The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3431-In an instant, James sensed danger. He moved to the outside of the passage and dodged a series of attacks.

The other three were quick to react too, dodging the series of attacks easily.

When the three of them exited the passage, the strange living beings disappeared.

Furrowing his brows, James asked, "What was that?"

Hadrian and Herbert turned to look at Mia as only she was familiar with the area.

Mia shook her head.

The message her brother sent her that year only had a rough description. She only knew that reaching the deepest part of the palace and defeating the phantom beast meant successfully going through this checkpoint.

She did not know the details.

"So, we can only break in." Looking at the stone walls ahead, Hadrian continued, "This must have been left behind by a powerhouse.novellebook.comOnce we enter the passage, the Inscriptions on the stone walls will launch attacks. I'll give it a try first."

While speaking, he moved forward.

Soon, he appeared in the passage. The moment he appeared, the texts on the stone walls came to life. They turned into shadows holding various kinds of weapons, attacking the intruder continuously.

Every attack was exquisite, and their coordination was seamless.

Besides, their attack power was frightening. James could sense that their attack power was similar to Hadrian's cultivation rank.

At first, Hadrian could dodge the attacks leisurely and fight back.

However, after advancing a hundred meters, he could no longer continue forward. He could only leave.

His body already had injuries prior to this. After getting injured again, many bloody wounds appeared on his body. Nonetheless, these wounds meant nothing to him as he was a powerhouse of the Quasi Ancestral God Rank.

"I can't go through this." Hadrian shook his head and said, "They're too strong. I can't get through them."

Staring at the stone walls for a while, James spoke up, "I'll give it a try."

Then, he walked forward.

Once James was in the passage, the texts on the stone walls came alive and became shadows.

Holding all kinds of weapons, the shadows began to attack him. In a short moment, countless shadows launched attacks, making him increase his speed to dodge the attacks.

His body moved forward without stopping. Soon, he reached a hundred meters.

When he reached there, a shadow flashed by, and the moment it flashed by, he suffered injuries. A bloody wound appeared on his chest.

The power of his physical body had reached the Grand Emperor Rank's Seventh Heaven, yet he was injured instantly. novelebook.com Not only did his chest suffer injuries, but his entire body was also covered in wounds.

In just a moment, thousands of scars were added to his body.

There was still a long way until the end of the passage. It was at least ten thousand meters. If he continued to move forward, he would definitely fail. At this time, he tried to use the Space Path to enter space and avoid the attacks.

Unfortunately, this place had restrictions. He could not use the Space Path here. Thus, he wanted to use the Time Path to stop the time.

Nevertheless, the Time Path had also been restricted by the mysterious power.

He decided he should not be reckless, so he turned to leave immediately and returned to the outside of the passage.

"You can't go through either?"

The three of them had heavy expressions.

James had injuries all over his body. Using the Life Path, vitality surged in his body right away and the wounds on his body recovered instantly.

Gazing at the uncanny passage ahead, he fell into deep thought.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3432-James had also advanced approximately 100 meters.

During this time, he realized that the shadows were not actually living beings. Instead, they were illusions created by the laws.

The deeper he advanced, the scarier the laws were. To pass through, one needed to comprehend the laws. Only by comprehending them could one pass through.

However, the laws were too profound. With James' current cultivation rank, he could not comprehend them in such a short time.

"Is it an illusion?" Herbert asked.

His question shocked everyone present.

Hadrian suddenly realized something as he said, "That's right. In the deep part of the palace, there's a phantom beast that can create limitless illusions. novelebook.com So, whatever we saw and experienced may be illusions. If we break the illusions, we can leave."

Mia nodded and responded, "It's possible."

Herbert then spoke up. "Since it's an illusion, all attacks are useless. Let me give it a try."

Once again, he entered the passage. This time, he ignored the shadows' attacks and let them attack him. Nonetheless, his entire body was covered in injuries almost immediately.

"Everything is an illusion."

He did not care about his injuries and continued moving forward.

Not long after, he could no longer bear the attacks. As his injuries were too severe, he was forced to leave.

Appearing outside the passage, he gritted his teeth and said, in pain, "This isn't an illusion. It's real. I can't withstand it for long."

Mia said, "Perhaps this is why this place is scary. Being in an illusion, it's impossible to know that one is one as the illusion world is the same as the real world."

"I'll try again."

James decided to give the passage one more try. Since the passage was an illusion, it tested his mentality.

If Herbert could not pass through the passage, it showed that he did not have a strong mentality. His Cultivation Heart was not strong.

Taking in a deep breath, James walked forward. Once he entered the passage, numerous shadows appeared and attacked him continuously.

Blade injuries, sword injuries...

In a flash, many wounds appeared on his body. He could sense the pain of each attack. It felt too real. It did not feel like an illusion at all.

Nevertheless, he still wanted to try going through the passage.

Ignoring the scars on his body and the shadows' attack, he continued walking forward.

The shadows' attacks grew denser, and more scars were added to his body. Both his physical body and soul had suffered injuries. Soon, his mind became blurry.

'It's an illusion. It's definitely an illusion.'

James only had one thought in his mind: to ignore everything in the outside world.

No matter how severe his injuries were, it was all fake.

Gradually, he could feel that he could not advance further.

At that moment, he had doubts.

Was this really an illusion?

He doubted this. Very quickly, he dismissed the doubt.

Withstanding the countless shadows' attacks, he advanced slowly.

Outside the passage, the three watched James move forward slowly as he was attacked by many shadows.novelebook.com They saw his body covered in injuries and blood.

Mia could not help but shout, "If you can't bear it, give up. If you continue, you'll die."

However, James had forgotten everything. The outside world was none of his business.

As he closed his eyes, the shadows disappeared from his eyes and mind. There was only a bright path in his mind.

He walked forward on this bright path.

The sense of pain gradually decreased, and his blurry mind became clear. He opened his eyes, and the sight before him disappeared.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3433-The passage had disappeared, and it was replaced by the main hall of a palace.

In the main hall, there were three people.

“It was indeed an illusion.” Herbert continued, “It seems that my Cultivation Heart isn’t stable and strong enough.”

Hadrian sighed, “Average people can’t go through the passage. Thankfully, Master is around this time. Otherwise, we wouldn’t have been able to break this illusion.”

James took in a deep breath.

Using his strong Cultivation Heart, he passed through the illusion.

At first, he was on the verge of giving up. He could break the illusion because someone told him it might have been an illusion prior to this.novelebook.com If he were stuck here alone, he wouldn’t have been able to leave even if he wanted to.

It was because he would never relate all of this to an illusion.

James stared at the palace. It was huge, around one thousand square meters. The entire place was sealed, and there was no exit.

“How do we leave this place?” James scanned the surroundings and asked.

The three shook their heads.

It was their first time here as well, and they had never encountered such a situation before. Thus, they, too, had no idea what to do.

When James was confused, a ray of light appeared before a shadow appeared in the main hall.

Upon seeing the shadow, James was stunned and could not help but take a few steps back.

“James, you can really run.”

The person who appeared looked at James with eyes filled with killing intent.

“Herschel...” James clenched his fist and jaw.

When the three saw the person, they also stepped back because the person’s aura was terrifying. It oppressed them.

Besides, they knew the person. He was the Young Master of Mount Heavenly Path, and his existence itself was frightening.

Putting the background of Mount Heavenly Path aside, Herschel was a Terra Ancestral God himself. In addition to that, he could fight against Caelum Ancestral God powerhouses.

The three were suspicious of him.

Why was the Young Master of Mount Heavenly Path here?

Was he here for James?

The three turned to James.

Standing in the main hall, Herschel looked at James and smiled. “James, you won’t be able to run away this time. This place will be where you’ll die.”

As he spoke, a terrifying aura burst from him. James could not withstand the aura and knelt on the ground.

Besides that, under the pressure of this powerful aura, cracks appeared on his body. Soon, his body cracked and his soul was badly wounded.

The hard ground he was kneeling on broke. He was covered in blood and sweat, his expression distorted.

At this time, in the deepest part of the palace, a lady in a white dress was sitting with her long, bare legs on the table. On her back, there were several furry tails.

She looked magnificent, and her appearance was extremely beautiful. She was alluring.

Staring at the scene before her, she smiled, saying, “This guy seems interesting. novelebook.com He has such a history with the Young Master of Mount Heavenly Path.

"I want to see if you can break the illusion even when facing the person you fear the most."

Meanwhile, James was trying his best to bear the pressure in the palace.

At this moment, he understood what was happening.

'Why would Herschel appear here? It's an illusion.'

Thinking of this, he immediately used all his power to fight back. He attacked powerfully and slashed Herschel, dissipating him.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3434-It was an illusion.

At that moment, James understood the situation.

It was all due to the fact that Herschel once said he would not attack James personally. He would only send living beings whose cultivation ranks were two stages higher than the latter to kill him.

For this reason, James knew the situation was an illusion. By using all of his strength, he broke the illusion.

The scene before him changed once more, and the few found themselves in a desert.

James took in a deep breath. It was all too scary.

The phantom beast hidden in the deepest part of the palace was terrifying. It managed to find out what James feared the most and create an illusion.

In addition to that, the illusion felt real. He was not the only one who knew about Herschel's existence. novelebook.com His fellow companions also knew.

The three looked at James.

With a slight frown, Mia wanted to ask James questions but could not bring herself to ask them.

Meanwhile, Hadrian of the Stuarts did not think much of it and asked, "Who are you? How did you become enemies with Mount Heavenly Path? Even the Young Master of Mount Heavenly Path wants to kill you in person."

When James glanced at Hadrian, the latter immediately shut his mouth and did not continue asking questions.

James did not explain anything as he looked around his surroundings.

It was a vast desert, and they were surrounded by golden sand. In the distance, the wind blew, making the golden sand fly in the sky.

“Where are we?”

James furrowed his brows.

Then, Mia spoke up, “This must be an illusion too. The phantom beast truly is scary, creating illusion after illusion. It’s almost impossible to get to the deepest part of the palace.”

“You’re right.”

James feared nothing, but he was now afraid of the phantom beast’s tricks.

One illusion came after another. When would it end?

Next, he needed to find a way to end the illusion.

Nonetheless, they were in a desert with no living beings or enemies in sight.novelebook.com How should they break the illusion this time?

“Let’s walk around the place,” suggested Mia.

James nodded.

They began walking in the desert. Soon, they saw an oasis.

In the oasis, there was a building, neither extravagant nor simple. It appeared grand from afar. The red exterior wall made the manor look eye-catching.

The few arrived before the manor.

Once they arrived at the entrance, the door opened.

A beautiful, elegant woman in a white dress with long black hair walked out the door.

“Honey, you’re back.”

With a smile, the woman hurriedly walked over and pulled James’ hand. She appeared happy.

"Thea." At once, James was surprised. He could not help but reach out and pull Thea into an embrace. "Thea, I've finally found you. You're finally back. Do you know how lonely I was when you weren't around?"

"Silly, aren't I here? Let's continue talking inside."

Pulling James, Thea walked into the courtyard.

In the meantime, the three were shocked. They exchanged glances and had no idea what was going on.

"Bria Callahan?"

"Impossible. How could it be her?"

"What relationship does she share with him?"

"I've never heard of Bria having a partner. If she had one, her partner would be the Young Master of Mount Heavenly Path. He openly courted Bria but was rejected."

The three discussed the situation.

Then, they followed James and entered the manor.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3435-In the courtyard's rest area, Thea clung to James as they chatted.

Mia did not know what relationship James shared with Bria, but she knew Bria would not appear here. She was an illusion.

It was the phantom beast in the deepest part of the palace. It used James' subconscious thoughts to form illusions.

"Master, she isn't real. She's an illusion. You can't be lost in this. If you don't break the illusion, you'll be stuck here forever," reminded Mia.

Of course, James knew it was an illusion. He was sober.

Thea of the Apocalypse Age had already become a part of the Ancestral God Rank Elixir.novelebook.com However, the Thea of this age did not know of his existence.

Nevertheless, even if James knew it was an illusion, even if he knew the Thea before him was fake, he missed her so much that he could not bear breaking the illusion.

After a while, he stood up.

Next to him, Thea also stood up. Confused, she looked at James and asked, "Honey, what's wrong?"

James stared at Thea, her face, and her fluttering eyelashes. She looked so real.

As he raised his hand, a strong power appeared in his hand.

Thea stepped several steps back. With eyes filled with tears, she appeared pitiful. "Honey, are you going to hit me?"

James closed his eyes and thought, 'Thea, I will find you. It doesn't matter who you are in this era. I will definitely find you in my heart.'

Then, he slapped Thea. The slap was so powerful that the moment it reached her, her body disappeared instantly.

The scenery disappeared along with Thea.

When the scene before them appeared again, they found themselves in the dark palace.

"Phew!" James inhaled a deep breath and sighed. "It was so real. For a moment, I wanted to be lost in the illusion forever."

Looking at James with a shocked expression, Herbert could not help but ask, "Master, what's your relationship with Bria?"

James glanced at Herbert. At once, Herbert stopped talking.

The other two were stunned. The person putting on a facade was too scary.

The Young Master of Mount Heavenly Path wanted to kill him. Additionally, Bria, the scariest Callahan, had a vague relationship with him.

Meanwhile, James scanned his surroundings.

They were in a black palace. There were doors everywhere, but they were all closed.

He spoke up, "This must be the palace where the phantom beast is. Which direction should we head in?"

The three shook their heads.

At random, James pointed in a direction and said, "Let's walk this way."

While speaking, he began walking, and soon, he arrived before a door. He then opened the door and entered the place.

In the meantime, a charming, elegant, beautiful woman with a white dress was deep in thought.

'Who is this guy?

'The Young Master of Mount Heavenly Path has a grudge against him, and now he shares an ambiguous relationship with Bria of the Callahans.'

This beautiful girl was the phantom beast that could create illusions.

She cultivated the Phantom Path. She could create different illusions, and the illusions would appear so real that it was hard to tell them apart from reality.

Even though she used a living being's subconscious mind to create illusions, she could not dive into a living being's soul and see everything.

Her interest in James grew. She wanted to find out his biggest secret.

Meanwhile, James, who was walking inside the palace, also had the same thoughts. The appearance of Herschel and Thea made him realize that the phantom beast hiding in the dark was using his fear and yearning to create illusions.

If he could keep his mind clear, the enemy would not be able to create illusions.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3436-When James understood the situation, he began to clear his mind so that the phantom beast hiding in the dark would not have the chance to create illusions.

As he continued walking in the palace, he no longer entered any illusions. Soon, he found the place where the phantom beast was at.

It was a large hall. In the hall, an enchanting girl was sitting.

Clap, clap, clap.

The girl stood up and clapped her hands.

The tails on her back had disappeared. She looked no different than a human at this time. Even James could not tell what her bestial form was.

“Amazing. You truly are amazing.”

While clapping her hands, she walked toward James and scanned him. With a smile, she said, novelebook.com “For many years, you’re the quickest living being to find me. How remarkable.”

James stared at her. He knew that all of the illusions that happened earlier were created by her.

“Who are you? Why are you staying here?” James asked.

He was uncertain if this phantom beast was placed here by the Holy Master of Nothingness.

Glancing at Mia who was next to James, the girl smiled. “I’m sure you guys know a little bit as to why I’m here.”

“Did the Holy Master of Nothingness arrange for you to be here?” James questioned.

At the mention of the Holy Master of Nothingness, the smile on the girl’s face disappeared as seriousness replaced it.

Upon seeing her change in expression, James knew he was right. He knew the information Mia’s brother sent was true.

Every difficulty in Mount Nothingness was left behind by the Holy Master of Nothingness. Thus, James was interested in him.

“The Holy Master of Nothingness is a Macrocosm Ancestral God. In this universe, who can kill him? Is he actually dead? If he really is dead, why would you stay here for so many years willingly?” James asked the questions he had been thinking about.

However, the girl did not answer his questions.

Smiling, she looked at James and said, “You are quite interesting and have great potential. Perhaps you can complete the trials left behind by the Holy Master of Nothingness and enter the Palace of Nothingness successfully. When you enter the Palace of Nothingness, you will understand everything. If you fail to enter the Palace of Nothingness, you aren’t worthy of knowing all this.”

Hearing that, James frowned.

According to his plan, after going through this checkpoint, he would find a quiet place for cultivation. He wanted to get stronger.

With his current Cultivation Base, he could not get to the deepest point and enter the Palace of Nothingness.

Mia's brother, Mago Londyn, was a genius, and he was in the Terra Ancestral God Rank. If such a powerhouse failed to reach the Palace of Nothingness, how could James reach it?

The girl seemed to have seen through James' thought. She smiled and said, "One's strength has nothing to do with reaching the Palace of Nothingness."

Hearing that, James asked, "How do we reach it, then?"

The girl answered with a smile, "If you want to reach the Palace of Nothingness, you need to fulfill two conditions."

"What are they?" James questioned.

The girl responded, "Firstly, it's Karma. Reaching the Palace of Nothingness depends on whether or not you have Karma involved with the Palace of Nothingness. If there is, you have fulfilled the condition to enter the Palace of Nothingness."

"Karma?" James mumbled.

He had the Dark Lotus, and his body was a Demonic Body.

The aura of the Dark Lotus was the same as this place, and his body's power had the same origin as the Demonic Energy here. Thus, he should have Karma.

"What else?" James asked.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3437-The girl said, "The other condition is about one's mentality. If one has an invincible Cultivation Heart, one can enter the Palace of Nothingness. Otherwise, even if a Caelum Ancestral God personally came, he wouldn't be able to enter it."

As she spoke, she looked at James and continued, "You have passed this checkpoint. Go in."

"Here's a reminder. During your journey to the Palace of Nothingness, there'll be many forked roads, and each road of your choice will bring you to different challenges."

"If you're lucky and chose the shortest path, you'll only need to complete three challenges to reach the Palace of Nothingness.

"If you're unlucky, you'll face tough challenges continuously."

Then, she waved her hands and a surge of power emerged. The power supported James and the others.

At once, James and the others disappeared from the black palace.

Soon, they found themselves in a mountain range.

The mountain range was endless with black mist everywhere. novelebook.com None of them could use their sight or Divine Sense to know the situation of the areas far away from them.

"We're finally out." Hadrian took in a deep breath.

Herbert was still terrified as he said, "It was too risky just now. If we weren't with Master, we would definitely not be able to leave."

On the other hand, Mia gazed at James and asked, "Master, what are you going to do now?"

James fell into deep thought.

After a while, he said, "I won't go to the Palace of Nothingness for now. I'll look for a place nearby for cultivation."

"You aren't going?" Instantly, Herbert felt anxious, saying, "Master, with your capability, you can reach the Palace of Nothingness."

Mia followed and said, "He's right. The Palace of Nothingness has the reason behind the Holy Master of Nothingness' disappearance numerous years ago. Perhaps it involves a secret. Don't you want to find out?"

James shook his head and responded, "I don't want to know."

Although he was slightly interested in the matters, Thea was most important to him. The reason he came to this era was to find Thea.

Besides, Mount Heavenly Path still wanted to kill him. Thus, James needed to improve his capabilities quickly.

They were in Mount Nothingness, and James believed that once his location was exposed, the Outsiders would come to Mount Nothingness and find him.

Those who wanted to kill him were all invincible existence in their realms. Their Cultivation Hearts were also invincible. If James managed to pass the illusion checkpoint, the people after him could too.

Thus, he did not want to waste his time going through checkpoints. For now, his top priority was finding a place for closed-door meditation and trying to improve his abilities in a short time.

Since James had made up his mind, the three could not change his decision. Nevertheless, they did not leave. Instead, they continued to follow James.

James found a mountain and cast a time formation on top of it. Then, he began his closed-door meditation in the time formation.

He was not worried about exposing his secret.

Summoning the Five Elements of Genesis, James formed them into Elemental Inversion Formation. At the same time, he used the Black Lotus which took root in the void and absorbed the Demonic Energy in this area.

From afar, the three stared at this scene in shock.

“The Five Elements of Genesis?”

“How could it be? Why would he have the Five Ancestral Masters’ Five Elements of Genesis? Besides, the Five Elements of Genesis counteract each other. One can’t have all Five Elements of Genesis at the same time.”

“What’s his background?”

The three were stunned.

Meanwhile, Mia stared at the Black Lotus in the void and sensed the Black Lotus absorbing Demonic Energy. She could not help but become serious. She muttered to herself, “Could it really be the Demonic Lotus?”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3438-Currently, James had already comprehended each Ousia thrice.

All he needed to do was simple, and that was to continuously absorb the energy of heaven and earth to increase his cultivation rank.

During the process, James could not have any interference. Once the energy of heaven and earth was sufficient, he could have a breakthrough.

He could reach the Grand Emperor Rank. Only after entering the Grand Emperor Rank did he need to begin comprehending the Path.

When he reached the Grand Emperor Rank, increasing his rank no longer had anything to do with time. It only depended on his comprehension ability.

In the time formation, James focused on his cultivation, while the three outside the time formation were shocked by what James summoned.

The two brothers of the Stuarts were taken aback by the Five Elements of Genesis.

On the other hand, Mia fell into deep thought looking at the Black Lotus.

The three waited outside for 50 years.

Throughout those 50 years, James had been cultivating constantly. The three could sense James' aura becoming stronger. novelebook.com Now, they knew that the cultivation rank they sensed when they first met him was real.

At this time, in Mount Heavenly Path, Herschel had been finding out James' whereabouts for the past several years.

James was one of a kind. Even if Herschel left a sigil in James' body, it was quite difficult for him to find out James' exact location.

After a long time, he finally found James' location.

"In Mount Nothingness of the Divine Realm of Nothingness."

When Herschel discovered where James was, he was taken aback as he muttered, "He's good at hiding. I can't believe he's hiding in Mount Nothingness of the Divine Realm of Nothingness. Did you think I wouldn't go after you if you hid in Mount Nothingness? Dream on."

Immediately, he sent out an order.

"James is in Mount Nothingness at the Divine Realm of Nothingness. Head there now and kill him."

He sent out the order and instructed the invincible existences of the Grand Emperor Rank's Sixth and Seventh Heaven in Mount Heavenly Path to go after James. At the same time, news also spread from Mount Heavenly Path.

“Mount Heavenly Path has said they will double the previous reward for whoever kills James.”

The news spread quickly, and soon, the entire universe knew about it.

Meanwhile, in Callahan Residence, Thea was also concerned about James’ news.

She stayed in a detached courtyard. The environment of the courtyard was elegant and rich in Spiritual Energy.

As she sat on a swing there, her body swayed along with it. She looked into the distance while deep in thought. It was unknown as to what she was thinking about.

Then, a girl walked over to Thea. It was Sienna.

“Bria.”

The voice snapped Thea out of her thoughts.

Thea came back to her senses and glanced at Sienna walking over. Nodding her head, she asked, “Was there any news?”

Sienna walked over and sat to the side, saying, novelebook.com “Mount Heavenly Path announced that James has headed to the Divine Realm of Nothingness and entered Mount Nothingness.”

Upon hearing the news, Thea stood up.

“What? Mount Nothingness?”

She was shocked.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3439-Thea knew that Mount Nothingness was a place where even a Caelum Ancestral God dared not enter.

“Why is he so reckless? Mount Nothingness is full of danger. If he doesn’t pay attention, he’ll die. Why would he go there?”

Sienna shook her head slightly and responded, “I don’t know. Mount Heavenly Path also said they will double the previous reward for whoever kills James.”

Hearing that made Thea's face darken as she asked, "Who went out of Mount Heavenly Path?"

Sienna answered, "The top ten Outsiders of the Grand Emperor Rank's Sixth and Seventh Heaven from the last Grand Tournament of the Universe have all gone down the mountain. novelebook.com They're heading toward the Divine Realm of Nothingness right now. Once they enter Mount Nothingness and find James, it'll be hard for him to escape."

"All of them?"

Thea was shocked.

"Yeah." Pleading, Sienna said, "Bria, you need to think of a way. These people aren't on par with Honorius, they're more terrifying than him. If they find James, James won't be able to run away."

After a while, Thea calmed down. She knew about James' potential.

Besides, James had signs of comprehending the power of Karma. Once James grasped the power of Karma, in addition to the Five Great Paths he comprehended before, no matter how many Outsiders went to kill James, they would fail.

Currently, her only worry was that James' cultivation rank was still too low. He would not be a match for the Outsiders.

Nonetheless, she could not do anything about Mount Heavenly Path's chase.

She thought of bringing James to her the Callahan Residence, but James was very persistent about not coming.

"Don't worry. James' potential is scary. Both his potential and talent are definitely the most frightening in this era. Give him some time. I'm sure he can rise."

Pondering for a moment, Thea continued, "It's likely that he entered Mount Nothingness to gain more time for cultivation. Mount Nothingness is a place left behind by the last Macrocosm Ancestral God. It's extremely dangerous. If James hides there, even if many people went to look for him, it'll be hard for them to find him."

Hearing Thea's words, Sienna let go of her worries.

"By the way, have you met James before?" Sienna asked.

Thea was taken aback by the question. She asked, "Why?"

Sienna answered, "Lanathia said that when James first came to the Callahan Residence, he called out your real name. Your name is unknown to the outside world. novelebook.com Even in the residence, only a few people know about it. So, how does James know about it?"

Sienna had always wanted to know about this but could not find a chance to ask about it.

Thea slightly shook her head and said, "I've never met him prior to this. I don't know how did he find out about my name either."

"Really?" Sienna did not believe Thea.

With certainty, Thea responded, "Absolutely."

"He's quite strange, then." Sienna touched her chin.

"Alright, if there's nothing else, you can head back. Once there's news, inform me immediately."

"Okay." Sienna stood up. When she was about to leave, she suddenly remembered something. She asked, "Bria, Wanda should be in Mount Nothingness too, right?"

Bria nodded and answered, "Yeah. It has been an Epoch since she entered Mount Nothingness. I wonder if she's stuck inside."

Right away, Sienna said, "Let's go to Mount Nothingness too. We'll find Wanda and bring her back."

Thea shook her head and responded, "Everyone has their own path and Calamity. Since Wanda chose to enter Mount Nothingness, that's her path. If she's actually stuck in Mount Nothingness, that's her Calamity."

"If you don't want to go, forget it."

Without saying anything else, Sienna left.

It had already been 50 years in the outside world, but he had already cultivated for more than 10,000 years in the time formation.

The Demonic Energy in Mount Nothingness was too thick. Even if he used 10,000 years to absorb the Demonic Energy, he would only manage to absorb a little. The Demonic Energy of heaven and earth would still be a lot.

After more than 10,000 years of hard work, his cultivation rank increased.

His main Path was the Sword Path.

Now, James' Sword Path had already entered the Quasi Emperor Rank's Ninth Tribulation. He only needed to carry out the fusion to form the sigil. Then, he would be a Grand Emperor powerhouse.

The powers of other Ousias were improved synchronously. They had all entered the Quasi Emperor Rank's Third Tribulation.

At the same time, the power of his physical body had also improved during this period.

As the power in Mount Nothingness was Demonic Energy, the same as his body, after the Black Lotus absorbed the Demonic Energy, some of the power would be integrated into his physical body, allowing the power of his physical body to increase unconsciously.

Currently, the power of his physical body had already reached the peak of the Grand Emperor Rank's Seventh Heaven. If he continued cultivating, he would reach the Grand Emperor Rank's Eighth Heaven.

During this period, he did not only focus on one thing. He continuously comprehended the Karma and the texts representing Karma to predict every change in texts.

Since the Karma texts were too profound, and more mysterious than Curse Characters, the deeper James studied the texts, the more mysterious he felt about the texts. The change in the Karma texts seemed related to heaven and earth.

Everything in heaven and earth could be found in the mysterious Karma texts.

Huff!

James took a deep breath and stopped his cultivation for a moment.

At this point, a mysterious power was surrounding his body, and the power was Karma.

It was because he used the Five Elements of Genesis during this time. Once he used the Five Elements of Genesis, there would be the power of Karma. In this period, the power of Karma would be in his body constantly.

The power of Karma in his body was very strong.

However, with his comprehension of the Karma texts, the damage of the power of Karma to him got smaller. The power of Karma could no longer harm his body.

James was satisfied. His only regret was that he had not created a cultivation method to absorb the power of Karma yet. Thus, he could not absorb the power of Karma.

After cultivating for such a long time, James felt tired.

He withdrew the Five Elements of Genesis.

Just when he was about to put the Black Lotus away, he realized that the Black Lotus became more frightening after absorbing a large amount of Demonic Energy. The power that emerged from the Black Lotus was stronger now.

"My Natal Lotus has already become terrifying. Now, no matter how many people come to kill me, I'm not afraid," muttered James before putting away his Natal Lotus.

Then, he withdrew the time formation.

Outside the formation, the three had been waiting for fifty years.

They never left James alone because Mount Nothingness was too dangerous. If they walked around the place, they would fall into a dangerous place and be trapped forever.

Once James finished his closed-door meditation, the three, who were not far away, stood up.

"Master, have you finished your cultivation?" the three spoke up at the same time.

James began walking to them as he stretched his back and said lazily, "I've been cultivating for a long time. novelebook.com I should take a rest."

Hadrian took the opportunity to mention, "Master, why don't we continue advancing? The phantom beast in charge of the illusions has said that if our luck is good, we only need to go through three checkpoints to enter the Palace of Nothingness."

Indifferently, James said, "She also said that if our luck is bad, we will face challenges continuously, and we need to carry out the challenges endlessly. I don't have the time for that. Rather than using this time for challenges, I might as well peacefully cultivate for some time and improve my cultivation rank."
