The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3557-His next plan was to meet the Five Ancestral Masters to learn more about the Five Elements of Genesis.

After that, he would go to see the Ancestral Needle Master.

The Ancestral Needle Master's legendary treasure was Crucifier. James also obtained its counterpart, Exalter. However, he knew very little about the details behind Exalter. Moreover, James also possessed the Infinity Steles. In the past, his cultivation rank was very low, and he could only learn very basic things that Sophie taught him.

Now that his cultivation rank was much higher and he could understand Karma Scripts, it would be easy to understand the inscriptions on the Infinity Steles.

Winnie fell silent. After considering the situation for a bit, she reminded him, "As long as you have a plan, I'm sure it'll work out. Remember to always think twice before you act. We're in the Primeval Age now, and surrounded by many strong people."

She had no clue why she had been sent to the Primeval Age.

However, she was aware that it was best that she proceeded carefully. Otherwise, their lives could be in danger.

James replied, "I know. You should also be careful while in Mount Heavenly Path."

"Hey, James."

Suddenly, a pleasant voice called out to him. Then, a beautiful and gracious woman wearing a pink dress walked over.

"I couldn't find you on Mount Teva so I knew you'd probably be here."

Melinda approached with a bright smile. "I presume you've met with my father and he's told you about the marriage, right?"

James looked at her, nodded lightly, and said, "Yeah. He came and threatened me to marry you, or else he'd have me killed."

Melinda smiled slyly. "Well, I'm sure you don't want to die yet. You have nothing to lose by marrying me. I'm sure there's no one superior to me in beauty and wisdom in this universe."

Melinda was very confident that her beauty, wisdom, talent, and background was one of the best in the universe.

Many powerhouses existed in the Primeval Age. None of them caught Hadad's eye though. However, James managed to impress the Lord of the Universe. Hadad was even willing to offer his daughter's hand in marriage to win over James.

James said, "I'm planning to leave Mount Heavenly Path for a while."

Surprised, Melinda asked. "Huh? You're leaving? Where to?"

James answered earnestly. "You're Mount Heavenly Path's Princess. You command so much respect and power. How am I worthy of marrying you as I am right now? If I don't become an Ancestral God, how can I be worthy of calling myself your husband?"

For now, James wanted to delay the marriage as much as possible.

"You want to become an Ancestral God? That won't take long."

Melinda linked her arms with James and beamed charmingly. "With your talent and potential, novelebook.com I'm sure it won't take long before you become an Ancestral God. Let's go see my father and explain the entire situation to him. Then, we'll leave Mount Heavenly Path and journey to train together."

James nodded. "Alright, let's go."

Melinda did not speak any further. She led James away and left Winnie's residence.

Winnie watched the two leave with a tense expression.

In their original history, James never existed in the Primeval Age.

Thus, everything happening now was abnormal.

With James' talent and potential, he could surpass the Ancestral Sword Master and the other powerhouses of this age.

However, there were no records mentioning James in the history she investigated in their original timeline.

Winnie's expression became grim as she considered the possibility that there was more to the Primeval Age's history than she originally knew about.

However, she had no idea what kinds of events had been wiped from the historical records.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3558-Melinda left Winnie's spiritual mountain with James and headed toward Mount Hadad.

Mount Hadad was the residential area of Hadad, the Lord of the Universe.

It was a restricted area of Mount Heavenly Path. Without permission, no one was allowed to step foot there.

However, Melinda was Hadad's daughter and as such, was permitted to enter the area as she pleased.

Mount Hadad was over a hundred thousand meters tall.

James immediately sensed an extraordinary power as they neared the mountain. He could feel the universe's luck that was sealed within the mountain.

If a regular person were to enter this area, he could obtain a small amount of good fortune and become a great powerhouse.

Luck was invisible and intangible.

As Mount Nothingness' Master, James could sense the luck in the area.

James exclaimed in awe. "Impressive."

Standing beside him, Melinda said, "Of course. This is where my father resides. He's the Lord of the Universe and controls the cosmos. The luck of the universe is gathered in this place. Living beings that come here will be blessed after breathing the air here. As soon as they leave, they would encounter countless opportunities and boons."

Melinda was not exaggerating. James could also sense it.

Soon, the two reached the mountaintop. A grand building perched at its peak..

Within the main hall of the building, countless beautiful women were dancing to music.

The women had gorgeous faces and attractive figures. Each of them was outstandingly captivating.

A man sat in the highest seat, propping his head on his hand. Even with alluring women dancing in front of him, novelebook.com he did not seem to enjoy their performance. He had a solemn look while seeming deep in thought.

Melinda brought James into the main hall. Upon seeing her, the dancers immediately left.

She called out to him, "Greetings, Father."

Hadad snapped back to reality. He looked at Melinda and said casually, "What brings you here?"

Melinda said, "I plan to leave Mount Heavenly Path together with James to train elsewhere. James mentioned feeling unworthy of my hand in marriage because he's not an Ancestral God. Thus, he is planning to go train outside. Only after he becomes an Ancestral God will he marry me."

Melinda explained the reason for their visit.

Hadad was not concerned with James. Although James had shown great potential, his main worry was to locate the Dark Wellspring and to resist Dark Night Lord's assault.

He gently waved his hand and said, "Go ahead."

"Alright." Melinda nodded and led James out of the hall.

James remained silent throughout the entire affair. Faced with the Lord of the Universe, he was unsure of what to say.

After leaving the main hall, James asked. "Can we really just leave? Radomir isn't around and temporarily left Mount Teva in my hands. Who will manage the Heavenly Path if I leave?"

Although Melinda had never come in contact with the Heavenly Path, she still knew a lot about it.

Melinda replied, "You don't have to continuously manage the Heavenly Path. It can still run on its own. Every living being's decision will alter the Heavenly Path's operation. However, these changes would still be within the scope of the Heavenly Path's allowed parameters.

"Unless it's a very powerful cultivator, it's impossible to forcefully make significant changes to the Heavenly Path's functions.

"Even Radomir, who is in charge of managing the Heavenly Path, doesn't have the right to change its rules. He can only use the existing rules to better assist my father in managing the universe."

James nodded lightly. "Okay."

Melinda's words made a lot of sense.

Each Elysian character had numerous variations. In a similar vein, the Heavenly Path demonstrated an ability to change its outcome according to the circumstances of each living being in the universe.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3559-Every living being's decision and action was an important factor that would affect the Heavenly Path's functionality.

Ordinary people are not able to interfere with the Heavenly Path and alter the destiny influenced by their actions. Only exceptional powerhouses can forcibly change the Law of Heaven. However, these powerhouses would never choose to do so because it would throw off the balance of heaven and earth.

Melinda and James departed together.

Outside Mount Heavenly Path, Melinda asked. "Where do we go next?"

He paused for a moment before replying. "Let's head to Mount Sword God first."

James wanted to attend the Ancestral Sword Master's lecture that happened some time ago. However, he encountered an unexpected situation and he had to leave Mount Sword God. Before leaving, the Ancestral Sword Master had publicly announced that James was a disciple of Mount Sword God.

Thus, James wanted to seize the opportunity to ask the Ancestral Sword Master for some guidance.

Melinda said cheerily, "Sure. The Ancestral Sword Master has been very well-known throughout the years. When my father was still inexperienced, the Ancestral Sword Master had already become a Caelum Ancestral God. I've always admired him, but never had the chance to meet him. This is the perfect opportunity to finally meet him face-to-face."

Melinda was excited that James was going to Mount Sword God.

However, James was slightly upset by the situation. Hadad had full control over James' life and he did not feel good about having his circumstances dictated by others.

"Let's go," said James.

After that, they advanced toward Mount Sword God.

James did not use the Time Path's Power to create a Spatial Tear to travel directly to Mount Sword God. Instead, he chose to travel there slowly.

Along the way, he made a few stops to feel the different Paths of the universe.

He experienced the culture of different races as well.

Mount Sword God was not very far, but it took him 300 years to arrive there.

As soon as he arrived at the foot of Mount Sword God, James' Sword Path Seal activated and Sword Energy emerged from it. The Sword Energy flowed through his body.

The power of James' Sword Path came from the same energy on Mount Sword God. Thus, his Sword Path Seal resonated enthusiastically with the energy from the mountain.

A few disciples stood on guard outside Mount Sword God.

Seeing James, the disciples of Mount Sword God immediately approached and said respectfully, "Mr. Caden. Our Master has already informed us to allow you up Mount Divine Sword to see him when you arrive."

"Alright." James nodded lightly in response.

He knew the Master the disciples spoke of was the Ancestral Sword God, one of the most powerful cultivators in the universe.

James and Melinda ascended Mount Sword God effortlessly.

Within Mount Sword God was powerful Sword Intent.novelebook.com Potent Sword Energy also gathered in the clouds above in the sky.

Mount Sword God was the perfect place for Sword Cultivators to hone their skills.

It was the best cultivation spot that every Sword Cultivator dreamed of entering.

Cultivating on Mount Sword God would double the result of their effort.

"As expected from Mount Sword God."

Melinda sensed the powerful Sword Energy around her and gasped in wonder, saying, "Mount Heavenly Path is where all the universe's luck is, whereas Mount Sword God is where the universe's Sword Energy has gathered. If the Ancestral Sword Master can manipulate all of this Sword Energy and Sword Intent, even my father would not stand a chance against him."

Melinda highly commended the Ancestral Sword Master. Although her cultivation rank was not very high, she was the Princess of Mount Heavenly Path and was very knowledgeable.

She was still able to tell that much.

James was unaware of how strong a Macrocosm Ancestral God was, nor did he know the extent of strength that a Caelum Ancestral God wielded. However, he could sense the terrifying Sword Energy and Sword Intent on Mount Sword God.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3560-Mount Divine Sword was the primary mountain of Mount Sword God.

It was the Ancestral Sword Master's seclusion sanctuary and where he lived.

There were also disciples on Mount Divine Sword, but only a few. The disciples that could live on Mount Divine Sword were the inner disciples of the Ancestral Sword Master. All of them were highly skilled Sword Cultivators.

James arrived at the foot of Mount Divine Sword undeterred.

From the bottom, Mount Divine Sword looked like a sharp blade enveloped with abundant Sword Energy.

As soon as James arrived, he sensed the terrifying power of the Sword Path.

Amazed, James exclaimed. "Mount Divine Sword is amazing!"

Swoosh!

Suddenly, a figure appeared before them.

It was a plainly-dressed man with a long sword strapped on his back.

After the man appeared, he clasped his hands and said, "I've been waiting for you, James."

Surprised, James asked. "Who might you be?"

The man replied, "I'm Daereth Jones, a disciple of the Ancestral Sword Master. "

James immediately cupped his hands into fists and said, "It's a pleasure to meet you, Mr. Jones."

Daereth lightly waved his hand and said, "Don't need to be so stiff, just call me by my name. Master knew you would be coming to Mount Divine Sword. However, you must display your swordsmanship before ascending the mountain."

"Huh?" Surprised, James asked, "Does that mean I must defeat you before I can go up the mountain?"

Daereth shook his head lightly and said, "That's not it. Master has been secretly watching your battles with the powerhouses on Mount Heavenly Path's Martial Ranking and has a brief understanding of your skills. However, he doesn't know the essence of swordsmanship you possess."

"Master has called upon five disciples from Mount Divine Sword. novelebook.com You'll have to fight each of them using each of the Five Stages of the Ancestral Sword Master's Swordsmanship. After five rounds, you can head up the mountain."

James immediately understood and asked. "The Ancestral Sword Master wants to evaluate my comprehension of the Sword Path, right?"

Daereth nodded and said, "Yes, you can think of it that way. Alright, make your move."

After speaking, Daereth unsheathed his sword.

It was a wooden sword without sharp edges nor did it have a gleaming blade.

However, the sword immediately transformed as soon as Daereth wielded it. From a wooden sword, it became a flashy iron sword with bright Sword Energy circling it.

Daereth's aura also changed. At that moment, he was almost like a sharp blade that had just been unsheathed.

With a thought, James summoned the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword.

A purple light flew out and landed in his hand to form a long purple sword.

James' aura also increased after grasping the sword.

"It's your move, James. You can only use the First Swordsmanship against me," said Daereth.

"Alright." James did not hesitate and immediately lunged toward him.

He pointed his sword forward and dashed at Daereth.

James did not use a fancy skill or complicated Sword Move. He attacked using a seemingly-ordinary move. However, it contained countless exquisite Sword Moves.

The technique was formed by integrating many different Sword Moves into one.

Daereth stood firmly in place as the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword closed in on him.

The Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword drew closer, and he immediately saw the countless Sword Moves integrated into the attack.

Soon, the sword was inches away from him. At the last second, he raised his sword and parried the attack.

Boom!

Substantial Sword Energies exploded out from the two swords.

Powerful force swept the surroundings. Fortunately, they were within Mount Divine Sword. Thus, James' strength was not enough to level the place. The power created by the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword disappeared into the surroundings.
