The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3471-James did not know any attacking skills that utilized Soul Power, but he felt it was still possible to defend against it. It would not be easy for the woman before him to defeat him.

James was still confident.

He looked at the woman with a faint smile and said, "The first guardian at the first checkpoint was the former War God of Mount Nothingness, Karter Yiorgos. May I also know your name, Ma'am?"

James was curious about the woman's identity.

He knew ordinary people would not be chosen as guardians of the Palace of Nothingness. novelebook.com However, he had no idea who the woman could be.

The woman looked at James with a playful smile and said, "I'll tell you if you can defeat me. If you can't withstand my attack, you're not qualified to know my identity."

Hearing this, James stretched out his hand and beckoned her to attack, saying, "Since that's the case, please make your move."

James had never fought with another cultivator's soul before.

Detaching one's soul from the physical body was a dangerous move.

If not careful, a cultivator would die if others attacked their soul.

Most living beings and cultivators would avoid detaching their souls from the physical body.

Under normal circumstances, one's soul would only roam free after one's physical body was destroyed and no longer had a suitable vessel.

The woman in white knew that someone who could get past Karter's checkpoint had to be extraordinary.

Ever since the death of the Holy Master of Nothingness, she had been guarding the Palace of Nothingness. However, no one had ever passed Karter's challenge to reach her.

With her hands behind her, a bright smile beamed on her pretty face.

An invisible Soul Power morphed out and formed a sharp blade, charging at James.

It was a soul attack.

Soul Power was different from other powers. It could not harm the physical body and only dealt damage to the opponent's soul.

James could sense that the soul attack was relatively mediocre. Thus, he did not dodge and wanted to face it head-on.

The attack struck him and attacked his soul.

At that moment, James felt pain spreading throughout his body.

His body stumbled a few steps.

However, he did not sustain any severe injuries.

James mobilized the Life Path's Power and healed his physical body and soul.

"Woah, that's amazing."

The woman in white looked at James. As soon as she attacked James, she noticed something unusual about him.

"I've never met anyone who could integrate the soul into flesh and bones. Throughout the ages, you're the first one. I've never heard of such a cultivation method."

The woman praised James highly.

Her first attack was just to test him out.

If James could not even take that blow, he would not be qualified to fight her.

She asked, "What kind of cultivation method do you practice?"

James had piqued her curiosity.

Despite being a powerhouse, she had never heard of a cultivation method that allowed one to integrate the soul into the physical body.

"Hehe," James chuckled.

The cultivation method was not from the Illuminated World.

"My cultivation method isn't from the Illuminated World. I've entered the Dark World and had to use a cultivation method of the Dark World to survive. novelebook.com I had to integrate my soul into my body to absorb and refine Dark Power."

“The Dark World?”

The woman frowned instantly after hearing James mention the Dark World.

She stared at James pensively. She never expected James to have practiced a cultivation method from the Dark World and to have cultivated a Dark Ousia.

James sensed the woman’s abnormal gaze and asked, “What’s the matter, Ma’am?”

The woman did not respond. With a thought, a shadowy figure emerged from her body.

The figure was the woman’s soul.

The soul was translucent.

Her soul appeared in front of her physical body. Then, she looked at James and said, “Make your move, Young Man.”

James would never choose to detach his soul from his body unless absolutely necessary. He looked at the woman in the white dress and said, “Please go ahead, Ma’am.”

The woman’s soul rushed toward James at lightning speed, appearing before James instantly. Her palm was raised, and it thrust at James’ body. Her attack was swift and decisive.

James knew he would be injured if the palm attack struck him. Thus, he dodged instinctively.

The woman said, “That’s not acceptable, Young Man. This challenge is to test your Soul Power.”

James took a deep breath. Then, the soul in his body emerged and gathered into a shadowy figure before him.

The woman’s soul launched an attack as soon as James’ soul appeared.

James’ soul rushed over to face it head-on.

The two souls' palms clashed.

There were no fancy tricks, just pure Soul Power.

The force blew both souls away.

James' soul showed signs of dispersing, and he felt a sharp pain.

His soul became more translucent and fluttered with the breeze as if it was about to disappear.

The woman in the white dress was also affected by the blow. Her soul's face showed a pained expression. novelebook.com After suppressing her Soul Power, she was not much stronger than James.

Seeing this, James was relieved.

He could tell the opponent's soul was not very strong.

The woman shouted, "Good. Let's have another go."

Then, her soul made another attack.

An invisible force swept over and formed a magnetic field. James felt great discomfort standing within the magnetic field.

He wanted to break free but was to no avail.

It felt like a huge world was crushing his soul.

His soul dispersed instantly and returned to his physical body.

Feeling his soul abruptly reentering his body, James stumbled backward and fell to the ground. Then, he spat out a mouthful of blood.

The woman's soul returned to her. She looked at James with a faint smile and said, "Not bad. It's rare for someone at your cultivation rank to have Soul Power at such a high level."

James stood up from the ground in embarrassment.

He thought he could stand a chance against her with his Soul Power. Even if he could not win, he would not go down so easily. Unfortunately, it did not go as expected, and he was defeated almost instantly.

"Thanks for your mercy, Ma'am."

James cupped his hands together.

He knew that the woman was going easy on him. Otherwise, his soul would have been destroyed.

The woman waved her hand slightly and said, "It's not a death duel. There's no need for me to take your life. novelebook.com You're still far from defeating me at your current Soul Power's strength. You still need to continue working hard."

After passing the first checkpoint, James did not give up halfway.

He decided to cultivate here for a while.

Under normal circumstances, one's Soul Power would be linked to one's cultivation rank. The higher the cultivation rank, the higher the Soul Power.

However, James' soul was linked to his physical body. Thus, his Soul Power improved according to his physical strength.

James' gaze stayed on the woman as he fell into thought.

Suddenly, he clasped his fists and asked, "Could you teach me how to cultivate Soul Power?"

The woman was stunned momentarily. Then, she burst out laughing and said, "You're really something. novelebook.com Well, sure. Since you've made it here, it must mean you have fate with Mount Nothingness. I don't really want to keep guarding this place alone. I'm also hoping for someone to finally enter the Palace of Nothingness."

Overjoyed, James replied, "Thank you, Ma'am."

James casually waved his hand, and mysterious power emerged to form Time Inscriptions.

The woman looked at James in shock. She could not help but praise him, "You've comprehended the Time Path? You're amazing."

James chuckled in response.

At that moment, his companions also entered the Time Formation.

The woman before them was an extremely powerful cultivator who had mastered countless top Supernatural Powers. They would benefit greatly if they could also learn a little from her while she taught James.

The woman stretched out her hand, and her slender finger touched James' forehead.

At that moment, a set of cultivation methods surfaced in James' mind.

It was a cultivation method for the soul.

James sat in a lotus position and quietly proceeded with the cultivation method.

At his current cultivation rank, he could easily comprehend it.

The cultivation method explained the soul in detail.

Usually, one's soul would improve according to one's cultivation rank. However, there were some exceptions. For example, a few with strong willpower, a stable Cultivation Heart, and strong physical strength could also have strong Soul Power.

The cultivation method was aimed at using these few elements to enhance Soul Power.

Through the cultivation, James could improve his Cultivation Heart, willpower, and physical strength.

"Huff!" James took a deep breath.

The woman in the white dress crossed her hands behind her and smiled faintly.

"It's a very simple cultivation method. Anyone can master it easily. However, to really cultivate it to the extreme, you must also improve your Cultivation Heart and willpower.

"Simply put, it's a cultivation method that stabilizes one's Cultivation Heart and enhances one's willpower.

"If you have a strong Cultivation Heart and willpower, novelebook.com your Soul Power will also become stronger."

James nodded lightly and said, "I understand."

"This place isn't suitable for cultivating. I'll bring you somewhere better."

The woman smiled and casually waved her hand. A powerful force engulfed James, bringing him into the air.

Then, James disappeared.

The next moment, he appeared in an unfamiliar place.

James glanced around.

It was a bizarre world.

There were raging fires, lightning flashes, and some glaciers in this world.

Surprised, James asked, "Where is this place, Ma'am?"

"It's my world," The woman smiled lightly and said. "I created this world with Heaven's Law. I specially constructed it for you to enhance your Soul Power.

"Go on, Young Man. After you get through all the checkpoints in this world, your Soul Power will be raised to a level where you can fight me. Perhaps, you may even defeat me."

The woman in the white dress encouraged him.

Immediately afterward, her body vanished from James' sight.

James looked ahead and saw the sea of flames before him. He walked toward it without any hesitation.

At that moment, his soul began to tremble.

His soul felt the sweltering heat, and the burning sensation made him feel miserable.

James wanted to leave, but he endured it.

He knew it was a test to improve his Cultivation Heart and willpower.

With a strong Cultivation Heart and willpower, his Soul Power would also grow.

It would be beneficial to his cultivation.

James took a deep breath. He endured the pain in his soul and advanced.

His consciousness began to cloud, and his vision blurred.

The burning flames overlapped in his sight.

James lost his balance and fell feebly to the ground.

The woman in the white dress floated above him.

Seeing James falling to the ground, she frowned slightly and said, "Was I overestimating him? No one in Mount Nothingness could endure it, but could he persevere through it?"

The woman began to doubt James' abilities.

At that moment, James was lying feebly on the ground.

He had entered the inferno but could not withstand them anymore.

"I must persevere through this!"

A strong hope rose in his heart, and James encouraged himself.

He had offended Mount Heavenly Path, and they were after his life. He would have to obtain the support of a strong force if he wanted to survive.

Mount Heavenly Path was this universe's most potent and terrifying force. No other force could compete against it.

If anyone could come close to standing on the same footing as Mount Heavenly Path, it would be Mount Nothingness.

The flames surrounded him, and he did not know how long he had been within them. Although he had practiced the Time Path, he could not perceive time in the flames.

It felt as if only a short moment had passed but also as if it had already been an eternity.

James' body was covered in wounds.

However, holding onto his faith, he kept moving forward.

Just as he thought he could not take them any longer, the flames disappeared.

A waft of fragrant Spiritual Energy swept toward him. It entered his body, immediately refreshing him. All the previous fatigue he felt vanished, and he was rejuvenized.

The lightning almost dispersed and destroyed James' soul.

In the sky, the woman in the white dress looked at James with a pleased expression. She nodded lightly and said, novelebook.com "Not bad. Now, it depends on how long you can persist."

However, James persisted with great willpower.

Each time his soul was attacked, he relied on his strong willpower to persist. His soul would get a respite, and his Soul Power improved unconsciously.

After a long time, he finally made it through the lightning storm.

Ahead of him was a snowy region.

James strode directly toward it.

As soon as he entered, snow fell on his body and sank deep into his soul, causing damage to his soul.

A cold wave permeated his body and froze his body into an ice sculpture.

He stayed frozen for a long time.

After a very long time, James' fingertips began to move, and the ice melted away. James continued forward.

However, he gritted his teeth and persisted.

Ultimately, he slowly grew accustomed to the pain from the challenges and overcame the next few easily.

James saw a strange place ahead of him.

He walked over and felt overwhelming Sword Energy sweeping toward him, striking his soul.

However, James ignored the attacks and continued to advance.

Soon, the surroundings disappeared, and he reappeared at the staircase on Mount Nothingness.

The woman in white stood before him.

James looked around him in confusion. He began to doubt everything he had experienced.

James asked puzzledly, "Was it an illusion or a real experience?"

The woman in the white dress had a bright smile with two shallow dimples on her cheeks. She looked charming, enough to warm up one's heart.

"Good job."

The woman in the white dress opened her mouth and said smilingly, "This is a test formulated by the Holy Master of Nothingness to train his disciples. novelebook.com I used it to train you. You've perfectly completed the test and have surpassed me. I would not be able to complete this test if I suppressed my cultivation rank to match yours."

Taken aback, James asked, "So, does that mean I won't have to challenge you anymore and can continue ascending the mountain?"

The woman in the white dress nodded and said, "Your Cultivation Heart and willpower are top-notch. Even a weakling with low potential can become a top-level powerhouse if they possess your Cultivation Heart and willpower. Your current mentality can help you become a Caelum Ancestral God."

The woman in the white dress gave high praise to James.

Immediately afterward, she stepped aside to reveal the stairs behind her. Then, she said, "You can continue ascending the staircase. The next guardian won't be as approachable as me."

The trials matched the challenger's cultivation rank and Soul Power. The higher one's cultivation rank, the tougher the trials.

Therefore, she knew that her Soul Power would be inferior to James' after she suppressed her cultivation rank.

She chose to admit defeat and allow James past her checkpoint.

James was relieved. He never expected to pass the second checkpoint so easily.

Karter said that the guardians after him were going to be tough opponents.novelebook.com However, it seemed they were not that difficult to talk to.

"Ma'am, I still don't know your name."

James did not leave hurriedly but instead asked for her name with a smile.

He knew that the guardians of the Palace of Nothingness were extraordinary people. However, he was clueless about the woman's identity.

The woman smiled and replied, "My name is Xosha Meredith."

Mia's expression immediately changed.

"Xosha?! The Annihilation God of Mount Nothingness, Xosha Meredith?"

James was slightly taken aback.

Who was Xosha Meredith? Why was Mia's reaction so strong?

However, Xosha smiled faintly in response before disappearing from their sight.

James looked at Mia and asked curiously, "Who was she?"

The Stuart brothers knew very little about Mount Nothingness and were unfamiliar with the powerhouses of Mount Nothingness. The two turned to James with confused expressions.

Mia took a deep breath and said slowly, "Xosha Meredith was a well-known powerhouse when the Holy Master of Nothingness ruled the universe. She was Mount Nothingness' Annihilation God. As soon as a smile formed on her face, her opponents would already be killed. Many powerhouses died in her hands."

Mia was unsure of the details.

From her family's ancient books, Xosha was recorded as a terrifying powerhouse that had mastered many Supernatural Powers and Secret Arts.

James did not ponder on it for too long. He looked at the stairs ahead and said, "Let's keep going. There's another checkpoint ahead. After we pass the challenge, we'll arrive at the gate of Mount Nothingness."

Hearing this, the trio were excited.

They could finally reach the Palace of Nothingness.

Since the age of the Holy Master of Nothingness fell, no powerhouse had ever reached the Palace of Nothingness.

James was about to become the first person to reach the Palace of Nothingness.novelebook.com The trio were looking forward to it.

"Please take the lead, Mr. Caden." Hadrian gestured for James to go up the stairs.

James stepped forward.

They had already climbed the majority of the stairs.

There was only a short distance before they reached the mountain peak.

James traveled steadily, not rushing the journey. Before he knew it, he had arrived at the mountaintop.

At the end of the staircase was an open space surrounded by a white mist. The place had abundant Primordial Energy. Within the white mist was a majestic palace.

Just as James was about to take the final step, a light burst out.

Swoosh!

The light gathered to form a figure.

It was an old man.

The old man wore a blue robe. Although he had white hair, he had a ruddy complexion. His face looked to be of a man in his thirties.

He stood atop the staircase with his hands behind him. He seemed like an invincible powerhouse, emitting a domineering aura.

His gaze was fixated on James.

James looked at the old man. He knew this person was the last guardian of the Palace of Nothingness.

He clasped his fists and said respectfully, "My name is James Caden. It's an honor to meet you, Sir."

The old man looked at James and said sentimentally, "Time flies. Eighty million Epochs had passed before I knew it. Finally, a group of living beings has shown up after so long."

Eighty million Epochs?

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3477

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3477-James was stunned by his words.

He knew that an Epoch was 4.9 billion years.

Eighty million Epochs sounded like an eternity.

It was hard for him to imagine how much time had passed since the destruction of the Holy Master of Nothingness' age.

James' companions also stared at the old man.

They waited for him to state the challenge.

James recollected himself from the shock and asked respectfully, "What is the last challenge, Sir?"

The old man looked at James and replied slowly, "Your character."

James was taken aback. "My character?"

The old man nodded lightly and said, "The challenge is straightforward. It's a test on your character in the past and not you in the present."

James was confused.

At that moment, the old man casually waved his hand, and a powerful force emerged from his palm.

The force submerged into James' body. At that moment, James' experiences from his birth to the present emerged before them.

James inspected his past, which was flashing before his eyes. He watched it as if it was a movie.

Seeing everything in the past, James felt emotional. He had gone through so much without even realizing it. From a soldier in Sol to becoming the Dragon King, then to the restoration of Spiritual Energy on Earth.

However, many of his memories did not appear in the flashbacks before him.

For example, how James obtained some of his treasures and how he traveled to the Primeval Age from the future was not shown. Also, the collapse of the Primeval Age and how the Human Race's powerhouses wanted to destroy the Heavenly Path were excluded.

These things would attract powerful Karma. Although the old man was powerful, he could not read into these experiences of James.

The old man quietly reviewed James' life experiences.

Afterward, he nodded slightly and said, "You've passed the challenge. You can proceed."

"I passed?" James was surprised.

The old man nodded lightly and said, "The Palace of Nothingness' affairs would greatly affect many other things. The Holy Master of Nothingness set up these checkpoints to prevent his inheritance from being obtained by some treacherous and evil people.

"My challenge is very simple. I have to verify the challenger's character through his past experiences. Only those with great compassion and a big heart can pass through my checkpoint.

"Although you don't have great compassion, you have a big heart. You barely passed, but you made it."

Hearing this, James was relieved.

He was not expecting the challenge to be so simple.

Why did Xosha say that the last guardian was difficult to talk to?

Without overthinking it, James cupped his fist and said, "Thank you for letting me pass, Sir."

The old man smiled lightly and disappeared without any further words.

"You passed! You passed the last checkpoint, Mr. Caden!"

As soon as the old man disappeared, the Stuart brothers threw their hands into the air and rejoiced. At that moment, they looked nothing like Quasi Ancestral Gods but like excited children.

Even Mia was overjoyed.

Were they finally going to enter the Palace of Nothingness?

James was also looking forward to it. He glanced ahead and strode forward with anticipation.

After taking a few steps, they arrived at the mountaintop.

As soon as they reached the peak, the white mist dissipated, and the extravagant palace appeared in sight.

A huge stone tablet was in front of the place with several ancient words engraved on it—Palace of Nothingness.

"Alright." James nodded, then strode toward the extravagant palace.

The palace was resplendent with gold and jade. It glowed brightly and was very mesmerizing.

The golden gate was shut.

James walked over to the gate and gently pushed it.

However, the gate did not budge at all.

James exerted more force to push it but was to no avail.

He frowned. "It won't open."

Herbert walked over and fell into thought. "The phantom beast mentioned that one would need a great connection with Mount Nothingness to enter the Palace of Nothingness."

Hadrian nodded and said, "Yeah. It won't be easy to enter the Palace of Nothingness even after clearing the challenges to arrive at the gate."

James thought for a while and murmured, "Karma?"

At that moment, he thought of Karma Power.

There was powerful Karma Power in his body. In the past, the Karma Power was attached to his body's surface, and everyone could sense it on him.

He coincidentally came up with Karma Scripts. Then, he deduced and studied the Karma Scripts. He comprehended the Karma Scripts and managed to hide the Karma Power in his body.

James closed his eyes and tried to sense the Karma Power in his body.

At that moment, Karma Power surrounded him.

After Karma Power emerged from James’ body, his body trembled. Demonic Energy also materialized out of his body.

The Demonic Energy soared into the sky like a giant dragon.

Immediately afterward, the Demonic Lotus manifested and hovered above the Palace of Nothingness.
