The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3541-James cursed angrily, blindsided by how tough the person that stood on top of the Martial Ranking was.

He immediately retreated some distance away. He summoned a black lotus that instantly dissipated into a black mist.

The mist spread through the air and fenced in one of Quinn's clones. Seeping into the clone's body, it rapidly drained its host's energy.

"Confinement."

James took this opportunity to cast Curse Magic.

Curse Power burst forth and sealed the surrounding space.

He appeared before Quinn and raised his palm, launching an attack using Death Power.

Quinn was instantly wounded.

Death Power coursed through Quinn's body. His cells began to degenerate, and he immediately felt death close in on him.

His veins bulged, protruding from his face like grotesque earthworms. He looked hideous and unsightly.

Quinn roared, "Break!"

Using his incredible strength, he forcibly escaped the Demonic Lotus' seal and Curse Magic's confinement. Then, he hurriedly channeled his body's strength to nullify the Death Power in his body.

Both James and Quinn sustained wounds after their prolonged fight.

As soon as Quinn broke free, the Elemental Wheel whirled toward him.

The Elemental Wheel spun rapidly and struck his back, cleaving his body in half.

James had successfully destroyed Quinn's body.

Unfortunately, it was not Quinn's main body. Seven more of his clones stood in the distance.

The seven bodies positioned themselves in various ways, forming a strange formation.

James grunted in frustration and continued using the Elemental Wheel to take out the clones.

However, the seven bodies had already activated a powerful formation that could resist Macrocosm Power from the Elemental Wheel.

Quinn easily knocked away James' Elemental Wheel.

The Elemental Wheel disintegrated, turning back into Elemental Path Seals of Genesis.

"Impressive."

After having fought him for a while, James realized how formidable Quinn was and came to understand how he ranked first on the Martial Ranking.

At that moment, Macrocosm Power exuded from the Five Great Paths' Path Seal.

Then, James summoned the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword.

James' aura grew stronger, bolstered by the strength of Macrocosm Power and the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword.

"Blossoming."

James cast Blossoming once more, and a Sacred Blossom bloomed in front of him.

The Sacred Blossom flew toward the seven bodies with overwhelming Macrocosm Power.

The seven Quinn clones immediately acted in unison to resist the incoming attack.

The Sacred Blossom was crushed by their overwhelming power.

Before it disappeared, it managed to knock one of the seven bodies away.

At that moment, countless shadows dispersed in the sky.

They quickly merged to form James, who appeared before one of Quinn's clones and dealt it a blow.

The Macrocosm Power infused in the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword instantly destroyed the clone.

Many powerhouses watched the battle intently from a distance.

The battle was exhilarating, with both James and Quinn demonstrating exceptional strength.

“As expected from the top on the Martial Ranking. His strength makes him almost invincible against anyone under the Quasi Ancestral God Rank.”

“James is also likewise impressive. If he continues honing his skills, he’d be practically unstoppable in the future.”

Many powerhouses highly regarded the two, blown away by their strength they wielded.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3542-James fought fiercely against Quinn.

Both of them used their signature skills against each other.

Quinn summoned seven clones. Including his main body, there were eight of him on the battlefield.

Each of his bodies was equally as strong as the original, and the formation they activated was terrifyingly powerful.

They were so strong they could even effortlessly counter James’ Blooming attack.

Blooming utilized Macrocosm Power which was superior to other powers. Still, Quinn managed to neutralize the attack.

James used several of his signature skills during the fight to kill two clones. Now, only six more opponents remained on the battlefield.

Quinn was furious that two of his clones were destroyed. He stopped taking defensive measures and took the initiative to attack James aggressively.

His clones charged at James with lightning speed.

James evaded the attacks using his various abilities.

The Infinity Steles, Elemental Path Seals of Genesis, and One for All were activated instantly.

However, he was still outnumbered and could not defend against every attack. The barrage of attacks struck him and caused numerous injuries.

A Scythe of Judgment sliced into him, and a powerful force shocked his body.

Heavenly Path Power wreaked havoc on his Path Seals again. Many of his Path Seals were on the verge of shattering and would fall apart if struck a few more times. James knew his strength would lessen considerably if his Path Seal were destroyed.

He used his power to forcibly hold together his cracked Path Seals.

Quinn seized the chance to attack again.

James also leaped into action. He immediately activated all his combat abilities. He sealed the surrounding space and stopped time. Then, he summoned the Elemental Path Seals, Infinity Steles, and used the Macrocosm Power-infused Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword to attack one of Quinn's clones.

The struck clone was destroyed instantly.

Five more clones still stood on the battlefield.

As soon as he destroyed that clone, another appeared behind James out of nowhere and struck him with a Scythe of Judgment.

Beset by multiple enemies, James inevitably left a few openings for his opponent. By the time he sensed the danger, it was already too late, and the scythe struck his side.

James' Sword Path Seal was shattered instantly.

After his Sword Path Seal was destroyed, it dissipated into Sword Energy which surged through his body. James' body was immediately riddled with more injuries.

He quickly drew upon the Life Path's Power to heal the wounds.

However, he could only treat his physical wounds. As for his broken Sword Path, it was impossible to repair.

The fight on the battlefield was intense.

Quinn and James pit their respective techniques against each other.

After James' Sword Path was shattered, he fought more conservatively. He withdrew his Elemental Path Seals of Genesis and used their power to form a barrier on his body's surface.

Meanwhile, he willed the Infinite Steles to revolve around him protectively.

Then, he used Time, Space, Death, Reincarnation, Karma, and Macrocosm Power formed from the Five Great Paths to repel Quinn.

After fighting more defensively, he sustained fewer injuries during the battle.

Despite being struck a few times, his Path Seals also did not take substantial damage.

Their fight lasted for another three days.

Three days later, Quinn was left with only two clones.

The clones flanked James from his sides, forcing James into a fierce battle.

Sienna watched the battle from Herschel Palace on Mount Heavenly Path with a worried look. She was significantly relieved after seeing that only two Quinns were left on the battlefield.

Thea looked at the glowering Herschel and said, "I hope you keep your word, Herschel. After James successfully enters Mount Heavenly Path, you must stop targeting him."

Herschel sat in the highest seat with narrowed eyes.

"Is even Quinn about to lose to James?"

Herschel was in disbelief.

Quinn was ranked first on the Martial Ranking and was supposedly undefeatable by anyone under the Quasi Ancestral Rank. Yet, a Third Heaven Grand Emperor like James had destroyed many of his clones.

The clone technique was one of Quinn's signature skills, and the clones he formed were just as strong as his original body.

Boom!

A loud explosion spread from outside Mount Heavenly Path.

It occurred from the clashing forces of Sword Energy and Sword Light.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3543-The terrifying Heavenly Path Power knocked James away. His Blood Energy was agitated from the shock, and he gurgled out a mouthful of blood.

Quinn seized the opportunity and closed the distance, launching attacks at the Infinity Steles around James.

He knocked away a few Infinite Steles one after the other, then appeared before James in a flash.

As soon as he closed in, he swung the Scythe of Judgement at James.

Unable to react in time, James was struck by the scythe. The barrier formed by the Elemental Path Seals of Genesis was breached instantly. Devastating Heavenly Path Power coursed into his body and destroyed it from within.

James' Dark Seal broke and dispersed into black energy, further wrecking his insides.

At the same time, his Yin and Yang Path Seals were also shattered.

Three of James' Path Seals were destroyed with just a single attack and their enhancements to his strength disappeared instantly.

James' aura shrunk tremendously as a result.

"Damn it!" He spat in a furious rage.

The Demonic Lotus surfaced from his body, melted into black mist, and surrounded Quinn.

James charged at him, and countless shadows flew into the sky.

The shadows merged before the entrapped Quinn, and James plunged the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword through his body.

Immediately afterward, James turned sharply and unleashed terrifying Karma Power to disintegrate whatever remained of the body.

James successfully killed all of Quinn's clones, and only Quinn's main body remained on the battlefield.

Creating numerous powerful clones consumed a lot of energy.

Now that Quinn's clones were destroyed, his strength was heavily spent. He retreated away and gasped for breath as he stared at James with a grave expression.

James also tried to compose himself.

Many of his Path Seals were destroyed, causing his strength to fall drastically. Although his Sword Path Seal was broken, Sword Energy still remained in his body, allowing him to still utilize the Sword Path.

Fortunately, he still had his Path Seals for the Five Great Paths and the Elements of Genesis.

He could still use two different types of Macrocosm Power and secure his victory.

“What other tricks do you have, Quinn?”

James looked at Quinn, who was panting from exertion in the distance. In that moment, he saw a small glimpse of victory.

Quinn, on the other hand, was gripped with despair.

James had an incredible amount of skills. In contrast, Quinn himself had already thrown everything he had at James, including the Scythe of Judgement. He even used Heavenly Path Power to summon a Heavenly Tribulation.

Yet, James managed to survive the intense onslaught.

Quinn knew it was impossible for him to kill James, and he wanted to surrender.

However, he recalled Herschel’s words and gritted his teeth.

“Cut the cr*p! Let’s get back into action!”

He shouted and charged at James with the Scythe of Judgement in hand. He swung the scythe frantically, and Sword Lights containing Heavenly Path Power darted out towards his enemy.

Each Sword Light had enough power to kill a newly formed Mystical Ancestral God.

Quinn seemed to lose his mind and relentlessly attacked James.

However, James used the Infinite Steles to block his attacks. At the same time, he also used the Time and Space Paths to evade the attacks.

Quinn chased after James like a mad dog, unwilling to give up.

James knew that Quinn’s Cultivation Heart was already unstable, and he no longer posed a huge threat.

Using the Time Path’s Power, he stopped time. James stepped through the void, appeared before Quinn, and swung the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword at Quinn’s head.

However, he held back at the last second and did not follow through with the attack.

Time returned to normal, and Quinn was knocked away by the terrifying power of James' Sword Path.

Quinn's hair was disheveled, and his body was covered in blood. Unwilling to accept his defeat, he shouted furiously, "Impossible! I'm ranked first on the Martial Ranking! I'm undefeatable by cultivators below the Quasi Ancestral God Rank! How can you, a mere Third Heaven Grand Emperor, defeat me?!"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3544-Quinn was ranked first on the Mount Heavenly Path's Martial Ranking.

He had eight Ousias and single-handedly crafted his signature skill, the Clone Art.

Quinn was never forced to use the Clone Art against cultivators in the same rank as him. His signature skill allowed him to kill even an Ancestral God.

Yet, James was able to best Clone Art.

Quinn would have died had James not shown any mercy.

He had always thought himself superior and above others. Thus, he found it hard to accept defeat.

Like a madman, he ran far away and disappeared from everyone's sight.

James was relieved after Quinn's departure. He would not have been able to take it had the battle gone on much longer.

Many of his Path Seals had been destroyed. His Sword Path Seal was the more important one among them. After it was shattered, he still continued to use the Sword Path and caused great harm to his body.

After Quinn vanished, James' body dropped from the sky and crashed into the ground.

"It's James' victory!"

"Amazing. James won the match."

“Once again, he’s miraculously turned the tides. At the Grand Emperor Rank’s Third Heaven, he reached the top of the Martial Ranking and became the most outstanding cultivator under the Quasi Ancestral Rank.

The crowd in the distance cheered raucously.

Swoosh!

An old man with white hair appeared before James’ fallen body.

It was the Ancestral Needle Master. He squatted down to check on James’ injuries.

After examining James’ condition, his brows furrowed. “Several of your Path Seals have been destroyed, and your cultivation foundation was also affected.”

James struggled to his feet. He looked at the worried Ancestral Needle Master with a weak smile and said, “I’m fine, Sir. I’ll feel better after resting a while.”

The Ancestral Needle Master stood up and said, “Indeed. You’ve grasped the Life Path, allowing you to recover from your injuries as long as you’re still breathing. As for your damaged Path Seals, I’m sure they’ll also recover once you recuperate for long enough.”

The Ancestral Needle Master did not stay for long and quickly left. Although he disappeared from the area, his voice echoed behind him. “Don’t forget our agreement in the Callahan Residence. Once you’re done here, come to me so I can teach you the rest of my medical skills.”

James turned to the direction the Ancestral Needle Master had traveled toward and shouted, “Of course.”

The Ancestral Sword Master smiled while concealing himself and murmured, “He sure is impressive.”

After lauding James for his effort, he turned and left.

The Ancestral Talisman Master was also pleased by the battle’s outcome. “He has already mastered three types of Macrocosm Power. If I recall correctly, there’s another Macrocosm Ancestral God in the depths of the Dark World that also possesses three kinds of Macrocosm Power. James will definitely be a Macrocosm Ancestral God with the power he wields,” he muttered pensively.

The Five Ancestral Masters were also satisfied with James’ performance.

In Mount Heavenly Path, Herschel was downcast. He sat depressedly in the highest seat without saying a single word.

James successfully defeated Quinn, Martial Ranking's top fighter. Moreover, he defeated all the powerhouses he had sent after him.

He was so close to reaching Mount Heavenly Path. Once James stepped foot into Mount Heavenly Path, he was no longer allowed to attack James.

An obvious smile formed on Thea's cold face.

She turned to Sienna and smirked. "Congratulations, Sienna."

Herschel silently left the main hall for a restricted area of Mount Heavenly Path.

He looked at Hadad respectfully in Hadad Palace and said, "Father, I apologize for my incompetence. I failed to kill James and he has already arrived outside of Mount Heavenly Path. What should I do? Shall I send an even stronger powerhouse to finish him or let him enter Mount Heavenly Path?"

Hadad sat in the highest seat. He had also watched James' fight outside Mount Heavenly Path. As such, he was also aware many powerhouses had secretly shown up to watch the battle.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3545-The Ancestral Sword Master, Ancestral Talisman Master, Ancestral Needle Master, and Five Ancestral Masters had shown up to watch the fight.

These powerhouses were at the peak of the Caelum Ancestral God Rank.

Hadad knew that these powerhouses appeared to support James. If he were to kill James now, these powerhouses would turn against Mount Heavenly Path. He was not confident he could handle the retribution from all the other powerhouses.

Moreover, he had something more problematic to deal with now.

The Dark Night Lord from the Dark World was pressuring him to hand over the Dark Wellspring.

Hadad rubbed his temples exasperatedly. After a while, he said, "Leave James be for now. I have another task for you. Find out who went to the Dark World and took the Dark Wellspring."

"What do we do about James then?" asked Herschel.

Hadad replied. "Since you can't kill him, bring him over to our side. Allow him to join Mount Heavenly Path and become one of our disciples. Give him everything he needs to cultivate."

"Alright."

After Herschel received his orders, he turned and left.

Meanwhile, James sat in a lotus position outside Mount Heavenly Path.

His physical injuries had already recovered, but the trauma caused by the Heavenly Path Power and his broken Path Seals could not be mended easily.

James stood up from the ground and stretched his body. He murmured, "I've finally defeated Quinn, the Martial Ranking's former top fighter. He truly was a force to be reckoned with. Without my treasures and Macrocosm Power, defeating him would have been even more impossible."

Then, he walked toward Mount Heavenly Path. Soon, he reached the formation outside the area.

As he approached, the formation opened for him.

James immediately entered Mount Heavenly Path. After he sensed Thea and Sienna's presence, he hurriedly walked toward Herschel Palace's main hall.

It did not take long for him to arrive at the main hall. He saw Thea in a black dress and Sienna in a red wedding gown. He also spotted Herschel seated in the highest seat.

Clap! Clap! Clap!

Herschel stood up from his seat, and his crisp applause filled the hall.

"Impressive, James. Your performance was outstanding. You defeated Quinn and destroyed his Cultivation Heart. If he can't get a hold of himself, he'll remain useless for the rest of his life."

James looked at Herschel and snorted coldly.

Herschel continued. "You've completed the test of Mount Heavenly Path. From today onward, we accept you as a disciple. Your duty will be to assist Radomir in controlling the Heavenly Path. I hope that with your help, Radomir can better command the Heavenly Path and maintain the peace of our universe."

Herschel's voice resounded throughout the hall. Even Thea was shocked by his words.

“Assist Radomir?”

What kind of person was Radomir?

He was the second strongest man in the universe and was in charge of the Heavenly Path.

Yet, Herschel asked James to assist Radomir in controlling the Heavenly Path. This would elevate James’ status to one of the highest in the universe.

James initially wanted to refuse the offer. However, he reconsidered after recalling the Holy Master of Nothingness’ request.

Perhaps he could execute his plans better if he got close to Radomir.

James pretended to be oblivious to Mount Heavenly Path’s ill intent and said, “So, all this was merely a test? I misunderstood your intentions. Thank you, Young Master.”

He clasped his hands together and expressed his gratitude.

Herschel smiled lightly and said, “You’ve got great potential and will definitely become one of the cornerstones of our universe. Please devote yourself wholly to your cultivation.”

James nodded slightly and turned to Sienna in a red wedding gown.

Sienna’s pretty face lit up. James walked over to her, took her hand, and smiled gently. “I’ll bring you back to the Callahan Residence, Sienna.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3546-James had fought with Quinn, who was ranked first on Mount Heavenly Path’s Martial Ranking.

Quinn was incredibly strong and had occupied the top spot for many years. He had never been defeated by cultivators in the same rank before. Thus, his Cultivation Heart was severely affected after suffering a defeat.

Just as Herschel mentioned, Quinn would be useless if he could not pull himself together.

Mount Heavenly Path had a different problem now, and Hadad was unwilling to waste more time on James.

He knew many powerhouses at the peak of the Caelum Ancestral God Rank hung around Mount Heavenly Path looking out for James. He knew the good relationship he maintained with these powerhouses would suffer if he followed through with killing James.

Therefore, Hadad chose to recruit James instead.

Through Herschel's arrangements, James became Radomir's assistant. His duty was to help Radomir manage the Heavenly Path.

James accepted Mount Heavenly Path's arrangements with a small smile.

He could only go along with their ploy because he did not want them to know he had obtained ownership over Mount Nothingness.

His main priority now was to bring Sienna back to the Callahan Residence.

He took Sienna's hand and walked away under Thea and Herschel's gaze.

James and Sienna left Herschel Palace together. Thea's heart tightened as she watched the two depart. It was a feeling she had never felt before.

Startled by the strange feeling, Thea thought, 'What's wrong with me? Why do I feel so weird?'

Herschel glanced at Thea, stood up, and said, "I need to settle something beforehand, so I can't accompany you any longer, Thea."

After bidding farewell, Herschel turned and left.

Thea did not want to stay in Mount Heavenly Path any longer and chose to leave as well.

The Callahans had been paying close attention to James' every move recently because their most powerful members, Thea and Sienna, were both involved with his recent exploits.

When James brought Sienna back to the Callahans, their family members warmly welcomed him.

Initially, the Callahans looked down on James.

However, they eventually recognized that James was a rare prodigy after he defeated Quinn. Given time, James' influence would definitely spread throughout the universe and become one of the most excellent cultivators.

On a building atop Sienna's residential mountain, celebratory decorations were strung up everywhere, creating a delightful atmosphere.

"Sienna..."

James looked at the beautifully dressed Sienna, who was beaming excitedly at him and said apologetically, "Please forgive me, but I can't take you as my wife. I'm aware you've sacrificed a lot for me. However, I really can't marry you. The feelings I have toward you are only of respect."

He expressed his regrets.

Sienna's eyes grew moist upon hearing his rejection.

Suddenly, Thea showed up before the two.

"Who do you take the Callahans for, James?"

She reprimanded him after overhearing their earlier exchange. "News of you and Sienna's marriage has already spread everywhere. Everyone in the universe knows that you two are supposed to get married. Yet, you're saying you can't marry her? How will she face others in the future?"

"That's enough, Brianna."

Sienna tried her best to control her emotions and hold back her tears.

"I respect his decision."

After speaking, she took James and Thea's hands.

She gently placed Thea's hand into James' and said, "I'm leaving him in your hands, Brianna."

"I..." Thea hesitated to speak, not knowing what to say at that moment.

Sienna looked at James and said, "You don't have to feel weighed down, James. You don't owe me anything. If anything, it's my fault for not being worthy of you."

After speaking, she turned and left.

Thea shouted, "Where are you going, Sienna?!"

Sienna was long gone, but her voice rang around on the mountaintop. "The universe is vast. I'm sure there's a place just for me. You don't have to worry about me. I've slacked on my cultivation for a long time and need to work hard to catch up."

Her voice gradually softened and vanished.

“Huff!”

Thea took a deep breath, glanced at James, and said lightly, “You better take responsibility for your actions.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3547-After speaking, she turned and left.

James felt utterly helpless. He traveled to the Primeval Age to reunite with Thea.

However, the Thea he knew in the Apocalypse Age was just a fragment of the real Thea’s soul. The Primeval Age’s Thea had no idea who he was, nor did she have any feelings for him.

Faced with Thea’s cold attitude, he was unsure of what to do to get into her good graces.

“Huff.” James sighed softly.

He planned to hand Sienna the Dark Wellspring.

Sienna cultivated the Dark Path, so it would be beneficial to her cultivation and would greatly improve her strength.

However, Sienna left before he could offer it to her.

The conflict between him and Mount Heavenly Path had been resolved for now.

Mount Heavenly Path would cease the attacks on him. However, James understood that they still saw him as a threat. Thus, he had to hone himself as much as possible. Otherwise, his death would be all but assured if they fell back on their word.

His main priority would be to raise his cultivation rank quickly. After that, he would have to wait for Radomir to ascend and become a Macrocosm Ancestral God. After that, Radomir would then begin a massacre of the Ancestral Gods throughout the universe.

If everything he predicted took place, James would know where Thea’s main body was and could bring her back to the future. By then, Thea would finally know about their relationship.

Before he came to the Primeval Age, Melinda had reminded him not to do anything that could change history.

According to his understanding, Radomir would turn against Mount Heavenly Path and kill all the powerhouses throughout the universe.

He did not intend to intervene in these events. Even if he did, James knew he had no strength to stop it anyway.

He spent some time thinking about a number of things.

Afterward, he left to find Thea.

Inside a building on Thea's mountain residence, Thea sat in the highest seat and glanced at James beneath her.

James clasped his fist and said, "Thank you for your hospitality during this time, Thea. You even went through the trouble of going to Mount Heavenly Path to vouch for me."

Thea waved her hand and said, "I only did it for Sienna's sake."

James said, "I'd rather not impose so I'll be taking my leave."

Hearing this, Thea glanced at James and asked, "Is there something in the Callahan Residence that isn't to your liking? You're still in the midst of recuperating, and a few of your Path Seals were destroyed. Your cultivation base was even affected in the previous battle. It will take a long time for you to completely recover. You're not allowed to go anywhere else. Stay in the Callahan Residence and rest at ease."

Her words were more like an absolute order telling James to stay in the Callahan Residence.

James replied. "I must go to Mount Heavenly Path now that Herschel has given me the responsibility to assist Radomir in managing the Heavenly Path."

Thea said lightly, "Herschel tried everything in his power to kill you, yet he suddenly changed his mind and wants you to join Mount Heavenly Path. He's trying to lure you into danger. You should stay here to be safe."

Thea insisted on James staying in the Callahan's territory. In reality, she had selfish motives behind her insistence.

Without her realizing it, she had already harbored feelings for James.

Perhaps it was because James' figure from behind looked like the man in her dreams or maybe it was because James showed great potential, and she wanted to see how much more James could grow.

Regardless of the reason, Thea recognized that James had a special place in her heart.

James smiled faintly and said, "Mount Heavenly Path is the leading force of this universe. Since I've passed their test, I'm sure they'll stop targetting me."

James knew full well everything he had been through was not a test by Mount Heavenly Path. They were actually trying to kill him because they discovered he had cultivated Macrocosm Power.

However, he could not reveal this information.

As for Thea, he planned to leave matters related to her to time.

When the time was right, everything would fall into place.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3548-After James bid farewell to Thea, he left the Callahan Residence.

Seeing that James insisted on leaving, Thea did not continue to convince him. After he had left her sight, she sighed softly.

After leaving the Callahan Residence, James headed to Mount Heavenly Path.

He looked at the towering mountains ahead of him and recalled the intense battles he had fought here not too long ago.

Now, he could enter the place without fear.

As soon as he appeared outside Mount Heavenly Path's formation, a young man appeared to greet him. The man wore a white robe. He was very handsome and had a very distinctive aura.

"You're finally here, James."

The man greeted him, seemingly having waited for James a long time.

James looked at the man before him. It was none other than Radomir.

He knew that Radomir killed Mount Heavenly Path's Master and took his palace.

This was their second meeting.

Radomir looked like a knowledgeable scholar who was very well-read. He looked nothing like an ambitious schemer plotting to take over the universe.

James smiled faintly and greeted him, "Hello, Radomir."

It was hard to tell that the force behind the Heavenly Path that everyone wanted to kill during the Apocalypse Age was him.

Radomir made a welcoming gesture and said, "Follow me. I'll show you around Mount Heavenly Path."

James nodded lightly and followed behind Radomir.

Walking ahead, Radomir began to introduce Mount Heavenly Path to James.

"Mount Heavenly Path is where all of the universe's fortune gathers. Truth be told, it wasn't always like this in the past. It was only after the Holy Master of Nothingness died did Hadad, Mount Heavenly Path's Master, rise to the top. With his powerful signature skill, he drew the universe's good fortune to Mount Heavenly Path.

"This is why every powerhouse in the universe wants to enter Mount Heavenly Path." Along the way, Radomir elaborated on Mount Heavenly Path's history.

Soon, they arrived at a beautiful place teeming with Primordial Energy.

"We've arrived at Mount Teva, the core region of Mount Heavenly Path. This is also where I reside most of the time if there isn't anything special going on."

Radomir brought James to the mountain where he resided.

A few majestic buildings could be seen atop the mountain, and many disciples were dispersed all over the area.

Radomir brought James to an independent manor in the back mountains. He pointed at the manor and said, "This will be your residence from now onward. You should recuperate and recover from your injuries first. After that, I'll slowly teach you how to manage the Heavenly Path."

Radomir was like a dutiful elder brother. He was all smiles from the very beginning and acted amicably toward James.

James said, "Thank you."

Hadad parted his lips and said, "The Young Master has allowed you to join Mount Heavenly Path and even assigned you to assist me. So, from today onward, you will be the second-in-charge on Mount Teva. All the disciples here are under your command. If you need anything, feel free to request it of them."

James nodded. "I understand."

Radamir did not stay for long and left after explaining a few things to James.

James walked into the courtyard.

The manor was huge. The courtyard was full of blooming flowers with Spiritual Butterflies dancing around them.

James walked through the flowers and walked into the house.

He sat in a lotus position inside a room and began to ponder deeply.

James found it hard to believe the Radomir he had just talked to was an ambitious man that would usurp Mount Heavenly Path in the future.

Those traits simply did not fit the person he had just met.

"Huff!" James took a deep breath and dismissed the thoughts.

He cleared his mind and relaxed. After that, he focused on composing himself and recovering from his injuries.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3549-Several of James' Path Seals were broken.

Normally, the destruction of one's Path Seal would mean losing one's entire cultivation base.

However, James had many Path Seals.

As such, he was still fine. All he had to do was restore his destroyed Path Seal.

Although it would take a long time, James had a lot of time to spare since he had to wait for time to pass. Therefore, he decided to cultivate without a Time Formation.

James began to cultivate and focused on healing his injuries.

Time passed as he treated his wounds.

10,000 years went by in the blink of an eye.

After cultivating for such a long period, James successfully repaired his Path Seals.

James stood up and stretched his body. After sensing the majestic power flowing through his body, he took a deep breath and murmured, "It took me ten thousand years to completely recover."

It had been 10,000 years since he arrived at Mount Heavenly Path. However, he had spent most of his time here recuperating.

Now that he had recovered, he finally left his room and walked to the courtyard.

James looked at the flowers outside and felt extremely relaxed.

He murmured, "It's about time I go see Winnie. I wonder where she is right now."

It had been a long time since he arrived in the Primeval Age. His daughter, Winnie, also traveled to the same age, but he never had the chance to reunite with her.

James walked out of the manor and soon arrived at the front of the mountain, where many disciples flitted about, carrying out their respective tasks.

Some carried spiritual fruits, while others ran around with spiritual wine.

James pulled a disciple aside and asked, "What's going on? Why is everyone so busy?"

Seeing James, the disciple immediately answered, "Sir, the princess has come to visit."

"Princess?" James was slightly taken aback.

'Mount Heavenly Path's Princess? Could it be Melinda?' thought James.

He looked at the hall in front of him, and made his way there.

At the highest seat was a handsome man and two beautiful women were seated below him. When he saw the two women, James' eyes lit up. It was Melinda and Winnie. James walked into the hall.

Radomir immediately stood up and introduced James to them, "Princess Melinda, this is Mount Teva's, Deputy Leader."

Melinda stood up, and her bright eyes scrutinized James.

Radomir continued to speak, "James, this is Mount Heavenly Path's Princess and also our Master's daughter, Melinda Theophanes. The other person is our Master's disciple, Winnie Caden."

After the introduction, he smiled and said, "Her surname is also Caden, just like you."

James nodded lightly. He walked into the main hall and sat to the side. Then, he picked up a spiritual fruit and ate it.

With a single bite, he felt powerful energy course through his body and immediately felt rejuvenated.

"We meet again, James. This is Winnie, the woman you asked about last time. Now that you've seen her, aren't you going to say anything?" Melinda wore a mischievous smile.

James looked at Melinda, then turned to Winnie beside her.

Melinda continued to speak, "You specifically asked about Winnie when we met in Katun Realm, right? So, what kind of relationship do you two have?" James was not sure how to answer her question.

Winnie was unwilling to reveal her identity, so she stood up and said, "Mr. Caden, it's a pleasure to see you again."

Melinda glanced at Winnie puzzledly. "Back when I was still a weak cultivator, I found myself in a dangerous situation. Fortunately, Mr. Caden saved me. We've met each other before." Explained Winnie.

"Is that so?" Melinda looked at her, clearly doubting her story.

James nodded lightly and said, "Were you expecting some other explanation?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3550-James and Winnie's relationship could not be exposed.

Since Winnie took the initiative to cover it up, James played along with her.

Melinda suspected that James was somehow related to Winnie, but had no evidence to support her beliefs. Since Winnie explained of her own accord, she stopped pressing the matter and said, "Welcome to Mount Heavenly Path."

James parted his lips and replied. "Thank you."

Melinda specifically visited Mount Teva to see James.

"I'd like to speak to you briefly, James."

She led James out of the hall. After leaving the hall, she headed to an isolated area. Then, she let go of James and stared at him.

Puzzled, James asked, "Is something the matter?"

Melinda grinned and said, "It's not a big deal. Not too long ago, my father came to me and mentioned wanting to wed me to you."

" ... "

James took a few steps backward and stared at Melinda. Then, he immediately smiled sarcastically. "That wasn't very funny."

"It's true. Father said you're a rare prodigy that is destined to surpass everyone in the universe and that you're the only person worthy of marrying me. He also mentioned that you'd replace Radomir and take control of the Heavenly Path to assist my brother when he becomes the Lord of the Universe. If you marry me, you'll become one of the most powerful people in this universe," said Melinda.

Melinda faithfully relayed what Hadad had told her. After learning that her father wanted her to marry James, she agreed to his idea without hesitation. Since antiquity, it was perfectly normal for a beautiful woman to marry a powerful man. James was the only man in the entire universe worthy of taking her hand.

Meanwhile, James had a grim expression when he heard what she had said.

'This is ridiculous. How can I marry Melinda?' thought James.

He became the new owner of Mount Nothingness and his duty was to destroy Mount Heavenly Path.

Sooner or later, he would have to turn against Mount Heavenly Path. How could he take Melinda as his wife knowing this?

Melinda grinned at him. "I simply came to give you a heads-up. My father will come to speak to you in person about the marriage soon."

After speaking, Melinda dashed off. James was left behind, dumbfounded by the news.

"W-What the hell is going on?" He murmured to himself, then entered the hall again.

As soon as he returned, Winnie stood up and asked, "Mr. Caden, what business did you have with the Princess?"

James replied lightly, "It's nothing of importance. She simply said the Lord of the Universe wishes to betrothe her to me."

"Huh?" Gaspd Winnie loudly. Her lips then formed a smile. "Well, that's interesting."

"A-hem."

Radomir coughed lightly from the highest seat and said, "I still have other matters to attend to, so I can't stay any longer. By the way, could you also see Winnie home? Master really favors her, so you must treat her courteously."

James felt his chest tighten at Radomir's words.

'Hadad favors Winnie? What does Radomir mean? If Hadad likes my daughter, and he marries his daughter to me, everyone's relationship would become extremely messy,' thought James.

James took a deep breath and cleared his mind. He turned to Winnie and said, "Let's go, I'll escort you back."
