

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3551

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3551-"Alright." Winnie nodded lightly. James escorted her out of Mount Teva.

Winnie walked in front of him and asked. "When did you arrive here? Why are you in the Primeval Age? Did you come here on your own or were you coincidentally sent here?"

Winnie was already aware that James had come to the Primeval Age, but she still did not know if he deliberately traveled here or happened here by chance.

James replied dejectedly, "I came here to see your mother."

Stunned, Winnie stopped in her tracks and turned to James in shock. She asked. "Is Brianna really my mother?"

After thinking about how to answer her, James said, "Well... Yes, and no."

"Huh?" Winnie was puzzled.

James said, "Your future self knows the complete details. The events that happen in the Primeval Age will lead up to certain events in the future. However, you missed out on some important information because you left too early. Thus, you did not know that Thea's soul was used to make the Ancestral God Rank Elixir."

James explained future events to Winnie in a hushed tone.

When Winnie traveled to the Primeval Age, she was stained with Karma.

Winnie originally came from the Apocalypse Age. As such, hearing James speak of future events would not attract Karma to her. She was able to clearly hear every single word James told her.

"I see."

Winnie grasped the situation and said, "So after you learned what you know and found out that Thea was in the Primeval Age, you traveled through the River of Time to come here."

Distressed, James said, "That's right. However, the Thea in the Primeval Age knows nothing about me. I shouldn't have appeared in the first place. I told her about events to come, but it attracted Karma, and she couldn't hear anything I told her."

James was anxious but did not know how to proceed.

Winnie comforted him. "There's no need to rush. Sooner or later, Mom will surely recognize you."

"I hope so." James sighed.

The two chatted along the way.

Although they were within Mount Heavenly Path, they were discussing Heaven's secret, which would attract Karma. Therefore, the other people could not hear their conversation.

Soon, Winnie arrived at her residence.

"This is where I live, Dad. I've been having fun after joining Mount Heavenly Path, so there's no need worry about me. Just do what you set out to do."

"Okay." James nodded.

James already knew about Winnie's future.

After Radomir rebelled and took over Mount Heavenly Path, he recruited many Heaven's Adjudicators to kill powerful cultivators from all over the universe. Winnie, on the other hand, wanted nothing to do with his plans. Thus, she imprisoned herself and sealed herself away from the chaos.

However, Winnie left her prison to help James and defied the Heavenly Path's will. Her punishment was to be eternally imprisoned, unable to step out into the universe again.

James wanted to rescue Winnie, so he had to become a Macrocosm Ancestral God.

Knowing Winnie's decision, he knew he would not have to worry about Winnie's safety.

For now, his only concern was himself.

He was unsure what kind of role he played in the Primeval Age.

In the Apocalypse Age, he tried asking Winnie and Melinda about the Primeval Age, especially about the Thea from this age. However, the two of them refused to tell him anything.

As a result, his understanding of the Primeval Age was very limited. He did not know the full details of what had transpired.

He was hesitant about whether to keep his promise to the Holy Master of Nothingness or refrain from interfering and let history play out as it should.

James left Winnie's residence, his mind filled with worries.

Radomir came to see him when he returned to Mount Teva.

"James," Radomir called out.

"Yeah?" James turned around, nodded lightly, and asked. "Is something the matter?"

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3552

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3552-"Take a walk with me."

Radomir invited James with a hint of sadness on his face.

James replied softly. "Okay."

He followed Radomir to the back of Mount Teva.

On both sides of the winding mountain road were many magical plants. A few of them bore fragrant fruits that glowed mystically.

Radomir said, "From the moment I saw you, I knew how alike the both of us were."

Surprised, James asked, "What do you mean by that? How are we alike?"

Radomir stopped walking. "You cultivated Macrocosm Power. You'll eventually become a Macrososm Ancestral God if you continue to raise your cultivation rank. \You've also mastered multiple Macrocosm Powers. It's not hard to see that you're destined for greatness. You might even break the limit of the Twelfth Universe."

James listened carefully to him.

Radomir continued speaking, "You've become a threat to Mount Heavenly Path's status after cultivating Macrocosm Power. Due to this, the Young Master tried to kill you through any means possible. However, you had the support of the Ancestral Sword Master and the Callahans.

"Mount Heavenly Path is wary of both of these influential forces. Thus, they had no choice but to compromise. Since they couldn't get rid of you, they chose to bring you into their fold."

James' expression became solemn. He never expected Radomir to comprehend the current situation so well. Moreover, Radomir honestly discussed all this with him.

Puzzled, James thought, 'Why is he telling me this? Is he trying to win me over?'

Radomir said, "I also cultivated Macrocosm Power when I was younger. I should've been killed, but Hadad made an exception and made me his disciple. When I grew up, he let me be in charge of the Heavenly Path."

"Oh? You also cultivated Macrocosm Power?" James asked back in a startled tone.

Radomir nodded and said, "Indeed. Although I've cultivated Macrocosm Power, the universe's luck has been sealed away. I've already reached the highest possible cultivation rank and can't cross over to become a Macrocosm Ancestral God."

James asked. "Why can't you become a Macrocosm Ancestral God? You've already cultivated Macrocosm Power. Even if someone's hoarding the universe's luck, you've still reached the peak of the Caelum Ancestral God Rank, so it shouldn't be hard to become a Macrocosm Ancestral God, right?"

Radomir shook his head lightly and said, "You don't understand. Hadad deliberately locked away the universe's luck in Mount Heavenly Path to prevent me from becoming a Macrocosm Ancestral God. He wants to use the universe's fortune to cultivate another Macrocosm Power and become a Macrocosm Ancestral God with two Macrocosm Powers."

James could not completely grasp Radomir's complicated explanation.

Since he could not comprehend anything, he held back his questions and quietly listened to Radomir.

Radomir said, "However, Hadad hasn't come across an opportunity to cultivate a second Macrocosm Power. Despite absorbing the universe's luck, he still failed."

"Huff." Radomir sighed.

"As long as he is alive, it won't be possible for new Macrocosm Ancestral Gods to exist in our universe. Even if one cultivates Macrocosm Power, the Caelum Ancestral God Rank is the uppermost limit of cultivation."

James said, "I see."

"I actually have plans to leave this place," said Radomir.

"You want to leave? Where are you going?" asked James.

Radomir replied, "The Forsaken Land."

"The Forsaken Land?" James gasped.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3553

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3553-James heard about the Forsaken Land before.

During the Apocalypse Age, Melinda had mentioned its name. It was a place outside the Twelfth Universe that connected to other universes.

“However...”

Radomir paused briefly and said, “If I leave, I’m not sure what kind of person Hadad will put in charge of the Heavenly Path. The Heavenly Path is a very important existence, and whoever is in charge could secretly make changes to it. The universe might be thrown into chaos if someone with evil intentions takes over my responsibility.”

Radomir had many thoughts. However, he had never told anyone about them. After meeting James, he felt as if he had found a kindred spirit to confide in, and he began expressing all the worries he kept to himself for many years.

“Since other powerhouses have claimed a portion of the luck in this age, it will be impossible for others to become stronger. Only after a Caelum Ancestral God falls will another be able to rise up.

“If it’s already this difficult to become a Caelum Ancestral God, it’ll be almost impossible for new Macrocosm Ancestral Gods to come about.”

Radomir sported a sorrowful expression.

James was shocked that Radomir had long held such thoughts. Could it be that his concerns laid the groundwork for his future rebellion?

James said calmly, “I don’t think it’s that bad. At least the universe is peaceful, and everyone is co-existing well under the rule of Mount Heavenly Path.”

Radomir immediately scoffed, “What do you know? The peace you see is only on the surface. Do you know about the other eleven universes that exist in the Chaos? All these other universes have more than one Macrocosm Ancestral God. Our universe, the Twelfth Universe, is the weakest among them.

“If the other universes invade us, we won’t be capable of resisting.

“Moreover, there is also the Dark World. Many powerhouses in the depths of the Dark World are Macrocosm Ancestral Gods with multiple Macrocosm Powers. The reason why the Holy Master of Nothingness' Age ended was because the Dark World incited the Dark Strife."

Radomir began to lecture James.

"You're our universe's hope, James."

"When you become a Macrocosm Ancestral God, you'll have at least three Macrocosm Powers at your command. Even powerhouses in the Dark World will fear. You have to consider the wellbeing people of our universe, James. Don't slack off, and keep up the good work.

"As for how you'll cross into the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank, just leave that to me."

James cast a surprised look at Radomir. He was puzzled by Radomir's words.

'He'll sort it out for me? Could Radomir have rebelled against Mount Heavenly Path, killed Hadad, destroyed Mount Heavenly Path, and created countless of Heaven's Adjudicators, not for his own sake but for mine?' thought James.

He was startled by the possibility.

If that were true, that meant he was the reason the Primeval Age fell to ruin and the reason the Human Race attacked the Heavenly Path.

However, James maintained his calm composure.

"Let's not discuss this now. We have to take it one step at a time," said James.

Radomir nodded lightly and said, "Alright. First of all, I'll teach you how to manage the Heavenly Path. After you've familiarized yourself with it, I'll head off for a bit and will leave the responsibility to you. To be honest, I'm relieved that you'll be the one in charge in my absence."

"You're leaving?" James was surprised.

Radomir said softly, "I don't have the chance to become a Macrocosm Ancestral God in the Twelfth Universe. I must go to a different universe and hoard the luck there. I might even have to travel to the Dark World to better my odds. After I become a Macrocosm Ancestral God, I'll return."

From Radomir's words, James knew everything naturally working toward history he was familiar with.

Melinda warned him not to interfere with history.

Thus, he chose not to meddle with anything. Nodding lightly, he said, "Good luck. I wish you all the best and hope you become a Macrocosm Ancestral God soon."

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3554

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3554-From the brief conversation they had, James knew it would not be long before Radomir's revolt.

Radomir had cultivated Macrocosm Power and reached the peak of the Caelum Ancestral God Rank. He was so close to becoming a Macrocosm Ancestral God. If he left the Twelfth Universe and headed to another universe or the Dark World, he could easily achieve his goals.

Once he returned, he would carry out his plan.

Radomir said, "Powerhouses from the Dark World are pressuring Hadad right now. He doesn't have the time to be distracted by other matters. So, I'll be able to leave this universe easily."

"Alright," James replied casually.

After the conversation, Radomir taught James how to manage the Heavenly Path.

The Heavenly Path governed the rules of the universe. Under normal circumstances, no one could interfere with how it operated.

However, Hadad was the Lord of the Universe, and he could control everything in the universe, including the Heavenly Path. He permitted Radomir to manage the Heavenly Path to maintain Mount Heavenly Path's status in the universe.

James quickly became more familiar with the Heavenly Path through Radomir's guidance.

3,000 years passed in the blink of an eye.

James had been learning how to use the Heavenly Path this entire time. He observed everything in the universe and gained insight into major events that would occur in the future.

Although he mastered the basics, he could not change the Heavenly Path's rules due to his insufficient cultivation rank.

All he could do was restrict non-cultivators and decide their life and death.

After mastering the principles of the Heavenly Path, James understood Radomir's concerns.

A powerhouse with wicked intentions could wreak all sorts of havoc after gaining control over the Heavenly Path.

Moreover, this was entirely permitted by Hadad. No matter what kind of evil transpired, Hadad would turn a blind eye to it as long as the foundation of Mount Heavenly Path remained stable.

3,000 years later, Radomir left after leaving James a couple of reminders. After that, James officially took over the responsibility of managing the Heavenly Path.

The first thing he did after taking charge of the Heavenly Path was to investigate Thea.

In the back of Mount Teva, James sat in a lotus position. He casually waved his hand, and a powerful force split open the space before him. Countless words appeared before him.

The words appeared as dense lines that intersected endlessly with each other, and seemed very complicated.

It was the Heavenly Path's operational rules. Through the Heavenly Path, James learned everything about Thea.

After a long time, his brows furrowed, and he murmured, "The traces from the Heavenly Path show that Thea has been seeing a figure in her dreams since she was a child. It seems this person has greatly affected Thea's life?"

James was puzzled.

'Who's the person that keeps appearing in Thea's dreams?'

At that moment, Thea was cultivating in her seclusion sanctuary in the Callahan Residence.

Her shut eyes abruptly opened. A ray of light shone from her eyes. She immediately looked in the direction of Mount Heavenly Path furiously.

"Damn it, James. Right after you take charge of the Heavenly Path, you use it to pry into me?"

Thea immediately left the area and appeared outside Mount Teva. She showed up as James was preoccupied with his thoughts. James immediately stood up in surprise. He looked at her and asked guiltily. "T-Thea! What brings you here?"

Thea gritted her teeth and growled, "Seriously, James?! You used the Heavenly Path to look into me?"

Startled, James stammered, "H-how did you...?"

Thea forced herself to calm down by taking a deep breath. Then, she answered. "I'm a Caelum Ancestral God. I know when someone's trying to pry into my secrets."

"Haha..." James laughed awkwardly.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3555

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3555-Thea reprimanded him. "If there's anything you wanted to know, you could have just asked me. There's no need to secretly investigate me."

James immediately jumped at the opportunity. "Then, who's the person that keeps appearing in your dream?"

Thea's brows furrowed. It was an answer she had always been searching for but never found.

She sighed and said, "I'm not sure either. I've never been able to see his actual appearance."

"Is that so?" James looked at her in disbelief.

Thea warned him. "Stop prying. I won't let you off the hook so easily if you ever do it again."

After speaking, she disappeared from his sight.

James touched his chin and muttered, "A Caelum Ancestral God sure is amazing. Mount Heavenly Path is the Lord of the Universe's territory. Yet, she can come and go as she pleases."

James chuckled. He began to study the Heavenly Path out of sheer boredom.

With the Heavenly Path, he could easily learn about the events happening in every corner of the universe.

He could also discern those who were good and bad throughout the universe.

Moreover, he could change the fate of weaker beings. As long as he made small adjustments to Heaven's Law, their lives would be altered.

However, the Heavenly Path had its own constraints.

Everyone's fate was not predetermined. Although the Heavenly Path could reveal glimpses into one's future, its insight into the future was not absolute.

Even if one was predicted to die at a certain time, there was still a chance for survival.

The Heavenly Path allowed for the slim possibility of an outcome to change.

As James learned more about the Heavenly Path, he discovered how crucial his role was in the universe.

Just being in charge of the Heavenly Path gave him power over people's lives and deaths. He began to wonder how powerful the Lord of the Universe must be.

It was unfathomable how much power Hadad had over the universe.

James casually waved his hand, and the Heaven's Law before him disappeared.

He sat on a cliff and absent mindedly looked at the towering mountains in the distance.

"As long as you're willing, you can control the Heavenly Path forever. You'll sit above countless lives and become one of the most powerful people in the universe," spoke a voice from behind him.

James immediately stood up and turned around.

While he was pondering, a man had silently appeared next to him.

The man looked to be in his 40s. Although not very handsome, he had a very elegant aura.

He wore a gray robe and held his hands behind him. James could not sense any energy from him.

Startled, James clasped his hands together and addressed him respectfully. "Who might you be, Sir?"

The man replied softly, "I'm Hadad Theophanes."

James' expression immediately changed. He quickly showed him more respect. "It's a pleasure to meet you, Lord Hadad."

Hadad lightly waved his hand and said, "We're going to be family soon, so there's no need for formalities. I'm sure Melinda has already informed you of the fact."

“What do you mean?” James answered, pretending to be oblivious.

Hadad said, “You’re a prodigy that will become a cornerstone of Mount Heavenly Path in the future. I have a daughter named Melinda. You’re the only person worthy to marry her throughout the entire universe.”

“Lord Hadad, I...”

James showed a reluctant expression.

Hadad said, “I’m giving you two choices. You either marry my daughter or die.”

After speaking, Hadad vanished from where he stood.

James frowned and wore a solemn expression.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3556

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3556-Hadad appeared and gave James two choices.

He either had to marry Melinda or die.

Hadad was a Macrocosm Ancestral God and the Lord of the Twelfth Universe. He was not one for empty threats. If James were to refuse the marriage with Melinda, he would definitely be killed.

After Hadad left, James began to think. ‘What should I do now?’

The whole situation left James feeling helpless. He traveled to the Primeval Age to find Thea. He never intended to get involved in the Primeval Age’s torrid affairs, nor did he want to involve himself with anyone else here.

He had already broken Sienna’s heart and now, he was forced to get involved with Melinda.

More importantly, he even became Mount Nothingness’ Master, and promised to fulfill the Holy Master of Nothingness’ wishes. All this would definitely pit him against Mount Heavenly Path in the future.

“This has gotten complicated.”

James gently massaged his temples. Then, he cleared his mind and left.

He walked through Mount Teva and saw many disciples. They all treated him with the utmost respect, and there was not a single person he could confide his thoughts to.

Before James knew it, he had arrived outside of Winnie's residence.

Winnie was Hadad's disciple and held a very high status in Mount Heavenly Path. She was only below a few elders. She was also given her own spiritual mountain to cultivate. On the spiritual mountain was a simple manor.

When James arrived outside Winnie's residence, he found her cultivating. Sensing James' presence, she immediately stopped.

"What brings you here?"

Since they were within Mount Heavenly Path, which was Hadad's territory, Winnie did not dare address him with more familiarity.

She was afraid of exposing their relationship if she let slip that he was her father.

James nodded lightly and said, "Hadad came to see me. He gave me two options. I am to either marry Melinda or die."

Winnie's expression immediately became grim.

"It's been a while since I joined Mount Heavenly Path. Although I've only met Hadad a few times, I know a bit about his personality. He is a very shrewd person. You must've shown great potential, so if he can't get you to submit to him, he'll definitely get rid of you. He's trying to tie you to Mount Heavenly Path by marrying you with Melinda."

James nodded. He was well aware of Hadad's intentions.

Winnie looked at James and asked. "What do you plan to do?"

After a brief pause, James replied. "I'm not sure yet. Hadad didn't set a date for the wedding, so I'll take the opportunity to leave Mount Heavenly Path and train outside for some time."

Winnie frowned and said, "You want to train outside? Where are you planning to go? Mount Heavenly Path is the core of this universe. Where can you possibly escape to?"

James said, "I'm not trying to escape. I merely want to train outside of Mount Heavenly Path. I've cultivated several Path Seals. Karma already binds to a number of powerhouses in this age. I have to deal with them one by one."

James already formulated a plan.

First, he would go to Mount Sword God.

The Ancestral Sword Master publicly announced that James was his disciple. Thus, he did not want to miss the opportunity to improve his swordsmanship at Mount Sword God. He wanted to thoroughly comprehend the Ancestral Sword God's techniques.

With the guidance of the Ancestral Sword Master, his swordsmanship would definitely improve tremendously. After that, he planned to visit the Ancestral Talisman Master to study Curse Inscriptions.

Recommended Novels