The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3461-James felt like he had gotten lost. At the same time, the exit also seemed to have disappeared.

However, he entered from the city gate, so why could he not find it anymore?

He had cultivated the Space Path and was proficient with it. As such, it was highly unlikely that he would lose his way. Yet, that is exactly what happened.

James was puzzled. Eventually, he returned to the altar in the city center.

He sat before the altar and looked at it pensively.

Falling into a trance, James suddenly saw a figure appear before him.

The figure was blurry, and it was hard to make out the person's appearance. novelebook.com James could only roughly tell from the blurred facial features that it was a woman.

"You're finally here."

The blurry figure spoke to him. Her voice was gentle but ephemeral, as if it came from far away or another dimension.

"Who are you?"

James stared at the figure in front of him.

He tried to distinguish the figure's appearance but was unsuccessful.

"Everyone's gone. I'm the only one left here."

The shadowy figure parted her lips and spoke, seemingly talking to James but also as if she were talking to herself.

"Everything is an illusion. Nothing is real. What is cultivation, really? One becomes two, two become three, and eventually, the three will evolve into a myriad of things. Cultivation is all-encompassing.

"Yet, nothing lies at the end of cultivation. Ultimately, it's all but a fleeting dream."

The figure spoke of things James could not understand.

James asked. "Who are you? What is it you're trying to say?"

“Cultivation is split up into fifty. After discarding the other forty-nine, only one will remain. Cultivation is all-encompassing. In the end, all things will reduce to three, three will reduce to two, and two will be reduced to one. I’m the final one, the unpredictable element, Yukia Dearnaley.”

Emperor Jabari searched throughout the universe to find traces of Yukia. He never would have thought that Yukia was hidden within the Dead City.

Yukia called out. “James.”

James looked at the figure and asked. “What is it, Ma’am?”

“Remember my words. It’s a hint to lead you to the truth. If you can decipher it, you walk in my footsteps on the path to truth.”

As she spoke, the figure started to fade away, and her voice gradually softened.

Eventually, she completely vanished.

James stood there in a daze and thought about Yukia’s words.

Her words were simple but hard to comprehend.

James racked his brains.

However, he could not deduce the meaning of her words even after pondering over them for a long time.

He knew it was information that Yukia had left behind for him.

Yukia predicted his arrival in the Dead City and even knew his name.novelebook.com Therefore, James assumed that Yukia had already known about him for a while.

Moreover, he was currently in the Primeval Age. It was a long time before the age he was actually born in.

So, how was it possible that she knew about him?

Everything was a mystery.

“Huff!” James took a deep breath.

“Everything is an illusion?”

“Find the truth? What is the truth?”

James shook his head, put aside his thoughts, and stopped dwelling on his questions.

He wanted to find a way out of the Dead City and head to the depths of Mount Nothingness to look for the Palace of Nothingness.

James took out the Guqin again. A mysterious power emerged from the Guqin, thuy and the Dead City became translucent. Soon, it dispersed into black mist that blew away into the surroundings.

Apart from Yukia's message, James did not obtain anything from the Dead City.

Her words were profound, and James could not figure out the meaning behind them yet.

After he took out the Guqin, a magical power emerged, and the Dead City vanished, dispersing into the air as black Demonic Energy.

James glanced around and found that he stood in the plains.

The plains were full of various poisonous grasses.

If he had not seen it himself, James would not believe an ancient city had been right at this spot.

Initially, he set out on his journey with three companions. However, he was the only one left now.

James felt sad about the loss.

Although he did not know them for long and had little attachment to them,novelebook.com he was sad to have to spend the rest of the journey alone.

He picked out a direction and continued walking toward the depths of Mount Nothingness.

"Mr. Caden!"

Suddenly, James heard a voice calling out to him.

He turned around and saw three people approaching him.

It was none other than Hadrian, Herbert, and Mia who was supposed to have turned into skeletons and crumbled into dust.

The three quickly rushed toward him.

“G-Guys?!”

James’ eyes widened in shock.

Noticing James’ baffled expression, Mia asked. “What’s wrong, Mr. Caden?”

James asked. “Are you three alright?”

The three of them were taken aback and confused by James’ words.

Hadrian tilted his head confusedly. “By the way, why did the Dead City suddenly disappear?”

James returned their perplexed looks with one of his own.

“Don’t you guys know what happened?” asked James.

Mia shook her head, not knowing what James meant. She replied, “You told us to wait in the distance, so we waited for you to come back. novelebook.com However, you never returned, so we came over to check on you. However, the Dead City was gone when we arrived.”

Hadrian and Herbert nodded at her words.

Her words did nothing to clarify things for James.

‘Didn’t they follow me into the Dead City? What’s happening? Was everything fake? Was it just a dream? Or was it all just in my head?’

James was slightly confused.

He recalled Yukia’s words.

“Everything is an illusion. Nothing is real.”

‘Could her words refer to this bizarre situation? Was she trying to tell me something?’

James could not make heads or tails of anything.

He dismissed the questions swirling in his head and said, “I’m not sure why the Dead City disappeared. When I arrived to investigate it, it already disappeared. thuy Since there's nothing in our way, let's keep moving and find out what kind of challenges await us further into Mount Nothingness."

The three nodded.

The disappearance of the Dead City was ultimately a stroke of luck since they could not enter it.

James turned around and kept moving forward.

The three followed behind him and silently discussed the disappearance of the Dead City.

"This so strange. How could such a huge city just disappear?"

Walking ahead of them, James' brows furrowed as he listened to their conversation.

After walking for a long time, the black fog dissipated, and a beautiful landscape greeted them.

"There's no Demonic Energy here!" Mia exclaimed excitedly.

Hadrian also exclaimed, "I can sense abundant Primordial Energy!"

Herbert took a deep breath and said, "As expected from Mount Nothingness. The energy here is plentiful and contains many complete Paths alongside the Law of Heaven. It's no wonder that this was the best place to cultivate in the past."

James said, "Let's go have a look."

He continued to walk toward the mountain ahead.

The group entered the mountain range and appeared at the base of a majestic mountain.

A winding staircase lay in front of them, novelebook.com leading up to the mountain's peak.

James began ascending the staircase. The other three followed behind him.

Soon, they were halfway up the mountain.

Suddenly, a faint glow appeared before James.

The glow gathered together to form the shape of a man. He wore shabby clothes and a bamboo hat hung on his back. He looked rather unkempt and seemed as if he was farmer.

James and the others were startled by his sudden appearance. They stepped back slightly and stared at the man warily.

The man stood above them on the staircase. He looked down at the uninvited guests, and a smile formed on his rough face.

"It's been so long since someone has made it here." He spoke softly, seemingly talking to James' group.

James did not expect to meet another person on the mountainside. He looked at the middle-aged man that was dressed like a farmer. He asked in a cautious tone. "Who are you?"

The man looked at James. He smiled and replied. "You must be an extraordinary bunch to have made it here despite the Dead City standing in your way. My name is Feivel Nadolski. I'm one of the Palace of Nothingness' guards."

Hadrian, Herbert, and Mia gasped in shock. "The Palace of Nothingness?"

Their goal was to enter the Palace of Nothingness to obtain the Holy Master of Nothingness' inheritance.

Mia asked happily. "Is the Palace of Nothingness on the peak of this mountain?"

Feivel nodded lightly and replied. "That's right. The Palace of Nothingness is situated atop this mountain. However, whether you can enter the Palace of Nothingness will depend on your abilities."

James took a deep breath. He never expected to arrive directly at the Palace of Nothingness after passing through the Dead City.

He already knew about having to complete challenges before being able to enter the Palace of Nothingness.

Feivel smiled lightly and said, "There are three guardians on this staircase. As long as you can defeat all three of us, you'll be able to reach the Palace of Nothingness.novlelebook.com Your fate will determine whether you enter the palace."

Mia looked at Feivel, trying to deduce his cultivation rank.

However, she was unable to determine how strong he was.

“I’ll challenge you.”

She stepped forward and instantly appeared in front of Feivel. Raising her hand, she launched a palm attack at him.

She was a Quasi Ancestral God at the Theosophical Rank and possessed terrifying strength. With a few effortless moves, she could unleash destructive strength.

Countless Path Sigils emerged and formed an illusory palm, rushing directly at Feivel.

Feivel smiled faintly. He reached out one of his hands from behind his back and lightly tapped the air. Magical power burst out from his fingertip and neutralized Mia’s attack.

At the same time, Mia was knocked away by a powerful force.

She backed away and spat out a mouthful of blood.

Feivel grinned at her. “You’re quite strong. However, that alone isn’t enough to pass through me.”

Mia immediately used her powers to suppress the injuries in her body.

She looked at Feivel, who was calm, and said respectfully. “Thank you for going easy on me, Sir.”

“Let’s go. We should head back,” said James.

Quasi Ancestral God like Mia was defeated in a single move. If he were to challenge Feivel, he would definitely be soundly beaten.

He gave up on entering the Palace of Nothingness.

“Let me have a go.”

Hadrian stepped forward, summoned all his strength, and attacked Feivel.

However, he suffered a quick defeat.

Herbert was not discouraged and also challenged Feivel.

Unfortunately, the outcome was the same.

“He’s too strong.”

Herbert sighed and said, “I can tell that he isn’t using much strength, yet he easily defeated me.”

Feivel looked at James and smiled. “Don’t you want to give it a try, Young Man?”

James replied embarrassedly. “Even three Quasi Ancestral Gods couldn’t defeat you. How am I qualified to challenge you?”

Feivel lightly regarded him. “With your current strength, you won’t be able to defeat me even after you train hard for several Epochs. novelebook.com However, I match the strength of my challengers.

“Your three friends are at the Quasi Ancestral God’s Theosophical Rank. Therefore, I matched their strength.”

After speaking, Feivel gave James a once over.

James felt as if everything had been laid bare to Feivel, and nothing could be kept hidden from him.

Feivel smiled faintly. “Although your cultivation rank is low, your physical strength is at the Grand Emperor’s Seventh Heaven. That’s pretty impressive. I’ll use the strength of a peak Seventh Heaven Grand Emperor against you.”

Hearing this, James’ heart skipped a beat. If his opponent spoke the truth, he might actually have a chance of defeating Feivel.”

He had defeated Zenaida, a Sixth Heaven Grand Emperor. He had held back slightly in the fight against her back then.

Moreover, he had cultivated after that battle, and all his Ousias had reached the Quasi Emperor Rank’s Ninth Tribulation. Therefore, he was much stronger now.

He might actually stand a chance against a Seventh Heaven Grand Emperor at their peak.

With one hand behind him, Feivel reached out his other hand and said. "Step forward, Young Man."

Mia, Herbert, and Hadrian looked at James with anticipation. James was their last hope to continue ascending the mountain.

James knew how strong Feivel was, and defeating him would still be tough after he suppressed his strength. He did not hold back and mobilized all the power of his Ousias.

At that moment, his aura skyrocketed.

Sensing James' rising aura, Feivel looked at James with satisfaction and said, "Not bad."

James already had a Sword Path Seal, and his other Ousias were at the Quasi Emperor Rank's Ninth Tribulation. novelebook.com With all of them added together, he could unleash terrifying strength. James' aura had already surpassed a Seventh Heaven Grand Emperor and entered the Eighth Heaven.

By doing so, he could fight against an ordinary Eighth Heaven Grand Emperor without using any other fancy skills.

Moreover, his physical strength was exceptional, and ordinary Eighth Heaven Grand Emperors could not hurt him.

James said, "Please make your move, Senior."

"Haha." Feivon chuckled.

Afterward, he immediately flashed before James. He raised his hand and thrust at James.

His palm looked soft but contained great power.

Although it seemed like an ordinary attack, it contained countless Paths' power. The space around them began to distort, and monstrous power erupted.

James urged all his strength and met the attack head-on.

Boom!!!

Their palms clashed, and their powerful forces collided.

A terrible aftermath burst out and swept across, causing ripples in the space.

They were within the deepest part of Mount Nothingness, so the space was very stable. If they were to fight in another realm, the shock waves caused by their clashing forces would have destroyed a huge area or even half of a planet.

His Blood Energy churned and roiled violently.

The force tore at his body, causing cracks to form all over his skin. At the same time, his body was blasted away.

His body flew off the mountain, and he slammed into the ground.

James got back to his feet with some difficulty and urged the power of his Life Path. His injuries were healed instantly.

Then, he appeared before Feivel the next moment.

Feivel looked at James with his hands behind him. He was satisfied to see that James had already completely recovered from his injuries.novelebook.com He praised James, "You're impressive, Young Man. I know you've got more potential. Fight me with all your strength. Otherwise, you won't be able to get past me."

James gritted his teeth.

He was not expecting Feivel to still so strong despite limiting his strength to a Seventh Heaven Grand Emperor.

James' physical body was in the Grand Emperor's Seventh Heaven. An ordinary Eighth Heaven Grand Emperor would not be able to hurt his physical body.

However, he was wounded in just one move.

Recognizing the situation, James no longer held back.

He immediately activated the dragon bone's power.

A mysterious power flowed out of the dragon bone and circulated in his body. At that moment, his aura began to increase significantly.

Previously, his aura was around the Grand Emperor Rank's Eighth Heaven. Now, he had already raised it to the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven.

However, there was more to come. James was only getting started.

He proceeded to activate the Elemental Inversion. The Elemental Power in his body began to invert, and a powerful force was formed. His aura began to climb again.

At that moment, his aura and strength were comparable to a cultivator at the peak of the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven.

His strength was close to that of a Quasi Ancestral God.

Feivel watched James' aura increase with a smile.

James also smiled faintly.

"Sacrilegious Ascension."

He activated another Secret Art.

His strength shattered his spine, and he rapidly absorbed the power from the outside world to reshape his 33 vertebrae.

As each of his vertebrae was reformed, his aura increased in turn.

After activating his many skills, James raised his aura to a Quasi Ancestral God's Illuminated Rank. His physical strength had also reached the same rank.
rank.novlebook.com As he was, he could win against an opponent in the same rank.

Since his strength was improved by external means, it was not stable. However, it flared mightily.

"Impressive, Young Man."

Feivel praised him as he spoke. "You're only a Grand Emperor, yet you can forcibly raise your aura to that of a Quasi Ancestral God through the various skills and rarities you possess. It's very admirable. I've never met a genius like you."

At that moment, James' energy was potent.

"Go ahead, Senior."

James' voice was loud and full of confidence.

Feivel's hair fluttered in the air, and his robe flitted as he exerted powerful force.

“Let me show you the true strength of martial arts.”

Feivel’s voice resounded.

Immediately afterward, he took a step forward and appeared before James the next instant.

Feivel raised his hand and punched James.

His punch did not contain any Path power.

Instead, it was pure strength.

James chose to face it head-on again. Their fists slammed into each other.

James felt severe pain in his first, and his arm crumpled from the force. The force also knocked him away.

Feivel also took a few steps backward and said surprisedly, “I underestimated you, Young Man.”

James used all his resources to increase his strength. As he was, he could take on even a Quasi Ancestral God at the Theosophical Rank. However, he was struggling against Feivel.

James clenched his jaw and asked. “Sir, may I use a weapon?”

Feivel said, “Certainly. You can use everything at your disposal to defeat me.”

James felt relieved after hearing his reply. He immediately summoned the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword.

With the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword in his hand, his aura rose once more.

Holding the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword, James rushed at Feivel. He swung his sword, and countless Sword Energies emerged, surrounding Feivel from every direction.

Feivel smiled lightly. He raised his hand, and mysterious inscriptions emerged from his palm.

The inscriptions dispersed the Sword Energies in the sky.

“What?!” James looked on in shock.

Watching from a distance, Mia exclaimed. “That’s Nullifier Path! He’s Mount Nothingness’ War God from the age of the Holy Master of Nothingness’ rule.”

Mia recognized Feivel’s Nullifier Path.

It was a formidable Path.

Standing aside, Hadrian inquired. “What’s the Nullifier Path?”

Mia explained to him. “It’s recorded in our family’s ancient books that the Nullifier Path is extremely powerful. It’s capable of nullifying any other Path in the universe. It can nullify any kind of power or attack. Since ancient times, only one person has mastered this path, and that is Mount Nothingness’ War God.”

“Our ancient books state that the War God’s name is Karter Yiorgos. He was already a Caelum Ancestral God during that age.”

James heard Mia’s words from afar. He never expected this supposed Feivel to be Mount Nothingness’ War God.

Karter smiled faintly and said, “This little girl sure knows a lot. She recognized the Nullifier Path.”

James’ expression became solemn. His Sword Path’s Power was easily dispelled.

If his opponent could neutralize any power he used, how exactly was he going to fight this battle?

Despite that, James had to try his best.

James shouted, “It’s your turn to witness me.”

Immediately afterward, his body split into countless shadows throughout the sky. Each of his shadowy figures emitted a powerful aura.

The shadows suddenly merged before Karter, turning into James’ real body.

James swung the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword at Karter’s chest.

Karter caught the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword's blade with two fingers.
novelebook.comThe immobilized weapon would not budge no matter how much force James exerted.

Karter released some of his power, and James was knocked away. His Blood Energy churned, and he spat out a mouthful of blood.

Neither the First Swordsmanship nor Second Swordsmanship could deal any damage to Karter.

James linked his mind to the sword, thuy and invincible Sword Intent surged through his body.

The Sword Intent emerged from his body and shook the surrounding space.

However, Karter stood firmly in place. He allowed James to strike him but escaped unscathed.

Karter opened his mouth and said lightly, "Impressive. That's the Ancestral Sword Master's swordsmanship. It's a pity your cultivation rank is too low to injure me."

James put away the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword and summoned the Five Elements of Genesis. Powerful Elemental Power emerged and fused to form an Elemental Wheel.

"Huh?" Karter's expression changed.

"The Five Elements of Genesis? That's impossible."

He was in disbelief.

The Five Elements of Genesis were the treasures of the Five Ancestral Masters.

The Five Ancestral Masters existed way before his time. When he was born, they were already Caelum Ancestral Gods.

Karter's expression tightened after he saw James summon the Five Elements of Genesis and merge them into a strange power.

At that moment, the Elemental Wheel sped at him with great force.

The Elemental Wheel swept across the sky and caused the space it flew through to distort. Mount Nothingness began to disintegrate under its influence.

Boom!

The Elemental Wheel came crashing at him.

Karter stood in place, raised his hand, and an unspeakable force emerged from his palm to resist the Elemental Wheel.

The space around Kater began to split open. The stairs under his feet began to break, and he slowly sunk into the earth below.

He was struggling to deflect the Elemental Wheel. He ended up utilizing the Nullifying Path's Power to neutralize the Elemental Wheel's Power.

He gave a hard push, and the Elemental Wheel careened into the distance.

His powerful force shattered the Elemental Wheel. The Five Elements of Genesis returned to James' body.

James felt the recoil, and he stumbled backward.

Karter reached out to wipe the blood trickling down from his lips.

"You're incredible, Young Man. You're the first to have injured me after I suppressed my strength."

James gave up fighting after seeing that even the Elemental Wheel could not defeat Karter.

He dispelled all his buffs, and his aura dropped drastically.

After dissipating Sacrilegious Ascension, he entered a fragile state. However, he had mastered the Life Path and could use its power to heal his body instantly.

James walked over, clasped his hands, and said, "Your strength is unparalleled, Sir. I can't beat you so I admit defeat."

Karter grinned and said, "You flatter me, Young Man. You're the first to have injured me. Maybe you should practice a little more. After you raise your cultivation rank, you can come back to challenge me. When that time comes, it might be me who loses to you."

James nodded confidently and said, "Thank you. My cultivation rank is indeed too low. My strength will improve significantly if I can convert my Ousias into Path Seals. Once I improve my cultivation rank, I'm confident I'll win."

James was confident in his strength. After all, he had cultivated many Ousias.

The amount of Ousias he possessed surpassed the limit set by the Heavenly Path.

Karter chided him. "You're a monster."

He could easily sense the amount of Ousias James had cultivated.

In the past, he himself was regarded as a prodigy. Yet, he only produced eight Ousias and had not reached the limit set by the Heavenly Path.

He was still able to stand toe-to-toe with his challengers after reducing his cultivation rank because he had eighth Ousias.

After guarding the Palace for countless Epochs, only a handful of powerhouses had managed to get past the Dead City and reach the staircase to the mountain. However, none of them managed to injure him.

The Stuart brothers and Mia walked over to James.

Mia said excitedly, "Mr. Caden, I'm sure you can do it. You should cultivate here for some time. I'm sure you'll defeat him."

James also had the same thought.

He wanted to take this opportunity to convert his Ousias into Path Seals. He needed all of them to reach the Grand Emperor Rank.

When that happens, he would have to face Quasi Ancestral Gods.

He was helpless against them at his current level.

Thus, he had to improve his cultivation rank as much as possible.

His next goal was to raise all his Paths to the Grand Emperor Rank.

Karter nodded in satisfaction and said, novelebook.com "I'm curious to see if anyone in the same cultivation rank can beat you after you raise your cultivation rank to the Grand Emperor Rank's Seventh Heaven."

It was possible James would completely overpower those in the same rank as him.

James set up a Time Formation without a moment's delay, walked inside, and began cultivating.

He would require significant power to evolve his Ousias into Path Seals. The power suffused in the area was abundant and suitable for him to cultivate.

James summoned the Five Elements of Genesis to form the Elemental Inversion Formation and quickly absorbed the surrounding energy.

During this period, Mia, Hadrian, and Herbert approached Karter.

They began to ask him about historical events and tried to troubleshoot some problems they had encountered in the cultivation.

They even pleaded with him to make them his disciples.

However, Karter ignored their request. He simply gave them a few pointers for cultivation.

Time passed day by day.

300 years passed in the blink of an eye.

Karter spoke highly of James.

"Thank you for the compliment, Sir."

James was pleased to be praised so highly by a Caelum Ancestral God.

James countered his attack with his own fists.

His current strength was comparable to the middle stage of an Illuminated Quasi Ancestral God.

Although he could also reach the same rank before this, the disparity between the early and middle stages was vast.

Karter restricted his cultivation rank to the peak of the Grand Emperor Rank's Seventh Heaven. However, he could unleash the strength of a middle-stage Illuminated Quasi Ancestral God.

James' current strength was on par with his.

The two fought with each other around Mount Nothingness.

James did not use the Five Elements of Genesis nor did he bring out the Infinity Steles. novelebook.com Despite this, he was standing his ground against Karter.

They fought for a very long time.

However, James still failed to gain the upper hand.

He resorted to summoning the Five Elements of Genesis.

Karter retreated into the distance as soon as he activated the Five Elements of Genesis. He grinned in satisfaction. "That's enough, Young Man. It's your victory."

He was sensible and knew he would not win against James with the handicap he gave him. Despite his loss, he did have other methods he did not use against James.

If he were to unleash all his special techniques, it might be possible for him to turn the tides.

However, his duty was to guard the mountain.

It was fine to pull his punches once in a while.

Mount Nothingness had been abandoned for a very long time. The universe had almost forgotten about its existence. It was time Mount Nothingness had a successor and re-established itself.

James put away the Five Elements of Genesis with a smile, then nullified all his powers.

He walked toward Karter, clasped his hands, and said, "Thank you for taking it easy on me, Sir."

Karter waved his hand lightly and said, "You defeated me fair and square. I didn't hold back against you. Go on. You can keep ascending the mountain. I await good news from you."

“By the way...”

Karter warned him. “The two guardians after me aren’t easy opponents. You’ll have to be careful. Your strength and luck will determine if you can arrive at the Palace of Nothingness’ gate.”

James gazed at him thoughtfully, then asked, “What will I get after successfully reaching the Palace of Nothingness?”

Karter smiled. “Although the Holy Master of Nothingness is already deceased, many powerhouses are hiding within the palace. If you can enter the palace and obtain the recognition of the Holy Master of Nothingness, you’ll become the new master of Mount Nothingness and can command the forces he left behind.”

James was intrigued. novelebook.comThe powerhouses recruited by the former Lord of the Universe, a Macrocosm Ancestral God, must be terrifying.

Karter himself was as strong as the Ancestral Sword Master, and Ancestral Talisman Master.

If he could become the new master of Mount Nothingness, these powerhouses would be at his beck and call. With their support, he would not have to fear Mount Heavenly Path.

They would easily make short work of the Young Master of Mount Heavenly Path.

“Thank you for the information, Sir.” James cupped his fists in gratitude.

Karter smiled faintly, and his body gradually faded away. Eventually, he disappeared from their sight.

Mia approached James and said excitedly, “Congratulations, Mr. Caden. You’re one step closer to reaching the Palace of Nothingness.”

Hadrian and Herbert were also thrilled. Hadrian immediately said, “I have a strong feeling that you’ll become the new master of Mount Nothingness and obtain the inheritance of the Holy Master of Nothingness, Mr. Caden.

Herbert began to flatter James, saying, “I’ll follow to the end, Mr. Caden.”

James smiled lightly and said, “There’s no use discussing this now. Let’s head up the mountain first.”

He looked at the staircase and continued their ascent.

James was looking forward to meeting the following guardians and facing their challenges.

She stood above the party and looked like an ethereal goddess from below. She radiated a charming demeanor capable of captivating all living beings.

Her eyes were clear and bright.

She stood with her hands behind her and looked at the group. A faint smile formed on her face. "To be able to pass the first challenge, you four must be a remarkable bunch."

James looked at the woman blocking their path.

He was taken aback when he saw the woman's appearance.

How could such a beautiful woman exist in this universe?

The woman was stunningly beautiful and ethereal.

Her every word and gesture was enough to captivate any man. Even James, who normally resisted temptation from attractive women, novelebook.com started to get nervous around her.

Her eyes seemed to draw people in as if they were magnets, making it hard for one to turn away.

James took a deep breath. After clearing his head, he clasped his fists with both hands and said respectfully, "My name is James Caden. It's an honor to meet you, Ma'am."

Standing behind him, Mia gave the Stuarts a strong nudge.

The Stuart brothers immediately caught themselves and proceeded to greet the woman.

Mia scrutinized the woman's figure.

She was confident in her own beauty. After all, she was the princess of the Londyn Dynasty.

It was her birthright to be beautiful and exceptional.

However, she still felt small before the woman that suddenly appeared.

The woman smiled faintly, and two shallow dimples appeared on her face. Her smile warmed the hearts of anyone who saw it.

James jumped straight to the point. "What challenge lies ahead of us, Ma'am?"

The woman's eyes observed James keenly. She knew that he was the one that defeated Karter. Although the three people behind him had impressive cultivation ranks, they were not qualified to defeat the War God of Mount Nothingness, who held back his strength to match theirs.

She beamed at them. "It's very simple. All you need to do is beat my Soul Power."

Her smile was beautiful and alluring. Her voice, sweet like music from the heavens.

"Beat your Soul Power?" James was slightly taken aback.

The woman in the white nodded sagely. "Correct. The challenge is a test of Soul Power. novelebook.com Your physical strength is at the peak of the Grand Emperor Rank's Seventh Heaven. I shall also limit my Soul Power to the Grand Emperor Rank's Seventh Heaven to fight you. After you defeat me, you can continue ascending the mountain. If you lose, you may leave or choose to cultivate here and keep challenging me until you succeed."

“Huff.” James took a deep breath.

‘I need to fight her with Soul Power?’

One’s soul was fragile and would be badly damaged if it were hit in the slightest. It would be difficult to recover from injuries to the soul.

He had never learned any Supernatural Powers that used Soul Power, thuy so he was not sure how to fight her.

Even so, James was confident in his Soul Power.

Long ago, he had merged his soul into his flesh and bones. Thus, his Soul Power increased accordingly as his physical strength improved.

Therefore, he was not afraid to face the challenge.
