The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3417-He could write the events that occurred in the future and research these characters that transformed into the Karma Script. With time, he would slowly but gradually create a cultivation method for absorbing Karma Power.

As a Caelum Ancestral God, Thea immediately understood this. She now knew that there was no point in her staying. As she could not understand these characters, she could not help James out.

She stood up and looked at James, saying, "Allow me to congratulate you in advance.novlelebook.com Not only have you mastered the Five Great Paths, but you are even showing progress in the Karma Path. You will be a force to be reckoned with in the future."

James smiled and said, "No matter how strong I am, I will forever be your husband. Whether or not you remember you, you will forever be my woman."

Thea looked at James strangely before disappearing without a trace.

"Hehe..."

James laughed.

Since Thea did not push him away, this meant that she had tacitly accepted him. Upon thinking about this, James could feel butterflies in his stomach. His journey to the Primeval Age was not in vain. With time, he would make Thea accept him.

Meanwhile, Thea did not leave the place. Rather, she concealed herself in the void a distance away. Standing in the void, she watched James silently. A grim expression was visible on her stunningly beautiful face as she contemplated.

He looked at the characters on the paper.

The moment Thea mentioned Karma, he immediately understood everything. As he was contaminated by karma, everything he said was Heaven's Secret — the Karma that was attached to him. These events could not be learned by anyone of this age and could only materialize in the form of the Karma Script. Now, he only needed to research the characters and create a cultivation method for absorbing Karma Power.

However, the characters before him were insufficient. He grabbed his pen and began writing all the significant events in the future. In the meantime, he thought about the past and Henrik Declan. The first time he met Henrik, he realized that he was knowledgeable. He knew that Brielle Labhrann would be the first to become an Emperor in the Apocalypse Age.

At that moment, James believed that Henrik was a mysterious man. Perhaps he had come from the future.

Soon, he jotted everything down.

Unsurprisingly, these events were transformed into a mysterious script. Each character had a different form that was ever-changing. These characters seemed to have a life of their own. The more James researched, the more mysterious and profound they seemed to be. As such, he could only connect the characters to the meaning he wished to describe to understand the meaning of these characters. Slowly and gradually, he began to understand the characters of the Karma Script. With these characters, he could now create a cultivation method with ease. Even so, the execution would be nigh impossible. That was because his understanding of the Elysian Script may not be entirely accurate. This would create huge obstacles in his way of creating a cultivation method.

Then, he calmed down and began comprehending the meaning of these characters and the changes in each Karma Script. The changes in each character contained a mysterious meaning, and by comprehending the Path, all other Paths would be easy to comprehend. Throughout the process of comprehending Karma, James' other Ousias unknowingly accomplished Consolidation.

At that moment, all of his Ousias were at the Third Consolidation.

"How unbelievable..."

James took a deep breath.

"As expected of the Karma Path that represents everything. By comprehending Karma, I have comprehended all other Paths."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3418-As James comprehended the Karma Path and researched the Karma Script, he understood more about the other Paths, and they all accomplished the Third Consolidation. Upon accomplishing the Third Consolidation, his Ousia Power rose drastically once more.

In the void a distance away...

Thea did not leave but instead observed James from afar. As James accomplished the Third Consolidation, she sensed it.

“Such incredible potential... You have nothing to be afraid of even if Herschel sends more of his men after you. You should be able to overcome this ordeal.”

James' potential was too terrifying, and there were simply too many treasures at his disposal.

So, Thea did not linger for long and turned to leave.

Meanwhile, after accomplishing the Third Consolidation for every Ousia, James stopped temporarily. Although he researched the Karma Script, it would still be difficult to create a cultivation method for absorbing Karma Power. He required more research and comprehension. Meanwhile, every character he wrote had countless changes, and he needed to figure out the connection between the changes. Only then could he create a cultivation method. However, he was not in a hurry to do so. He believed that sooner or later, he would be able to succeed.

Now that all his Ousias were at the Third Consolidation, the process was much simpler now. Now, he just needed to absorb the power of heaven and earth and keep dividing the Ousias to form Path Seals. Upon forming the Path Seals, he needed to continue comprehending the Paths and merge them with the Path Seals. The more Paths he comprehended, the more he could merge. Meanwhile, the higher his rank, the more powerful the Path Seals.

James scanned his surroundings.

This world had an abundance of energy. He immediately catalyzed the Five Elements of Genesis and formed the Elemental Inversion Formation. The Five Elements dispersed and formed the Superformation. The moment the Formation was established, all the power of heaven and earth in this world was frantically absorbed by the Elemental Inversion Formation and transformed into his power. The power of each of his Ousia grew. However, not to the point where the Ousias could be divided. He needed immense power to divide the Ousias. Meanwhile, the energy in this desolated world was totally not sufficient for him. Now, he needed to head to some big worlds. In big worlds, there were many Spiritual Worlds, and Primordial Pulses were hidden beneath them. Meanwhile, the Primordial Pulses would keep generating Primordial Energy. The greater the world, the more living beings there would be residing there. Subsequently, there would be more Primordial Pulses. Only worlds with Primordial Pulses were able to support James' demand.

James stood up and stretched. The Heavenly Path's injuries inside his body had been suppressed by Sienna's Dark Power. Though the remaining Karma Power continued to damage his body, his current physical strength was enough to withstand Karma Power.

“Now, I just need to cultivate more. With my Dark Lotus and Elemental Inversion Formation, I can quickly absorb all sorts of power. I will soon cross into the Grand Emperor Rank.”

James was full of confidence.

His body flashed, and he disappeared from this desolate world.

This age had seven huge worlds—the Human Realm, Demon Realm, Fiend Realm, Underworld Realm, Asura Realm, the Realm of Nothingness, and the Nine Heavens Realm. These seven worlds were the largest in this universe, and each of them was divided into three dimensions.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3419-The Human Realm was the strongest of all seven realms, and in which many powerful figures of the Human Race gathered. Meanwhile, the Demon Realm was where the Demon Race resided. The Fiend Realm was the territory of the Fiend Race, and the Underworld Realm was the territory of the Underworld Race. In the Realm of Nothingness lived illusory creatures who were unique in their existence. Meanwhile, the Nine Heavens Realm was named after the Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank. No one knew why it was named as such.

James planned to head to these worlds because they were the only ones who had an abundance of energy for him to absorb. That way, he would not have to travel far and wide all the time. As for the pursuers, he no longer cared about them. With time, his strength would soon reach a level where he could annihilate them with ease.

Meanwhile, James crossed the Human Realm off his list. Since Mount Heavenly Path's headquarters was in the Human Realm, novelebook.com heading there would be a death wish. After weighing the pros and cons, he chose to head to the Realm of Nothingness because it was a mysterious place. He had heard of these worlds when he traveled across the universe. This world once produced a Macrocosm Ancestral God who was called the Lord of Nothingness.

When the Lord of Nothingness dominated the universe, Mount Heavenly Path had yet to exist. Perhaps Hadad Theophanes had yet to be born, or perhaps he was still an insignificant human.

As James headed to the Realm of Nothingness, Melinda was already back at Mount Heavenly Path. Upon her return, she immediately entered the Chamber of Scriptures and collected all Supernatural Arts and records of the distant past that had existed since antiquity. She came here primarily because she saw James using the bizarre-looking Dark Lotus, which she believed had a long history. So, she came here to do her research. After scrolling through countless ancient texts, she found some clues inside one of them.

“Countless years ago, this universe was dominated by the Lord of Nothingness. However, a Divine Soul was born out of the malevolence in his heart and created a brand-new being. That being was called the Dark Lotus Demonic Ancestral Master, whose Natal Treasure was a Dark Lotus. The Dark Lotus was unspeakably malevolent. As the manifestation of the malevolence of a Macrocosm Ancestral God, it could devour all the energy of heaven and earth.”

Upon seeing this, Melinda’s expression turned grim as she murmured, “Is James’ Dark Lotus related to the Lord of Nothingness who disappeared without a trace? If so, doesn’t that mean that James has something to do with the previous Macrocosm Ancestral God?”

After some contemplation, Melinda put away the ancient text in her possession and turned to leave the Chamber of Scriptures.novalebook.com Then, she headed to the mountain where Herschel was located.

At that moment, Herschel was sitting on his throne while wearing a grim expression on his face.

“Herschel,” she called out to him.

Herschel collected himself and looked at Melinda. Immediately, the sorrow and anxiety on his face disappeared to be replaced by a bright smile as he said, “Hey there, is something the matter?”

Melinda walked toward him and said, “I’m bored. I’m just wandering around this place.”

Doubtful, Herschel said, “Is that so? Cut to the chase.”

Melinda asked, “Why did you give the order to pursue James?”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3421-“Besides, why can I sense the presence of Karma Power when I tried to divine his location? It seems that the Karma Power intends to deter me from trying.”

Radomir could not figure this out. Though he could ignore the presence of Karma Power, he could not extrapolate everything about James. Even though he was ranked second in this universe, he could not do anything about this.

So, he did not linger for long and turned to leave.

In the next instant, he was at Herschel's palace. Standing in the main hall, he clasped his fists and said, "Young Master."

Herschel looked at him and asked, "How did it go? Did you divine anything about James?"

Radomir shook his head slightly and said while wearing a grim expression, "No, I can't divine anything about him."

Hearing this, Herschel was stunned. Astonished, he asked, "You can't?"

"Yes." Radomir nodded.

"This makes no sense," Herschel said. "The Heavenly Path controls everything in the universe. novelebook.com As long as someone or something exists, there must be traces of them. The Heavenly Path should have records of their existence. So why can't we extrapolate anything about him?"

Radomir shook his head and said, "I'm not sure. I only know there are no records of James in all the rules and order of the Heavenly Path. He seems to have appeared out of thin air. Or perhaps he doesn't belong to this age or universe. There's another possibility, however. There could be some extremely powerful figure silently erasing all traces of the Heavenly Path from the shadows. However, he or she must be a Macrocosm Ancestral God."

Radomir stated his hypotheses.

Hearing this, Herschel's expression turned grimmer. This meant that James' threat to Mount Heavenly Path was even greater than before.

"Have there been any anomalies recently by the Heavenly Path?" Herschel asked.

Radomir asked, "Which aspect are you referring to?"

After some contemplation, Herschel said, "Anything that's related to Mount Heavenly Path."

Radomir said, "Not at all. Everything related to Mount Heavenly Path's operating rules is operating as usual. There have been no anomalies."

"I see. You're dismissed."

Herschel waved slightly.

“Understood.”

Radomir nodded and turned to leave.

Upon returning to his accommodation, his expression turned grim. Sitting in a lotus position on the ground, he casually waved his hand, and countless operating rules appeared before him. These operating rules were lines intersecting with each other. Though they seemed complicated, each line had its underlying connections.

As Radomir watched these operating rules, he fell into deep thought.

Meanwhile, Herschel continued extrapolating James’ location. Honorius’ defeat meant that James possessed terrifying strength. So, he needed to send more terrifying figures after James. James was a hidden threat who would emerge as a threat to Mount Heavenly Path’s rule over the universe. To eradicate the future threat, James had to die.

He did not wish to James any breathing room. Since a Fifth Heaven Grand Emperor could no longer annihilate James, he could only send a Sixth Heaven or Seventh Heaven Grand Emperor after him.

The prodigies in the Sixth and Seventh Heaven Grand Emperor Rank were at Mount Heavenly Path.novelebook.com The moment he gave his order, all the powerful figures of these ranks appeared before him.

There were many who were in these two ranks. Soon, about ten of them appeared before Herschel.

Herschel looked at them and said coldly, “I have summoned you here for only one purpose. Annihilate James Caden.”
