The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3501-All sixteen Paths had their own Path Seals. Now, all he needed to was to comprehend the Paths and merge them with the Path Seals to make the Path Seals stronger. Moreover, the Sword Path Ousia was not just limited to comprehending the Sword Path. As long as he comprehended a Path, he could merge them into the Path Seals. For instance, the Sword Path's Path Seal could be merged with Elemental Path, and the Elemental Path's Path Seal could be merged with the Five Great Paths. All comprehended Paths could be merged with any Path Seals. That way, the Path Seals would grow increasingly stronger.

James did not have time to comprehend or merge them. All he wanted to do now was annihilate the men Herschel sent. He wanted to proclaim to the world that he was no longer the weak and insignificant man from before. Now, he was the most distinguished and terrifying prodigy in this world.

"Xosha," he said.

Swoosh!

A white light appeared before him. Then, a glamorous woman wearing a white dress who exuded a charismatic aura emerged. Her skin was fair and delicate, and she had a curvaceous figure that would bewitch all men. She spoke respectfully, "Your Holiness."

James asked, "How many living beings have entered Mount Nothingness since I entered?"

Xosha replied, "There are quite a few of them, I'm afraid. About ten thousand, I suppose."

"Very good."

Wearing a murderous expression on his face, James ordered, "Think of a way to gather them in one spot. I plan to deal with them one by one."

"Understood." Xosha nodded and immediately went to make the necessary arrangements. As the Grand Priestess of Mount Nothingness, she knew everything about the place, and she had the authority to order the guards around. Under her arrangement, James' pursuers were gathered in one spot.

On an empty plot of land in Mount Nothingness gathered thousands of living beings.

"What's going on?"

"Why are we suddenly freed?"

“Why’s everyone gathered in one place?”

Upon seeing so many people around them, they were dumbfounded.

Just as they were at a loss, a figure appeared on the peak of a mountain not too far away. Wearing a black robe, he exuded a commanding presence.

“Th-That’s James!”

Someone noticed James.

Immediately, everyone’s gaze was fixed on the mountain.

“Why is his aura so weird?”

“I agree. He seems to have merged with Heaven and Earth.”

They were puzzled.

Though they had no idea James was now the new owner of Mount Nothingness, novelebook.com they could nonetheless sense that James’ aura had merged with Mount Nothingness.

“Sorry to keep you waiting, folks.”

Standing on the peak of the mountain, James glanced downward and said nonchalantly, “I once said I will annihilate all who wish to take my life. Right now, I’ll give you a chance to repent. If you leave this place at once and give up on pursuing me, I will not take your life.”

James’ voice boomed.

“Hahaha!”

A roar of laughter came.

“Do you really think you are invincible, James? Don’t think you are some kind of big shot now just because you defeated Zenaida Xayah! She’s just invincible within the Sixth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank. Everyone here is more powerful than her.”

“Very well,” James said arrogantly, “In that case, do you wish to attack all at once? I would recommend that option. After all, you won’t be leaving this place alive if you attack one by one.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3502-Though James' rank was insignificant, his sixteen Path Seals could overwhelm everyone present there. His Five Great Paths, the Elemental Path Seals merged with the Five Elements of Genesis, his supreme Karma Power, and One for All he cultivated were all cultivation methods that all desired to acquire.

Standing at the peak of the mountain, he glanced downward while exuding a commanding presence. His voice reverberated throughout the area.

"How arrogant!"

Immediately, a man stepped forward, and he appeared in mid-air. Standing in mid-air, he exuded a powerful aura. He was wearing a white robe. As he had been trapped in Mount Nothingness for some time, his hair was disheveled, and his clothing was covered in dirt. However, this did not affect his composure or confidence.

"What's your name?" James' expression was composed. He seemed disinterested in his enemy.

"Lennon Xystos!"

The man said, "Listen carefully, I'm a disciple of Mount Heavenly Path who was ranked third within the Seventh Heaven Grand Emperor Rank in the previous Grand Tournament of the Universe.

Many living beings gathered here. Most of them came from Mount Heavenly Path and were true prodigies who received rankings in the previous Grand Tournament of the Universe. Some others came from the outside world to annihilate James for their benefit.

Lennon's strength was formidable.

As he stepped forward, the others watched his battle.

These disciples had obtained enormous benefits and were merely here on Mount Heavenly Path's orders. They did not make a move against James but instead watched from afar.

Lennon's aura soared. Though he was only a Seventh Heaven Grand Emperor, the aura he exuded was already at the Quasi Ancestral God's Illuminated Rank. He beckoned, "Don't say I picking on you, James. Make your move."

He was arrogant. However, as someone who was ranked third in the Seventh Heaven Grand Emperor Rank in the previous Grand Tournament, he certainly has the right to be arrogant.

James, on the other hand, smiled faintly and said, “Just show me what you’ve got.”

“Damn, you piss me off. I shall teach you a lesson you’ll never forget!”

Lennon immediately launched his ultimate move right off the bat. In the blink of an eye, countless mysterious sigils appeared and gathered, forming a golden claw. The claw descended from the sky and struck James’ head while carrying destructive power. Even a cultivator at the Quasi Ancestral God’s Illuminated Rank would not dare underestimate such a move.

James, however, was calm and composed. At that moment, he casually waved his hand, and mysterious power materialized in his palm. This power swept through the air, and the golden claw vanished without a trace. The Path’s power of the golden claw disappeared into nothingness in Mount Nothingness.

When they saw this, many of the spectators glanced at Karter.

Xosha asked, “When did His Holiness learn the Nullifier Path of the war god?”

Karter shook his head and said, “This is not the Nullifier Path. My Nullifier Path uses the power of a Path to dissolve the opponent’s power. His Holiness did not just dissolve his opponent’s power. Rather, he annihilated them completely. This is much more terrifying than the Nullifier Path.”

Wystan said smilingly, “I never thought he has cultivated such a cultivation method.”

“Looks like there’s a show ahead of us.

The powerful figures of Mount Nothingness smiled. After all, they were not worried that James would be in danger.

On the battlefield, James performed One for All and deflected Lennon’s attack easily.

Lennon was shocked.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3503-The prodigies in the distance were dumbfounded.

“Wh-What was that move?”

Though they were prodigies, they had no idea what move did James perform.

“I guess I underestimated you.”

Lennon's expression darkened, and he steadied himself. Then, as his mind stirred, the power of the five Path Seals inside his body merged. He was a genius of Mount Heavenly Path who was ranked third in the Seventh Heaven Grand Emperor Rank in the previous Grand Tournament. He had also cultivated five Paths. As the five Path Seals merged, his aura surged. At that moment, he was like a war god, whose aura overwhelmed all others.

Swoosh!

His body flickered, and he appeared before James in an instant. Immediately, a terrifying power shredded through the air and charged at James. This power was so terrifying that even a cultivator at the Quasi Ancestral God's Illuminated Rank would not dare let his guard down.

James sensed the imminent danger. However, he was afraid. In the next instant, he vanished without a trace.

Lennon's attack struck the area James was in. The space in the area was immediately shattered. However, James used the Space Path to avoid the attack.

“Damn it!”

Knowing that James must have used the Space Path, he cursed. Swearing he would not give James any opportunity to escape, he summoned a terrifying force and forcibly destroyed space so that James' whereabouts would be revealed.

As space shattered, James could no longer conceal himself.

He appeared in the distance.

The space behind him cracked. These cracks were like shattered glass.

“That's all you've got?”

James smiled faintly. Then, his mind stirred, and the power of the sixteen Paths in his body merged. At that moment, his aura surged, and he charged toward Lennon at an extraordinary speed. Before Lennon could even react, he was struck by James' fist.

The fist contained all of the power of James' Path, in particular Karma Power. The moment Lennon was struck, he was enveloped in Karma. How could he possibly withstand James' Karma? Under the destruction of Karma, his physical body was instantly destroyed, and his soul hurriedly made his escape.

James did not allow him to escape. He sealed time to prevent time from moving. Before Lennon could even react, his soul was annihilated, novelebook.com and he completely vanished without a trace.

Though there were thousands of prodigies here, the scene was eerily silent.

Standing in mid-air, James looked at his fist and could not help but be stunned.

“What terrifying Karma Power... When I perform Karma Power, I’m forcing my Karma onto my enemies. How could anyone possibly withstand my Karma?”

James took a deep breath and looked at the others in the distance. As they met his gaze, their blood ran cold, and they unconsciously staggered backward.

“So who’s next?” James’ voice boomed.

Though his voice was calm, it contained a hint of arrogance.

Everyone looked at one another, not knowing what to do. Even the most powerful figures of Mount Heavenly Path did not dare utter a single word. That was because they knew that challenging James now was equivalent to a death sentence. James’ strength was incomparable to the past. He must have obtained great providence in Mount Nothingness.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3504-Those who entered Mount Nothingness were all Grand Emperors at the Seventh Heaven. Though word of James’ physical strength had reached Mount Heavenly Path, no living being beyond the Seventh Heaven had appeared. Now that even Lennon who was ranked third in the Seventh Heaven Grand Emperor Rank was easily annihilated, no one dare challenge James recklessly. Immediately, they turned around and tried to flee.

James did not annihilate them right away.

“Leaving so soon?”

His face darkened.

Because of these pursuers, he had experienced untold suffering. He cultivated so hard just to avoid being a sheep to the slaughter. He casually waved his hand, and the power of the Space Path and Time Path materialized and sealed off the space here. In the blink of an eye, Karma Power materialized, and all those who tried to flee were contaminated by Karma. Under its destruction, they were turned to ashes in a mere few seconds.

The ones who did not escape looked at one another.

“Let’s attack him all at once.”

They knew that this was the only option. Otherwise, they would be picked off one by one. At the same time, many top-notch prodigies of Mount Heavenly Path attacked James all at once. Seeing this, James was unafraid. He summoned the power of all these Paths to the maximum and combined them with his physical strength. At that moment, his aura surged, and he seemed like a terrifying war god.

Swish!

The Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword appeared in his hand. Holding the Divine Sword in his hand, an overwhelming Sword Intent permeated the air. Then, Elemental Path Seal appeared. As the Elemental Path Seal was merged with the Five Elements of Genesis, it possessed a terrifying power. As Elemental Path Seal emerged, its power merged to give birth to a brand-new power, forming a wheel. As the Elemental Wheel charged toward James’ enemies, they hurriedly retreated.

James began his slaughter.

At the same time, at the gates of the Palace of Nothingness...

“What?”

Upon seeing James utilize the Elemental Path Seal and the wheel created by the Elemental Path Seal, everyone on Mount Nothingness was stunned.

“Another embryonic form of a Macrocosm-level power?” Wystan was shocked.

The others were dumbfounded.

“H-How many embryonic forms of Macrocosm Power has he cultivated in total?”

“How terrifying...”

“To think that the Five Elements would have such immense power... How impressive...”

The powerful figures at the peak of the Caelum Ancestral God Rank could sense Macrocosm Power on the Elemental Wheel. Though the Macrocosm Power was weak now, it would grow stronger as long as James continued to cultivate them. novelebook.com When James becomes the new Macrocosm Ancestral God, he would master two Macrocosm Powers.

James never thought that the pinnacle of Elemental Inversion would be Macrocosm Power. At that moment, he began his slaughter. With his current strength, none could stand against him.

The Elemental Path, the Five Great Paths, the Karma Power, the Sword Path, the Curse Path, and One for All, all of James' cultivation methods had been performed. He even summoned the Infinity Steles. Many had been killed.

The battle lasted for a day. When it was over, tens of thousands of prodigies lay dead on Mount Nothingness. Only James remained.

Storing away his treasures and dissipating his aura, he stood at the peak of a mountain and glanced downward. He knew that Mount Heavenly Path would never forgive him for killing so many of their prodigies. However, now that he had cultivated the embryonic form of Macrocosm Power, he would never be accepted by Heavenly Path. Even if he did not kill them, Mount Heavenly Path would still think of a way to get rid of him.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3505-Now, he was thinking of ways to survive the onslaught of Mount Heavenly Path. He was not concerned about the 10,000-year agreement. He was worried that Mount Heavenly Path would come up with new ways to mess with him 10,000 years later. By then, they would certainly disregard the Ancestral Sword Master and send some of their best fighters after him. Meanwhile, his identity as the owner of Mount Nothingness must not be leaked. That was because the powerful figures of Mount Nothingness had long disappeared. If they appear now, it would create a commotion. By then, Mount Heavenly Path would certainly go all-out to annihilate him.

Taking a deep breath, he put those thoughts aside. Then, he walked into the depths of Mount Nothingness and returned to the Palace of Nothingness.

Hundreds of people gathered here.

"Your Holiness."

Upon his arrival, many greeted him respectfully.

James waved slightly.

Wystan walked toward him and praised him, "Haha... I never thought Your Holiness has cultivated two Macrocosm Powers."

"Huh?"

Stunned, James asked, "What do you mean?"

Karter explained, "When the Five Elements merge, the power created is a form of Macrocosm Power. To think that Your Holiness managed to merge them... How impressive!"

Hearing this, realization dawned on James' face. So, the pinnacle of Elemental Power is Macrocosm Power. novelebook.com However, why did no one sense Macrocosm Power when he performed them in the past? Could it be the Five Elements of Genesis and the Elemental Path Seal created?

James believed so. As for the specifics, he put those thoughts aside for now.

"Everyone, I plan to leave," James said.

"Leave? Where to?" Xosha stepped forward and asked.

James said, "Mount Nothingness is nothing but ruins to the outside world. No one knows there are many powerful figures hidden within. As your existence must not be known yet, remain in Mount Nothingness and await further instructions."

After some contemplation, they nodded. To execute their plan, they first needed to conceal themselves.

"Be careful of the outside world, Your Holiness. Especially Mount Heavenly Path," someone cautioned.

James nodded slightly and said, "Mhm, I'll be careful. I'll be taking my leave now."

He waved goodbye to the crowd.

At the same time, many powerful figures turned to leave.

After they left, the Palace of Nothingness disappeared and concealed itself in the void.

James did not linger here for long and hurriedly left Mount Nothingness. Standing outside the mountain, he gazed into the distance. Since the 10,000-year agreement had not ended yet, there would be more pursuers coming for him. Now, however, he was no longer concerned about them. Since he had been fleeing all this while, it was now time for him to show himself. He planned to return to the Human Realm and find Thea. As for the pursuers, he would simply cut them down whenever they appear. As long as Herschel holds up to his end of the bargain, the pursuers would only be two ranks higher than his physical strength.

With this idea in mind, James left the Realm of Nothingness. Catalyzing the Space Path, he traversed through the universe and headed to the Human Realm. Soon, he arrived outside the Human Realm. Upon seeing the blue planet before him, he was overwhelmed by complex feelings and sentiments. He never thought he would be an enemy of Mount Heavenly Path. Not only that, his daughter was still in there. Besides, he had a complex relationship with Melinda, the daughter of Hadad Theophanes.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3506-Back then, James was forced to flee from the Human Realm. This time, he would make an official entrance into the place he once escaped from. As long as Herschel holds up his end of the bargain, he was not afraid of anything. However, if Herschel reneged on his promise, he would have no choice but to fight all out. Though Mount Heavenly Path was the strongest force in this universe and had a Macrocosm Ancestral God at its helm, Mount Nothingness was not much weaker. Perhaps the only one who could threaten Mount Nothingness was the Macrocosm Ancestral God. Regardless, no matter how powerful a Macrocosm Ancestral God was, he was merely a rank higher than a Caelum Ancestral God at peak rank. Should a horde of Caelum Ancestral Gods attack a Macrocosm Ancestral God at once, the outcome of the battle could not be easily determined. James was prepared to go all-out.

Taking a deep breath, he stepped forward into the Human Realm's Divine Dimension. Upon arriving at the Human Realm, he immediately headed toward the Callahans. After all, that was his promise to Thea before he left.

However, the moment he entered the Divine Dimension, his presence was immediately detected by Herschel. Sitting in the palace, Herschel gazed into the distance and murmured, "Is not afraid of dying? Why would he return to the Human Race?"

Herschel had no idea where James got his confidence from. If he was James, he would simply remain hidden in Mount Nothingness and wait for the 10,000-year agreement to expire. Though he had no idea what happened in Mount Nothingness, he knew that the soul lamps of the men he sent after James had been extinguished. This meant that they had perished in Mount Nothingness. Even though he sent so many of them after James, none of them succeeded. Now that James had appeared, he must have an ace up his sleeves. Perhaps he was no longer afraid of anyone. Under such a scenario, Herschel had no choice but to report this incident to his father, the true ruler of Mount Heavenly Path.

He stood up and turned to leave. Then, he headed to a restricted area at the back of Mount Heavenly Path.

This was Hadad's place of residence, where the scenery was picturesque, Spiritual Energy was abundant, and the atmosphere pleasant. There was a palace here, where a group of glamorous women was kneeling outside. These women were so gorgeous and enticing that they would bring about the downfall of any country in the outside world.

At that moment, a middle-aged man was sitting on the throne. He wore a white robe and seemed to be suave and erudite.novelebook.com No aura could be sensed coming from within him. He was none other than Hadad Theophanes, the ruler of Mount Heavenly Path and the universe.

There was another man in the main hall. Wearing a black robe, the man was enveloped in a black aura, and his appearance could not be discerned.

Faced with the black-robed man, Hadad spoke respectfully, "What brings you here, Dark Night Lord?"

The man spoke in a hoarse voice, "Hadad, I came here for only one thing."

Hadad asked respectfully, "What is it?"

The man answered, "Not too long ago, a Dark Wellspring appeared in the outer perimeter of the Dark World. This caused two Caelum Ancestral Gods to fight over the treasure. However, just as they were both weakened by centuries of battle, three unknown living beings from the outside world appeared and seized the Dark Wellspring."

Hearing this, a chill ran down Hadad's spine.

Though he was not a living being of the Dark World, he had heard of the Dark Wellspring. This was a supreme treasure of the Dark World. Whoever obtains the Wellspring would be able to cultivate Macrocosm Power.

He hurriedly asked, "Are the ones who barged into the Dark World living beings of the Twelfth Universe?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3507-"That's right," the Dark Night Lord said, "I sensed their aura. This is your territory. And since I can't find them, I can only come to you."

"I..."

Sweat trickled down Hadad's forehead as he said, "If even you can't find them, how am I supposed to find them? Besides, there aren't many figures in this universe that can barge into the Dark World and injure two Caelum Ancestral Gods."

"That's none of my concern. In any case, I will give you an Epoch to find the Dark Wellspring. Should you fail, the Twelfth Universe will be invaded by the Dark Army."

The Dark Night Lord said coldly.

Leaving that ruthless remark, he transformed into a ball of black mist and disappeared.

As the Dark Night Lord left, Hadad's expression turned grim.

"Barging into the Dark World, injuring two Caelum Ancestral Gods, and seizing the Dark Wellspring? Who would be capable of pulling this off?"

Hadad contemplated.

Since the people from Mount Heavenly Path would never head into the Dark World, this must be the work of outsiders. However, there were not many who could pull this off. Only the Five Ancestral Masters of Heaven and Earth, the Ancestral Sword Master, the Ancestral Talisman Master, the Ancestral Needle Master, the Ancestral Medicine Master, and a few others possessed such strength. However, who were the three who barged into the Dark World?

"My head hurts..."

He rubbed his temples gently.

Now that the Twelfth Universe was at peace, it would not be good if the Dark World was enraged. novelebook.com Just as he was at a loss, the door opened, and a handsome-looking man walked in.

"Father." Herschel walked in and greeted him respectfully.

Hadad glanced at him and said, "You have come."

"Yes," Herschel said, "I sent many prodigies after James. However, all of them have been killed. I sensed that James has returned to the Human Realm's Divine Dimension."

"Do as you see fit. In any case, he's not allowed to continue living. If we allow him to grow, he will become a Macrocosm Ancestral God in the future. If he has ambitions, Mount Heavenly Path's status will be threatened."

Herschel opened and shut his mouth. After some contemplation, he asked, "Father, do we really have to kill him? Can't we win him over to our side?"

Hadad glared at Herschel so menacingly that Herschel hurriedly shut his mouth and turned to leave.

After Herschel left, Hadad began contemplating. Then, he called out, "Radomir!"

Swoosh!

A figure appeared and slowly materialized into a charismatic young man who was wearing a white robe.

“Master.”

Radomir knelt on one knee.

Hadad waved slightly and said, “Rise.”

“Understood.”

Radomir stood up and stood by the side, awaiting Hadad’s further instructions.

“Just a moment ago, a Lord from the Dark World arrived in the Twelfth Universe.” Wearing a grim expression, Hadad said.

Radomir nodded slightly and said, “The Heavenly Path underwent some changes. I have sensed his presence.”

Hadad continued, “He came here in search of the Dark Wellspring. He said that three powerful figures of the Twelfth Universe headed to the Dark World and seized the Dark Wellspring. Chasing after the aura, he arrived here and demanded me to turn the perpetrators over to him in an Epoch.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3508-Radomir listened intently. His expression remained composed and unchanging as it this matter had nothing to do with him.

“Go investigate who were the ones who headed to the Dark World and seized the Dark Wellspring,” Hadad ordered.

“Understood, Master.”

Radomir nodded and turned to leave. Upon leaving the main hall, he vanished without a trace and returned to his accommodation to observe the Heavenly Path’s changes. Everything in this world can be investigated through the changes in the Heavenly Path. The Heavenly Path is an independent existence. Yet, he was the one who controlled the Heavenly Path. Though he had been observing the Heavenly Path’s operating rules for some time now, he could not discover any clues relating to the Dark Wellspring.

He turned time backward to 100 million years ago. However, he could not find anything. So, he immediately headed to the main hall to report his findings to Hadad.

In Hadad's palace...

A group of glamorous and enticing women was dancing while Hadad sat on his throne. novelebook.com Beside him, a few women were massaging him and feeding him divine fruits. He seemed to be enjoying the treatment.

When Radomir appeared, the women immediately left.

Radomir clasped his fists and said respectfully, "After my investigation into the Heavenly Path's operating rules, I have found no clues regarding the Dark Wellspring."

"What?"

Hadad stood up in a panic and said, "Impossible! The Dark Night Lord has appeared in person. There's no way he's mistaken."

"Master, I'm speaking the truth. If you don't believe me, you can investigate yourself."

Hearing this, Hadad sat down. His expression was unusually grim.

"No clues... Could it be that the Dark Night Lord is just merely looking for a casus belli to declare war on the Twelfth Universe?"

Hadad's expression was grim. If this was the case, the Twelfth Universe's fate was doomed. He knew about the Dark Night Lord, who was also a Macrocosm Ancestral God who had countless subordinates under his command. He even controlled countless armies. Once he launched an attack against the Twelfth Universe, they had no chance of standing against the mighty Dark Army.

"Understood. You're dismissed."

He waved slightly.

"Understood."

Radomir turned to leave. Then, he returned to his accommodation. Sitting on a rock near the cliff of the mountain he resided, he gazed into the distance. As the gentle breeze caressed his black hair, he murmured while wearing a grim expression, "There's no way Master is pulling a trick on me. The Dark Night Lord of the Dark World must have arrived in the Twelfth Universe. But why can't I find any clues regarding the Dark Wellspring in the Heavenly Path's operating rules?"

Radomir could not figure this out. This had only happened twice ever since he controlled the Heavenly Path. The first was when he tried looking into James' past. That time, he was stopped by Karma. Even though he broke through the obstacles of Karma, he could not find anything at all. It was as if James had never existed in this age.

This was the second time.

"Could this also be related to James?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3509-As Radomir murmured, he began putting two and two together. It was the only explanation. Perhaps there was someone who was free from the clutches of the Heavenly Path and who was capable of interfering with the Heavenly Path's operating rules. However, if the Heavenly Path's operating rules were forcibly interfered with, as the controller of the Heavenly Path, he should be able to sense the anomalies. So, he guessed that James must be related to this incident.

"It's time to go out and have a look."

As he stood up, he made a stretch. Then, his body gradually disintegrated into nothingness.

At that moment, James had arrived in the Human Realm's Divine Dimension. Now, he was not too far away from the Callahans. In the mountains just outside the Callahans, James stopped and gazed into the distance.

Swoosh!

Suddenly, light dots began to gather in front of him, forming a man in a white robe. The man was somewhat handsome-looking and exuded a charismatic aura.

James stared at the man, who also returned the gaze.

"You are...?"

James was wary of this unknown person that appeared out of nowhere.

Radomir clasped his fists and said with a smile, "I'm Radomir Theophanes from Mount Heavenly Path."

Hearing this, James unconsciously staggered backward and exclaimed, "R-Radomir Theophanes?"

Radomir was puzzled by James' reaction. He had only controlled the Heavenly Path for barely a few Epochs. Besides, he seldom appeared and slaughtered innocent people. So why was James so horrified upon seeing him?

James hurriedly collected himself.

As he looked at the temperate young man before him, James could not believe that this was the man who annihilated Mount Heavenly Path and novelebook.com caused the demise of this age. He even secretly modified the Heavenly Path to prevent the living beings in the future from surpassing the Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank. All Radomir did was exactly the same as what the Lord of Nothingness wished to do.

"So you're Radomir Theophanes, number two of the universe and the one who controls the Heavenly Path. I apologize for my disrespect." James clasped his fists and said.

"Haha..." Radomir laughed and waved his hand slightly, saying, "Number two of the universe? That means nothing to me. You, on the other hand, are quite infamous recently. Even the Young Master of Mount Heavenly Path couldn't do anything to you."

James cut to the chase and asked, "Do you have business with me? Are you here on behalf of Mount Heavenly Path or yourself?"

Radomir remained silent for a few seconds before saying, "I came here looking for you because I have a few questions on my mind. I wish to hear directly from you."

James signaled for Radomir to ask away.

Radomir asked, "What have you done exactly that your every action and every word eludes the detection of the Heavenly Path?"

James froze.

As this question was too complex, he did not have an answer.

"I don't know what you're talking about."

"Is that so?" Radomir glanced at him and asked, "How did you acquire the Dark Wellspring?"

Hearing this, James was stunned. Only three powerful figures of Mount Nothingness knew about this. So how did Radomir hear of this?

James' expression made Radomir realize that the Dark Wellspring was on James.

He cautioned him, "No matter who you or your backer is, I have to warn you against leaking any information regarding the Dark Wellspring. Otherwise, the consequences will be disastrous."

James calmed down and said, "What Dark Wellspring? I don't know what you are talking about."

Radomir paid no heed to him and continued, "A Macrocosm Ancestral God from the depths of the Dark World has descended upon the Twelfth Universe. He demanded my master hand over the Dark Wellspring in an Epoch. Otherwise, he would invade the Twelfth Universe with the Dark Army. You should know the consequences of this. This is everything I wanted to say. Farewell."

Radomir's body gradually disappeared. Then, upon returning to Mount Heavenly Path, he secretly erased all clues in the Heavenly Path regarding his meeting with James. As the controller of the Heavenly Path, he could do so easily and silently.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3510-After Radomir left, James simply stood there and contemplated. He had no idea how Radomir knew that the Dark Wellspring was in his possession nor the reason why he alerted him to the consequences of leaking the information.

"Who exactly is he?" James murmured.

Then, he put those thoughts aside. Soon, he arrived at the mountain range where the Callahans were located. There were many disciples patrolling outside the Callahans. Upon seeing James, they did not welcome him warmly for they had heard many rumors recently, especially when Sienna Callahan stepped forward and put in a kind word for James at Mount Sword God. The eight daughters of the Callahans were like goddesses to the disciples here. Naturally, they were displeased that James had the assistance of Sienna.

"Why are you here, James Caden? Do you wish to bring calamity to the Callahans?" A disciple mocked him.

James was magnanimous and merely said, "Go and report to your superiors that James Caden has arrived."

At that moment, a light glimmered.

Then, a woman appeared. “Why are you here, James?”

“Sienna,” James greeted her sweetly.

“Quick, come in.”

Unable to conceal her excitement, she grabbed James’ hand and headed inside. Meanwhile, the guards and disciples in their way consciously made way for them.

Soon, they arrived at the peak of the Callahans.

In the reception room on the main peak, Sienna said excitedly, “I’m so glad you’re alright, James. I thought you were in danger after entering Mount Nothingness.”

James said smilingly, “Mount Nothingness is nothing to me.”

“Hmph!”

Sienna grunted in a playful manner and said, “What do you know? Mount Nothingness is the ruins of the Lord of Nothingness. That’s the most dangerous place in the world. My sister, the fifth daughter, has entered Mount Nothingness for over an Epoch now, and I have yet to hear anything about her. I wonder what she’s doing now.”

“She’s in Mount Nothingness?” James froze.

“Yes.” Sienna nodded.

James asked, “What’s her name?”

Sienna said, “She’s called Yuvika Callahan.”

James etched the name in his mind. When he returned to Mount Nothingness, he would ask around and let Yuvika go.

Clack! Clack! Clack!

At that moment, the sound of footsteps could be heard.

A woman walked in. Wearing a black dress, she exuded an aura of elegance. At the same time, she wore an ice-cold expression on her face. She was Thea Callahan, the strongest figure of the Callahans.

As she walked into the reception room, James immediately stood and said in excitement, "Thea, you're here."
