The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3422-Just as Herschel planned to send the Sixth and Seventh Heaven Grand Emperors after James, James had already arrived at the Realm of Nothingness. Upon his arrival, he could sense an immense power that surpassed everything the abandoned worlds could offer.

As James sensed the pure energy in this world, he took a deep breath.

The things he needed to do were simple. All he needed to do was to absorb as much energy of heaven and earth as possible to increase his cultivation base before the next wave of pursuers arrived. Based on his calculations, all his Ousias should be able to reach the Quasi Emperor Rank before the next wave of pursuers arrived. Meanwhile, his Sword Path Ousia would be able to reach the Grand Emperor Rank.

When he arrived at the peak of a mountain, he scanned his surroundings. Though there was an abundance of heaven and earth energy here, there were no Primordial Pulses, something he was looking for. Besides, a single Primordial Pulse was insufficient for him. He needed a cultivation sanctuary with many Primordial Pulses. novelebook.com These places were occupied by powerful sects and families, making it extremely difficult to find them in the wild.

He contemplated and wondered if he should use this opportunity and join a sect and borrow their cultivation sanctuary to increase his strength. However, James was worried that since his appearance had gotten out, Mount Heavenly Path would immediately know about his location the moment he appeared.

After some thought, he crossed the idea off his list. Now, he could only search around outside. But since he was unfamiliar with the Realm of Nothingness, he needed to ask around to find places with Spiritual Mountains and holy sites.

As his mind stirred, a mask appeared. After putting the mask on, he left the mountains and arrived at a bustling city. After being a fugitive and cultivating inside the Time Formation for so long, he was stunned and dumbfounded upon arriving at a bustling city. He sighed, lamenting that he had been separated from civilization for too long.

He roamed the streets of the city, seeking to find out more about some dangerous places in the Realm of Nothingness. Under normal circumstances, these places would have an abundance of energy. That was because as seldom living beings venture into these places, energy was able to accumulate without being absorbed.

After asking around, James discovered a place—the Palace of Nothingness, one of the most treacherous places in the realm. The Palace of Nothingness was located in the central region of the realm, where there was a mountain called Mount Nothingness. Countless years ago, this was once the place of residence of the Lord of Nothingness, the previous Macrocosm Ancestral God. Bearing similarities with Mount Heavenly Path,

Mount Nothingness was once the core of this universe and the home of all orthodox sects in the world.

James did not know much about the time when the Lord of Nothingness ruled over the universe, nor did he know much about the Lord of Nothingness himself. Now that he knew about this, he began asking around.

There were many legends and mythical stories of the Lord of Nothingness in the Realm of Nothingness. When the Lord of Nothingness ruled over the universe, the universe was a bustling place. However, he simply vanished without a trace one day. There were many legends surrounding his disappearance. Some say that an accident occurred when he was in the midst of cultivation. A brand-new living being was born out of the malevolence in his heart and devoured him, and they both perished together. Some say that the Dark World attacked the Illuminated World. As the ruler of the universe, he was annihilated by a group of powerful figures of the Dark World. As there were too many legends and myths surrounding the Lord of Nothingness, James did not have time to hear all of them.

He only had a rough understanding of the situation. Now, he was only interested in knowing more about Mount Nothingness.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3423-Mount Nothingness is a dangerous place in the entire universe, let alone within the Realm of Nothingness. This was especially so after the place had been abandoned following the disappearance of the Lord of Nothingness. After being enveloped by vicious dark energy for countless years, even extremely powerful figures could not resist the extent of its power. As such, common figures were reluctant to enter the Mount of Nothingness or the Palace of Nothingness if it were not for an urgent matter.

“Since the Macrocosm Ancestral God once inhabited this Palace, this must be a place rich with natural energies. If I can cultivate in the Palace, my rank will surely ascend rapidly, especially with my absorption capacities endowed by Elemental Inversion Formation and the Dark Lotus,” James murmured.

With this thought, he headed towards the Mount of Nothingness. He would have to check for himself whether the place is suited for cultivation.

He deployed the Space Path and slashed apart the void to leave his current city. In the next moment, he appeared outside Mount Nothingness.

On a piece of empty land, he looked at the scenery casually. There was a massif in front of him, enveloped by black mist. The entire sky was filled with black clouds, giving off very oppressive energy.

James started sensing the black mist around the massif. There was something uncanny about the mists. It was not curse power, nor the power of the Dark World. Rather, it was Demonic Energy.

James felt his blood turn cold. The aura in this place was eerily similar to that of the Dark Lotus in his body. It could be even said that they shared the same source.

“What’s going on?”

James’ eyebrows were lowered and close together as he murmured under his breath, “Why is the aura of this place the same as the aura of the Dark Lotus and my body? Could it be that the Dark Lotus is connected to here and the Lord of Nothingness?”

James could not understand the link between the two, but he could roughly draw a connection between this place and the Dark Lotus. novelebook.com If this is really the case, his physical body can ignore any form of harm that Demonic Energy may inflict upon him. This would then also mean that this site is the ideal place for cultivation for James.

“I have indeed come to the right place,” James was glad.

The moment he took a step forward into Mount Nothingness, an explosion happened from afar. Black clouds exploded and a gigantic object materialized.

It was a black dragon. Its entire body was covered with black scales and surrounded by black mist. Seemingly infuriated, the dragon opened its large mouth. In front of the dragon were a few clumsy silhouettes trying to escape from danger.

When James could finally make out who the refugees were, he saw two men and a woman. All of them looked very young, but they were badly injured and looked extremely worn out.

The enormous black dragon flew out of Mount Nothingness, opened its big mouth, and let out a kind of black energy. novelebook.com James sensed the threat of this black energy and immediately became cautious. He summoned the Space Path, allowing space to split open so that the black energy could attack the distance.

Seeing this, the fleeing group let out a breath of relief. However, the black dragon attacked again.

“A dragon at the Quasi Ancestral God Rank?” Sensing the aura of the dragon, James could not help but feel worried.

Yet, when the dragon appeared above James, it seemed startled and immediately ran away. Within a split second, the dragon disappeared from the area, hiding among the massif without a trace.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3424-The fleeing group of people immediately let out a huge breath of relief upon seeing the dragon retreat. All three of them were covered with blood and looked restless. It was obvious that they just came out from a difficult battle. They had no energy nor desire to take care of first impressions and promptly sat down on the floor, respectively summoning energies to heal their injuries.

James looked at the two men and the woman from afar. The two men resembled each other, so they were probably brothers. As for the woman who wore a white dress, her dress was now covered with blotches of red. Some parts of it were torn, uncovering serious injuries on her bare skin.

He could sense that all three of them have attained the Quasi Ancestral God Rank and that their mastery within the rank was relatively strong.

Upon arriving at this age, James encountered many powerful figures. As such, he had some understanding of the Quasi Ancestral God Rank. There are three divisions within the Rank, namely the Illuminated Rank, the Theosophical Rank, and the Path Integration Rank. As an illustration, the Heavenly Adjudicator who appeared in the Apocalypse Age was of the Path Integration Rank. As for the three in front of him, they were of the Theosophical Rank, whereas the black dragon who sought after them was of the Path Integration Rank.

After a short break, the three stood up and walked towards James. One man opened up first. "Thank you so much for your help, my fellow cultivator. If it weren't for you, all of us would have died here."

James was wearing a mask that covered half of his face. His facial features were not fully visible to the group. Staring at them, he said coldly, "This is a dangerous place. Even Ancestral Gods would not casually come here. Why then are you here?"

The leader of the group replied, "We're here to look for providence, as we haven't been able to break through the Quasi Ancestral God Rank for countless years." He then started introducing himself, "I am Hadrian Stuart, this is my younger brother Herbert. And she's Mia Londyn, the princess of the Londyn Dynasty. We're all here to look for providence and boon."

James nodded his head gently.

“And you?” Hadrian asked James.

James replied without much expression, “My name is unimportant. This place is menacing. Now that you’re away from danger, leave quickly now.” James said very little, as his name must not be exposed easily. Otherwise, Mount Heavenly Path would find out sooner or later, and its killers would arrive here very soon. James was not strong enough at the current moment. He would not be able to handle more killers as of now.

Without many words, he walked in the direction of Mount Nothingness.

“Wait,” Hadrian shouted, and the three followed suit,

James paused, squeezing his brows at the three, “Yes, anything else?”

The group could sense that James’ rank was not high, yet his casual move of opening up space with tremendous ease proved their estimations wrong. They were here to search for providence after all, so they could not afford to lose this opportunity.

With a bright smile, Hadrian asked, “Are you going into Mount Nothingness to head to the Palace of Nothingness?”

James nodded gently, “I do have such plans.”

Hadrian’s eyes lit up, “We would also like to have a look. Can we please follow you?”

The other two looked at James, filled with hope that James could bring them along on this journey toward the legendary Palace of Nothingness.

“We met thanks to serendipity. Since you insist, I can lead the way. However, life and death are fated. I’m unable to guarantee your life and safety,” James replied.

Although he had yet to absorb Karma Power, he understood Karma very well.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3425-James roughly understood Karma. This entire world was connected by it, so he did not turn down the group’s request. Plus, Sophie once said that he was touched by Karma. Many of the people he knew have appeared to help him share his Karma. Initially, as the group had the choice to leave, they had little Karma with James. But once they followed James on his journey, their Karma with him would magnify. James fully understood this, so he wanted the group to share his Karma.

As for what lay ahead of the group, James did not take that into consideration. He had already done his part by reminding them of the consequences.

Hadrian responded without hesitation, "We have long put aside life and death."

Herbert added, "There's enormous providence hidden within Mount Nothingness. Danger and providence coexist with each other, so we understand this fully."

Mia nodded her head as well, saying, "We know very little about Mount Nothingness, so you'll need to lead the way. Please don't be worried about the rest."

The three were determined to enter the mountain.

James' interest was sparked, and asked, novelebook.com "Although Mount Nothingness does indeed have a lot of providence, the three of you surely need a reason to enter the mountain. What exactly are you looking for in the Palace?"

"The Art of Nothingness," the group responded at the same time.

Appalled, James asked, "What is that?"

Mia explained, "This is a signature martial art skill created by the previous Macrocosm Ancestral God, the Lord of Nothingness. Should we acquire it, we can cultivate an immensely powerful skill and perhaps successfully break through the Quasi Ancestral God rank."

"I see," James nodded. No wonder they were willing to risk their lives.

James continued to speak, "I have never been to Mount Nothingness, so I'm unsure as to what it's like there, let alone the Palace. Once we enter the mountain, I really cannot guarantee your safety."

"Don't worry."

"You're highly skilled, so we should be able to reach the Palace safely."

"Please lead the way."

The three of them spoke consecutively, reassuring James.

Without further words then, James turned around and took the first steps. He did not walk too quickly or too slowly. Each step was equivalent to a thousand meters. Very soon, they arrived at the outer part of Mount Nothingness.

Black mist was already visible in the area. Once they arrived here, the three summoned their powers, creating a protective layer over their skin that could resist the invasion of the black mist.

Frightening demonic energies were encapsulated within the mist. Yet, the Demonic Energy not only failed to harm James but even made James feel more at ease once it entered his body.

At that moment, his entire body's pores opened up, intensely absorbing the Demonic Energy within the black mist.novlebook.comThey were like extra doses of dopamine, allowing James' mood to lighten up much more.

"How skilled!"

"He can even absorb Mount Nothingness' Demonic Energy. What a cultivator!"

"That must mean that this place isn't a dangerous place for him. Now the only thing to worry about is the hidden living beings in the mountain that have Energy Deviation."

The three conversed.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3426-After entering the area of Mount Nothingness and sensing the Demonic Energy encapsulated within its black mists, James felt confident that his physical energy would improve if he stayed here long enough. Even the energy in the area's perimeters where it was not the strongest felt good to James. Should he start cultivating, he would allow the surrounding black mists to enter him, nourishing his physical body.

The three behind him, however, continued to summon their energies to create a protective layer over their bodies, resisting the invasion of Demonic Energy. They did not have Demonic Bodies, thus an overwhelming amount of Demonic Energy entering their body might cause unpredictable results.

After walking for a short while, the black mists around them thickened, so much so that their vision was impaired.novlebook.com The visibility was further reduced due to the thick Demonic Energy within the mists, which was opaque to even the strongest of the Divine Sense. This meant that James was not able to accurately see what was happening at a distance.

This situation reminded James of the Dark World. He could only see things as far as a thousand meters. Anything beyond that was completely blocked from sight.

He stopped suddenly.

“What’s up, James?” Hadrian asked, “Why have you stopped?”

Herbert and Mia both looked curiously at James.

James replied, “This is also my first time at Mount Nothingness. I’m not familiar with the situation here and am unsure as to where the Palace of Nothingness is located. But the three of you aren’t new to this place, are you?”

Hadrian nodded, “That’s right. Indeed, we’ve been here many times.”

As he spoke, he looked at Mia.

Mia immediately took out a map and handed it over to James.

James took the map from Mia, and asked, “What’s this?”

Mia explained, “I am the princess of the Londyn Dynasty. Although my dynasty is not the strongest in this universe, it is definitely one of the strongest in the Realm of Nothingness. This is a map drawn by my family’s Grand Patriarch. My ancestors have been exploring Mount Nothingness since the beginning of time, so we understand the situation of the mountain slightly better than everyone else. This map is the product of many generations of our hard work.”

“I see.” James nodded.

He opened up the map. It was a very big one. The map included map areas within the mountain. Every incident of danger in each area was recorded clearly in the past. However, James noticed that the map was not very comprehensive, as it did not include the location of the Palace.

Mia looked sheepish and answered, “The Palace of Nothingness was where the previous Macrocosm Ancestral God stayed. As such, it’s very mysterious and is hidden in the depths of Mount Nothingness. Legend has it that there’s even a powerful formation guarding it. Even if Ancestral Gods came themselves, they may not be able to walk to the Palace. One of my Ancestral Gods did manage to come here but was met with a monster whose rank was that of the Ancestral Gods. novelebook.com He was defeated and has never come again since.”

“I see,” James nodded gently and kept the map. He said, “In that case, we can only look for it ourselves.”

This area was dangerous for many others, but it was an ideal site for cultivation for James. The Demonic Energy here shared the same source with the Dark Lotus, which meant it also shared the same source with its own energy. He could therefore absorb and cultivate it as he pleased.

He walked straight ahead, followed by the three. They were very sure, as long as they followed James, they would soon arrive at the Palace of Nothingness. If they were lucky, they could even acquire whatever the Lord of Nothingness left for his descendants.

James looked for directions with every step he took. He could only come up with a brief estimation as to where he was.

He moved very quickly. Each step propelled him forward by a thousand meters.
