The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3413-Sienna looked at James before glancing at Thea.

'Could it be that he has a crush on her?'

Immediately, she put those thoughts aside and looked at James, asking, "How's your situation? Are you alright?"

James sat in a lotus position on the ground and shook his head slightly, saying, "I won't die just yet. However, I have been contaminated by terrifying Karma. Looks like I'll be enveloped by Karma for some time. Unless my own Karma arrives and negates the current one, I won't be able to expel them from my body."

Now that James was contaminated by Karma, he could not expel them from his body. The only way was to wait for Karma-related events to occur and resolve the current Karma Power.

Thea glanced at him and said, "The Karma inside your body is too potent. Besides, I can sense it's merely a small portion of the Karma you are related to. What have you done to incur the wrath of such great Karma?"

She asked, intrigued. James' Karma generated fear even for a Caelum Ancestral God for her. novelebook.com As such, she could not imagine just how terrifying it would be if all Karma appeared.

Hearing this, James fell into deep thought.

"Indeed, what is my Karma? Why was there such a terrifying Karma? I'm only here because I was searching for my loved one."

James was unsure of this himself.

'Could it be that my Karma has something to do with Radomir's coup and the collapse of this age?'

James thought. Thinking about this, he shook his head slightly and put those thoughts aside.

"We should leave this topic for some other day." Sienna interrupted them and said, "Let's think about how to overcome the current ordeal. Your physical strength is now equivalent to a Seventh Heaven Grand Emperor. If Herschels know about this, he will send more powerful figures after you."

Thea said, "There's no need to worry about that. James' history is unknown and can't be divined. Besides, he's now contaminated by heavy Karma. Unless someone has been watching behind the scenes, no one should be able to sense his rank. So, I believe that Herschel would need more time to know about this."

Sienna was nonetheless worried.

"Mount Heavenly Path is too terrifying. It won't be difficult for them to divine James' strength."

James, however, grunted and said, "Mount Heavenly Path is nothing in my eyes. If I survive this ordeal and cross into the Ancestral God Rank, I will definitely kill Herschel."

Thea glanced at him and said coldly, "I would suggest putting those thoughts aside and concentrating your efforts on surviving."

Sienna glanced at him and asked, "You have an idea?"

Thea's gaze was fixed on James as she sensed the Karma Power in him.

"Of all the Paths, Karma is ranked first. Then comes the Five Great Paths," she said.

James looked at her.

She continued, "Karma is mysterious. It can neither be seen nor touched, yet it exists. Since antiquity, no one has been able to cultivate Karma Power. Those who are contaminated by Karma Power don't exactly get the most pleasant endings. No one has been able to coexist with Karma. However, since James has immense Karma Power inside his body, this is a perfect opportunity to cultivate it."

Realization dawned on Sienna's face as she asked, "Thea, are you saying that James should seize this opportunity and cultivate Karma? Are you saying that he should absorb and refine Karma Power, cultivate Karma Ousia and the Karma Path Seal?"

"Mhm."

Thea nodded and said, "Yes."

Hearing this, James wore a bitter smile and said, "I thought about this before, but Karma Power is too mysterious. Of all the cultivation methods I have learned, none of them can catalyze Karma Power."

"Try to comprehend them, then."

Thea glanced at him and said, "Since you have immense Karma Power inside your body, not to mention that you have been contaminated by Karma, you should spend some time comprehending a new cultivation method to cultivate them."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3414—Karma was ranked third among the various Paths. Karma was terrifying and could not be cultivated by anyone. Once contaminated, none could endure the damage that would be brought about by Karma.

James, however, managed to endure. Now, there was pure and concentrated Karma Power inside his body. This was the perfect opportunity to cultivate and comprehend karma. If even he could not comprehend the cultivation method of Karma Power, no one else could.

James looked at Thea with a serious face and asked, "Thea, you are a Caelum Ancestral God. Your knowledge is boundless and unlimited. To your understanding, are there any living beings in this universe who cultivate Karma?"

Thea shook her head slightly and said, "No, to my understanding. Many have tried comprehending and cultivating Karma. novelebook.com However, Karma Power is mysterious and ever-changing. So, no one has been able to create the cultivation method for absorbing Karma Power."

"Why not?" James asked puzzledly.

The lifespan of a powerful figure was counted in Epochs, and each Epoch was 4.9 billion years. How could no one cultivate Karma Power with so much time they had?

Thea said, "There are a few reasons."

"First, without a cultivation method, they won't be able to absorb and refine them."

"Second, Karma Power is different from the power of heaven and earth. The power of other Paths can be increased by absorbing the power of heaven and earth of the outside realm. The opposite is true for Karma Power."

Thea described the key points.

Then, she glanced at James. The more she looked at James, the more similar his figure was to the image in her head. This was her biggest secret, which even none of her sisters knew.

Thea looked at her and said, "Sienna, you should return to the Callahans first."

“Huh?” Sienna froze and asked, “I’m returning first?”

“Mhm.” Thea nodded and said, “I will stay behind for some time. The next batch of pursuers should arrive a century later. novelebook.com I will stay and try to comprehend Karma and the cultivation method for absorbing Karma Power. If I can pull this off, this will be earth-shattering.”

Sienna was puzzled.

What did this have to do with her returning first? However, she remained silent. Since Thea was a Caelum Ancestral God, she felt relieved leaving things to her.

“I’ll be taking my leave then.”

After she spoke, Sienna turned to leave.

Now, only James and Thea remained.

Thea walked toward him and sat a meter apart from him. Their gazes met. James could see her gorgeous eyebrows and her flawless face.

Thea, too, stared at James. Unknowingly, she began to link James with the figure that constantly appeared in her mind. As she shut her eyes, the image of the figure surfaced in her mind. She tried to discern the appearance of the figure. Yet, she could not no matter how hard she tried.

At that moment, the figure in her mind turned around, and she saw his face. It was James.

She took a deep breath and forcibly calmed herself down. Then, she looked at James’ appearance once more.

“Wh-Why are you staring at me?” James was confused.

“Have me met?” Thea said.

“Huh?” James had no idea what she meant. “Why are you asking me such a question?” James asked.

Thea shook her head and said, “I-It’s nothing. I’m just asking. If you don’t wanna say anything, I can totally understand.”

She believed that her question was ludicrous.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3415-They merely looked similar from behind. Ever since she began remembering, she was sure that the figure in her dreams was not James. After all, she had lived for many Epochs. Meanwhile, James had not even been born yet. So, how could it possibly be him?

However, James said with a serious look on his face, "We have. We have met before."

Thea looked at him and asked, "How did we meet?"

James smiled and said, "If I say I met a person who came into being from the threads of your soul and that I came from the distant future in search of you, would you believe me?"

James asked jokingly. Since he was unsure whether Thea would accept such a possibility, he tried testing her reaction first.

Thea shook her head in disbelief. If James said that he had met a person that came into being from a thread of her soul, who was the figure in the deepest parts of her memory? Even so, she was intrigued. She asked, "What do you mean?"

James said, "A thread of your soul reincarnated into a person who's also called Thea Callahan.novlebook.com I guess that person is also you."

He scratched his head. Strictly speaking, the Thea from the future was the same person as the Thea before him. The two shared a similar soul. However, are they really one and the same? James could not figure this out. If they are, one could argue that they have no common memory. If they aren't, one could argue that they share the same soul.

Confounded, James smiled and said, "Hilarious, no? I came from the future just to find the original form of a thread of a soul."

Thea, however, ruminated over James' words. Could it be that a thread of her soul would experience reincarnation in the future? Would the reincarnated her be related to James in some way? If what James said was true, was he related to the figure in the deepest parts of her memory? This was simply too complicated. Even Thea who had mastered various Paths could not understand this.

"Why would a thread of my soul undergo reincarnation?" she asked.

James answered her truthfully.

However, Thea could only see his lips moving. No sound could be heard.

She furrowed her eyebrows and asked, “Wh-What are you trying to say?”

Upon seeing her confused look, James understood what was happening. The matters he was speaking about were significant and could not be communicated using speech. His mind stirred, and a pen and a piece of paper appeared in his hand. Then, he wrote what he intended to say on the paper.

However, when the pen came into contact with the paper, the words underwent weird changes and became a character that even James could not understand.

“What is this?”

Thea looked at the characters James had written on the paper with a visible look of confusion on her face. novelebook.com These characters were bizarre. Even a Caelum Ancestral God like her had never seen such a thing before.

James was confused as well.

“This isn’t what I wrote. What’s going on?”

He stared at the characters on the paper. These squiggly characters had no rules or form, not to mention ever-changing. In an instant, there were seemingly thousands upon thousands of changes.

Thea glanced at James.

‘What a freak. I can’t understand the script, but I can sense the mysteriousness of the characters,’ she murmured in her heart.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3416-Theoretically speaking, one should be able to understand all scripts just by learning the Elysian Script. Of course, the Ancestral Gods had a script of their own — Ancestral Script. This was a script that would materialize with the unique power of the Path. As James studied the Ancestral Script before, he understood the fundamentals. However, he could not recognize the characters he had just written. He was confounded. He was writing about how Thea’s soul was extracted by some Ancestral Gods and refined into the Ancestral God Rank Elixir. But why would the characters change?

He was at a loss.

“What script is this?” Thea asked.

Confused, James said, "How would I know?"

"You don't know what you're writing about?" Thea looked at him weirdly.

James shook his head. He indeed had no idea what he was writing about.

"Let me see."

James handed the piece of paper to her.

Then, Thea began reading the characters on the paper. Upon scrutiny, she could not understand the script. With her cultivation base, novelebook.com she was nonetheless unable to understand the script. The only thing they knew was that the characters were mysterious, ever-changing, and possessed a unique Path.

"A unique Path?" she murmured.

Each Path can be recorded in writing. Besides, she had mastered all the Paths out there except for the Five Great Paths and the Karma Path.

"Is this the script of the Five Great Paths?" She looked at him and asked,

James shook his head and said, "No."

James had obtained the cultivation method of the Five Great Paths from the Sacred Blossom. These characters were different from the ones of the Five Great Paths.

"Could it be Karma then? Or perhaps there is an unknown Path in this universe?" James fell into deep thought.

"Karma?"

Realization dawned on James' face. He seemed to have understood something.

"I think I know what's going on," he said.

Thea glanced at him and asked, "What do you mean?"

James laughed, "I know the cultivation method of Karma. Thank you so much, Thea."

Thrilled, he hugged Thea firmly and gave her a kiss.

However, at that moment, a powerful force came from within Thea's body and knocked James away. He crashed heavily to the ground in the distance and caused great destruction to the area. The pain made James' face contorted with agony.

Thea, on the other hand, blushed. No man had ever dared kiss her. However, when James kissed her, she did not push him away. So why did a force knock him away?

James stood up with great difficulty and dragged his wretched body toward Thea.

Thea glanced at him and said coldly, "Consider yourself fortunate you were only blown away by my aura. novelebook.com You won't be that lucky next time."

James gritted his teeth.

Thea now understood something. James was contaminated by aura, and the stuff he wrote on the paper must be related to Heaven's secret. So, upon being written, the script transformed into the unheard-of Karma Script. No one in this world can understand this script, except for James, for he came from the future.
