The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3441-Standing to the side, Mia could not help asking. "Do you have anything to do with Mount Nothingness?"

James looked at her and responded. "Why would you ask that? What makes you think I have anything to do with Mount Nothingness?"

Mia replied truthfully. "I'm asking because of the black-colored lotus you summoned."

Stunned, James asked, "What's wrong with it?"

"Are the black-colored lotus' energy and the Demonic Energy in Mount Nothingness from the same source?" Mia continued to ask without answering his questions.

James nodded. "Yeah."

Slowly finding the words, Mia said, "In my family's ancient books, there are records from the age when the Holy Master of Nothingness ruled the universe. It's said that his evil thoughts manifested into a living creature while he was cultivating one day. The creature's true form was mentioned specifically to be a black-colored lotus.

"There are also rumors that Mount Nothingness' destruction was related to the very same black-colored lotus."

As she spoke, Mia glanced at James.

James asked solemnly. "Are you saying the lotus I summoned was the manifestation of the Holy Master of Nothingness' evil thoughts?"

"Is it not?"

James shook his head.

Although he knew his Natal Lotus was related to Mount Nothingness, he had no idea how.

After listening to Mia, James also agreed that the Demonic Lotus might be the manifestation of the Holy Master of Nothingness' evil thoughts. However, he was not sure how the Grand Patriarch of the Demon Realm's Hadean Clan managed to contain the Demonic Lotus.

Hadrian and Herbert looked each other in surprise. It never crossed their mind that the black-colored lotus summoned by James had such great origins and was related to a Macrocosm Ancestral God.

The news shocked them.

After being surprised, Hadrian suddenly remembered something and said, "The phantom beast mentioned that there are two conditions to enter the Palace of Nothingness. The first is to have a karmic connection with the Palace of Nothingness. The lotus in your body is linked to the Holy Master of Nothingness, so you meet the first condition. I think you'll most likely be able to arrive and enter the Palace of Nothingness."

Herbert interjected as well. "That's right. You shouldn't waste the opportunity, Mr. Caden."

Shrugging, James said, "There's no rush. There is plenty of time. It can wait until I become a Grand Emperor."

With James' words left the three of them relieved.

They firmly believed that James was their ticket to entering the Palace of Nothingness.

James decided to rest for now and relieve his tedious cultivation process.

Fortunately, he could talk to his companions. Otherwise, he would have died from boredom on Mount Nothingness.

After resting for a month, James continued to cultivate.

He entered the Time Formation, summoned the Five Elements of Genesis to form the Elemental Wheel, and quickly absorbed the surrounding Demonic Energy.

This time, James did not summon the Demonic Lotus.

He wanted to merge his Sword Path Ousias into a Path Seal.

After they merged into a Path Seal, he would finally become a Grand Emperor.

Calling them forth with his mind, his multiple Sword Path Ousias manifested before him.

The Sword Ousias appeared as dazzling swords. They were formed with pure and mysterious power.

James commanded them. "Merge."

At that moment, the Sword Path Ousias floated into the air and began to fuse together.

James' Sword Power skyrocketed during this process.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3442-James concentrated on fusing his Sword Path Ousias.

His Sword Path Ousias looked like miniature swords.

Every time he broke through a rank, a tiny sword materialized. By the time he reached the Quasi Emperor Rank's Ninth Tribulation, he had ten mini swords.

The swords merged, and their power combined to form a great force.

The power increased tremendously and became more complex.

After the fusion of his Sword Path Ousias, Heaven's Law emerged and spread across the sky.

The Heaven's Law spread across the sky as disorganized and mysterious looking lines.

Then, the Laws gathered together and formed a tribulation cloud.

The three people waiting outside the formation unwittingly stood up upon seeing the tribulation clouds.

"It's a Grand Emperor Tribulation. Mr. Caden is about to go through his Grand Emperor Tribulation now."

"I'm surprised that his cultivation rank is so low. Yet, he has mastered the Space Path. Who exactly is he?"

The three looked at the tribulation clouds and observed James keenly.

Meanwhile, James also sensed the appearance of the tribulation clouds.

"Perfect timing." James' face lit up with joy.

He had been waiting for the Heavenly Tribulation for a long time.

The power of the outside world was too weak and insufficient for him to cultivate. Meanwhile, the Heavenly Tribulation contained infinite power. Therefore, he could improve his strength significantly in a short period just by absorbing the power from the Heavenly Tribulation.

Seeing the tribulation clouds, James activated the Five Elements of Genesis.

The Five Elements of Genesis floated into the air and melded with the tribulation clouds. They combined and formed the Elemental Inversion formation, allowing James to rapidly absorb the power of the Heavenly Tribulation.

Heavenly Tribulations were terrifying. Every living being was afraid to encounter them as they could easily lose their lives to it.

However, James acted the opposite. He boldly absorbed power from the Heavenly Tribulation.

The Five Elements of Genesis were treasures that have existed since the beginning of the universe. Thus, they could not be destroyed by the powerful Heavenly Tribulation.

At that moment, the power of James' other Ousias also improved significantly.

"Woah!"

"He's really amazing."

"I've never seen anyone brave enough to absorb the Heavenly Tribulations' power. This is definitely a historic moment. It's unprecedented, and I don't think anyone else will dare to try this."

The three people outside were shocked to see James absorb the Heavenly Tribulation's power.

"Boom!"

Lightning arced through the tribulation clouds like a giant dragon. Whenever it flashed, a powerful force would burst forth and shatter the space.

Rumble!!!

A flash of lightning pierced the sky and struck James.

James was now undergoing the Grand Emperor Tribulation.

The power from a Grand Emperor Tribulation could not harm James. His physical strength had already reached the Grand Emperor Rank's Seventh Heaven and was close to reaching the Eighth Heaven.

The lightning flash only caused his body to tingle slightly.

Boom! Bang! Boom!

Lightning strikes continuously descended from sky.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3443-The lightning struck James' body continuously but did not cause any harm to him.

James' Sword Path Ousias were still in the process of merging into a Path Seal.

His Sword Path Ousias converted into a mysterious force and fused above his head to form a circle of light.

The light circle absorbed power from the outside world and compressed it.

The process lasted for about three months.

Finally, James' Sword Path Ousias completely fused to form a bizarre seal.

The fist-sized seal was white and shaped like a rhombus. It was crystal clear, and magical Sword Energy could be seen flowing within it.

His Sword Path Seal had successfully formed.

James finally became a Grand Emperor—the rank he had long strived for.

At that moment, the tribulation clouds dispersed, and the Heavenly Tribulation was completed.

James' Elemental Inversion Formation had absorbed a significant amount of power from the Heavenly Tribulation, and the ranks of his other Ousias also improved. All of his Ousias had been upgraded to the Quasi Emperor Rank's Fifth Tribulation.

James stopped cultivating and looked at the Sword Path Seal that had formed before him.

With a thought, a burst of Sword Energy emerged from the Path Seal. The energy swept forward and instantly destroyed the mountain ahead.

Mount Nothingness in the Divine Realm of Nothingness used to be the residence of a Macrocosm Ancestral God. The space within the mountain range was stable, and the terrain was sturdy.

James' swordsmanship had to be truly devastating to destroy a mountain within this area.

"Huff!" James took a deep breath and exclaimed. "I'm finally a Grand Emperor! In the Apocalypse Age, a Grand Emperor is considered a peerless powerhouse."

James dispersed the Time Formation.

Hadrian stood up, looked up at the approaching James and said, "Congratulations, Mr. Caden. You're amazing. I can't believe you absorbed the power from the Heavenly Tribulation. You're probably the only one who would dare to do such a thing since time immemorial."

After stepping into the Grand Emperor Rank, James was ecstatic. He grinned brightly. "Yeah. I'm finally a Grand Emperor. It wasn't an easy journey for me to reach this rank."

Mia asked. "Are you a Sword Cultivator, Mr. Caden?"

James nodded and said, "The Ancestral Sword Master has a significant influence on Sword Cultivators. Everyone aspiring to be a Sword Cultivator follows in his footsteps. The Ancestral Sword Master's swordsmanship contains the complete Sword Path. To create a completely new type of swordsmanship that's distinct from his almost impossible."

Mia nodded lightly and said, "My family, the Londyns, are quite prestigious in this universe. Our Grand Patriarch has some connections with the Ancestral Sword Master. If you're interested, you can follow me back to the Londyn Dynasty after we leave this place. I'll introduce you to our Grand Patriarch and ask him to introduce you to the Ancestral Sword Master."

James slightly waved his hand and said, "Thank you for the kind offer, but that won't be necessary. I'm permitted to freely enter Mount Sword God. I'm acquainted with the Ancestral Sword Master."

Hearing this, Mia immediately said, "Pardon my insolence. You have a relatively good relationship with the Callahans, so it's not surprising that you must also be acquainted with Mount Sword God."

Herbert looked at James and asked out of curiosity. "Your Sword Path has already evolved into a Path Seal. I've witnessed you display Space Power before and was curious about what rank you have reached in the Space Path. Also, how many other Ousias have you cultivated?"

James' cultivation rank was nothing impressive compared to the three Quasi Ancestral Gods before him. However, the three still treated him courteously and respectfully since they had witnessed James display terrifying techniques and skills.

James was very proud to explain about his Ousias.

He, without a doubt, had the most Ousias throughout the universe. No one would believe him if he were to tell them precisely how many he owned.

Suddenly, James' expression became grim. He looked into the distance and murmured, "They sure are fast. I wasn't expecting our pursuers to come all the way to Mount Nothingness."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3444-James sensed a strong aura approaching him rapidly.

The other three people also sensed the aura and looked into the distance.

Swoosh!

A figure flew through the air and appeared before them the very next moment.

The blurry silhouette gradually became a solid figure.

It was a stunning woman that looked about 20 years old. She wore a white dress and had long, silver-white hair.

She floated in mid-air, looked at James, and laughed. "You're great at hiding, James. I didn't expect you to be in Mount Nothingness.

Mia sensed the woman's malicious intentions and immediately stepped forward and released her Quasi Ancestral God's aura. She stared at the woman before them and asked coldly, "Are you trying to start something right here?"

The woman looked at Mia and said lightly, "It's best to stay out of Mount Heavenly Path's affairs. Regardless of your background, you won't be able to escape the consequences if Mount Heavenly Path holds you accountable."

Mia was terrified upon hearing her mention Mount Heavenly Path.

James walked over and said, "It's none of your business. Step back."

Mia was afraid to interfere in Mount Heavenly Path's affairs, so she obediently stepped aside.

James looked at the silvery-haired woman floating mid-air and asked, "State your name. I don't bother killing insignificant fools."

“Hehe,” the woman giggled and said, “You’re still acting so arrogant despite being close to death. Since you’re dying soon, I’ll let you know my name. Listen carefully. It’s Zenaida Xayah.”

As soon as Zenaida stated her name, the Stuart brothers and Mia’s faces went pale.

Mia stared at her and asked. “Are you the person that ranked first in the Grand Emperor’s Sixth Heaven group during the Grand Tournament of the Universe?”

Zenaida smiled faintly and replied. “That’s right.”

Mia’s face tensed up at her reply.

She knew several prodigies in this age, especially those at the top of their respective cultivation ranks.

Zenaida’s cultivation rank was not particularly impressive, and she was only a Sixth Heaven Grand Emperor. However, she was a prodigy that practiced one of the Five Great Paths—Reincarnation.

She was invincible among the other Sixth Heaven Grand Emperors and ranked first in the Grand Tournament of the Universe in the Sixth Heaven group.

Although she was a Sixth Heaven Grand Emperor, her explosive strength was very close to that of a Quasi Ancestral God.

However, she could only exert strength close to a Quasi Ancestral God’s Illuminated Rank.

The Quasi Ancestral God Rank was divided into Illuminated, Theosophical, and Path Integration.

Although they were only sub-stages, the difference in strength was tremendous.

It was remarkable that she was so close to the Quasi Ancestral God’s Illuminated Rank since her actual cultivation rank was only at the Grand Emperor Rank’s Sixth Heaven.

If she reached the Seventh Heaven, her strength might grow equivalent to that of a Quasi Ancestral God’s Illuminated Rank.

Everyone except James had heard of Zenaida before.

However, judging from his three companion’s faces, James could tell that the woman before him would not be an easy opponent. She was most likely stronger than Honorius Gunner.

Despite that, James was unafraid.

Compared to when he fought Honrious, he was much stronger now.

His Sword Path had already reached the Grand Emperor Rank, and his other Ousias were also at the Quasi Emperor Rank's Fifth Tribulation. He had improved significantly since the fight against Honrious.

Regardless of who came to challenge him or what kind of prodigy his opponent was, James was fearless if their cultivation ranks were below the Grand Emperor Rank's Seventh Heaven.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3445-“Be careful, Mr. Caden. Zenaida is going to be a tough opponent. She's a rare prodigy that cultivates one of the Five Great Paths, Reincarnation.”

“Got it.” James nodded lightly.

He would not back down in the face of a challenge.

James was prepared to fight, knowing that more pursuers would keep coming for him.

Now that his location was exposed, more powerhouses were bound to appear at Mount Nothingness.

However, the others needed a bit more time to find him since Mount Nothingness was full of danger.

With one hand behind him, James stretched out his other hand and beckoned Zenaida, saying, “Do your worst.”

Zenaida looked at James and said, “I've heard a lot about you, James. Recently, many people have come out of seclusion to hunt you down. However, you've managed to kill your opponent and escape every time. Even Honorius, who ranked third among the Fifth Heaven Grand Emperors, died at your hands.

“I admit you've got great potential and will definitely rise to become a formidable powerhouse sooner or later.”

James shrugged at her words and thought to himself, ‘Why do these people say the same thing every time they show up?’

"I don't want to kill you, but the Young Master has given his orders. I've no choice but to leave seclusion and end you. Only after you die can I return to seclusion and strive to reach the Ancestral God Rank to participate in the next Grand Tournament of the Universe."

Zenaida had been a Sixth Heaven Grand Emperor for a long time, and her understanding of cultivation was very deep.

As long as she tried, she could easily enter the Ancestral God Rank and become a Mystical Ancestral God in a short period.

James said, "Have you finished talking? If you're done, let's get started with the fight."

His voice boomed in the air, and a powerful aura emerged from his body.

A potent force materialized out of the Sword Path Seal in his body and surged through his body. Invincible Sword Energy also surrounded the surface of his body.

"Wow. That's impressive."

Zenaida applauded and said, "According to the information provided by Mount Heavenly Path, your Sword Path was not as profound when you fought Honorius. Surprisingly, you've managed to raise it to the Grand Emperor Rank in just a few years. It's no wonder you're the Ancestral Sword Master's direct disciple. Where's the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword? You should summon it. Otherwise, your Sword Path Seal isn't going to be enough to fight me."

Zenaida was not looking down on James but was simply assured in her own strength.

Although James had killed Honorius, she still thought lightly of James.

She simply regarded Honorius as an incapable lout.

With a thought, a purple light emerged before him and turned into a long purple sword. James grabbed the sword, and his aura grew stronger.

Hadrian exclaimed, "Is that the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword?"

Surprised, Herbert took a few steps forward and stared at James' sword to ascertain what he saw. Immediately after, he took a deep breath and said, "That's right! It's the Ancestral Sword God's Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword."

Mia was dumbfounded.

Previously, James had mentioned being acquainted with the Ancestral Sword Mater. However, she never thought James was a direct disciple of the Ancestral Sword Master.

When did a prodigy named James exist within Mount Sword God?

Also, what kind of grudge did James have with Mount Heavenly Path?

The three of James' companions had been in Mount Nothingness for a long time and were unaware of outside events.

"You don't intend to fight me with all you've got? Fine, then I'll just give you no choice but to go all out."

Zenaida knew that James' strength was not limited to what he displayed currently. He would not have lived for so long if that were the case.

She immediately stepped forward and appeared before James. Then, she raised her slender hand and thrust at him.

The force of her attack shattered the surrounding space.

The space around James' body fell apart, and thousands of palm attacks closed in on him.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3446-The space around James' split open, and palm attacks rushed out from the void.

The palm attacks were not formed with her power but came from a mysterious Path Seal. The terrifying force could significantly damage the surrounding terrain if they were not in Mount Nothingness.

James immediately sensed the compelling force.

Although his physical body was very close to reaching the Grand Emperor Rank's Eighth Heaven, he still felt a sense of danger.

A glancing blow from Zenaida was comparable to a full blow from a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor.

James' Sword Path Seal continuously poured power into the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword. At the same time, he also infused the sword with his physical strength.

James brandished the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword, and several Sword Energies manifested. They burst out to repel the palm attacks around him.

Despite his efforts to block the attacks, a few slipped through his defenses and struck his body.

His flesh was split apart instantly.

Despite having the physical strength of a well-trained Seventh Heaven Grand Emperor that was usually invulnerable to Eighth Heaven Grand Emperor attacks, his body was injured by Zenaida's attacks.

"She's strong." James was surprised.

He thought his physical strength had already grown significantly and could withstand the attacks of a Sixth Heaven Grand Emperor.

Zenaida dashed away and looked at the injured James in shock.

"You..." After a brief surprise, Zenaida said with a playful smile, "Mount Heavenly Path obtained news that your physical strength is at the Grand Emperor Rank's Fifth Heaven, but that doesn't seem to be the case. Your physical strength is already at the peak of the Grand Emperor Rank's Seventh Heaven and is close to reaching the Eighth Heaven. If this information returns to Mount Heavenly Path, they'll send a Quasi Ancestral God at the Illuminated Rank for your life."

The strength James displayed surpassed Zenaida's expectations.

James quickly unleashed a powerful vital force from his Life Path. The life force flowed through his whole body, and his injuries recovered instantly.

He had a Demonic Body, so his physical body's recovery ability was exceptional.

Now that he had cultivated the Life Path, he could keep recovering from his wounds as long as he was still alive.

James marveled at Zenaida's strength, saying, "Amazing. She's really powerful. I can't believe a Sixth Heaven Grand Emperor has such terrifying power."

Zenaida smiled faintly and said, "It's nothing to shout about. If we both had the same cultivation rank, I wouldn't stand a chance against you."

She was cognizant of herself and the situation around her. James' current cultivation rank was low, and the only noteworthy thing was his physical strength.

James knew he could not kill Zenaida in his current state. Therefore, he no longer held back against her and activated his other Ousias.

All the other Ousias in his body unleashed tremendous force, which surged through his body. James' aura immediately began to skyrocket.

His aura grew significantly.

Zenaida smiled. "Interesting."

She stood in the distance, looked at James exuding a powerful aura, and said, "Now that's what I call a worthy opponent."

Zenaida held back no longer. She waved her hand, and a white light emerged from her palm to form a spear.

The spear was two meters long, and had an incredibly sharp tip. A few mysterious inscriptions were also engraved on the shaft.

After wielding the spear, Zenaida's aura also climbed to a higher level.

She appeared before James instantly and thrust her spear at James' head.

As her spear zoomed at her target, a force materialized and pierced through the air, aiming for James' forehead.

James' body vanished and evaded the attack at the last second.

"The Space Path?" Zenaida was stunned. After a while, she grinned and revealed her white teeth.

Suddenly, James appeared behind Zenaida and lunged at her with the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword.

Zenaida immediately predicted the attack, made a sharp turn, and attempted to deflect the sword with her spear.

Her spear struck the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword.

James immediately poured all his strength into his Sword Path Seal, then into the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword as soon as their weapons made contact. His sword emitted a blinding, purple glow, and unleashed immense power.

Despite his efforts, there was still a huge disparity between his and Zenaida's strength.

The Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword trembled under Zenaida's crushing force.

James felt his arms going numb, and her overwhelming might snaked into his body through the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword, knocking him away.

While his body flew through the air, the terrifying force of the attack shattered the space behind him and created a ghastly scene.

Zenaida did not give James a second to breathe. She immediately flourished her spear, creating countless shadowy spears in the sky.

Meanwhile, James' body gradually became see-through and split into countless shadows in an effort to repel the shadow spears.

The spear shadows across the sky were shattered in an instant. Immediately afterward, James' shadows merged in front of Zenaida as he teleported before her.

Zenaida was calm in the face of the Ancestral Sword Master's swordsmanship. She raised her spear and deflected James' sword. James was blasted away by her counter once again.

Before he could gain his footing, Zenaida dashed at him.

Her spear pierced James' chest, causing a bloody wound to form.

Zenaida was powerful.

She had been a Sixth Heaven Grand Emperor for many Epochs.

Although her cultivation rank was nothing impressive, the Supernatural Powers she mastered were exceptional, and every attack was extremely powerful.

James was weary after exchanging a few moves.

After his body was pierced, he quickly slashed at Zenaida.

Zenaida dodged the sword impassively.

Seizing the opportunity, James fled to the distance and utilized the Life Path's power to instantly heal his injury.

"Huff!" James took a deep breath.

At that moment, he no longer restrained his strength. He urged the Five Elements of Genesis and formed an Elemental Inversion Formation within his body. The Elemental Power merged and enhanced his strength.

James unleashed the powers of all his Ousias and even activated the Elemental Inversion Formation, greatly boosting his strength.

The fusion of the Five Elements of Genesis increased James' strength tremendously, improving his aura once again. His aura had come close to a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor.

"Wow. You're amazing."

Zenaida praised him, "Your Sword Path Seal was only recently formed, and your other Ousias are still at the Quasi Emperor Rank. However, with your various skills and techniques, you're able to display the strength of a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor. You're exceptional, James. If you hadn't crossed Mount Heavenly Path, you'd definitely be able to rule this era."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3448-Zenaida was not exaggerating when she said that James' accomplishments were widely known throughout the universe.

James had displayed various Paths during his previous battles. He practiced the Sword Path and also grasped the Five Great Paths while in the Katun Realm.

Moreover, James utilized the Five Elements of Genesis to cultivate the Elemental Path.

He had long surpassed the limit permitted by the Heavenly Path and accomplished an unprecedented feat.

However, these were only the things outsiders knew about James. In actual fact, he had also cultivated the Curse Path and Dark Path.

With all the Paths James had cultivated, he would be invincible if he trained all of them to the Grand Emperor Rank and Ancestral God Rank.

Thea had dominated a whole generation and outshined countless prodigies.

James was the same. If he had not offended Mount Heavenly Path, he would have outperformed all the prodigies in this era and gained the respect of many.

Zenaida thought highly of James' potential. Despite the praise he received, James sported a cold expression. He refused to show mercy to those that sought to end his life and was convinced he could kill Zenaida.

However, he was worried that many more powerhouses would show up after finishing off Zenaida. Therefore, he could not spend all his strength and had to retain some energy to fight the other pursuers.

James already utilized the Five Elements of Genesis to form the Elemental Inversion Formation. The fusion of the five Elemental Powers created a new force.

His aura was powerful and had the strength comparable to a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor.

Zenaida's expression became solemn. She no longer dared to fight recklessly and raised her guard. She knew James still had many other techniques he had yet to use in the fight.

She floated in the space, her hands grasped around her spear.

Her spear began to hum, and a mysterious force circulated through it.

The force seeped into Zenaida's body, and her aura rose to that of a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor. At that moment, her strength was almost close to a Quasi Ancestral God.

"Is that Reincarnation Power?" James stared at Zenaida.

She held onto her long spear, and a mysterious aura shrouded her whole body. She radiated with indescribable grace as her silver-white hair danced in the air.

James was very familiar with the power surrounding his opponent.

It was Reincarnation Power.

Zenaida parted her lips and said, "You've comprehended the Five Great Paths. Reincarnation is one of them. If we weren't enemies, we could've been friends that studied the Reincarnation Path together.

"You were born in the wrong age, and I can't bear to see such a talented person like you simply die here. So, I'm going to make you reincarnate."

Zenaida's voice resounded, and a mysterious power enveloped the surroundings.

James felt his body fall apart, and his soul began to dissipate.

Zenaida spoke to him. "I'll send you to a different age. Remember not to offend Mount Heavenly Path in your next life."

Then, she called upon her Reincarnation Power.

James' body gradually began to come apart, and his soul scattered under the Reincarnation Power's influence.

Zenaida's voice boomed though the air. "Reincarnate."

Her voice rumbled like thunder in James' mind and shook his consciousness.

Despair gripped James.

'Am I going to disappear?'

Zenaida's Reincarnation Power was formidable, and he was unable to resist it. James felt like he was about to disappear from the Primeval Age.

He felt a powerful draw pulling him to the distant future.

Furious, James roared, "No!"

He had not fulfilled his purpose for coming to this age. He needed to bring Thea home.

James refused to die.

At that moment, he used the power of the Five Great Paths.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3449-The Five Great Paths' Ousias in his body went wild, and their power combined into an extraordinary force.

The force circulated throughout his body and purged Zenaida's Reincarnation Power. His disintegrating body eventually put itself back together.

"I've also learned the Reincarnation Path. How am I supposed to let someone simply force me to reincarnate like this?"

The combined power of the Five Great Paths ran through his body, and James' aura exploded. As he approached Zenaida step-by-step, he looked like a mighty war god with the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword in his hand.

"I'll kill whoever tries to force me to reincarnate."

James instantly appeared before Zenaida after the words left his mouth.

"Wh-What? How did you nullify my Reincarnation Power?" Zenaida's expression immediately changed.

She possessed Reincarnation Power. This power makes reincarnation unavoidable for even a Quasi Ancestral God. Yet, James managed to negate her attack.

"Die!" James raised the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword.

He aimed the sword at Zenaida and slashed at her head.

Suddenly, Zenaida's body disappeared from sight. She evaded the attack and reappeared in the distance.

Her pretty face was now white as a sheet, and beads of nervous sweat rolled down her forehead.

"What kind of power is that?"

Zenaida stared at James and saw the terrifying force emitting from James' body. The force defied the Power of Reincarnation and resisted attempts to reincarnate its wielder.

Since her cultivation rank was low, she had no idea the power coming from James was an embryonic form of Macrocosm Power. Only one person in the universe could possess Macrocosm Power—the Macrocosm Ancestral God.

"Time and fate are unpredictable factors. If you're fortunate enough to survive on the run for ten thousand years, I hope we have another chance to share our knowledge on Paths with each other, James."

Zenaida knew her defeat was inevitable if the fight continued.

She relied heavily on her Reincarnation Power to give her an edge in combat, but James was immune to its effects.

After leaving a few words, she disappeared from the area in a flash.

Zenaida fled, but James did not pursue her.

He floated in the air and sensed his own power.

When he cultivated the Five Great Paths in the past, he already knew that the fusion of the Five Great Paths' powers would create an overwhelming force.

Back then, he had just cultivated his Five Great Paths' Ousias and their power was still volatile at the time.

Now that they had reached the Quasi Emperor Rank's Fifth Tribulation, they had become relatively stable.

"What kind of power is this?"

James sensed the Macrocosm Power in his body and felt how vast and boundless it was.

Hadrian, Herbert, and Mia had been spectating the battle from a distance.

Initially, they thought that Zenaida would overwhelm James. None of them were expecting him to come out victorious. Neither could they believe that Zenaida, who possessed Reincarnation Power, would be powerless against James.

"Huff!" Hadrian took a deep breath and said, "James is too strong!"

Mia looked at James and frowned upon sensing the power coming from his body. She murmured, "What kind of power is that?"

Meanwhile, the Ancestral Sword Master on Mount Sword God had been watching James closely.

He was a Caelum Ancestral God and was well renowned throughout the years. His Divine Sense could span the entire universe, and he keenly observed James' every move.

"It's no wonder they want his life." He immediately understood why Mount Heavenly Path wanted to kill James.

"If they allowed him to continue cultivating the embryonic form of Macrocosm Power, he would eventually become a Macrocosm Ancestral God. They're afraid he will threaten their position when he gets stronger."

Thea had also been paying attention to James' situation. However, she could not discern that James' power was an embryonic form of Macrocosm Power since her cultivation rank was nowhere close to the Macrocosm Ancestral God rank. She was still much weaker compared to the Ancestral Sword Master and the Ancestral Talisman Master.

Her anxious heart was relieved after James had defeated Zenaida.

Thea murmured, "James is truly a talented cultivator. Given enough time, he'll definitely make a name for himself throughout the universe."

Then, she chided herself. "What's wrong with me? Why am I worried about him?"

After Zenaida left Mount Nothingness, James began to sense his newly acquired power from fusing the Five Great Paths' Power.

The power was bizarre but very unique. James could sense the Power of Time, Space, Life, Death, and Reincarnation within it.

The five forces had merged and were intrinsically linked.

The power could not be formed if any one of them was lacking.

He was still unable to understand the power and had no idea how to properly utilize it at the moment. Thus, he put his concerns away for now.

James dismissed the Elemental Inversion Formation and the Power of the Five Great Paths. His potent aura was gradually drawn back into his body.

At that moment, three people appeared before him.

It was Hadrian, Herbert, and Mia.

Mia looked at James and asked, "Mr. Caden, it seems there's more to you than meets the eye. Why is Mount Heavenly Path trying to kill you? They even sent a prodigy like Zenaida after your life."

James looked at her and said calmly, "To be honest, I'm also not sure why Mount Heavenly Path insists on killing me."

"Huh? You don't know the reason?" Mia was baffled.

James replied, "I only called Bria Callahan by her real name, Thea, when I stayed in the Callahan Residence. Since then, the Young Master of Mount Heavenly Path was out for my blood. If not for Thea and the Ancestral Sword Master's protection on Mount Sword God, I might already be dead by now."

“Although I survived back then, Herschel insisted on sending powerhouses two ranks higher than me to hunt me down. The Ancestral Sword Master did nothing to stop him as he was unable to provide me further assistance.”

It was a known fact that Herschel was trying to court Bria Callahan.

None of them expected that Herschel wanted to kill James so he could pursue Thea.

Mia said in disbelief, “He’s hunting you over such a trivial matter? How can he kill you over a woman? He’s the Young Master of Mount Heavenly Path and will eventually become the Lord of the Universe. His temper is unacceptable...”

James smiled faintly, not saying anything much.

He was sure that Herschel had a better reason for wanting to kill him. However, he had no idea what his other reasoning was.

“What should we do next, Mr. Caden?” asked Hadrian.

James looked beyond the periphery of Mount Nothingness.

Since Zenaide found him, he believed many other powerhouses must be lying in wait outside Mount Nothingness.

These powerhouses might have already entered Mount Nothingness’ territory but ended up lost. That might be why no one else had found him yet.

He did not want to fight others continuously, so his only choice was to travel deeper into Mount Nothingness.

James turned around and looked at the endless mountain range shrouded in black mist, saying, “Mount Heavenly Path’s Young Master’s one order was enough to command all the prodigies throughout the universe to come after my life. I’ve been fleeing for a while now, so they’ll eventually sniff out wherever I choose to hide. My only option is to advance further into Mount Nothingness.”

“Great!” Hadrian was ecstatic.

Herbert was also excited.

The three stayed in hopes of entering the Palace of Nothingness in the depths of Mount Nothingness with James to obtain the Holy Master of Nothingness’s inheritance.

James began looking for the correct direction.

He recalled the phantom beast saying that choosing the right direction was crucial in finding the Palace of Nothingness.

He would only have to pass through three checkpoints if he chose the correct path. If he chose a different path, he would have to face one challenge after another to reach the Palace of Nothingness.

James looked at Mia, reached out his hand, and said, "Hand me the map."

Mia immediately took out a map, which was drawn by ancestors of the Londyn family.
