The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3521-James' expression was grim. At that moment, the Yin and Yang Path Seal materialized. Under his control, the Yin and Yang Path Seal appeared in the sky. The Yang Path Seal transformed into a scorching sun, whereas the Yin Path Seal transformed into a bright moon. As Yin and Yang intermingled, a new power was born.

"Break!"

James roared.

The power created by the fusion of Ying and Yang shredded through the air, and Xesus hurriedly willed the 10,000-meter- long broadsword to block the attack.

Hiss!

As the two powers collided, they exuded a hissing sound as they tried to devour the other.novel.xo

Cracks began to appear on the broadsword before the sword began to disintegrate. Meanwhile, the power created by the fusion of Yin and Yang completely overwhelmed Xesus. Then, he plummeted from the sky and collapsed heavily to the ground, causing the dirt and dust to swirl in the air.

"Is the battle over?"

Many were watching the battle intently.

"James is strong."

"The Yin and Yang Path Seal... Just how many Path Seals has he cultivated?"

"The ones we currently know are the Five Great Paths, Elemental Path, Sword Path, and Yin and Yang Path. He has surpassed the limitations of heaven and earth."

"How terrifying! James is too strong. When he becomes an Ancestral God, the world shall kneel before him."

James' power stunned the crowd.

Standing in mid-air, he glanced downward. Below, there was a deep hole.

Just as everyone thought Xesus was defeated...

Swoosh!

A golden light soared to the sky from the pile of rubble below.

Xesus stood in mid-air. At that moment, he no longer wore the composed expression from before. At that moment, his hair was disheveled, his body was covered in wounds, and blood was oozing out of his injuries. He wiped the blood trace off his lips and said, "James, your power surpasses my expectation. You are the first in your rank to cause such grave injuries to me by breaking through my defenses. I admit defeat. Feel free to proceed."

Xesus chose to admit defeat. Though he was not a disciple of Mount Heavenly Path, he did not dare go against Herschel's order. So, he had no choice but to leave seclusion and block James' path. During the battle, James' strength deeply stunned him. He knew he would die if the battle continued. After all, James had the Life Path and could rejuvenate his wounds almost incessantly.

In truth, James also possessed an Elemental Body. With the Five Elements of Genesis shielding his body from harm, Xesus had no way of harming him. However, he did not expose his hidden abilities.

The moment Xesus admitted defeat, there was a commotion among the crowd.

"Xesus Leofwine has admitted defeat."

"The Martial Ranking which has not changed since Epochs ago has seen a change in the rankings."

"James, a cultivator who has only mastered the fundamentals of a Grand Emperor, has surpassed his limitations and is now ranked thirtieth in the Martial Ranking!"

James had achieved something unprecedented. After this battle, his name would spread far and wide.

Upon witnessing this scene, a smile crept up on Thea's face.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3522-'That guy...'

Herschel's expression was grim.

He thought James would not stand a chance against Xesus Leofwine, a figure who was ranked last in the Martial Ranking. However, the outcome of the battle stunned him. Not only was Xesus defeated, but he even conceded defeat. This meant that James had now replaced Xesus' spot in the Martial Ranking.

A grin crept up on Thea's face as she asked, "So Herschel, how was James' performance?"

Herschel said with a serious look on his face, "Not bad... A genius like him has not appeared in a very long time.

Perhaps someone like him has never existed before."novel.xo

Herschel spoke highly of James, whose performance was unrivaled.

"But..." Herschel continued, "This is only just the beginning. Xesus Leofwine is ranked last in the Martial Ranking. You should know the power disparity between the last and the first."

Thea smiled.

She knew that. However, she also knew that James still had many tricks up his sleeves. Meanwhile, Sienna simply remained silent.

Outside the Callahans...

After Xesus conceded defeat, he dragged his limp body and left. As the battle ended, the Formation Boundary in the surroundings disappeared.

James stored the Infinity Steles and the Yin and Yang Path Seal away and dissipated his aura. Then, he descended from the sky and landed steadily on a pile of rubble.

Then, he scrutinized the map Thea gave him. After confirming his directions, he continued on his way. By stepping a single step forward, he appeared thousands of meters away. In just a few steps, he had disappeared without a trace. Though the distance to Mount Heavenly Path was far, James could surely arrive at his destination by traveling through the void. Everything now depended on what figure stood in his way.

James traveled in the direction of Mount Heavenly Path. Meanwhile, those who were eager to watch the show followed close behind.

After traveling for a few days, James did not encounter any enemies.

Meanwhile, Herschel was deep in contemplation on Mount Heavenly Path. Since James was able to defeat Xesus, that would mean that there was no point in sending more prodigies after James. Now, he could only send his strongest.

He began to formulate a plan. He would send the top three rankers of the Martial Ranking to block James' path. These were terrifying figures who had cultivated more than seven Paths.

Once he made his decision, he looked at Thea and smiled faintly, saying, 'Thea, I won't be sending more people to stop James.'

Hearing this, Thea looked at him puzzledly.

Herschel said smilingly, "He will be able to reach Mount Heavenly Path safely. However, it won't be easy for him to step foot inside. There will be three prodigies who are ranked in the top three of the Martial Ranking stationed outside."

Thea took a deep breath.

Top three of the Martial Ranking? As a Caelum Ancestral God, she knew just how terrifying these figures were. The top three spots had remained unchanged for thousands of Epochs, and these figures were certainly beings who dominated an age. They simply remained in the Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank not because they wanted to dominate the rankings. Rather, they had no confidence in reaching the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank. As such, they had been waiting for fortune and providence. Once the opportunity presented itself, they would make a breakthrough and cross into the Caelum Ancestral God Rank in the shortest amount of time possible.

'Can James really defeat the top three of the Martial Ranking?' Thea wondered in her heart.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3523-Although she had much faith in James, his own cultivation rank was too weak, whereas the top three listed on the Martial Ranking of Mount Heavenly Path were too appalling. Thea was rather worried, but she was also aware that worry would not help with the situation.

Everything now rested in James' hands.

James advanced. In the blink of an eye, thirty years passed, and he was halfway to Mount Heavenly Path. Throughout the three decades, he had not met any living beings who obstructed his path. He was confused. Did they not say that there would be many obstructors on this path to Mount Heavenly Path? Why was there nobody at all after thirty years?

While James was confused, the living beings who were following him were even more confused. They wanted to see for themselves the many geniuses on the Martial Ranking of Mount Heavenly Path. But thirty years have passed, and none was to be seen.

Following the passage of time, more and more living beings found out about James' route and rushed here to follow him as he advanced forward, hoping to catch a glimpse of the exciting happenings.

James was relieved that he did not encounter any enemies. Now that he had enough time, he no longer rushed ahead but rather moved forward gradually and casually. He walked through earth and sea, merging himself into his surroundings to sense the principles of heaven and earth and the operational rules of this world. Throughout this time, he also experimented with his Path. He merged his understanding of other Paths into different Path Seals, allowing the power of his Path Seals to increase unknowingly.novel.xo

Another thirty years passed, and he was now a few years away from Mount Heavenly Path. He spent the past three decades trying to comprehend the Paths. He knew that a bunch of genuinely frightening geniuses would be waiting for him at Mount Heavenly Path. That was also why he deployed a Time Formation in his body. That way, even if thirty years have passed outside, he would have comprehended the Path for many years, allowing the power of his Path Seal to rise through the ranks.

Now, apart from the Dark Path Seal, the rest of his Seals had achieved the Grand Emperor Rank's Third Heaven. He was much stronger than when he first left the Callahan family. The speed at which he ascended ranks was also extremely rapid. Even if he comprehended the Path in a Time Formation, it was still a huge achievement to have been able to improve all of his Path Seals to the Grand Emperor Rank's Third Heaven in such a short time.

This was all possible thanks to the owner of Mount Nothingness, who bestowed upon him such a large amount of wisdom.

Mount Heavenly Path was within sight, and James stopped comprehending the Path. He disbanded the Time Formation and marched forward, following the route set by Herschel.

Another three years flew by, and James found himself in a small area, where he could sense an obvious thickening of the Primordial Energy of Heaven and Earth. He knew that this was the place where the providence of the world gathered.

He looked afar and saw grand massifs and valleys. In the depths of the valley, he could sense an existence that was so frightening, all the providence of the world gravitated towards it.

"That must be Mount Heavenly Path," James mumbled to himself. He could sense all of this because he had become the owner of Mount Nothingness, and Mount Nothingness was once where all the providence of the world gathered. After Herschel of Mount Heavenly Path became the Lord of the Universe, the providence was taken away from Mount Nothingness.

"Sigh!" James took a deep breath and said, "I've finally made it to Mount Heavenly Path. There will be extremely difficult battles ahead. I'll see how powerful the champion of the Martial Ranking is for myself."

After he mumbled under his breath, he marched forward again, only to have a streak of blue light appear before him.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3524-A streak of blue light cut through the sky, landing beside James. The blue light materialized slowly into a man with a blue robe. The man looked young, around twenty years or so. He had sharp features and was rather handsome and gentleman-looking. His smile was so warm it made those who set eyes on him feel cozy.

"Who is this man?"

The man in the blue robe's appearance confused many living beings behind James. Their sole purpose in following James in the first place was to see for themselves the powerful figures who were about to partake in the Martial Ranking. However, this man in the blue robe was not one of those figures they were looking forward to meeting.

James stopped to look at the man. With a casual and relaxed face, he asked, "You are...?"

The man replied with a chuckle, "Gutierre Linford."novel.xo

"Gutierre Linford?" The sound of his name startled the living beings behind James.

"G-Gutierre? The guy who emerged as number three on the Martial Ranking of Mount Heavenly Path? That powerful genius who was birthed into existence a thousand Epochs ago and who cultivated eight Path Seals? The guy who crushed an entire Age and was the champion in the Martial Ranking? But didn't he disappear after his ranking dropped to third?"

'Tsktsk."

"I can't believe that we would meet Gutierre once we arrived at Mount Heavenly Path."

"This is getting interesting."

"James defeated Xesus Leofwine and emerged as the top thirty in the Martial Ranking. But can he defeat this champion of a man who was third on the Ranking?"

"This is so exciting."

"This trip certainly didn't go to waste."

James now found out about the identity of this man, who was apparently a genius who cultivated eight Paths and eight Path Seals, an achievement that the heavens would rarely tolerate.

In the Herschel Palace's main hall within Mount Heavenly Path, Herschel Theophanes immediately stood up once he saw Gutierre. He could not conceal his smile as he said, "James has finally arrived at Mount Heavenly Path."

As he spoke, he took a glance at Thea Callahan who was in the hall, and said, "I will arrange for Gutierre's first battle to be against James as a demonstration of my respect towards him. Is this alright?"

Thea had a gloomy look on her face. She knew that Gutierre was a genius who was born a thousand Epochs ago. Having remained at the Grand Emperor Rank Ninth Heaven for such a long time, a person like that was frightening, to say the least. She felt anxious for James now.

Herschel looked again at Sienna who was wearing a red wedding gown and asked, "Is Gutierre a suitable match for you?"

Sienna only bit her lip without letting out a word. Since she had decided to come here, she believed in James. If James was not Gutierre's opponent and perished at his hands, she would not marry Gutierre either. She would rather die with James.

Two stunning women were located in another area of Mount Heavenly Path. They were Melinda and Winnie.

"Winnie, who do you think will prevail in this fight? Or should I say, how many strikes can James withstand?" Melinda asked smilingly.

Winnie looked anxious. She never expected that James would show up at Mount Heavenly Path. So, she decided to say nothing.

Melinda took no heed of this and continued, "James is still rather frightening though. The last time I met him at the Katun Realm, he had only just begun to comprehend the power of the Five Great Paths. I wasn't expecting that he could rise in such a short amount of time."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3525-Melinda was the privileged princess of Mount Heavenly Path. She was beginning to admire James, a genius of this age.

"Oh right," Melinda recalled something and said, "Gutierre also joined Mount Heavenly Path. With the approval of my father, he has also awakened the Scythe of Judgment. I wonder if James will be a match against that."

Melinda looked as if she was mumbling to herself while also speaking to Winnie.

Winnie only looked at James who just appeared at the Mountain.

James already knew the identity of the man with the blue robe. But as someone who has gone through so much of ups and downs, Gutierre was barely able to scare him.

Gutierre clasped his hands together. He looked extremely relaxed and confident.

"James, I haven't fought anyone for many years now. The Young Master asked me to come here to go against you. In my opinion, it's not necessary at all. Yet, I've heard that you successfully defeated Xesus Leofwine, who was ranked number thirtieth on the Martial Ranking. So, perhaps you can withstand a few strikes of mine." His words were like wind, rife with faith and infinite confidence.

"If you're at the Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank, perhaps novel.xo

I could see you as an equal. Unfortunately, however, your rank is simply too low." He shook his head as if he found James' situation tragic, a pathetic genius who fell to his knees.

"How arrogant."

"Well, he has to keep up his reputation of scoring third place in the Martial Ranking."

'Third in the Martial Ranking is essentially a mythical existence. This trip is so worth it to see for myself a legend like that."

"How handsome..." Some women were basically drooling over Gutierre. A few words from his mouth already stole their hearts away.

James stood before Gutierre. There was a hint of worry on his casual face. He knew that this battle would not be easy. Mount Heavenly Path would not tolerate him although he has cultivated Macrocosm Power. He would be eradicated completely. So, anyone who was sent to destroy him would certainly be someone powerful.

Back at Mount Nothingness, there were several powerful figures who were paying attention to the happenings of Mount Heavenly Path.

Wystan Goyathlay looked at the powerful figures next to him, and let out a gentle smile, "Gentlemen, are you ready for war with Mount Heavenly Path? "

Xosha Meredith rubbed her palms against each other and said, "Why, of course. If James cannot stand against Gutierre, we'll head there and save him before eradicating the Young Master of Mount Heavenly Path."

Karter Yiorgos had a very serious expression on his face. He said, "We might need ten figures who have reached the peak of the Caelum Ancestral God Rank to win against Hadad Theophanes. There are many powerful figures within Mount Heavenly Path, especially the controller of the Heavenly Path, Radomir Theophanes."

Wystan gave Karter's words some thought, and said, "When we rescue James, Hadad may not appear, so he may not be our opponent. We just need to be ready for such a situation."

At Mount Heavenly Path, James said nothing when faced with the confidence and arrogance of Gutierre. He merely summoned all the Path Seals apart from the Dark Path Seal. The power from these Seals materialized and flowed freely in his body, allowing his aura to rise and grow.

The aura spilled over to the outer world, forming a frightening magnetic field, causing all kinds of fabric to dance.

In the next moment, James beckoned to Gutierre and said, "You're the one who made it to the third place on the Martial Ranking, right? Let me see if you truly are worthy of your ranking."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3526-It was a myth to make it to the top three in the Martial Ranking. This position was admired and envied by everyone in the world. Against the top three, even Ancestral Gods would hold them in high reverence.

James' aura was invincible. He was not afraid of Gutierre at all. Rather, he was filled with a massive hunger for battle, and his aura only grew with his hunger.

"Hahaha..." Gutierre let out a casual smile. He had never seen James as a worthy opponent. Even if James was someone who had enormous potential, his rank was still too low to be taken seriously. If it were not because Herschel requested him to partake in this battle, he would never have come here to waste his time and energy.

Swoosh! A streak of purple light appeared, and the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword appeared in James' hand, strengthening his aura even more.

"Ah, the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword, the Ancestral Sword Master's personal weapon. What a shame. His swordfighting techniques are too weak to harness the full power of the Sword." Many figures pitied James from afar.

As for Gutierre, his eyes lit up when he saw this, 'Your swordfighting techniques aren't bad. But I wonder how much of the Ancestral Sword Master's legacy you have cultivated thus far.'

'Try me and see for yourself.' James, with his sword in hand, said coldly, "Go ahead."novel.xo

Still, this was not heeded by Gutierre. As the second runner- up on the Martial Ranking, he would not demonstrate his moves easily.

"You first." These were two words that embodied infinite arrogance.

At that second, James moved. His body appeared before Guttiere as he deployed the First Swordsmanship. A sword that looked ordinary encapsulated countless Sword Moves. The countless Sword Moves merged into this one technique which had immensely frightening power, so frightening that it could solidify space and obstruct all escape routes available to Gutierre.

Gutierre now had two choices. He could either forcefully accept this swing of the sword, or be hit by it. However, facing the First Swordsmanship, Gutierre looked very relaxed. When James' sword pointed at his throat, he raised his hand and gripped the sword with his bare fingers.

The Sword Energy of the First Swordsmanship left no harm on him. His body did not falter the slightest bit. The only thing that moved was his sleeves and his long, black hair.

James summoned all the energy in his body, yet the sword could not move another inch forward.

Drops of sweat appeared on his forehead. Since the last battle he had with Xenus outside the Callahan Family's gates, his capacity has risen to the next level. At that point in time, his Elemental Path's Path Seal was at the Second Heaven, and the rest was only at the First. Now, all of his Path Seals have reached the Third Heaven, and his power had certainly grown. A casual summoning of all Path Seals aside from the Dark Path Seals would result in a combination of power that could make anyone's blood run cold. This power exceeded even the limits of the Grand Emperor Rank and reached that of the Quasi Ancestral Rank. Yet, Gutierre could resist all of this with such ease. He used only one hand to grip the sword, while his other hand was resting on his back.

He smiled with such pride and said, 'The power of this move has exceeded the Illuminated Rank of the Quasi Ancestral God Rank. But it's not enough. You're still a long way from the Path Integration Rank. I myself have reached the level of an Ancestral God. You will never win against me.'

One move from James and Gutierre had fully gauged his power. However, it could not be denied that it was an amazing feat to see someone at the Grand Emperor Rank Third Heaven release a power equivalent to the Illuminated Rank of a Quasi Ancestral God.

Gutierre waved his hand freely. One of his fingers struck the sword and it fell.

Powerful energy from the Sword entered James' body like waves. His body reverberated rapidly and was immediately pounded into flight by this frightening energy.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3527-James' body fell backward for some distance before slamming hard into the ground.

Thump! The impact from his fall was so large that the earth began to crack. The cracks extended continuously. Thankfully, this was in Mount Heavenly Path where the Macrocosm Ancestral God could regulate any sort of immense power, making sure that no damage is too great for Mount Heavenly Path.

All of a sudden, all of the cracks disappeared as if they were never there before. Dead silence echoed across the void, even though millions of living beings were present.

All of them knew the extent of James' capability. From the moment he left the Callahan family, he defeated the thirtieth figure on the Martial Ranking. His rank and power have ascended ever since, yet he was so easily defeated by the second runner-up on the Ranking. This just goes to show how big is the difference in capacity between number third and number thirtieth of the ranking.

Back at Herschel Palace of Mount Heavenly Path, Herschel could not suppress his giggle. He took a look at Thea, and asked, "Being an intelligent woman such as yourself and someone at the top ten powerful figures in the universe, I'm sure you're able to see how strong Gutierre is. Would you be willing to suppress your rank at the Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank to fight against Gutierre?"

Thea shook her head slightly. While she was indeed a rare gem herself, she would not be able to beat Gutierre if she suppressed her rank.

"I've long heard of how legendary the top three of the Martial Ranking are. Now that I've seen it for myself, the rumors have merely affirmed themselves," she spoke softly. She was, in fact, worried about James. Thea looked at Sienna, who had a worried expression on her face as well. At this very moment, she felt like she was at fault. If James had not come to Mount Heavenly Path for the marriage, he would certainly be able to survive the stipulated time limit using his tactics. Yet, it was she who led James into this catastrophe, putting not only him but also Sienna in danger.

Outside of Mount Heavenly Path, James stood up from the ground, wiping off the fresh blood dripping from the edge of his mouth. Then, he summoned the Life Path. The Life Path's energy came like waves, recovering all of his inner injuries. He mobilized his joints and a smile appeared on his face.

"How strong, how very strong," he said as he looked at Gutierre, "Among all of the opponents I've met thus far, you're probably the most frightening one."

Gutierre displayed his appalling power, but this only triggered James' desire for more battle.

"Come," James roared.

"As you wish," Gutierre answered coldly.

All of a sudden, he appeared in front of James at a speed so rapid that James, who was standing in the Space Path, could not sense Gutierre's tracks. Gripping his fists, Gutierre then gave James a blow in the chest. This strike encapsulated immense energy, so much so that the impact caused his chest to sink.

Gutierre did not give James an opportunity to catch his breath. He continuously hit James hundreds and thousands of times. Each strike was faster than the one before, and James had absolutely no time to react. Those strikes caused him thousands and hundreds of inner injuries.

Finally, Gutierre appeared on top of James' head. With a wave of the hand, all Paths' power gathered together, forming a blue power ball, descending head-on onto James. James' body fell from the sky upon impact.

Thump! A bottomless pit appeared on the ground, spurring up a sky full of dust.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3528-This battle attracted the attention of all the powerful figures within the universe, including the Ancestral Sword Master. James used the Sword Path but was so easily received by Gutierre that it angered him.

"My Sword Path was wasted by him, and that Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword as well. This is such a humiliation!"

If he could have guided James for a bit, James' current capability and the Sword Path would suffice in defeating Gutierre. Yet, James did not have the time to do so.

The Ancestral Talisman Master was also observing the fight, but he was very confident in James. This was because he knew that James had cultivated the embryonic form of Macrocosm Power, which was already enough to make one's blood run cold.

On the other hand, the Ancestral Needle Master was disappointed at James and his performance.

The Five Ancestral Masters who were watching discussed the battle among themselves, "Our Five Elements of Genesis was acquired by this youngster from the future?"

"If he indeed acquired our legacy, surely he must have already cultivated Macrocosm Power by now?" The Ancestral God Gold asked.

They had long started the creation of Elemental Inversion, but it was still now at its initial stages. The appearance of James had made them intensify their efforts, completing much of Elemental Inversion's development. According to their plan, Macrocosm Power would be created when the Five Elements of Genesis merge with the Elemental Inversion.

Back on Mount Heavenly Path's battlefield, everyone thought that James was utterly defeated and broken.

Time passed second by second. The flying dust settled, yet James did not stand back up.

Gutierre was floating in the air, crossing his arms. His face was filled with confidence, looking coldly at the pit below him.

Swoosh! Light exploded from the pit below, and James materialized from the flash of light that shot into the sky.

However, James was no longer calm and cold as before. He was now completely injured. No inch of his body was unscathed, and he looked battered and bruised. The Life Path subsumed him, and all of his injuries recovered immediately.

“There goes the warm-up.” James smiled widely at Gutierre.

At this moment, the Elemental Path Seal in his body was activated, materializing monumental power. The power of the Five Elements flowed freely in his body, forming a protective layer over his skin.

“Elemental Body.” This was a defensive martial art skill inscribed within Elemental Inversion. Those who want to cultivate it must first merge the Five Elements of Genesis with Elemental Inversion. James mastered this skill upon merging the Five Elements with the Path Seals. At that moment, five colors of light shone from his body.

The Five Elements—Metal, Wood, Water, Fire, and Earth—intermingled and conflicted with one another.

Gutierre looked at James without uttering a word.

After James summoned the Elemental Body, he sheathed his sword, hoping to fight Gutierre with his bare hands, just as how Gutierre fought him without any weapons.

“Young lad, are you ready?” Gutierre’s voice roared through the sky, he was getting impatient.

James smiled widely and answered, “Just come at me.”

A flicker of his silhouette and he appeared before James. His fist, encapsulating elephantine energy, charged toward James’s body. Right before the fist met its target, the Path’s power formed a shadow, which then smashed into James with full force.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3529-Clank!

A loud sound was heard. James stood upright in the void, resisting the scary strike from Gutierre using his Elemental Body. He was uninjured. His body merely staggered backward due to the reverberation of this puissant blow.

After staggering backward for a certain distance, he dispersed the power and gently patted his chest.

“That’s all you’ve got, I see.” He smiled.

“This is getting interesting.” Gutierre reciprocated the smile.

This time, James went on the offensive. He appeared before Gutierre in the blink of an eye and continuously attacked Gutierre’s vulnerabilities. Yet, each consecutive blow was casually avoided by Gutierre.

The two moved so rapidly that the living beings of the Grand Emperor Rank could not even see their movements, but merely two silhouettes entangling and disentangling with the other in the void.

Thump! Each time they came to grips with the other, the void would explode. Fortunately, the shattered space could be repaired and stabilized by the mystical power of Mount Heavenly Path.

The two exchanged tens of thousands of strikes in a short amount of time. While James’ style was to attack the vulnerability of his opponent, Gutierre’s style was to avoid them at each count while also reciprocating each blow when able, pushing James backward.

Yet, James’ shield was too fearsome, for everything that Gutierre sent out was absorbed by the Elemental Path Seal. As long as the Seals were intact, James could not be injured.

They came to grips once more, and James flew across the void. His body spun around for a full circle before he could stabilize himself in mid-air. He looked at Gutierre and smiled widely, “I see that the second runner-up of the Martial Ranking also has his limits.”

“You have some tricks up your sleeve,” The corner of Gutierre’s lips upturned ever so slightly.

“You’ve proven that you have powers beyond the ordinary. You’ve just barely made me want to be serious in this battle.”

James knew that Gutierre had not exposed his capacities fully. He was merely testing the waters before this, just like himself. It was just that James also knew that Gutierre was not his final opponent. There were still another two powerful figures who have yet to show themselves.

If Herschel was determined to take his life, even after he successfully defeated—or even killed Gutierre—the top two of the Martial Ranking would certainly make their appearance.

His true abilities must only be revealed at the very end.

At a distance, an uncanny energy emanated from Gutierre's body. As the energy accumulated, each strand of his long hair stood upright. A magnetic field materialized, destabilizing space and time. Time seemed to stand still at this point.

"Omniscience Path."

A powerful figure could not hold in his exclamation. Thea Callahan, who was in Herschel Palace, could not help but look anxious. Herschel stood up immediately and clapped incessantly, "Not bad, he's really something. He could even force Gutierre into using this skill of his. James is truly incredible."

Sienna took a breath in and said, "I can't believe someone could successfully cultivate this legendary skill."

Within the battleground, James could sense the accumulation of this uncanny energy, which dissipated in one second and merged with heaven and earth in the next.

Upon hearing the powerful figures muttering in the distance, James murmured, "What is the Omniscience Path? Is it really that awesome?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3530-James had no idea what Gutierre was doing. He could only sense that Gutierre was up to something freakish. His aura was nowhere and omnipresent at the same time. Gutierre signaled to James to start, and this one signal of his also became illusory, filled with the charm of the Path.

"James, your turn," he opened up. His voice was so loud that it echoed in the void. This simple sentence rang so loudly that his brain began to hurt.

"This is scary," James took a deep breath. Gutierre was ghastly at this moment, yet he could not afford to lose this battle. He would die, and Sienna would have to marry someone else.

James let his confidence take over him as he attacked again. Once he appeared before Gutierre, an amalgamation of all Path Seals' power materialized from his fist. This blow was made out of the Yin and Yang Energy, Elemental Power, and the Five Great Paths, so even Quasi Ancestral Gods who received it would be injured, if not dead.

Nevertheless, this blow only managed to hit a fragmented shadow. The shadow dissipated, and the true form of Gutierre uncannily appeared somewhere else.

“What?” James was stupefied. The blow encapsulated the power of the Space Path, locking space in its way. Accordingly, there was no way for Gutierre to avoid the hit, he could merely receive it.

Gutierre used James’ moment of shock to attack. His illusory body appeared behind James, unleashing a slap filled with immense energy. James’ body was hit squarely by the force, causing him to fall from the sky, slamming violently onto the ground. He was uninjured thanks to the Elemental Body.

Subsequently, his eyes seared into Gutierre’s and asked, “What is the Omniscience Path? Why is it so frightening?”

Gutierre smiled slyly and said, “This is a special battle state. It’s very difficult to comprehend. Let me be honest with you and say that there are probably less than ten people in this universe who have managed to comprehend this battle state. While this state does not raise a person’s own power, it is very uncanny. I’ll save you the details. You must reach this rank to understand more.”

One could not simply explain the Omniscience Path. It required personal comprehension, not verbal explanation.

At this moment, Gutierre’s energy soared again, forming a scary magnetic field. James, who was in the field, felt awful and sick.

“The Omniscience Path... Are you feeling it now?” As Gutierre’s voice roared, his body moved as well. A weapon materialized in his hand as he appeared before James. It was the Heaven-Piercer Halberd. He charged toward James with the weapon in hand.

James could sense the obvious attack of Gutierre, yet was unable to avoid it. He was locked in place by the immense magnetic field.

Hiss! The Heaven-Piercer Halberd penetrated through James’ Elemental Body, causing his body to slam violently into the ground once more, forming a bottomless pit.

“It’s over,” Gutierre floated in the air with an overwhelming aura. He held the Heaven-Piercer Halberd, which was materializing an appalling power.

“James, you’re a genius. I didn’t want to kill you, but we’re on different paths,” he muttered. The Heaven-Piercer Halberd slanted slightly, and frightening power poured from it into the pit.

“James!” Thea exclaimed from Herschel Palace on Mount Heavenly Path. She was tempted to extend her aid, but was reprimanded coldly by Herschel, “Thea, this is Mount Heavenly Path. Who do you think you are?”
