodded, "Mhm."

Through various methods, James forcibly increased his strength. Meanwhile, as a Fifth Heaven Grand Emperor, Honorius did not let his guard down against James. He summoned all his strength, and the power of the four Path Seals in his body was activated. Even so, he could fight James to a standstill.

The moment the battle began, James finally understood how terrifying Honorius was. As he summoned all his strength, the Heavenly Path's injuries, and Karma Power began to rear their ugly heads. James knew he had to end the battle as soon as possible. Otherwise, he would perish here.

As his mind stirred, 108 Infinity Steles materialized.

"The Infinity Steles?"

Many powerful figures turned pale. Even Thea's gaze was firmly fixed on the Infinity Steles James summoned as she praised, "How fortunate of him! He has obtained even the Infinity Steles of the Boundless Road. Who exactly is he?"

The moment the Infinity Steles appeared, Honorius began losing ground. With all his might, he blocked the relentless bombardment of the Infinity Steles and knocked them away. Before James comprehended the mysterious inscriptions on the Infinity Steles, they were nothing more than blunt weapons.

Seeing that the Infinity Steles could not annihilate Honorius, James used the ace up his sleeves — the Five Elements of Genesis.

The Five Elements of Genesis materialized and formed the Elemental Wheel. The Elemental Wheel was formed by merging the Five Elements of Genesis. This power was terrifying, and everywhere the wheel went, destruction followed.

Thea stared at the Elemental Wheel.

“The treasure of the Five Ancestral Masters?”

She knew about the Five Ancestral Masters. They were some of the oldest figures of this universe and had lived for many years. Not even Mount Heavenly Path had existed when they were born.

The more treasures James summoned, the more stunned Thea was.

Meanwhile, under the relentless assault by the Elemental Wheel, Honorius’ rhythm was disrupted. James seized the opportunity and catalyzed the Five Great Paths, striking Honorius with his guard down.

At that moment, threads of black aura materialized from within James’ body, gathering to form a bizarre dark lotus. As the dark lotus materialized, it flew toward Honorius and trapped him with some roots that materialized, frantically absorbing his power.

“Hahaha!”

James laughed maniacally. His expression was horrifying.

After being injured by the Elemental Wheel, Honorius was now trapped by the dark lotus. Unable to break free, his power was quickly being sapped away.

His face turned pale.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3410-James’ physical body was reshaped by the Dark Lotus. Meanwhile, he had cultivated a malevolent Natal Lotus that could devour all sorts of power and transform them into energy. Under normal circumstances, he would not summon the dark lotus easily. However, he could not care less now.

Hovering in mid-air, threads of dark aura materialized from within the dark lotus and trapped Honorius like entangling roots.

Honorius was trapped. At that moment, his vitality and energy were being sapped away at a rapid pace.

“Break!” he roared.

Summoning all his strength, he forcibly broke free and appeared a distance away. Panting for breath, he looked at James while wearing a grim expression. He never thought James would be this troublesome. He knew he had underestimated his enemy. Otherwise, he would not have given James time to gather strength.

Now, he was gravely injured.

In the distance, James stood in mid-air as 108 Infinity Steles rotated around him in a circular motion, carrying immense power. Meanwhile, the Elemental Wheel formed by the Five Elements of Genesis hovered above his head. As the Five Elements merged and underwent inversion, a terrifying power burst forth. The appearance of the Five Elements brought about powerful Karma Power, which enveloped James and continued to destroy his physical body. Originally, his body had gotten used to Karma Power. However, the Karma Power was now much greater in intensity, so he was severely injured once more. He knew he would be completely annihilated by Karma if this continued.

“Break!” James roared.

He catalyzed the Space Path, and powerful Space Power materialized and completely sealed the area and Honorius off. His comprehension of the Space Path was low and only at the Second Consolidation. However, his current rank was terrifying—equivalent to a Grand Emperor at the Ninth Heaven. With the support of his own power, his Space Power grew increasingly stronger.

Even Honorius could not break free from the space. The moment the space was sealed, the Elemental Wheel came crashing toward him, greatly damaging him in the process. Even though his physical strength was terrifying, considering that he had remained in the Fifth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank for countless years, he could do nothing to stop the Elemental Wheel’s attack.

Then, the dark lotus appeared once more. Hovering above Honorius’ head, threads of black aura materialized and enveloped him, frantically absorbing all his energy.

Under the crowd’s watchful gaze, Honorius’ body dissipated at a rapid pace. After his power was absorbed by the dark lotus, the dark lotus turned increasingly weird. Meanwhile, the lotus’ power was transferred to James, which came in the form of physical strength and Ousia Power.

James’ aura turned malevolent. At that moment, he was like the devil, whose aura sent chills down everyone’s spines.

“Argh!” Honorius roared in frustration.

He struggled with all his might. However, he could not break free. Under the crowd’s watchful gaze, he was completely reduced to nothingness.

Seeing this, everyone took a deep breath and staggered backward.

“Die.”

After dealing with Honorius, James' gaze was fixed on the living beings in the distance.
As he roared, the word 'die' was like a curse.
