The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3491-Meanwhile, the three people before him were some of the most renowned figures in the universe many Epochs ago. As core members of Mount Nothingness, they had long reached the peak of the Caelum Ancestral God Rank and were only a step away from reaching the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank. Hence, they could clearly sense the power of the universe's embryonic form. Upon seeing the Five Great Paths, they immediately understood.

"I understand now."

Karter took a deep breath.

James stored the Five Great Paths' Path Seal away and asked, "Do you know why Mount Heavenly Path is pursuing me?"

Karter asked, "Your Holiness, do you know why there can only be one Macrocosm Ancestral God despite the number of Caelum Ancestral Gods we have in this universe?"

James fell into deep thought and said, "Because a single person has occupied all the providence of the world, making it impossible for others to cross into the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank. Unless the Macrocosm Ancestral God dies and the providence of the world returns to the universe, novelebook.com other living beings will never have the opportunity of crossing into the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank."

Karter nodded slightly. What James said was key.

"You're right. However, there's something you missed."

James asked, "And what is that?"

Karter said, "To become a Macrocosm Ancestral God, one needs to master a certain power."

James asked puzzledly, "What power?"

Karter explained, "Macrocosm Power."

"Macrocosm Power?" James was puzzled as he had never heard of this before.

Wystan took a deep breath and said, "Macrocosm Power... Since the creation of the universe, only two people have mastered the power. They're the Lord of Nothingness and Hadad Theophanes of Mount Heavenly Path. Once you master Macrocosm Power, you'll become a Macrocosm Ancestral God."

Xosha nodded slightly and said, "That's right. However, no one knows exactly how to master Macrocosm Power. What we currently know is that only when the Macrocosm Ancestral God dies and the providence returns to the universe can other living beings learn of the cultivation method for cultivating Macrocosm Power."

Wystan continued, "Mount Heavenly Path is pursuing you because you've mastered the embryonic form of Macrocosm Power."

"Me?"

Stunned, James asked, "When have I mastered Macrocosm Power?"

Wystan explained, "You've cultivated the Five Great Paths. As they interact with one another, the embryonic form of Macrocosm Power is created. However, your comprehension of the Five Great Paths isn't profound enough for Macrocosm Power to truly form. Once you master the Five Great Paths to perfection, Macrocosm Power will form, and you'll naturally become a Macrocosm Ancestral God."

"I see."

Realization dawned on James' face.

He finally understood why the Young Master of Mount Heavenly Path wanted him dead at all costs. Herschel was determined to annihilate him even with Thea and the Ancestral Sword Master's intervention. Though Herschel had compromised and promised he would only send people who were at most two ranks higher than James after him, Herschel still believed he would be able to annihilate James.

James took a deep breath and said, "It seems like Hadad already sensed the appearance of Macrocosm Power's embryonic form and hence ordered Herschel to annihilate me. Now, my opponent isn't just Herschel, novelebook.com but also Hadad Theophanes, a Macrocosm Ancestral God, and the entirety of Mount Heavenly Path."

James felt overwhelming pressure.

However, the three before him were overjoyed. Since James had cultivated the embryonic form of Macrocosm Power, he had gained the right to become a Macrocosm Ancestral God. With time, he would surely become one. If Mount Nothingness combined their strength with James', they would be able to annihilate Mount Heavenly Path and put an end to the Lord of Nothingness' plans.

Xosha asked, "Your Holiness, do we annihilate every creature that enters Mount Nothingness?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3492-Though Xosha was the Grand Priestess of Mount Nothingness, she was well-known as the Annihilation God in the outside world. Under her fair and delicate skin lay a ruthless and cold-blooded woman.

James waved slightly and said, "Pay no heed to them for now. Let them be imprisoned in Mount Nothingness for the time being. Once I return from the Dark World, I'll deal with them accordingly."

Wystan said, "In that case, let's get going."

"Mhm." James nodded.

Then, they left Mount Nothingness and arrived at a mysterious place at the back of the mountain. novelebook.comThe place was connected to the Dark World. As a passageway forcibly created by extremely powerful figures of the Dark World, it was where many enemies of the Dark World came through to wreak havoc on this world.

Not too far ahead, everything was surrounded by a black mist. It was the miasma of the Dark World, which contained terrifying Dark Power. Upon their arrival, Wystan was reminded of how the extremely powerful figures of the Dark World arrived in the Illuminated World. He sighed and said, "The powerful figures of the Dark World are simply too overpowering. I'm afraid annihilating them is nigh impossible."

As James had never been to the depths of the Dark World, he had no idea what he would find there. He asked, "Master, what will we find in the depths of the Dark World?"

Wystan waved his hand slightly and said, "Your Holiness, call me by my name. You're now the owner of Mount Nothingness. It'd be inappropriate for you to address me as such."

James smiled and asked once more, "What will we find in the depths of the Dark World?"

Xosha said smilingly, "Actually, the depths of the Dark World are no different from our world. The only difference is that the Dark World is linked to all twelve universes. As such, its total surface area is equivalent to all twelve universes' combined."

James froze and said, "To my understanding, only evil spirits can be found there. Not only that, but each of them is in a soul state. Why would they be similar to the living beings in the Illuminated World?"

Wystan said, "Because the evil spirits you interacted with are those who have yet to cultivate a physical body. In this universe and possibly other universes, the souls of the deceased will enter the Dark World and undergo cultivation. Upon reaching a certain rank or obtaining a mysterious Dark Matter, they can reshape their physical body. Living beings in the Dark World who possess a physical body are extremely dangerous.”

Hearing this, James finally understood.

Karter continued, “Actually, this is something like reincarnation. When creatures of the Dark World die, they’ll be reincarnated in the Illuminated World in a soul state. Since antiquity, this has been the state of affairs—a balance of power. However, the powerful figures of the Dark Power have interfered with this balance of power by causing great destruction in the Illuminated World and igniting Dark Strifes. This caused the number of living beings in the Illuminated World to decrease, whereas the number of living beings in the Dark World increased.”

These were secrets that no ordinary cultivator would know. novelebook.com The powerful figures of Mount Nothingness only knew about this because they had gone through the Dark Strife and even fought against powerful figures of the Dark World.

Hearing this, James fell into deep thought.

“Is this the truth of this world? In that case, why did Yukia say that everything was illusory and nothing existed?”

James murmured silently.

He could not figure things out.

Since he was stuck, he put those thoughts aside for now.

“Let’s go and have a walk around the Dark World and cultivate,” James said.

His objective was to cultivate the Dark Path Seal in the Dark World.

With Wystan in the lead, they entered the Dark World.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3493-James followed close behind, with Xosha and Karter following after him.

With these three by his side, James had nothing to be afraid of. Unless the powerful figures of the Dark World appeared, no evil spirit could harm him.

Soon, they entered the Dark World.

“Dark Matter truly is mysterious.”

Karter’s voice came, “Dark Power exuded by Dark Matter corrodes the physical body. Even a Caelum Ancestral God won’t be able to last long in the Dark World. Besides, the deeper we venture into the Dark World, the greater the corrosion.”

“Indeed,” Wystan chimed in. “The Corrosion in the most profound depths of the Dark World is beyond terrifying. Even a Caelum Ancestral God’s physical body would be obliterated in the blink of an eye.”

Xosha said, “The Lord of Nothingness once said that only Dark Matter can reshape one’s physical body to survive in the depths of the Dark World.”

The three conversed while pushing forward.

James simply remained silent and listened to their conversation. The more he listened, the more he learned about the Dark World. Fortunately, his destination was only the outer perimeters of the Dark World. Even a Grand Emperor could withstand the Dark Power there. Meanwhile, the Corrosion at the outer perimeters was nothing to Caelum Ancestral Gods like Karter and the others. So, James was at ease. Besides, as he cultivated Dark Power, the power here could not harm him.

They continued venturing forward.

The deeper they ventured, the more terrifying the Dark Power became.

Sensing he was close to his destination, James stopped and said, “The Dark Power here is majestic enough for me to cultivate.”

Wystan said, “Cultivate at ease, Your Holiness. With us here guarding you, no evil spirit can even approach this place.”

With them around, James had nothing to be afraid of.

He found an empty place and set up a Formation. Then, he began cultivating inside the Formation.

Sitting in a lotus position on the ground, he relaxed his mind and regulated his condition. Back in the Callahans’, he absorbed the Dark Power in Sienna’s body. As such, his Dark Path had reached the peak of the Third Consolidation. Now, he was only a step away from gathering an Ousia. He only needed more Dark Power. After cultivating the Ousia, things would be much simpler. He just needed to continue absorbing Dark Power and dividing his Ousia.

After regulating his condition, James began to cultivate. He catalyzed the Elemental Path Seal, and it emerged and gathered above his head, forming the Elemental Inversion Formation. Once the Formation activated, it frantically absorbed the Dark Power in the outside world.novalebook.com At the same time, a dark lotus emerged and rooted itself in mid-air, doing the same thing.

The rest outside the Time Formation were dumbfounded upon witnessing the scene.

“The Five Elements of Genesis.”

“How impressive! He even has the Five Elements of Genesis of the Five Ancestral Masters. Not only that, he’s merged the Five Elements with the Elemental Path Seal.”

“The Five Great Paths... The Elemental Path... How many Paths has he cultivated?”

“In any case, he’s already exceeded the limitations of heaven and earth.”

“The dark lotus, the Natal Treasure of the Dark Lotus Demonic Ancestral Master... No wonder he could become the owner of Mount Nothingness and obtain the belongings of the Dark Lotus Demonic Ancestral Master.”

They exclaimed.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3494-The greater James’ potential, the more delighted they were. He was their master, after all. In the future, he would lead them into battle against the Dark World and deal with the Dark Strife that would appear every once in a while.

James began cultivating in the Time Formation, whereas the three stood guard outside.

The Dark Power in the Dark World was terrifying. It greatly accelerated James’ cultivation speed. James soon cultivated the Dark Ousia, which was the most difficult part. While he cultivated, the other three watched their surroundings vigilantly.

Boom!

At the same time, they sensed a chain of explosions coming from the depths of the Dark World. The ripples created by the explosion were so frightening that they could sense it even from the outer perimeters.

They looked at one another.

Wystan said with a grim expression on his face, “What a terrifying battle ripple... There must be a fierce battle going on in the depths of the Dark World.”

“Mhm.”

Xosha nodded and said, "This must be a battle of great significance between two Caelum Ancestral Gods. novelebook.com Otherwise, there won't be such terrifying tremors."

The three sensed the anomalies coming from the depths of the Dark World. However, they had no idea what was going on. Besides, they could not just venture out and leave James behind.

In the blink of an eye, ten years passed. Though only ten years had passed in the outside world, James had been cultivating inside the Time Formation for a very long time. At long last, he exited the closed-door meditation. Dispersing the Time Formation, he walked out.

"How did it go?" Xosha hurriedly asked. "How did the cultivation go?"

A smile crept up on James' face. As his mind stirred, an identical man appeared before him. The man looked exactly like him. However, the man exuded a Dark Power that was malevolent and bizarre.

"What?"

They were stunned.

The man who looked identical to James smiled faintly and said, "After so long, I've finally cultivated the Dark Path Seal."

James' Dark Path Seal was in the form of a human. However, the Dark Path Seal had no mind or consciousness of its own. It was under the control of James' original self.

He could will the Path Seal to speak through his thoughts.

The Path Seal said, "This is the Dark Path Seal I cultivated."

The three looked at one another, visibly confused about what was happening.

Xosha asked, "Yes, we understand that. But, why do you suddenly have a clone now?"

James explained, "This isn't a clone. It just so happens that the Path Seal's form is a human who looks exactly like me. The Dark Path Seal has no mind or consciousness of his own, and I control everything. Even I have no idea why the Dark Path Seal appears as a human."

Since James himself was unsure, the three did not inquire further.

"By the way..."

Upon remembering something, Karter said, "Recently, there have been terrifying battle ripples coming from the depths of the Dark World.novelebook.com I also sense a mysterious power. There must be a battle between two Caelum Ancestral Gods. Something significant must have happened in the depths of the Dark World, and I plan to head there for a look."

"Is that so?" James asked. "What happened?"

The three shook their heads.

If they had not needed to stand guard while James cultivated, they would have ventured deeper into the Dark World to investigate.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3495-Xosha asked, "Do you wish to tag along?"

James nodded and said, "Of course. With you three by my side, I have nothing to be worried about."

Wystan, Xosha, and Karter were all Caelum Ancestral Gods. With their joint might, few could defeat them. Perhaps only Hadad Theophanes could take them in a fight. Though the Dark World was full of powerful figures, the three's strength was still considered top-notch amongst that of those in the depths of the Dark World. With such strength, no ordinary creature would dare approach them.

Wearing a grim expression, Karter said, "That being said, the Dark World is too bizarre.novelebook.comAs living beings from the Illuminated World, our presence will be detected by the extremely powerful figures of the Dark World the moment we step foot into the depths."

James asked, "What should we do, then?"

Wystan opened and shut his mouth.

Even Xosha was stuttering.

James sighed and said, "Cut to the chase."

Karter said, "If you can impart to us the cultivation method you used to cultivate Dark Power, we can venture deep into the Dark World without anyone detecting our presence once we cultivate Dark Power."

"Oh, I thought you were going to ask of the impossible. This is but a piece of cake."

James did not hesitate at all.

Though the cultivation methods for cultivating Dark Power were few and far between, these people were powerful figures who also happened to be his subordinates. They could come in handy in the future. Hence, he immediately taught them the cultivation method for cultivating Dark Power.

Upon learning the cultivation method, they immediately began to cultivate. The first step was to shatter their own souls and merge them with the physical body. It was extremely difficult as no ordinary living being could endure the excruciating pain produced during the process. However, it was the first step and the key to entering the Dark World.

They gritted their teeth.

As Caelum Ancestral Gods, they managed to pull it off without too much difficulty.

James set up a Time Formation around them.

After a month in the outside world, they successfully cultivated Dark Power. As Caelum Ancestral Gods who had mastered various Paths, comprehending Dark Power was but a piece of cake. Before long, they had cultivated the Path Seal of Dark Power. From the beginning of the cultivation to the forming of the Path Seal, only a hundred years had passed in the outside world.

A hundred years later, they left their closed-door meditation.

“Hehehe... Not bad... Now that we’ve cultivated Dark Power, the living beings here won’t be able to sense that we came from the Illuminated World. We’ll be able to travel freely in the Dark World.”

“I’ve long wished to venture into the depths of the Dark World but never had the chance to. Finally, the opportunity has presented itself.”

They were overjoyed.

James nodded and said, “Now that everything’s taken care of, let’s get going.”

“Sure.” Karter nodded.

Then, they ventured into the depths of the Dark World.

Along the way, they came across many evil spirits. However, these were not pure evil spirits. Rather, they were the amalgamation of countless soul sigils. novelebook.com As such, they did not possess a mind or consciousness of their own. Such evil spirits would never reach Attainment. After all, only evil spirits with complete souls fulfilled the prerequisites to reach Attainment and cultivate a physical body in the Dark World to become true living beings.

The evil spirits James and the others came across along the way all fled in horror upon seeing them. The state of these evil spirits made them realize earth-shattering events were occurring in the depths of the Dark World. They began looking forward to entering the depths of the Dark World to see what it looked like.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3496-While James was cultivating Dark Power, extraordinary events were occurring in the depths of the Dark World. Hence, Wystan, Xosha, and Karter planned to venture there to have a look. They pleaded with James to teach them the cultivation method for cultivating Dark Power. Now, their Dark Paths had cultivated a Path Seal.

They hurriedly headed to the depths of the Dark World. In the meantime, James took note of the route they were taking so they would not get lost. After all, it would be difficult for them to return from the depths of the Dark World without any sort of clues. Since James had comprehended the Space Path—which had cultivated a Path Seal—he could use it despite its weakened effects in the Dark World. James did his best to memorize the routes they took.

In the darkness, they made haste. Time seemed to go by quickly. It felt as if countless years had passed.

As the black mist dispersed, magnificent mountains and rivers appeared.

“What?”

Upon seeing the picturesque scenery in front of him, James asked, “What happened? Have we left the Dark World through another exit?”

Wystan shook his head and said, “No, we’ve merely passed through the outer perimeters of the Dark World.”

“Yeah.” Karter explained, “The Dark World is divided into many regions. The region enveloped by black mist is the outer perimeter. After traversing the outer perimeter, we’ve reached the interior of the Dark World. However, this isn’t the core region of the Dark World. Still, this region consists of some cities and countries.”

The depths of the Dark World were not any different from the Illuminated World. The only difference was that the powers and Paths were different.

Hearing this, realization dawned on James' face.

Rumble!

Another battle ripple shredded through the air and turned everything in its way into dust. In an instant, mountains and rivers disintegrated into nothingness.

At that critical moment, Karter stepped forward and blocked the incoming battle ripple. Even though he could successfully block the attack, his facial expression was grim. It was difficult for him to fully resist its power.

He grimaced in pain and said, "My power has weakened considerably in the Dark World. I may be at the peak of the Caelum Ancestral God Rank in the Illuminated World, but here, my strength is only at the early-stage Terra Ancestral God Rank."

Hearing this, James was stunned. He said, "If the battle ripples alone are this terrifying, what rank are the creatures engaged in battle?"

Wystan said, "At the peak of the Caelum Ancestral God Rank, no doubt."

James asked anxiously, "Since your strength has been considerably weakened in the Dark World, what should we do if we come across powerful figures?"

Xosha snickered and said, "There aren't that many powerful figures around here. Even if our strength is weakened, we're still Terra Ancestral Gods. No ordinary living being can stand against us."

Hearing this, James was relieved.

"Alright now, let's go and have a look," James said.

However, he did not take the lead. He saw how Karter had a hard time blocking the terrifying battle ripples. novelebook.com If James walked at the front, he would disintegrate into nothingness the moment he was struck.

Karter took the lead with James walking behind him. Meanwhile, Wystan and Xosha shielded James from the back.

The mountains and rivers before them had been destroyed and turned into a pile of rubble. In the rubble, residues of Dark Power could be found, which power was so terrifying that even James' blood ran cold. Fortunately, he had three powerful figures by his side. Otherwise, he would not dare to venture into this place alone.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3497-Before long, they arrived at a city in the Dark World. The city had been utterly destroyed by the terrifying battle ripples, and all its inhabitants had been completely wiped out.

Upon seeing this, James' expression turned grim.

They did not linger for long and continued pressing forward.

They continued traveling for three months.

Three months later, another battle ripple came shredding through the air. This time, Karter barely managed to block the attack after summoning his full strength. Even so, he spurted out a mouthful of blood.

Wiping the blood trace off his lips, he said, "I haven't bled in a very long time. I never thought I'd be injured upon coming to the Dark World."

Xosha said, "This battle has been going on for centuries. The outcome should be determined soon."

Wystan nodded and said, "From the battle ripples, it seems the aura of both parties is unstable. They must be injured. I wonder what kind of creatures are fighting and what for."

Karter gazed into the distance and said, "Well, we just need to go and have a look."

They accelerated. The deeper they ventured into the Dark World, the more frequent the battle ripples appeared. However, the battle ripples' power seemed to be getting weaker.

Along the way, they saw countless mountains and rivers that had been destroyed. Everything was in ruins for as far as the eye could see.

Rumble!

At that moment, James heard a loud sound. He could sense a terrifying Dark Power coming from straight ahead.

"We shouldn't go any further," Karter said. "If we do, we won't be able to provide His Holiness with sufficient protection."

Xosha said, "In that case, let's wait here and observe the outcome of the battle. Once the outcome is determined, we'll head over and have a look."

Hence, they waited near a pile of rubble.

In the meantime, they used their Divine Senses to observe the situation ahead.

James used his Divine Sense as well. Now, he was a powerful figure. He had even cultivated a Path Seal for the Dark Path. As his Divine Sense spread, he could sense two powerful figures engaged in a fierce battle.

One of them was a human wearing a black robe. His aura was so terrifying that cracks kept appearing in the space around him. His opponent was a Demonic Dragon with black scales. Currently, the Demonic Dragon was injured. Its scales were all over the ground, and blood kept oozing out of its wounds. A single drop of its blood contained such destructive capabilities that even a world could be destroyed. The man in the black robe was also in a wretched state. Boom!

The battle ensued.

Terrifying battle ripples shredded through the air, and the space in their surroundings collapsed, causing the appearance of massive black holes that were bigger than even a world in the Twelfth Universe. Upon seeing this, James took a deep breath.

“Is this the power of some of the most terrifying figures of the Dark World? How terrifying indeed.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3498-A man and a dragon were engaged in a fierce battle in the Dark World. They were some of the most powerful figures who could destroy a world with a single casual wave of the hand.

As James and the others watched the battle from afar, they continuously retreated and changed positions to avoid being caught up in the battle. Caelum Ancestral Gods were terrifying. Despite being injured, they could still last for a very long time.

The fierce battle lasted another three hundred years.

Three hundred years passed, and both the human and the dragon's energy were severely depleted. Besides, they suffered grave injuries.

"The Everlasting Night Demon Lord, why are you competing with me for the Dark Wellspring? By obtaining this Dark Wellspring, I'll be able to cultivate Macrocosm Power and become a Macrocosm Ancestral God. When I emerge as a force to be reckoned with in the Dark World, I promise I will treat you fine," The man spoke in a feeble voice. His injuries were so grave that he could no longer continue the battle.

Karter said, "Since two Caelum Ancestral Gods are going all-out for this Dark Wellspring, it must be good stuff. According to them, the Dark Wellspring can cultivate Macrocosm Power."

Xosha looked at Wystan and said smilingly, "Wystan, it's time for us to shine. Now that they're severely injured, their strength isn't even a fraction of their peak form. If we attack them now, we can surely defeat them."

"That's right."

Wystan said, "We'll seize the Dark Wellspring and offer it to His Holiness."

The three looked at one another.

After Karter enveloped James with power, they immediately appeared on the battlefield.

“This is bad. Some powerful figures have arrived,” They exclaimed.

Without any hesitation, they turned to leave and appeared before James.

“Mission accomplished! We should retreat at once!”
