

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3456

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3456-Three men and one woman sat on the ground outside the Dead City's gate. Their backs leaned against the city wall.

"What should we do?"

"We went around and came back to the gate."

"This shouldn't be happening. How did we end up in the same place again?"

Hadrian, Herbert, and Mia were puzzled.

James explained, "It probably has something to do with the Space Path. The influence of the Space Path here is very strong, and we can't bypass it. We'll have to enter the Dead City to find the solution to this problem."

"...But how are we going to enter the city?"

"Yeah. We can't open the gate, nor can we fly over it."

"What should we do now, Mr. Caden?"

The trio looked at James.

James stood up.

The only way into the city was through the gate. The hint to entering the city must be hidden at the city gate.

James scanned the city gate before him.

The city gate was high and wide. It was hard to determine whether the gate was made with black rocks or was stained by the black fog in the area.

No rules were inscribed on the city gate.

James walked over, stretched out his hand, and touched the gate.

He immediately sensed an icy cold sensation. Despite having outstanding physical strength, he could barely withstand the biting cold.

"Nothing seems too out of the ordinary."

James' brows furrowed.

He took a few steps back, and a purple light emerged from his hand.

The Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword materialized in his hand, and he slashed at the city gate.

He unleashed powerful Sword Path Energy and it formed devastating Sword Energy.

The Sword Energy struck the city gate.

Boom!!!

There was a loud sound upon its impact with the gate and the force seemed to shake the city slightly.

Everything quietened quickly. However, there was not even a scratch on the city gate.

James attempted to break the gate using his various other powers, but his efforts were useless.

James gave up after throwing everything he had at the gate and said, "There's nothing I can do. You guys should figure it out."

Then, he sat down on a stone outside the city and began to cultivate.

Hadrian, Herbert, and Mia were still hopeful and continued to test different methods of entering the city.

After James passed the responsibility to his companions, he summoned the Five Elements of Genesis.

The Five Elements of Genesis manifested in the air to form Elemental Inversion Formation and began to rapidly absorb the Demonic Energy from the surroundings.

Immediately afterward, a black lotus emerged and hovered in the air to absorb the Demonic Energy around it.

James had already formed a Sword Path Seal. His other Ousias were at the Quasi Emperor Rank's Fifth Tribulation.

He wanted to absorb a considerable amount of Demonic Energy from his surroundings to improve their ranks.

After all of his Ousias reached the Grand Emperor Rank, he would immerse himself in comprehending the different Paths.

As soon as he gained enlightenment, it would be possible for him to ascend from a First Heaven Grand Emperor to a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor instantly.

Without deep comprehension of Paths, one would have to stay at the Grand Emperor Rank's First Heaven for a long time.

James set up a Time Formation around his body to cultivate.

Right now, he desperately wanted to become stronger as quickly as he could.

Only by becoming stronger would he have a better chance of surviving the Primeval Age.

James devoted everything to his cultivation while his three companions sought a way to enter the Dead City.

However, after exhausting every method they could think of, they still failed to find a way to enter the Dead City. The city was strange and it was impossible to enter. It was almost as if the city never existed.

Ultimately, the trio ran out of ideas and had no choice but to wait outside the city gate for James to finish cultivating.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3457

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3457-They waited for a few decades.

Several decades passed in the outside world, but James spent 10,000 years in the Time Formation.

The energy in the area was abundant, and the Demonic Energy was especially potent. James' Elemental Inversion Formation and Demonic Lotus continuously absorbed the Demonic Energy from the surroundings.

His Ousias kept growing stronger.

Except for his Dark Ousia and Sword Path Ousia, his other Ousias reached the Quasi Emperor Rank's Ninth Tribulation and came very close to evolving into Path Seals.

However, James did not rush to evolve them and temporarily stopped cultivating.

He dispersed the Time Formation and reabsorbed the Five Elements of Genesis and the Demonic Lotus.

As soon as James stopped cultivating, Hadrian, Herbert, and Mia stood up instantly.

James glanced at them and asked. "How's the progress? Have you three managed to find a way to enter the city?"

The trio shook their heads.

Mia replied, "We've tried every possible way but couldn't enter the Dead City."

James rubbed his chin and said thoughtfully, "This is strange. This should be a dangerous region. If a powerhouse from the Londyn family disappeared without a trace while travelling here, then, we should theoretically be able to advance further."

Mia nodded and said, "That's right. This whole situation is perplexing. If it's impossible to enter the city, then the family member that went missing would've definitely turned around and returned home. However, we've never heard from him again. It's as if he disappeared and ceased to exist."

James scanned the surroundings and said, "There must be a way to enter the city, and we probably missed it. Let's spread out and look for it."

After instructing everyone, James walked into the distance.

He found a place that had a full view Dead City. He leaped up into the air and examined the city ahead of him.

However, the black fog obscured the buildings within the city, and the only thing visible was the city gate.

James advanced closer, and the Dead City slowly became clearer with each step he took.

Soon, he could see half of the city's interior.

The buildings were ancient but extravagant.

James tried to get closer. However, he felt a resistance.

There seemed to be an invisible wall blocking his path. He reached out to push at the wall with all his strength but nothing happened.

Then, he tried to use his power to attack the wall. Upon impact, the invisible wall gradually came into sight.

James looked at the wall and discovered that the wall was composed of mysterious inscriptions. The inscriptions were like intricate lines, flickering around aimlessly.

"It's a barrier formation, just as I suspected," James murmured.

At that moment, the other three saw that James had made a discovery and hurried over to him.

"Did you find something, Mr. Caden?"

The three of them asked in unison.

James replied, "I found a barrier formation."

The trio looked toward the wall composed of countless inscriptions. However, they could not make out the meaning of the inscriptions.

Mia asked, "What kind of scripts are these, Mr. Caden?"

James began observing them and found they were somewhat similar to Curse Inscriptions.

They were not exactly the same as Curse Inscriptions but showed similarities to them. Among every hundred words, there was one that was similar to the words found in Curse Inscriptions.

"It's likely inscriptions from the Dark World."

James made a rough guess.

When he perfected the Dark Scripture after gaining inspiration from Curse Inscriptions, he speculated that Curse Inscriptions originated from the Dark World.

Since the words that formed the barrier formation had something in common with Curse Inscriptions, he theorized that they were also from the Dark World.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3458

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3458-One in every 100 inscriptions in the formation was similar to Curse Inscriptions.

James had to deduce the inscription's meaning just through the few he could identify.

Although it was tedious, he could decipher the inscriptions if he looked through them meticulously.

While James and the trio studied the inscriptions, a strange phenomenon occurred.

A bizarre, black light shone from the city wall, and a few shadowy figures appeared in the sky, gradually forming a mighty army.

“What the...?” Everyone was shocked.

James looked at the shadowy figures above the city walls.

The shadowy figures slowly took corporeal form, turning into black-armored warriors with long spears.

The warriors were expressionless but radiated wicked energy from their bodies.

James realized that they were no longer living beings but evil spirits formed from the regrets of the dead.

Despite being formed from vestiges of regret, their aura was terrifyingly strong.
novelebook.comThe weakest among them was a Grand Emperor. Among them were also Quasi Ancestral Gods and Ancestral Gods.

“Huff!” James gasped.

“They must’ve been extremely powerful when they lived and died with immense resentment to form such terrifying evil spirits.

James did not understand what was happening.

“Attack!!!”

While occupied with his thoughts, James heard a loud command.

The yell was deafening, and the force seemed to shake the surroundings.

As the command boomed in the air, over 10,000 evil spirits charged, brandishing their weapons. Their aura was overwhelming and threatened to crush everything around them.

James and his companions immediately tensed up. Without hesitating, they quickly tried to flee the area.

However, the evil spirits were incredibly fast and fell upon them almost instantly.

An intense fight broke out.

Although his three companions were Quasi Ancestral Gods, they were hard-pressed against over 10,000 evil spirits.

James quickly seized the chance to utilize the power of his Space Path.

Although he could not breach the city gate's space, their battle took place slightly further away from the city. Thus, he could use his Space Path's power to create an escape path for his party.

Everyone sported horrified expressions after fleeing back to the plains.

Startled, Mia asked. "What were those warriors?"

She had never been to the Dark World before and did not know about the existence of evil spirits.

James explained. "Those were evil spirits."

Curious, she asked again. "What are evil spirits?"

James further elaborated. "Evil spirits are creatures from the Dark World. They're formed by soul fragments and live as undead souls."

"However, these evil spirits are different from those in the Dark World. They're formed by the regrets of the dead. novelebook.com If a living being dies with intense regrets, its regret will take on the form of an evil spirit and will remain in the Human Realm."

His companions immediately his explanation.

However, they still had a few questions.

Mia asked. "What kind of place is the Dead City? Why are there so many evil spirits? What's more, they're very powerful. Many of them were Quasi Ancestral Gods and Ancestral Gods."

James shook his head lightly, as he did not know the answer to her questions.

Herbert looked at James and asked. "What should we do now?"

James shook his head again. There was nothing he could do against so many powerful evil spirits.

He finally understood why no one returned alive after traveling this path. Once they triggered the barrier formation, they an army of evil spirits would appear and attack them.

With so many powerful evil spirits bearing down on them, it was hard for even a powerhouse to leave the place.

All eyes were on James. If anyone could devise a plan among them, it had to be James.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3459

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3459-Hadrian, Herbert, and Mia firmly believed they could find a way to the Palace of Nothingness as long as they could enter the Dead City.

James noticed the gazes on him and fell into thought. After a while, he said, "How about you three wait here for a while? Don't go anywhere. I'll have a look and see if I can break the barrier formation outside the city. Perhaps, I might be able to deactivate it.

The three replied simultaneously, "Alright."

James went ahead of them and arrived at the barrier formation again.

The evil spirits had already disappeared. It was evident that their souls lingered in the area to protect the city. As long as intruders tried to break into the city, they would appear and kill any trespassers.

James cautiously reached out to the barrier formation.

The barrier revealed itself. James began to scrutinize the glowing barrier composed of mysterious inscriptions.

At that moment, the army of evil spirits reappeared.

James urged the Dark Ousia's Power and allowed it to surge throughout his whole body. novelebook.com His Dark Power was the same used by the evil spirits.

Sensing the familiar power before them, the evil spirits refrained from attacking him.

James was relieved after seeing that they remained passive.

He continued to inspect the barrier. In total, there were billions of inscriptions. Moreover, the inscriptions shifted continuously and created many variations in just a short moment.

The inscriptions were varied and esoteric, making them hard to comprehend in a short time.

Even though James understood Curse Inscriptions and could spot similarities in these inscriptions, his knowledge of Curse Inscriptions was still lacking.

James floated before the barrier and was lost in thought.

Mysterious inscriptions kept emerging in his mind.

Entranced, he saw a strange image within the inscriptions on the barrier. With a thought, James summoned an ordinary-looking Guqin with a broken string.

Previously, James had entered the Dark World with Emperor Jabari and found a mysterious palace. From the palace, he obtained a Guqin.

Back then, Emperor Jabari played the Guqin and broke one of the strings. After that, Emperor Jabari instructed him to put the Guqin away.

A few moments ago, James glimpsed a blurry figure holding onto a Guqin in the inscriptions. Then, he suddenly remembered he had a Guqin within the Celestial Abode.

He murmured, "What does the Dead City have to do with Yukia, the person Emperor Jabari had been looking for? novelebook.com Could she have also been here before?"

At that moment, a mysterious force was released from the Guqin.

The force triggered the barrier formation, thus the city's closed gate slowly opened.

"What's going on?" James was surprised.

He put away the Guqin, and the city gate closed instantly.

Then, he summoned the Guqin again, and the city gate reopened.

He immediately understood that the Guqin was the key to opening the Dead City.

He reunited with his companions and led them to the city gate again.

Mia asked. "Have you thought of a solution already, Mr. Caden?"

The Stuart brothers also looked at James expectantly.

James calmly took out the Guqin, and a magical force radiated from it, deactivating the barrier formation around the city.

The city gate slowly swung open.

The three of them looked at the mysterious Guqin in surprise.

They asked in unison. "What's that?"

James took a deep breath and explained. novelebook.com "I obtained it from a mysterious palace in the Dark World. It was left behind by a senior named Yukia Dearnaley."

"Yukia Dearnaley? Who's that?" Mia had a puzzled look.

The Stuart brothers were also confused and unfamiliar with the name.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3460

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3460-James did not know much about Yukia aside from the fact that she was a woman.

To be honest, he was uncertain whether she was really a woman since even Emperor Jabari had never seen her actual appearance.

James murmured, "Yukia Dearnaley..."

It was the name she gave Emperor Jabari.

"Let's take a look inside the city."

After speaking, James walked into the Dead City.

His three companions followed closely behind him.

The gate behind them closed as soon as they set foot into the city. novelebook.com The group cast a glance behind them and continued looking ahead.

The city streets were wide but completely desolate. On both sides of the streets were tall buildings with closed doors.

The group walked on the street.

Apart from their footsteps and breathing, no other sounds could be heard in the huge city.

Mia murmured, "It's deathly silent."

James walked ahead of them.

He could not sense any Demonic Energy within the Dead City, and his vision was clear. At a glance, it seemed boundless, and it was hard to tell how long he had been walking down the street.

James turned around to check on his companions.

However, their flesh had already rotted away, leaving only their skeletons .

James was horrified by the sight.

“Y-You guys?”

He looked at the three skeletons in shock.

The three skeletons were no longer conscious and could not respond to him.

James frowned and gently tapped on one of their skeletons.

As soon as he touched it, the skeleton crumbled into a pile of dust.

“What the hell?” James was dumbfounded.

‘What’s going on? We’ve only been here for a short while. Why did they suddenly turn into skeletons?’

He looked at the remaining two skeletons.

He no longer sensed any power fluctuations nor vitality from them.

“What’s going on?” James frowned.

At that moment, a breeze blew toward him.

The remaining two skeletons fell apart and turned into dust, scattering on the ground.

James was the only one left in the vast city.

It was tranquil.

Nothing could be heard in the city, and the unearthly silence was terrifying.

At that moment, James suddenly recalled the city’s name—Silent City of Death.

'Could it be that living beings that enter the Dead City are doomed to die? If so, novelebook.com why am I still alive?'

James could not find an answer, so he dismissed his thoughts and continued to advance perplexedly.

Soon, he arrived in the city center.

In the center was a bizarre altar. It was made of clay and had a strange shape. It looked like an odd and terrifying creature.

James could not discern the altar's purpose, so he did not bother with it. He walked around the altar and continued exploring the city.

Soon, he had gone around the Dead City once.

The Dead City was extremely enigmatic.

A weird altar stood in the city center.

More surprisingly, there was not a single evil spirit within the Dead City. Thus James was bewildered.

'Where is the army of evil spirits hidden?'

'Also, why did the others turn into skeletons while I wasn't paying attention?'

Everything was so abnormal.

"Huff!" James took a deep breath.

He wanted to leave the disturbing city. James turned back around the street he used to enter the city. However, he could not find the city gate.

Recommended Novels